The dedication program will begin at 11:00 a.m., and a catered lunch will be served after the dedication. As stated before, a large tent will be erected to serve as a shelter.

Several hundred seed dealers, growers, conservation district supervisors, farmers, ranchers, city developers, sportsmen, and others interested in the plants being tested will attend. The PMC serves Texas, Oklahoma, and adjoining states. Congressmen and State Representatives from the area are also expected to attend.

Change In Motor Vehicle Laws

Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, reminded Texans today of the change in the Motor Vehicle Laws which makes accidents occurring on parking lots reportable to the DPS.

Under the new section of the law, which becomes effective August 28, any accident involving a motor vehicle should be reported to the local police agency.

Accidents occurring on shopping center parking lots and those in areas where a particular store has provided free parking space are reportable, provided that any injury or death has occurred or there is a total of $50 or more in property damage. The only accidents which are exempted under the new law are those occurring on private residential driveways or on a privately owned parking lot where a fee is charged for parking.

Research And Studies Carried Out At The PMC

BY ARNOLD DAVIS

Texas leads the nation in number of cattle. We have about 10 million head, which is also about how many people there are in the State. Grass is the cheapest feed we can grow for cattle.

The Soil Conservation Service Plant Materials Center at Knox City is looking for new and better grasses. Native grasses have been collected from all parts of Texas and Oklahoma and planted at the Center. Here they are compared to other collections of the same kind. Each collection is rated to determine its good and weak points. Over 850 collections are being studied.

Sixty acres of irrigated land were leased from Tom Campbell in 1965. About 35 of the 60 acres are planted. Fifty seed production fields are planted to promising grasses. Seed produced here is used to make evaluation plantings on the farms and ranches of the Soil Conservation District cooperators.

Plantings will be made from Van Horn to Nacogdoches and from Oklahoma City to Laredo with this seed next spring. All of the plantings with these new strains of grasses will be made to study them in range and pastures. For example, a new strain of whiplash pappus will be tried in the conditions found at Pecos. A new weeping lovegrass will be compared to the commercial variety in the Mount Pleasant area and so on for each of the fifty promising grasses.

In addition, many new grasses are being studied that have been introduced from foreign countries. The weeping lovegrass is one of these. Included in this group are kleingrass, 42 collections, lehmann lovegrass, 13 collections, weeping lovegrass, 16 collections and many more. Many of these are being grown in Texas for the first time.

Native forbs and legumes for wildlife food and cover are being studied at the Center. Many of these make up an important part of the diet of deer at certain times of the year. Seed of these important plants is not offered for sale now. The Plant Materials Center is working on the best way to grow the plants and harvest seed. An example of this is the Englemann daisy with 11 collections and a native legume from Knox County that was found growing in coastal bermudagrass.

Another part of the work is to process and clean the different seeds. A variety of seed processing and cleaning equipment is used. Much of the seed harvesting equipment has been adapted to handle trashy grass seeds and new methods of harvesting and cleaning the seeds are studied.

He has been associated with the production credit system for a good many years; first as a member-stockholder of the Memphis association, and since the merger of Memphis into the Stamford association, a member-stockholder of the Rolling Plains association.

1,180 Men To Be Drafted In Sept.

State draft boards will be called upon to furnish 1,180 men for the armed forces in September, Colonel Morris S. Schwartz, state Selective Service director, said Tuesday. This compares with quotas of 1,421 for August, 974 for July, 975 for June, 885 for May, and 675 for April.

The Selective Service boards will forward approximately 4,000 men in September for pre-induction examination, Colonel Schwartz said, and they have scheduled 6,220 for this examination in August.

Local board quotas for induction and pre-induction examination in September already have been figured and sent to the state's 157 draft boards. The Texas quota of 1,180 for September is the state's share of a national call of 25,000, all for the army.

Accidental Death Alert For Labor Day Weekend

The President of the Texas Safety Association today suggested drivers develop TSP (Traffic Safety Perception) to increase their chances of survival in the heavy holiday weekend traffic.

E. E. Edmondson Jr. of Houston describes TSP as "an awareness of consciousness of what is going on around you constantly in traffic."

"It involves keeping your mind on driving, watching traffic signs and signals, staying alert for road hazards and being prepared for the unexpected actions of other drivers."

The TSA President, who also issued the annual TSA "Accidental Death Alert," for the Labor Day holiday weekend, said that developing TSP is not difficult.

