Cotton Growers Organize: Set May 23 As Tentative Uniform Planting Date

Cotton growers throughout this area have been very interested in organizing to try out plans outlined at recent meetings. Selecting a uniform planting date is the main issue at this time.

Knox City, Needmore, Gilliland and Truscott communities have agreed tentatively on May 23rd as a possible uniform date for planting cotton, while Rhineland has agreed on this date for their dry land cotton, they are considering May 10, for the irrigated cotton.

Mr. Charles Stenholm of the Rolling Plains Cotton Growers Association in Stamford has furnished the following data for the Herald readers:

Weather and management largely determine the profit a grower gets out of his cotton crop. A dryland farmer is more dependent upon weather than a farmer who irrigates but weather has a tremendous effect on cotton yields, whether irrigated or not.

Climatic Data, showing weather behavior for a 31 year period, has been prepared for numerous stations within the Rolling Plains by the Cotton Research Committee of Texas. When a cotton grower knows how local weather conditions influence production, he can use practices needed to minimize hazards. In other words he can utilize weather as a management tool especially regarding planting dates.

Selecting a planting date that will produce the highest yield of the best quality at the greatest profit is one of the most important managerial decisions growers make each year. Climatic Data offers no specific guarantee but, as one elderly farmer in Jones county remarked last year: "It is the first thing in 25 years I have heard that really made sense."

Jones County farmers who utilized the data last year to plant after May 24 are sold on the fact that it is sound judgment 9 out of 10 years. These are odds most farmers like to work with.

Advantages of delayed planting on community or county levels are many as:

1. By planting in late May or early June, cotton fields are left bedded dammed during heavy May rainfall in order to store valuable moisture for cotton production during low rainfall periods of July and August.
2. By planting in late May or early June, cotton would have a better chance of making growth during the hot, dry months and not start its peak bloom period until after mid-August when cool nights begin and chance of rain is better.
3. Virtually no replanting.
4. Cultivation and hoeing costs greatly reduced.
5. Weevils must have one-third grown squares in which to lay eggs. By planting late, the majority of the boll weevils are out of hibernation. Two-three weeks before squares are one third grown, weevils can be more easily controlled by community wide spray programs during the period.

Gene Newton Announces For State Represent.

Gene Newton of Snyder has authorized the Herald to announce his candidacy for the office of State Representative of the 74th District which includes Knox Co.

Mr. Newton is 30 years of age and is a teacher in the Snyder School system. He is a graduate of Snyder High School and McMurry College and has done graduate work at Texas Tech, Denver University and Texas A&M.

He said in announcing his candidacy: "We need a representative who will represent the people. I believe a representative's vote in the legislature should reflect the wishes of the people of his district. He should vote for those bills which will help his people and against those which would do them harm."

"I plan to talk to as many of the 55,000 people in the 74th District as possible to learn what I can do for them if elected. I want to be the 'man in Austin' for the people of the 74th District."

"I want to thank the people of Knox County for the kindness they showed me while I was campaigning there this past week. You made me so welcome that I felt like one of you. I will be with you many more times during this campaign, getting to know you so that I can do a good job for you if elected to the Texas House of Representatives."

Mrs. Paul Cargill Speaks To Lions About The American Red Cross

Featured speaker at the Knox City Lions Club Wednesday was Mrs. Paul Cargill, Wichita Falls, Volunteer Consultant on the National Red Cross Staff. Mrs. Cargill was introduced to the club by Lyndol Cypert.

She said the American Red Cross sign was known throughout the world and was known as the sign of Faith, Hope and Gratitude.

Countries fighting for their independence, she said, had at least two main purposes in life. One was to join the United Nations and to join the Red Cross.

Mrs. Cargill then asked the audience of men: "Please raise your hand if you have ever paid a dime for a cup of coffee or a doughnut."

Only one person answered her call and she said this has been a common complaint of the Red Cross over the years. She said they could not deny this happening but had put a stop to it when it was brought to their attention, and said an organization as big as the Red Cross must surely make a mistake now and then.

