

Students Enjoy High School Party

Almost all Knox City High School students were at the school gymnasium Thursday night for a Christmas party planned, prepared for and directed by high school students themselves.

The gym was beautifully decorated in the Christmas motif. The bleachers and back wall were covered with cotton, giving the effect of a snowbank. Native cedar, red cellophane bells and a decorated Christmas tree gave the gym a festive air.

The program, also planned by students, was as follows: Opening prayer, L. C. Teague, Jr.; "Deck the Halls," group; Bible reading, Dickie Cross; "It Came Upon a Midnight Clear," group; special song, Genie Gunn; special music, boys' chorus; special music and songs, Raymond Barnett and his electric guitar; skit, arranged by Cornelia Tidwell; special music, girls' chorus; "Here Comes Santa Claus," group.

Following the program, Santa Claus' helper, Sam White, appeared and handed out gifts from the tree.

Refreshments of Christmas cookies, candy and punch, prepared by the FHA girls under the direction of Mrs. Charles E. Silk, were served.

At the end of the party, a school bus-load of the students went caroling, visiting the hospital and the homes of a number of shut-ins.

Mrs. Odell Carver and son, Craig, returned this week from Dallas. Craig underwent surgery there about two weeks ago and is recovering rapidly.

Dear Santa Claus:
I just want to tell you what I want for Christmas. I want something for my brother that is the only little boy we have so I want you to bring him a hobby horse and two guns like Rocky Lane's, and a hat like Rocky's too, a white one.

And I want you to bring my sister Martiea, next to my brother, a doll that you can make curls, a sort of Toni, with it. And a little purse with play lipstick and play rouge and play powder and a big box of dishes. That is all.

And for my next sister Margaret bring her a doll of the one of Dick Tracy, and bring her the same purse and bring her a big box of dishes and that is all for Margaret.

And now for my next sister, her name is Ortensia. Bring her a box of dishes like my other sister and a little purse just the same. And a big doll, the one that cries and says Boo and Pa and Ma and wets her diapers. And a little table that has four chairs and that is all for them.

And now for my Mother I want a pretty lamp, a big one. I wish to have two lamps because Mother is going to buy a bedroom suite, that is why. And bring her some shoes, high heels, blouse, kind of pretty. And bring her a dress to be pink and that is all for her. And for my father I want five pairs of socks because he does not have very many socks, and a shirt and a blue suit because he likes blue suits very much. And a neck tie. Let it be black. And a hat size 7, a brown one. That is all for him.

I am not going to tell you what I want.

Oh, and I forgot to tell you this. Please bring Mother a toaster that toasts bread, because we always eat toast with milk or with coffee.

Hope you read my letter. Santa. We are reading about you and we have a book about you. We also are making bells for the window and we have a song book about you. It has Jingle Bells and the other one is Here Comes Santa. And the other one is You Better Watch Out.

Yours truly,
