Haskell County History

20 Years Ago—Aug. 29, 1916

Contract is to be awarded Saturday for a new two-room school building in the Hutto district in northwest Haskell County. Bonds for the new building were voted some time ago. Cliff Berry, who is now installing the fixtures for his new drug store in the Tonkawa Hotel Building, announces that the store will be open for business about the middle of next week. Mr. and Mrs. Mike B. Watson and son Jack Wallace were in Alpine last week where they visited another son, Hubert, who has been attending school at that place preparatory to the study of law. Haskell, Rule and Rochester received the first bales of 1935 cotton this week. Herman Zahn, who lives north of Haskell, brought this city's first bale. Johnnie Williams had Rochester's first bale, and A. O. Smith of Jud brought in the first bale at Rule. R. A. Crowell, who has operated a jewelry store here for the past three years, has announced plans to move to Abilene next week where he will be manager of Kilgore Jewelry Store in that city. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kimbrough and daughter spent the weekend here with their mother, Mrs. W. A. Kimbrough and family. Ermine Daugherty accompanied her aunt, Mrs. J. R. Cooper, to her home in Streetman the first of the week. Mrs. Cooper has been here for the past few months, visiting in the Daugherty home. Dr. and Mrs. Gaines Post are here visiting relatives and friends for a few days. Dr. Post has been in Austin the past six weeks where he delivered a lecture course at the University of Texas. Dr. and Mrs. Post will leave next week for Madison, Wis., where he is professor of medieval history in the University of Wisconsin. Misses Martha Pace and Ola Frazier have returned from a week's visit in Fort Worth. Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Williamson have returned from a few days visit with friends and relatives at Alford.

30 Years Ago—Sept. 4, 1905

The new lumber yard established here by H. H. Hardin of Fort Worth opened for business Monday, August 31. The yard is now using the shed and office buildings of the old Guest Lumber Yard north of the square. L. J. Isham is manager of the new lumber concern. Sheriff J. C. Turnbow returned Monday from Marlow, Okla., where an automobile belonging to Pearl Crouch of this city was recovered. The machine was stolen here last year. Sheriff Turnbow brought back a man who had possession of the car when it was recovered. Supt. H. D. Neff has announced that Haskell Public Schools will begin the new term Monday, August 31. Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Golden of Bomarton spent the week end with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Ratliff. W. E. Bland of the Center Point community is going around with a smile on his face from car to car. He was the first in that community to get out a bale of cotton, and the second in Haskell. He shipped his cotton to the Farm Bureau. Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Roberts of El Paso, who are visiting the Couch families and with Mrs. J. A. Couch, Sr., were guests in the Dan Couch home in Aspermont several days this week. Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Patterson had the pleasure of a visit from his mother, Mrs. G. D. Patterson; a sister, Miss Mary Patterson; and a brother, Claud Patterson of Taylor a few days this week. Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Cunningham of Houston were here several days this week visiting in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hudson and with Mrs. Cunningham's sister, Mrs. R. J. Reynolds and family. The Houston couple was returning home from a summer's stay in California. John L. McCollum, son of Mr.

and Mrs. N. I. McCollum is here to spend several days with his parents and sisters. He attended the summer term of Texas A&M College.

Dr. and Mrs. A. B. Pumphrey have gone to Nashville, Tenn., where Dr. Pumphrey will continue the study of medicine at Vanderbilt University.

50 Years Ago—Sept. 2, 1905

Miss Lydia Stuart, who has a position with the telephone company at Stamford, visited her parents this week.

A. J. Brown, who lives about five miles south of town brought in a bale of cotton Wednesday, the first bale from the new crop received here. He was closely followed by John Lamkin with the second bale. Both bales were ginned out Thursday morning at Earnest & Sanders Gin. Brown's bale weighed 661 pounds and Lamkin's 545 pounds. Both sold at 10 1-2 cents. There is a bunch of millet on exhibition at the Farmers National Bank, grown by County Commissioner H. C. Cousins. The millet is more than six feet in height, and shows what Haskell County dirt will do under favorable conditions.

The one and only Molly Bailey Show performed in Haskell Wednesday night under a full tent. A. A. Simmons of the Marcy neighborhood was in town Tuesday and said that cotton in his section seemed to be doing better the last week. He says it is reviving from the hot weather and putting on young bolls. Ross Hemphill, who was in town Wednesday, informed us that he had two bales of cotton open and that all the early cotton was opening rapidly. H. C. Wyche, who recently moved here from McLennan County, has contracted to build a residence for John R. Robertson. Mr. Wyche is a building contractor and says he believes that there will be considerable building done here within the next few years. He looks for something of a boom in both residential and business building construction. P. G. Yoe has been employed by Haskell business men as nightwatchman during the fall winter. Prof. L. T. Cunningham has been employed as principal of the Stamford school and has moved down preparatory to taking charge when school begins. We understand that Mrs. Cunningham will be a teacher in the Stamford school system. Mrs. F. M. Morton left the first of the week to visit her brother in Austin, who is on the faculty of the University of Texas.

Initial work on the expansion was started several weeks ago, when the area was canvassed and applications taken for telephone installations. About 160 applications were secured, company officials said. Engineers now are planning the project to determine material and equipment needed.

Mail Boxes Prove Costly Targets, Youths Learn

Road signs and rural mail boxes make tempting targets so long as you can get away with taking a pot shot at them or yanking a sign or mailbox off its support.

Getting caught is a different story, a certain group of youths have learned, after they were compelled to purchase and install several new mail boxes on the rural mail route extending into the southeast part of the county.

