Mr. and Mrs. Laymon Newton; Rob Harrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Harrison; and Bobby Reeves, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Reeves. Bottom row, from left, Danny Woodall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woodall; David McGaughy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen McGaughy; Will Whiteley, son of Mrs. Helen Whiteley; and Greyhound manager, Don Ray, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Ray.

At Game Dedicated To Seniors

DON MULLINS without a doubt, that in my coaching experience this has been the best group of seniors that I have ever worked with. They had been tagged losers since Junior High days up until this year, but I sincerely don't believe they are losers after their performance this year. We coaches were well pleased with them this past season and Knox City should also hold the same feelings. They leave the 1973 Greyhounds a winning attitude and we can look back a year or two from now and say that Greg Clonts, Will Whiteley, Bobby Reeves, Rob Harrison, David McGaughy, Danny Woodall, Phillip Newton, and Don Ray contributed much to the success of the Knox City Greyhounds.

We think that our younger team members did an outstanding job this year and should be commended for their desire and eagerness to help have a good season. We have some good athletes coming back and look forward to next year. We would also like to say thanks to the parents, student body, Quarterback Club, faculty, pep club, band administration and others who have supported us this year. You were behind us whether we won or lost.

Knox City Hounds Loss Gives Archer City District

By DAVID COUNTS
It was a cold, rainy night in Archer City Friday night and the Knox City Greyhounds could not get untraced. Fumbles, pass interceptions and operating without the leading scorer in the district Phillip Newton, due to a knee injury in the Crowell game, blunted the Greyhound offense.

The defense gave up ground grudgingly but the desire of the Wildcats who had everything to win and the Hounds with nothing to gain moved the ball on the ground as no other team has done all year.

The Hounds kicked off to the Wildcats to start the contest and they drove to the Hound before the Hounds recovered a fumble. On the first play the Hounds with cold hands and a wet football fumbled and the Wildcats recovered at the 2 With 7 minutes and 42 seconds left in the first quarter the Wildcats scored a touchdown. The kick for the extra point was no good. Score 9-6.

Rob Harrison carried for 9 and 3 and a list down following the kickoff. A complete pass from Joey Swain to Will Whiteley for 3 and then a fumble gave the ball to the Wildcats. The Wildcats drove in for the score and with extra point try no good they led 12-0 with 4 minutes and 40 seconds left in the first quarter. Following the kickoff the Hounds could not move and had to punt. Gary Carver crashed through on the first play and tackled the Wildcat runner for a 3 yard loss. Bob Harrison came through the next play and tore the ball loose and recovered the fumble. A quick pass last 10 yds. Two complete passes to Clonts and Whiteley and an incomplete pass turned the ball over to the Wildcats on downs at the Wildcat 24.

The Wildcats used up over 7 minutes in the next drive as the Hound defense stiffened. The Wildcats scored a touchdown and an extra point to make it 19-0 with 6 minutes and 15 seconds left in the 1st half.

In the second half the Hounds had 4 passes intercepted to stop any attempt they made to get back in the game. The Hound defense did an excellent job of containing in the second half with the exception of one play when the runner burst through for 28 yards and the last score for the night making the final score 26-0 in favor of the Wildcats.

Football season is over for the Hounds and they were being hard on themselves for not winning the district. I know that they are disappointed with the outcome of the years work but they have so many things to be proud of that we hope they will remember the good things that happened during the season.

Next week we will give you all the stats for the entire year.

O'Brien Bulldogs Are Again District Champs

By COACH C. H. UNDERWOOD

The O'Brien Bulldogs defeated the Trent Gorillas 48-42 last Thursday for their third consecutive district championship.

Both teams turned the ball over once before O'Brien broke the ice with a pass play covering 18 yards. Danny DelHiero found Arly Watson in the endzone for 6 points. PAT attempt was no good. O'Brien scored one more time before the first quarter ended. Danny DelHiero scampered 25 yards behind good blocking to give O'Brien a 12-0 lead.

It was midway through the second quarter before O'Brien could crack the Trent defense for another score. Louis Conn hit Rayland Hayes for a 36 yard touchdown, and with the PAT no good the score remained 18-0.

Billy Beaver put Trent on the board with a 5 yard run narrowing the gap to 18-6.

