City Street Improvements Are Completed

Work was completed this week on the improvement to a number of city streets, according to Charles Lankford, city secretary.

Thirty-six blocks have new seal coat, and two and a half blocks have new paving.

City officials explained that annual improvement to the city streets is scheduled, and this year's repair was to the blocks most in need of the seal coat to protect the pavement against further wet, winter weather damage. Some of the pavement would have been lost completely with another wet winter.

B & L Construction Company of Aspermont was contractor for the work.

Former Resident Now Employed By Garrett Chev. Co.

A mechanic for over 22 years, Mr. Howell also was employed by Stephens Chevrolet and Branham Chevrolet when the firms were located in Knox City.

Officials Say Urgent KC Citizens Seek To Join Municipal Water Authority

A group of interested citizens is circulating petitions this week asking the legislators to permit citizens of Knox City to have the option to become members of North Central Texas Municipal Water Authority. The petitions to Senator Jack Hightower and Representative W. S. Heatly state -

"We, the undersigned citizens of Knox City, Texas do hereby request that when the North Central Texas Municipal Water Authority, which was created under Art. 8280, Sec. 193 RCS of Texas, is reorganized in the legislature that the name of Knox City be included as one of the member cities of said Authority; that said City shall have the right to decide whether to accept or reject participation by vote.

The purpose of this petition is to notify you that we are interested in this project and desire to be given an opportunity to be a part thereof; that due to the water situation within our City we feel it imperative that this opportunity be given to us and our City be included in the reorganization of said Authority."

The City and Chamber of Commerce officials feel it is of vital importance to reopen the issue. This issue was defeated a number of years ago when we were more concerned with the quantity rather than the quality of water. In the present Knox-Haskell County area there are few wells which would meet the U. S. Public Health Service drinking water standards. Our principle cause of concern is the nitrate contents found in the water. The U. S. Health Service has established 45 mg per liter or 10 mg per liter of nitrogen as nitrate as toxic level. A well in the city of Rule is listed at 152 ppm, Rochester 129 ppm, Haskell 177 ppm, O'Brien 164 ppm, Munday 183 ppm and Knox City 100 ppm. Follow-up records indicate the nitrate level is increasing each year. If water containing a high concentration of nitrates is used for infant

Center To Serve In Vegetable Research

College Station - The Texas Agricultural Experiment Station has set up research activities in the Munday, Texas, area to serve expanding vegetable production in this Rolling Plains region.

This announcement was made by Dr. H. O. Kunkel, acting director of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, and Dean of Agriculture, Texas A&M University. Dr. Kunkel explained that plans are under way for the establishment of the Rolling Plains Vegetable Research Center in Munday.

"Opportunities are excellent for a vegetable industry that will bring in an additional $10 million annually here. Vegetable production is one of the major agricultural industries in this area, and the location is important to the over-all production within the State since it links a continuous operation during harvest seasons with the South Texas and the High Plains Sections," stated Kunkel.

The full research program will begin in September 1969 at which time laboratory facilities, offices and a green house will be constructed by the Experiment Station estimated to cost $138,000.00. Operating expenses in excess of $260,000.00 biennially, have been set up in

"Range War" Sept. 30 To 'Fit WT Rehab Center

A rancher and also a descendant of the Gutar family, another well-known ranching family, challenged Matthew's claims about his steer.

To back up his claim, Alexander donated "Reps," a milk-fed purebred Hereford steer which has grown to somewhere around 5-1/2 feet tall and 2,500 pounds on Alexander's ranch near Nugent.

"Reps," Alexander says, "may not be quite as big as 'Old Rehab,' but he'll bring more at auction."

"Not so," Matthews countered, and the 1968 version of the "range war" was on.

The "war" will be settled at 1 p.m. Monday, September 30 - not with a shootout on Pine St., but with the annual cattle sale at Ranchers and Farmers Livestock Commission, site of the seven previous Round-Ups which have annually raised approximately one-third of the feeding, it may cause nitrate cyanosis or methemoglobinemia (blue babies). This disease reduces the ability of the blood to absorb oxygen and may be fatal unless properly treated.

Water containing a nitrate concentration of more than from 10 to 45 parts per million is considered unsafe for infant feeding.

