The three little girls, Juneve and LaRue Malouf of this city and Helen Malouf of Rotan, were pitched from the car and comfortably seated in a sand bed. George Gabriel and John Malouf were also thrown from the car, both receiving minor bruises. A. J. Malouf stayed with the car but received a three inch cut on the left side of his head. He is wearing a white skull cap as a result but states that he is doing fine.

The Malouf car was somewhat damaged. The top was ruined, one wheel thrown off and the body dented.

Baker Child Hurt In Fall

Master William Roy Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Baker of Roccoster, sustained a severe cut across the nose when he fell Monday from the rabbit house at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Frizzell.

William Roy and his cousin Kenneth (Ken) Frizzell, were playing about the rabbit house. William Roy climbed upon the house then fell onto the housing of an old car. He received a bad cut on his nose, the same requiring five stitches. Tuesday morning he was in town greatly enjoying the consumption of a fat ice cream cone, unaware that anything so serious as his day-before injury had occurred.

C. OF C. TO MEET TUESDAY

The Chamber of Commerce will meet Tuesday, May 9th at the Sanitary Cafe. This meeting will be promptly at twelve o'clock.

The Chamber of Commerce is intensely interested in securing the right-of-way through the town for the continuation of the highway which is peacefully waiting at our door step to be carried through town. This piece of work needs badly to be done but it needs the "go-ahead" of everyone and not just two or three. What do you think about it. Well, why don't you do it?

NEGRO MINSTREL FINE ENTERTAINMENT

The Negro Minstrel which was presented in the school auditorium last Friday evening proved, judging from the response made by the crowd, to be excellent entertainment.

The entertainment was begun by a series of musical numbers rendered from stringed instruments and headed by Mrs. Milton Bradberry at the piano. These were all good. The other outstanding feature was the group singing of old spiritualists. Words describing the rendering of "Couldn't Hear Nobody Pray" are superfluous. You should have heard it.

The Basket Ball club, sponsors of the Friday night entertainment, was highly pleased with the attendance for the evening, and takes this means of again expressing their appreciation.

Mr. Alvin Darr spent Sunday with his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Thompson, who also accompanied him home for a visit of some two weeks with her mother.

Mrs. Smith Is Honored

Mrs. Sam E. Smith was the recipient of a shower of lovely handkerchiefs given in connection with the social of the Missionary Society of the Methodist church Monday afternoon. Mrs. Smith, wife of the late publisher and editor of the Knox County Herald, with her husband, left the city Tuesday for the home of relatives in Lamesa. Mr. and Mrs. Smith relinquished the Herald to the Sweeney family, this, the first week in May.

The Missionary Society were guests of Mrs. L. W. Swift Monday in a most delightful social occasion which was conducted by members of the losing side of the Folger Band contest.

A Gypsy party was planned and efficiently conducted by the losing ladies, the climax of which was the presentation of a collection of beautiful handkerchiefs to the Gypsy queen, (unanimously elected), Mrs. Sam E. Smith.

Following refreshments of cake and ice cream were served.

Mr. Nicholson of Paducah was here Monday visiting with Brother and Mrs. Stovall. Mr. Nicholson is a nephew to Mrs. Stovall.

Miss Alba Thompson, who has spent some five weeks with relatives in Hico and Stephenville, returned home Sunday.

Low Prices Make Shopping Easy

The new low prices offered this week by the Knox City merchants make buying an easier task. Many of the leading merchants have listed a few of their prices in the Herald this week for your convenience. Read the entire page of New Deal Bargains. Also take note especially of the specials offered by the J. M. Edwards Cash Grocery and the Red and White Grocery. Patronize all of these merchants and profit by their specials.

Never go away from Knox City to buy anything that can be bought here. You will always find the hometown merchant eager to make you the right price and give the best service.

City Tennis Tournament

An all city, double, Tennis tournament will be given by the Tennis Club on their courts next week. This tournament is being held for boys and girls and women. The winners will be declared the city champions. Everyone is eligible to enter. The entrance fee is 25c per team. Everyone wishing to enter this tournament, please see Chad Wilson by Friday of this week.

