Tonight's the night for the Junior-Senior Thanksgiving supper, so "whet your appetites" for turkey 'n dressing and all the trimmings to be served from 6:00 until 8:00 o'clock in the school cafeteria.
 The supper is an annual affair and sponsored jointly by the two classes as a fund-raising project.
 Class members remind area residents that those who have not purchased advance tickets may buy them at the door. Also, plates will be delivered to homes again this year, so if anyone cannot attend the dinner, make plans now to give these students a call for delivery service.

 L. W. Graham has served as community chairman, county chairman, and county secretary for the March of Dimes beginning in 1941 and 1942. In going through his files, Mr. Graham noted the tremendous progress made in the fight against polio. In 1951, in the State of Texas alone, there were 2,778 polio patients reported. Now, Mr. Graham remarked that a case of polio is indeed rare.
 Knox County should be very proud of the fine service these three have rendered.

QB Club Members To Meet At 8 P.M.

Kenneth Lankford, Quarterback Club president, asked that all members note the time change for Thursday evening to 8:00 o'clock. This was necessary for the last meeting of the season due to a conflict with the Junior-Senior Thanksgiving supper this Thursday from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m.
 Mr. Lankford expressed his appreciation to all members for their support this season and hoped that a good number would be on hand for Thursday night's meeting.

Texas Tech Research Team Visits Knox County, Friday

Texas Tech School of Agriculture research officials met in Munday this week with several vegetable farmers to study vegetable crops to be researched this year.
 The research team was headed by Robert Reed, program chairman, Dr. Teresovich horticulturist, and Wilford Heicher marketing specialist.
 Others joining in the study were Mike McDuff, John Calahan and Donald Clark, all Ferry Morse Seed Company representatives.
 Joe Tidwell, vegetable specialist assigned to the Knox County area, conducted a tour to view research plots of cabbage and onions planted on the James Smith farm.
 Plans were made for the expansion of the research program in this area. Coordination of the program between adjoining communities will be conducted in a January meeting with Tech research officials and all interested farmers.
 The primary objectives of the Horticultural industry in supplying the expanding population are (1) to increase through research, income per acre, per dollar invested, (2) to disseminate information to the grower, (3) to train the manpower sufficiently to continue the industry, and (4) to supply consumers with quality products.
 Recently a vegetable research program has been initiated in the Department of Park Administration, Horticulture and Entomology, Texas Technological College, Lubbock, Texas, with the cooperation and assistance of the Munday Chamber of Commerce to assist growers in the area with problems confronting them in the production and marketing of vegetable crops.
 Mr. Joe D. Tidwell, Vegetable Specialist, who recently was assigned to the area and is stationed at Munday, will work directly with growers and their problems. In addition, he will conduct research on a number of vegetable crops of importance to the area. Assisting him will be Mr. R. R. Reed, and Dr. Geo. Tereshkovich, Horticulturists, stationed at Texas Tech, Lubbock.
 Specifically, the major portion of research work will be aimed at increasing the biolosearch centers including the Salk Institute.

 Through the utilization of the kinds of skills and dedication that led to the discovery of the Salk vaccine and the conquest of polio, The National Foundation seeks to make step-by-step progress geared to the prevention, diagnosis and treatment of birth defects.
 Last year of research has already brought greater understanding or major breakthroughs in such areas as:
 . . . RH Factor incompatibility
 . . . Inborn body chemistry errors
 . . . Prenatal infection including such diseases as German measles
 . . . Corrective surgery
 . . . Genetic counseling
 In Knox County, one out of every ten homes bears the burden of a child born with a major birth defect. Each citizen can do much to assure the birth of healthy babies if people will volunteer to serve actively with the Knox County March of Dimes Chapter. Persons interested in volunteer service should telephone Mrs. Denton or any of the other board members.
 The Wichita Council of Chapters office which provides consultation and educational services to Knox County and ten other counties in the North Texas area is located in Wichita Falls at 405 Kell Blvd. Through this office educational materials and films relating to general research, diagnosis and treatment of birth defects, genetics and prenatal care are made available to schools, clubs, and other civic organizations. These materials can be obtained by contacting the Chapter Officers or the Council Representative, Carolyn Bradford, in Wichita Falls. The Chapter Officers and the Council Representative will also assist local parents in arranging medical care for children born with serious birth defects.
 Although the MOD conducts only one campaign per year, memorial contributions are accepted by all chapters. All donations will be acknowledged to the donor and a notice sent to the family of the person in whose memory the donation is made.

 The voting delegates, Jacqueline Crowover and Joe Barnard proved to be very efficient politicians. Due to their hard work we were able to get Betsy and Gayle elected to their positions.

