Red Cross Roll Call

Mrs. C. C. Hoge, chairman of the local chapter of the American Red Cross, stated Tuesday that Roll Call for the organization would begin here on Wednesday, November 16th and continue through Thanksgiving.

Wednesday a team of two women worked diligently down town securing membership in the Red Cross and today, Thursday, another team is working. It is urgent to our own community that every body wear a Red Cross button during this drive, which button indicates the fact that you have paid something to the organization.

School Children Sewing for Needy

Mrs. G. D. McCarty, chairman of the Relief committee states this week that the second year class of Home Economics, under the instruction of Mrs. Horace Finley, is sewing in school for the needy of our territory. The local chapter has received some of its supplies from the state for the winter and the sewing class in school is making the materials into garments for the ladies to place in homes where they are needed.

Mrs. McCarty also states that a good many mothers have volunteered their services in the way of sewing and have accepted materials to work on in their homes. She also urges that other mothers and women who will help in this way to call her, telephone 117, and a roll of materials will gladly be delivered unto your making.

Junior Red Cross Furnishing Thread and Buttons

The Junior Red Cross of Knox City is furnishing thread and buttons for the sewing work now, Friday, November 18th is official button day and all Juniors will bring their buttons to school where they will be collected and placed with the materials for distribution among the women who are sewing.

It is the plan of the local chapter to arrange for a sewing room in the school building where all mothers may gather and sew together; however, this plan has not yet materialized.

There will be a meeting of the C. W. A. Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Methodist church for the purpose of completing the sewing room plans. All women of the town are urged to be present.

Patterns Needed

Right now there is a great demand for patterns. Mrs. Hoge states patterns for sleepers, plain dresses, bloomers and shirts are needed badly and any one who has any of these patterns and will give them to the Chapter, the same will be greatly appreciated.

The sewing and relief committee is also asking for scraps of bias eyes. Even small lengths of bias tape and elastic can be used to much advantage in repairing used clothes.

To Gather Clothes Monday

There is an urgent need for infant clothes now. Calls have been made for baby clothes and the local chapter has none. Anyone who has discarded infant clothes will do much good in bundling them up for the Red Cross.

The call for all types of clothes is becoming more urgent each day. The largest demand at the present is shoes. Shoes of all kind, men, women, children and babies.

The Local Chapter has set Monday as the day on which cars will be sent out to collect the clothes for the Red Cross. Get together all of your used clothes including shoes, dresses, coats, underwear, caps, hats, and scraps and make them into bundles. Place the bundle on your front porch and those ladies who collect the bundles will pick up yours some time during the day.

PRODUCE HOUSE SHIPPING TURKEYS

On Monday of this week the Western Produce of this city shipped a car load of dressed turkeys. The birds weighed out 19,294 pounds. A second car, weighing about the same, was shipped Wednesday.

The Monday shipment went to Wilson and Company in Rochester New York.

P-T-A MEMBERSHIP DRIVE BEGINS FRIDAY NOON

Officers of the Parent-Teacher Association announced Tuesday that the annual membership drive for the association would begin Friday at noon and continue through the following Wednesday at noon.

The association is offering a special grand prize of $4.00 to the school room securing 100 per cent membership of their parents into the association, and a second prize of $1.00 to the room securing 85 per cent.

All parents in the Knox City school district are urged to become a member of the P-T-A this year. Join the association through the invitation of child or your neighbor's child.

Next Sunday, November 20th, will be a test of church loyalty at the Knox City Baptist church. We must raise the payment on the church loan. This is a responsibility that all should feel and that all should help in. We are expecting every loyal Baptist, and all others who will be in the service next Sunday, to do what you can, not for the pastor or for any one person, but God and His Kingdom. Come! May we count on you?

P-T-A Plans

P-T-A PROGRAM NOVEMBER 22 AT 7:30

The following program for the Parent-Teacher Association will be given at the regular meeting of the organization on the evening of November 22 at 7:30 in the school auditorium.

SONG, America
Devotional, Brother Sharp.
Topic, "Parenthood". What makes a good Parent, Mr. Joe Smith.
Goog Books as an aid to parenthood, Mrs. Horace Finley.
Needs of our school libraries, Miss Pauline Benton.
Discussion on Library books Miss Gretchen Howell.
Thanksgiving playlet, 6th and 7th grades.

The standard of an entire community will be raised as its parents become conscious that no family lives unto itself alone. And any condition in a community unfavorable to the best interest of any of its children is unfavorable to all.