Depredations of the youths one night recently was reported to the Sheriff's department, after several mail boxes and road signs had been damaged. Then, as a result of investigations by Sheriff Bill

Progress Made in Developing New Grasses, Legumes

The University of Texas Plant Research Institute is making progress in its attempt to produce new and better Southwestern grasses and legumes, Drs. Walter V. Brown and W. G. Whaley announced.

Plants of side-oats grama show promise of producing a strain that grows well in winter or even year-round. The researchers said experiments give hope for evolving a drought resistant hairy grama that will grow in underdeveloped soils on limestone hills. Other grama crosses may produce late flowering strains that maintain a higher protein content through the summer, reproduce more efficiently and provide more seed.

The strains of curly mesquite grass with 80 per cent fertility have been found in Southern Arizona and are under investigation. Sterility has been a big drawback in collecting seed necessary for experiments with curly mesquite that grows in Texas less arid regions. The scientists also are developing a curly mesquite hybrid with increased foliage.

Studies of needle grass, a South and Central Texas forage, may result in isolation of types that will grow elsewhere in the state. Other research indicates good possibilities for evolving a bristlegrass that remains green well into summer. Bristlegrass is found mostly in hot, dry parts of the Southwest.

The Institute reports some success in developing hybrids of lespedeza, a popular Southwestern legume. Many other grasses are being grown and studied under controlled conditions.

Pennington and Stamford officers identify the boys learned

After admitting their guilt, the boys agreed to replace some of the mail boxes with new ones, and to make good other damages. Officers pointed out that if the matter was turned over to post office authorities, the boys might suffer serious consequences.

None of the youths involved lived in Haskell or vicinity, officers said.

Silage Fills Bill For Livestock Raisers

Next to pasture, silage is the cheapest source of succulent feed for livestock, says C. H. Bates, extension farm management specialist.

And it's filling the bill for many Texas producers.

"No other method of storing forage is as economical as the unlined trench type silo," says Bates. Recent studies indicate that such a silo of 20-ton capacity can be constructed and maintained for 93 cents for each ton of material ensiled.

Silage, Bates continues, provides an excellent source of vitamins and minerals essential to maintenance and growth of livestock. Chances of loss from rodents, fire or weather is negligible and are other silage advantages.

It may be put up in seasons not suited to hay production. And it can be "self-fed," eliminating practically all labor costs in feeding.

Specialized equipment, however, is required for an efficient harvest and silo-filling operation. Field cutters for chopping the material from row or broadcast stands usually are available to farmers on a custom job basis at costs of about $1 an acre.

A sizable labor crew also is needed for harvest silage, but Bates says many farmers work out this problem with a labor and equipment exchange agreement with neighbors.

New Law Prohibits Flasks at School Sports Events

Sports fans who sometimes feel that they must fortify themselves with a flask when attending games may be embarrassed as the result of new laws passed by the last Legislature.

One of the new laws makes it a misdemeanor for anyone to carry liquor to a football game or other sporting event sponsored by a public school. Text of the statute follows:

Intoxicating Beverages — Athletic Events of Public Schools, (Vernon's P. C. Art. 666-25b.)

Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to bring or carry into any enclosure, field or stadium, where athletic events, sponsored or participated in by the public schools of this State, are being held, any intoxicating beverage in his possession while in or on said enclosure, field or stadium.

Sec. 2. If any officer of this State sees any person or persons violating the terms of Section 1 of this Act, he shall immediately seize such intoxicating beverage and shall within a reasonable time thereafter deliver to the County or District Attorney who shall hold same as evidence until the trial of the accused party and shall thereafter dispose of same.

Sec. 3. Any person or persons violating the provisions of this Act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined any sum not less than Twenty-five ($25) Dollars and not more than Two Hundred ($200) Dollars.

Buildings Throughout Business Section To Be Checked for Fire Hazards

Haskell will be the 51st Texas city to put the blitz on potential fire hazards when a group of trained "fire detectives" inspect the community during September.

The anti-fire examination, to be conducted here Thursday, Sept. 29, will include a check of all mercantile buildings, schools and churches within the city limits. Nearby Stamford will be inspected the previous day.

In their eighth consecutive year of town inspecting, the volunteer inspectors are known in their workday jobs as special agents for capital stock fire insurance companies. The forty inspectors coming to Haskell are members of the West Texas Division of the Texas Insurance Fieldmen's Association.

"Fire hazard inspectors are not a new idea," Hugh P. Herbert of Lubbock, president of the division, assures. "The plan was started nationally even before 1900 but the first Texas town inspection was held in Gatesville during 1948."

Since then, a steady stream of towns have taken advantage of this public service project of the West Texas Fieldmen's Association. Such towns as Littlefield, San Angelo, Lamesa, Brownfield, Childress, Brady, Hereford, Dalhart, Midland and Plainview already have been inspected.

The Texas town inspection program began at a state-wide Fieldmen's Association meeting eight years ago. These men, who already had more than an average interest in fire prevention, decided to do something about the continually rising toll of death and destruction from fire in Texas.

Their plan was unanimously accepted by each of the five divisions of the Fieldmen's Association in the state. All of the more than 500 members of the organization took training courses in fire hazard detection, the causes of fire and how to prevent it.

Then they made themselves available to Texas communities, as a public service without charge or obligation. Interest and demand for their services was even more than they had expected. Scores of Texas towns began to realize that the inspection might change their fire rating from a debit to a credit. Today, ten such inspections are held over Texas each year.

