Saturday Election To Be At American Legion Hall

Knox City voters will join voters in 254 counties Saturday, November 11, to decide whether they want six more amendments to the State's Constitution. A light-to-moderate vote is predicted, and it is hoped that local voters will take the time on his holiday, Veterans Day to go to the polls. Both 9 and 9A boxes here will vote at the American Legion Hall, according to G. W. (Jack) Coats, election judge. Backers of the proposed amendment to revive the veterans land program are staging an active get-out-the-vote campaign. So are the supporters of two other amendments—the one authorizing the state to issue bonds to finance expansion of the Texas parks system and that permitting state officials and employees to hold more than one office. The six constitutional amendments are on the ballot in the following order:

- (1). To authorize counties to place all their tax revenues in a single general fund, rather than separate, special-purpose funds.
- (2). To let local political subdivisions which have hospital districts spend tax money for mental health and mental retardation services.
- (3). To revise the veterans land program through an ad-

Veterans Present Facts—No. 3

Local veterans are staging a get-out-the-vote campaign in this area supporting Constitutional Amendment No. 3 to be voted on Saturday, November 11 as has been noted by their ads appearing in the Herald for the past several weeks. According to Alton Fitzgerald, spokesman for the Teague-Carpenter American Legion Post, the veterans feel that if the people are educated to some of the facts, then they would have no reason for rejecting this amendment. The Veterans Land Program of Texas was enacted shortly after the close of World War

American Legion Auxiliary To Sell Buddy Poppies

The auxiliary of the Teague-Carpenter American Legion Post No. 279 will again sponsor its annual poppy sale Saturday, November 11, honoring the memory of veterans of all wars. According to Mrs. Ruby Robinson, auxiliary president, stations will be set up at various places throughout the downtown area for the sale. Mrs. Cordelia Woodward is chairman of the poppy sale. Mrs. Robinson submitted the following poem, which expresses the sentiment as well as the purpose of the poppy sale

PLEASE WEAR OUR POPPY

I love to sell Poppies on our Poppy Day;
We sell in November, some sell in May.
I know they give pleasure and so much joy
To the Vets in our hospitals —

our own soldier boys.
Those boys could be age sixty or maybe nineteen
But they fought, they are sick, certainly not mean.
They gave their all that we might have peace
With no more wars — all fighting to cease.
So wear our red Poppy — be glad to have a part
In our Auxiliary program so close to our hearts.
The Flanders Field Poppy is the symbol we care
For the Veteran and his family — with a love so rare.
(Written by Allene Elkins, Junior — age 11 years; John R. Burkett — Beverly E. Miller, Auxiliary Unit #77).

PAUL RUSSELL
"Outstanding Conservation Farmer For 1967"

Rochester Man Wins District Award As Outstanding Farmer

Paul Russell, who operates a 1361 acre livestock farm 5 miles west of Rochester, has proven he believes in applying conservation on the land. He does not hesitate to recommend a conservation program to his neighbors and friends and is in the process now of heading a drive to raise funds for a much-needed grass drill in the area. According to Jack Idol, Chairman of the Wichita Brazos Soil and Water Conservation District Board of Supervisors, the job Paul is doing has earned for him the District Award of "Outstanding Conservation Farmer for 1967".

Russell is in the process of completing a long range conservation plan on his farm. The plan was started in December, 1961. Russell stated that technical help and cost sharing from the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Soil Conservation Service will enable him to carry out the long range conservation program worked out in cooperation with the Wichita Brazos Soil and Water Conservation District.

According to Archie Lieb, Work Unit Conservationist with the Soil Conservation Service at Knox City, the conservation plan provides for the use of soil protecting, moisture conserving practices to be applied within the eight year period. This includes conservation management such as proper use of rangeland and pastureland along with residue management on cropland.

The Russell plan, based on a survey of the farm's soil resources, is being completed.

sources, provides for converting 875 acres of lower grade cropland to permanent grass pastureland and revegetation on 75 acres of rangeland. About two miles of new fence have been constructed to protect grass plantings during establishment.

