Value of Cotton as Related to Production

The Houston Chronicle reprints Congressman Marvin Jones' summary of the cotton problem of carry-over and price. Mr. Jones recently pointed out that:

In 1925 the carryover was 1,439,400 bales; the price was 22 cents a pound.

In 1926 the carry over was 1,503,800 bales; the price 19 cents.

In 1927 the carryover was 3,400,000 bales; the price 12 1/2 cents.

In 1929 the carryover was 2,400,000 bales; the price 18 cents.

In 1931 the carry over was 4,300,000 bales; the price 9 1/2 cents.

In 1932 the carryover was 6,200,000 bales; the price 5.7 cents.

In 1933 the carryover was 9,500,000 bales, the price 6 1/2 cents.

In the face of such figures it would be foolish to deny the exact relation between carryover and price. A million bale carryover is something near the normal needs of the trade as a reserve for seasonal variations. When the carryover goes above that figure, prices drop, and the statistics reveal that the price movement is very definitely keyed to the size of the carryover. In Mr. Jones' figures for the year since 1925 it is shown generally that as the carryover increased prices progressively decreased. But it is shown also in 1929, that when the crop was short enough to reduce the carryover temporarily, prices immediately responded with an advance to the level adjusted to the reduced carryover.

These facts furnish the most complete justification for the Administration cotton reduction program. The reduction contemplated is often misunderstood, and misrepresented, to mean bringing American production below the normal volume wanted by the world. What it actually means is a reduction for the purpose of wiping out the surplus of production above world needs of our cotton, which surplus has been built up through a period of years and which acts at this time to no other purpose than to beat down the price of American cotton below its intrinsic value.

Whatever may be justly said in opposition to compulsory reduction of acreage—the method selected for putting into effect the Administration's plan for getting rid of the surplus—it may be said also that any other plan is most likely to fail. Thus if the purpose is good and necessary, the method is automatically vindicated.

The eventual purpose of the reduction program is to increase the return to the grower. But this is not to be done by producing an artificial famine. It is to be done by eliminating the influence, at least temporarily, of past years' overproduction. If this increases foreign competition in cotton production, it can not be helped. It would be unwise to refuse to help ourselves simply because in so doing we might help others.

EASTER PICNIC IN GRACE

The people of the Grace community met at the new bridge at the creek in King county for a social gathering and picnic on Easter Sunday. The morning was spent mostly in visiting with neighbors and strolling over the pasture in search of wild flowers and other evidence of spring. Among the other signs of spring was here the finding of a nest of young owlets. Gerald Averitt, Rufus White and Harold Stevens took charge of the owlets and expect to tame them for pets.

When the noon hour arrived a table was hastily arranged and the women spread just such a feast as the good women of Grace are in the habit of preparing for such occasions. Charlie Downing proved himself an excellent tea maker, as well as tea drinker. Jodie Tackitt supervised the coffee making and the excellent coffee he made proved that his long experience on the ranch and chuck wagon had made him a perfect coffee maker. After lunch hour was over the fun began in earnest. There was an Easter bonnet trimming contest. Fred Like and Oswald Warren were the milliners in this contest. Mr. Warren was awarded the prize. Both of these gentlemen displayed real talent along this line and it will not be surprising if Mrs. Like and Mrs. Warren have many arguments with their husbands before they persuade them to purchase new Easter bonnets for them in the future.

The suit case race brought more real laughter than any other feature of the amusements. The men won in this contest and the prize was awarded to Joe Averitt who won high score.

Several lively marble games and ball games were enjoyed and much argument ensued, as is customary, over these games. Both sides claimed the victory.

The last thing on program was an egg hunt in which children and grown ups both took part. Wesley Garrison won the prize for finding the most eggs.

The day was ideal for such an outing and every one enjoyed every minute of it. The people who attended from Knox City were: Frank McAuley and family; Sam White and Rufus; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Averitt and Gerald, Mr. and Mrs. Verdie Stephens and Harold; Mr. and Mrs. Keck, Mr. and Mrs. Robinson; Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Warren and children; Jim Stephens, Herbert Finley, Ruth Darr and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Faubian and Billy Othella of Seymour.

Mrs. Browning

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Acker returned to their home in Truscott Monday. Mr. Acker is doing well.

Thursday to spend the weekend with relatives in central Texas. Mrs. Arledge will visit in Waco and Mrs. Sweeney in Bartlett.

Diversion Apparatus Installed in City Park

Quite the nicest play apparatus ever owned by Knox City is that being installed this week in the city park by the Christian Womens Association. It is a $150.00 merry-go-round. The machine actually belongs to the city now being entirely paid for and will this week be completely installed and ready for the kiddies to enjoy. While securing this piece of play apparatus has been sponsored by the Christian Womens Association, its possession was made possible only through the cooperation of the citizenship of the town. The ladies of the C. W. A. have used various ways and means of raising the money used in buying the machine also for its installation but in this way and means the citizens have contributed by cooperating with their plans. Donations were made this week by the business men and women of the town amounting to something like $25.00 or $30.00 for the erection of the machine.