Haskell Fire Chief Ray Lusk puts it this way: "Haskell's inspection is just another step in Texas' march against fire."

Club Girl's Record Book Readied for National Judging

Ives June Casey has just completed the reorganization of her dairy food 4-H club record. Her record will represent Haskell County, District III, and the state of Texas at the National 4-H Club Congress in November.

Ives June is the daughter of Mrs. Nona Casey and is a Junior in Rule high school.

She has served as a 4-H club member for six years and has completed 11 different projects. She has held all club offices, is a member of the county 4-H council, is the county delegate to the district council. She has served on numerous club, county and district committees and is a junior leader.

Dairy foods projects have been part of her 4-H club work all six years. She has prepared and served dairy foods as beverages, main dishes, sauces, dressings, salads and desserts. She has given dairy food demonstrations to 4-H clubs, home demonstration clubs, contests, civic organizations and on television. She has entered dairy food contests the part of two years. In 1954 she was the county winner and placed second in the district. This year, she was the county, district, and state winner. Her demonstration award is a 19 jewel watch from the Carnation Milk Company. Her dairy food record was also high scoring record in the state, and was selected for the National judging.

Modern Way Food Store Announces Double Celebration

Marking the completion of extensive remodeling of their building and the installation of new display cases and fixtures, along with their eighth anniversary in Haskell, Modern Way Food Store is announcing a "double celebration" this week.

Interior of the large store presents an all-new appearance with the addition of new fixtures and the latest type of mechanically cooled display cases for fresh produce, dairy products, packaged meats and frozen foods.

Mr. and Mrs. Morrell Dick, owners and proprietors of the establishment, said: "We have enjoyed a substantial and profitable patronage during the years we have been in Haskell, and we are proud to announce the complete modernization of our store."

The store is featuring a number of special prices in connection with the formal opening of the remodeled concern, and invite the people of Haskell and trade territory to visit the store this weekend. As a special treat, ice cream will be served free all day Friday and Saturday.

Extensive improvements to the building, which is owned by W. I. (Scott) Coggins, include the installation of a new ceiling of fiberglass composition which has also been lowered to permit better year round temperature control, and repainting of the building both inside and out.

A similar remodeling project has been completed in the adjoining section of the building occupied by Western Auto Associate Store.

Doves Plentiful As Season Opens Today

Reports indicate that the mourning dove season—first phase of the fall wildlife harvest—will be favorable, according to the executive secretary of the Game and Fish Commission.

He said a field survey of the north zone, which opens for mourning doves today, Sept. 1, shows that there is a good supply of birds and that food and water conditions are fair to good.

The north zone season runs from noon on Sept. 1 to sunset on Oct. 15. The south zone season is from noon on Oct. 15 until sunset Nov. 28.

Changes this year include a five-day extension to a forty-five-day season and a two weeks delay in the south zone opener.

Bag limits and shooting hours, and other basic regulations are the same, said the executive secretary. Shooting will be confined to afternoon hours only and the limits are ten per day and ten in possession.

The north zone area comprises about three-fourths of Texas, comprising as it does all the territory running diagonally across the state in a rough line from Maverick county on the Mexican border to Sabine on the Louisiana border.

The executive secretary said pre-season population reports presage a standout shoot. He added, however, that dove numbers are unpredictable and that the birds frequently shift their residences abruptly.

"We have a fine weed seed crop," he explained, "and water is plentiful in many areas."

The executive secretary suggested hunters should follow safety rules closely because of the anticipated influx of gunners in the field and that they should always obtain permission from landowners before entering the latter's property to hunt. He added that the state's Game Warden force is available to inform hunters.

Merger of General Telephone, Gary Company Planned

The board of directors of both General Telephone Corporation and the Theodore Gary and Company have approved a plan under which Theodore Gary and Company would merge with General Telephone Corp., according to word received at San Angelo by W. G. Wright, president of General Telephone Company of the Southwest.

Haskell exchange is owned and operated by the General Telephone Company of the Southwest.

Stockholder meetings of both companies will be held on Sept. 29 to vote on the action of the respective boards.

General Telephone Corp. is now the largest system of independent (non-Bell) telephone companies in the nation with nearly 2 million telephones. The Gary Co., another major holding company in the independent field, has a total of 500,000 telephones as well as a manufacturing subsidiary, Automatic Electric Co., originators of the dial telephone and the second largest telephone manufacturing company in the country.

General companies operate in 21 states, the Gary company in 18. The new system, provided the merger goes through, would operate 2.1-2.2 million telephones, or a third of the county's non-Bell system telephones, in 31 states.

Both systems have subsidiaries in Texas and Oklahoma. General Telephone Co. of the Southwest, with 175,000 telephones in 232 exchanges in Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Louisiana and Arkansas, has its general offices in San Angelo. The Texas Telephone Co., the Gary subsidiary, operates out of Sherman with over 30,000 telephones through 19 exchanges. The Oklahoma Telephone Co. with headquarters at Broken Arrow is also a part of the Gary group and operates about 3,000 telephones in 8 exchanges in Sherman, Denton, Garland

Wallace Kimbrough, Brazos County Agent, Given Recognition for Work

College Station, Sept. 1 (Spl.)—Wallace M. Kimbrough, county agricultural agent in Brazos County since January 1945, today was listed among the six Texans who are to receive the National County Agricultural Agents Association's Distinguished Service Award for 1955. The Texas Association made the nomination, and the announcement was made by Orange County Agent A. J. McKenzie, chairman, State Selection Committee.