Nitrates are a normal constituent of most soils and will be found in various amounts. A well, properly constructed to exclude all contamination, may still be found to have a high nitrate content, the nitrates coming from the water bearing formations. The U. S. Dept. of Health, Education and Welfare pamphlet DRINKING WATER STANDARDS states "at present there is no method of economically removing excessive amounts of nitrate from water. It is important, therefore, for health authorities in areas in which nitrate content of water is known to be in excess of the recommended limit to warn the population of the potential dangers of using the water for infant feeding and to inform them of alternative sources of water that may be used with safety."

HUD (Department of Housing and Urban Development) has earmarked one and a half million dollars for the Miller Creek project. Overall cost of the project is still estimated to be five and one-half million. Sale of bonds will produce three million, and $700,000 will come from the state as its share of the project. After two years' operation, water revenue alone should be sufficient to take care of all bonded indebtedness, interest and operation costs for the project.

The well-being of 18,000 Knox and Haskell County citizens may be in serious jeopardy. We ask that each citizen inform himself and others of the facts relative to this project.

The Station's budget and shall be presented to the legislature for approval.

Dr. Mack Fuqua, formerly with the Horticulture Section of Texas A&M University's Soil and Crop Sciences Department has been at the University's Agricultural and Research Extension Center at Lubbock since last October studying problems and opportunities for the vegetable industry.

Fuqua had 15 acres of seedless watermelons this past summer near Munday and will expand the research in vegetables during 1968-69.

The Munday Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture will furnish land for the building, 40 to 60 acres of irrigated land and other test plots necessary to the research program. The Munday area offers almost every known soil type to be found and has, during the past 15 years, become well established as a primary vegetable-producing area.

While "Old Rehab" (one of the midway hits of the recent West Texas Fair) and "Reps" (whom Alexander claims is named for Reps Guitart) may get most of the headlines, a lot of other fine stock will go on the auction block September 30 to benefit the WTRC.

While some of the key pledges are in, members of the WTRC's Helping Hands and Abilene Jaycees will be canvassing the state in donated vehicles and trailers during the next two weekends to pick up donated stock.

Area stockmen who have not made their pledges or arranged to transport them to Abilene are urged to contact their area chairmen or the WTRC at once, Judge Brown said.

Some suggested items are plastic bags (these are used to water-proof all items) Q-tips, instant pre-sweetened drinks, instant breakfast drinks, personal items, such as wallet size calendars, nail clippers, combs etc. Last year copies of Readers Digest and Guideposts were included in each. If you have copies of these around, please send them in, they will give pleasure to someone else.

Last year, the Round-Up raised about $92,000 toward WTRC's annual budget of $260,000. This year, the new WTRC's annual budget of $260,000. This year, the new building and increased services have pushed the budget to a record $370,000, so officials really have their fingers crossed as far as donations go.

"It looks like we're going to have a good Round-Up, in spite of the anthrax outbreak in Brown County," said Charlie Morris, general Round-Up chairman for the sixth straight year. "We've had several pledges from Brown County that we may not be able to get in time, due to the quarantine, so we are encouraging stockmen outside this area to go ahead and make their donations."

Morris admitted, however, that it is always hard to judge the eventual outcome of the Round-Up "until we get all the cattle in the pens," since many of the donations from the Big Country will come in the day of the sale.

Officials hope, too, that the "range war" spirit will spread and encourage even more donations to this year's Round-Up.

Lee Smith of Knox City is again serving as area chairman.

Knox County 4-H Boys Win In Swine Show

Billy Baker, Knox City 4-H showed his duroc gilt to 2nd place and Glenn Herring, Monday 4-H showed his duroc boar to 5th place in the Wichita Falls Store Area Sears Roebuck swine show Saturday, September 21.

Showmanship awards were presented in each of the gilt and boar classes with Glenn Herring winning the first place in showing his boar.

Mr. T. W. Colby, Abilene Christian College judged the show, and commented this was the best quality of several of these shows he has judged over the years.

Nine Counties were represented in this show. These 4-H Boys are to be commended on their fine showing.

Phil Mowery, president of the Benjamin PTA has announced plans are being made for the annual community picnic on the high school lawn at 8 p.m. September 30. The covered dish dinner will be followed by a PTA business meeting. Everyone is invited to attend.