Please come and help us in our work for the community and school.

CHANGE IN TRAINS MAKES MAIL SERVICE BAD

The new train schedule which went into effect this past Sunday upset the Knox City mail service considerably.

For the past four or five years our territory has been very fortunate in having ideal mail service. The old schedule was a north bound train at 8:45 a. m. and a south bound at 8:47 p. m. The new schedule gives the north bound at 3:14 p. m. and the south bound at 1:23 p. m.

The postmaster will now have to rest in the morning and do his work in the afternoon. The two rural carriers are not leaving on their routes until after noon which arrangement will doubtless work a hardship on them during the cold months.

Mr. C. E. Ball, station agent, states that in making the change in the train schedule that the same makes connection with itself in Sweetwater out of Dallas, Fort Worth and Houston, which connection it formerly did not make.

Thanksgiving Program

There will be a community Thanksgiving program given in the Baptist church at 10:30 o'clock a. m. Thursday November 24th. Every one is invited. The program to be given will be as follows:

Song, "All hail the power of Jesus Name".
Scripture and prayer, Brother Sharp.
Special song, arranged for by Mrs. Warren.
Announcements.
Male quartet, arranger for by Mr. Hitchcock.
Sermon, Brother Stovall.
Offerings.

As is the custom, the offering made on Thanksgiving is given to the Charity Fund of the local Christian Womens Association.

LOST BOY GETS BIG CROWD ON HUNT

Sunday afternoon little Tom Paul Frizzell aroused much interest and started a big party on a "hunting trip" when he strayed from his Dad's car in an effort to entertain himself.

Dr. Frizzell took his son Tom Paul and drove to the west bridge to do a little hunting Sunday afternoon. While he walked off a piece hunting, the doctor instructed the boy to stay in the car. Tom Paul figured his dad was gone too long and alighted to find him or at least to make his time interesting to himself while the car was away from the car and soon came to the river. He knew he was lost but remained a level headed boy and continued to hunt for his dad's car.

In the meantime the doctor returned to his car and upon not finding his son began to hunt for him. Some time passed and Frizzell found no Tom Paul; then it was he returned to Knox City and sent out a call for help. The fire alarm was sounded and some twenty-five cars gathered and hurried to the place designated by the doctor. Some four hours passed, from the time Dr. Frizzell first missed his boy, until he was found by a group of Needomer men. Upon greeting the group although Tom Paul knew he was lost, he noticed the excitement which possessed his father and stated, "I wasn't lost, it was Dad who was lost".

Tom Paul was safe and the hunting party returned to Knox City.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere appreciation and thanks to our many friends who were so kind and thought full to us during the brief illness and passing of our Darling Baby, Marjory Fay. In her passing we have been called upon to bear a great loss, though we realize that our loss is Heaven's gain and that Heaven has been made brighter and sweeter by her going. We thank you for the sweet flowers and their beautiful arrangement.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Papworth
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Papworth and Ruth
Mr. and Mrs. Sandes and family.
Editors Note:

We apologize to the Popworth families in the delay of this card of thanks. The same reached our office the week the child died but was an hour or so late for that week's paper. In the course of the following week the article was overlooked. We are sorry.

Gin Reports

Cool Weather Helps Gins Catch Up

The cool weather of the past few days has been an aid to the gins in catching up in their work. Thursday afternoon at three thirty only a few wagons and trailers waited on the four gins yards for ginning and the total estimated report of the four gins was 14,616 bales.

Thursday morning Knox City saw its first snow for the ensuing winter. At an early hour it looked as though the snow would be heavy but due to the fact that the weather turned warmer, the snow stopped falling.

To Parents and Tax Payers of Knox City Independent School District

The Knox City School has reached the place where it is necessary to call upon the parents and tax payers for their fullest cooperation if the school is to maintain its present rank among the schools of the state.

We are appealing to the loyalty and good judgement of the tax payers of this district to make an extreme effort to pay their delinquent tax, and to pay their 1932 tax just as early as possible.

There is yet unpaid a part of the teachers salaries for the year 1931 for the reason of the large amount of unpaid taxes for that year. Right and justice demand that the teachers should be payed for their labor, and the responsibility for their failure to receive their salary must fall upon the tax payers rather than the board of trustees.

The same rule that demands that a teacher should do good work also demands that the employer should pay them. In this case the employer is the tax payer, and must bear the responsibility for the welfare of the school.

It is the request and urgent desire of the board of trustees that each individual tax payer give due consideration to the extreme need of the payment of taxes.

