I've Got This Pain

BY VELVET VERHALEN
 Nothing "goes against the grain" more than a normal, healthy person who complains incessantly about his trivial illnesses. No matter what is wrong with an actually sick person, the healthy "nut" makes the hangnail on his little toe, left foot, sound much, much worse. He just cannot be "out-done", no matter what.

Even if the fanatic cannot find anything wrong with himself at a given time, he can always manufacture something. Or, if he cannot think of anything on the spur of the moment, he can always recall a past "illness" to dominate the conversation, no matter what the topic had been previously.

My advice to seriously sick people who are bothered by these idiots is to politely say, "Oh dear, you look awful! Is your insurance paid up?" That probably would make him think twice before complaining about his "condition". Or better yet, he just might get the hint.

Help! Examination Time Is Here!

BY JEANA VASSAR
 The science department of Knox City High is buzzing like a bee hive trying to get ready for six weeks exams. For the next two or three days, there will be plenty of burning the midnight oil by one hundred and twenty-eight students in the science classes. The tests will cover everything from the beginning of the earth in general science, to the structure and composition of the cell in biology, to the present day atomic theory in chemistry. These tests will be taken from the notes taken in class. Our instructor, Mr. B. R. Winchester, has spent many hours preparing these notes and explaining them to each student. We, in turn, try to comprehend all that is said and the examinations are a way to find out how much that we learned.

Sports

BY JOE REEDER
 The Knox City Greyhounds play their old rivals, the Munday Moguls, this week. The game is to be at Munday. The Greyhounds have not defeated Munday in quite a few years. The Moguls and the Greyhounds are pretty well on an even basis this year.
 The Greyhounds were defeated by Central Catholic 34-6 last Friday night. The only Greyhound score was by Rick Barnard.

A part of me went with him That lonely, Heartbreaking day.
 His letters were brief but frequent,
 Yet quite enough in detail To tell me the life he was living
 Was nothing less than hell.

"Can't wait to see you both" he wrote
 "I'm sure it won't be long. I, myself, find it hard to believe That I'll be coming home!"

It was raining, and oh so cold The day that I first learned The child that we had raised and loved
 Would never be coming home.

The war is cruel, it taketh away And no one can say whom WE'll mourn our son and others mourn theirs
 How long must this go on?

A Poem

By Mary Gentry

The flowers sway in the gentle breeze
 The waves ripple upon the seas
 The day is gone yet here I stay
 All alone in the quiet peaceful bay.

The seagulls swarm overhead
 As the distant sun takes the sea for its bed
 The cool white foam is left on the rocks
 And dirty old fish nets hang from the docks.

Fishermen pass by, some smile, some frown
 But all go over the hill and on to the town.
 All but one, that is, a soul who loves the sea
 A tall, lanky boy, I know as me.

Greenhand FFA

BY SAM TANKERSLEY
 We've been working hard this week with parliamentary procedure for our six weeks test. We are trying to get our projects looking good for our grade. Our test will be Monday, the sixteenth, and I believe everyone is studying for this.

Eighth Grade News

BY CAROL SPECK
 We are still winning, with three more games to go. The Knox City Junior High Grey-pups have defeated every team they have played.
 Now that six weeks tests are over we have gotten back into the same routine. We are studying hard to get ready for the next six weeks.

Everyone is looking forward to the carnival, starting Monday. This is one of the highlights of our school seasons.

Seymour Airport Opening Slated For Sun., Oct. 29

Sunday, October 29th, has been set as the day for the gala opening and formal dedication of Seymour's new municipal airport. The City of Seymour and the Chamber of Commerce have announced plans that include a fly-in for visiting pilots, air show activity, music, and speeches by public officials.

An overflow crowd of spectators is expected to hear Colonel William C. McGlothlin, United States Air Force, give a first hand report on the air war in Viet Nam, and Representative Graham Purcell speak on air power for progress, the theme of his main dedication address.

Chamber manager Leon Williams, a newcomer to Seymour and to Chamber management, predicts big things for the new municipal air facility, and says that the all-out show to open the airport is in keeping with things to come for Seymour. Williams says that a number of fliers have stated that the Seymour airport is one of the best small air facilities they have seen anywhere, and this is indicative of the plans that the Chamber of Commerce, and other groups, are now making for the community.

