THIS IS LAST ISSUE FOR SWEENEY FAMILY

Smith Takes Charge Next Week

This the Thanksgiving issue of the Knox County Herald for the year 1932 is the last issue of the Herald under the editorship of the Sweeney family. We have said out.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam E. Smith of Lamesa will take charge of the Herald next week. Mr. Smith will make a statement next week.

With a measure of regret that we have sold the Herald office and are to move elsewhere. Since time is a great man has had to work for it and it is in view of this fact we deem our bill of sale to our advantage.

We regret to leave Knox City for the fact that we are leaving wonderful people and many friends. Our three years here have been three happy years for our association with the citizenship here has been very pleasant. We thank the merchants for their patronage and loyal support. It has been through your patronage that the Herald has continued successfully during the three years.

We thank the churches, the school and all local organizations, civic and otherwise, for your cooperation in the way of news articles. While we realize that our accepting your articles has, in most instances been an accommodation to you, we also realize that you, in presenting your articles to us, were accommodating us. We appreciate this fact and thank you again.

At the present hour, Wednesday, the Sweeney family has no intention in view for a move. We have just sold out and will no doubt move within the next month or two. Mack, Margaret and Mickie.

KECK FINISHES NEW GARAGE

As the age old adage goes "necessity is the mother of invention" so is the mother of building. After trying to rent every garage within five blocks of their home and finding the same a thing impossible Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Keck built themselves a nice new garage. The garage was finished last week and the Chevrolet Coupe is parking nicely there every night.

Mr. and Mrs. Keck made an added attraction to the town when they built their home. However we are of the opinion that they find their garage about as useful, and as attractive to them as the home.

Earl Cook spent from Thursday to Saturday of last week with his son Billy Earl in Denton Texas.

Mrs. Holt Moseley had as her guest Sunday night her sister Mrs. S. A. Norris of Haskell.

POUND METHODIST PREACHER

One night last week the Methodist preacher and family were given a pounding by the membership of the Methodist church. Brother Sharp returned here for his second year as pastor of the local Methodist church.

Among the various features of entertainment on the night of the pounding were a variety of play games which all greatly enjoyed.

Mrs. Tom Bolin and two children, Sylvester are here visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Bolin.

CHAD WILSON FOOTBALL PROPHET

Former Captain Chad Wilson prophesied Monday that the Greyhounds would send Monday to a nice defeat Thursday in the game to be played here. This is the annual Thanksgiving game and all fans are anxiously waiting for the day and hour of the game.

During the last school year Chad Wilson was not only captain of the Football team but one of the best players. He had great confidence in his players and entertains the same confidence in the team this year. The present team has seen not defeat so far this year and Chad is predicting a climactic victory Thanksgiving day.

Although Chad is not in school this year he is working and saving his dividends for a four year course in S. M. U. in Dallas, and we predict that Chad will make it too.

NAZARENE CHURCH HAS NEW PASTOR

Brother B. B. Williamson of Abilene announces this week that he has accepted the call of Knox City Nazarene church and will conduct two regular services at the abernacle Sunday. The evening service begins at eleven o'clock and the evening service at seven thirty.

Every one is invited to attend all the services at the Nazarene church.

Mr. Williamson has a family and plans to move to Knox City in the near future.

WEINBAUM OPENS STORE HERE

During the last few weeks two new dry goods stores have opened in Knox City, one by Mr. M. C. Kleinman and the other by Mr. A. Weinbaum.

Mr. Weinbaum came to Knox City from Lockhart where he has been in business for some 43 years. He has been a constant advertiser with the Lockhart Post-Register the editor of which the Herald family are personally acquainted. Mr. Weinbaum came to Knox City with a fine recommendation from the Lockhart Post-Register and we are pleased to have you read his ads which are scattered over the pages of this issue of the Herald.

ATTEND THE THANKSGIVING SERVICE

The community Thanksgiving Service will be held at ten thirty Thursday morning, November 24th at the Baptist church. Every citizen of Knox City and territory is invited to attend this service.