The C. W. A. ladies also plan to clean the park this week, doing the work themselves. It is possible that the day of work will be ended with a picnic; but whether it does or not, every one should assist in this public movement.

KNOX CITY AND CROWELL PLAY HERE SUNDAY

Knox City will play her second game of the season Sunday when Crowell comes here for a game. The locals have a better line up this year than in previous years and it is predicted that the season will be a triumphant one for them. If you are numbered among the large crowd of local fans see the game. It begins at 3:30 o'clock.

UNION GROVE HDC NEWS

The Womens Home Demonstration Club of Union Grove will meet April the 6th at the school building at 2:30 o'clock. The program subject will be "County Government" with roll call response being what I have done for non-club members this year.

This meeting will be held without the demonstration agent but we urge every club member and all non-club members interested in the work to be present and take part in the talk on county government.

Be ready with your roll call response. It makes the meeting more interesting.

CONOCO INTRODUCES A Remarkable new MOTOR OIL

Its lower consumption and greater protection to motors proved by the most convincing test ever made!

THIS new oil has a tremendously increased "film strength"—and a penetrative oiliness to always protect your motor. The "Hidden Quart" never leaves a dry spot or a bearing without lubrication—it resists dilution—and eliminates much trouble caused by carbon and sludge.

The process which gives these exclusive new features is protected by recent U. S. patents. Conoco refines a high quality paraffin base oil and then adds the extra oiliness that is absolutely necessary to obtain the protection and low consumption every motorist should demand.

New and Improved Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil excels in the most convincing test ever made, under the supervision of the AAA Contest Board.

AAA Sanction No. 3001

Presenting New and Improved Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil you are furnished facts of performance. You will at once be convinced of the direct value of this new oil. A test so dramatic, so honest, that it will go down in history!

This test was held at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway. The Contest Board of the American Automobile Association supervised all details, thus assuring an unbiased opinion. Six new regular stock cars were delivered direct to them. They tested and measured each to obtain an equal condition in all.

Six brands of motor oil, of the same S. A. E. grade, were used. Five of them, all purchased by the AAA on the open market, were nationally known, widely recognized leaders. The other one was New and Improved Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil. All cars were then carefully broken in for 2500 miles. Five quarts, a new and complete fill, were put in each car and the crankcases sealed. Then the real battle for supremacy began. The cars were driven for as long as the motors continued to operate.

Here are the results: Oil No. 4 quit at 1713.2 miles; Oil No. 6 quit at 1764.4 miles; Oil No. 5 wrecked the motor at 1815.9; Oil No. 1 ceased its lubricative protection at 2266.8 miles; and Oil No. 3 at 3318.8 miles.

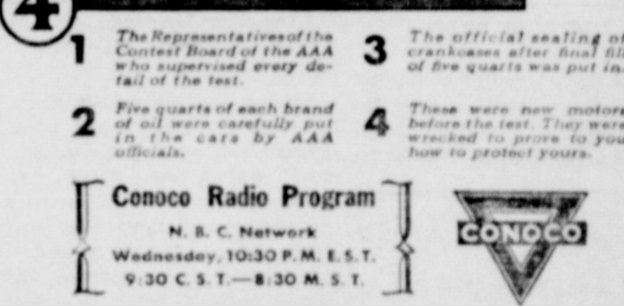

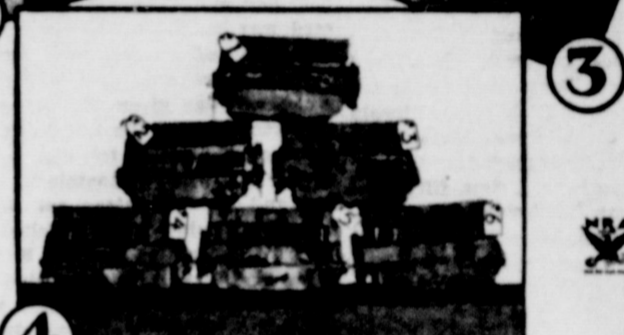

New and Improved Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil carried on to a total 4729 miles! Over three thousand miles farther than the first oil to go out, and over fourteen hundred miles farther than the final oil of the five!

It is the Germ Processing principle, only used by Conoco, that won the test. This "Hidden Quart" that lubricates all parts at all times—that stays up in your motor and never drains away. Drive into a Conoco Station or Dealer for a fill. You are getting the most in lubrication value that money can buy.

Warning TO NEW CAR OWNERS...

Some car manufacturers are using new types of bearings which will stand greater pressures and temperatures, resulting from increased power and speed. New and Improved Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil has been exhaustively tested on these new bearings. The results show that it gives them greater protection against damage than many straight mineral oils now on the market. Protect your new car by using the motor oil you can be sure of.