WALLACE KIMBROUGH

Kimbrough is a brother of Dr. Ernest Kimbrough, John Kimbrough, and Mrs. Hugh Ratliff, all of Haskell.

The annual awards are made to county agents, who over a period of years, have made outstanding contributions to agriculture. Kimbrough will receive the award during the national association's annual meeting to be held in Michigan State College, East Lansing, Sept. 10-15. He plans to attend.

Kimbrough's record of achievements as an Extension Service employee dates back to September 1940 when he was named assistant county agent in Anderson County. His chief responsibility here was boys 4-H club work. He organized 25 clubs with a total membership of 700. One of the first projects undertaken was a program which proved the value of Derris or cube powder for cattle grub control. This effort was in cooperation with Dr. E. W. Laake of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine. The procedure developed was sent to all parts of the nation.

In March 1942 Kimbrough was transferred to Garza County as acting county agent and moved from there to his present assignment in Brazos County. In Garza county, he worked on soil and water conservation, cotton, range improvement and irrigation programs. He didn't forget 4-H club work and several boys who did their first 4-H work under his supervision later became state and national champions.

His leadership in Brazos County has developed one of the state's outstanding 4-H programs, especially in training boys in judging activities. The state winning 4-H dairy cattle judging teams in 1949, 1953 and 1955 came from Brazos County. The 1949 and '53 teams both ranked third in national contests and the '55 team will vie for national honors at Waterloo, Iowa, later in the fall.

Brazos County 4-H livestock teams took state honors in 1952 and 1954 and the '54 team won second in the national contest at Chicago. A member of the 1952 team was high individual in sheep judging in the national contest and was awarded a $300 scholarship which he used at Texas A&M College.

Poultry judging teams from the county have been coached by a local 4-H leader under arrangements made by Kimbrough. In 1952 the poultry team was second in the state contest; third in 1953; second in 1954 and first in 1955. This team will compete in the national contest in November.

Working with Walter Britten, a well-known auctioneer, the voc-ag teacher and chamber of commerce, one of the state's outstanding county fryer shows has been developed. The experts classify the quality in this dressed show as tops. Some 400 boys are enrolled in the 12 clubs of the county.

Kimbrough played a leading part in promoting the cage system for handling laying flocks and went to Alabama and Florida to get information on the system. Some 60,000 hens are handled in cage operations in the county and more are going in. An egg grading program is operating with some 400 cases of eggs being handled by the grading stations each week.

The award winner had a part in developing the Brazos-Robertson Soil Conservation District; works with the local cooperatives; gives every possible assist-

Farm Bureau Offers Many Advantages To Members

Farm Bureau offers many advantages to its members, and the strong farm organization has been instrumental in securing many benefits for agriculture, declares S. M. Royall, president of the Haskell County Farm Bureau.

A series of community meetings is being held in the county this week to discuss Farm Bureau and its aims, and to consider resolutions to be recommended to the County unit in October.

Royall said some of the advantages afforded Farm Bureau members included: Opportunity to be heard and recognized through organization. Participation in state and national Farm Bureau programs. Participation in services for members only in services with dividends for members only. Also, he stressed community meetings and special events for county and community Farm Bureaus.

Listing two of the many accomplishments of Farm Bureau, Royall said that in 1936 the Farm Bureau worked on the REA Bill and was primarily responsible for the first $100,000,000 loan authorization. In 1938, Farm Bureau was instrumental in securing passage of the Commodity Credit Loan Program to guarantee "Parity Income."

ance to the dairymen of the county, there are now about 90 grade A dairies, and helped organize a farm organization and the County Farm and Ranch Club. He is a strong booster for the local American Legion Fair; the Fish and Game Protective Association and never passes up an opportunity to work with those who are striving to improve agriculture and rural living in the county. He is giving assistance at the present to developing a county young family group.

Kimbrough is a native of Haskell and a graduate of Texas A&M College. He is a member of the Methodist Church and is active in many civic and county affairs. His wife is the former Frances James of Bryan and they have one child, a daughter, Frances.

Haskell Woman at New York Convention When Hurricane "Connie" Hit in Area

Mrs. S. W. Flournoy of this city has just returned from New York City and Washington, D. C., where she attended the national convention of the Dokeys and Nomads, which is the "Playground of the Knights of Pythias."

Mrs. Flournoy was in New York when hurricane "Connie" struck there accompanied by record rains of almost cloudburst proportions.

The Haskell woman was a member of the drill team from the Wichita Falls lodge which won sixth place in the nation. First place went to Hamilton, Canada, while Houston, Texas, drill team took second place. A Texas woman, Trudy Sink of Houston, headed the women's division of the national convention.

"On the day the hurricane hit New York City the hotel where we were staying put out storm warnings to all guests," Mrs. Flournoy related. "It hit about 3 a. m. Friday. I had the windows in my room almost down, but the wind became so strong that I closed all the windows completely. Some of the windows in the hotel were broken out, and they said the building even swayed a little in the high winds. But I was too busy putting down windows to detect it if the building was moving," she declared.

Mrs. Flournoy and Mrs. Gene Mincke of St. Louis, Mo., were special guests at the radio-TV programs "Two for the Money," "Beat the Clock," "What's My Line," and "Ethel and Albert Show."

Mrs. Flournoy was sitting by the little shoemaker on the $64,000 question in the quiz show when he was presented the $32,000 check he won, and the Haskell woman commented that he had a very beautiful daughter. Mrs. Flournoy also attended the TV radio show, "I Have a Secret."