In a tournament given last week for club members only, Henry White and Carrol Benton won mens doubles championship and Miss Clara Clark and Miss Daphna Humphries won the ladies championship.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET FRIDAY NIGHT

Plans are rapidly materializing as the Herald goes to press, for the Junior-Senior Banquet that is to be given to honor the members of the graduating class is being held this year in the unoccupied building east of the Edwards Grocery and in front of the Herald office.

The members of both the senior and junior classes are eagerly looking forward to the night of the delightful entertainment.

Mrs. Walter Robinson, who recently suffered injuries sustained from having a chicken house blown down upon her, has sufficiently recovered to be moved to her home in Needmore. She was carried home Wednesday.

Mrs. Bush and her party of five ladies of Waco were guests in the J. M. Craft home five days last week. The Waco ladies were in search of wild flower scenes and brought with them a camera which produced pictures in the natural colors.

Little Miss Alleta Marie Guy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Guy, is visiting her grandparents in Kerrville. Alleta Marie accompanied her grandmother home following a visit of some three weeks here by Mrs. Bean.

Mr. Leaverton and family and Mr. Nesbitt spent the past weekend in Wichita Falls. They attended the Rodeo on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Phillips of this city are the proud parents of a fine 16 pound baby boy. Mrs. Phillips and son are, for the present, in Shawnee Oklahoma, both doing fine.

Population Scatters on Fishing Trips

Monday the first, found most of Knox City sitting some place on a bank holding a nice long pole from which a string and a big fat worm were suspended. Many of these sitters sat in vain while a few managed to have their bait stolen and a few succeeded in capturing their would be thieves.

It has created no little interest, the fact that it took Dr. Frizzell, H. M. Jones and J. M. Ashcroft all to drag out of lake Benjamin (Monday morning) a fish, in size, sufficient for Mrs. Frizzell to put in a gold fish bowl. It is also remarkable that the Doctor was so well pleased with the size of the mite that he returned to the lake again Monday afternoon to find its twin.

It is reported that Henry White, S. L. White and George Hardberger had plenty to eat Monday while on the south Wichita river, only because they took plenty of food with them.

E. F. Branton, Henry Arledge, Earl and Grady Benedict, O. D. Reid, and Den Davis cast their nets in Lake Kemp and totaled about 25 in number fish we mean. Their catch was fair.

G. A. Branton, C. C. Hoge and C. W. Armstrong also let down their nets in Lake Kemp and made a pretty good catch.

Mr. Williams, L. W. Swift and Ray Willis went and returned from Lake Kemp empty handed.

MR. WOOLDRIDGE BURIED AT GAINSVILLE

Mr. Horace Wooldridge, one of the owners of the Wooldridge Lumber Company, died Sunday, April 3rd and was buried in Gainsville Monday, May 1st. The local Wooldridge yard was closed all day Monday, honoring the deceased.

Frank Herring and E. W. Holland made a trip to Fort Worth Monday. They witnessed the robbing of a coin bank by two men who took a valuable diamond, a watch and a sum of money and made a clear get away. The two Knox City men were unaware of the robbery until it was over, however, they were very near the scene of the work.

Mr. and Mrs. Bart Hutchinson of Munday were guests of their daughter Mr. and Mrs. Ike Simmons Sunday. Mrs. Simmons honored her mother's 50th birthday Sunday with a big dinner. Among the fifteen guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Waggoner, Mrs. Waggoner being Mrs. Hutchinson's daughter.

Tuesday Dr. T. S. Edwards celebrated another birthday. Although he went about his business in his usual way, he was very pleasantly surprised by friends in the presentation of cakes and gifts.

No, we didn't have a chance to count the candles!

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Bryant and daughter Miss Elizabeth of Memphis Texas were recent guests of their daughter Mrs. O. L. Jamison. Mr. and Mrs. Bryant returned home the first of the week but Miss Bryant remained over for an extended visit with her sister.

WEDNESDAY RAIN GIVES NEW LIFE TO COUNTRY

The rain which fell here Wednesday afternoon revived not only the coming crops but also put new life into the citizenship. Thursday morning the town appeared clean and refreshed and everybody stepped lively and with plenty of pep.

Farmers from the various communities in the Knox City territory reported good rains there on Wednesday evening and night.