She listed other incidents that had happened in other fields and countered "this is a status symbol—we have to fight it."

She said the Red Cross had a tremendous job to do today and that they were trying to forget

Mother Of Former Resident Dies

Mrs. J. O. Bowden, 75, died at 7:30 a. m. last Thursday, March 3, in Dallas, after an illness of several years.

Funeral was held at 2 p. m. Friday in the First Baptist Church at Munday with the Rev. John Street pastor, officiating, assisted by the Rev. Gerald Tidwell, pastor of Lapan Baptist Church. Burial was in the Johnson Memorial Cemetery.

Born Vernon Morgan Feb. 16, 1891, in Sipe Springs, she was married there September 1, 1915. She and Mr. Bowden moved to Munday in 1917.

She was a retired school teacher, a life member of Texas Congress Parent-Teachers Association and had been president of the PTA in Munday for several years. She taught Sunday School for a number of years and was a past president of District 17 Women's Missionary Union.

Survivors are her husband; one daughter, Mrs. Edgar Beecher of Dimmitt; two sons, Jeff of Wichita Falls, and Dr. Ben Bowden of Dallas; her mother, Mrs. Jeff Morgan of Sipe Springs; one sister, Mrs. Herman Anderson of Sipe Springs; and eight grandchildren.

Palbearers were Tom Bullington, Charles Baker, John Broach, Pete Beecher, Leland Floyd, Chan Hughes, Lloyd Patterson, and A. L. Smith.

Dr. and Mrs. Ben Bowden were Knox City residents from 1951 until 1953.

GUEST IN CLAYTON HOME

Mrs. Sarah Creasey of Dallas is a guest this week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Clayton and Cyle. Mrs. Creasey is a former schoolmate of Mrs. Clayton.

this incident which only happened to a few people but had been mentioned many many times.

She said the Red Cross' main work now was in the services and that out of $100 million collected last year, $40 million was spent for those in uniform.

She said that outside our government agencies, the Red Cross was the first to know that we were in war again.

She said the Red Cross gives service to all military families, when needed and that they were the only organization that can get word to families about missing men. "We can't grant a leave of absence but we do assist the military in checking with doctors and other sources and relay that information to the military for their action."

She said they also give financial assistance to the men in service who need it, and it is operated in the following way:

1. As a loan, extended over a long time without any interest;
2. Given outright as a gift if the person should want it that way. Occasionally a serviceman may lose an infant and not have the money to send them home for burial. In this case the Red Cross does this for them.

Mrs. Cargill said this one type of loan was the only one the Red Cross has.

The Red Cross operates without government funds, she said, and the Red Cross gives disaster relief to the people. The government only helps in a disaster by rebuilding roads etc., the Red Cross helps the people.

She said that when the Red Cross comes to the aid of disaster victims, they give food, clothes, and medical care. "It is not a loan, it is a gift," she said.

She said that 90 per cent of the funds spent in disaster is after all has been done. There was $17½ million spent on the Hurricane Betsy.

She also told how the Red Cross benefited man by the blood bank. Over 600 pints of blood were sent to a family in Dallas.

"If you need blood and you are in another state all that is required is to tell the hospital you belong to the blood program and it will be sent immediately."

Mrs. Cargill concluded her report by quoting a passage of Dr. Albert Schweitzer: "Red Cross is a light in darkness and we cannot ever afford to let it go out."

First Aid Instructor Course Available

Knox County has in residence only one qualified First Aid instructor. While the load is not heavy, some people might find it advantageous to complete this course of instruction.

The course will be for four hours each night for approximately five nights. It will be taught by a Red Cross representative from Wichita Falls. The first qualification is completion of the Standard Course of First Aid.

Persons interested should contact Paul Clayton.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Vern Sanford

AUSTIN Texas' first big free voter sign-up is under way.

But top state officials still are "fighting mad" because F. B. I. agents were assigned to keep an eye on registration procedures in selected counties.

"It's an insult to every public official and every citizen of Texas," wrote Texas Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr in a letter to U. S. Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach about the F. B. I. check.