"It's comparable to brushing your teeth every morning," he explained. "Once you get into the habit, it becomes a way of life. You're tuned in every time you get behind the wheel."

Edmondson also called for driver "expertise" in traffic, noting that heavy traffic congestion, such as that expected this weekend, demands superior driving skills.

As part of its coordinated traffic safety promotional program with the Texas Department of Public Safety and other groups, the Association is also urging drivers to assume their individual responsibilities for traffic accident prevention.

The TSA "Accidental Death Alert" covers the period beginning at 6 p.m. Friday, September 1, and ending at 11:59 p.m. Monday, September 4. The period coincides with the DPS "Alert" also calls for caution in recreational, home, and other holiday activities.

In order to prevent default in the payment of principal or interest on any such bonds, the Legislature shall appropriate a sufficient amount to pay the same.

"In the sale of any such bonds or obligations, a preferential right of purchase shall be given to the administrators of the various Teacher Retirement Funds, the Permanent University Funds, and the Permanent School Funds.

"Said Veterans' Land Fund shall consist of any lands heretofore or hereafter purchased by said Board, until the sale price therefor, together with any interest and penalties due, have been received by said Board (although nothing herein shall be construed to prevent said Board from accepting full payment for a portion of any tract), and of the moneys attributable to any bonds heretofore or hereafter issued and sold by said Board which moneys so attributable shall include but shall not be limited to the proceeds from the issuance and sale of such bonds; the moneys received from the sale or resale of any lands, or rights therein, purchased with such proceeds; the moneys received from the sale or resale of any lands, or rights therein, purchased with other moneys attributable to such bonds; the interest and penalties received from the sale or resale of such lands, or rights therein; the bonuses, income, rents, royalties, and any other pecuniary benefit received by said Board from any such lands; sums received by way of indemnity or forfeiture for the failure of any bidder for the purchase of any such bonds to comply with his bid and accept and pay for such bonds or for the failure of any bidder for the purchase of any lands comprising a part of said Fund to comply with his bid and accept and pay for any such lands; and interest received from investments of any such moneys. The principal and interest on the bonds heretofore and hereafter issued by said Board shall be paid out of the moneys of said Fund in conformance with the Constitutional provisions authorizing such bonds; but the moneys of said Fund which are not immediately committed to the payment of principal and interest on such bonds, the purchase of lands as herein provided, or the payment of expenses as herein provided may be invested in bonds or obligations of the United States until such funds are needed for such purposes.

"All moneys comprising a part of said Fund and not expended for the purposes herein provided shall be a part of said Fund until there are sufficient moneys therein to retire fully all of the bonds heretofore or hereafter issued and sold by said Board, at which time all such moneys remaining in said Fund, except such portion as may be necessary to retire all such bonds which portion shall be set aside and retained in said Fund for the purpose of retiring all such bonds, shall be deposited to the credit of the General Revenue Fund to be appropriated to such purposes as may be prescribed by law. All moneys becoming a part of said Fund thereafter shall likewise be deposited to the credit of the General Revenue Fund.

"When a Division of said Fund (each Division consisting of the moneys attributable to the bonds issued and sold pursuant to a single Constitutional authorization and the lands purchased therewith) contains sufficient moneys to retire all of the bonds secured by such Division, the moneys thereof, except such portion as may be needed to retire all of the bonds secured by such Division which portion shall be set aside and remain a part of such Division for the purpose of retiring all such bonds, may be used for the purpose of paying the principal and the interest thereon, together with the expenses herein authorized, of any other bonds heretofore or hereafter issued and sold by said Board. Such use shall be a matter for the discretion and direction of said Board; but there may be no such use of any such moneys contrary to the rights of any holder of any of the bonds issued and sold by said Board or violative of any contract to which said Board is a party.

"The Veterans' Land Fund shall be used by said Board for the purpose of purchasing lands situated in the State of Texas owned by the United States or any governmental agency thereof, owned by the Texas Prison System or any other governmental agency of the State of Texas, or owned by any person, firm, or corporation. All lands thus purchased shall be acquired at the lowest price obtainable, to be paid for in cash, and shall be a part of said Fund. Such lands heretofore or hereafter purchased and comprising a part of said Fund are hereby declared to be held for a governmental purpose, although the individual purchasers thereof shall be subject to taxation to the same extent and in the same manner as are purchasers of lands dedicated to the Permanent Free Public School Fund.