THE VALUE OF A HIGH SCHOOL EDUCATION

The high school is a place for education. We go to high school, assured that knowledge will be the outcome of our study and try. No student who fails to get a little knowledge on many subjects, and much knowledge on some, can be said to have succeeded. No one need to hope for success if hard study is equative to them. There are times when one feels that the teachers are impatient, when they are actually doing this for the students own benefit. There are some who go to high school to learn and enjoy it, while others go for a "good time." Stop and think a minute! Will this time and money be a help to you later? The answer is no.

Some of the larger influences are to be had from a high school education. Most of the people who have had a high school education are so cultivated, national, resourceful, and happy as those who are high school graduates.

NEGRO MINSTREL

The negro minstrel that was given Friday night, in the school auditorium was a great success. The program was very interesting and some of the fine music some songs were given, and several dances were given. The last act of the minstrel was a babies, bottle-fed or breast-fed, have a tendency to be constipated, and thrive if they received daily a teaspoonful of this old family doctor's prescription for the bowels. That is one sure way to train tiny tots to healthy regularity. To rid the fretfulness, vomiting, gas, failure to gain, and other ills unattended babies.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is for any baby. For this, you have need of a famous doctor. Forty years of practice taught him what babies need to keep their bowels active, regular; keep babies plump and healthy. For Caldwell specialized in the treatment of women and little ones. He did over 3500 births without of one mother or baby.

short play, a "negro court". Much comedy and lots of action was displayed. The audience got a lot of laughs, and everyone had an enjoyable evening. This minstrel was given by both home and school talent the funds went to the athletic fund.

SENIORS FLYING HIGH AGAIN

"Are you going to give me one?" "Not forgetting, me, are you?" "See you're saving one for me, I hope." Such are the cries heard everywhere in the halls of Knox City High School. The senior class pictures have been developed! And they have to be given to those Juniors for the big banquet. Other familiar remarks are: "May I have this one after its over?" "This one is so good, I've got to have it."

"Love, heaps of love, sincerely yours," and other similar expressions will tell the tale of student affection for his classmates. A member of the class play has even been overheard to have said that "he was giving his to a teacher" and signing "The hours I spent with thee, dear heart."

At any rate, the Seniors are expecting a grand time at the Junior-Senior Banquet and hope the use of their "likenesses" will help assure them of their expectations.

Tit for Tat

HAMLIN 8 KC HIGH SCHOOL

The Hamlin Pied-Pipers out-classed the Greyhounds in a hard fought baseball game Friday evening with the score 8-2. Both teams displayed much training and ability. The game was full of action and proved interesting to spectators who gathered in spite of the sand. The Grey hounds took the defeat like the sports that they are.

Each boy chose a "pal" to entertain until the following day when the two teams were to compete again. But due to the sand the Pied Pipers were compelled to return home without action on the baseball field.

HIGH SCHOOL SPONGES

Webster says sponges come from the sea. That may be true in part, but not all sponges come from the sea. There are too many that have never seen the ocean.

There are sponges and sponges. Despite the great number of varieties sponges are all alike in principle. To get the most for the least is their motto, and they keep it well.

Do you know a sponge? It is certain you do. At school there is the person who always wants you to prepare his lesson for him. He is forever asking for your algebra paper, or your chemistry notes, or your English exercise.

When you see the sponge coming down the hall you run the other way. But he is a good sprinter, catches you two minutes later just as you have begun to congratulate yourself on your escape. He approaches with a serene air and "smiling morning face".

He knows he is a nuisance this plaintively as is to say you know he cannot help it—but "could you just this once?"

Without waiting for him to finish you frantically thrust upon him all four papers and mumble an excuse over your shoulder as you hurry away.

The fellow is positively uncanny you have left off hating him out of fear—pure fear. He has a way of finding you every time he needs you. Before each approach you determine not to give in, but you always weaken.

Put go back to Webster's sponge, a sponge never achieves anything in life. Once a sponge, always a sponge. It makes no difference in what condition or state of life the creature exists.

Courage Now

May the courage of America's forefathers always assert itself as it has in meeting the recent crisis in which we found it necessary once again to express our confidence in our president, our country and our municipality. In this test a new sense of responsibility has been imposed upon the officers and directors of this institution through the trust and faith and endorsement of their fellow-citizens. The officers and directors of The Citizens State Bank acknowledge this trust with thanks and pledge their utmost to continue to merit that confidence and respect.