Gov. John Connally agreed and further charged the U. S. Department of Justice with intentionally "instigating trouble" among the stormy state political factions.

A three-judge federal court granted Carrs request for a 30-day stay of its order abolishing the poll tax as a voting requirement. Stay was granted in order to allow time to put the new registration law into effect. Therefore, the old poll tax requirement will apply through most local elections this month.

All indications are the initial 15-day free registration (March 3-17) is going smoothly. Interest varies from county to county. Intensive registration drives are under way in the major counties, with all factions trying to sign up more voters who reflect their own views.

Connally and Carr have called local tax assessor-collectors, who are voting registrars, to provide as many sub-stations and deputies as necessary and to authorize all the overtime needed to assure the widest possible opportunities for voter qualifications.

This is in keeping with instructions of the federal court which conceivably could lengthen the 15-day period if it feels all voters who wanted to register were not given sufficient opportunity.

Carr, meanwhile, has appealed the poll tax invalidation order to the U. S. Supreme Court. However, few feel it will be reversed.

Reversing earlier instructions, the attorney general said Texans over 60 years of age in cities of 10,000 or more who filed to get exemption certificates before January 31, still can sign up free.

Reliable estimates of the number of new voters who will qualify by March 17, have been raised to around 500,000.

CIGARETTES IMPORTS TIGHTENED — State and federal inspectors are clamping down on imported sales that resulted when the state per-pack tax jumped to 11 cents.

Travelers are being warned that they can bring back no more than two packs of untaxed cigarettes from across the border.

State comptroller's agents, liquor control board inspectors and customs officers are making close checks in an effort to enforce the limit.

Comptroller's figures show the total cigarette tax collected for February as $8,500,000. This is nearly a $2 million increase from February, 1965. Actually, however last month's stamp sales meant 77,778,963 packages of smokes were purchased. This compares with 83,431,387 at the old rate in February, 1965.

Before the last three-cent-a-pack increase, sales sometimes went to more than 100 million a month.

"We're looking at every avenue we can to protect the revenue of the state," commented Olbert and Jerry Leaverton. 4-H CLUB TEAMS— Pam Roberts, Susan McCandies, George Doby, Carl Doby, Donnie Roberts, Wyman Meinzer. The groups were accompanied by County Agent Joe Doby; Kenneth Roberts and Butch McCandies. Mrs. Doby and Jim also accompanied the group but visited relatives in Austin.

TEXAS JOINS COMPACT — Texas will be one of the first states to participate in the interstate Compact for Education, Governor Connally has announced.

Compact aims to strengthen the voice of states in formation of alternative nationwide educational policies.

Connally has indicated he is making a bid for location of the compact's central office in Texas.

An Interstate commission composed of seven representatives from each member state will develop alternatives in educational policies, gather data on enrollments, conduct research, exchange information with other groups and recommend proposals for financing education.

ATTORNEY GEN. SPEAKS — A Childress County constable who accepted a $1-a-day job as a deputy tax assessor-collector for a single day during the poll tax drive put on by the Junior Chamber of Commerce did not vacate his office, Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr held in an official opinion.

In other opinions Carr concluded:—

● A driver's license is automatically lost on felony conviction for driving while intoxicated, but is not so forfeited when a person is convicted of misdemeanor DWI and placed on probation (unless probation is revoked).

● Driver of a pickup, panel truck, carry-all or station wagon, of 2,000 pounds or less capacity does not have to have a commercial operator's license even if vehicle is operated in combination with one or more trailers.

● Texas Water Rights Commission is governed by article setting $1,500 maximum for water use permits (and $200 top for additional use under same permit). Request originated with Sulphur River Municipal Water District and City of Irving applications to take water from Cooper Reservoir.

● Workmen's Compensation law does not have permissive application to county-line independent school district (Goose Creek Consolidated ISD) under jurisdiction of a county having population of 1,200,000 or more unless it is wholly located or situated in the county.

● A warrant on Texas Water Rights Commission's appropriation to pay for paper used in printing special engineering reports necessary to state water plan is a legal expenditure.

