WILLIAM JACOB JONES

Death claimed one of Knox City's pioneers early Sunday morning when W. J. Jones passed away. He had only been sick a few days with pneumonia, being in town for the last time Friday morning.

He was born in Hill county, Texas, February 3, 1861, and was 78 years of age. He moved to Navarro county when a lad of eight and remained there until July, 1906. He then moved to Knox City and has resided here since that time. He was married in August, 1890, to Miss Sarah Jane Taylor in Navarro county and to this union six children were born, J. V., H. M., H. D. and Edmond (Casey), and Misses Willie and Hazel, all of whom reside in Knox City. He is also survived by one brother, J. V. Jones of Seagraves, and three sisters, Mrs. Dave Seaton of Corsicana, Mrs. W. F. Bolin and Mrs. S. L. Favor of Knox City, and two grandchildren, Henry Jean and Martha Jones.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the First Baptist church at three o'clock, with the pastor, H. E. East, in charge. He was assisted by Rev. C. E. Cogswell and Rev. A. A. Peacock of Knox City and Rev. J. W. English of Truscott. The remains were laid to rest in the Odd Fellows cemetery by the side of his wife, who preceded him in death several years ago.

Pallbearers were F. C. Walker, Ed Shaver, B. M. Farmer, W. E. Benedict, Dave Whitford, S. E. Youngblood, John Dutton and Carl Davis.

NOTICE TO TRUCK OWNERS

For your information and guidance we wish to call your attention to the proper procedure to be followed in the issuance of both farm license plates and also commercial license plates.

In a recent letter we have from the State Highway Department, it states: "It will be necessary for each applicant to execute properly Form 52-A before farm plates may be issued. No deviation from this procedure will be permissible regardless of whether the vehicle has been previously registered under farm license."

The Attorney General's Department has ruled that only commercial vehicles, used entirely within the limitations as set forth in Section 6-A of House Bill 6, are subject to registration as farm vehicles.

Either affidavit, Form 52 which is an application for the registration of a commercial vehicle, or Form 52-A which is an application for the registration of a farm truck, can be obtained from this office, or from any car dealer, and must be executed before a truck license can be secured.

We request your cooperation and trust that compliance with the above instructions will be observed when applying for a truck license.

COUNTY MONEY MOVED TO MUNDAY

County Treasurer Bob Burton was here from Benjamin Monday and called at our office. He informed us that he checked out the county money from the local bank and placed it in the First National Bank of Munday, which was made the county depository by the commissioner's court. The amount removed was $47,000, which is evidence that Knox County is in good financial condition.

TEXAS PRISON HAD MOST MURDERERS, BURGLARS IN 1937

Washington, Mar. 4.—More murderers and burglars were sent to prisons in Texas than in any other state during 1937. The Census Bureau reported Saturday.

Courts committed 2,899 men to Texas prisons on various felony counts during 1937. Among them were 246 murderers and 1,040 burglars. Second to Texas in total number of men committed for felonies was New York with 2,850, for murders North Carolina with 166, burglaries Ohio with 675.

Of all those sent to prisons on felony charges, 1,904 were first termers while 604 had one previous commitment, 226 had two on their records and 165 had three or more.

Their median age was 27.9 years, exactly the average for all felony prisoners in the Nation. Most were comparatively young, 635 of them being between 25 and 29 years old, 629 being from 21 to 24 years old, 403 being 18 to 20 years old and 49 younger.

Courts sent 2,974 men and women to Texas prisons on all counts, there being 2,904 men and 70 women. Of these 2,968 were felony cases, including 69 women, and six were misdemeanor commitments.

DEBT ADJUSTMENT NECESSITATED BY LOW FARM INCOME

Because farm income was greatly curtailed last year by low prices and widespread drought during the growing season, farmers of Knox county now have a greater need than ever for services of their county farm debt adjustment committee, Guion Gregg, Dallas, State FDA supervisor, said today.

The Knox county committee will meet on Friday, March 24, 2:30 o'clock at the county court house, it was announced by Guy H. Tomlinson, San Angelo, Texas, district supervisor.

"This service is free and confidential," said Howard M. Williamson, Seymour, Farm Security Administration supervisor, whose agency has charge of debt adjustment work. "The committee seeks to work out an agreement between debtor and creditor whereby the farmer can meet his obligations to the satisfaction of the latter. Dozens of farmers in this county have already used this service."