Support is being given the program by numerous groups, including the Air Force who are furnishing flights of jet aircraft, displays of new jet helicopters, the band from Sheppard AFB, and Colonel McGlothlin, who is stationed at Reese AFB.

The jet helicopters, which will be on display for the public to go through for close inspection, are of the same types that are taking such a large part in the Viet Nam air war. NASA has been invited to provide displays of space exploration, equipment, but have not yet indicated whether they will participate.

Wednesday, October 25th, is the deadline for flying activities to enter their participants in the program. Sky-diving clubs, airplane distributors, and similar groups are invited and encouraged to take part in the program, but because of the large

October Meet Of Garden Club Has Halloween Motif

The Knox City Garden Club met on October 10 at the Women's Club. Refreshments and table decorations featured a Halloween motif. Serving as hostesses were Mmes. J. M. Averitt, H. F. Jungman, and W. C. Hertel.

Roll call was answered with the name of a plant or flower that had been brought from home.

The members voted to send Mrs. Arthur Crowner as a delegate to the District Garden Club meeting to be held in Mineral Wells on November 9. Mrs. G. W. Coats presented the program. She had made several arrangements combining fruits and flowers using suitable candles as accessories. The Horn of Plenty was her first and was on an evergreen base; the second was a pumpkin with fruit and broomcorn, yellow cosmos and brown candles; the third was a driftwood base with orchid dahlias and purple grapes with green candles. Mrs. Coats then changed the color scheme with the driftwood and used yellow dahlias with yellow candles and then orange grapes and orange candles.

Mrs. B. F. Cornett made an abstract arrangement representing the Hurricane Beulah.

The rough driftwood container was used to represent the turbulent water, a black curling vine was the hurricane, and a bright berry was used for the eye. Another rough piece of driftwood represented the tornado and a wind-blown flower represented the people who were fleeing from the storm.

A similar arrangement at the Lubbock Fair was given several honor ribbons.

 On November 14 the club members will have a working at the Club House on candle making with Mrs. Clyde Boulton conducting, assisted by Mrs. Cornett. Each member is asked to bring a sack lunch and meet at 10:00 a.m. *****

IN WILLIAMS HOME

Weekend guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Williams included Mrs. Buddy Jones and children, Sam, Brad and B. G. of Odessa; Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Williams of Lubbock; Philip Williams of Sul Ross, Alpine; and Kirk Leich of Dallas. *****

Mrs. Spencer Leader For Circle Study

Twelve members of the Mary Martha Circle met in the church parlor of the First Methodist Church Thursday, October 12, with Mrs. Charlie Spencer as leader for the study on Japan. An African poem was read for the devotional by Mrs. Spencer.

A business meeting followed the program. Members attending were Mrs. Mmes. LaVerne Thompson, Lena Dodd, Linda Peninger, Faye Railsback, Grace Dudney, Lois Cybert, Linda Fry, Virginia Lieb, Mary Maker, Peggy McGaughey, Helen Robbins, and Spencer. Hostesses were Mrs. Dudney and Mrs. Cybert.

English II Students Become Authors

BY LOU ANN MCGAUGHEY
 Last week several members in the English II class wrote poems. These were read in class. Everyone enjoyed them and decided that others outside the class might like to read them.

TO DAD
 By Connie McKinney
 When the burden on my shoulders becomes too heavy to bear;
 I turn to you for comfort, because I know you care,
 Deep down under your gruff and masculine attire;
 I see a warm and gentle person;
 A man I can admire.

Though at times you try to hide it;
 I know you're really nice;
 For when my mind turns upside down
 You're always there with good advice.

I'm not too proud to say it;
 Nor am I too proud to show
 My love for a little bald man;
 The greatest guy I know.

MY SON, THE HERO
 By Linda Martinez

Tall and straight and proud he stood
 As he shook his father's hand.
 Then he turned to me and slowly said
 "Mom, please understand."

"Don't cry, don't worry, I'll be home
 It won't be long; You'll see,
 And when I return from Viet Nam
 You'll both be proud of me."

So young, so brave and proud he was
 And I watched him walk away.