P-T-A MEETING WELL ATTENDED

The largest crowd yet to attend a meeting of the Parent-Teacher association this year was present for the program in the school auditorium Tuesday night. The entire seating capacity of the auditorium was used. The program given was fine with no substitute at all.

Miss Gretchen Howell made an interesting talk on "County Libraries and spurred the association on to ward the goal of a Knox County Library. As a result the P-T-A with the various other organizations of the county are working for the organization of a county library.

In every respect the meeting of the P-T-A Tuesday night was a tremendous success.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Moody entertained with a dinner Sunday honoring Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Smith and boys Jewel and Clifford. Mrs. Smith is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Moody.

Those who enjoyed the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Sexton Hord and family and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moody of O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Clarke Jr. and the honorees. Mr. and Mrs. Smith have been visiting here for the past few weeks from Springfield Colorado.

A RELIGIOUS DISCUSSION

Beginning at two o'clock P. M. Monday, November 28th, in the Church of Christ in the town of Goree, Texas, with another session from seven to nine, each P. M. and night for six consecutive days, there will be a discussion of the difference of the Church of Christ, and the Missionary Baptists, with two representative men in the person of J. Porter Wilhite, and W. A. Kile.

These men promise to conduct themselves as becometh christian gentlemen, and there will be much information for any and all interested in the study of the Bible. It is free for you. Come. The Baptist man Elder Kile, will affirm the first, third and fifth days, while the other gentleman will affirm, be in the lead the other three days. The first 2 days will be devoted to the study of the origin of the church, as to when and where it originated, the next two, to the study of the plan of salvation, and the last two, they will try to decide whether a man can fall from grace or not.

J. T. May and son A. D. made a trip to Dallas the first of the week.

Mrs. C. C. Coates is improving from an illness of some two weeks.

BACK TO WORK

The tumult and the shouting have died. The speeches have all been made. The votes have been counted.

The campaign is history, and it's time to go back to work.

The great problems of today are not nonpartisan. All any President can do to solve them is to give his very best efforts, according to his lights, to assist the people with the power of government. Legislation will be passed, official suggestions will be offered—but no matter how good they are, they will be worthless unless the people stand shoulder to shoulder and work for their salvation.

Almost all observers agree that the bottom of depression has been touched. The work of restoration has begun. It will be a long, an arduous work, requiring the utmost each of us can give. Partisanship must be forgotten. Labels must be forgotten. Never in the history of the country has nonpolitical leadership, and nonpolitical thought, been so essential to the future.

So—back to work!

Hospital Notes

Patients in the hospital this week are Mrs. J. F. Bagwell and infant daughter Janelle of Haskell, Charles Spengal of Rhineland, Oscar Prather of Grand Saline, A. J. Stewart of Weinert, Ned Goodrich of Munday, Clyde Harold of Rule, O. G. Gatliff of Munday and Mrs. Willis Harbor and infant son of Sun Set.

METHODIST LADIES TO GIVE PLAY DECEMBER 9th

The play "Wanted a Man" will be staged Friday night December the 9th in the school auditorium. The play is being given by the ladies of the Methodist church and is being coached by Miss Constance Browning. The play itself is a most highly entertaining comedy. In addition, the characters are well selected and the young woman who is coaching same is a most efficient expression instructor. Miss Browning made an unusual record for herself while in college and has exhibited her ability in her chosen work in the large class of pupils who have chosen to study expression from her instructions.

The fact that Miss Browning is coaching the play is a fine assurance that the play will be good.

The fact that the play is a comedy is a second assurance that the evening Friday, December 9, will be full of amusement for all who see "Wanted a Man".

Arrange your schedule to spent Friday evening the 9th in the school auditorium attending the first Home Talent play to be staged this current school year.

The curtain will rise at seven thirty, so be on time.

LET'S COUNT THE BLESSINGS

The institution of our American Thanksgiving Day dates back almost to the beginnings of the settlement of North America by newcomers from Europe. The first Thanksgiving Day was celebrated by the Pilgrims of Plymouth in 1623. After a day of prayer and fasting the Pilgrims feasted and gave thanks to Almighty God for the bountiful harvest which enabled them to look forward to a winter of ample food.