This year Russell established 160 acres of Coastal bermuda grass pasture. He now has 740 acres of irrigated Coastal bermuda pasture. To complete his conservation plan, an additional 130 acres remain to be planted. Since this planting will be dry land, Blackwell Switchgrass will be used. Switchgrass was used in range reseeding on a 75 acre pasture and the results were so good Russell decided to use the grass for his pasture plantings.

According to Russell the key to successful establishment of grass planting is seedbed preparation, weed control, and fertilizer. "We have tried several methods of seedbed preparation," Russell stated, "but have had the best results with a clean, well prepared seedbed. Weed competition must be controlled. We have sprayed our seedings with 2-4-D sometimes two and three times." Russell continued, "As soon as competition is properly controlled, the proper amount of fertilizer should be applied," Russell concluded. The job is started on the Russell farm but Mr. Russell knows the management and follow-up which is needed will be the key to success or failure of his soil and water conservation plan. It takes time and money and technical know how, determination, and patience. The job is started on the Russell farm, and Mr. Russell stated it was the best thing that ever happened to the farm.

To Paul Russell and other farmers and ranchers who are carrying out complete conservation plans on their land, the Supervisors of the Wichita Brazos Soil and Water Conservation District offer their congratulations. They share their satisfying feeling of security in knowing they are doing their part in building our community, our state, and our nation by preserving the natural resources God has given us to work with, the soil, water and plants.

If the Constitutional Amendment to be voted on November 11, 1967, is approved by the people of Texas, the Veterans Land Board will start purchasing land for the veterans of Vietnam and other wars. Since Texas has never paid her veterans a cash bonus but has always followed the policy of making land available to them, this Constitutional Amendment follows a historic policy of the State of Texas and has proven beneficial to all the people of this State.

AT OES CELEBRATION

Among the relatives and friends here Saturday evening who had special interest in the Golden Anniversary celebration of the OES Chapter were Mr. and Mrs. Ercy Cubine of McLean; Jim Bridges of Anton; Mrs. Ida Smith of Ganado; J. A. Smith of Slaton; Mr. and Mrs. W. P. White of Bridgeport; Mrs. Willie Lee McBeth of Hale Center; Mr. and Mrs. Odie Claxton of Abilene; Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Glover of Levelland; and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Easterling of Clyde.

Hilary B. Doran Jr. and William J. Chambers addressed the graduating group and their wives on the general subjects of law enforcement and the part of a wife in her husband's career.

This ceremony was for officers under the jurisdiction of the Del Rio Headquarters only. They were Charles L. Baylor, Lester M. Cavitt, Jerry J. Gullhur, Charles D. Walker, Warren N. Billings, Tony R. Hobert, Kenneth R. LaMascus, Robert L. Montgomery, Andre L. Pellegrin, Delbert W. Stiewert and Michael S. Williams.

Kenneth R. LaMascus of Eagle Pass was presented a personal letter from the Commissioner of the Immigration and Naturalization Service in Washington, D. C. for his achievement in graduating with honors. These letters were presented at each graduation ceremony to the top three men in their class.

The course of training at the Border Patrol Academy are intense and cover a wide variety of subjects. Border Patrol of-icers usually attend these courses shortly after entering upon duty at their official stations. The courses of instruction usually lasts 14 weeks and because of the need for concentrated study, the officers attend without their families and live in an almost isolated classroom and dormitory atmosphere. One recent graduate commented "It is almost unbelievable the amount of knowledge that can be absorbed by a group of men in just 14 weeks."

1968 Voluntary Feed Grain Program Announced By Freeman

Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman today announced a 1968 Voluntary Feed Grain Program that takes vigorous action to reduce total supplies in order to strengthen prices.

The target is to divert about 30 million acres from production in order to change this year's 2 to 3 percent overproduction to a 2 to 3 percent underproduction next year.

Farmers will be encouraged to divert at least 10 million additional acres through the offer of diversion payments at 45 percent of the total support ($1.35 for corn) times the farm's projected yield. Average per acre payments will be slightly higher than in 1966. "Bumper crop weather at home and abroad in 1966-67 has led to world-wide extra pro-

Teaching Via Electronics

Fifteen school districts within a 70-mile radius of A&M University now receive high school classes in physics, mathematics and English via an electronic "blackboard-by-wire" teaching system developed by Sylvania Electric Products Inc. Sylvania is a subsidiary of General Telephone & Electronics Corporation.