HIGHWAY IMPROVEMENT IS PLANNED — State Highway Commission initiated plans to make U. S. Highway 271 a multi-lane facility from Paris northward to the Red River and the Oklahoma border.

Facility will connect with a multi-lane highway planned by the State of Oklahoma to extend southward from McAlester to the river.

Among other projects ordered by the commission was completion of a highway loop around the city of Lufkin.

Devil's River Bridge on U. S. Highway 90 west of Del Rio received the American Institute of Steel Construction "Oscar" at a commission meeting here as the best of its class constructed in 1964.

COURTS DECIDE — State Supreme Court held for the typographical union in action requiring the Houston Chronicle and Houston Post to reset in their composing rooms advertisements placed by a local firm through a local advertising agency. Arbitration board held that "national" advertising does not have to be reproduced by the newspapers, but "local" advertising does.

Supreme Court turned down the appeal of Mayor Morris L. Newham of Ranger to be included on the Democratic primary ballot as a candidate for state representative in the 63rd District (Eastland, Palo Pinto, Stephens, Callahan, and Shackelford Counties). Lower courts held Newham ineligible to run for the Legislature because he is now serving a term in a "lucrative public office." Actually, he draws no pay.

The KENNEL

Senior Class

By BECKY HOWELL

The Seniors are happy to report that their play, "Butter on the Bacon," was very successful last Tuesday night. The play would not have been possible without the tireless efforts of Mrs. Ottis Cash, sponsor and Mr. Phil Colehour, director.

We are very glad that our play is over, but Sharman Watkins,

Vickie Lowry and Gary Campbell will soon begin one-act play practice for Interscholastic League.

The Seniors are busy with our English papers. The papers must be finished before the Senior trip.

Last Saturday Janie Escobar and Vickie Lowry took the SAT test at Seymour.

Last Friday and Saturday Sharman Watkins and Becky Howell attended the Area IV FHA Convention in Stephenville.

Junior Class

By MIKE GLENN

Last week, the Junior class finally selected its class play! We chose "Sittin' Pretty" which is a three-act comedy farce by James Stone. The books will be ordered shortly and tryouts for parts will be held as soon as these books get here. Tentative date for the Junior Play is set around April 19 so plan now to leave that night open, and come back the Juniors! Also last week, the Juniors and Seniors tried out for parts in the One-Act Play which will be used in the University Interscholastic League contest. This year's play is to be "Good-Bye to the Clown."

Three Juniors are members of the cast: Cyndy Johnston, David Hoge, and Mike Glenn. The other three parts are held by Seniors: Sharman Watkins, Vickie Lowry, and Gary Campbell. Stage managers will be Twyla Standlee, Tonia Flenniken, Mike Tankersley, and George Arnett.

Next Friday, the teachers have their area meeting — so that leaves us with only two welcome words — NO SCHOOL!

Freshman Class

By MARGARET HOWELL

Guess what? We got our report cards last week. I've decided that those report cards are more trouble than they're worth.

The Ag boys are pruning trees at various locations in the city. They seem to be doing a very good job at it.

Last Friday, Mary Reese, Sue Bateman, and Pinkie Woodward went to Stephenville to attend the Area IV FHA meeting.

Saturday, Karen Clonts, Judy McCown, Jacqueline Crownover, Margaret Howell, Sue Egenbacher and Frances Hendrix attended the FHA meeting also.

Miss Helen Poe was guest speaker and they saw the installation of new area officers.

Friday, there will be no school due to the teachers' meeting.

We have declared Friday TGF-TM Day. That stands for Thank Goodness For Teachers' Meetings Day.

That about wraps up the case for the week. Tune in next week, same time, same newspaper, for another blood chilling, toe curling adventure of the Freshman Class.

The following is a poem by Laura Lynn, 9-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Lynn. We would like to share it with you.

I LOVE EVERYONE
I love my mother;
My mother loves me.
I love my brothers,
My brothers all three.

I love my father,
My father loves me.
I'd love my sisters,
But I have none, you see.