HISTORICAL MARKER PLANNED FOR O'BRIEN

Several historical mementos of old Carney school buildings were on display this weekend in the entrance of Carney High School.

A flag has been saved that waved over Hutto school. The old bell from the 1906 school was moved to the next school building which burned in 1929. It was about to be sent to Japan in a load of scrap iron when Pete Huntsman of Rochester recovered it and kept it in his front yard for 34 years. After taking care of the bell so well, Mr. Huntsman gave it back to O'Brien on the condition that it will remain part of the school.

A cornerstone of the 1929 building is in good condition along with the plaque of trustees that was on the building of '37 that burned in 1958.

Supt. W. R. Baker plans to erect a concrete marker in front of the high school to display these objects permanently.

HOMECOMING A SUCCESS

The whole weekend was spent making and carrying out plans for Homecoming. Friday night the pep rally bon fire was prematurely burned. The guests left no calling cards.

Saturday morning the pep club polished their routine for the ballgame, done to the tune of Whipped Cream. The Seniors taped Welcome Home, Exes to the school windows and graduates registered in the afternoon.

O'Brien won their ballgame with McCaulley 40-2, and at halftime Claudia Barnard, sophomore daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claudale Barnard was announced to be Homecoming Queen. She was escorted by Jerry Brothers, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Brothers.

Quite a coincidence, an ex's name was drawn from the Class of '43, and Claudia's mother, Jean (Sellers) Barnard became Memories Queen. The Class of '43 was specially honored because next spring it will be their 25th anniversary since graduation. The photographer had a time getting a picture of all the happy tears. Congratulations to the Barnard family.

Class parties followed the ballgame until wee hours of the morning.

Sunday morning community services were held at the First Baptist Church of O'Brien with brother Ken Moore conducting services.

Lunch was served in the lunchroom to about 270 people. The Senior Class of '68 and the Waldrip HD Club prepared the meal.

A short business meeting was held in the school gym following lunch. Officers were named for the next homecoming in 1970: president, Mrs. Sammy (June Lowrey) Tankersley; vice president, Mrs. Frank (Billie Jean Reeves) McCauley, Jr.; and secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Claudale (Jean Sellers) Barnard.

A special program, "A Trip Down Memory Lane" was presented by Demp Emerson and Mrs. Elmo (Janoma Williams) Stephens.

The oldest graduate was recognized, Mrs. Dave (Lillian Barnard) Vannoy of the Class of 1915.

The exes who had come the farthest distance were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Stanfield of Baton Rouge, Louisiana. Mrs. Stanfield was the former Jo Helen Barnett.

Two members of the first girls' basketball team of 1915 were recognized, Mrs. Vannoy and Mrs. Ninie Johnston Southall of Abilene. Mrs. Vannoy's daughter, Mrs. S. J. (Myra Vannoy) Reeves, Jr. modeled the attire of school girls in 1915 - high topped shoes, long sleeved high-necked white blouse and a long straight skirt.

Mrs. Sam (Audie Walsworth) Johnston modeled a girl's basketball suit of a few years later: middie blouse, black bloomers, black socks and tennis shoes. Mrs. J. O. (Charlene Manning) Brothers wore the warm-up - their father's khaki shirts and baggy pants - no respectable father would let his daughter out of the house in those bloomers.

Mrs. Willard (Laverne West) Emerson wore the first basketball jacket.

The boys played their first basketball between 1918 and 1925.

Two of the teams they played were Jud and Foster. In 1930-31 the boys won county and went to district where they lost to Abilene High School.

The first lighted court was lit by kerosene lamps.

In 1928 the school had its first bus driven by Mr. Buzby. It was a Model T truck with benches in the back and a cover and flaps made of duck.

In the early 1930's Cliff, Hutto and Mitchell schools were annexed.

The first football was played in 1940-41. In 1963, O'Brien beat Wall for Regional in football. The team averaged 66 points per game that season. Members of that team were C. H. Underwood, Jimmy Johnston, J. M. Emerson, Bobby O'Neal, Bobby Cox, Jerry Wilcox, Donnie Johnston, James Duncan, Bill Duncan, David Del Hierro, Daniel Lopez, George Lopez, Billy Vannoy, Jerry Thomas, Julio Aguilar, Roy Henry, Arnold Del Hierro, Managers Joe Matura, James Manning, Jim Edd Adkins, Joe Herpache, and Melvin Henry and Coach Charles Thorn.

