KC Little League Season Nears End

By Dean Bouldin
With the season nearing the end anything could happen. The Dodgers lead the league one game ahead of the Red Sox. The Tigers are in third place and the Cardinals in fourth.

Last Thursday the Red Sox ended a four-game winning streak when the Tigers defeated them 15-6. The win by the Red Sox ended a four-game losing streak. In the last game Thursday night the Dodgers beat the Cardinals 11-8.

In these two games seven home runs were hit. In the first game Greg Clonts hit his fourth home run of the season, Roland Marion hit his first, and Dean Bouldin hit his third and fourth.

In the last game Rayland Hayes and Nefro Gonzales both hit their fourth homers. Leslie Fitzgerald hit his first.

With only two games left to play, anybody could win. The Dodgers and the Cardinals will play a make-up game Saturday the 8th of July. Other than this there will be no games played until July, because the Boy Scouts are going to Scout Camp.

These are the standings of the teams in the K.C. Little League as of now.

More Than 6.1 Million A Year Flows Into Knox County From Oil and Gas; 41 Wells Drilled In '66-22 Were W-Cats

More than 6.1 million a year of economic stimulation for Knox County flows from its oil and gas wells each year, an annual study by Texas Mid-Continent & Gas Association showed today.

"As one of the 206 producing counties in Texas, Knox County's economy is sensitive to fluctuations in the oil industry generally," commented W. A. Landreth, Fort Worth, Association president. "Long range, the demand for oil looks strong and current rates continue to provide Texas a major source of its income. On the other hand, Texas operators are beset by competition from other oil producing areas, government ceilings on natural gas prices, heavy tax payments, and a price for crude oil that is insufficient to encourage the amount of exploratory drilling that is needed to find future reserves."

Based on latest U. S. Bureau of Mines production figures, Knox County in 1965 produced 2.1 million barrels of crude oil, valued at $15,300, and ranks 115th among Texas counties in production.

A major distribution of income from sales of oil and gas went to county landowners in royalty payments totaling more than $765,563.

In 1966, a year that saw drilling in Texas fall to its lowest level since 1947, oil and gas operators drilled 41 wells in Knox County. Of these 22 were wildcats seeking new fields.

The Association estimated that operators in the county spent more than $893,513 in drilling last year, of which $499,003 was lost in dry holes.

Sharing heavily in the county's production each year is the State Treasury, which received $282,094 in production taxes in 1965 paid by the producers and royalty owners. Crude oil production paid $281,023 and natural gas production $1,071.

Texas Employment Commission figures for 1966 show that some 10 workers directly employed in oil and gas operations accounted for a payroll in excess of $73,044.

55 Persons To Die In Traffic Accidents During The 4th

AUSTIN - Co. Homer Garrison Jr., Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, reported today that the DPS Statistical Services estimates 55 persons will die in traffic accidents during the four-day Fourth of July holiday.

Garrison said the estimate was compiled on the basis of past experience and the present trend of traffic deaths. Deaths so far during 1967 are running about six per cent ahead of the same period for 1966.

'Operation Motorcade,' a special emphasis program designed to focus attention on the added dangers of holiday travel, will be in effect from 6 p. m. Friday, June 20, through 11:59 p. m. Tuesday, July 4. Traffic fatalities will be tabulated by the DPS throughout the period, and the totals will be announced officially three times daily as a means of keeping safety uppermost in the minds of the motoring public.

Also, as a part of the DPS operation, additional personnel from other uniformed services will augment the regular Highway Patrol.

'Most traffic accidents are made even more tragic by the fact that with the proper awareness they could have been avoided,' Garrison stated. 'Too often even the best driver may let his attention wander--and a fatal accident can result.'

'If each driver will assume the responsibility for his actions each time he takes the wheel of a car, and if he will observe the traffic laws and rules of common courtesy on the road, the number of accidents could be materially reduced.'

SUCCESSFUL SEWMANSHIP

Professional Tips for Sewing Stripes

A Symphony of Stripes

That's the fashion effect that clever scissoring gives in a season when stripes run every which way—on purpose.

Gone are the days when vertical stripes were used solely to create an illusion of slenderness and horizontal stripes were the tall girl's trick for looking shorter. Today's stripes, used in new ways, offer a fresh fashion look—and can turn the simplest shift into a conversation piece.

Fashion sewing experts from The Singer Company offer these tips for sewing with stripes:

Look at the Pattern Envelope

Some patterns are not suitable for stripes and they say so, right on the envelope. Although the experienced designer can do wonderful things with stripes and complicated cut, the home sewer will find it easier to select patterns with simple lines, and a minimum number of pieces.