"It rained four days while we were in New York City," Mrs. Flournoy said. "The downpour was of such proportions that operation of subway cars was stopped. However, the weatherman was nice enough to stop the rain long enough for us to parade down Broadway for 13 blocks."

Going from New York to Washington, D. C., Mrs. Flournoy said that when the trippers reached that city they found all windows downtown taped up to keep them from breaking. "We saw the national capitol, and the White House. President Eisenhower was leaving for Colorado to go fishing and they were going to close the White House the next day for repairs," she stated. "By the time we left Washington it was raining again. All through Virginia the rivers were at flood stage," she commented. Mrs. Flournoy said the Wichita Falls delegation was fortunate in returning home when they did. "If we had been a day later, we more than likely would have been delayed for several days by the floods which struck the areas through which we had just traveled," she said.

Local Model Club Pedges Aid to National Group

Members of the Texas Model Club voted unanimously at a supper meeting Sunday, Aug. 28, to assist the National Aeronautic Association and the Junior Chamber of Commerce in carrying out their Aviators Incentive Movement, or AIM.

These two organizations, believing that the future of this country lies in the air and knowing that even today a shortage of trained aeronautical personnel exists, originated AIM with a number one objective of introducing aviation to young boys and girls. To do this, they plan to sponsor a series of model contests, to assist schools in establishing aviation laboratories, and to provide college scholarships for those who desire aviation training.

The Model Club plans to include a series of informed classes with each regular meeting—with all boys and girls invited. In addition, any member may be contacted for assistance in building a model plane. An air show to be presented at the local baseball field is also being planned to demonstrate some of the many types of planes that are being built.

The next meeting is to be held Sept. 11th at 2 p. m. at 1205 N. Ave. H. A cordial welcome is extended to all visitors.

Paint Creek . . . Community News

MRS. GENE OVERTON

School started Monday at Paint Creek and there was a large group of new students. Not counting the first grade, but there were several new pupils who have moved into the community since last year, and several transfers. School began with assembly in the auditorium where Jean Griffith led the student body in singing two songs, and Rev. Eubanks gave the invocation. Supt. Dan McRae made all the announcements concerning schedules, and bus rules, and plans for the year and then introduced the faculty members. The only new faculty member is Miss Clements who will teach Homemaking. She lives on the campus in the little house next to Mr. and Mrs. McRae. Books were issued and schedules given and school started in earnest Tuesday morning.

The faculty is composed of Supt. McRae, J. C. O'Neal, Pat Morrison, A. P. Williams, Miss Bess Smithley, Mrs. Ella Hoffin, Mrs. W. C. Taylor, Mrs. Irene Ballard, Mrs. J. M. Owens, Willie Lee Medford, and Miss Magdalen Clements.

Lunch room personnel are Mrs. Vernay Howard, Mrs. Bill Hager and Mrs. Mack Earles. Bus drivers are Mr. Morrison, Mr. Williams, Mack Earles and Mrs. Hager. School custodian is Mack Earles. We're expecting a wonderful school year.

The family of the late Mr. and Mrs. Bob Livenood had a reunion at the home of one of the daughters, Mrs. Grady Adcock, Rev. Adcock and their children, Linda, Judy and Stanley at Crowwell where Rev. Adcock is pastor of the Methodist Church. The dinner was on Saturday and all the children were there. They were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Livenood of Abernathy, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Medford and Frances of Rule, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Adcock, Ray and Don of Tokyo, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Livenood and sons Edwin and Steve of Paint Creek, Mr. and Mrs. Livenood lived at Paint Creek and all their children were born and raised here.

Mrs. Jewel McLennan and son Paul, spent the last three weeks in Oklahoma City visiting Mrs. Iva McQuarrie and family. They visited many historical buildings, parks and lakes and had a wonderful vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Elmore and children of Earth spent the week end with their parents. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Elmore, Mr. and Mrs. Elmore had been on a week's visit with Chester and his family, and they brought them home Saturday.

Mrs. Jim Ferguson and son, Vickie of Lubbock came last week end for a few day's visit with her sister, Mrs. Estle Gilliland and parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Josselit of Haskell, and to take her older son Jimmy home. He had spent most of the summer with his grandparents, and aunt and uncle at Paint Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Overton and daughter Kay visited friends in Anadarko, Okla. last week end.

Susan and Beth Ballard, little blonde daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Labry Ballard of Hereford are spending the week with their grandmother, Mrs. Irene Ballard.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy J. Kuentler and children of Odessa spent Thursday night in the home of their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Kuentler.

The Home Ec girls met last Wednesday at the campus and cleaned Miss Clements' home before she came to move in. They waxed the floors, and scrubbed and cleaned till it shone. Miss Clements was so pleased, and it made her moving in so much easier. I think Mrs. McRae had something to do with it too, anyway she had ice cream and cake for the girls and Miss Clements that night.

We were sorry to hear of the death of Mr. A. P. Williams' mother last Friday in a hospital in Weatherford. Although Mrs. Williams had been in the hospital for some time, she was better and her death from a heart attack was a shock to her family. She was buried beside her husband at Burnet. Mr. and Mrs. Pat Morrison and Mr. and Mrs. Mack Earles attended from Paint Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fischer and girls were guests in the home of Mrs. Fischer's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Peiser of Mattson for a barbecue supper on the 15th anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Peiser's wedding. Members of both their families were there. Those enjoying the occasion were Mary Lehnert of San Angelo, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Puschel of Stamford, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Peiser and children, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mueller and children, Alfon Peiser, Amanda Tracy and son, Dickie, Mr. and Mrs. Turner Grogan and children, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Zellig and son, Mrs. Puschel, Mrs. Annie Peiser, all of Mattson, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fischer and girls of Paint Creek.