The system includes an instructor's console (above) which transmits both graphic and audio instruction to television monitors in remote classrooms via telephone lines. Students in the classrooms can communicate with their instructor by using a two-way audio unit. The system is operated by the Creative Application of Technology to Education (CATE) Center, a pilot project financed by a Federal grant to the A&M Consolidated School District.

Seated at the console is CATE Director Dr. Thomas J. Moffett. Standing is W. Taylor Riedel, Superintendent of A&M Consolidated Schools.

COUNTY PROGRAM BUILDING COMMITTEE

The Knox County Program Building Committee met October 16 at the Courthouse in Benjamin.

Officers elected were Chairman, Clelan Russell, Vera; Vice Chairman, Ray Escobar, Knox City; Secretary, Mrs. David Albus, Knox City.

Major points of interest for the 1968 Extension Program of Work for Knox County were discussed.

A&M TO HOST DAIRYMEN

Nutrition, herd placements, herd health and the challenge to the dairy industry from imitation milk are among major subjects to be discussed at the 1967 Dairymen's Short Course to be held Nov. 16-17 at Texas A&M University, Arizona Dairymen James Hussey from Phoenix will discuss the challenges imitation milk has posed for the dairymen of this state, and the competition dairymen can expect, as he sees it, from this product in the future.

POWER FAILURES

Though power failures do not happen often and are usually of short duration, they can be costly, reminds W. S. Allen, Extension agricultural engineer at Texas A&M University. A standby generator on the farm or ranch makes sure that important electrical equipment will keep running despite a power failure, says Allen. He suggests a visit with the local power supplier on the needed equipment.

TEXAS COMMUNITY IMPROVEMENT PROGRAM

Regan Brown, Extension sociologist, reports that 190 Texas communities are now enrolled in the 1967-68 program. He expects the enrollment to climb to near 350 communities by the end of the enrollment period on January 31. More than 800 communities participated in last year's program.

ECONOMIST LOOKS AT WORLD FOOD SITUATION

The world demand for food will continue to grow sharply because of rapidly increasing world population and rising personal incomes in most countries, says W. E. Black, Extension economist at Texas A&M University. The world is now adding a million persons a week to the population total. The world total could reach 6.1 billion by the year 2000. The National Commission on Food and Fiber concluded, Black said, that if current trends in population, food demand, and production continue, the food deficit could be too large for the developed countries to meet by the mid 1980's.

Both Study Clubs Hear Mrs. Grundy

Members of the Knox City Study Club had as their guests, members of the 1946 Study Club last Thursday, November 2 when Mrs. Roy Grundy of Matador, Santa Rosa District president, was guest speaker at The Woman's Club.

Mrs. E. Hob Smith, Knox City Study Club president, explained to the group that since their club met only once a month, this was their Thanksgiving meeting. She asked that everyone there be especially thankful for the many blessings of life and read an appropriate poem. Mrs. Myrtle White, program chairman, introduced Gwen and Stacy Angle who sang America the Beautiful and the Battle Hymn of the Republic in keeping with the Veterans Day and Thanksgiving holidays observed during this month.

Mrs. White then presented Mrs. Grundy. She told the women of her October trip to the state board meeting in Austin in which this district was rated among the highest in all-over club work. She urged that the club select an outstanding club woman. She informed the group of a historical marker dedication to be made on November 10 in honor of Mrs. Howard Hodge of Midland, past president of the state federation.

Another item of interest reported by Mrs. Grundy was the state's project of beautification, the International Friendship Garden at Brownsville, twenty-five miles from Port Isabella. Here, clubs from the U. S. and Mexico will gather.

During a brief business session, the club voted to raise the minimum rent on The Woman's Club, to $10.00.

Refreshments of individual pumpkin pies with whipped cream and coffee were served by the hostess, Mrs. E. R. Carpenter. Mrs. Ohtis Cash, and Mrs. Phil Dugney. Autumn flowers centered the serving table and were used throughout the room.