Danny Del Hiero plunged in from one yard out only six plays following the Trent score. Rayland Hayes converted to give O'Brien a 26-6 half time lead.

Trent returned determined to move the ball and on the fifth play of the second half Roy Sharp carried in from 7 yards out. Hayes blocked the Trent PAT attempt to give O'Brien a 26-42 edge. Midway through the third quarter Hayes scampered 2 yards behind blocking to give O'Brien a 32-42 lead. In fourth quarter action Danny DelHiero found blocking to lead him in from 11 yards out. Hayes converted on this occasion to give O'Brien a 40-42 lead. Louis Conn wound up scoring for the Bulldogs on a 70 yard sprint with Hayes converting. Final score read O'Brien 48, Trent 42.

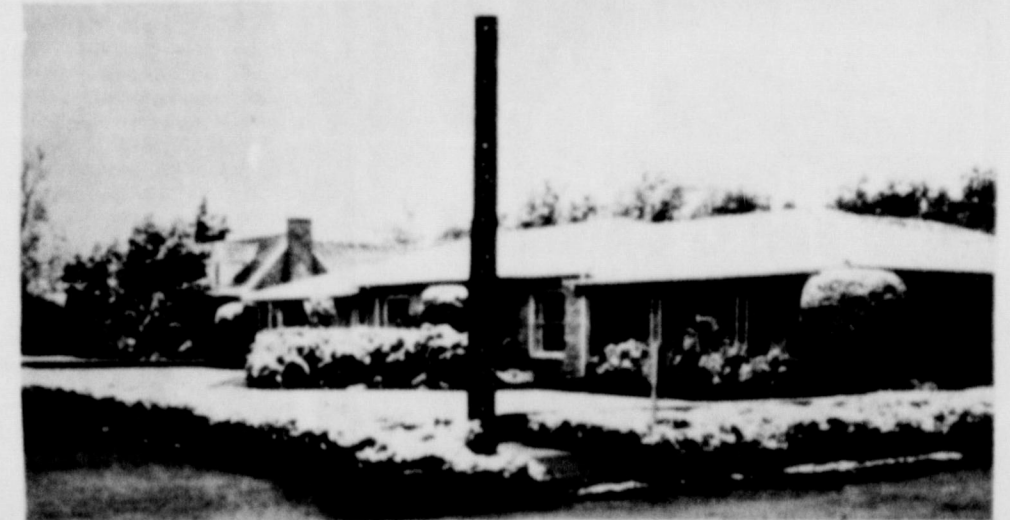

The defensive unit did an outstanding job holding Trent to 2 touchdowns. Leading the charge for the Bulldogs was Arly Watson. Watson was followed closely on defense by Henry Washington, Rayland Hayes, Louis Conn and Danny Del Hiero. Jaime Rocha also provided a good effort on defense. Conn had three interceptions to his credit and Danny Del Hiero had one interception. On offense Bert Gutierrez, Mague Rocha, Tony Alsidis and Sammy Jackson provided outstanding blocking, initial and downfield, as did all the starting unit.

O'Brien now faces the Ira Bulldogs in Bi-District action at Knox City Thursday Nov. 23 (Thanksgiving Night) at 7:30. Ira has large impressive personnel and possibly the best set of running backs O'Brien has faced this season. The O'Brien Bulldogs will be working hard to come up with an aggressive effort to stop Ira and prove the Bulldogs of O'Brien can play for four quarters with the hustle necessary to win a bi-district game.

Streams In Desert Places
By GELLE STEPHENS

"Surely the righteous shall give thanks unto the name", Ps. 148:2.

"Let us give thanks", these words echo down through the halls of time and thrill the hearts of many. Thanksgiving and praise is a beautiful and worthy exercise in our worship to our wonderful Lord. As we read the psalms of David we hear him cry out, "Oh that men would praise the Lord for His goodness and for His wonderful works to the children of men" Ps. 137.

"The precious goodness of God towards us is in many different ways when we take time to give thanks. Surely, the Lord has been good to us."

CENT ON HEALTH

Children and common childhood diseases will be frequent. Thanks to a school immunization program being implemented in localities, Texas has the best disease history of ever.

First full year of the program, state health officials report that immunization levels are up over previous years. Indications that those immunizations will continue to rise.