The sons and families, and daughter and family of Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Perry had a week of family get-together last week while their daughter Frances was here on her vacation. Wednesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Perry of Stamford they had a family dinner honoring Mrs. Perry on her birthday. Then Sunday they enjoyed a family dinner at the home of the Perry's and spent the day boating, water skiing and swimming at the lake. They made pictures to send to their son Don who is in the Army stationed in Germany. Their other sons are Ray Perry who is with his wife and son, Rickie and daughter, Amelia Rhae at Paint Creek, Gene Perry and his wife and baby daughter, Carol who live in Stamford, and their daughter is Mrs. Wayne Blacklock, who with her husband and little daughter Pam, live in San Antonio.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Overton and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Overton had as their guests this week their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Overton of Burleson, their cousin, Mrs. Fred Stuckert and son, L. B. Stuckert of Fort Worth. Mrs. Ray Overton entertained for them at her home Monday night with a picnic and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Overton and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Overton, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Allen Overton and daughter Kay were there. A guest of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Overton on the same time was Miss Carol Robertson of Wichita Falls, who is the fiancée of Lt. Stuckert.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Montgomery and Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Montgomery and son John Paul left Tuesday for California for a visit with Mrs. Montgomery's brothers, Joe and Bert Dilbeck. They had to postpone their trip several weeks because of the illness and pending operation of Mrs. Montgomery's step-mother, Mrs. J. L. Dilbeck of Haskell. Mrs. Dilbeck underwent surgery at the Haskell Hospital Monday morning and is doing just fine.

Mrs. Dorothy Barnes from Marlin, a school days friend of Mrs. Morris Haynes was a guest last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Haynes and son William.

Several Paint Creek citizens attended the funeral Monday Aug. 17 at the First Baptist Church at Stamford for L. E. Adams, 94 year old father of Jim Adams. Mr. Adams had been unusually active for a man of his age until he underwent surgery May 3 at the Stamford Sanitarium which revealed cancer. He remained in the hospital until Sunday, May 8, and then underwent surgery May 9 at the Texas Cowboy Reunion parade, and was a charter member of the Reunion association. This year he rode in a car, with a sign saying "L. E. Adams Rides Again" and won a prize for best individual entry. Mr. Adams was born in Panola County in 1861, one of 17 children, and he and his wife moved to a farm east of Stamford which he had bought in 1904. It is still the family home. Mrs. Adams died in 1945. Besides Mr. Jim there are three daughters and five sons who survive him, 25 grandchildren and several great-grandchildren.

The Kindergarten Program

By MRS. BILL RICHEY

The adult world would no doubt agree that the children of our country are its most precious possessions. More than ever before in our history must they become strong, stable, self-reliant, intelligent citizenry. To this end, the entire program of education should be directed.

The five-year-old child is at an age when he is developing rapidly physically and mentally. He is growing larger and is developing more muscular control. He shows distinct growth in language, in broadening interests, and in control of emotions.

The activities of the kindergarten are many and varied.

Outdoor play provides vigorous exercises such as running, jumping, climbing, tugging, dancing and other active games which provide the exercise most children of this age need.

There is indoor play with blocks, toy animals, trains, trucks, boats, dolls and housekeeping furniture. All this play with toy materials is of spontaneous dramatic nature in which the children assume various roles and gain significant learning in so doing.

There is caring for pets, arranging flowers, and watering plants, gardening and exploring. There is work with constructive materials such as paper boxes, wood and incidental scrap material. There will be adequate tools for such activities and as much guidance and help as seems necessary for children to acquire good work habits, to gain self-confidence and independence, and to accomplish results satisfactory to them.

There are art experiences such as drawing, printing, clay modeling. The children will be encouraged to express their own ideas and feelings in free, bold fashion.

There are musical experiences such as singing together; to learn to listen to someone else sing or play a musical instrument and to think about what they hear.

Organizing simple little games and learning a few of the simplest folk dances.

There is conversation, discussion, questioning, and explaining. At some time during each day the children may come together in a group at which time individuals may tell of interesting experiences or talk about some valued possession. Listening as well as talking becomes a valuable outgrowth of this activity.

There is telling of stories and poems, looking at books and reading from them for the pure joy of such experience. There is the creating of original stories or poems for their own books.

There is responsibility throughout the day for many routine activities: Caring for individual possessions and personal needs, putting away materials used at various times during the day, helping in the general order-keeping in the general order and attractiveness of the room.

There is the companionship throughout the day with children of similar interests, abilities and stages of development and at the same time as many individual differences as are found in any group of people. Thus the stage is set for wholesome social development of five-year-olds.

There is responsibility for thoughtful and courteous behavior on the part of the kindergarten children toward all other persons in the school. There is visiting in other parts of the school to become acquainted.

During the kindergarten year a child lives richly. He learns to play and work with others, to Another local man, Moreland Glass, has a responsible position on one of the farms.

INTO THE SCHOOL

A MESSAGE TO MOVIEGOERS
The terror-ridden school conditions and its teen-age hoodlums, as depicted in "BLACKBOARD JUNGLE" were drawn from a slum area of New York City. As a best-seller and widely read magazine story - it as tense, shocking drama - and then thank you for our own fine schools and wholesome, upstanding young people.

THE STORY THEY SAID COULD NEVER BE FILMED!