He added that farmers who are unable to attend the county committee meeting, but who need its services should communicate with the county, district or state supervisor.

FOR CITY MARSHAL

The Herald is authorized to announce J. J. Stephens as a candidate for re-election as City Marshal of Knox City, subject to the action of the primary election April 4.

Mr. Stephens was elected City Marshal two years ago and has served the town faithfully, discharging the duties of the office to the satisfaction of a majority of the people.

He asks for a second term on this record and it is believed that he will not have opposition. He desires to thank all the people who voted for him two years ago and asks that they honor him with their vote again. He pledges himself to discharge the duties should he be elected in the same manner that he has served the people the past two years.

ATTEND FUNERAL

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Caussey, Mrs. George Stubbs, Mrs. Harwell and other Knox City citizens are in Throckmorton today to attend funeral services for the little eight months old son of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Stout, who died in the Knox County Hospital Wednesday night of dicentory.

OLD AGE PENSION BILL GETS OUT OF COMMITTEE

Austin, March 8.—If the people of Texas want to assume a new tax burden of $30,000, 600 to $40,000,000 a year in order to pay liberal pensions to aged people, school teachers, dependent persons and those with impaired eye-sight, they are going to have to say so at the ballot box, sometime this summer.

That appeared to be the consensus of informed opinion in Austin this week end, as the House of Representatives sent all of the various tax bills it has received to a subcommittee with instructions to bring out recommended legislation without delay. Whatever tax plans are submitted to raise the social security money, they will, in the opinion of those closely in touch with the situation, be incorporated in one or more constitutional amendments.

The Legislature appears at this time entirely unwilling to heap that much tax burden upon the citizens without a direct mandate at the ballot box. So the prospect at this writing is that this will be an entirely taxless session of the Legislature.

Whether the constitutional plan incorporating a tax program will be a series of amendments, offering alternate proposals, such as a sales tax, a "use" tax, a transaction tax, an income tax, a gross receipts tax, and increased natural resource tax, or whether it will be a single "omnibus" amendment, including several of these tax plans, depends entirely upon the prevailing sentiment among members of the House committees on taxation and revenue and on constitutional amendments.

The familiar arguments against each of the tax forms have been heard by legislators from spokesmen of each of the affected groups. The sales tax obviously is a burden upon the lower income group—the farmer, the laborer and the small salaried worker. The transaction tax is a multiple sales tax, with its evils and burdens multiplied. The gross income and "use" taxes are but sales taxes, with their collection methods simplified. The natural resource people claim they are approaching the breaking point in their ability to pay further taxes. The protests of representatives from almost all economic groups, including farmers, labor, manufacturers, retail merchants, oil men and consumers, have poured into Austin until many of the legislators are convinced that the best way out of the maze is to check the problem back to the people.

They think that the voters who are at work, trying to make a living, educate their children, pay their taxes and carry on a normal life, may be shocked into backing the legislators in a sane and sensible social security program that will take care of actually needy people, and not attempt to play Santa Claus to everybody in the state. They point out that his type of citizen still outnumber the group who want something for nothing, and many predict that if the legislature checks it back to the people as a whole to write the formula for extracting thirty or forty million dollars in additional taxes from their depleted incomes, they may go to the ballot box and turn thumbs down on the "pensions for everybody" program of the demagogues and professional pension agitators.

Meanwhile, conservative sentiment in both houses is proceeding on the theory that if the tax problem is submitted to the voters for solution, the way will be cleared to effect some governmental economy, achieve an improved fiscal set-up for the state government, abolish some useless bureaus and commissions, and pare down the excessive operating costs of some departments. The regular appropriation bills will be given the most careful scrutiny this session, and the present plans call for the taking of plenty of time to consider them, instead of rushing them to conference committees the last 48 hours of the session for hasty and ill-considered action.

Whatever the outcome of the referendum plan on taxes when the people finally pass on it, the legislators feel that they cannot go wrong politically by leaving it to the voters. If the voters voluntarily assume the huge tax burden, the solons will have a perfect alibi; while, if they reject it, no one can accuse the members of the House and Senate of "failure to take care of the old folks."

GOSSETT INTRODUCES BILL

Washington, Mar. 2.—Congressman Ed Gossett of Wichita Falls, Texas, today introduced in the House of Representatives the same bill introduced in the Senate a few days ago by Senator Tom Connally. The bill seeks to correct inequalities and discrimination in the freight rates in Texas and the Southwest.

