AN EXCITING WOLF HEAT.

Something that Leaves Fox Hunting in the Shade.

Col. W. L. Thompson has just returned from Weatherford where he went in company with Alex

Cockrell and Charlie M. Miller on a wolf hunt. He reports that they had an exciting chase of three hours after a wolf before catching it. The hunt took place ten miles south of Weatherford in Simmon's pasture. The Weatherford parties consisted of John Simmons and Messrs McCluskey and Cullom. Any one baving Vendors Liet. The start was made about 7 o'clock Paris. Mr. Agnew killed a long time at lowest rates, with real thirteen bounds coming in at the death. Messrs Cockre'l and Mil ter had five dogs and Simmons had four. It was conce de i that Joan Simmons' little bitch Whiz led the pack with Charlie Miller's old Steve a clove second and the other dogs well up and packed beautifully At the start there was some delay in getting the young dogs of Charlie Miller uncoupled and hence they did not have a fair lead at the start but held their own the entire race. Cockrell's Jennie was well up the entire chase and was present at the catching. The colonel says he is an old hun ter and has been in a great many chases of deer and foxes, but he never saw as fast running as this was in his lite. Being a fine torseman he forged his way to the front just in time to see the dogs catch the wolf. A large crowd of farmers gather d and was at the funeral.