I love everyone;
Everyone loves me.
Because I love God,
And God loves me.

FHA Girls Attend Area IV Meeting

By CAROLYN CROWNOVER

At 11:30 a.m. Friday, March 4, 15 anxious girls, our sponsor, Mrs. Vera Newton, and our Chapter Mothers, Mrs. Charles Reese, and Mrs. Vic Thomas, left Knox City for Stephenville to attend the Area IV FHA Convention.

Our destiny, Tarleton State College, was reached at 3:15 that afternoon. After refreshing ourselves, Susan Reese and Becky Howell attended the practice for the State Degree Ceremony. After that, Susan then attended the Executive Council meeting of the Area IV Officers.

The regular order of business began Friday night at 7 when the talent show was presented. The Knox City Chapter presented the skit "The Tall Texan," featuring Karen White, Phyllis Tankersley, Becky Howell, Carolyn Crownover, Gail Cornett, Pam Waldrip, Cathy Richardson, and Diane Thomas.

Also at this time Susan candidate for a State office, Cyndy Johnston, voting delegate, Becky Howell, Mrs. Newton and Mrs. Reese attended the House of Delegates Meeting where Susan was elected State Officer for Area IV. Congratulations, Suzie!

Friday night was spent in the college gym. I am sure the girls will agree that was something to remember.

The next morning began at 8. After breakfast, everyone attended the General Assembly. Here the group had the privilege of hearing Miss Helen Poe, lecturer and world traveler from Dallas, who spoke on the FHA convention theme "International Friendship the American Way."

After dinner, the session was continued with a film on the National FHA Convention held last year in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. There was also the presentation of Honorary Members, and the Installation of Officers for Area IV during 1966-67.

Knox City participants not already mentioned include Sharman Watkins, Sue Bateman, Pinkie Woodward, Mary Reese, who spent Friday night, Margaret Howell, Jacqueline Crownover, Judy McCown, Sue Egenbacher, and Karen Clonts, who came Saturday morning.

Our group left Stephenville at 3:30 Saturday afternoon, and arrived in Knox City that night at 1:45 all with a better understanding of the organization of the Future Homemakers of America.

Streams In Desert Places

Ozelle Stephens

The Commandments Exodus 20. It is very important in the order in which God states His laws. The First four deals with man's relationship with God. The next six deals with man's relationship with man. Before man can live rightily with each other, he must get right with God. God so created man that he is incomplete and cannot be at rest until there is a satisfaction of his deepest hunger, the yearning of his soul. The soul is restless until it finds it can rest in God, and in him alone. Nothing else can satisfy. So the first of God's rules for life is: "Thou shalt have no other gods before me."

Man can become so interested in what he has until he forgets the need of his soul. He can seek pleasure, power and knowledge, but it does not satisfy. It is like dope, the dose soon has to be increased until we find ourselves groping in darkness with no hope.

To worship God leads us to be like God and to obey His will. We walk in the paths of right living only when we "have no other gods before us."

Federal Income Tax Booklet Available

"Your Federal Income Tax" the 1966 official booklet on Federal taxes, is now available for 50 cents at Internal Revenue Services throughout Texas.

District Director of Internal Revenue for northern Texas, Ellis Campbell Jr., said the 160-page booklet covers in detail the Federal income tax laws as they apply to individuals. The language used is non-technical and contains many examples to illustrate the application of tax laws to actual situations, Mr. Campbell said.

Tax-saving provisions for taxpayers over 65 years of age, and also the minimum standard deduction which benefits millions of low income taxpayers are fully explained.

The material is especially helpful to Texas taxpayers who have unusual tax situations, or for those faced with a new tax problem for the first time, according to Mr. Campbell.

Check lists of taxable and non-taxable income, and of allowable and non-allowable deductions, are included. A detailed index helps pinpoint answers to tax problems.

A special feature is the sample filled-in Form 1040, keyed to pages in the booklet where the various items on the return are explained in detail.

The booklet may also be obtained from the Superintendent of Documents, U. S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C. 20402, for 50 cents.