"The lands of the Veterans' Land Fund shall be sold by said Board in such quantities, on such terms, at such prices, at such rates of interest and under such rules and regulations as are now or may hereafter be provided by law to veterans who served not less than ninety (90) continuous days, unless sooner discharged by reason of a service-connected disability, on active duty in the Army, Navy, Air Force, Coast Guard or Marine Corps of the United States between September 16, 1940, and the date of formal withdrawal of United States troops from the present armed conflict in Viet Nam, and who, upon the date of filing his or her application to purchase any such land is a citizen of the United States, is a bona fide resident of the State of Texas, and has not been dishonorably discharged from any branch of the Armed Forces, above named and who at the time of his or her enlistment, induction, commissioning, or drafting was a bona fide resident of the State of Texas, or who has resided in Texas at least five (5) years prior to the date of filing his or her application. The foregoing notwithstanding, any lands in the Veterans' Land Fund which have been first offered for sale to veterans and which have not been sold may be sold or resold to such purchasers, in such quantities, and on such terms, and at such prices and rates of interest, and under such rules and regulations as are now or may hereafter be provided by law.

"Said Veterans' Land Fund, to the extent of the moneys attributable to any bonds heretofore issued and sold by said Board, as is now or may hereafter be provided by law, for the purpose of paying the expenses of surveying, monumenting, road construction, legal fees, recordation fees, advertising and other like costs necessary or incidental to the purchase and sale, or resale, of any lands purchased with any of the moneys attributable to such additional bonds, such expenses to be added to the price of such lands when sold, or resold, by said Board; for the purpose of paying the expenses of issuing, selling, and delivering any such additional bonds; and for the purpose of meeting the interest or principal due or to become due on any such additional bonds.

"All of the moneys attributable to any series of bonds heretofore issued and sold by said Board (a series of bonds being all of the bonds issued and sold in a single transaction as a single installment of bonds) may be used for the purchase of land, as herein provided, for a period ending eight (8) years after the date of sale of such series of bonds; provided, however, that so much of such moneys as may be necessary to pay interest on bonds heretofore issued and sold shall be set aside for that purpose in accordance with the resolution adopted by said Board authorizing the issuance and sale of such series of bonds. After such eight (8) year period, all of such moneys shall be set aside for the re-irement of any bonds heretofore issued and sold and to pay interest thereon, together with any expenses as provided herein, in accordance with the resolution or resolutions authorizing the issuance and sale of such additional bonds, until there are sufficient moneys to retire all of the bonds heretofore issued and sold, at which time all such moneys then remaining a part of said Veterans' Land Fund and thereafter becoming a part of said Fund shall be governed as elsewhere provided herein.

"This Amendment being intended only to establish a basic framework and not to be a comprehensive treatment of the Veterans' Land Program, there is hereby reposed in the Legislature full power to implement and effectuate the design and objects of this Amendment, including the power to delegate such duties, responsibilities, functions, and authority to the Veterans' Land Board as it believes necessary.

"Should the Legislature enact any enabling laws in anticipation of this Amendment, no such law shall be void by reason of its anticipatory nature.

"This Amendment shall become effective upon its adoption."

Sec. 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on November 11, 1967, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

"FOR the amendment to extend the Veterans' Land Program by authorizing the sale of bonds to increase the Veterans' Land Fund for the purpose of purchasing land in Texas to be sold to Texas veterans who served in the United States between September 16, 1940, and the date of formal withdrawal of United States troops from the present armed conflict in Viet Nam, which amendment would amend Section 49-b, Article III of the Constitution of Texas, and provide for an additional $200,000,000 in bonds, such funds to be expended in accordance with instructions and requirements that may be provided by law."

1967 Plymouth Fury's Styling for 1968, Options, Provide Low-Cost Luxury

The success car of the volume sector of the auto market in 1967—Plymouth Fury—increases its appeal for 1968 with styling refinements, increased model availability and additional comfort options to provide low-cost luxury.

Robert Anderson, general manager of the Chrysler-Plymouth Division, said that the improvements are expected to make the Fury line appeal to an even greater number of buyers than did its predecessor.

"More owners of other makes of cars bought Plymouth Fury models last year than during any similar period in Plymouth's history," Anderson said. "We are confident that the 1968 improvements will intensify this trend."

