Stovall-Reese

One of Knox City's most beautiful home weddings was that solemnized at the home of Mr. C. J. Reese Saturday morning at eight o'clock, September 10, 1932, when Miss Jacquelin Reese became the bride of Mr. Claud Stovall. Reverend C. B. Stovall, father of the groom, performed an impressive rite ceremony under an improvised arch of fern and Clematis flanked with baskets of evergreen and Sweetheart roses.

The approach of the wedding party was heralded by Miss Mary Reeder singing "Oh Promise Me", followed by chimes of the wedding bell by Masters Charles Max Reese, brother of the bride, and Colbie Reese, cousin of the bride. Hohengrins Bridal chorus was played as a processional and Mendelssohn's wedding march was played as a recessional, by Mrs. G. T. Hardberger. The Flower Song by Lange was audible during the ceremony.

The bride and groom were preceded by Master Charles James Reese, bearing the ring in the heart of a rose, followed by Reverend Stovall. The bride and groom stood beneath a white wedding bell, the emblem of purity, from which hung four white satin ribbon streamers. Here Reverend C. B. Stovall united his eldest son, Claud Stovall Jr. and the lovely Miss Jacquelin Reese in the Holy union of wedlock.

The bride was beautiful, dressed in a going away suit of burgandy diagonal wool crepe, black fur trimmed with black accessories. The groom was handsomely attired in black.

The groom is the son of Reverend and Mrs. C. B. Stovall of this city, he being pastor of the First Baptist church also of this city. Claude Junior received most of his high school education in Abilene high school, finishing the last term with the class of 1929 of K. C. H. S. He entered Simmons University in Abilene one year.

The bride is the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Reese of Fort Worth. She has made her home with her grandmother Mrs. C. J. Reese since infancy. Miss Reese finished the Knox City High School with the class of 1932.

The couple left immediately after the ceremony for Abilene and other points on a short honeymoon trip. Mr. and Mrs. Stovall will make their home in Haskell where Claude is connected with the Sinclair Company.

Only relatives and intimate friends with the Y. W. A. girls of the Baptist church, of which Miss Reese was a member, were in attendance at the wedding. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Grady Reese of Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Reese Jr. of Haskell, Samona Reese of Plainview and Mrs. Dan Weaver, of Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Cash attended church services Sunday morning at Gilliland and visited with Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Hutton in Truscott Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Harrison and family Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Jones and family of Stamford were guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Coates Sunday.

Baptist Convention Nov. 16

The Executive Board of the Baptist General Convention of Texas meeting in Dallas, September 13, voted to change the date for the meeting of the Baptist Convention from November 9 to November 15. The Convention voted last year to meet in Abilene in 1932.

Plans were completed for the raising of $600,000 for missions and benevolences by means of the Every member Canvass Campaign now in progress among the 490,000 Baptists of Texas. Dr. J. Howard Williams, Executive Secretary of the Board, was placed in charge of the campaign, and he has appointed seventeen organizers in as many districts representing every portion of Texas.

The campaign will continue until October 30. The final week, October 23-30, is designated as pledge week, at which time every Baptist in the state will be solicited for a pledge to the $600,000 fund.

The money raised by this campaign is to be used by the Baptists for their work of missions and benevolences; every Baptist institution is to share in the funds, whether it is in Texas, in China or elsewhere. The proportion of the funds to go to each institution will be worked out at the meeting of the State Convention to be held in Abilene November 15.

Parent-Teachers to Gravel School Street

County Council Here 20th

To Meet Twice a Month

Mr. A. G. Guy, Vocational Agriculture teacher in the Knox City school, received high applause at the meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association last Thursday afternoon when he presented the matter of traveling or paving the street in front of the school building. So pleased was the organization with Mr. Guy's suggestion and plans for improving the street that a committee was appointed for further investigation, plans and work toward the accomplishment of the project. This committee is A. G. Guy, Wm. Griffith, John Dutton and J. H. McGee.

