

WASHINGTON LETTER

By Congressman Ed Gossett

Washington, D. C., Feb. 10—The House of Representatives this week passed a bill appropriating some six million dollars for the completion of the agricultural census. It also passed a bill appropriating money to run numerous executive agencies of the government. However, the most important work in the Congress this week has been hearings before numerous Congressional committees on pending bills.

The House Committee on Banking and Currency reported out the George bill, already passed by the Senate, divorcing the RFC and other financial agencies from the Department of Commerce. The Committee on Rivers and Harbors reported out a bill carrying more than 200 million dollars to cover hundreds of rivers and harbor projects. The House Judiciary Committee reported out numerous bills, including the so-called Insurance bill, and the Summers resolution on treaty ratification.

The Insurance bill is designed to preserve state jurisdiction over insurance companies. The treaty ratification resolution, carrying the name of Hutton Summers of Dallas, chairman of the committee, is the same resolution proposed by me in the last Congress and in this Congress to amend the constitutional requirement of a two-thirds vote of the Senate to ratify treaties.

If the Summers resolution is passed by the Congress and ratified by three-fourths of the states, treaties may then be approved or ratified by simple majorities of the House and the Senate. In my opinion this resolution is vital to the future peace and security of this country. To make or not make treaties is the question. For all practical purposes, under the present two-thirds rule, a minority of one-third plus one of the Senate can emasculate or defeat a proposed treaty, and for that reason it is almost impossible to make treaties under existing law.

A great deal of debate is now going on about streamlining the Congress. In my opinion the most important streamlining job which could be done would be to abolish the two-thirds rule in the Senate on treaty ratification and allow approval by simple majority of both Houses. We declare war by simple majorities of both House and Senate, and should make treaties in the same way.

A Senate Committee is now busy debating the so-called "work or else" bill recently passed by the House. This bill carries the same penalties for job dodging as for draft dodging, namely a fine of $10,000 or five years in jail. It does not change any existing grounds for deferment. In this connection the F. B. I. announced this week that since 1940 11,000 persons have been convicted of draft dodging.

In the next few days there will be mailed from my office a 4-page summary of veterans legislation, together with a list of the latest farm bulletins available to farmers and victory gardeners as an aid to food production.

Texas this week made a surprise visit to the office of Congressman Joseph J. Mansfield of Columbus, Texas, to congratulate him on his 54th birthday. Judge Mansfield, as he is affectionately called, has served in the Congress since 1917, and has been a member and chairman of the House Committee on Rivers and Harbors for a longer period than any other Congressman in history. He has more data in his mind on the rivers and harbors of America than any other living man, and can give minute details accurately from memory. The Judge has served continuously in public office for approximately 60 years. He is a past Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Texas Masonry. He goes about in a wheel chair as the result of an accident which occurred seven years after he came to Congress.

Figures coming to my desk this week show the importance of Argentina. While the Argentine Republic has only 10 percent of the population of South America, they have 54 percent of the railroad mileage, 50 percent of the telephones, 55 percent of the motor cars and trucks, 60 percent of the outgoing mail, 61 percent of outgoing telegrams, 55 percent of newsprint consumption, 50 percent of the petroleum consumption, 57 percent of the educational expenditures, and

Red Cross Roll Call Campaign Will Start Mar. 1; Quota $6,100

Rev. Lloyd Hamilton, County Red Cross Roll Call Chairman, announced early this week that the preliminary plans for the annual roll call drive have been made. The campaign will get under way March 1st, with a county quota of $6,100 set up for this year's drive.

The quota this year represents an increase of $400.00 over last year's quota, which is in accordance with a plea from national leaders for additional funds to carry on this important phase of war and home service.

In the official Presidential Proclamation issued this year designating March as Red Cross month, President Roosevelt places especial emphasis on the fact that this is the fourth year that the American Red Cross is fulfilling its obligations to comfort our wounded, to cheer and help our servicemen on every fighting front, and to provide an essential link between these men and the families at home.

The national appeal is for a War Fund of $200,000,000. Local community quotas will be set up later by the County Chairman Hamilton, subject to the approval of the regional board.