New Fury models go on sale September 14. Among the changes for 1968 is a general upgrading of the station wagon lines and the addition of wood-grained paneling for the top-of-the-line wagon, the Fury Sport Suburban.

Fury is the volume car of the Plymouth line, which also includes Barracuda, Valiant and intermediates.

RE-DESIGNED GRILLE

The main appearance changes are at the front and rear of the car. There is a new grille designed around thin-line horizontal bars which add to the low, wide appearance. Vertically stacked headlamps are retained and identifying front fender nameplates are inset flush with the surface.

The horizontal design of the grille also characterizes the all-new rear end. The decklid continues to open at the bumper and the bigger rear bumper gives more protection than last year.

There are 27 Plymouth Fury models and six engines available. Added in 1968 are V-8 and six-cylinder Plymouth Fury III models with the fast roof, two-door hardtop style, previously available only in Sport Fury and VIP.

FURY WAGONS UPGRADED

There are three models in the upgraded Fury station wagon line—the Suburban, the Custom Suburban and the Sports Suburban. Both two and three-seat Sport Suburban wagons feature wood-grain exterior trim and a split-back front seat with center arm rests. An option for all wagons is a wiper and washer system which allows the driver to clean road grime and dirt from rear windows while the car is moving. The washers spray the lowered window, and it is wiped by built-in squeegees when raised.

The 225 cubic inch engine is standard on all six-cylinder models; the 318 cubic inch engine with two-barrel carburetor is the standard V-8. Optional V-8s on all models are the Commando 383 with two-barrel carburetion, dual exhaust and other high-performance features. The four-barrel 383 cubic inch engine also is available.

The Commando 440 is optional on station wagons and the Super Commando 440 on all other Fury models. Added to the 14 safety items introduced on all models last year as standard equipment are nine additional items or improvements in equipment for occupant safety, which will be standard in 1968. The Cleaner Air System is also standard on all 1968 models.

Knox County Herald: Will you please change my address immediately? I always enjoy the paper and don't want to miss an issue. Hope everything is rushing in Knox City. I plan to visit there again one of these days. Respectfully, Ella Mae Hamner

Dear Tommy and Norma: Just a quick note to say hello and congratulations! I see by the Knox County paper where you have finally purchased the Knox County Herald and I'm glad --- I think I'm enclosing my money for another year's subscription and if there is any change left, call Esco and Mazie Love and have a cup of coffee on me!

I am on duty at the Imperial Irrigation District, switchboard in Imperial. It is a nice place to work, I guess, and I do like this type of work only they just consider us temporary help until we get on a regular monthly salary and they don't give us any fringe benefits, like holidays, sick leave or paid vacations. I don't know that there is much hopes for a vacation without pay, long enough to make a trip home and back, but I am hoping by next year at least. I do so want to come home and see Ewell, too.

Say hello, and give all my best regards to all my friends, I miss them everyone, and even though I no longer have a home there, I know there will always be a tender spot in my heart for Knox Citizens, so come on and fill your paper with news so it will be like a letter from home. You see none of my friends like to write very well and my letters are far apart and few between.

FLO HUNTSMAN AND 43 LB. DUCK-BILL GAR

Hello to All, Please hold our paper this week. We will be at home in Knox City this weekend, as it is our custom to make the cotton season here at East Rio Hondo Gln in the lower Rio Grande Valley and then at the Paymaster in Knox City.

I am sending this picture of a 43 pound duck-bill gar that Flo caught this week using a 20 pound test line and medium rod and reel.

Fishing has been real good all spring and summer. When it rains and we can't gin cotton, we grab our rod and reel, and to a fishing place we go. There are so many places, any direction. Sometimes you don't catch anything as a fisherman's luck goes, but we have caught so many we stopped weighing them a long time ago.

We will bring about 250 pounds home to prove it to all of our friends in Knox City.

As ever, Hass and Flo Huntsman

Boll Weevil damage has increased in the County the last few weeks. Much late planted and irrigated cotton, still fruiting is requiring insecticide applications. Most producers are keeping a close watch on the weevil as well as a possible boll worm build up.

Much of the dry land cotton is not fruiting at this time, as hot, dry weather conditions the first half of August stopped its growth. Boll Weevil and the dry weather combined caused much throw off of squares and young bolls on the dry land cotton. As an average the dry land cotton does have a fair number of good sized bolls at this time. A good general rain would help mature these bolls into a pretty good cotton crop.