For eleven consecutive years O'Brien had entries in the State track meet. In 1954 Billy Denton went to State in the high jump. Herschel Force went in the pole vault from '55-'57 winning twice, and setting a State Record of 12'8" in 1956.

Danny Walsworth went in the pole vault in '58 and '59, winning fourth and second. Jerry Rowan won third in the low hurdles in 1960 and came back the next year and won the event. In 1961 Jerry Forcett tied for first in the pole vault. Jimmy Johnston went in the pole vault in 1962-63. Also in 1963 the mile relay team of Jimmy Johnston, Donnie Johnston, C. H. Underwood, J. M. Emerson and alternates Bobby O'Neal and James Duncan won third at State. In 1964 James Duncan won first in the pole vault.

Mrs. D. T. Elmore was recognized for having a child in Carney schools for 31 years. Children of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Cox were in school for 28 years and Johnstons, all descendants of Dave and Josie Johnston, were in O'Brien School for 54 years.

Billye Bess Angle is really taking this newsgetting business seriously. She is sporting some new sharp-looking glasses. What has that to do with it, you say. Why, the better to see you with, m'dear.

I hope everyone else is enjoying the Kennel page of the Herald as much as I am. It's nice to know what's going on at KC High. Even if you have children there, it's not much help because you know how little teenagers talk. Some of the reporters toured the newspaper office last week to get a few pointers.

We really enjoyed the tour of the Munday Times Thursday! All the work and steps of publication for the four Herring papers were explained to the steady stream of visitors all afternoon.

Among other things, all the news in each of the papers is typed on a "thingamajig" machine that "digests" a coded tape and types and spaces the news by itself. Headlines were punched out on the headliner and waxed to the makesheets. These sheets are taken to Quantah where a full sized negative is made of each sheet of each paper. From these negatives the finished papers are run off at incredible speeds: all the Herald's are finished in five minutes! The Herring's pay between $300 and $350 each week to have their four papers printed. An offset printing press only costs $120,000.

Even if like me, you can't comprehend all the thingamajigs and do-jiggies, you will absorb a little knowledge about your newspaper. I recommend that you take the tour the next time it's Newspaper Week.

I started out to get a history of Carney Schools for the O'Brien homecoming, and wound up hearing quite a bit about the history of the town.

In 1905 T. G. Carney donated the land for the town and school which were both named Carney after him. The next year the school was built and the railroad came through, Carney had it's first gin, a bank, a big hotel and two drugstores.

In 1906 a man was killed right downtown and the next morning 144 shells were found in the street.

A Baptist College was proposed by Rev. James. The first load of bricks were brought in when he died and the project died, too. At this time there were 1500 people living in Carney. Knox City and Carney were bitter rivals, being so close together and each town wanting to outdo the other in order to grow. One dark night all the bank books were moved to Knox City, and shortly afterwards the whole town of Carney burned.

In 1908 Richard Carney finished school; there was no official graduation then, children were lucky to go to school a few months of the year.

That same year a Mr. O'Brien, an official of the railroad, promised to build a railroad and shop here if the town changed its name to O'Brien. The name was changed but the construction never happened.

During the years between then and now, six gins have burned at different times, parts of the school have burned four times.

Yet O'Brien has survived. In 1958 the City of O'Brien was incorporated. We now have a water system, volunteer fire department, street lighting, and new sewer system.

O'Brien is a quiet, friendly town of 400 people, and glad to live here.

Get big litters of husky pigs ... Feed Purina Sow Chow

A sow is a pig factory. She has the big job of producing and nursing two litters of pigs every year.

Like any other factory, she has to have raw ingredients to produce the products (pigs) and maintain the factory (her own body). If she doesn't get proper nutrition, she may actually resorb some pigs into her system, causing you to lose pigs you will never even see; or she may farrow weak, unthrifty litters.

Purina Sow Chow has what it takes to help the sow keep her own body, farrow big litters and have plenty of milk to start them right. Purina Sow Chow is available as a supplement to your grain or as a complete sow ration.

Ask us for Purina Sow Chow soon.