Plan Carefully

If the pattern doesn't match when it is laid out, it certainly won't match when it's sewn. In laying out the pattern, remember that the seam line, rather than the cutting line, is what counts.

Go by the Stripes

Sometimes printed stripes are slightly off grain. When this is the case, place the grain lines of the pattern pieces with the direction of (or at right angles to) the stripes—rather than with the grain of the fabric. Woven stripes are always on grain.

Check the Balance

To do this, fold the fabric in half, if both halves are the same, the stripe is balanced. If they are not, the stripe is unbalanced (or irregular). When using an unbalanced stripe, cut the garment out so that the right side is a mirror image of the left. This may necessitate cutting pattern pieces separately in opposite directions on the stripes—and even adding a center seam, if the pattern is designed to be cut on a fold.

Key Cutting

To the Dominant Stripe

The dominant stripe may be the widest one—or the brightest one. Squint at the fabric to see which stripe stands out—or which one you prefer. The dominant stripe is usually used for the center (divided in a seam, so that it retains its width, or centered if there's no seam); it is also usually used down the center of the sleeves (starting at the shoulder mark). It may also be used for the waistband, placket, cuffs, and pockets. In a horizontal stripe, the dominant stripe should be used at the hemline.

Let Stripes Suggest Effects

Frequently stripes can suggest effects: a yoke cut on the horizontal, and a skirt cut on the vertical or the horizontal; bias binding used to edge a vertically striped jacket or a horizontally striped wrap-around skirt. The only rule is PLAN, so that stripes look as though they were meant to be where they are. To match stripes, arrange pattern pieces so that seams at corresponding notches fall on the same stripe. When making a two-piece garment with vertical stripes, make sure the center front and back of the top match the center front and back of the skirt or pants. When using horizontal stripes, work upward from the hem, so the fold of the hem of the top is on the same stripe as the hem of the skirt.

Adjust Stripes

If, as most do, the pattern calls for a bust dart, match stripes from the hem up—and at the shoulders. If stripes under the arm don't match, it's not too noticeable. For set-in sleeves, match stripes at the front armhole notch.

Pin Fabric When Cutting Double-Thickness

When cutting two thicknesses of fabric, make sure that stripes don't shift by pinning the two layers of fabric together every two inches or so.

Piece Stripes

In a stripe, piecing can be done almost invisibly by making the seam at the edge of a stripe. Just make sure stripes are in the order in which they're printed or woven. When possible, piece in the seam allowance.

Match Up Facings

The stripes on a collar should match the stripes of the facing. If the collar is cut on the bias, this is not always possible.

Adjust Buttonholes

Frequently buttonholes have to be adjusted to stripes. On vertical stripes, they should be aligned on the same stripe. On horizontal stripes, they may need adjustment so that they appear in stripes, rather than at the edge of stripes.

Stitch Straight

Before stitching, baste pieces together carefully. When stitching, guide fabric through machine slowly enough so that seams are absolutely straight.

Farm and Ranch News—

MUCH NEEDED MOISTURE

The recent moisture will be very beneficial to most farmers in the County. Range grass and feed crops were particularly needing the moisture.

GRAIN SORGHUM MIDGE

Grain Sorghum producers are urged to check their fields as the plants start making heads through the seed setting stage for midge.

Where damaging populations are found, research shows best results are obtained if insecticides are applied when approximately 90 per cent of the heads are out of the boot. Applications should be repeated in three to five days where adult activity continues.

Carbaryl (Sevin), toxaphene, endrin, parathion, carbophenathion (Trithion), diazinon, and ethion are effective in controlling the sorghum midge.

short Course at A&M — The ever-increasing importance of pastures and forage crops to Texas agriculture will be emphasized during the second annual short course, says J. Neal Pratt, Extension agronomist. Topic and subjects to be discussed should be of interest to farmers and ranchers in every section of Texas, Pratt said. The short course will be held July 6-7 in A&M's memorial Student Center.

FIND OUT ABOUT HAY

There's one sure way to settle the "my hay is better than yours" argument. Have it tested. Farmers have a great tendency to over-estimate the quality of their hay, says A. L. Novosad, Extension pasture specialist at Texas A&M University. There are important differences in quality and feed values of forages, according to figures from the A&M Forage Testing Service.