All of the New England colonies and some of the others continued this custom of an annual day of thanksgiving, and in his first year as the First President of the United States of America George Washington himself made Thanksgiving Day a national feast by proclaiming Thursday, November 26, 1789, as the day for its celebration.

There has never been a year since, in spite of wars, internal stress and calamity in which we, the people of the United States of America, have not had genuine occasion to give thanks for blessings received. For in spite of all that has occurred in our history the American spirit has never been daunted and we have grown steadily in spiritual strength.

In this year of 1932 we see many things to be thankful for. We have come through them safely, with far less suffering, far less permanent injury to our national institutions and our national welfare than have any of the other peoples of the world. On every hand there is evidence to plain that all can see that the worst is past, and that we are coming again into material prosperity with renewed courage and with our national moral still unshaken.

That, it seems to us, a sufficient reason why Thanksgiving Day this year should be more than a mere holiday, why it should be a day upon which every American should actually give thanks to the God he worships for having led us safely through the slough of despond to the verge of the promised land again.

C. W. A. TO HAVE QUILTING

At a call meeting Monday of the C. W. A. plans were made for a quilting one day next week to be held in the basement of the Methodist church. The day of the quilting will be announced from the various pulpits of the city Sunday morning and every woman of the city is invited and urged to assist in this work.

The Christian Womens Association is making a tremendous effort to be prepared for the many calls for help that are sure to be given here this winter. They have several quilt linings and quilting cotton and are needing quilt tops. Any one who has a quilt top and will donate it to the association may telephone Mrs. C. C. Hoge.

Mrs. Hoge further states that quite a bit of sewing has been done and that the Association has a bunch of nice outing scraps that will make quilts. Mrs. Hoge asks that any one who will piece or help piece tops for quilts to please call her as the C. W. A. will need more tops for the quilting next week. Do this today.

Mrs. Hamner Takes Charge of Sewing Mrs. Hoge stated Wednesday morning that Mrs. Henley Hamner has taken charge of the sewing work of the C. W. A. She is supervising the work, issuing materials and assisting those who need help in their sewing and is making garments herself. Any one who will help in this sewing, see Mrs. Henley Hamner.

Red Cross Roll Call Continues

Mr. E. L. Covey of Goree, County Chairman of the Red Cross, was in Knox City Tuesday conversing with Mrs. C. C. Hoge, local chairman, concerning the progress of the Roll Call in Knox City district. Mr. Covey stated that the quota for Knox City is $125.00 and that only a small percent has been raised, however, Mrs. Hoge with her assistants have quite a few days yet in which to raise this quota. Mr. Covey states that the National Red Cross has put out a great deal more in the way of supplies etc. in Knox County than has been turned in for the Roll Call. In the interest of completing the quota for the Knox City district, Chairman Covey will be in Knox City the latter part of the week to assist Mrs. Hoge in the work. If you haven't joined the Red Cross this year, see Mrs. Hoge or any of the women working in this membership drive, and join.

Juniors Bring In Buttons

Mrs. Hoge states that the C. W. A. received a very generous array of buttons from the Juniors on last Friday official button-day. Buttons and thread are plentiful now but the association still needs bias tape and elastic. If you have scraps of either give them to Mrs. Henley Hamner. Mrs. Hoge expressed the great appreciation of the C. W. A. for the buttons given by the Junior Red Cross. Thanks to the Juniors, they are always dependable.

Champ Corn Husker

Carl Seiler, Knox County III, is the new national corn husking champion, setting a world record of 36.59 bushels in 80 minutes. The former record was 35.08 bushels. The national meet was held at Calver, Ill.

BRUCE BARTON

...writes of "THE MASTER EXECUTIVE"

Supplying a week-to-week inspiration for the heavy burdened who will find every human trial paralleled in the experiences of "The Man Nobody Knows."

THE SOCIABLE MAN

A wicked falsehood has come down through the ages.