The next meeting of the Knox City Study Club will be December 7 at 7:30 p.m. The Nineteens, a vocal group of Haskell, under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Bell, will present the program. This will be an open meeting, and everyone is cordially invited to attend.

"Melanie Meddles"

By Melanie Whitley

Last week was National Book Week. Here are some books I read this summer. Maybe it will help you in choosing a book to read next.

"Yes, I Can", by Sammy Davis, Jr., is a very good biography. You will get an inside view into a Negro's background, maybe a little more understanding of their problems and also insight into the world of egotism and drive that keep an entertainer going.

"Mile 18", by Leon Uris surpasses the excellence of his book "Exodus". It is the story of Jews trapped in the Warsaw ghetto by German troops. Their story will become your story. "Green Eggs and Ham" by Dr. Seuss was repetitious with interesting illustrations and a subtle message. I read this one many times. I recommend it for children.

"Five Smooth Stones" by Anne Fairbairn concerns the love of a white woman for a Negro man, the obstacles they overcome, and his growing concern for the plight of his people.

"Intern" by Doctor X led me to the inevitable conclusion that doctors merely play a guessing game with all of us and know next to nothing. Then I read "Not As A Stranger" by Thompson and had my faith restored.

I recommend "The Detective" by Thorp with reservations. It's an absorbing, fast moving mystery with emphasis on homosexuality.

Right now I'm in the middle of "A Modern Priest Looks at His Outdated Church" by Father James Kavanaugh. I agree with him partly, thus far, but I think everyone must at least admit that the man has courage to take such a different, radical stand from the established Catholic viewpoints.

This list may do nothing except show whether our tastes are compatible. My advice to everyone, everywhere is buy, check out or borrow a book and read, read, read.

Last Chance, Sign For Medicare Now

About 41 persons in Knox County will have their last chance to enroll for the voluntary part of Medicare during the general enrollment period which began October 1, reports Edwin S. Draughon, social security Manager for this county. These are the individuals who were over 65 by May 31, 1966, and who failed to sign up for the "doctor bill" portion of Medicare. Others who did not sign up for this supplemental medical insurance within three months after their 65th birthday, now also have a second chance to enroll.

Mr. Draughon said that approximately 96.3% of the eligible persons in Knox County have taken advantage of this part of Medicare.

Most persons who will be

Pups Tree Kittens To Win West Zone Title

BY BRENT RAILSBACK
The Greypups edged out the Crowell Kittens in a hard fought game Thursday, November 2. The Pups came out on top 8-6. The win over Crowell gave Knox City the zone championship.

Crowell was the first to score. They scored early in the first quarter, but the Pups' defense kept them from scoring the extra points. At half time Crowell was still ahead

6-0. In the third quarter the game was a defensive game, with neither team scoring. On the first play of the fourth quarter Charlie Lieb broke through the line and ran 85 yards for a Greypup touchdown. On the try for the extra points Lieb ran the ball to the one yard line, was hit and fumbled, the ball rolling into the end zone and Leslie Fitzgerald, the Pups' right guard covering the ball in the end zone giving Knox City the lead 8-6. The Greypups held the Kittens for the rest of the game to win 8-6.

The Greypups will play Holliday, winner of the East Zone, for the district championship here Thursday night, November 9, at 7:00 p.m. in the Greyhound Stadium. Everyone is urged to come to the game and cheer our boys on to a district championship.

Authentic Layout Of Ranch Headquarters Sought At Tech

The Knox County Historical Survey Committee has been asked to help activate a unique historical project on a 76 acre plot which Texas Technological College of Lubbock has made available for a new Museum complex.

A ranch Headquarters Planning Committee is now attempting to locate as many of the genuine historic ranch buildings as possible in each of the following categories: 1. Dugout of the 1870 vintage (including stork furnishings and clothing) 2. Box and Batten (strip) house of the 1880 period. These usually had two rooms with shed room behind and gallery in front. Some were T-shaped with three or four rooms. 3. A more

TSTA Endorses Amendment Six

The Texas State Teachers Association has endorsed amendment number six which Texans will ballot on in the Nov. 11 general election.

The proposed constitutional change would allow top public school, college and other state personnel to serve on state or federal advisory commissions. The intent of the amendment is to allow Texans in non-elective posts to serve on unsalaried appointive bodies.