Regarding this bill, Gossett stated: "Texas and the Southwest have long suffered from unfair economic inequalities with the rest of the United States. One of the causes of this condition has been and is the high freight rates paid by this section. The gross discriminations and inequalities now existing in the freight rate structure in Texas and the Southwest should be removed. Simple justice demands this."

"This bill seeks to amend certain sections of the Interstate Commerce Act and to make unlawful and discriminatory preference given to any shipper or territory. It requires the Interstate Commerce Commission to investigate and determine the location of alleged inequalities and discriminations in freight rates and remove the same."

The Interstate Commerce Committee of the Senate and the Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee of the House of Representatives are now conducting hearings on various bills seeking to eliminate unfair rate differentials. Recently, numerous witnesses have appeared from Texas and the Southwest before these Committees to testify as to the rates and conditions in the South and the Southwest.

DIES AT LAMESA

Curt White, 31, died Sunday morning in Lamesa after being ill for several days with pneumonia. He was reared in this section but for the past ten years has resided in Lamesa. He was a grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Parr of this city. He is survived by his wife and two children. Dewey Darden and wife attended the funeral from here. The remains were laid to rest in the Lamesa cemetery Monday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Parr were unable to attend.

Tom Alverson, who has been working at the Lawson Cafe for the past three months, was in Stamford the first of the week visiting his mother, George Connolly of Stamford is working in his place during his absence.

Entered as second class matter at the postoffice at Knox City, Texas, under the act of March 5, 1879.

RACKETEERS

Austin, Feb. 28.—Mrs. APOL Kelle, a little old lady of Victoria county, is bewildered and distressed.

Her family has owned a 96 acre tract of land in that county for half a century—or at least thought it did. But now the discovery of oil in that section has brought vacancy hunting camp followers a-runnin'.

"A surveying crew claims that part of this land belongs to the state," writes Mrs. Kelle to Representative Paris Smith of Bay City, author of a bill to curb vacancy racketeering. "I inherited this land from my mother. Before that it was owned by my grandfather, and my mother inherited it from him."

"I am told that in case the state should try to take this land away from me the case would have to be tried in Travis county. This would be ruinous to me."

"I do not understand why this should be. I do not think it is right for them to take any part of this 96 acres, as it does not belong to the state, but to me. I saw in the paper that you were fighting the vacancy hunters, so I hope you will do your best to save my land for me."

This is a sample of appeals coming to Smith, other legislators and the Texas Landowners Association from all over the state, many of them heart-wrenching.

As a different type of plea, revealing other evils of the vacancy racket, Smith cited a letter from Louis LeTulle of Bay City, urging his assistance in clearing up the "tragic situation" of vacancies.

Mr. LeTulle says he owns a league of land in Matagorda county, on which taxes have been paid for more than 129 years. He agreed to lease part of it to an oil company, but before the lease was executed vacancy claims were filed, alleging errors in the original survey.

"As a result," he writes, "I failed to obtain the $9,600 bonus which the lessee had agreed to pay. I may never be able, because of this uncertainty, to get these lands prospected and developed for oil."

He had a similar experience with 161. Seven vacancy applications blocked a lease that would have paid him a $1,611 bonus, and although the land commissioner refused the applications last December, saying there was no vacancy, the title is still clouded so that he cannot find a lessee.

SANDSTORMS LAST WEEK

Last week Knox county experienced its first severe sandstorms of the year. Monday it arrived here about noon and continued for six hours and the visibility was about two blocks. It broke loose again Saturday and was almost as severe as Monday. The merchants had hard luck with their sales Saturday but Sunday and Monday it was clear and warm and good crowds were here the first of the week buying goods. The farmers are not discouraged but all agree that a good rain is badly needed.

RECEIVES LICENSE

John G. Dutton, City Water Works Superintendent, received congratulations from the State Health Department upon his step forward in taking examination for Water Supply Operator's license. He passed satisfactorily with the licensing committee, thus placing himself on record as being in favor of higher standards in water purity and health control.

JUNIOR NEWS

The Juniors were all excited Tuesday because their playbooks had just arrived and the characters for the Junior play had been selected. The play is a three act comedy entitled "Three Days of Grace" and is to be presented on March 17. The characters are as follows: Katie Belle Sweatt, Bill Herring, Clea Jones, La Verne Bumpas, Margaret Hardin, Howard Payne Shannon, Howard Myers, Cecil Joe Burton, Juanita Hunter, Joe Tom Nelson and Virginia Parkhill.