She was a teacher who was indiscreet enough to wear a tight skirt! What happened then could only happen in this big-city school where tough teen-agers ran the show. As a best-seller and widely read magazine story - it shocked America! As an M-G-M picture . . . it's a timely entertainment.

Fire Hazard Inspections Scheduled Here September 29

A community fire hazard inspection of Haskell will be conducted here late in September by trained insurance experts. Fire Chief Ray Lusk has announced. The general check of all churches, schools and mercantile buildings is scheduled for Thursday, Sept. 29. A similar check will be made at nearby Stamford the preceding day.

Haskell's war on fire hazards will be directed by about forty members of the Texas Insurance Fieldmen's Association in cooperation with the Haskell Fire Department and co-sponsored by the Haskell Chamber of Commerce.

The fire detectives, all special agents of capital stock insurance companies, know the "hazard ropes" and will examine every public building from attic-to-basement. Fire-red "Fix Me" tags will mark the danger spots and suggestions for correcting them will be left with owners and tenants. City officials customarily follow through by trying to eliminate the hazards.

A downtown parade, special programs in schools and service clubs, fire drills and poster contests likely will be scheduled to make the Haskell citizenry fire prevention-conscious, according to Wallace Cox Jr., president of the Chamber of Commerce.

Cox, while urging support of all Haskell citizens, outlined the purpose of the fire hazard inspections as three-fold: (1) For the inspectors (insurance special agents), it provides the chance to take part in a community project; (2) for local fire officials, it means safer buildings and fewer fires to be fought; and (3) for building owners and tenants, it brings recognition of common fire hazards. Nation-wide, fire hazard inspections began 50 years ago and now number more than 4,000. Texas' first community check was held in Gatesville of Central Texas during 1948. Since that time, 49 such examinations have been made, including the largest at Houston (pop. 1 million plus) and the smallest, a combination inspection of the tiny towns of Portland and Gregory (combined pop. 1,250).

Application to take this examination may be made on an official form which may be secured from a post office or by written request. SCHOOLROOM BATTLE—Glenn Ford attempts to wrest the switchblade knife from his trouble-making pupil, Vic Morrow, in a tense scene from "Blackboard Jungle", drama of today's juvenile delinquency problem. Anne Francis and Louis Calhern also star in the M-G-M film, based on Evan Hunter's best-seller novel. This attraction plays matinee and evening, Sunday and Monday at the Texas.

Your Theatre Manager's Editorial Message About "Blackboard Jungle"

Dear Moviegoers of Haskell: Editorials are entirely out of my line (I sure hope Mr. Clare doesn't retaliate by going in the movie business!) but I can't think of any other way to let you know how we feel about our coming presentation of the shocking film about juvenile delinquency in an eastern public school, "Blackboard Jungle."

Although no one I am sure will deny that "Blackboard Jungle" is a tense, exciting drama unequalled in entertainment history, I am quite frankly a little uneasy about the hornet's nest of controversy it may stir up because of its portrayal of shocking conditions in an American public school. But before you pass judgment, please consider my side of the matter.

First of all, we don't make the pictures; we take the best movies as they come. From the leading producers of Hollywood—and "Blackboard Jungle" was produced by M. G. M., a peer of moviemakers, whose integrity has never been challenged. "Blackboard Jungle" was adapted from the highly acclaimed novel by Evan Hunter, which was also published in condensed form in the very reputable LADIES HOME JOURNAL. The story has been read by many millions of Americans; who overnight made it a sensational best-seller. "Blackboard Jungle" deals with a gang of insolent, near-criminal juveniles who impose a reign of terror in a slum-area public school of an eastern city. Many a headline story has eloquently confirmed the basis for the author's premise; such conditions DO EXIST whether we like it or not. But to assume that "Blackboard Jungle" is an indictment of ALL public schools and ALL teenagers is, of course, utterly ridiculous—any more than a movie about a crooked cop indicts our own fine officers.

Seeing the alarming conditions portrayed in "Blackboard Jungle" should shock all of us into the realization of how humbly and profoundly grateful we all should be for our own fine public schools and their exemplary facilities; and you can bet that no one will deplore the hoodlum conduct depicted in the picture any more than the inherently decent, upright teenagers of our community. In the final climax, you can bet our kids will be pulling for the teacher (Glenn Ford) to disarm the insolent punk with the switchblade knife. Please see "Blackboard Jungle" for what was intended—a tense, exciting evening's entertainment—and thank God its reign of terror happened somewhere else and can never happen in Haskell. Well, as an editorial writer, I'm certainly no competition for Mr. Clare, but at least I've spoken my piece—from the heart!

YOUR SHOWMAN FRIEND,
Finis W. Stilwell.

Courthouse Bonds Approved by Kent County Voters

Voters of Kent County have approved a $350,000 bond issue for building a new courthouse and county jail at Jayton. A 3-to-1 margin was given the bond issue, on the basis of unofficial vote returns. Voters in Jayton gave an overwhelming majority to the bond issue, while in Clairmont and Girard the vote was strongly against the proposed bond issue. The election climaxed more than three years of legal maneuvers concerning whether Jayton or Clairmont would be county seat of Kent County and a ruling by the Texas Supreme Court.

Commissioners Court of Kent County last June 13 passed an order designating the former First National Bank of Jayton as the county courthouse. The former county courthouse at Clairmont burned the night of April 12, 1955, but Kent County actually has not had a courthouse since July 30, 1954 when a group of Jayton residents moved records from Clairmont following issuance of a mandate by the Court of Civil Appeals at Eastland. The Eastland Court upheld decision of the district court at Haskell in an election contest suit which declared Jayton the county seat.