In effect, according to Charles H. Tennyson, TSTA executive secretary, the amendment's approval would authorize lending Texas brainpower to the nation.

The state constitution now prohibits state officials from holding more than one "position of honor, trust, or profit."

The proposal would amend Section 33 of Article XVI of the Texas Constitution to allow non-elective state officers and employees to hold other non-elective positions under this state or the United States.

"The proposal makes sense," Tennyson declares. "There is no point in not sharing the best brains of Texas with the nation in matters of national interest."

Streams In Desert Places

BY OZELLE STEPHENS

"Don't worry over anything . . . tell God every detail of your need." (Phil. 4:6).

There are many things in life that will cause us to find ourselves in distress and seemingly, helpless state of circumstance unless we wait patiently before the Lord seeking His guidance and His strength. When we take time to do this and meditate on His powerful and holy WORD, we can say with the Psalmist, "For in the day of trouble he will hide me in his shelter; in the secret place of his tent . . . he will set me high upon a rock." When your heart trusts in Him, he will guide your thinking into the ways of wisdom and understanding. Streams of gladness will bless your heart and take away all distress and uncertainty.

GAIL OSBORN

Everyone is a consumer; the little girl grasping a nickel to buy candy, the elderly gentleman shopping for a second limousine and the young homemaker deciding whether to buy canned or fresh pumpkin for Thanksgiving.

This week salutes them with Hats off to Consumers during Consumer Education Week, November 6-10 in Texas.

Each constantly is struggling to stretch his dollars for the best, safest and most adequate buys. The week sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, aims to help him.

Successful dollar-stretching begins with a spending plan fitted especially for your family and reflecting its values, needs, ways of living and wants.

It is impossible to set a budget for a family of four, for example, because each family is individual. Extension specialists at Texas A&M University say. Your plan must be tailor-made.

But budgeting need not be a drudgery, itemizing every penny spent and balancing weekly. Use a spending plan for a year for best results, Extension specialists advise.

After a plan allows more-better spending, the consumer then chooses, uses and maintains his purchases.

State and federal laws, businessmen, government agencies, teachers, Extension workers and researchers work for the consumer to protect him and make him more aware and informed to help himself.

The county Extension office serves as a consumer center for each consumer. Laws protect him with clean, fit food; safe effective drugs and therapeutic devices; safe cosmetics; and honest, informative labeling and packaging.

Laws also protect clothing, fabric and some furniture buyers, specifying that certain information about textile products be provided to the consumer.

An aware consumer takes advantage of these aids for better buys for better living.

It begins with a plan and has a happy ending. But does it?

We take for granted many consumer services such as grading, standardization, inspection of food, laws and labels. But the informed benefit most.

This leaves much up to the consumer. To inquire and report misleading advertising and labels, improper labeling, poor quality which do not meet standards, misrepresentation of credit. Manufacturers benefit from your suggestions and complaints. They want to satisfy you.

The dollars will go further and happier for all if you hone up your shopping know-how. With continuing mutual support among consumers, business, manufacturers and service agencies, products and selection will continue to improve.

The little girl's candy will be clean and safe; the gentleman's automobile will be safe and the dealer give him fair, honest service; and the homemaker will know how to choose to fit her family—or know where to find out.

This 7-day-old pig's stomach is exactly this size

The little dry feed to fill this tiny "fuel tank" must be LOADED with POWER

It takes mighty little pig starter and sow's milk to fill the "fuel tank" of a week-old pig. Yet, it must provide quick energy, fast growth and protection against disease. It must contain all vital nutrients sow's milk may lack — and in just the right balance. Most important of all, pigs must like it. No matter how great a pig starter may be, all is lost if pigs won't eat it.

Pigs love Purina starters — Baby Pig Chow, Early Weaning Chow, Pig Starters. And Purina starters offer "built-in" livability, plus grow-and-go power to bounce pigs off to a fast, thrifty start. Keeps 'em going, too. Fed Purina all the way, hogs have raced to market weight in five months (often less) and make pork for remarkably low cost.

Folks around here are finding out . . . Pigs start, grow, finish fast on Purina. Call us soon and order Purina Hog Chow.