Below is given a summary of the financial condition of the district. If you are partly to blame for its condition, you are urged to help remedy it by immediately paying your taxes.

Teacher's Salaries Unpaid $4500.00

Delinquent Tax Approximately $5800.00

The first four verses in where Christ is commending the offering of the widow. The widow was not giving of her surplus but her very living and that is what makes her offering so great. It is the same as if she had offered her soul (or life). The great prophecy of the destruction of Jerusalem and the end of the world. Many of the most serious difficulties of this great discourse disappears when it is realized that our Lord referred in not to one event but to two, and the first typical of the second. Read Matthew 24 Mark 13.

Our Lord wanted us to always regard His coming as though it was near.

STRENGTH, ASSURANCE, CALM

More than once in his journey Jesus had passed ten victims of the justice of the day, writhing, tortured beings nailed to crosses and waiting piously for release. Sometimes they waited for days before the end. The memory of such sights must have been constantly with him; at every sunset he was conscious that he walked just one day nearer to his own ordeal.

Yet Jesus never faltered. Calmly, cheerfully he went forward, cheering the spirits of his disciples and striking those fiery blows against hypocrisy and oppression which were to be echoed by the hammer blows upon his cross. And when the soldiers came to arrest him, they found him ready and still calm.

The week of his trial and crucifixion takes up a large portion of the gospels. For that week alone we can follow him almost hour by hour; we know where he ate and slept, what he said and to whom; we can trace the gathering storm of fury which finally bore him down. And this is the magnificent thing to remember—that through all that long torture of imprisonment, court trials, midnight hearings, scourgings, loss of food and loss of sleep, Jesus never once ceased to be the master.

His accusers were determined. They thronged the courtyard before the place, clamoring for his blood even when he appeared before them on the balcony.

Even Pilate felt it. The two men offered a strange contrast standing there—the Roman governor whose lips were so soon to speak the sentence of death, and the silent, self-possessed ex-carpenter—accused as though he were somehow beyond the reach of manmade law, and safe from the hurt of its penalties.

In the face of the Roman were deep unpleasant lines; his cheeks were fatty with self-indulgence; he had the colorless look of indoor living.

The straight young man stood inches above him bronzed and hard, and clean as the air of his loved mountain and lake.

Pilate raised his hand; the shouting and the tumult died; a deathly stillness descended upon the crowd. He turned and faced the figure at his side, and from his coarse lips there burst a sentence which is a truer portrait than any painter has ever given us. The involuntary testimony of the flabby cynical Roman in the presence of perfect strength, perfect assurance, perfect calm:

"Behold," he cried, "the man!"

Let him who doubts read the statement of the United States Bureau of Chemistry and Soils that soil erosion uses up more plant food in one year in the United States than 21 years of growing crops on the land. The fact is, another generation or two of soil washing, unhindered by terraces, would ruin Texas farming, and all businesses based on agriculture.

As it saves from one-fifth to one-fourth the lands in need of protection are terraced or contoured now; the movement headed by county agents is proceeding at the rate of more than a million acres per year; there remain something over 20 million acres to be protected.

Bryan—A net return of $63.45 for his labor and investment on one acre of pedigreed cotton is reported by Sam Destefano, Brazos county 4-H club boy of Steele's Store. His acre produced 890 pounds of lint and 1500 pounds of seed.

That's the happy state of health and vigor a man enjoys when he gives his vital organs a little stimulant!

When your system is stagnant and you feel sluggish, headachy, half-lives—don't waste money on "tonics" or "regulators" or similar patent medicines. Stimulate the liver and bowels. Use a famous physician's prescription every drug store keeps. Just ask them for Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin.

This appetizing syrup is made from fresh laxative herbs, active senna, and pure pepsin. One dose will clear up almost any case of headache, biliousness, constipation.

But if you want to keep in fine shape, feel fit the year 'round, take a spoonful of Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin every few days. You'll eat better, sleep better and feel better. You will never need another laxative.

Give the children a little of this delicious syrup two or three times a week. A gentle, natural stimulant that makes them eat and keeps the bowels from clogging. And saves them from so many sick spells and colds.

Have a sound stomach, active liver and strong bowel muscles that expel every bit of waste and poison every day! Just keep a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin on hand; take a stimulating spoonful every now and then. See if you don't feel new vigor in every way.

Marilynn Edwards, the president of the book club, gave an interesting talk on the importance of Good Books in School. The members of the seventh grade answered roll call with the report of an interesting book they read this month. Mrs. Cash concluded the program by a report on the use of chemicals.