Red Cross Worker Tells of POW Camps

Mrs. Lester Morrell of Chicago, gave an interesting talk in Monday evening on the locale and other details of prisoner of war camps. The lecture was held in the school auditorium last Thursday night.

Mrs. Morrell, who has traveled extensively in Europe, British West Indies and Canada, gave many details pertaining to camps where many of our American boys are held prisoners. She also exhibited maps of these camps and explained just where many of them are located.

She was heard by about 150 persons from Knox and Baylor counties who were vitally interested in such camps. These were not all next of kin of war prisoners, but many were those whose loved ones were prisoners of war.

Mrs. Morrell concluded her talk with a round-table discussion, and many questions about the camps were answered. She left Friday morning for Kansas, and from there will report back to her Chicago office. She is a volunteer home service worker from the Chicago Red Cross.

The program was opened by the group singing "America." Rev. Don Davidson gave the invocation and the high school chorus also entertained. Mrs. Morrell was introduced by Supt. Merick McGaughey of Benjamin.

Mrs. Minnie E. Pack of O'Brien has received the Purple Heart and accompanying Citation from the President, awarded posthumously to her son, Charles Herman Pack, a member of the 4th Armored Division Infantry, killed in action in France, December 3, 1944.

Mrs. A. R. Krause of Fort Dodge, Kansas, spent the weekend here with her sister, Mrs. A. E. Propps and Mr. Propps.

World Day of Prayer To Be Observed Here

The World Day of Prayer Program, an international movement participated in by every country in the world, will be observed in Knox City Friday, February 16th, with appropriate services at the Christian Church at 8:00 p. m.

Sponsored locally by the Christian Women's Association, the Day of Prayer Program has been prepared by the women of Britain this year. The purpose of the movement was inspired by the need of continual prayer because of the rapidly changing conditions of the time. Prayer for Divine guidance in settling world disputes, for the safe delivery of loved ones in the service, are part of the program.

The public is cordially invited to attend the service.

WACS To Recruit Enlistees Here Friday

Sgt. Ida J. Snell, accompanied by Cpl. Florence Corrigan, will be in Knox City February 16, from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. in the Citizens State Bank to interview women interested in becoming medical or surgical technicians in the Women's Army Corps.

Seeking women between the ages of 20 and 50 years, the recruiters are obtaining enlistees for WAC hospital units to serve in the army general hospitals. Faced with an increasing number of returning wounded and a critical shortage of nurses, the army hospital staffs are heavily overburdened, medical officers say.

Because of the urgency of the appeals from the army medical department for hospital technicians, the educational requirement for WAC medical and surgical technicians has been lowered from four years to two years of high school education, or its equivalent. Previous training is not necessary, recruiters say, for the army has set up specialized schools to train women for service in our 60 army general hospitals.

Under a new accelerated program, the army has made it possible for WAC medical technician enlistees without previous training to be assigned to an army hospital after basic training and six weeks of specialized training at an enlisted technician school.

Women, so far as practicable, will be assigned to army general hospitals within their own state. Because many of the wounded soldiers are brought back to hospitals near their own home, army officers explain that this will give the WAC medical technician an opportunity to care for men from her own community.

WAC medical and surgical technicians serve in army hospital wards, assisting army doctors and nurses. In addition to medical and surgical technicians, the recruiters are seeking women to enlist as WAC medical stenographers and a few other specialized skills.

Shower Honors Mrs. Clem Ball

A shower honoring Mrs. Clem Ball, nee Joyce Corley, was given in the home of Mrs. W. H. Clonts last Friday afternoon from 4:30 to 6:00. Mrs. Clonts welcomed the guests and presented them to the receiving line. In the receiving line were Mrs. Doran Brown of Rochester, grandmother of the bride-elect, Mrs. H. C. Corley, mother, Miss Zeola Corley and Mrs. E. E. Underwood of Rochester, aunts of Mrs. Ball's, and Mrs. Clem Ball.

The table was beautiful with a centerpiece of cut flowers in the shape of a heart, tied with a red bow with the names "Joyce" and "Clem" on each streamer. Refreshments of heart-shaped cookies, salted pecans and tea were served, with Mrs. Mondell Mills presiding at the tea service.

