Out-Of-Town Subscribers Asked Favor

We have many out-of-town subscribers for which, incidentally, we are very grateful. We at the Herald office make every effort to get our local readers to turn in all of their personal news, because we realize how much better it makes our paper each week if you out-of-town folk can recognize a friend or relative's name in the Herald every once in a while. Now - turn about is fair play! Has it ever occurred to any of you out-of-towners how interested we are in all of you? We would appreciate very much occasionally hearing from each of you in regard to where you are situated, in what sort of work you are engaged, in what activities your children are involved or perhaps a wedding or graduation story concerning your family. We feel that an interesting letter from our readers could be used every week, and perhaps these letters might renew friendships of those readers who now live in different parts of the States.

Do take time and effort to write to us soon! Thanks.

Have You Registered?

If you have not registered to vote already, the Herald reminds you that the deadline is Friday, January 31.

According to Mrs. Don Rallsback, clerk at the City Hall, the city registration has been very light. This might be attributed to the fact that 1969 is not an election year.

Citizens are urged not to allow this fact to influence their registering, due to the many possibilities which could be brought up for vote.

There is no charge for registering. To be eligible to vote, regardless of age, one must be registered.

Why not drive to the City Hall and register NOW?

TRIP TO SHREVEPORT
Mr. and Mrs. Allen McGaughey and 10-year-old daughter, Sarah, returned Saturday from a trip to Shreveport, La. where they made a regular visit to Sarah's doctor. Sarah was fitted three years ago with a brace to correct a double curvature of the spine. The doctor's report was encouraging and Sarah will return for a visit and adjustment on her brace again in May.

Record Set With 103 Pints Call For Blood Answered With Tremendous Response

A hearty "thank you" has been extended to all the 125 persons who came to the Bloodmobile Friday to give blood. A record number of 103 pints of blood were drawn, compared to the meager 37-pint total for last July. Records indicate that 67 pints has been the greatest number drawn at any one time in the past.

The experience was a "first" for a number of donors. Special appreciation was extended also to the high school students who participated.

At 12 o'clock noon Thursday, six pints of blood were drawn and transported to Wichita Falls by police escort for Henry Jones who is hospitalized there. A total of 63 pints was donated for Mr. Jones. Twenty pints were replaced for the late Mrs. Lula Florence, one pint for Mrs. Charles Griffith of Benjamin and one for Joan Maddox of Munday.

A number of donors participated from Benjamin and O'Brien and other area towns represented included Munday, Truscott, and Rhineland.

Many local citizens donated their time and talent to help with registering and the blood packs. Others volunteered their help in the kitchen, and some made sandwiches and helped contact potential donors by phone. The original Bloodmobile Committee, consisting of representatives from various local civic organizations, contacted ministers, organized the food and phone committees, gave blood and worked tirelessly in any number of ways.

Citizens who donated their

Supt. Baker Says Readers Should Write

Superintendent of Knox City Schools, W. R. (Bill) Baker, suggested to the Herald recently that readers and local citizens might find it beneficial to contact relatives and friends in cities and urban districts concerning the present proposed education program.

Baker's idea is to alert city dwellers to the fact that they may be equally effected by the proposal. Many urbanites who own farm and ranch land in this area would suffer because their lands do not produce enough income to pay property taxes based on the actual market value. He urged interested citizens to inform themselves.

"Ask your city friends and relatives to do likewise and suggest that they make themselves heard by objecting to the present proposal," he said.

The majority of the objections so far have been heard from the rural areas, it was learned. The superintendent believes that considerable ground would be gained if the opinions of the city dwellers could be voiced along with those from the rural areas.

Address all correspondence to Representative W. S. Healy, Senator Jack Hightower, Lt. Governor Ben Barnes, and Governor Preston Smith, in care of Capitol Station, Austin, Texas 78711, he urged.

Area School Men Continue To Discuss Consolidation Report

Supt. W. R. Baker joined other school administrators and interested persons from Knox, Haskell, and Stonewall Counties last Wednesday in Weibert to discuss the report of the Governor's Committee on Public School Education and the possible effect on area schools.

The main purpose of the meeting was to outline plans for area and community meetings to inform the public of the details of the committee's recommendations.

As the recommendations are now interpreted, there would be one school system in Knox County, one school system in Haskell County, and one school system in Stonewall County. One county-wide school board and one administrative staff would serve each school system.

Local tax changes in the form of local fund assignment after state-wide equalization and proposed school improvement programs would amount to $62,000 in Knox County, $58,000 in Haskell County, and $106,000 in Stonewall County next year alone.

District Water Meeting Held In Rochester Jan. 15

ROCHESTER — The Lone Star Water Utilities Association District meeting and supper were held at Rochester at Tanner's Cafe, Wednesday night, January 15. A delicious chicken supper with all the trimmings was served to members of the association and several guests.