1972, the great all school immunization program for childhood diseases, polio, diphtheria, and tetanus, standard immunization for school children, is no longer a red letter day.

Great progress has been made in the past year when you think of 2.9 million children in our schools and Dr. James Health. "Our program is even better than ever."

Immunization by the Texas Health Department, April, 1971, was a monumental effort. Health officials, and private physicians, and prior to the law, each school district set immunization records. Quite often, in these children, a large proportion of the population required immunization against diseases to enroll in school.

School authorities worked closely with health officials to see that all parents were advised of the new requirements and that all school children began their immunization programs as soon as possible. The result was that three-fourths or more of all Texas children were protected against each disease by the end of that first year under the new law. With the 80 school districts that began late campaigns and continued enforcement of the mandatory law in all school districts, state health officials foresee a substantially better immunization level at the end of this school year.

"Our Immunization Program has spot-checked several school districts around the state, with most reporting a rise in their immunization level to include more than 90 percent of all school children in their district," said Dr. Peavy. "Less than one percent of the school children involved admitted no immunizations at all. We believe the outlook for achieving close to 100 percent protection among the school population is very bright."

Of the 1200 school districts in Texas, 400 are being visited this year by state health authorities. School officials are offered assistance, advice, immunization clinics, and assistance to their school nurse from state or local health authorities.

"If it were not for the work done by local health departments and school nurses, the program would not have been as successful as it has been to date," said Dr. Peavy. "Of course, a lot of the immunizations were obtained through private physicians, and their cooperation has also been phenomenal."

Taking all groups as a whole, probably among the best immunized at the present time in the state are Catholic school children, with better than a 90 percent immunization level.

As of May 1, 1972 some 74 percent of all Texas school children are immunized against polio; 79 percent against diphtheria; 79 percent against measles; 78 percent against rubella; and 79 percent against tetanus. Health officials believe the required two months spread between the three dosages of polio vaccine and the required booster dose were the factors that caused the polio statistics to trail those for the other diseases. In many cases, as a result, complete immunization against polio was not reported by the end of the reporting period on May 1, 1972.

"We feel the pre-school age child, from birth to five years of age, is where the disease problem is now in Texas," said Dr. Peavy. "By May 1, 1973, occurrence of these common childhood diseases in the pre-school population will be our biggest remaining problem."

State health authorities have already mounted a massive pre-school immunization campaign. The Texas Immunization Program will now lay plans to work closely with the Department of Public Welfare in enforcing the required immunizations in kindergartens and day care centers. Under state law, children attending such day care centers must be immunized against whooping cough (pertussis), polio, diphtheria, rubella, measles, and tetanus.

Learn Houseplant Repotting And Care

Houseplants may need larger containers when roots appear on the soil surface and protrude out drainage holes.

Invert the plants, tap the containers on the edge of a bench and remove the plants with soil from the pots. If the soil is covered with a network of roots, transfer the plants.

According to a Pennsylvania State University Correspondence course on houseplants, repotting can be done any season. A good time is when plants begin active growth as in early spring.

Begonias, ferns and other plants grown for their foliage need repotting every two or three years. Select containers with diameters one-third to one-half the plant's heights. A begonia 12 inches tall needs a pot four to six inches in diameter.

Provide drainage in the bottoms of the containers. A pot six inches in diameter needs one inch of broken crockery or gravel. When repotting orchids and cacti, fill the pots one-third full of drainage material before potting the soil.

These and many other practical tips on selecting and growing houseplants in the home are included in the course.

To secure a copy send your name and address to Houseplants, Box 5,000, University Park, PA 16802. Make checks in the amount of $4.65 payable to The Pennsylvania State University. There are no other charges and a complete course copy comes to you by mail.

Self-Improvement Course Available

There is one in every community—the woman who has a well-groomed house and is well-groomed herself. She wasn't born this way you know but she has learned to manage her days wisely, finding time for her house and herself.

Sit down with pencil and paper and analyze your life—what kinds of activities are your days filled with? Use this as a starting point. If you're looking at yourself with a critical eye, but need a little encouragement to change your present situation, you'll find help in a home study course.