- 1 The Representatives of the Contest Board of the AAA who supervised every detail of the test.
- 2 Five quarts of each brand of oil were carefully put in the cars by AAA officials.
- 3 The official sealing of crankcases after final fill of five quarts was put in.
- 4 These were new motors before the test. They were wrecked to prove to you how to protect yours.

HOME EC. III GIRLS SERVE APRIL FOOL SUPPER

The Home Ec. III Girls entertained the faculty and mothers of the class with a supper, Tuesday evening, April 3, at the high school building.

The Agriculture room was decorated in pink and green. The tables were spread with luncheon cloths having as centerpieces Easter nest filled with eggs. The programs were placed at the tables and decorated tiny nests and eggs. Peach blossoms were used to decorate the tables and piano.

After the guests arrived the program was presented by Alice C. King, JoNelle Robbins, Rowena Wall, Wynell Edwards, and Mary Lou Graham with readings, a violin number, piano solo, and several songs.

Following the program the guests were taken to the Home Ec. room for supper. Each guest was given a menu card with numbers from 1 to 20 and asked to check four numbers and one of two beverages. The card was handed to one of the serving girls and a generous amount from each covered dish which was numbered was given to each guest corresponding to the check on her menu card. Some of the dishes were empty and some contained corn beef and cabbage, onions, red beans, corn bread, while others chicken salad sandwiches, fruit salad, English peas, cookies with cotton inside and pecan cookies. Two beverages were offered to check. One was clabber and the other lemonade. (Mr. Wetzel enjoyed a solitary glass of clabber for his supper.)

After a spelling match of spelling the words backwards and pronouncing them correctly, ice cream and rolled wafers were served to the guests. The entire affair carried out the Easter and April Fool motif.

The Home Ec. Girls and Miss Gann enjoyed entertaining and the guests enjoyed being entertained! April Fool is over.

QUARTETTE ENTERTAINS IN STUDY HALL

A male quartette composed of Press Hitecock, Superintendent King, principle Dean, and Herbert Finley entertained the Study Hall last Friday with a thirty minute program filled with interesting songs which were very much appreciated by the students. Such songs as the Katy Did Song, In the Valley of the Pines, Oh, She's Mean to Me, How That Gal Can Love and Old Man Moon were used. Since Herman Reed's specialty is the moon, Old Man Moon was dedicated to him while How That Gal Can Love was dedicated to Vernon Davis and Oh She's Mean to Me to the school teacher's husbands. It was an half hour of real entertainment and the program closed with the Stamp's rendition of "Jesus Bore It All". We shall be glad to welcome them back at any time.

EX-STUDENT SPEAKS FOR C. I. A.

Sydna Edwards was also present at the Friday morning program and gave a very interesting talk in behalf of her Alma Mater, C. I. A. which immediately preceded the program given by the male quartette. Sydna proved to be an excellent speaker and gave us a very attractive word picture of her school, C. I. A. This is her second year there and evidently it has lost none of its charm for her this year, in fact a few changes since last year render it the more attractive. She discussed all of its advantages and many phases of school life. One characteristic of C. I. A. that she mentioned as especially enjoying was the wearing of uniforms by all girls. Entertainment of all kind may be enjoyed there with special features often offered. According to Sydna the rates are very low in view of its many advantages. C. I. A. was well described and discussed and no doubt many will want to go on the merits of Sydna's talk alone. Even Mr. King decided that he would like all of it except the uniforms.

Other ex-students who visited the school building were Bill White accompanied by Miss Martin of Denton and Exa Faye Hutton all students in the Teachers College at Denton.

when you buy an automatic refrigerator

Ask these 4 IMPORTANT QUESTIONS

WHAT IS ITS OPERATING COST?

IS IT PERMANENTLY SILENT?

WHAT ABOUT REPAIRS?

HAS IT ALL THE MODERN CONVENIENCES?

NEW Air-Cooled ELECTROLUX
 THE SERVEL Gas REFRIGERATOR

It is our sincere belief that the New Air-Cooled GAS Refrigerator has more to offer you than any other refrigerator. It costs less to run, because a tiny gas flame circulates a simple refrigerant. Ordinary air from your kitchen cools it. It is perfectly silent because it has no machinery, motors or other parts to wear. Only the GAS Refrigerator can offer you all these advantages.

Electrolux offers you many other conveniences in addition to those big advantages . . . ice trays that release at the trip of a trigger . . . split shelves to accommodate large bottles and roasts . . . temperature regulator that speeds freezing and defrosts without stopping . . . and many other modern features that the busy housewife wants.

Inspect the New Air-Cooled Electrolux. You will want to see for yourself how far it is in advance of other automatic refrigerators.

For Country Homes, Too The Gas Refrigerator operates in the country also, with STAGAS. Ask about it for farms and camps.