By RUTH BROWN The Benjamin school board has adopted the 1968-69 budget calling for estimated total expenditures of $91,854, according to information released this week by Supt. Kenneth Roberts.

Instruction was the largest budget item with $55,658 allotted. Teachers' salaries will account for $46,558.00 of this amount. Other items of expenditure in the order of size are Administration, $12,259, operation of plant, $8,125; maintenance of plant, $5,600; pupil transportation, $4,951; health services, $1,400; fixed charges, $1,024; food service, $1,800; and debt service, $1,038. Assessed valuation of the district is $2,632,836. The tax rate has been set at $1.50 for which the maintenance rate is $1.45 and the debt service rate, interest and sinking fund rate is $0.05. Farm Production - U. S. farmers in 1967 continued to do their part by producing 4 percent more than in 1966 and 18 percent more than the 1957-59 average. Each farm worker supplied the agricultural needs of 42 domestic and foreign consumers, reports Cecilia Parker, Extension farm management specialist. But, he adds, inputs that went into the cost of production also increased, 2 percent more in 1967 than '66 and 24 percent more than the 1957-59 average. Food is still a bargain.

Committee To Consider '69 Feed Grain Program

Provisions of the 1969 feed grain program will be the major consideration at a meeting of the National Advisory Committee on Grains which Secretary of Agriculture, Orville L. Freeman has announced will convene in Washington, D. C., on October 7 and 8.

Faced with a bumper feed grain crop this year, the committee will help develop plans to bring production into line with utilization for the 1969 crop year and to limit the buildup of national carryover.

The 36-member committee consists of grain and livestock producers, representatives of the grain industry, and people in the academic field. The committee is called into session at regular intervals to provide the Secretary of Agriculture with guidance and counsel on wheat, feed grain, and soybean programs. It met last in April of this year, to help develop the 1969 wheat program. Chairman of the Committee is E. A. Jaenke, associate administrator of USDA's Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

Arnold J. Navratil, County Chairman, ASC Committee, points out that, to guide farmers who fall-plant wheat and barley, USDA has already announced that (1) the minimum qualifying diversion for participation in the 1969 feed grain program will be in the range of 20 to 25 percent of the base acreage, and (2) additional acreage diversion for payment will be available under next year's feed grain program because of current crop production prospects.

Based on September 1 conditions, both corn and sorghum national average yields each may be about 5 bushels per acre greater than last year's record highs. Substantially larger yields also are indicated for oats (up 3.6 bushels per acre), and barley (up 2.2 bushels). Nearly 100 million acres are involved in the production of these four feed grain crops.

The $6.75 million federal pavilion at HemisFair '68 will feature a specially commissioned movie dramatizing the United States' rich cultural heritage from all nations.

"Before they call, I will answer, while they are yet speaking, I will hear."

We find great hope given in the promise given in the Book of Isaiah. This promise means that God has the perfect answer to our prayers when we have met certain conditions that make us ready to receive. Successful prayer is governed by laws. We must learn how to apply these laws to our lives. First we must recognize God as Father, our creator. He is within us. One should have a secret place of prayer where he can close the doors to all thoughts and interest to the outer world. One who prays must believe that he had received. The Kingdom of God must be desired above all things and sought first. The mind must let go of every unforgiving thought. When these rules have been met God will bless in ways beyond anything we might conceive of or desire for ourselves or loved ones. Under God's laws of love and wisdom. His goodwill becomes operative in our lives and affairs. "He will answer while you are yet speaking."

FURY FOR 1969 — Fury, Plymouth's booming volume leader, is new from top to bottom in 1969. In 17 models, Fury is a bigger car — 1.5 inches longer, almost two inches wider than last year on a 120-inch wheelbase. Inside and out, Fury is

system. The organizational meeting for the Truscott and Gilliland Water Association was held Sept. 21, 1966. An FHA loan for $139,000 was obtained about two months ago with the aid of Joe Boone, county FHA supervisor at Knox City.

R. Ernest Lee Associates of Wichita Falls, consulting engineers, have assisted the local board, FHA and the Red River Authority with preliminary planning, promotion and final planning, during the two-year period.