For instance, the high sample of coastal bermuda grass tested last year had over 19 per cent crude protein. The lowest sample tested only 3.7 per cent crude protein. Average was 8.7. Forage sorghum cut for hay ranged from a high of over 12 per cent to a low of 1.9 per cent and an average of 5.2 per cent crude protein. Crude fiber, digestible protein and TDN (Total Digestible Nutrients) showed the same wide variation, says Novosad. A relatively new figure is being included in the A&M forage analyses—net energy. Novosad says net energy is a more accurate indication of the worth of a forage to an animal than crude protein or TDN.

It is figured by subtracting the various energies lost in the digestion process from the gross energy in a feedstuff.

Novosad says there are several items influencing hay quality. Among the more important are the amount of fertilizer the hay got and the stage of maturity at which it was cut.

Lower fertility rates usually mean lower quality, he says, and as a general rule, the longer the forage is allowed to grow, the lower in quality it becomes.

Knox County Added To District Of Rep. W. S. Heatley

A letter received this week from W. S. (Bill) Heatley, Representative District 82, House of Representatives, Austin, Texas.

Reads as follows: Tom Hicks, Editor Knox City, Texas Dear Tom:

The redistricting bill as passed by the 60th Legislature adds Knox County to my district. I have had many friends in this County for some time, many of them are acquaintances because Knox County has always been in the same Judicial District as my home county of Cottle. During the next few months, I hope to meet you and others whom I will represent in the Legislature.

Looking back on accomplishments of the 60th Legislature, the ones that stand out most, and the ones I think you will be especially interested in, are the things I did as Chairman of the House Appropriations Committee. Last month there were 302 old age assistance recipients in Knox County and the State paid these persons $19,172. This is an average payment of $63.46 per person. I was able to raise the average amount of each payment by approximately $5.00 per month in the appropriations bill that was passed by the Legislature. During the last fiscal year, the State paid $219,598 for old age assistance in Knox County, and the State's part of medical care in Knox County amounted to $45,736. I believe you can see how much more money for Knox County $5.00 per recipient will amount to.

Another program I sponsored during the Session of the 60th Legislature and one in which I have always been interested, is the operation of a program in the Department of Agriculture for expanding the marketing outlets and research to improve the quality of vegetables grown in Texas. The Department of Agriculture will have approximately $50,000 to spend in finding ways to improve the quality and the marketability of vegetables grown in our area. They will also establish a marketing news service statewide in order to promote a more stable price on vegetables and other products grown in our area.

I look forward to meeting with you and your friends in the near future to discuss ways in which we can improve our part of Texas.

Sincerely, W. S. Heatley

Here's Advice For New Bride

Your Social Security record is a very important one. In order to insure that all wages paid are credited to your account, you should have your correct name on your Social Security card.

Edwin S. Draughon, manager of the Vernon Social Security Office, had this to say to brides today:

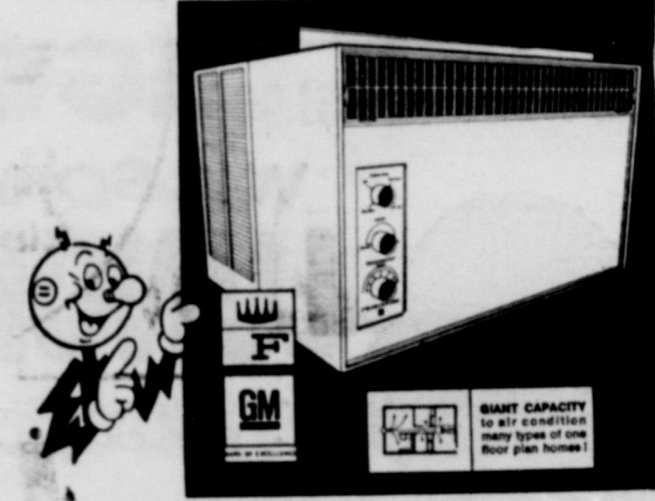

"If you change your name by marriage, be sure to correct your name at the Social Security office by completing a request for change in social security records form."

On receipt of this request the Social Security Administration will issue you a duplicate Social Security card which shows your correct name. Your number will be the same as that shown on your original Social Security card but the name will be changed on your card and the Social Security records. You can then be sure that all the wages you are paid are properly credited to your Social Security account.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Wilcox Are At Home for Summer in Knox City Following Marriage On Sat., June 24

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry W. Wilcox are at home at 602 E. 7th St., Knox City, following a wedding trip to Houston.

The couple exchanged vows Saturday, June 24 at 8 o'clock in the evening at the First Baptist Church of O'Brien. The bride is the former Nancy Jo Lippard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Lippard of O'Brien. Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Wilcox, formerly of Knox City and now residing in Albuquerque, N. Mexico, are parents of the bridegroom.

