KNOX CITY, KNOX COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, MARCH 24, 1922.

Number 45.

J. G. PARRIS FOR COMMISSIONER, PRECINCT NO. 1

In this issue will be found the announcement of Mr. J. G. Parris for re-election to the office of County Commissioner of Precinct No. 1 of Knox County. Parris needs no introduction to the citizens of this territory, who have lived with them for years and always identified them with farming or business of his precinct. He was elected two terms as commissioner, 1914-18 and after a rest of two years was again elected to the office in 1920. This year he has been re-elected to the same position.

The purpose of this company is set forth as follows: First, to purchase or lease a rig for drilling an oil well on one of several tracts of land that have been leased or that will be leased by this company. Said lease to cover a total acreage of about 9,000 acres, laying to the north and northwest of Knox City. All of these leases have not yet been secured, and it is urged that all who are interested should get behind the move and help to secure the same, as nothing further has been accomplished until the required acreage may be secured at once and that actual work can be started within a very short time.

Knox City was visited Tuesday night by "The Twelve Old Maids" from Benjamin—or that is, the play was rendered by Benjamin talent at the Opera House here on that night. The entertainment was enjoyed by a goodly number of our citizens. It was under the auspices of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church of Benjamin. Music was furnished by the Benjamin Orchestra.

A state championship game of girls' basketball will be played at Munday, March 31st. The game promises to be a very interesting one, and all those who enjoy a good game of basketball should make their plans to be there. Next Friday the had invested $1.00 at 4 per cent interest—compounded annually—on his 21st birthday, it would have amounted to $977,156,900,000,000,000,000,000 when he died—938 years later—

Report That Ex-Congressman Had Died Was a Mistake—Condition is Still Serious.

It was reported here Wednesday that Congressman Parrish had died, but it is learned and appreciated by his many friends that the report was a mistake. The following report of his condition was published in Wednesday's Fort Worth Star-Telegram:

Wichita Falls, March 21.—A continued improvement in the condition of Congressman Lucian W. Parrish through today led attending physicians to hold out hopes that he will recover, though it is stated that his condition is still serious.

His temperature has dropped three degrees, and today was passed easily, following a restful night. He cannot yet, however, it is stated, be considered out of danger.

His unusually splendid physique and regular habits have been the strongest factors in his fight for life during the last two days, physicians stated, his own strength being the vital factor in the struggle.

The Social Club met Friday, the 10th, with Mrs. Herschel Lyle. Forty-two was enjoyed by sixteen ladies. A salad plate was then passed. On each plate was a bouquet of pink sweet peas that each lady proudly wore home.

ROCHESTER TO HOLD CITY ELECTION APRIL 4TH

(Rule Review) Rochester which has been recently incorporated, is to hold their first election for city officers the first Tuesday in April, which falls on the 4th.

We understand that H. L. Dunn's name will be placed on the ballot as Mayor, and L. A. Martin's name as City Marshal. We are sure Mr. Dunn will make an excellent Mayor, as he has been a resident of Rochester for a number of years and knows the need of the town.

Mr. Martin is the present night watchman for Rochester and he is a good one, and we are confident that he will make as good a peace officer as he is a night watchman.

League Locals.

League, March 21.—We have church every Saturday night before the third Sunday, also church Sunday, 11 a. m., Sunday School 10 a. m. and church Sunday night. Everyone invited.

The League senior class are to have an entertainment at Mr. Nerbalen's Wednesday night, March 21.

Mrs. Reagan's son has been very ill, but we are glad to report that he is doing better.

C. OF C. MET MONDAY NIGHT

Livestock and Poultry Show, Baseball and Other Topics Are Discussed.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce met in regular session at the Orient Drug Store Monday night. A few members of the Senior Chamber of Commerce met in Guinn-Clonts Company's hardware store, but as there was not a quorum present, there was no business transacted. After some discussion of various topics, the Juniors went into the hardware store, where those of the Seniors who had come out were engaged in social conversation.

The subjects that had been discussed and plans that had been suggested at the meeting of the Junior organization were submitted to the Senior members present. Among the topics discussed were: The organization of a baseball club, the livestock and poultry show, to be held here April 5 and 6, and a trades day. A mass meeting had been announced for Monday night, for the purpose of completing the organization of a baseball club, but probably it was not advertised sufficiently, as only members of the Chambers of Commerce were present.

It was decided to call another mass meeting, to be held at the Opera House Wednesday afternoon, as the Chambers of Commerce did not consider that this matter should come under their jurisdiction. The matter has since been turned over to Ed Humphries, however, who will probably act as field manager this season, and he will have charge of the work of organizing the club and getting the local team lined up.

It was decided Monday night to make an auto excursion trip to neighboring towns the first of next week for the purpose of advertising the livestock and poultry show.

Some methods of making our trades day a greater benefit to the town and community were discussed, but no action was taken at this meeting.

V. E. Skains, one of Rochester's live wires was a business visitor to Knox City Wednesday, and called at The Journal office and gave us an order for some job printing. He also gave an ad in this issue of The Journal.

The best way to get people to trade in your town, and at your store is to let them know you want their trade. And the most logical and most profitable way to let them know this is through the columns of your local paper.

The Monday Times has added to its progressiveness by adopting an all-news front page. In other words, it has eliminated all advertising from its front page. This is a modern idea, and a good one. The Times is backed by a substantial advertising patronage from home enterprises, which is just what it takes to make a live newspaper.