It reappeared in an English book as recently as 1925. The author, in describing a visit to the high spirited Lord Fisher, tells of finding him less jovial than usual. Obviously something was weighing on his mind, and he soon revealed it.

"You know that Pilate was succeeded as Governor of Jerusalem by Lentulus," he remarked in dull tones. The new Governor gave a minute description of Jesus, concluding with the statement, "Nobody has ever seen him laugh."

With that wretched remark Lord Fisher lapsed into meditative silence. He wanted to be reverent; he had been well grounded in the traditions of his church; he would do his duty as a Christian and an Englishman, no matter what the cost. But to worship a Lord who never laughed—it was a strain. Lord Fisher made no pretense about that.

The quotation from Lentulus is a forgery, penned by an unknown impostor in a later century; yet how persistently it has lived, and with what tragic thoroughness it has done its work. How many millions of happy-minded folk, when they have thought of Jesus at all, have had a feeling of uneasiness. "Suppose," they have said, "he were to enter the room and find us laughing and enjoying ourselves! When there is so much suffering and sin in the world is it right to be happy? What would Jesus say?"

With such compunctious cheerful folk have had their brighter moments inlured. The friendless man who ever lived has been shut off black wall of tradition from whose friendship he would most enjoy. Theology has reared a graven image, and robbed the world of the joy and laughter of the great companion.

It is not hard to understand when you remember the character of the early theologians. They lived in sad days; they were men of introspection to whom every simple thing was symbolic of some hidden mystery; and life, a tangle of philosophic formulae.

Baffled by the death of Jesus, they rejected the splendid truth, and fashioned a creed instead. Lambs were put to death in the Temple, as a sacrifice for the sins of the worshippers; ergo, Jesus was the Lamb of God. His death had been planned from the beginning of the world; the human race was hopelessly wayward; God knew that it would be and nothing would turn Him from His vindictive purpose to destroy it but the sacrifice of an innocent Son.

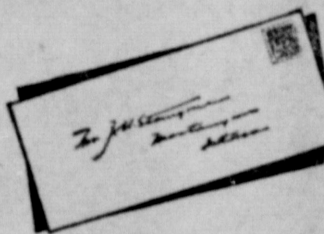

Thomas Paine remarked truly that no religion can be really divine which has in it any doctrine that offends the sensibilities of a little child. Is there any reader of these articles whose childish sensibilities were not shocked when the traditional explanation of the death of Jesus was first poured into his ears? Would any human father, loving his children, have sentenced all to death, and been persuaded to commute the sentence only by the suffering of his best beloved?

Small wonder that the Jesus of such a doctrine was supposed never to have laughed!

How One Woman Lost 10 Lbs. In a Week

Mrs. Betty Luedeke of Dayton writes: "I am using Kruschen to reduce weight—I lost 10 pounds in one week and cannot say too much to recommend it."

To take off fat easily, SAFELY and HARMLESSLY—take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast go lighter on fatty meats, potatoes, butter, cream and pastries. It is the safe way to lose unsightly fat and one bottle that lasts 4 weeks costs but a trifle. Get it at any drug-store in America. If this first bottle fails to convince you this is the safest way to lose fat—money back.

But be sure and use Kruschen faithfully—irritations are numerous and you must safeguard your health.

A Study....

...in Contrasts

The above scene is a graphic representation of the homes of two housewives—just before guests arrive for the evening meal. The woman at the left has been working in a hot kitchen all afternoon... nothing has gone off well... she is nervous, tired, irritable... and looks it. But the modern home-manager at the right is cool, fresh, lovely and unhurried. She has been away from home all afternoon, yet is ready to take a delicious, savory and attractive meal from her oven. Her meal will be an unqualified success... the success of the other housewife's dinner-party is extremely doubtful.

The difference is that the modern home-manager, at the right, has an Electric Range... The other housewife still cooks by old-fashioned methods!