The Rev. Ken Moore, pastor of First Baptist, O'Brien, officiated at the double ring ceremony before twin ascending candelabrum bearing tapered white candles which illuminated abundant greenery beautifully arranged by Mrs. D. D. Lippard of Marlin.

Mr. Lippard presented his daughter in marriage. Her gown was of her own design and handwork, the fitted Chantilly lace bodice of the gown was accentuated by tiny pearls. Full length sleeves tapered to button-adorned petal points. The A-line skirt was of shimmering white satin of chapel length. Scalops of pearl-crested lace bordered the bride's detachable train of satin. Her veil of pure silk illusion flowed from a satin tiara. She carried a white Bible adorned with a corsage of white carnations and Lilies of the Valley.

Miss Judy Scovill attended the bride as maid of honor with her sister, Jan Scovill, serving as bridesmaid. The lovely attendants are twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. K. J. Scovill of Lubbock and have been attending West Texas State University as classmates of the bride. They wore street length gowns identical in design to that of the bride, differing only in the color hue which was of pale blue. Each carried a long-stemmed white carnation.

Steve Haliburton of Slaton, Texas, a classmate of the groom at Southwestern State College, Weatherford, Oklahoma, served as best man. C. H. Underwood of O'Brien attended as groomsman. Ushers were J. M. Emerson and Mark Lippard, both of O'Brien. Candlelighters were Matt Lippard and Gary Wilcox.

Music was provided by Mrs. Mack Oliver at the organ, and Mrs. Bobby O'Neal, soloist.

Lovely white silk ribbon pew markers designated the seating area for honor guests of the couple, who, in addition to the parents, were Mrs. D. A. Vannoy, maternal grandmother of the bride; Mrs. J. H. Lippard of Dimmitt, paternal grandmother of the bride and Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Wilcox of Knox City, grandparents of the groom.

Before the wedding the bridegroom's parents were hosts at a rehearsal luncheon for the wedding party at City Cafe, Knox City.

The bride's parents were hosts to a reception held in the fellowship hall at the church following the wedding ceremony. Guests were registered by Miss Jonette Lippard, sister of the bride, and served from a table with blue floral arrangements, tiered wedding cake on blue cloth overlaid with white lace and silver and crystal appointments. Miss Susan Vannoy and Mrs. C. H. Underwood poured.

The newly weds will make their home in Knox City until the opening of the fall school semester.

Prize Missouri Recipes

Perhaps the most famous recipe from Missouri is the one for PREMIUM Saltine Crackers, the largest selling cracker in the United States if not in the world.

The recipe originated some ninety years ago in the Missouri town of St. Joseph. The F. L. Sommer and Company, a candy and baking company entered their "XXX" soda cracker in the St. Joseph's County fair where it took first prize and was judged "Premium" in the soda cracker category. The company, distributing its products primarily in the Missouri Valley, became part of the American Biscuit Company which eventually, in 1898, merged with three other companies to form National Biscuit Company.

The basic recipe and method of production has changed little since 1876 except that, today, an electronic control panel controls the mixing of ingredients. The list of ingredients or formula used for the thin-crisp saltines now being produced reads like this: about a thousand pounds of flour, some 35 gallons of water, one pound of yeast, 10 pounds of salt, varying amounts of soda (up to 12 pounds depending on the climate of the bakery), and almost 100 pounds of shortening.

Crushed saltines combined with butter and basil form the topping for this second prize recipe which features two of Missouri's top income producers.

HAM AND CORN CUSTARD

- | | |
|--|--|
| 2 cups cubed, cooked ham (about 1/2 pound) | 1/4 cup butter or margarine, melted |
| 2 cups fresh corn kernels | 2 cups light cream or milk |
| 3 eggs, beaten | 1 cup crushed PREMIUM Saltine Crackers (about 24 crackers) |
| 1/4 cup all-purpose flour | 1/4 teaspoon basil leaves |
| 1 tablespoon sugar | Parsley sprigs |
| 1/2 teaspoon salt | |
| 1/4 teaspoon ground white pepper | |

Spread ham on bottom of a 12x8x2-inch (1 1/2-quart) baking dish. In a medium bowl, combine corn with eggs. Stir in flour, sugar, salt and pepper; add 2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine and cream; mix thoroughly. Pour over ham. Bake in a preheated slow oven (325°F.) for 35 minutes. Combine cracker crumbs with basil and remaining butter or margarine. Sprinkle in an attractive pattern on custard. Bake 10 minutes longer, or until custard is set. Garnish with parsley sprigs. Makes about 8 (1 cup) servings.