Representing the Red River Authority at the meeting were Parkey and Sen. Jack Hightower, attorney for RRA.

Truscott and Gilliland board members attending were Horne; Mrs. Florence Miller, secretary; Bill Owens, Curtis Casey and Emil Navratil. Other board members are L. P. Welch and H. A. Reeves.

Saturday morning board members plan to go with the engineers to view extensions. This survey will be followed by a meeting.

Few pioneers would have believed such a water system a possibility 90 years ago when this area first began to settle up. Mrs. H. A. Smith, a Truscott pioneer now living in Knox City, once said in a radio speech, "they used to chase the longhorn cattle away from mud puddles to get water."

She said in her early life she sometimes drank water so green and had smelling, "that we had to close our eyes and hold our nose to get it down."

China Lake, southwest of town, and scattered gysprings were the water "systems" for the buffalo hunters, sheepherders and earliest settlers. Later a rock lined well was dug on the Truscott place, now the Tom Westbrook place. The late Tom Westbrook said he could recall many times making the long trip from Antelope Flat in a wagon loaded with water barrels for household and livestock water.

The first cement underground cisterns for storing rain water were said to have been greeted with almost as much joy as news about the new water system is today. Most Truscott and Gilliland homes have plumbing systems today, but in many homes the water has been supplied largely by buying loads of water from a tank truck operated by Mrs. Selma Bullion and her son Paul. Paul reports he plans to sell the truck and is glad to do it.

The Truscott 4-H Club met last Thursday in the home of Jill Myers. Ruth Brown gave an illustrated program on money management and distributed booklets on the subject. Following refreshments of sandwiches, cake and soft drinks, the meeting was concluded with games of touch football and volleyball. Others attending the meeting were Christy Shaw, Jacquelyn Brown, Trenna Cash, and Renee and Rhonda Westbrook. The next meeting will be October 1.

The weather in Truscott has been tormenting farmers and ranchers. The black clouds stop to say "hello" and then go rain on some other town.

Some ranchers have sold their calves. Farmers have been busy getting ready to sow wheat, however, a rain is needed before they sow. There are good quail hunting prospects in the area this year.

Kenneth Sellers of Crowell visited Dennis Dobbs over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Myers of Crowell visited Mrs. Irene Gerrold Sunday.

W. W. Clark and J. P. Clark of Quanah visited friends in Truscott Saturday.

Visiting in the home of Mrs. Idoma Chowning over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Chester Roberts of Abilene.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Rogers visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Rake last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Brown went to Oklahoma City, Okla., over the weekend to visit their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Mac Harbour. They attended the State Fair, Ice Capades and Cowboy Hall of Fame.

Weldon Cash of Plainview visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Cash last Friday.

Charlie Laquey and his son, Lon Lauey, of Dublin, spent several days last week visiting tives in Laquey, Missouri.

Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lindsey of Granite visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Rake.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Eubank visited Louis Eubank and family in Denver City last Tuesday. They then went to Hobbs, New Mexico, Wednesday and visited D. W. Eubank and family. They ended their trip by visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McLaughlin in Carlsbad, N. M. Thursday through Saturday.

Mrs. W. M. Rake went to Wichita Falls last Sunday.

Sue Eubank enrolled at North Texas State in Denton last Sunday.

Carolton Browder visited Carla Jo Browder and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Coleman in Houston last Monday through Friday. While he was there he went to the Sam Rayburn Reservoir. Carla Jo and a girl friend returned with him for a weekend visit.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Bayers and Miss Ola Barker of Seymour took Frances Bayers to Austin Thursday to enter the University of Texas.

Mrs. Ruby Martin was unable to attend the state Texas Home Demonstration Association convention at McAllen Sept. 18-19. There was no representative from Knox County, the first time for several years that this has happened.

THROCKMORTON EXPERIMENTAL RANCH FIELD DAY
Scheduled Oct. 3 is the 1968 field day at the Texas A&M University Experimental Ranch near here.

Several hundred guests from throughout the state will see first hand the latest results of long-range research in several areas, among them:

Cattle production on the basis of three levels of protein supplement during the winter. Dr. M. M. Kothmann, ranch manager, will also compare the dollar-return from each level.