Mr. Guy suggests that the street be either paved or graveled and since the latter seems more plausible, we will speak of it as such. Mr. Guy further stated that the work can easily be made a town or community project, through the Agriculture boys in school. The gravel necessary for the work can be obtained by donation and interested citizens donating their help can soon transfer the gravel to the street. Mr. Guy's outline for the work was splendid and the Parent-Teacher Association voiced its ready cooperation for the work.

Two Monthly Meetings

At a further business session of the meeting last Thursday discussions were given concerning the meeting days for the association this year. There will be two meetings each month, one a business meeting and the other a program meeting. The business meetings will be held at four o'clock in the afternoon of each first Wednesday of the month. The program meetings will be given at 7:45 in the evening of each third Tuesday of the month.

It is important to know that the association is offering prizes to the classes this year for Parent-Teacher attendance but upon a different basis of that of last year. The prizes will be offered once a month, or for every two meetings, with the attendance percentage being averaged from both the monthly meetings, but before any class is eligible to a prize, its percentage attendance must reach and exceed 33 and one third.

There will be a membership drive for the Association in the very near future so plan now to wear a P-T-A badge.

Duties of Room Mothers

Mrs. T. S. Edwards, president of the association, urged the teachers to have their pupils elect "room mothers". Mrs. Edwards further stated that it is important that the room mothers know their duties as such. Following are the duties of the room mother as adopted by the Knox City school.

1. Increase the membership of the P-T-A.
2. Encourage the parents to visit the children's room and know the teacher.
3. Cooperate with the teacher in putting over projects.
4. Visit sick pupils.
5. Report to P-T-A any child who needs help: clothes, school supplies, medical attention, etc.
6. Discourage too many social activities.
7. Act as chaperone when class has any social activities.
8. Encourage studiousness by awards or any other method.

County Council Here

The County Council of the Parent-Teacher Association will meet in Knox City on Tuesday of next week, September the 20. It will be an all day meeting and will convene in the Methodist church. All parents in Knox county are invited to attend this meeting. The morning session opens at ten-thirty.

The local Parent-Teacher organization, in keeping with the making of a year book (is submitting its programs to the Knox County Herald for publication in two divisions. The first division, which includes all programs and meetings until the first of the year, are appearing in this issue of the Herald. It is important that every member of the association keep these programs for further use during the coming months.

The next meeting of the association will be Tuesday evening of next week, September 20th at 7:20 o'clock in the school auditorium. The program for that meeting is given elsewhere in the Herald.

SINGING CONVENTION AT O'BRIEN

Mr. M. M. Rowan, president of the Haskell County Singing Convention, announces this week that the convention will meet Sunday at O'Brien, September the 18th at 2:30 o'clock. All singers and lovers of good music are invited to be present.

FOOTBALL HAPPENINGS

On Friday of last week the local football team played Rule at Rule with a no score tie. This was Knox City's first game of the season. We play our second game this Friday with Rochester at Rochester. A big crowd of boosters are expected to attend the game and it is hoped that the pep squad girls manage to reach the place of action at least nine minutes before the game ends.

BUILDING IMPROVEMENTS

It is both interesting and encouraging to see the various pieces of improvements that are being made in Knox City now.

The Farmers Gin and the Knox City gin are both completing new cotton houses this week. The Benedict buildings all being re-roofed and the Davis Grocery has extended their sidewalk on the north of the building, to the end of the store. Lloyd has also had the alley back of the store cleaned, making the side of his store look one hundred percent better.

NO CENTER STREET PARKING

For the past two weeks the light posts in the center of Knox City's main street have held erect signs which read as follows "Don't park in center of street".

It seems that these signs have had little or no effect. Wednesday City Marshall Hardberger announced that it is necessary that the city parking laws be observed. "It is necessary", Mr. Hardberger stated, "for the safety of the pedestrians". Cars parked at such irregular angles with other driving all the time up and down the street and other people constantly walking across the street makes the life of all those walking unsafe. The center of the street must be kept clear, no cars parked there at all.

It is hoped that this parking law will be observed and without other comment.