Irrigated cotton producers have a possibility of making good cotton at this time. In most cases the cotton boll worm has not caused a lot of damage to date, leaving the weevil the main source of trouble.

Guar production has become a fairly prominent crop in several Rolling Plains Counties. An estimated 5,000 acres in Knox County this year is about 40% more than planted in 1966.

Many producers have worked guar into their diverted acres program. According to Herbert Partridge, it is hard to estimate the percent to be harvested until the crop gets closer to maturity. Although the diverted acres from other cash crops has given guar planting a boost, several Knox County producers have decided guar will fit into their regular farming operation.

Guar has a very definite 2-way potential to interest producers. As a cash crop not expensive to grow, many producers gross from $25. to $40. per acre. Not to be overlooked is the soil improvement where this legume crop is grown. J.C. McGee of Knox City feels grain sorghum, cotton or other crops do much better following guar, and with less cost of added fertilizers.

Alternaria Leaf Spot and Bacterial Blight appear to be two of the main diseases affecting guar. Both of these diseases cause much defoliation of leaves which greatly decreases yields. The Brooks and Hall varieties appear to be the leading ones in the county. One block of Groehler, called to my attention by Sam Leverton is showing severe defoliation.

The guar crop this year is showing much need of rain at this time, indicating yields may not be satisfactory unless moisture conditions are improved soon. Many producers prefer to plow under just for soil improvement when yield prospects remain poor.

Sesame, an oil seed crop is being grown by C. H. Herring in the Rhineland community. C. H. has approximately 53 acres of the Baco variety. Sesame was grown on this farm in 1966 also with a gross income of about $40. per acre. This crop is looking pretty good at the present time, although C. H. does not think seed pods are forming as low on the plant as last year.

September 24-30 has been designated as National Agricultural Science Week and U. S. Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman urges state and industrial laboratories engaged in agricultural research to join the USDA in the observance. He said when the USDA and the Land Grant College systems were established in 1862, each farm worker provided food and fiber for only 5 persons. Now he supports almost 40. "Simply and truly stated," he said, "agricultural science is working for the good of farmers, consumers, industry, and every man, woman, and child in the world community."

LIVESTOCK AND MEAT MARKETING INSTITUTE

The Livestock and Meat Marketing Institute will be held at the Ramada Inn in College Station on September 21 and 22. This industry conference is jointly sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station and is conducted by the Department of Agricultural Economics and Sociology at Texas A&M University.

"The Future of the Industry" will be the theme of the meeting and representatives from all levels of the livestock and meat industry are expected to attend.

MAKE PLANS NOW FOR FERTILIZING WHEAT

The time is once again approaching to consider plans for fertilizing wheat to be planted this fall.

Since most soils vary in their ability to supply plant nutrients, the most logical starting point for determining fertilizer needs is the soil test. By sampling early, the report will be received in time for making the final decision as to what kind and how much fertilizer to apply.

Nitrogen is the fertilizer element likely to be in shortest supply. Organic matter as measured by soil tests is one of the guides for determining how much nitrogen will be needed. However, such factors as the amount and stage of decomposition of previous crop residue, physical condition of the soil, ability to irrigate adequately and intended grazing practices will all influence the

Interested Producers May List Hunting Areas At C Of C Office

The Knox County Technical Action Panel held its monthly meeting August 23. During this meeting, the panel reviewed correspondence from producers interested in providing hunting areas on a fee basis. The response was favorable and the panel in cooperation with the Wichita Falls Soil and Water Conservation District and the local Chambers of Commerce at Knox City and Munday, or the F. H. A., S. C. S., OR A. S. C. S. offices at Knox City.

Data at the South Plains Research and Extension Center clearly indicates that where wheat is grown on Pullman soils for grain only, the time of nitrogen applications is of little importance. However, when wheat is to be grazed, all or part of the nitrogen should be applied preplant to stimulate early growth. Adequately fertilized wheat forage can contain 20 per cent protein or 3 per cent nitrogen on a dry basis.

In sufficient phosphorus can also limit wheat production, the agent points out. Profitable response has long been evident on many of the sandy and mixed land soils. Yield increases have also been noted on Pullman soils shown to be deficient by soil testing.