The economics of three grazing systems: continuous, two-pasture deferred-rotation, and four-pasture deferred-rotation. Dr. Kothmann will discuss each of three stocking rates on all the systems.

Tours of the many research pastures at the ranch will be held from 9:30 until 11:30 a.m., when a lunch of barbecued beef will be catered by Underwood's of Wichita Falls. Free tickets will be given to the first 100 nonresidents of Baylor and Throckmorton counties to register.

The ranch is 10 miles north of here, adjacent to U. S. Hwy. 183, where a huge sign marks the entrance.

During a 90-minute conference after lunch, Dr. Kothmann and the following persons will present brief discussions:

Dr. L. S. Pope, associate dean in the A&M College of Agriculture, will inform the group of the overall research program of the university and a 20-year outlook at the beef cattle industry.

(Dr. Pope will also inform his audience that already there is emerging along a line stretching roughly from the Midland-Odessa area to near Omaha, Neb., "The most extensive and specialized area of livestock production in world history.")

G. W. Mathis, research associate at the ranch, will talk about the response of forage plants to the three systems of grazing and of the implications for management.

John Matthews, Throckmorton rancher and chairman of the Texas Experimental Ranch Committee, will report on the formation of the Brush control and Grass land Improvement Foundation.

Master of ceremonies Oct. 3 will be Rob Brown, area rancher and member of the ranch Committee.

BIRTHPLACE OF TEXAS 4-H CLUBS GETS MARKER
Jacksboro, Sept. 23, 1968 — Sixty-one years ago the first county agent organized "Boys Corn Club in Texas" became a reality. Its importance is being recognized by the Texas Historical Society in a 2:00 p.m. ceremony here September 28.

The historical marker, which will be dedicated in front of the museum at nearby old Fort Richardson, will recognize the Jack County Club as the forerunner of today's 4-H clubs in Texas. The Jack County 4-H Council will be in charge of the dedication ceremony.

Among guests at the ceremony will be Congressman Graham Purcell of Wichita Falls, an outstanding Archer County 4-H member during his youth, and Director John E. Hurchison, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the organization which is responsible for the administration of the state's 4-H programs and activities.

The first boys corn club was organized by T. M. Marks, part-time Jack County agent and publisher of the Jackboro newspaper. The failure of a corn show for adult farmers in the fall of 1907 caused Marks to turn to the boys. A chance remark by a railroad official who had traveled from St. Louis to see the adult show, "You can't teach an old dog new tricks" drew this answer from Marks — "Then I'll start with 'the pups'," and he did.

The 1908 show drew national attention and Marks was called to Washington, D. C. to explore the possibilities with officials of extending out-of-school education programs for youth as well as adults.

With passage of the Smith-Lever Act by Congress in 1914 and its signing by President Woodrow Wilson, the Cooperative Extension Service came into being. This unique and revolutionary method of education, based on farm and home demonstrations, is now known throughout the free world. The demonstration method of teaching involves not only the carrying out of recommended farming and homemaking practices but the involvement of the farm family in programs and the solving of problems to better themselves and their neighbors and friends.

What has happened in the 61 years since County Agent T. M. Marks first tried his "pups" theory? The 4-H Clubs program or its equivalent is known around the world. Approximately 100,000 Texas boys and girls are members of some 2,300 local 4-H Clubs. Some 18,000 volunteer local adult leaders and county Extension Agents work with them "To Make the Best Better," their 4-H motto.

The alumni of 4-H are counted in the millions. They are quick to point out the value of training received during their 4-H days. Thus, the dedication of the Jack County marker recognizes not only an event but the beginning of an experiment Apparent low bidders for the water distribution system and drilling of a well for the Truscott and Gilliland rural water system at the bid opening Thursday, Sept. 19, at Benjamin, were Rhode Pipe Company of Silverton with a $119,814.76, for distribution system construction, and Hinton Well Service, Floydada, $4,952.11, for drilling a well.

Falls, said the contract should be let in about 10 days and water system construction should begin in 30 days. An estimated construction period of three months was predicted by the Rhode Pipe Company representative, weather permitting.

Paul Horne, president of the Truscott and Gilliland Water Association board, reported 106 wet meters and 26 dry meter deposit prior to opening of bids, which was attended by about 40 persons. Eleven bids were made for the job.