The course, available from The Pennsylvania State University is entitled "Self-Improvement—A Common Sense Approach." The common sense approach involves a basic philosophy of life and living that is both appealing and challenging. Since the degree of acceptance of the individual by society is based on your actions and appearance, the course offers suggestions to help you increase your social awareness. The course begins with a thought-provoking set of questions that evaluate your present self. A discussion on your outlook on life, freedom to work, and helpful ideas on planning your time and organizing your home more efficiently are also included. ## Senior Class News

By DORIS HOWELL

The Seniors would like to say thanks to all of you who came to the Junior-Senior Thanksgiving Supper. We had a really great turn out.

We would now like to recognize some people who added much to our football games: the cheerleaders and twirlers, Debbie Wall, Debbie Burt, and Cindy Foster were Senior cheerleaders. Becky Swain was a Senior Twirler.

Now that football season has ended basketball is in full swing. The four Senior girls that play on the A team are: Belva Penson, Jan Guinn, Yolanda Bradford, and Debbie Burt. The girls' team has had several scrimmages and the boys will begin soon. We are all anxious to see how the teams will do in district competition.

School will turn out at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon. Everyone is looking forward to Turkey Day. We hope that everyone has a nice holiday.

Junior Class News

By MARTHA JONES

The Junior-Senior Thanksgiving supper was a tremendous success!!! Hungry people piled in and out of the lunchroom for a full two hours enjoying the delicious dinner prepared by Junior and Senior mothers. The Juniors would like to thank the people who made this supper a success.

The Thanksgiving Holidays are growing near and Wednesday at 2:30 all students will be free for four whole days!

Sophomore Class News

By GAYLE TANSERSLEY

Football has ended and basketball season has officially begun. This year we are proud to have three Sophomore girls on the Varsity Hoopette team. They are Terri Baker, Kary Kent and Debbie Reese. Tonight the varsity and Jr. varsity teams will play Hawley at Hawley. The KC hoopettes beat Hawley two weeks ago so this should be a good game, as we try to hold our lead over Hawley.

Homemaking II

By Vicki Berryman

Our Homemaking II class is going to present an FHA program Wednesday. The program committee consists of Brenda Harris, Gae Farmer, Cindy Stone, Cindy Alton, and Yolanda Ledonna. They are going to give a play on drugs. I feel it will be very interesting. The refreshment committee consists of Anita Elliston, Lisa Hixon, Sue Hodges, Pam Odum, Merri Clarke, Jackie Rhodes and Vickie Berryman. These girls will bring something "fittening" I'm sure.

Homemaking I

By JODY HODDY

The past week the girls have been giving Mrs. Newton trouble. Especially Friday everybody was excited or something cause they sure were loud.

We have been starting an Encounter program, which replaces the Degree program we've had previously in FHA. Encounter is a program pertaining to understanding yourself better and learning how to face the realities of your personal problems. Of course it has something to do with helping other people with their problems also.

Band News

By MARTHA JONES

The band ran into a little bad luck Friday at Archer City. It rained. This meant the suits couldn't be taken out of the bus and the horns couldn't be taken out of the cases. So for two hours all band members sat on the bus freezing to death, but it was a lot of fun. Now that the last football game is over, Marching Season is OVER! Even though all band members dearly loved to march in 100 degree temp, rain, wind etc. we are looking forward to sitting in a warm dry band hall all period playing concert music!

New Ways To Prepare Turkey For Thanksgiving

With Thanksgiving just around the corner, the versatile turkey quickly comes to mind.

Judy Ann Grubbs, food and nutrition specialist with Texas Agricultural Extension Service of Texas A&M University, offered some suggestions on its use and preparation.

Turkey is great for broiling as well as roasting - whether it's a whole bird, sections or a boneless roast, she noted.

"The boneless turkey roast is convenient and ideally suited to both roasting and barbecuing in the oven.

"When selecting this kind of roast, allow one-half pound per serving.

"Then marinate and barbecue it the same way as if it were a whole bird."

The specialist offered the following suggestions and procedures.

OVEN ROASTING
Place turkey in a shallow baking pan. Brush with melted butter or margarine and place in a preheated 350 degree F. oven.

Check the meat and baste occasionally. If it becomes too brown, cover with a loose tent made of foil.

OVEN BROILING
Choose a small turkey about six to eight pounds for best results in oven broiling.

Halve, quarter or cut the bird into individual meaty pieces, as desired, and sprinkle with salt and seasonings.