Since phosphorus does not move appreciably with soil moisture, it must be placed in the soil where it will be within reach of the permanent roots. Therefore, preplant application is recommended. Wheat plants utilize much of the phosphorus when they are young.

All wheat growers are urged to send in soil samples as soon as possible. Complete information on sample collection and mailing is available at the county Extension Office.

Preparations Made For West Texas Fair

In addition to entertainment geared to all age levels, directors of the West Texas Fair to be held in Abilene Sept. 11-16, have also provided other services designed for safety and comfort.

The city will provide bus transportation to and from the Fair for those who prefer to "ride" instead of "drive". A schedule is now being worked out and will be announced at a later date, Bob Morford, president of the association said.

Telephone service, a first aid station, additional rest rooms, and security guards will also be provided for visitors, Morford said.

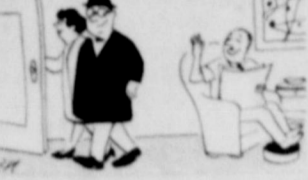

An emergency first aid station, maintained by Taylor-Jones Medical Society, along with a security station will be located in a building between the Display and Poultry Building, Morford said.

Rest rooms are located in the stock building, exhibit building and in the Woman's Building. Watchmen will be on duty 24 hours daily to watch over exhibits and Abilene policemen will also be available on the grounds, however, it was pointed out that the Fair cannot guarantee that there will be no losses; exhibitors are expected to maintain their surveillance, too.

The Old Timer

"You're getting old when you don't care where your wife goes, just so you don't have to go along."

Tax Man Sam Sez:

Several thousand young men and women who graduated from college in June accepted jobs with the Internal Revenue Service. First the young graduates were sent back to school to learn all about taxes. Since early July these young people have been going to an Internal Revenue Service School. They are learning the fundamentals of how to do tax work and how to determine whether the taxpayer owes more tax or is entitled to an additional refund because he failed to take all his deductions. We can all wish these fine young Americans every success, but we hope that they always talk to our neighbor about his taxes instead of us.

F. A. ROBINETTE

Honored Guest At Barbecue

F. A. Robinette, Seymour district manager for General Telephone Company who is retiring September 30, was honored guest at the company's annual district barbecue held Saturday night (August 26) in Seymour. E. H. Danner, president and G. H. Briggs, operating vice president, were among the officials from San Angelo attending the Saturday night event honoring Robinette.

Fellow employees presented him with gifts. Robinette, who has more than 50 years in telephony to his credit, was first employed by General Telephone as a lineman in 1929.

He is credited with originating the idea, now used throughout the company, of meeting on regular basis with city officials to determine customer opinion of service and hear official city comments about the telephone company. His fellow workers describe him as a well read, even tempered person who has always maintained an open mind to new ideas.

G. T. (Jack) Sims of San Angelo, who is now plant director for General Telephone of the Southwest, recalls that he and Robinette worked together as "pole buddies" the first day Robinette joined General. The end result of that day's work, according to Sims, was that Robinette generously agreed to let Sims borrow his new 1928 model Chevrolet to use on a date that night. This bit of generosity ended up with Robinette having to have a flat on the car repaired after Sims found he couldn't foot the bill for the repair. But the men have remained friends through the years despite flat tires!

Robinette's telephone career has included various plant department jobs in Lubbock, Tahoka and Dalhart and Dickinson. He was district commercial manager in Seymour in 1953 and 1954, returning again in 1957 to hold the position he holds upon his retirement. He will have a month's vacation before his telephone career ends late in September.

He and his wife, who have a son and daughter and six grandchildren, plan to make their home in Seymour.

Wayne Goodrum is the new Seymour district manager.

Written For Mrs. H. A. Smith

Kenny Carroll, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Casey and other relatives here and in Crowell, returned to his home in Abilene Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Casey recently attended graduation exercises of the Hendrick Memorial School of Vocational Nursing in Abilene. Their niece, Mrs. John Mayes, was one of the graduates.

Out-of-town visitors at the Truscott Methodist Church services Sunday night included; Mr. and Mrs. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Hildebrand, and David Lynch of Vernon.

Rev. and Mrs. George Garner students at Baylor University, Waco, spent Wednesday night with Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Casey. Mrs. Garner is the former Barbara Bowen, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Bob Bowen who pastored the Baptist Church here in the late 'forties.