Luke 12

By J. A. Wilson

As I begin to read this wonderful chapter, I am at once impressed with the wonderful Words of Life therein, and I wish it were possible for me to persuade every member of the Sunday School every member of the church you, every christian and non-christian in the land to study it carefully, it is the Son of God speaking with wisdom divine.

First we hear His warning of worldliness, "Leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy," and where ever we find the word leaven used in scripture, it means the presence of sin. In Matthew 13, the parable of the leaven that was hid in three measures of meal until the whole lump was leavened is a shadow of christendom in the last days when worldliness (leaven) so permeates the whole body of professed christianity that spiritual truth and purity is entirely lost. (1 Cor. 5, 6-8; 2 Tim. 4, 3-5.)

Fear not him who is able only to take the physical life, but rather be careful of that which destroys abiding faith in God who is alone able to sustain us beyond the grave. (vs 4-5. Then follows a beautiful explanation of His great love and care for His own. (vs 6-7)

"If you believe in Christ, confess him before men, and this does not mean lip service: "Nor every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven: BUT HE THAT DOETH THE WILL OF MY FATHER WHICH IS IN HEAVEN" (Mat. 7-21). If we love the passing pleasures of the world more than Him, we are "none of His". "By faith Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called to son of Pharaoh's daughter; choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season" (Heb. 11, 24-25). I have heard of those who condemn the preacher for preaching against sin of worldliness, going so far as to "snub" him at every opportunity, thinking perhaps they are helping him but they are only heaping further condemnation upon themselves; listen carefully to the still small of the Holy Spirit as you prayerfully read the parable of the rich fool in this chapter, it is not a condemnation of riches but altogether a condemnation of him who places worldly gain ahead of God, eternal separation from God awaits all who die with this sin charged to their account, for "he that layeth up treasure for himself, is not rich toward God" (vs 2.) "Let your loins be girded about, and your lights burning; for the Son of man cometh at an hour when ye think not" (vs 35-40) "Lost coming suddenly he find you sleeping. And what I say unto you I say unto all, WATCH." (Mark 13, 36-37.)

"For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall much be required and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more" (vs 48) "I am come to send fire on the earth suppose ye that I am come to give peace on earth? I tell you, Nay; but rather division" (vs 49-51) "Ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky and of the earth; but how is it that ye cannot discern the signs of the times I tell thee, thou shalt not depart thence, till thou hast paid the very last mite" (vs 56-59.)

THREE STREET PARADES ONE
EACH DAY AT 'GOLDEN JUBILEE'

Wichita Falls, Three unusual street parades, on each day, will be among the numerous free entertainments features for the 100,000 visitors expected in Wichita Falls for the "Golden Jubilee" September 26, 27 and 28.

Monday's parade will be a motorless affair and will feature all pioneer methods of transportation, it will include ox carts, stage coaches, covered wagons, buggies, hacks, side saddler, and cowboys. Tuesday's big parade will feature gorgeous floats, community bands, and novelties. The final parade on Wednesday will be a military affair, including Fort Sill regular army troops with their big guns, national guard units, and patriotic organizations in uniform.

A crew of men began placing art-panels in the historic exhibits building two weeks before the opening of the "Golden Jubilee" and will continue this work until the opening date. A three-story building can hardly hold all the old relics, even after the exhibits have been culled to include only those of special interest, and adjoining property has been secured for the overflow. The exhibit building will open from 9:00 A. M. to 9:00 P. M. each day and is free.

Fifty old time fiddle bands will compete for substantial prizes in a contest being sponsored by Radio Station KGKO. A glass enclosed broadcasting booth will be erected on a stage in the downtown business section so that all fiddling contests may be seen and heard by the celebration visitors. Brass bands, singing cowboys, orchestras, and other entertainment units will broadcast in full view of the crowds. Other free entertainment includes maneuvers by Fort Sill artillery units, pistol shooting contests by officers of northwest Texas and Oklahoma, firemen's water polo contests, style show and fine arts review, street dancing, speeches by men of wide renown, athletic events, and reproduction of the arrival of the first train in Wichita Falls.

Other features, for which there will be nominal charges, are the world's championship rodeo, historical pageant, dances featuring famous orchestras, and wrestling matches.