Tax Man Sam Sez:
Apparently filing a tax return wasn't as bad a task as most taxpayers claimed here in Northern Texas. Sixty-five percent of the taxpayers filing individual income tax returns during 1967 got a refund. The computer rolled out 987,000 refund checks amounting to more than $137 million. Brother, that's a lot of dough!

The good tax folks say that they still have several thousand refund checks that could not be delivered. If you haven't got your refund and haven't heard from it, either you made an error, or one of the processing employees gave the computer the wrong information, or else you hauled off and moved. If you still have a refund check coming and have not been notified of problems on the refund, sit down and write the Internal Revenue Service--tell them when you filed, what your social security number is, and how much refund check you are due. You will probably get your check.

The three most mysteriously costumed people were: Pam Waldrip, a hippy motorcyclist; Frances Clement, a goblin; and Nancy Wilson, a goblin. They received prizes of jackets, aigsaw puzzle, and a checker set. Other original costumes were worn by: Paul Graham, an Indian Chief; Richard Barnard, Grand Dragon of the Ku Klux Klan; Carolyn Bradford, a Tom Sawyer fisher-boy; Kathy Wilson, a football player; and Johnny Bradberry and Mike McKinney both came dressed as beautiful girls.

The Wonders Of Bacteria

This past week, the biology students have been making a close study of bacteria. They began their study with a detailed report on some of the characteristics and habitats of the small plant. The students then made a culture media, a substance on which the bacteria thrive, and inoculated them with four different kinds of material in which bacteria was present. After two or three days, the students observed the bacteria under microscopes. While observing the tiny plants, they noted its movements, if any, and its shape. During the time the bacteria was growing in the culture dishes the students tested different antibiotics and other such treatments to see if they had any effect on the growing bacteria. The results of these tests were recorded and turned in for grading by Mr. Winchester.

West Texas Cities May Enter Program

A new "Blue Ribbon City Award" program was announced today at the 14th annual West Texas Chamber of Commerce Industrial Conference. John Ben Shepperd, Odessa, chairman of the Small Town Economic Progress (STEP) team, made the announcement and explained the awards program.

All incorporated cities in West Texas with population under 12,000 will be eligible to participate in the awards program. Six categories have been set up, with criteria established for achievement goals. These categories are: Tourist Development, Industrial Development, Beautification, Education, Local Government and Parks and Recreation.

To receive an achievement award in any of these categories, the participating city must meet the standards established by the criteria committees. A point system to differentiate between cities of varied sizes has been devised in order that all cities have equal chances to qualify.

Shepperd pointed out that this is not a contest, but rather a community self-improvement program. Points will be given for existing conditions as well as for improved conditions. There is no starting time for the program and no termination date.

Appropriate awards will be given upon the achievement of the goals in any category and upon the completion of goals in all six of the categories the city will be designated a Blue Ribbon City, a beautiful road sign will be provided to advertise the city as one of excellence, public award ceremonies will be held, and recognition of the city's achievement will be made at WTCC meetings, in news media, etc.

Assistance will be provided to all participating cities in the form of speakers teams and verification teams to check out the total points earned in each category.

The announcement of the awards program came at the conclusion of a day-long industrial conference which featured Dr. Grover E. Murray, president of Texas Tech, Lubbock; Dr. Stanley Aringst, associate director of the Bureau of Business Research, Austin; James F. Ray, coordinator for the Division of Planning, Governor's office, Austin; and Dr. Frank J. Konersy, dean of the James Connally Technical Institute, Ware.

Tax Man Sam Says

The taxpayers throughout the Nation continued to have trouble in talking to the IRS computer. In 902,000 cases the taxpayer transposed or at least used the wrong social security number on his 1966 return, and naturally the computer don't speak to people unless he knows who they are. In Northern Texas, however, the good tax folks told the taxpayers to be careful about the correct social security number on their tax return. The taxpayers evidently listened, because only 1,700 Northern Texans had trouble with the computer over their social security number. This is only 1/10 of the number of errors that taxpayers made on this item throughout the country.

Texas has 18.2 billion barrels of oil reserves--14 billion in crude oil; 4.1 billion from natural gas liquids.