Next brush the meat with lemon juice, melted butter or margarine, cooking oil, or barbecue sauce to suit the family's preference.

Using the indoor broiler, place the pan or meat surface the correct distance from the heat, as recommended by the appliance manufacturer.

Broil the meat 20-30 minutes on one side, or until brown, and then turn and broil 15-25 minutes on the second side or until done.

To check cooking progress, stick the roast with a fork. The total cooking time also can be judged in this manner. Meat is done when firm.

Since turkey pieces are thicker than those of chicken, they require longer cooking, she pointed out.

Forbidden Flowers

To the nature-loving judge, the prisoner's offense—picking flowers in a public park—was something horrendous amounting each picked flower as a separate crime, the judge imposed a fine of $720 or six years in jail.

But when the prisoner appealed to a higher court, the sentence was thrown out. The court said it was so harsh that it violated the United States Constitution's ban on "cruel and unusual punishment."

As a rule, when we use the expression "cruel and unusual punishment," we think of physical chastisement like flogging or maiming.

However, a two-severe jail term may also be held unconstitutional on the same grounds. In recent years, courts have shown a growing concern for humanitarian considerations in the field of sentencing. As one judge put it:

"What constitutes cruel and unusual punishment is to be judged in the light of developing civilization, so that what might not have been cruel and unusual yesterday may well be so today."

Nevertheless, even the longest possible sentence—life imprisonment without possibility of parole—will be upheld where reasonably related to the crime that has been committed.

Thus, in the case of a brutal kidnapping, such a sentence was held not to violate the defendant's constitutional rights. Calling attention to the nature of the offense, the court said the sentence was "not so severe as to shock the moral sense of the community."

What about an open-end sentence, like "one to twelve years?" When that punishment was imposed on a convicted burglar, he complained that the very uncertainty was a kind of cruelty.

But the sentence was upheld on appeal, where the court pointed out that the flexibility might well work out to the prisoner's advantage by speeding his release. The court said it was merely a device, within reasonable limits, to put his fate in his own hands.

Miss Skiles Becomes Bride Of Greg Zeissel Saturday

Miss Ceissia Chris Skiles and Marvin Gregory Zeissel were united in marriage Saturday afternoon November 18, at 3:00 p.m., in the St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Rhineland. The Father Marion Whitfill performed the ceremony before an altar setting of blue and white mums and gladioli on pedestals. Mrs. Leo Fetsch organist, and Mrs. David Hewitt, and Miss Stacy Angle provided wedding music.

The couple's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Willard Skiles of Knox City and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Zeissel of Rhineland.

Miss Patsy Zeissel sister of the bridegroom, served the bride as maid of honor. She was attired in a gown in shades of blue, and wore a headpiece of blue velvet ribbon and illusion. Her bouquet was of roses.

Bridesmaids were Miss Pam Skiles, sister of the bride, and Misses Nancy and Mary Denise Zeissel, sisters of the bridegroom. Flower girl was Lisa Zeissel. They wore light blue gowns similar to the maid of honor and carried long-stemmed roses.

Best Man was Wayne Zeissel of Rhineland and groomsmen were Ray Moore and Gary Wilde both of Rhineland and Donny Skiles of Knox City. Ring bearer was Greg Skiles also of Knox City. Ushers were Wayne Buffon and Johnny Lee Wilde both of Lobbok, Bruce Pruitt of Munday, and Johnny Smith of Rhineland.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of Juliet style made of Chantilly lace with sleeves of illusion and bands of lace. Her veil was full length and was bordered with Chantilly lace. She carried a bouquet of white roses accented with blue velvet ribbon.

Misses Rhonda Skiles and Janet Zeissel carried offertory and Chris Brown, Kevin Herring, Stephen Homer, and Douglas Michalik were servers.

The bride is a graduate of Knox City High School and Zeissel was graduated from Munday High School.

After a wedding trip to Frederickburg, the couple will be at home in Rhineland where the groom is self-employed as a farmer.

AG Financing Is Big Job

Agricultural finance and credit are essential to food and fiber production and marketing in Texas. And with Texas Food and Fiber Abundance Month in progress, a closer look at this phase of agriculture is in order, contends Tom Prater, economist in management for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"The financial needs of Texas farmers and ranchers continue to expand as they invest in new technology, enlarge their operations, and increase borrowing for personal items. Of course, a prime need for additional financing is the increased prices of capital goods, such as real estate, machinery and other inputs."