You, too, should profit by the many advantages and superiorities of modern Electric Cookery. With one of the new General Electric Hotpoint Ranges in your kitchen you'll save money, work, time and food. You'll serve better, more healthful and more attractive meals. You'll be happy, cheerful and energetic. Take advantage of special prices and terms... TODAY! See one of our salesmen NOW. It will be glad to tell you the interesting and valuable story of Electric Cookery. There's no obligation, of course.

Do you know that your increased use of Electric Service is billed on a surprisingly low rate schedule... and adds only a small amount to your total bill?

FOOTBALL

The Greyhounds will play the Monday Moguls here Thanksgiving on the local gridiron.

The Greyhounds are determined to win. The boys have been putting in some hard work preparing for the big game.

If Knox City wins this game, they will only have to beat Rule for the championship.

The game with Rule that was to be played November 18, was postponed until next week.

BASKET BALL TEAM

The girls basket ball team is selling extract to get enough money to buy suits. They also get a percent on the pictures that are being made. They will probably have a game next week. Mr. Cloud says he hasn't got any All Americans in the bunch but he has some good players. They will not be able to play this week because they haven't any ball. They will probably play next week.

THE PEP SQUAD

The Pep Squad is certainly going to do "their part" in the big game Thursday. If you don't believe it come and watch the girls. And you won't have to have glasses on to see them either, for their red shirts and blue sweaters certainly "show up".

They are planning a "special stunt" for the game. Also a lot of new songs, and yells. They are planning to have a parade down town just before the game. However this hasn't been definitely decided on yet.

So come and watch them (and the Greyhounds) make a showing that will long be remembered. (By the Moguls).

—Odell Thompson

No man is ever quite the same at the close of the book as at the beginning.

Last week was National Book Week. It was not observed by our school then but is being observed this week.

In choosing books for children these rules recently laid down by an author of books for boys, are worth the consideration of parents.

Read your children's books yourself. Or better still get your boy or girl to read them aloud to you. Ask yourself during the reading: Does this book lay stress on villainy, deception or treachery?

Does it show young people contemptuous toward their elders and successfully opposing them?

Do the young characters in the book show respect for teachers and others in authority?

Are these characters the kind of young people you wish your children to associated with?

Does the book speak of and describe pranks, practical jokes and pieces of thoughtless and cruel mischief as though they were funny and worthy of imitation?

Is the English good and is the story written in good style?

To give a child the wrong book may be as unfortunate as to give him the wrong medicine.

KNOX CITY 4-H CLUB BOY WINS TRIP TO CHICAGO

College Station, Texas, H. C. Armstrong of Knox City is one of 20 4-H club boys who have been awarded trips to the national 4-R club congress at Chicago, Nov. 25 to Dec. 3, according to M. T. Payne, state toy club agent of the extension service of Texas A. & M. College.

Nineteen of the awards were made by the Santa Fe railroad for excellence of demonstrations in scientific production of crops and livestock in cooperation with county farm demonstration agents.

Young Armstrong demonstration was of milo maize.

Dear Uncle Charley:

Will you please advise me as to the reason that the "ring" system was abolished in this school. Also inform me what those understandable words are that Mr. Guy utters when the pupils ask to leave the room.

"The Gang"

Answer: The reason the ring system was abolished was because of the fact that the students delighted in hanging the rings behind pictures instead of their proper places. Those words which Mr. Guy utters are "Get the ring." He has been used to saying this before the ring system was abolished, and has not broken himself of the habit.

Dear Uncle Charley:

Will you please tell me why those queer little bells ring so much the first period after lunch.

Mr. Guy

Answer: As you probably understand when one gets to the end of the line in typing, a small bell rings. The typists this period, have attained such a rate of speed in typing that these bells are constantly ringing.

Dear Uncle Charley—The pupils of this school are constantly chewing gum. What can I do to prevent it.

Mr. Dean

Answer: Variety is the spice of life. Probably you might suggest to them something else to do, such as studying Plane Geometry, etc.

Dear Uncle Charley, why does Gleen Creed go around with such a downcast look upon his face?

Answer: Do tell! Didn't you know why he does that? Here's the reason. He had his head set on flunking his Physics exam, and was very disappointed upon learning that he passed. The student body as a whole is very grieved about his condition.