The characters and their sponsor, Miss Gray, are working hard on the play and are sure it will be a success. Remember the date: Friday night March 17. Remember the title "Three Days of Grace." Remember the place, the Sunset auditorium, and be sure to come.

AMONG THE CLASSES

The freshmen were very sorry not to have Mr. Underwood with them in General Science Monday morning, but they all enjoyed Mrs. Sykes teaching.

The girls in Home Economics had their second Future Home Makers Club meeting Monday, March 6. Miss Gray gave an interesting talk on the trip to Seymour Saturday. None of the Freshmen girls went to the meeting and the discussion was very interesting to them.

The Sophomores are glad to have two of their old classmates, Prentiss and LaVerne Brown, back with them. They left Sunset while in the seventh grade and moved to Rhineland, where they attended school until they recently came back to Sunset.

In Shop II the boys work is arranged differently from what it was the first half. They have dropped mechanical drawing and are studying electrical work. Instead of spending all their days working, twice each week students give reports on what they have been doing, and give histories of various tools in the shop.

SENIORS ON PARADE

Louise Gray was born on January 5, 1922, in Terry county. At the ripe old age of 18 months she moved to Munday with the rest of the Gray family. She enjoyed the climate of that city until she was four years old. The family then moved to their present home four miles southwest of Sunset. At the age of six she started to school at Gillespie. She was in the third grade when the Gillespie school consolidated with Sunset. She has remained in the Sunset school until the present time.

Always the athletic type of girl, she played on the grammar school baseball team for three years. In high school she played baseball two years and volleyball two years. We certainly appreciate our only Senior girl that is interested in athletics.

Louise plans to become a nurse upon completion of her high school career.

GRADE SCHOOL NEWS

The third grade pupils are glad to have Jo Anne Whittemore back. She has been absent for the past three months.

The Junior baseball girls have organized their team for this year. Mrs. Shannon is their coach and has worked with them patiently and the team has high hopes of carrying off the county championship. The team at present consists of Bertha Fay Jennings, Frances Walling, Gena Beth Griffith, Edna Fay Hardin, Sibyl Beauchamp, Glendolyn Frost, Rosemary Hertel, Wanda Sue Partidge, Juanita Mincey, Virginia Tankersley, Elma Lee Brewer and Stella Merle Earp.

On account of six weeks examinations week before last, the grade school had to have two chapel programs last week. The fifth grade had theirs on Tuesday and the fourth on Friday. Both were in the form of Amateur radio programs.

The fifth grade pupils have finished their History book and have started on Health text. They are all enjoying it. We are glad to have Daisy Hutchinson, from the Brock school, as a new pupil. We are also glad to have Mildred Yost back after a week's illness.

Negros are just as human as anyone and many times we have an opportunity to notice their reactions to things in life, especially since they are our neighbors. During the cotton-picking season I had a chance to observe a certain negro family that moved into a tent not far from our store. Despite the fact that there were about eight in the family and they all lived in the one tent, they were from all outward appearances very happy. How they managed to acquire such a sunny disposition I do not know. It was during the coldest weather and snow was on the ground. Someone in the community was kind enough to donate an old bed. With that and a stove, they lived in the tent all during the cotton-picking season. They came occasionally to our store to buy a few necessary groceries. Perhaps another thing that caught my attention was the fact that they asked for newspapers and magazines to read. I thought that was very unusual. After thinking over their case I came to the conclusion that because they had never known the luxuries of life they were happy and content just to be together and to be living.

ONE ACT PLAYS FRIDAY NIGHT

Friday night in the school auditorium, the one act play will be chosen for the Knox City High School entry in the interscholastic meet to be held in Munday on March 23. The public is invited to attend these two plays.

There will be two plays presented under the direction of Charles Shumaker of the high school faculty. One of the plays is Hamill-Hafer's farce, "Farwell, Cruel World"; the other is "Luncheon for Six."

The two plays are hilarious comedies and well cast. The casts have been working energetically to win the school try-out for the one act play, so everyone will get their money's worth.

The admission price is only ten cents to all, and everyone is urged to attend. The receipts will go to the athletic fund to buy equipment for the track and field meet.

TYPING CONTEST

On Wednesday, March 8, the local students will compete for high school championship, in typing to determine who will represent the school in the county meet which takes place March 24.