Miss Anna Lee King presided at the bride's register, and Mrs. J. M. Averitt and Mrs. Gene Clonts invited the guests in to see the wedding presents.

Haviland china and Garden Flower pattern was presented to the honoree by the hostesses for the afternoon.

EDWARDS GROCERY INSTALLS NEW REFRIGERATOR UNIT

Benjamin Pastor

Orlett D. Brack

Sunday morning, February 11th, marked the first Lutheran service to be held in Benjamin under the direction of Orlett D. Brack, the recently arrived Lutheran pastor. Services are conducted at the Christian Church of Benjamin at 11:30 a. m.

Mr. Brack, a native of Kansas, has had nine years of ministerial training in preparatory and seminary schools of the Lutheran Church. The Lutheran services in Benjamin are conducted in the historically Lutheran manner, the services centering about the sermon or message based upon the gospel of Christ and His crucifixion. In order that all Lutheran services should be uniform in especially the pure Word of God, Lutheran pastors must have many years of training under skilled exegetes and homiletics.

Mr. Brack has met all of the rigid qualifications required for the Lutheran ministry. All who attend the Lutheran services in Benjamin will hear the Gospel of Christ and the message of forgiveness, in all their divine purity. Forgiveness of sins, life and salvation can be the inseparable possession of all who will accept the pure doctrine of the Word of God as proclaimed by the Lutheran Church.

Oil Field News

Activities in the oil field in King and Knox counties, and in the leasing development in both counties, continue at a stirring rate.

In the Bateman Ranch field in King County, Humble Oil and Refining Company No. 10 Bateman is drilling at 4190 feet, and is going to the lower Bateman pay. Humble-Bateman No. 9 is drilling at 3093 feet, and will also go to the lower Bateman pay. Both wells are making hole at a good clip.

The Ohio Oil Company, in its No. 2 Ross is drilling below 5,000 feet, and is going to the granite in this test, which means it will drill past the big pay it struck in Ohio-Ross No. 1. This well is believed to be checking favorably on formation with the No. 1. It is an east and north offset to No. 1.

The Estate of S. B. Burnett No. 1, Mid-Continent Oil Corporation is rigging up and preparing to spud. This well is located in the Axtell survey, and is an offset to a shallow dry hole drilled by the White Eagle Oil and Refining Company about 15 years ago.

There has been a wildcat leasing play throughout Knox County in the past two weeks which has swept up about 75,000 acres of land in rather large blocks. Other leasing is in progress.

The three committees of the Knox City Lions Club who were appointed to make all necessary arrangements for the 1945 4-H Club Baby Beef Show, have announced that everything is ready and that the 4-H Club boys entering their calves must have their livestock on the grounds at 10:30 a. m., Saturday, February 17th. The premiums offered this year are unusually attractive, because of the intense interest of business and livestock men throughout the county.

The Grand Champion steer will win $50.00 in cash premium, and the Reserve Champion steer will win $40.00 in cash prizes. The League Ranch of Benjamin has contributed very liberally to the premium awards and will not follow their previous custom of matching the premiums that have been won at the District Show in Wichita Falls. The change in policy will give all boys a chance to win extra premium money. Instead of the ten boys whose calves will be selected to be shown at the Wichita Falls Show.

R. O. Dunkle, County Agent, has received notice from the county agents in Clay, Baylor and Foard Counties, and the vocational agriculture teachers from Baylor and Knox Counties, that they will have representative members of their livestock judging team at the Knox County Calf Show for training in livestock judging.

"Seeing is believing," is a favorite saying with those who pride themselves on being hard-headed, practical men of the world.

Well, you have seen a magician produce a rabbit from a hat and pull coins out of thin air—but do you believe it?

Around Texas: L. D. Lowry, Mt. Vernon merchant, wants the men in service from that area to get the home town paper—so he has taken 600 subscriptions for Editor Olin Hardy's Optic-Herald. . . . Former Rep. Alvin Allison of Levelland says his town is the center of the second biggest oil field in the world (in area), that there is not a bridge in the county, that 98 percent of the land in the county is tillable. The other two percent? That consists of lakes. . . . J. Emmett Morse and Jan Anderson, of Austin, have published a book, "Texas in Pictures" which is very attractive, with 237 pictures portraying the scenic spots, agriculture, livestock, education, sports and many other interesting things about Texas.