BRUCE BARTON

Writes of "THE MASTER EXECUTIVE"

Supplying a week-to-week inspiration for the busy-minded who will find every human trial paralleled in the experiences of "The Man Nobody Knows."

A LEADER OF MEN

In any crowd and under any circumstances the leader stands out. By the power of his faith in himself he commands, and men instinctively obey.

This blazing conviction was the first and greatest element in the success of Jesus. The second was his wonderful power to pick men, and to recognize hidden capacities in them. It must have amazed Nicodemus when he learned the names of the twelve whom the young teacher had chosen to be his associates. What a list! Not a single well-known person on it. Nobody who had ever made a success of anything. A haphazard collection of fishermen and smalltown business men and one tax collector a member of the most hated element in the community. What a crowd!

Nowhere is there such a startling example of executive success as the way in which that organization was brought together. Take the tax collector, Matthew, as the most striking instance. His occupation carried a heavy weight of social ostracism, but it was profitable. He was probably well-to-do according to the simple standards of the neighborhood, certainly he was a busy man and not subject to impulsive action. His addition to the group of disciples is told in a single sentence:

"And as Jesus passed by, he called Matthew."

Amazing. No argument; no pleading. A smarter leader would have been compelled to set up the advantages of the opportunity. "Of course you are doing well where you are and making money," he might have said. "I can't offer you as much as you are getting; in fact you may have some difficulty in making ends meet. But I think we are going to have an interesting time and shall probably accomplish a big work." Such a conversation would have been met with Matthew's reply that he would "have to think it over," and the world would never have heard his name.

Jesus had the born leader's gift for seeing powers in men of which they themselves were often almost unconscious. One day as he was coming into a certain town tremendous crowd pressed around him. There was a rich man named Zacchaeus in town; small in stature, but with such keen business ability that he had got himself generally disliked. Being curious to see the distinguished visitor he had climbed up into a tree. Imagine his surprise when Jesus stopped under the tree and commanded him to come down saying, "To-day I intend to eat at your house."

The crowd was stunned. Some of the bolder spirits took it upon themselves to tell Jesus of his social blunder. He couldn't afford to make the mistake of visiting Zacchaeus, they said. Their protests were without avail. They saw in Zacchaeus merely a dishonest Jew; Jesus saw in him a man of unusual generosity and a fine sense of justice, who needed only to have those qualities revealed by some one who understood.

So with Matthew-The crowd saw only a despised tax-gatherer. Jesus saw the potential writer of a book which will live forever.

BUD'n BUB

WELL BOYS, RALPH KARN'S BOY ST. JOSEPH MO WANTS TO KNOW SOMETHING ABOUT THE TEBELDI TREE. PILE INTO THE ROCKET PLANE AND WE'LL GO TO AFRICA TO SEE IT.

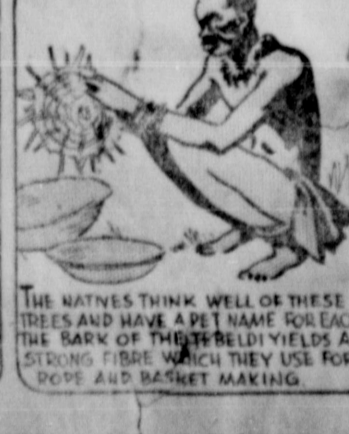

THE TEBELDI TREE IS ONE OF THE MOST USEFUL IN THE WORLD. IT IS SOMETIMES CALLED THE "BACAB" OR MONKEY BREAD TREE & GROWS THROUGHOUT THE AFRICAN SUDAN.

NATIVES OF THE BLUE HILL PROVINCE DEPEND ON THESE TREES FOR THEIR WATER SUPPLY AS WE DO OUR PUBLIC WATER WORKS. THE TEBELDI IS A LIFE SAVER FOR THOUSANDS IN THE SUDAN.