President John T. Bryant of Sweetwater called the meeting to order, and guests were introduced by each member having introduced by members.

Aubrey Simpkins of Rule, association secretary, read the minutes and they were approved.

The program was given by Aubrey Simpkins of Rule, He brought to the group a map study program, "The Texas Water Plan". He stated when the maps were first put out in 1965 he was amazed at the lack of water reservoirs proposed for West Texas.

The east was to receive most of the benefits from a 6 billion dollar water plan for Texas.

However, later plans have included a workable plan for the west Texas water plan. This project is primarily planned to be finished in 2020. Planners must make plans now for the water consumption of Texas since the consumption is quite a bit more now than it was 25 years ago. This is why this District alone must study and plan for future water reservoirs.

Water is the cheapest thing you can get brought to you, according to Simpkins, but in years to come, raw water will be higher than treated water is today.

STAMFORD - Every aspect of the 1968 cotton crop in the Rolling Plains has exceeded the 1967 crop except the market, according to B. B. Manly, Jr., officer in charge of the Cotton Division of Agriculture Marketing Service, USDA, Abilene.

With an estimated 10,000 more bales to go, Smith-Doxey classes of C&MS at Abilene will have handled samples of nearly 500,000 bales produced by Rolling Plains farmers in 1968, Manly reported Thursday.

As of January 7, this year the cotton examiners had already classed 444,382 bales from last year's crop, he said. This compares with a 258,702 bale total for the 1967 crop in the Rolling Plains.

Increases have been almost as great in the other classing offices serving Rolling Plains farmers. As of December 27, the Memphis, Texas office which serves Childress, Cottle, Collingsworth, Donley and Hall counties, had classed 135,473 bales. The office in Munday, handling Baylor, Haskell, Knox and Throckmorton, had classed 91,929 bales. The office in Altus, Okla., which classes Texas cotton from Foard, Hardeman, Wichita and Willbarger counties, had classed 42,921 bales from south of the Red River.

The crop has been fantastic, Manly said. The grade and staple showed vast improvements. The fiber improved. When the gins clean up what is in the yards, the plants likely can close down for good until the beginning of another season.

"Ginners and others in the cotton industry expected a better market year than in the past. It has not come up to expectations."

"During the first week of 1969 the market has been slower and lower than the last week in 1968. At the start of the 1968 marketing year, prices were pretty much the same as for 1967, except for longer staple varieties."

"At the start of the current season middling 29 32nds was bringing 18.50; 15 16ths, 18.70; and 31 32nds, 19.80."

"Then prices began to decline. By the middle of November most cotton was selling for 18.35 for 31-29; 19.05 for 31-30, and 20.10 for 31-31."

"It held steady at that level until the last week in 1968 when it dropped 25 points. Lower grades sold more readily than high grade cotton."

"Barky cotton is selling at $7.50 per bale below what it was for the same period in 1968; strict low middling 15 16ths and less is bringing around $10.50 per bale above the loan, compared to $20 per bale for the same period in the previous marketing year", Manly said.

He said very little cotton classed in the Abilene office for the 1968 season graded even light spots. He attributes this to the fact that the cotton crop matured evenly and completely before the first killing frost.

He said there was a significant improvement in the average staple length for the crop. This, he says, can be credited to the improved varieties planted by the producers.

FFA And 4-H Scholarship Is Doubled

Officials of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo have announced that the existing annual scholarship fund for the outstanding FFA or 4-H Club member has been doubled.

"Cognizant of the soaring costs of education, and realizing the great need for trained agriculturists in Texas, we have upped the scholarship from $2000 to $4000, paid at the rate of $500 per semester," Louis Pearce, Jr. said.

At the present time, 14 boys are presently enrolled in college through the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo scholarship. These boys' scholarships will be increased from $250 per semester to $500 per semester, beginning with the 1969 spring semester.

The scholarship is confined to boys who enroll in a course which leads to a bachelor's degree in an agricultural field and the winner must attend a Texas college.

Any active member of the Future Farmers of America or 4-H Club, who is a graduating senior, is eligible to apply for the scholarship. Qualifications are based on outstanding leadership, scholarship, the applicant's supervised farming program while in the FFA or 4-H Club, and need. The applicant's scholastic rating for the first 3 1/2 years of high school should place him in the upper fourth of his class. It is mandatory that the scholarship winner attend college the fall term immediately following his selection.

Selection of the winner of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo scholarship is made by the State FFA and 4-H Club offices. Applicants must apply through their Vo-Ag teacher or County Agent.

Also the consolidation would require each existing school district to assume each other's indebtedness. The indebtedness varies from district to district and this causes an inequitable situation between communities which have a high indebtedness and those who have little or no indebtedness.