Dear Uncle Charley, why are there so many failures on exams this year? Answer: The student body has made a resolution to study hard this year. They study so much during the month that when they begin an exam, their brains are overworked, and therefore cannot think of the answers to the questions.

Dear Uncle Charley: What is Mr. Dean's greatest ambition?

Essie Mae Leaverton

Answer: To win first prize, for pig raising at the State Fair. (You probably already had known that she had taken this seriously.)

Dear Uncle Charley: Why is the door on Locker 54 forever bulging open?

Constance Browning

Answer: You would not ask this question if you knew who the locker belonged to.

KNOX CITY HIGH SCHOOL LIBRARY

The first volume of books in the Knox City High School library were carefully placed upon the crude shelf which served as a library, in 1915. These, "The Harvard Classics," were donated by the senior class of that year. More books were collected until the shelf was full, and in 1917 two more shelves were constructed. This served as a library for the High School until 1927. These shelves to which others were added were placed in the east end of the study hall. In the fall of 1927 Miss Entlich (Mrs. Horace Finley) established the Dewey Decimal system, which is now used. Student librarians were assigned periods during the school hours and placed in charge of the library. The use of this system has aided in the preservation of books and the growth of the library.

Many valuable donations have been made by the Study Club, the school board and individuals of the city to improve the library until in 1931 it became necessary to use the small room at the eastern end of the study hall. This also saves more room to the crowded study hall. Immediately after the construction of the new library a book drive increased the collection to about one thousand books. During this drive the school board donated sixty five dollars to the library. Mrs. O. J. Emory and her classes donated about sixty dollars worth of history books the P. T. A. donated about thirty five dollars worth of books, and different individuals donated numerous books. Also the school provided that each high school student pay an annual fee for the use of the library. This also added, and still adds, many books to our library. In all the library now contains 1676 books of good, interesting reading of all natures.

The High School Library is much above the necessary library required by the state for affiliation. The state requires three fiction books to each high school student, one history book one poetry book, one biography book, and one book of travel to every five high school students. Our library has much more than the standard on all books except fiction and books of travel. All donations in the future will be appreciated, as well as the donations of the past.

We are proud of our library but feel that it doesn't yet reach the highest point of usefulness for the student body and we shall not yet lie down to rest on our laurels.

The librarians for the present term are: Jeff Graham, Wilma Lowrey, Jodie Russell, Addie Short, Mary Howell, Marie Dunlap, Jo Nell Robbins, Rowena Wall, Wynell Edwards, Donald Withrow, Mary Lou Graham, Lois Huntsman, Mary Belle Raney, Mildred Hubbard, Ione Messer, Irene Holland and Essie Mae Leaverton.

Elmer Wall: I had an awful dream last night.

Lynn Hammock: I dreamed that I was eating a new kind of breakfast food.

Lynn: Well what of it?

Elmer: When I woke up half of the mattress was gone.

H. C. Did I hear you say something about people coming from monkeys? Panny: No I said I knew a man who believed that people came from monkeys.

H. C. Who was it?

Panny: The man who cleaned the grounds up after a football game.

Joelle Russell, the pep squad leader is absent this week to illness.

Our sports editor is absent from school, due to illness.

Mr. Cloud: Do you believe in clubs for women?

Mr. Guy: Yes, if kindness fails.

Odell was on a visit to her grandmothers, and the old-fashioned grand father clock in the hall was a source of wonderment to her. While she was standing before it her grandmother said to her from the next room: "Is the clock running dear?" "No ma'am" promptly replied Odell, "It's just standing still and wagging its tail."

Mr. Dean: I left my last job on account of something that my boss said;

Mr. Dean: You're fired.

And mother near, rocking and darning a stocking.

And sister just begging for more.

No matter who chose it, or what it's about.

It always seems better to me with father to smile every once in awhile.

And mother to nod and agree.

The book that I like is a sociable book.

I wish that more authors would write

The sociable kinds when they've books on their minds

Why don't they? We'd read 'em at night.