Who is providing this credit?

Non-real estate type loans—those made to meet current operating and living needs—are supplied largely by banks, production credit associations and similar organizations, and the Farmers Home Administration, points out the Texas A&M University economist. Considering credit supplied by merchants, suppliers and others, the non-real estate loans in Texas total well over $2 billion.

"As far as real estate loans for Texas farmers and ranchers are concerned, such loans have totaled more than $2 billion for several years. Credit institutions providing these loans include banks, federal land banks, Farmers Home Administration, life insurance companies and individuals," notes Prater.

"As the production and marketing of food and fiber products continues to increase in Texas and financial needs continue to grow, credit institutions will play an increasingly important role in meeting these needs. And farmers and ranchers must continue to place more emphasis on management, record keeping and the projection of profit potentials."

USDA Announces Major Provisions Of 1973 Upland Cotton Program

Major provisions of the 1972 Upland Cotton Program aimed at improving the commodity's position in the market place has been announced by Secretary of Agriculture Earl L. Butz.

"The program designed for 1973," Secretary Butz said, "takes into account today's cotton situation, and aims at providing a stable supply and maintaining adequate carryover stocks. The program should provide farmers with broader opportunities to diversify their operations by raising other crops, such as soybeans or grain sorghum, on formerly what would have been set-aside land or land in cotton. Thus they can capitalize on their individual farming skills and special resources."

Today's announcement by the U. S. Department of Agriculture includes the following major provisions:

—A national base acreage allotment of 10,000,000 acres.

—No cropland set-aside requirement as a condition of program eligibility.

—A national production goal of 12,075,000 standard bales of 480 pounds, net weight.

—A preliminary payment rate of 15 cents per pound.

"Adjustment of the national base acreage allotment to 10 million acres will improve cotton's position in the market place," Secretary Butz said. "At the same time, individual producers can increase their overall income by putting lands formerly in set-aside or in cotton into other crops that are currently in short supply."

"This supply-price situation and the market outlook call for adjustment of provision of our cotton program for 1973," Secretary Butz said. Provisions of the Agricultural Act of 1970 require that the allotment be set at a level that the Secretary determines necessary to maintain adequate supplies.

Elimination of the set-aside requirement will free about 2 million additional acres of cropland on cotton farms for any crops that producers choose. "This step is important for our cotton producers," the Secretary said. He pointed out that a larger acreage of soybeans is needed in 1973, and this important crop is considered a good alternative in many areas of the cotton belt. Further, selective increases in the acreages of some grain crops are also needed.

Cotton farmers have been shifting toward greater reliance on markets as a source of their income for the past two years by transferring allotments through the leasing process to areas where cotton can best be produced, the Secretary said. This enables producers in areas where the crop is not profitable to diversify, obtaining additional income from alternate land uses. The 1973 program will continue to allow such transfers.

As in the past, any cotton farmer may participate in the 1973 Cotton Program by signing up and complying with his conserving base requirements. He may participate on any farm or all farms in which he has an interest. Also as in the past, a producer's cotton allotment will be used to determine his program payment, but he will be free to plant the acreage that he decides upon after studying the outlook for supply, demand, price, and other factors, including profitability of other crops.

Each producer should look at his alternatives and make a careful determination before planting extra cotton acres," Secretary Butz said. "Production costs are a factor as well as yield and price, and many farmers may find that they can more profitably produce other crops."

Secretary Butz also pointed out that the practice of forward contracting is important to cotton growers. In 1972 about 32 percent of the upland cotton acreage was contracted ahead at very favorable prices—much of it in advance of planting time. Use of this approach provides producers with assurance of a locked-in price before the seed goes into the ground. It also contributes to stability of supplies and markets. This can mean benefits to both buyer and seller.

The preliminary program payment of 15 cents per pound will be made to participants as soon after July 1, 1973, as is practicable.

The final payment, together with the national average market price for middling 1-inch upland cotton, micronaire 3.5 through 4.9, in the designated spot markets during the August-December 1973 period must equal the higher of (1) 35 cents, or (2) 65 percent of parity as of the beginning of the marketing year, August 1, 1973. However, the payment will not be reduced if the rate as finally determined is less than the 15-cent preliminary rate. The payment is made on a quantity of cotton determined by multiplying the acreage planted with in the farm base acreage allotment by the payment yield established for the farm.