New Grass Variety Is Approved By State Board

A new high yielding grass variety has been approved for certification by the State Seed and Plant Board and released for public use, Arche Lieb of the local Soil Conservation Service reported this week.

Called Selection 75 Kleingrass, it is a palatable, drought resistant tame pasture grass which is being released for certified seed production, Lieb said. SCS and the Texas Agricultural Experiment Stations joined in the release after both agencies cooperated in making evaluation plantings across the state.

Lieb said the newly certified grass is one of the most promising ones developed in Texas in recent years. He pointed out, however, that it will never replace top grasses already in use - it just gives livestock men another good grass to choose from when planting improved pastures.

Selections of Kleingrass were introduced in 1951 from a 15- to 18- inch rainfall belt in South Africa for planting at the SCS nursery in San Antonio. After extensive evaluation at the James E. "Bud" Smith Plant Materials Center at Knox City and in soil and water conservation districts across the state, Selection 75 was picked as the one strain best adapted to Texas conditions.

The Grass is adapted to a wide range of soils, but on dryland it does best on sandy loam to clay. Kleingrass 75 recovers quickly from droughts after a rain. Established plants are hardy almost anywhere in the state, although first-year plantings have winter-killed in the Panhandle. Second-year plants have withstood a hard freeze - 18 degrees below zero - at Tahoka. The plants green-up early in the spring and stay green late in the fall.

Kleingrass 75 produces high yields of top quality forage. Hay yields have exceeded three tons on dryland at Tahoka and more than eight tons under irrigation at San Benito and the Knox

City plant center. It apparently will not produce as much forage as Coastal bermudagrass and other high yielding grasses, yet grazing studies made by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station at Beeville showed livestock making better daily gains on Kleingrass 75 than on Coastal. At the McGregor Station, average daily gains were better on johnsongrass than Kleingrass 75, but neither Coastal bermudagrass nor johnsongrass produced as much total gain per acre under low to medium fertilizer applications.

The grass has also done well at such widely scattered points as Spur, Knox City, Fort Worth, Mineola, Rusk, Temple, Balinger, San Antonio, Corpus Christi, Victoria, San Benito, and Angleton.

The plant has fine stems and green to bluish green leaves and it grows about 4 feet high. It is related to blue panic and switchgrass. The seeds are small and shatter easily, which restricts seed yields.

Quail, deer and other wildlife also find Kleingrass attractive. Quail eat the seeds, and deer relish the forage, especially in the early spring when few other plants are green.

Breeder's seed are produced at the SCS plant center at Knox City. Foundation seeds were grown in 1968 and will be available in 1969 through the Foundation Seed Section, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, College Station. Limited amounts of certified Selection 75 seed will be available in early 1969 for spring plantings.

About 1 1/2 to 2 pounds of pure live seed per acre are usually drilled for broadcast plantings, Lieb said. For row plantings about one pound is used. For further information, contact technicians of the local SCS office located at Knox City, telephone 658-3681.

The largest cantilever span ever erected, the Quebec Bridge spanning the St. Lawrence River in Quebec, contains nearly 17,000 tons of structural nickel steel.

KC Jr. High Girls Place 1st At Crowell

BY BELVA PENMAN

The Knox City Junior High girls' team brought home first place from the Crowell Tournament which was held January 9-10-11. Thursday, the team played Lockett and defeated them. Lockett then played Crowell on Friday, and KC played the winner of this game. Lockett beat Crowell and so again on Saturday night, Knox City played them again. This was an exciting game since the two teams had to go into two overtimes. Knox City was ahead the whole game until the fourth quarter when Lockett came from behind and tied the game. At the end of an exciting overtime, the score was again tied. Knox City free throws proved deadly to Lockett as Knox City came from behind and won 26-24.

On January 6, the team played Crowell there in a district game. Crowell won the game 17-13.

Then on January 13, the team traveled to Paducah in another district game. The Knox City team could not quite measure up to Paducah as they won 38-19.

January 16 the team played O'Brien there. The "Pupettes" lost this game 30-21.

COUPLE'S DAUGHTER IN INAUGURAL PARADE

Mrs. Sandra Ellis Childress, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Ellis and granddaughter of Mrs. S. N. Reed, rode a white horse in the Inaugural Parade for President Nixon, Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Childress was one of the six white horse riders with the Hardin-Simmons University Cowboy Band from Abilene. The female riders carry the six flags that have flown over Texas.

Mrs. Childress was a 1965 graduate of HSU and was a rider with the band for four years and a former HSU Rodeo Queen. All of the former riders drew straws to see who could ride in the parade. Sandra was one of the lucky six who drew the long straws.