THE SWEENEYS ARE BACK ON THE JOB

Well folks, here we are! We are all rested, feeling fine and hungry for a taste of that good old ink. Mr. and Mrs. Sam E. Smith left our city Tuesday for Lamesa where they are visiting with relatives for a few days. We are happy to again give you the Herald from our own pen and workmanship. We are, now more than ever, eager to fill our columns with local news and advertisements are accepted to and through Wednesday. Office telephone 58.

GETHESEMANE

Gethsemane, the garden of our Lord's agony, is one that we are all more or less acquainted with. However little do we realize that there has been one in our midst, in our own Knox City who has had her Gethsemane, one who bore her cross seemingly alone, save for our casual Samaritan.

Some two weeks ago Mrs. J. M. Lee was called in death. Services were held in the Methodist church and her weary body was placed in its lasting resting place in the Odd Fellow cemetery.

Although Mrs. Lee lived in a small home and filled, apparently a small place in life, she filled that home and that place so full of love that those who knew her are not soon to forget. The evidence of love in her life was prevalent in the large number of children who honored her with their confidence, their love, and who gathered at the scene of her last resting place appearing to pay their debt of gratitude for her teaching.

Mrs. Lee's life celebrates the excellency of the gift of love. Over against the proud, swelling, great things of this world, she set this wonderful gift, LOVE. All gifts or abilities of this earth, without love, and harsh and meaningless. Though all gifts of prophecy, knowledge, faith and sacrifice are embodied in one being, if love is lacking he or she is nothing. Without love in his life, man is blank, but with love in his life, he approaches the device, for "God is Love".

Mrs. Lee's life was one of endurance. On her strong shoulders of Faith in God she bore many burdens. She was patient with the infirmities of her family and friends. She possessed pure, sympathetic emotions which she did not suppress. Though her friends and acquaintances surpassed her in material things and enjoyed superior blessings, she entertained no thoughts of envy or jealousy. She rejoiced in the well being of others.

Love is the one thing that never falters, and was the sustaining guide that drew Mrs. J. M. Lee calmly to her bed of eternal peace. Love to Mrs. Lee was the one garment that will never wear out or lose its beauty in time of eternity. It is a flower that will continue to shed forth its beauty and fragrance though others perish. Like the "last rose of summer it will stand blooming alone. And in this blossom we know that Mrs. Lee awaits the arrival of her loved ones.

Would that more lives tempted such immortal love!

PREPARE!

To Attend Services Sunday

Next Sunday morning, May 7th will be a test of Church loyalty at the Baptist church. We are to take the collection for our church building. This is a day when every member of the church and every friend of the church should be present. You may not be able to give what you would like to, or as much as some other, but God expects you to honor Him with your presence and to do your best.

Come, your presence will show your loyalty even if you cannot give anything. May we count on you?

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Charles E. Dunn
Jesus Faces the Cross
 Lesson for May 7th. Scripture: Mark 10:32-52
 Golden Text: Luke 9:51

The lesson begins with a very striking picture. Jesus and His disciples were on their way to Jerusalem. For some reason not stated the Master was walking along, ahead of the others. Perhaps, lost in thought, he had unconsciously quickened his pace. At any rate, there must have been some strange expression upon his face, and something unusual about his manner. For Mark tells us that the disciples were both astonished and frightened. Apparently they had never seen Him look and act in such a way before.

Our Golden Text helps us to appreciate the significance of this scene. He proceeded with fixed purpose towards Jerusalem. "The crucifixion, at once shameful and triumphant drew Him forward by an irresistible impulse."

But note that He accepted the dire fate awaiting Him voluntarily. He was not forced into the shame of a bitter execution against His Will, but deliberately chose the Way of Calvary. As Paul says, He "gave Himself for our sins."

Last, the composer, once spoke of the "madness and the exultation of the Cross." As we think of the fickle crowd that hailed Jesus on Palm Sunday, only to crucify Him on Good Friday, we are reminded of the collective insanity of man. At the same time, as we think of Jesus soon to die, we feel an unmistakable note of triumph. Here is a matchless Master so brave, so resolute, that He does not shrink the Cross.