The state base acreage allotments will be apportioned among counties and the county allotments among farms according to provisions of the law and regulations issued by the Secretary of Agriculture.

Failure to plant at least 90 percent of the farm's base acreage allotment will result in a reduction in payment. If no cotton has been planted for three consecutive years, the entire allotment can be lost. Allotments removed from farms are reallocated to other cotton farms.

Acreage not planted due to drought, flood, other natural disaster, payment limitation or quarantine imposed on the growing of cotton by federal, state, or local government, and acreage which was planted but failed due to drought, flood, or other natural disaster will be considered as planted to cotton for allotment preservation and payment purposes.

The same skip-row planting rules which were in effect for the 1971 and 1972 crops will be applicable to the 1973 crop. Skips of one or more rows will count toward the conserving base requirement for the farm.

Producers who wish to participate in the program must sign up at their local ASCS county office. Signup dates will be announced later.

Harvest Is 20% Complete

Sample receipts increased slightly as fair weather allowed harvesting to gain momentum in the area serviced by the Munday Cotton Classing Office, reports Sidney Ferrell, Officer-in-Charge. According to the USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service, Harvesting is approximately 20 percent complete.

Quality statistics for the week ending November 17, 1972, show little change from the previous week. Sixteen percent of the cotton was classed as Strict Low Middling (41), 51 percent Strict Low Middling Light Spotted (42), and 16 percent Low Middling Light Spotted (52). Sixteen percent of the cotton classed was reduced in grade due to bark or grass. The staple length showed 19 percent staple 31 compared to 10 percent the previous week. Sixty percent staple 32 was up 4 percentage points from the last week, and 17 percent staple 33 was down 16 percentage points from the previous week.

The micronaire readings continue to be reasonably good with 73 percent reading in the desirable range of 3.5-4.9. Thirty-six percent read 5.0 and above. The Pressley fiber strength tests conducted by the USDA's fiber laboratory at College Station shows that the average strength remained about the same as the previous week.

Cotton markets continue to be fairly active with farmers offering moderately. Eighteen 23.75 cents per pound was paid for most grades offered with staple lengths of staple 30 through staple 33.

The Munday Office classed 6,000 samples this past week, bringing the season's total to 19,100.

Registrars Named For Local Draft Board 82

AUSTIN, Texas—Colonel Melvin N. Glantz, the State Director of Selective Service for Texas, has again reminded young men of their obligation to register with Selective Service within 30 days of their 18th birthday.

Glantz stressed that the requirement to register will continue in full effect whether the all-voluntary military force becomes a reality or not. Every native born and resident alien young man is required to present himself for registration from 30 days before to 30 days after his 18th birthday. If, for any reason a young man has failed to register he should do so immediately to escape the penalty of Federal law.

Failure to register may result in a fine, imprisonment or both, under provisions of the Military Selective Service Act.

Young men may register at the office of the local board near their home or place of residence, or may be registered by volunteer registrars who are located in most high schools or other similarly convenient locations. Registrars in the Local Board 82 area are: Callie Ann Combs, Chamber of Commerce Office, Munday; Jeff Graham or Kenneth Myers, Post Office, Knox City; Ila Mae Bullock, Post Office, Truscott; Mary T. Barger, Post Office, Goree; Glenn Feenster, Post Office, Vera; Iola S. Machen, Chamber of Commerce Office, Seymour; Mabel Spencer, Post Office, Guthrie.

S. S. Reports

New Year's isn't too far away, and New Year's is important to social security beneficiaries for two reasons. First December 31, 1972 is the last day to file Medicare claims on physicians services rendered before October 1, 1971. If anyone has medical bills incurred before October 1, 1961, they have only a few more weeks in which to submit them to Medicare.

On January 1, 1973 a general enrollment period for Medicare opens. This enrollment period will give any person who let his enrollment period go by an opportunity to sign up for "Part B" (doctor bill) Medicare coverage. This enrollment period will last until March 31, 1973.

As you can see, New Year's doesn't just mark the end of one year and the beginning of another. It marks some important events for social security beneficiaries also. Anyone having questions about social security should contact the social security office in Vernon for help.