Up to date the prospective contestants have been pounding the keyboard in an effort to develop skill, speed and precision. The students who have entered are Marjorie Propps, Nina Mae Davis, Pearl Hendrix and Glenn Huntsmar.

BAND PARADES FOR LIONS

The local high school band paraded the downtown district and gave a short concert Friday afternoon on the invitation extended by the local Lions Club. Although handicapped by several absences from the ranks, the band gave a fair exhibition of marching and maneuvering.

For the past few weeks the band has been making extensive preparation for the coming contest to be held in Abilene April 6, 7 and 8. At this contest the band will play a warm-up march of their own selection, an overture required by the National Festival Committee, and a second overture selected by the director from a list prepared by the National Committee.

SPORTS BY SPUTTERS

The Knox City volleyball team has not had any games for some time. However, we plan to have some games sometime this week. As the gym will be in use at night the games, if there are any, will be after 5:30 in the afternoon.

DECLAMATION TRY-OUTS

Friday afternoon the declaimers, both boys and girls, will have their try-outs to determine who will represent the school in the county meet. The girls who will compete are Ernestine Teaff, Doris Elaine Clonts, Helen Ruth Marr and Marjorie Propps. The boys are Dickie Mullins, Bobby Armstrong and Billy Dean Davis.

STYLE SHOW

Come one! Come all! Come and see the style show given by the Home Making II B and IIB classes. There will be the latest styles, spring combinations and new ideas. Don't miss them. The show will be Friday morning at 9:30 o'clock in the school auditorium. Music by the high school band.

DEBATERS MEET ASPERMONT

Wednesday, March 8, the debate teams, under the supervision of Mrs. Roy Baker, will go to Aspermont to meet the debate teams of that school. A return engagement of the Aspermont teams will visit Knox City on Monday, March 13, and the teams will debate the different sides of the question.

By making visits to other schools and practicing the different techniques of debate the teams hope to develop their ability and skill.

GUESS WHO

She is five feet and ten inches tall and weighs one hundred and thirty-five pounds. She has lovely brown hair and brown eyes. She has pretty teeth and an extraordinary complexion. She is musically gifted. Her favorites are: color, combination of black and white; sport, tennis; hobby, knitting; actor, Clark Gable; actress, Margaret Sullivan, and her favorite food is "any kind of salad."

Last week's "Guess Who" was Coach Craig Walling. Watch for answer in next week's Kennel.

IMPRESSIONS

Just as a joke we have tried to compile a list of the characteristics of Knox City high school students. This is pure humor and is not meant to be taken seriously.

The most undesirable girl, using various students physical features, would be:

Voice, Pearl Hendrix; laugh, Emma Sue Thompson; eyebrows, Marie Darr; shape of face, Anna Lou Warren; eyes, Wynette Farmer; nose, Irene Hendrix; teeth, Mary Frances Reeder; mouth, Geneva Walker; figure, Dorothy V. Warren; legs, Rowena Hutchinson; feet, Bobby McCarty; hands, Nina Mae Davis; hair, Doris Apple, and complexion, Margaret Dutton.

The most desirable girl: Shape of face, Edna Warren; eyes, Juanell Dozier; nose, Vera Nance; teeth, Mary Helen Evans; mouth, Doris Elaine Clonts; figure, Mary Frances Reeder; legs, Ernestine Teaff; feet, Marjorie Propps; hands, Anna Lou Warren; hair, Faye Heath, and complexion, Wynette Farmer.

SPRING THE BEAUTIFUL

The beautiful sunny days mixed with the fury of sandstorms are doing things to the high school students. Especially to David and Paul Edward, Munday evidently likes the essence of Spring.

Marjorie and Doris Elaine declare the word "spring" has nothing to do with their change of thought—"varity" is the word!

Mr. Walling still likes birds and shot-guns, even if they are dangerous.

Geneva and Mary Frances seem to have had business in Seymour. Perhaps they were enjoying the weather there.

Reed Bradley is teaching the Seventh grad. He says he gets so hot and bothered at times he is forced to read "Gone With the Wind" to cool him off.

Lillian Hutchinson will always remember that old adage, "the prodigal will return, even if it is spring."

Mrs. Baker's "spring madness" on the stage is not an example for you, students.

From all evidence Mr. Whitis' version of the word "heart" did not come from the dictionary!

—The Snoop.

