"Disaster Preparedness" Is Explained Thursday Evening

Charles S. Fodor, American Red Cross division representative, presided over an informal discussion of "Disaster Preparedness" Thursday evening in the First United Methodist Church. Introduced by Ken Crownover, Mr. Fodor explained that the purpose of the meeting was to plan and work together as needed to give aid to fellowmen in case of disaster. The American Red Cross spent over 100 million dollars assisting people in the past year, considering only the needs brought about by a disaster, not by losses. Fodor stressed the point of individual responsibility of using all available resources. If five families or more are involved in a disaster, and if the local Red Cross chapter cannot meet the needs, then the federal organization helps the chapter by providing time, money, and people.

Red Cross responsibilities include the relief of persons in need as a result of disaster, financed by Red Cross through voluntary contributions.

Should disaster strike, the local government provides emergency community services, usual community welfare services, assistance in community restoration, and aid for recovery to families. The Red Cross provides emergency mass care assistance, including food, shelter, medical and nursing aid, and clothing. Whenever possible, the Red Cross deals directly with each family on an individual basis, Mr. Fodor said. Without a disaster plan, it would be six or eight critical hours before organization could be brought about. With a good plan, operations could be carried out smoothly within two or three hours after disaster struck, he explained.

Attending the meeting were Ken Crownover, Knox City Red Cross Blood chairman; Glen Rumley, Dr. R. G. Howell and Emma Watkins, representing medical care; Gene Agnew, J. B. Tabor and Alton Fitzgerald utilities; Drew Holcomb, Bud Reynolds, and Ronnie White, Knox City Fire Department; James Hewitt, City of Knox City; Bud Carver, County Commissioner, and Doris Crownover, Chamber of Commerce.

In considering a local disaster plan, the importance of the coordinator's role, the local government, and Red Cross combined efforts were stressed. Fodor pointed out that the responsibilities of the local government include the protection of life, property, public health and welfare, and the maintenance and repair of public property, financed by public agencies from tax funds. KC Boys Participating In Boys State Program

Among those registering for the thirty-first annual American Legion Boys State, sponsored by the Department of Texas and held on the campus of the University of Texas, were Brent Ralback, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Ralback and Charlie Lieb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arche Lieb. The event got underway Saturday, June 5 with 840 high school boys from all parts of Texas and two from Mexico registering, announced B. B. Hester, Department Commander.

Following registration, each citizen was assigned to one of two political parties - the Nationalists or Federalist. Each citizen then functions as a member of his party, attends its precinct, county and state conventions and votes in its primary.

In Boys State, The American Legion provides the type of program where the young citizen has the opportunity to learn for himself that his government is just what he makes it. The boy "learns to do by doing."

The program takes an added significance this year as the vote is extended to 18 year olds. Most Boys Staters are in the 16 to 17 age category.

Highlight of Boys State will be a trip to the Capitol on Friday morning where each elected Boys State Official will be given an opportunity to serve in his respective office for a day, followed by the Governor's Hall Friday evening.

Boys State enrollment this year brings the total of 15,775 junior high school boys who have attended since 1940, when Boys State was first inaugurated in Texas.

Streams In Desert Places
BY OZELLE STEPHENS

In the writings of Isaiah 42nd and 43rd chapter God's people had failed to read and obey His word. They had been blessed but in time of plenty, they failed to worship God. They were worshipping other things so God tried to get them to repent. God poured out His fury and wrath upon them. They were destroyed. God still loved them as a nation and said to them in trouble, "Don't be afraid for I have ransomed you, I have called you by name; you are mine. When you go through deep waters and great troubles, I will be with you, when you go through rivers of difficulty, you will not drown. When you walk through the fire of oppression, you will not be burned for I am the Lord your God, your Saviour, the Holy One who loved you." Dear reader, He is the same to you who believe.