About 40 miles of line is planned, using six inch jointed transite pipe for the approximately three miles of main line and plastic PVC pipe ranging from one inch to four inches for line extensions. Transite is the same type pipe used in the Greenbelt Water System line for Quanah to Crowell, according to Horne.

The 85 foot well will be drilled north of Gilliland on the O. R. Miller place. A test well drilled about six months ago indicated water in sufficient quantity and of acceptable quality for the

History Of O'Brien

CHAPTER VII

The country around the town of O'Brien has, since farming of the land was taken seriously, been a cotton producing country. Where there is cotton there must be cotton gins. The town of O'Brien, since the early days of establishment, has supported a gin.

The first gin in O'Brien was called "Carney Gin". The Gin was owned by Carney. It was established around the year 1906 and was located somewhat northwest of Richard T. Carney's present home.

The next gin established in O'Brien was the Farmer's Union Gin. It was built about 1910 or 1911 and was located somewhat east of the present loading docks. The union of county farmers had been formed July 6, 1904 and also had gins in Rule and Haskell.

About 1926 the Stockholder's Gin was established and was better known as the "Old Red Gin". It was owned by a Mr. Johnston, Mr. Abernathy, Mr. Pickrell and Mr. Stubblefield. Mr. S. N. Reed later purchased one of the four men's shares and became a fourth partner. The "Old Red Gin" was not far removed, in location, from the present day gin system.

In the late 1920's a group from Oklahoma bought these men out and built another gin just north of the "Old Red Gin". The Oklahoma party was seemingly owner of the gins for only a few years when both gins burned one night.

Shortly after this, twelve men built another gin. Grover Jar-don was manager of this particular gin. In 1936 the gin established by these twelve men changed its name to the O'Brien Cooperative Gin. S. N. Reed became manager and served in this capacity until 1966. Stockholders at this time were: S. N. Reed, 15 shares of stock; E. O. Jamison, 10 shares; J. F. Barnard, 8 shares; Tom Osborn, 5 shares; C. A. Reed, 6 shares; W. M. Rowan, 5; C. F. Reed, 5; W. D. Johnston, 5; J. W. Trimmer, 10; S. J. Reeves, 4; B. C. Cooner, 11; J. E. Hawkins, 1 share; W. J. Pierson, 2; H. C. Wharton, 1; C. A. Barnard, 2; E. C. Williamson, 1; J. S. Abernathy, 3; U. V. Thomas, 5; Jimmy White, 5; W. H. Clarits, 8; B. L. Leath, 2 1/2 shares; H. J. Radar, 1; M. H. Wood, 2; L. B. Hester, 11.

In 1940 the four year old O'Brien Cooperative Gin established a second gin. A third gin was established by the Cooperative in 1945. The first gin was done away with in 1967 and the other two gins remained in their original positions. The O'Brien Cooperative Gin had its biggest production year in 1963. S. J. Reeves now holds the position of manager.

Although the boll-weevil and the government have cut cotton production in the area the gin in O'Brien still gins more cotton than most gins in the Rolling Plains area.

CHAPTER VIII

The face of the townsite of O'Brien changed rapidly from the early years of prosperity until the 1920's. By 1922 the townsite resembled very little, the once growing town with hotels, a bank, and many other stores. By now the town had seemingly declined in growth and perhaps was no longer capable of evolving into a large city as it had seemed it would in its first years of establishment. In 1922 there was a Barber Shop serving the town of O'Brien. It was located near where the old theatre now stands. It was owned and operated by Monty Montgomery.

The Post Office, at this time, was located north of the Barber Shop. Some of the Postmasters who served in O'Brien until 1950 were T. B. Austin, Clara Barnard, Abe Erwin (1924) and Lucy Barnett. Mr. C. M. Walsworth would become postmaster in 1929 and serve in that position through 1950. The mail at that time was carried by horseback or by horse and buggy. One of the well-remembered mail carriers was F. Barnard.

More than one dry goods store, one was run by Jim Walsworth and Phil West served the little town in this period. This dry goods store was located on main street of O'Brien. T. G. Carney also had a dry goods store located on the corner where the First Baptist Church now stands.