HISTORY OF THE KENNEL

As the results of recent researches, it has been found that the records of "The Kennel" have been destroyed up to 1928. Prior to that date, the school paper had been named "The Pepper Box", "The Spirit of Knox City High", and "The Greyhound."

In 1928 "The Kennel" was founded with Ruth Short as editor. A mimeograph machine was bought to publish the paper, and it came out as a bi-monthly edition. Then in 1929, "The Kennel" was continued with Margaret Reeder as the editor, and in 1930, Pauline Benton and Charley Rice were in charge. From 1928 until 1930 "The Kennel" was sponsored by the Journalism Club, and the work was done exclusively by these members. But in 1931, the work was taken over by the English class. The editors were Mary Howell, Sydna Edwards and Bernice Raney. This paper was first printed in the present Knox County Herald, and then was mimeographed each week. Finally, due to financial conditions the paper was discontinued for that year. Then with 1932 comes our present "Kennel", we hope that we may be able to file our records for future journalists who wish to delve into the past.

GREYHOUND GRIDIRON

Greyhounds Defeat Steers 6-0

The Knox City Greyhounds had a difficult time defeating the Rochester Steers, here November 11, 6-0 in their second conference game. The teams fought through three scoreless periods of football. Once during the first quarter the Greyhounds got within scoring distance but did not have the punch to put it over. Several times during the game Captain Farmer almost got use for a touchdown, making several runs for 20 or 30 yards, and once or twice they almost shook Hyde loose, but the blockers could not seem to get both the half and safety man. With only about one minute to play, Edwards intercepted a steer pass and galloped about 70 yards for a touchdown. In the next few plays Edwards hurt his foot and will be out for a couple of weeks. The game ended the teams in a tie.

The Greyhounds play only two more conference games, Rule, November 18, and Munday Turkey Day. The Greyhounds expect to win both games.

"Oh, Senorita, tonight I will stand beneath your window and sing a serenade, breather the ardent love. "Do, and I will drop you a flower," said the adored one tenderly. "In love?" he asked eagerly. "No" in a voice, replied the damsel firmly.

PEPSQUAD

Peace was disturbed about 3:00 o'clock Friday afternoon when Jocile Russell, the pep squad leader, and a group of girls dressed in red corduroy shirts and blue sweaters arrived at the foot ball field. The pep squad with their songs and yells added much interest to the game. The girls displayed excellent school spirit and did their part in supporting the team. At intervals when the game became rather tense the pep squad ran out on the gridiron and urged the boys, from the very depths of their hearts, to fight hard. No wonder the Greyhounds won!

The entire pep squad will be dressed in uniform Friday, November 18, when the Greyhounds go out to defeat the Bobcats who are from Rule. After they practice several evenings this week the pep squad will be prepared to help defeat those Bobcats! The sponsor, Miss Park, and the leader, Jocile, are proving themselves very capable of their respective positions.

"THE SPY"

Hello folks, meet "The Spy". He has just arrived. He's come to get the low-down on all the teachers and students and what I mean he certainly has gotten the low down on some of them already. So you better watch out.

Why just when he had only been in town about fifty minutes, he was walking down the street and whom should he meet but Mr. Dean, the coach, walking home from football practice, and we have at last found out that there is one thing Mr. Dean is really afraid of and that is cold water.

And just about the latest thing out is, Jocile Russell has decided to become a poet, and she has given us permission to print "Ode to My Teachers" (her latest poem) in the Kennel, and it is good? Wotta break.

Here is a good one. "The Spy" found out on the first period studyhall, and Mr. Guy told him this one, "That the first period studyhall is 96 per cent perfect." (perfect did you say.)

The Spy is in search of a good remedy for "crying shoes" because in our school there are two cases of it. Irene Holland and Esie Mae Leaverton.

Oh yes, as the Spy doffed his cork leg and glass eye and started to school this morning, he happened to be walking behind two upperclassmen and overheard the conversation. There is one thing he found out, and that was that those six-weeks exams certainly were hard, and that if they had their way about it, there wouldn't be any exams.

In the second year Spanish class, there is one student who knows what antonyms are, and can give a good example of one, that is Francis Evans.

The student body has decided to wear boots to school this year instead of shoes. We have seen three pairs of boots walking about the campus and in them were H. C. Armstrong, Berris Teaff and Herbert Finley.

LIFE

Life is short, and yet its long. And sometimes it seems its merely a song.

You will live, love and sorrow— It will all come with the morrow.