Controversy over location of the county seat goes back to 1952 when an election was held to determine whether the county headquarters should remain at Clairmont or whether it should be moved to Jayton. There were some votes in question and the election was contested by Jayton. The 39th District Court at Haskell ruled in favor of Jayton and Clairmont filed for review of the case at Eastland and then before the Texas Supreme Court. Both courts upheld the district court ruling and refused to another review of the case. From Aug. 24, 1954 until Oct. 6, 1954 Kent County had no county seat, since the commissioners could not agree on a meeting place. On Oct. 6 and for three meetings the commissioners passed all measures simultaneously in both Jayton and Clairmont. Since last October, the commissioners have met alternately in the two towns.

Sagerton Group at Luther League Convention

A group of Luther League members and Pastor and Mrs. Rudy Wendel of St. Paul's Lutheran Church attended the International Luther League Convention at A&M College last week from Sagerton. Those who went from Sagerton are Pastor and Mrs. Wendel, Margie Lehmann, Lois and Dorothy Knipping, Fred Kupatt, Jerry Thane, Johnny Kieke, Melvin Vahlenkamp, Herbert and Gloria Lammert, Doris Franke, Ernest Breidhauer, LeRoy Nauer and Joe Ray Baltz. Fred Kupatt, Jerry Thane, Melvin Vahlenkamp and Johnny Kieke went on ahead to help in the building of an old-time Texas town with old fashioned barber shop, blacksmith shop, livery stable, etc., to make a suitable background for the Western Day to be held one day of the convention.

FHA Personnel Attend State Convention

All members of the Haskell County Farmers Home Administration staff went to the state meeting held in San Antonio last Friday and Saturday, Aug. 19-20. Workers in the Haskell office and in attendance at the meeting were Wm. E. Lawson, County Supervisor, Miss Elizabeth L. Waskom, County office clerk, and Mrs. Billie T. Christberg, assistant county office clerk. The meeting was held by Walter T. McKay, State Director for Dallas and his Texas staff. On the program for the convention were the Hon. Robert McLeish from McAllen, who is National Administrator for FHA and his Deputy Administrator Henry C. Smith of Kentucky; O. N. Spung, Deputy National Finance Officer in St. Louis (formerly of Dallas); and Jack Orr, chairman of the Texas FHA Advisory Committee of Chapman Ranch, Texas.

The keynote address was given by the president of the Texas Banker's Association, T. B. Garrett, who is also president of the Texas Bank and Trust Co. The high points of Mr. Garrett's address were: 1. Banker's should know soils and soil conservation as much as the man's collateral and integrity. 2. Banker's should make more loans for soil improvement based on a long time farm plan and repayment schedule. This was a pat on the back for FHA as all their loans are made in this manner.

Other addresses were made by the Hon. Charles W. Anderson, County Judge of Bexar County; Perrose B. Metcalf, president of the Southwest Wool and Mohair Growers Association; Clinton Harbers of West Point, Texas, one of four young farmers of the Nation chosen by the Junior Chamber of Commerce as conservation farmers of the year. Mr. Harbers secured his farm in 1946 through an FHA loan.

An expanded credit program for the Great Plains area was also discussed in separate session by those affected. The expanded credit program is known as the Great Plains Loan and is available to farmers and ranchers of Stonewall County. Stonewall County is administered from the Haskell FHA office. The Great Plains Loan is aimed directly at prevention of dust storms through proper soil management. Haskell County is not in the Great Plains area.

Watch Those Extra Pounds If You're Over Forty

Austin—Friend, if you're 40 and fat, this is for you: pass up the candied yams and boiled potatoes and cream-filled toothsome tidbits that spell extra pounds and an early grave. State health authorities can quote chapter and verse as to why too much weight can kill you as you grow older. It increases the likelihood of diabetes, contributes to high blood pressure, is associated with hardening of the arteries and with various heart diseases.

Besides influencing these conditions, extra weight means impaired vigor, increased fatigability, liver breakdown, greater surgical risk, and greater danger of complications from otherwise minor illnesses. "There's just no doubt about obesity being one of the biggest problems to be faced after 40," these authorities say. "The more overweight you are, the poorer are your chances of living to a ripe old age."

Are you as much as 25 percent overweight? People in your group die at a rate 75 percent higher than the rate for people of normal weight. If you're still gravitating toward the pastry tray, maybe this will slow you down. Despite the general excellence of medical care in this country, men and women over 45 die at a rate 25 percent higher than do Western Europeans of the same age group. And the reason is nothing more than galloping appetites. Poor food habits among older people complicate the problem of obesity, health officials believe. Those who live alone have no incentive to eat sensibly. They snack on fattening rather than wholesome foods. Others have no knowledge of food nutrition. Still others rationalize their obesity by clinging to the belief that stoutness is a mark of distinction. But health officials know that each pound of extra flesh means fewer years of life.

Here are the State Department of Health's suggestion for avoiding fat after 40:
1. Drink plenty of water, and center your diet on milk, fruits, vegetables, bread and whole grain cereals with modest amount of eggs and meat.
2. Limit your use of sugar, alcohol, and fats. Use brown sugar and dark molasses. Choose fruits such as apples for dessert, and insist that meals afford both milk and coffee, rather than milk or coffee.
3. Use dry brewer's yeast and wheat germ rather than synthetic vitamins. Use whole wheat, dark rye, or soya-enriched breads.
4. Use dry skimmed milk if