Did you hear about the unique rummage sale that one town had? Every woman was to bring something that had no value but was too good to throw away. Well, the sale was a failure—every woman brought her husband.

Cow country terms:

Logging—Holding the saddle horn.

Mail order cowboy—A tenderfoot in custom-made cowboy regalia and devoid of range experience.

Man-killer—A wild horse with homicidal mania, that strikes at mounted or unmounted men.

Nose bag—Canvas receptacle for holding horse feed; it is strapped to the horse's head at feeding time.

Pegging—When bulldozer sticks steer's horns into the ground.

Pulling leather—Holding to saddle while riding bronc.

Seeing daylight—When daylight can be seen between the bronc-rider and the saddle.

The club women met at the school house on regular club day, with six members and the agent, Miss Lucile King, present. The meeting was carried out with some old and lots of new business passing consideration.

The women of the club voted to have contest with the idea of drawing in new members, the losing team to entertain the winners, which should create quite a bit of interest.

Our next meeting, February 23, will be in the home of Mrs. Bill Lankford. It will be an all-day meeting with "Tying and Dyeing" as the days work. Members are asked to come and bring a covered dish and spend a pleasant day.

Texas Legislative News

By Rep. Claude Callaway

Old age pensions for Texans were under fire last week when the House appropriations committee passed an increase of $5 per month for the old people. My original amendment on the Pigg bill, for which the Favors bill was substituted, was adopted by the committee, and was the figure in the final bill. My amendment was for a total of $300,000 per month increase, in preference to a larger or smaller figure. I think this increase will mean much to the people in Knox County and elsewhere in the district.

Chief Justice James P. Alexander ruled invalid a bill passed in the 48th session which would transfer surplus funds of 17 state funds to the General Revenue. This bill would have brought in a revenue of $450,000 annually to the State of Texas, and more than a million dollars to the general fund of Sept. 1.

Visitors to the House frequently wonder why the House is in session during the mornings only. The reason is that committees meet in the afternoons, and frequently at night. The more committees a member serves on, the more intimately acquainted he is with the things that are going on. I am glad to have membership on nine committees, and incidentally, I hold some sort of record, for I am the only House member serving on that number. We have one Representative on eight committees; six or on seven, and the others serve on an average of six. There is hardly a minute now which is not taken up by committee meetings, or in studying and preparing bills.

By no means do we work without relaxation, however. For instance, just this week in a joint session with the Senate a most entertaining program was given by the Musical Charm Group and the Vocalaires of TSCW, Denton. At the same period, a former Representative, Preston L. Anderson of San Antonio, was given the highest recognition awarded to a civilian by the Mexican Government. And recently the Legislature was entertained on the University of Texas campus with an informal dinner and program.

Constitutional amendments are piling up in the House hopper. Perhaps of most interest to everyone at the present time is the resolution which has passed the House, lifting poll tax requirements for soldiers to vote. By emergency rule the resolution will be put before the voters in August, 1945, a year ahead of the general election.

Benjamin H-D Club To Play Volleyball

The Benjamin Home Demonstration Club met in the assembly room at 2:30 Friday, February 9, with nine members present. Achievement reports were given at roll call.

Business discussed was the decision to have a cake walk when the club and the P. T. A. played volleyball. It was also decided to match a game between the courthouse men and the club women.

Another subject discussed was a book reading essay between the different clubs of this county and other county clubs.

Hostess for the meeting was Mrs. Lewis Parks, who had Mrs. Carl Patterson and Mrs. Leona Darwin to help her demonstrate dyeing feed sacks to make table clothes. Several members displayed things made from different kinds of sacks. Each member told how she removed the printing from the different kind of sacks.

Next meeting will be February 23rd, with Miss Lucile King. Miss King will demonstrate "Hot Tamales" Club members are asked to be present.

That's right—and there are good reasons why.

Our folks have done their war job so quietly and well it's easy to take 'em for granted. We hope you won't—that you'll remember their hard work as you use radio, range refrigerator, washer, cleaner and other electric servants that make wartime living so much easier.