I GIVE YOU TEXAS . . .
By Boyce House

Entry in the "oldest joke" contest: A banker, after turning down an application for a loan, finally told an insistent man, "I'll loan you a hundred if you can tell me which one of my eyes is a glass one." The other said, "It's the left eye." The banker said, "That's correct but how did you know?" The borrower said, "I could see a little gleam of human sympathy in it."

Nocona is up near the head of the class for odd signs. One says, "Kleenitorium" and another, "Lubricatorium." The first one designates a cleaning and pressing shop; the other, a garage department where sars are greased.

Which reminds me of another story about bankers: A farmer, wanting to open an account, was sent to the vice president in charge of new business. When he wished to transfer his money so it would draw interest, he was directed to the vice president in charge of savings accounts, and when he wanted to borrow some money, he was sent to the vice president in charge of loans.

One day, the president of the bank visited the farmer and, noticing a man at work near the barn, the banker said, "I see you have a hired man." The farmer replied, "No, that's the vice president in charge of the mules."

Around your Capitol City. Critics of Governor O'Daniel have been so severe that they have overplayed their hands. You can criticize a man so liberally that folks feel he is being persecuted. The Senate's rejection of Truett Smith for Insurance Commissioner because he voted against Coke Stevenson for Lieutenant Governor is rather peculiar grounds, especially in view of the fact that the candidate Smith supported was his old law partner. Nearly half a million people didn't vote for Coke Stevenson. Are the ineligible for state appointment?

Also hounded almost to martyrdom is Bill McDonald. Not satisfied with having defeated him at the polls, his enemies have pursued him even after he returned to private life. Which is the surest way to create sympathy for a man.

District Judge Ralph Yarborough took cognizance of lobbying when he charged a Travis county grand jury not long ago. While recognizing the "right of petition" of course, Judge Yarborough pointed out that certain lobbying practices are prohibited by law.

First thing Jerry Sadler did when he moved to Austin to become State Railroad Commissioner was to build a barbecue pit in the backyard of his home. Not long ago, he entertained Austin newspapermen and he presented an interesting appearance, wearing boots, jumpers, a leather jacket and an apron and a big white hat. By the way, did you ever eat any barbecued turkey? It's Jerry's specialty.

The highway a short distance north of Austin is torn up again—or yet. Last summer, traffic had to detour for miles, because a small bridge was being built. Now there are two "one-way" spots, constituting inconvenience and danger on one of the most heavily traveled roads in the state. One wonders why all three pieces of work weren't done at the same time.

Jumping around over Texas: "Casa Manana rides again." For the fourth year, Fort Worth will present magnificent entertainment on the world's largest revolving stage out under the Texas moon next summer. Lou Wolfson, noted impresario, spent three days wandering about Fort Worth, like the disguised Caliph of Bagdad, asking soda dispensers, policemen, waitresses and many others what kind of entertainment Texas enjoys.

Look alike: Collier Paris and Bing Crosby. Parris—as, of course, you know—is the famous sports editor of the Lubbock Avalanche. Crosby does something or other in the movies and on the radio.

Publisher H. B. Fox added 230 subscribers to the Madisonville Meteor recently through a hen subscription contest. He actually received 256 hens as some of the subscribers brought in two light ones instead of one heavy one.

And that calls to mind the story of the man who complained about eggs being 60 cents a dozen. "That's a nickel each," he declared. A friend replied, "But did you ever stop to think that an egg represents a whole day's work for a hen?"

PLAY HUGE SUCCESS

The play entitled "Reading, Riting and Rhythm" given by the Lions Club at the high school auditorium was a grand success and a large crowd was present and all enjoyed the program. The play was directed by Mrs. Milton Bradberry and she received many compliments on the way it was rendered.

The proceeds amounted to more than thirty dollars and the money will be used to defray the expenses of a delegate to the International Convention in Pittsburg, Penn., in May. They expect to give several more plays and entertainments before time for the delegate to depart.

Skeets Carpenter was attending district court in Benjamin Tuesday.

Sheriff Louis Cartwright of Benjamin was here Monday on official business.

Mrs. Curtis Coates of Monday attended the funeral of W. J. Jones here Monday.

Saturday evening, Feb. 25 Wilson Blufford Thompson and Velma Paulene Mabrey were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the Grace Methodist Church in Wichita Falls, Texas. The only attendant was the groom's sister, Miss Cassie Thompson of Wichita Falls.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Thompson of this city and is a graduate of the Knox City High School, class of '33. For the past several years he has made his home in California.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for a short wedding trip East. We extend sincere good wishes to this young couple.