The disciples naturally did not understand the necessity of the Cross. They were thinking in terms of worldly fame and success. James and John, in our lesson, pleaded for favored positions in the glorious new Age Christ was to introduce. And the Master had to make it clear to them they must be ready to drink His bitter cup, and be baptized with His baptism of fire. An He proclaimed that sovereign truth that the golden Way of Life is not the path of lordship and authority, but of humble ministry in the spirit of the Son of man suffering Servant.

A large crowd of Knox City couples enjoyed a picnic at Lake Benjamin the first of the week.

Mrs. Dr. Barnett returned home been visiting her mother who was ill.

H. M. Warren and Holt Moseley made a trip to Dallas the latter part of last week and returned with a new V-8 '32 Deluxe Ford which the Moseley family are proudly driving.

We understand that Jack Spikes has recently been cured of his habit of smoking in bed. Oh, well, we all have to learn by experience; talking does no good.

It's SAFE!

Everyone accepts the fact that Bayer Aspirin is the swiftest form of relief for headaches, neuralgia, neuritis, periodic pain, and other suffering. If you've tried it, you know. But no one need hesitate to take these tablets because of their speed. They are perfectly safe. They will not depress the heart. They have no ill effect of any kind. The rapid relief they bring is due to the rapidity with which they dissolve.

So, keep these tablets handy, and keep your engagements—free from pain or discomfort. Carry the pocket tin for emergencies; buy the bottle of 100 for its economy. The new reduced price has removed the last reason for trying any substitute for genuine Bayer Aspirin—each tablet stamped with this cross.

SERVICE, NOT SERMONS

Jesus rose from his seat, drawn by that splendid outburst of faith and without hesitation or questioning he started. He went with the father whose daughter was dead. All his life he seemed to feel that there was no limit at all to what He could do, if only those who beseeched Him be believed enough. Grasping the father's arm He led the way up the street, his disciples and the motley crowd hurrying along behind.

They had several blocks to travel and before their journey was completed another interruption occurred.

A woman who had been sick for twelve years edged through the crowd, eluded the sharp eyes of the disciples and touched the hem of His garment. "For she said within herself, if I may but touch His garment, I shall be whole. What an idea. What a Personality His must have been to provoke such ideas. "My daughter is dead, but lay your hands on her and she will live." "I've been sick for twelve years; the doctors can do nothing, but if I only touch His coat I'll be all right. How can the artist possibly have imagined that a sad-faced weeping could ever inspire such amazing ideas as these!

The woman won her victory. By that touch, by his smile, by the few words he spoke, her faith rose triumphant over disease. She "was made whole from that hour."

Again He moved forward, the crowd pressing hard. The ruler's residence was now in plain sight. The paid mourners, hired by the hour, were busy about the doorway; they increased their activities as their employer came in sight—hideous wails and the dull sounding of cymbals—a horrible pretense of grief. Quickening his stride Jesus was in the midst of them.

"Give place," He cried with a commanding gesture. "The maid is not dead but sleepeth."

They laughed him to scorn. Brushing them aside he strode in the house and took the little girl by the hand. The crowd looked on astounded, for at the magic of His touch she opened her eyes, and sat up.

Front page stories five and six. A woman sick twelve years, and healed! A child whom the doctors had abandoned for dead, sits up and smiles! No wonder a thousand tongues were busy that night advertising His name and work. "The fame thereof went abroad into all the land," says the narrative. Nothing could keep it from going abroad. It was irresistible news.

He was advertised by his service, by His sermons; this is the second noteworthy fact. Nowhere in the Gospels do you find it announced that Jesus of Nazareth Will Denounce The Scribes and Pharisees in the Central Synagogue Tonight at Eight O'clock Special Music.

Says Her Husband Lost 16 Pounds in 4 Weeks

"I have never found a diet that 'peps' you up like Salts and better still, it's 'pepped up.' I take it three times a week—not too often. My husband took it to lose 16 pounds in 4 weeks. Last Saturday, Washington, D. C. (April 29, 1932). To lose fat and gain in physical strength and feel spirited and young and half teaspoonful of this glass of hot water every morning. A jar that lasts a month would be sure to save the SALT. The SALT was a triumph, prominent from chin and again feeling like—money back if it fails the first jar."