Successful Gardening Study Club Theme

"Successful Gardening" will be the subject of a lecture by G. S. Dowell, Munday vocational agriculture teacher, at the Knox City Study Club meeting Saturday afternoon, February 17th.

The club will meet in the home of Mrs. J. O. Hamm.

With the national slogan, "Food Will Win the War" in mind, Mr.

Dowell's talk will be pointed toward a successful contribution to the nation's plea for more food to be raised in the family garden plots. Planning a garden and planting the proper vegetables, is the first step toward doing your part in this vital work.

Club members are urged to make special efforts to hear Mr. Dowell.

Military regulations against soldiers keeping diaries originated with the experience of George Washington during the French and Indian War. Washington's diary was captured by the French, and proved of great benefit to them and much embarrassment to him. Afterward Washington never kept a diary while engaged in military campaigns, and the practice had been forbidden by military regulations.

Today the name of the important German town of Stettin is in the headlines. The forbears of our Secretary of State Edward Stettinius came from that community, and got their name by adding the Latin suffix to the word "Stettin."

Freshman News

Mrs. Holcomb is taking Mrs. Kirkpatrick's place now. We were sorry to have Mrs. Kirkpatrick leave, but we are glad to have Mrs. Holcomb.

We saw the Senior play Monday night and enjoyed it a lot.

Deasie Mae Day was sick last week and missed a few days of school. We missed her a lot.

Something is missing this morning because we lost one of our classmates.

This is all for now but we'll be back next week.

Sophomore News

The Sophs have been studying pretty hard since the party. We believe that's just what we needed to make us start studying.

The Sophomore girls have heard rumors that there's going to be a new student from Munday. We wonder how true it is, and it must be a boy if the girls heard about it.

We are sorry to lose Raymond Carruthers and Billy Wilcox, and we wish them much happiness in their new homes.

Since we haven't been so active this week, because of studying, we'll sign off for this time.

Junior News

The Juniors were honored to be the guests of the Seniors at a reception given after the Senior play. We assembled in the Homemaking department and were served punch and cookies. We want to express our appreciation for the very good time they showed us.

Senior News

The Seniors are happy that their play is over. We had a good crowd, and everything went off a lot better than anyone expected.

Two of our Senior boys left Tuesday, February 13, for the Navy. We were very sorry to lose them and we wish them lots of luck. Remember your class, Lee and Weldon, and keep up the good work, because all of us are rootin' for you.

Sport News

The basketball boys won a game last Friday night. They played at Gilliland. It was the first game the boys have won this season. Before last Friday, Gilliland beat them 18 to 19. The score Friday night was 25 to 20, in our favor.

The Family Altar

By Rev. Violet Byers
Co-Pastor, Foursquare Church

Writing today on the last corner of the square that is formed by the FOURSQUARE GOSPEL, which is the "SECOND COMING OF THE LORD," I want to show you just how soon we may expect the Lord to come. Many skeptics today say that Jesus, after he died, will be seen no more, but let us see what the scripture says.

In Acts 1:11, "Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into the heaven? This same JESUS which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen Him go into heaven." Oh, my friend, what a glorious promise that JESUS shall come again. How soon may we expect Him to come? The 24th chapter of Matthew tells us just what to expect before his coming, and this was told by Jesus himself. He told his disciples that many shall come in my name saying, I am Christ, and shall deceive many. That prophesy is coming to pass today. And again He said that we should hear of wars and rumors of wars, and that nation would rise against nation, kingdom against kingdom, that there would be famines and pestilences, and earthquakes in divers places.

Do we not see these things taking place today? Is there not famine where there should be plenty? Is there not plague and pestilence where there should be good health? Do we not see cities and countries having earthquakes where they were never heard of before?

We certainly see war on every hand and rumors of others to come. And we see kingdoms rising and falling, yet we ask the question—How soon can we expect Jesus to come?

Dear friends, let us see what Jesus said to the Pharisees and the Sadducees that came to tempt Him, asking Him for a sign from heaven. In Matthew 16:2-3, "He answered and said unto them, When it is evening ye say that it will be fair weather for the sky is red. And in the morning, it will be foul weather today, for the sky is red and lowering. O, ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky but can ye not discern the signs of the times."