WATER IS CONTAINED IN THE HOLLOW TRUNK WHERE IT IS STORED BY NATURE DURING RAINY SEASONS. SINCE THE CIRCUMFERENCE OF THE TRUNK IS USUALLY 30 OR 40 FEET, THE CAPACITY IS ABOUT 250 GALLONS OF WATER.

THE NATIVES THINK WELL OF THESE TREES AND HAVE A PET NAME FOR EACH. THE BARK OF THE TEBELDI YIELDS A STRONG FIBRE WHICH THEY USE FOR ROPE AND BASKET MAKING.

IN DARKEST AFRICA

Fald
Due to the rapid increase in population this and last week Knox City is getting a taste of the "unemployment" situation. Some people can be heard "hitting up farmers" for jobs while others show little desire for real work.

Sanitary conditions will soon be an issue in Knox City. With the increase in population it is necessary that the sanitation of the town be well cared for. The merchant is likely to become careless of their front as well as back door while the "alley walkers" stir up and scatter the rubbish.

The sanitary and health conditions come under the supervision of the city officials and the city health officer and we feel sure that they will keep in touch with all local situations.

It is no uncommon thing to see a group of men and boys crowded about a large, red meated water melon, in most any section of the city. Melons have been cheap all year and everyone has enjoyed them.

Bride-Elect Honored

One of the prettiest showers given in Knox City for some time was that honoring the bride-elect of Claude Stovall Jr., Miss Jaquelin Reese, in the home of Mrs. M. A. Reeder with Mrs. Hardberger, Mrs. Joe Averitt, Mrs. Henry White and Miss Sydna Edwards assisting, on the afternoon of Friday, September 9, 1932.

The front porch of the Reeder home was artistically converted into a flower garden. The embankment of ferns, potted plants and trailing vines, interspersed with cut flowers, made a lovely background for the girls in their rainbow dresses as they presided at the punch bowl and the dainty hand painted brides book.

Upon entering the living room the guests were met by Miss Mary Reeder who presented them to Mrs. Hardberger who, in turn, presented them to Miss Reese bride-elect of Mr. Claude Stovall Jr. Others in the receiving line were Mrs. Henry White, Mrs. Joe Averitt, Mrs. C. J. Reese Sr., Mrs. C. B. Stovall Sr., Mrs. C. J. Reese Jr. and Miss Sydna Edwards.

As the last guests arrived Miss Mildred Dutton gave the opening musical number after which Miss May Reese gave a vocal solo. Following this, Mrs. Hardberger gave the report of a wedding of 27 years ago which article caused no little comment due to the fact that a long list of wedding gifts were enumerated.

Miss Irene Holland gave a conical but very appropriate reading, "Their first Spat", which was very true to life.

The rainbow color scheme was carried out throughout the afternoon. A lily white wedding bell hung suspended from the chandelier in the dining room directly over the gift laden table. Running from the bell to the four corners of the table were streamers of rainbow colors which ended in enormous bows of the same color. As Miss Mary Reeder chimed the wedding bell, Miss Reese came forward and was met at the table by Miss Roena Wall who gave a toast to the bride. Then followed the toast to the groom by Mrs. Henry White, a toast to the mothers-in-law by Mrs. Joe Averitt and a toast to the girls left behind by Miss Sydna Edwards. At the conclusion of the toasts the bride-elect was instructed to take charge of the gifts. To her amusement two weary-worn travelers entered with their hat boxes and hand bags high; however, proved to be gifts for the bride-elect. The travelers Misses Wynell Rogers and Cloyse Stovall, continued to bring in gifts until "old man depression" tucked his head in shame and left the guests to admire and exclaim of the many useful and attractive gifts presented the honoree.

The Y. W. A. girls, under the direction of Mrs. Joe Averitt, helped with the entertaining and serving as follows: Misses Alice Reese and Rowena Wall presiding at the punch bowl, Miss Alta Hamm presiding at the bride's book, Misses Wynell Rogers and Cloyse Stovall presenting the gifts, Misses Irene Holland, Mildred Dutton, May Reese and Rowena Wall assisting in the program, and all girls assisting in serving.

A plate consisting of individual cake and ice cream with rainbow mints were served to over one hundred guests.