When there's any kind of community affair to take place it is necessary to give it publicity in order to make it a success. Your local paper always opens for engagements and we are always glad to do our part of the boosting. Likewise, if you want your business to be successful, you should give it publicity—your local paper boosts your business and it is always open for engagements along this line, also. Engage some of our space and boost your own business a little more.

We do not believe the Orient Railroad will quit business, as it has announced that it will do on July 1st unless some relief comes. We do not believe the town on this road can afford to let it quit business or that they will sleep on their rights and let the first of July dawn upon them without something being done. But it does seem that something should be done this time to put the road on a self-sustaining basis, so that it will not have to call on these towns for donations as it has in the past.

The Knox County Livestock Show and Carnival will be held in Knox City on April 5th and 6th, and we believe all who can should attend and give this show their own support. The show was not held last year, but we believe that the dates conflict with the dates of the poultry show here it was postponed. Mandy appreciates the cooperation, Co-operation should be our watchword. —Monday Times

A Game Two Could Play

From the Advertiser: The oldest good story in the one about the boy who left the farm and got a job in the city. He wrote a letter to his brother, who elected to stick by the farm, telling the joys of city life, in which he said: "Thursday we motored out to the country club, where we golfed until dark. Then we motored to the beach for the week end." The brother on the farm wrote back: "Yesterday we bugged to town and baseball all afternoon. Then we went to Ned's and pokered until morning. Today we muled out to the cornfield and goe-hawed until sundown. Then we snuppered, and then we piped for a while. After that we staircased up to our room and bedstedded until the cows bled." — Ex.

OUR EXCHANGE TABLE

The good rains of the past week have placed a broad smile on the face of many of our citizens, and a general business revival is expected through out all Western Texas. —Monday Times.

We haven't noticed any frowns over this way on account of the dry weather, but it hasn't rained enough here yet to make anybody smile out loud.

Do you want to kill your town as dead as a door knob? DON'T buy it in Crawford. Trot to the city and spend your money, and you will succeed. And when you do this, be sure to kiss your money good-bye, for you will never see it again. —Crawford Advance.

And if you are in business, be sure that you do not advertise in your local paper or use printed stationery in your business correspondence. Only the live wires do those things.

Arkansas claims 56 Texas counties, and will leave the question to the Supreme Court for settlement. We might compromise and give them a few East Texas counties that don't raise anything but politicians, but their claims for 56 counties is absurd. Now the question, "Who is pulling this bonehead?" —Goree Advocate.

We do not see it just that way. Fact is, we don't want any more to have any part of that state, and besides, we believe that every East Texas county has some things behind its doors.

Those who are making a specialty of pure blood poultry and are advertising their stock and eggs, are making some nice money over those who have just any old kind of chickens and sell their eggs for eating only. —Gunter Star.

The same is true in all lines. The man who has what the people want and advertises what he has will do more business than the fellow who "cannot afford the expense"—and of course the people who are in the market want the best, whatever the line may be.

Whippings have occurred over the country that have not been put on by the Ku Klux. That is an illustration of what we have said before that there is no place where you can stop this private whipping business when you get it started. —Baylor County Banner.

whom we would consider unworthy of our sympathy, even though they were "beaten with many stripes," by either masked or unmasked men. But we do not believe in whipping or in tarring and feathering as a means of punishment for crime. However, we would like to see our laws better enforced and believe it would be better if criminals and some of their lawyers were allowed less freedom in our courts.

Have You Forgotten?

Little Son: "Mother, why is it that so few graves in our cemetery have monuments erected to them? Is it because they do not have as much of their friends as we do?"
 Mother: "No son, it is because they let it off from time to time until they think everyone has forgotten it."

Well, there is one that knows it, J. H. McGee, who represents the Haskell Marble Works, knows that you have not erected one. See him.

QUALITY PRICE

Last week and the week before we told you about things that in many ways looked alike, but in service or quality there was much difference. This week is just a continuation of the same thing, only we are specific in this ad.

This week, the specific thing is flour. Now the most of us can't tell the difference in many makes of flour by simply looking at the flour, but we can tell a difference in them when each is made into what some folks call bread.

About fifteen years ago we decided to handle a brand of flour, at that time not very well known out here, but on account of the number of stores we have and the quality of the merchandise, it soon had a reputation better than any other flour on the market and it was, up until about 12 or 18 months ago, everything anyone could say for flour, but it began to slip, folks began to tell us the flour was not up to the standard, etc., etc. Here's the Reason:

About two years ago the man who had been making the above mentioned flour had the opportunity to buy one of the very best mills in the South. One so good it practically broke the man who built it. This new mill now belongs to the FANT MILLING CO., with MR. E. T. FANT behind the flour, the same man who has been behind the flour we have sold these many years with such success. The Reason, Folks, is that Mr. Fant is No Longer Behind the Flour We Have Been Selling all These Years, but is behind the flour he is now putting out under the brand of FANT'S FAIRY, which makes FANT'S FAIRY the best flour now on the market. It is better in several ways than our old brand that he once put out. The reasons are too many to enumerate.

Buy a sack, use half, three-fourths or all of a sack and if it is not a more satisfactory flour than you have been using, BRING US THE HALF, ONE-FOURTH or EMPTY SACK BACK, LOOK US SQUARE IN THE EYE AND TELL US IT IS NOT AS GOOD AS OTHER BRANDS. WE WON'T EVEN ASK YOU ONE SINGLE QUESTION, BUT WILL GIVE YOU BACK THE MONEY PAID FOR THE SACK RETURNED. Say, how's that for a square deal? Fair enough, ain't it? Damphino, but'er go'ner try 'er oncet. Atter boy.

- The price for this week is $1.10 per 24-lb. sack