South of the present cafe in town was Mr. Thomas' grocery store. Pete Barnard had a Confectionary to the south of the grocery store.

There was during this period a service station and garage located where Jess Dennington now lives. The service station was owned and run at one time by W. M. Bryant, Dwight Gothard also went into the service station business in O'Brien during this period.

For a time a flour mill owned by the Farmers Union was located in the northwest part of O'Brien. The mill was built during World War I.

Needing a means of modern communication, there was established at one time a central telephone station in O'Brien. O'Brien citizens also enjoyed the service of a depot with a telegraph in it. The agents at one time or another were V. G. Martin, Mr. Pucket, and Mr. Rambler. They handled both freight and mail.

O'Brien had at one time or another during this period three drug stores. The names of the drug stores were Dan Dunn's Drug Store, Dr. Payne's Drug Store, and Dr. Gray's Drug Store. O'Brien also had five doctors serving at one time or another in this period. There were two Dr. Presleys (father and son), Dr. Cooper, Dr. Payne, and Dr. Gray serving as doctors in O'Brien at this time.

All communities have favorite pastimes for their young men. One of the favorite sports of the community boys somewhere around 1921-1928 was to hide behind the water trough, (which was about waist high and located northeast of the present Bradberry store) with a greasy bucket full of water, plus the green moss, and throw it at the cars that passed by the road. Many white shirts and Panama hats were ruined by this. Also at that time the passenger train ran at 11:00 p.m. and the boys found chunking green peaches at the windows very enjoyable.

In the 1920's there was a place east of the present school where they had church, revivals, social gatherings, and meetings; all providing fellowship for the entire community.

The little town, as did all the nation, suffered through a World War and a depression in this period but continued to change and serve the people about it. The 1950's, as will be seen, bring a major change in the organization of the town of O'Brien.

Fryers continue to be an economical choice in most markets. Since they are so versatile, you can stretch your food budget by serving chicken more often, suggests Extension Specialist Gwendolyn Clyatt.

Jonathan Christ, Sam Tankersley, Bobby Lewis, Lynn Clarke, Genia Gibson, Steve Lester, and Gwen Angle. That parade was pretty rough marching but I am sure that that experience will help us in our marching.

The Annual Staff had a meeting last week to get the 1969 Greyhound started. Annual sales started Monday to run for two weeks. Sophomore members of the Annual Staff are Betsy Ross, Mike Newton, Rogers Lankford, and Gwen Angle. We are going to try to make this year's annual one of the best ones ever.

Well, we lost that ballgame Friday night but we are going to make up for it when we play Valley View next Friday night. Y'all come and help the Hounds win this one!

THE 1968-69 KENNEL STAFF was completed last week when several organizations met and elected their reporters. Pictured above in the sitting-room area of the home-making department are reporters with whom the Herald will be working this school year, and also, the co-sponsors, Mrs. Ottis Cash and High School Principal Ward Cooksey. Standing, left, are Joe Barnard, Johnny Lewis, Mrs. Cash, Randy Hise, Margaret Howell, Mr. Cooksey, Jeana Vassar, Brent Railsback, and Victor Gonzales. School Spirit, What Is It?

By JOHNNY LEWIS
 Everyone has heard of school spirit, but very few people realize what it really means. WEBSTER'S NEW WORLD DICTIONARY defines spirit as "enthusiastic loyalty", and in essence, that is what school spirit is. But to some people, it means more than this. To some, it is that feeling of excitement when the football team makes a touchdown or when the basketball team makes a goal; to others, it is that feeling of pride when the band marches onto the field for their half-time performance; and still, to some, it is that feeling of vivacity expressed by the pep club at a pep rally or ball game.

National TB Assoc Honor Governor

Austin - Because of the singular push he has given tuberculosis eradication in Texas, Governor John Connally will be honored by the National Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association in ceremonies at HemisFair September 28. He is the first governor to be so honored by the national group.

Frank Blair, noted TV newscaster and Honorary Christmas Seal Chairman for the association, will join Judge Ernest Mason of Florida, president elect of the national group, to present Governor Connally with a plaque.

Four years ago, Governor Connally appointed a committee of 13 citizens and charged them to look into the state's program for finding TB cases, medical treatment, and rehabilitation.