Mrs. Elmo Todd, who recently returned from a summer of study at Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois, left Sunday for Tyler, where she will teach in Tyler Junior College.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Todd attended the funeral of a relative, Mr. Vernon Jennings, in Oklahoma City last week. The program committee of Beta Chi Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma met with Mrs. Curtis Casey last Tuesday. Ladies from Haskell, Weinert, and Munday attended the business meeting.

Miss Sandra Chowning was honored with a luncheon in the Curtis Casey home following her wedding rehearsal Saturday. Members of her family and wedding party and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Dobbs were also guests. The bride's colors, yellow and white, were featured in the table setting.

IN WOODWARD HOME Esker New of Wichita Falls visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Woodward Monday. He is a brother of Mrs. Isaac Godsey.

During the Korean conflict over 75 percent of the officers and men in the Marine Corps saw combat.

Effective January 1, 1968, all motorcycle operators and passengers will be required to wear approved protective headgear whenever riding a motorcycle. The law provides that any person convicted of riding a motorcycle without protective headgear may be fined not less than $10 nor more than $50.

Garrison cautioned parents and youngsters against rushing out and buying one of the cheaper helmets appearing on the market at the present time until it is certain that the helmet will receive safety approval.

"These purchasers are looking for an opportunity to both comply with the law and to save money," Garrison said.

"But many of these helmets may fall to meet the minimum standards and will not provide for the safety of the wearer. These will have to be discarded and new helmets purchased.

"The Department will have a list of approved helmets available about October 1. This list will be furnished to all police agencies, to headgear wholesalers and retailers, and to news agencies. The list will be updated as needed to include any headgear which is granted approval."

Motorcycle Operators Will Need Headgear

The Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, Colonel Homer Garrison, Jr., reported today that protective headgear standards for motorcycle operators and passengers have been established.

The DPS is currently testing headgear and issuing approval certificates to helmets meeting the prescribed standards. The Department was delegated the responsibility of establishing standards by the last Legislature. Enforcement of the law becomes the duty of all police agencies.

Streams In Desert Places BY OZELLE STEPHENS

"My God hath sent his angel, and hath shut the lion's mouth, that they have not hurt me." (Daniel 6:22A). Read all of the sixth chapter.

In the sixth chapter of Daniel we find the most fascinating and wonderful story. It is Daniel in the lion's den and why he was there. It contains a great lesson of fidelity, honor and uprightness. And it brings out the fact that these virtues are rewarded in life, though perhaps not without suffering and hardships.

The jealous leaders who tricked the king into making a decree that put Daniel in the lion's den reminds us of the many in this mixed-up generation. But this story of one who was faithful in prayer to God, although he had times of testing, misunderstanding and hostility, finally God rewarded him.

This is the greatest truth of all even in our den of lions. If we keep the faith, we shall be saved and life will be good.

"Melanie Meddles"

By Melanie Whitley

Well, the last two Verhalen girls are cheerleaders this year, upholding tradition. I don't know what that proves about our family except that maybe all Germans have big mouths.

To a genuine football fan, especially a man, cheerleading may not seem like a necessary part of the game. However, football without all the razzle-dazzle wouldn't amount to much.

When you see cheerleaders or majorettes who make leading look easy, you know those girls are the ones who practiced all summer. To them this is every bit as important as playing is to the boys.

Although the job is full of prestige and fun, the girls have spent about three evenings a week practicing and money on costumes that change every year and cheerleading school.

While we're on the subject, I would like to get in my two cents worth about pet peeve. Running the Boys on the Field.

When the band begins the School Song, where are the cheerleaders and majorettes? Down by the goalpost. Where is the team? In the fieldhouse. Often as not.

Out charges the team, all fired up and ready for bear.

Then they falter onto the field behind one girl who dropped her baton, one whose hair blows unless she runs sideways, and one girl clutching her tights because the zipper just popped.

I should think that the 'big ol' bad team could find their way onto the field, with a little assist from the Quarterback Club. And leave the girls in front of the fans, where they belong.

No one seems to know where this ancient ritual originated, but over and over I hear, "We've always done it."

Which is the poorest reason to ever accept anything.

RETURN FROM VIRGINIA Jeff Graham was in Dallas Tuesday to meet his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Graham who returned by jet from Alexandria, Va., where they had spent the past two weeks visiting in the home of their son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Graham, Bill, Susan and Janet.