Farm and Ranch News

By Herman Collier

U. S. AG EFFICIENCY CONTINUES

Today one farm worker in the U. S. provides the food for himself and more than 42 others, a tribute, explains John G. McHaney, Extension Economist, to the ever-increasing efficiency of our agricultural industry. With the U. S. population expected to increase 100 million over the next 30 years, McHaney feels America's farmers can meet the challenge. Our efficient agricultural industry has been the foundation of our economy and has helped Americans to have the highest level of living in the world. And, concludes McHaney, National Farm-City Week, Nov. 22-28, is a good time for recognizing the achievements of agriculture and those who are a part of the industry.

FUNGICIDES FOR PROTECTION OF ORNAMENTAL PLANTS

Temperatures and a change in weather conditions can bring on foliage diseases which attack ornamentals. To protect your valuable plants, it is suggested that fungicides be applied at regular intervals.

Several fungicides are available at nursery garden supply center and farm supply stores which have a wide spectrum and are especially useful to the home-owner who likes to keep ornamental plants looking their best.

Captan, Zineb, Maneb and Folpet are among the broad spectrum fungicides which can be used to prevent many of the foliage problems on ornamentals.

These materials, says the county agent, can be applied with a small pressure sprayer or with a hose-on type sprayer. Home-owners are advised to carefully check the dosage rates of the material used to insure efficient and adequate control of the disease.

Spray coverage is also important for effective control. Be sure that both sides of the plant's leaves are covered by the fungicide. Additional information on cool season plant diseases which attack ornamentals is available from the County Agent's office.

FALL AND WINTER SUGGESTIONS FOR HOME GARDENERS

The fall and winter season is the time to check and decide whether replacement plants are needed in the home landscape. Maybe a rose bush has died or failed to live up to expectations or there is a gap in the shrub border where a new plant is needed and was shade adequate in the outdoor living area, asks Everett Janne, Extension landscape horticulturist.

Make a list, suggests the Texas A&M University specialist, of your landscape needs and be ready to take advantage of the selections offered early buyers by garden and nursery centers.

The natural inclination, he says, is to put off garden work until late spring when everything is greening up and the spring flowers are in bloom. Then suddenly comes the urge to plant trees and shrubs and a rush for plants only to find that only picked-over stock remains.

Make Yours A Safe, Happy Holiday Trip

Thanksgiving - traditional time for family gatherings - brings many additional travelers out on the highways. Everywhere, family groups and football fans en route to traditional Thanksgiving Day rivalries will be illustrating that "highways are for people."

The Texas Highway Department strives to make the 68,8 thousand miles of highways under State maintenance as safe and convenient for travelers as possible.

Construction areas, however, pose special problems, even though every effort is made to move traffic through them safely and with a minimum of inconvenience.

During the holiday period, the Texas Highway Department urges you to watch for - and observe - warning signs and signals.

Above all, please drive with care, caution and courtesy during the holiday period - and at all times. Make yours a safe, happy holiday season.

I led them with cords of compassion.—(Hos. 11:4).

Even where there is not another person around, we are never alone. We have the presence of God right with us. This does not mean that we do not need other persons in our life, for surely we all do. But when we rise out of feelings of loneliness or dejection, when we feel close to God, held in His warm and loving care, we find that this loving care includes not only God's love but also the love of other persons, for God's love finds expression through people.

 The Greyhounds ended their football season last Friday night, when they went to Paducah. They were defeated by a score of 10 to 0.
 The Greyhounds appreciated all the backing they received this season. Next year when the Greyhounds take the field in that first scrimmage, let's get behind them with the same spirit shown this year.

FHA News

By Linda Martinez
 The Knox City FHA Chapter met Monday night, November 11, in the library. This month's program was "Your Neighbors Near and Far," with Teresa White as chairman of the program.

Mrs. Conn, of O'Brien, gave an interesting report of her native land, Peru, and South America. Mrs. Delgado, third grade teacher here, spoke about her work with the Red Cross in Korea. Mrs. Gibson, and her daughter, Genia, then spoke, and showed films of Greece, Turkey, and the Mediterranean Sea. Genia Gibson was chosen "Girl of the Month" by the chapter.

The meeting adjourned and Eloise Jordan, Sue Egenbacher, Vonnie Brooks, Genia Gibson, and Carol Speck served refreshments.

For Every Right There Is An Obligation

If you kept telling a child about his rights and never about his duties, you'd soon have a spoiled brat on your hands. We're doing the same thing in this country but on a vastly more dangerous scale.
 The "right" of unions to strike for more pay but no obligation to earn it.
 The "rights" of new nations to independence but no obligation to prove they deserve it, no obligation to use freedom for the good of mankind.
 The "right" of young people to education but no obligation to pay their own way to get it.
 The "rights" of criminals and communists to flout the laws of our land, without any obligation to contribute to its worth and its freedom.

Spotted children grow into adult criminals, who have to be punished by the decent society they defy. Why wait?