When life is short, its like the tide, For here on earth, we must abide. You never have time for a written schedule. You race through life without a rule.

When life is long, it's a hard pull thru, But hidden somewhere, there's a privilege for you.

Tolling year in, and year out— Without withcoming a doubt.

Have faith in you, fathers, the land of the free. Just living a life just what it must be.

Tolling with all your might, whatever you do— There's somewhere in life, a happiness for you.

SCRATCHES FROM THE GREY-HOUNDS

"Ode To My Teachers"
By Jocile Russell

This a night preceding a test. In study I really have done my best My wandering mind, in fact isn't near, So I'll write an ode to my teaches so dear.

Now we have one teacher by the name of A. Guy, On when looking at him, we drop a sigh; He keeps us in order from nine till four.

If he catches you talking, it is half an hour more.

Joe Cloud is a wonder, we'll all let you know: When talking and walking he doesn't go slow.

He tells us that we should not jabber so much, If we don't heed his warning, we'll end on a crutch.

Sir Travis B. Dean, so tall and so straight; Teaches a class where we all meet our fate— It is needless to add that this class so fine,

With the aid of a ruler, can draw a straight line.

Miss Park, who is never without a smile, Is constantly talking, most all the while;

Her lightest bias is in Physical Ed Where she says we'd do beter if we all had a bed.

Last in line comes a teacher quite, She ever keeps us busy, but she's all right;

This my reader, whom you might have seen, Is Louise Finley, and she's not a bit green.

I'll end this thing up with a word of praise, To the pupils who seem to be in a daze,

So spunky, so bright, so witty, so fine, "Step up pupils, lets all get in line.

MOONLIGHT MEDITATIONS

As I lay on my bed wide awake I saw a beautiful, sparkling lake. The moon was shining bright And there never was a more beautiful sight.

Making the scene more beautiful still As I looked down that rolling hill, The moon rose above the pine And made a picture ever so divine.

Softly she shone as if to say "Come follow me children, come this way"

Put as I looked on her, I was sure she said, "Come follow: the way that the Master led."

Keeping The Home Fires Burning

By Ed Kressy

HERE'S A LETTER FROM MARRY DAVIS ASKING US TO TELL HER SOMETHING OF WHAT WE KNOW ABOUT THE METHODS SAVAGES USE IN THE KINDLING OF FIRES.

WITH FEW POSSIBLE EXCEPTIONS EVERY SAVAGE TRIBE HAS SOME METHOD OF GETTING A LIGHT. WE DO NOT KNOW OF COURSE WHEN OR WHERE THE FIRST GREAT INVENTION OF LIGHTING WOOD WAS MADE.

THE COMMONEST METHOD OF THE SAVAGE IS THE ONE SHOWN HERE. THE DYAKS OF BORNEO, THE FLECHIANS IN THE EXTREME SOUTH OF S. AMERICA, THE USIMBO, ETC., STILL USE THIS PRIMITIVE METHOD.

ANOTHER VERY EARLY METHOD WAS THAT OF STRIKING FLINT WITH IRON PYRITES, CAUSING A SPARK & KINDLING WHATEVER TIMED WAS USED. FLINT & STEEL MADE OBSOLETE ALL OTHER METHODS IN EUROPE UNTIL THE DAYS OF LUXIFER MATCHES.

SINCE MATCHES HAVE COME INTO GENERAL USE ONLY VERY VERY RECENTLY IT IS OF INTEREST TO LOOK BACK OVER THE LABORIOUS METHODS MAN USED FROM THE TIME HE KEPT SMOGGING LOGS ALIGHT TO THE PRESENT DAY MATCH.

LET'S GET INTO OUR ROYALTY PLANE BOYS AND GET BACK TO THE STATES BEFORE MOM BEGINS TO WORRIED. WHERE YOU'VE DISAPPEARED TO... YOU'VE GOT TO BAKE AND BURN AND LEAVES TOO...

ROUGH
to your finger

means . . .
ROUGH IN YOUR STOMACH

It's easy to say they're all alike—and easy to prove they are NOT.

Dissolve a genuine Bayer Aspirin tablet in water, pour it off, feel the fine powder that coats the glass.

Do this with some other tablet; see what coarse particles are left!

They feel as sharp as sand, even to your finger. How must they affect those delicate membranes which line your throat—your stomach?

For immediate relief from headaches, colds, sore throat, neuralgia or neuritis, lumbago, rheumatism, there's nothing like Bayer Aspirin.

It cannot depress the heart.