Truly every sign points to the soon coming of the Lord. Look at the churches today. Where are the old-time Gospel preachers that believed in true holiness, living a separated life unto God and preaching the undiluted word of God? Truly we see the FALLING AWAY spoken of in II Thessalonians 2:3. We are finding in the churches a form of Godliness, but they are denying the true POWER OF GOD.

Friends, let us examine ourselves. Are we ready to meet the Lord should he come tonight? The scripture says He shall come in an hour that we know not, but we can be ready by accepting the Blood of Jesus as the ransom price of our sins. Remember, Jesus loved you enough to die for you.

IN MEMORY

LITTLE FLOYD TANKERSLEY

Just away for a little while, but the memory, like the sweet fragrance of a lovely flower lingers with us.

Little Floyd Tankersley, 14, beloved by all who knew him, was transported to his home in Glory on January 28th, the birthday of his father, Roy Tankersley.

On Christmas night, when most boys of his age were thinking of worldly pleasures, Floyd and his mother and daddy were on their knees in family prayer rededicating their lives to God. The influence of this child has been felt throughout both this community and his own home town of Haskell, and for the first time in nine years, since he started school, his desk was empty.

The empty chair in that school-room truly preached a sermon to his schoolmates; lessons were secondary that day, as many were seen to wipe tears from their eyes. We do not know what tomorrow may bring for each one, but we do know that we can all be reunited where there will be no more heartache, no more sorrow, no more parting, and where God himself shall wipe away all our tears.

During the short 14 years of this boy's life, the Spirit of Christ was with him, and was felt by all with whom he came in contact. We cannot understand the strange influence that even drew hardened business men to this child, but we know that in God's Holy Word it tells us that "A little child shall lead them," and through the life and death of this boy, many have felt the need to get right with God, and have determined to surrender their lives to Him, knowing that we cannot bring little Floyd back to us, but we can prepare ourselves to go to be with him.

Floyd must have felt somehow, through some Divine warning to his soul that God had his place prepared for him, and was waiting to take him unto himself, because many have come to his parents and told them that on that Sunday morning before he was called home, he told many that if he did not see them again, for them to be good."

And his mother and father can testify to the fact, that for several days prior to his death that his mind was on the things above, and he spoke several times of soon seeing those beloved ones who had already gone to be with the Lord.

He was belovedly known to his friends and playmates by the pet name of John Henry, a name given to him in childhood by his cousin who is now overseas, but whatever his name was down here, we know that God had his name written in the Lamb's Books of Life. And when the finger of God went down the list and stopped at his name, Floyd (John Henry) answered "Present" to the great Roll Call.

We believe his last message to his parents and loved ones would be the beautiful words of Jesus, found in Matthew 11:28, "Come unto me all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest."

Looking for the blessed hope of being reunited on the resurrection morning with him, we lovingly dedicate this to the memory of JAMES FLOYD TANKERSLEY.

By all who loved him dearly.

PROVIDE A FLUE

for Venting Gas Heating

Modern Gas Heating requires a flue so it can be vented. Only when heating is vented are wall sweating and stuffy air eliminated. So in your modernizing or new home building plans be sure to include enough flues for venting the heating. Sketch below shows how flue can be built in chimney for venting modern floor furnace. Such a flue or "thimble" should be a part of every fireplace and chimney.

Clip out and file with your new home building ideas

FIRE PLACE DETAIL

THIS ENTIRE VENT IS CALLED A THIMBLE

FLOOR FURNACE

1 INCH BELOW JOIST

8 INCH DIAMETER (IF MADE 3 INCHES IT IS TOO SMALL—CAN'T BE USED)

The fireplace thimble, as illustrated above, is of especial importance in a two-story home. If it is omitted or blocked up, it is almost impossible to install a floor furnace later because no flue can be provided to vent the furnace. . . . When building a new home make sure all brick chimneys are built with this extra vent pipe extending below floor joists and equipped with a thimble of not less than six inches in diameter. This extra vent should be lined to the top with building tile.

Gas heating should be planned as part of the house.
