Jack Cox Speaks To 1946 Study Club Here

Jack Cox of Breckenridge was principal speaker before members and guests of the 1946 Study Club Tuesday at the Woman's Club for the Americanism program.

Cox warned that our nation was in great peril from Communism and that we would go to any length to protect our nation from perils from without but he spoke mainly on the perils we face from inside our country.

The first of these he discussed was inflation.

"If the cost of living continues to rise at its present rate," Cox said, "it will take a minimum of $1000 a month for a person to retire in 1986. For those persons who are 40 years of age this will be approximately their retirement year."

"In order to raise a family and send children to college a monthly income of $2000 to $2500 will be a bare minimum by 1986," he added.

Speaking of the national debt, Cox said that our nation has been the most generous in the world. Approximately half of the national budget goes for aid to foreign countries. If this money which is being spent to combat communism had served its purpose and slowed the rise of communism it would be different, the speaker said.

However, since the end of World War II the number of people living under communism has risen from 180 million to one billion.

Boy Scouts Have Meeting Monday

A meeting was held at the First Methodist Church Monday, Nov. 6, at 7:30 p.m. to organize and sign up boys for the Boy Scouts here.

Approximately 12 to 15 boys with their parents were present for the meeting.

Noel Crenshaw District Scout Executive from Seymour was principal speaker and outlined the Scouting program for those in attendance.

Keith Benner from the Regional office, Dallas, also spoke to the group.

Joey Watkins, Scout Master, urged all boys between ages of 11 to 14 to be at the Methodist Church basement Monday night at 7:30 for a meeting.

A number of boys registered at the meeting Monday and others will be registered at the meeting next week.

Jimmy P. Horany Announces For Congressman

Jimmy P. Horany, a "loyal Democrat" of Archer City, announces that he will be a Democratic candidate in the special election for Congress for the 13th District of Texas, when Congressman Frank Icard's resignation becomes effective.

Horany was elected in 1960 as the Democratic Elector for the 13th District for President Kennedy and Vice President Johnson. He is a former legislator for Archer and Clay Counties, he served as County Chairman for the Democratic Party of Archer County from 1952 to 1956, and as District Commander of the American Legion in 1954-56.

He has been very active in civic, church, school and veterans affairs for Archer City and Archer County, and has headed many worthwhile projects during the past 14 years.

In 1943 he was married to Virginia Kouri of Wichita Falls, and they have four children.

Horany practices law, is the manager and partner of Horany's Dept. Store, and is a real estate dealer. He states he will issue a formal announcement after the Governor calls the election.

One third of the population of the world is now living behind the Iron Curtain and one fourth of the surface of the earth is under communistic control.

He said we in the United States are in a life and death struggle with communism.

"The United States stands as

Youngblood Speaks To Lions Club Wednesday

Superintendent of Schools E. A. Youngblood was principal speaker at the Lions Club Wednesday and Alton and Paul Fitzgerald showed a number of souvenirs they had brought home from their travels in World War II.

Alton Fitzgerald introduced Supt. Youngblood and said he and his brother Paul would take the remainder of the program for their talk.

A large sign "Lest We Forget" was painted at the front of the room with a collection of the Fitzgerald displays.

Supt. Youngblood said Lest We Forget was a fitting gesture since Nov. 11 was Veterans Day.

"We forget things we should remember," he said.

Youngblood said at the end of World War II we had all felt the end of all wars was at hand and that peace would prevail, but it hadn't worked out that way.

He said our nation had become too satisfied and relaxed.

He said the best way to pay honor to the veterans alive and dead was to become more alert and informed as a nation.

He said it was a greater need now than ever to instill in the minds of all people their obligation to their city, state, and national governments. He said it was our obligation to inform ourselves of all our various governments.

"With all the different types of communications we have today, we are the best informed people of the world," Youngblood said, "yet we do not feel the obligation enough to listen or concern ourselves."

At first when this country was founded, he said, all business was conducted in small towns and in small meeting places. Now we depend upon our elected officials to take care of our business.

Youngblood said it was his opinion that we should take more interest in our city, state, and national governments and our elected officials. He said corrupt government and officials was the people's fault.

"Let's participate," he said, "in all our governing bodies."

Youngblood said lack of interest was nothing new and quoted a speech Thomas Jefferson made in 1792 to the American people.

He quoted Franklin D. Roosevelt in another plea in 1941, in which he said "Freedoms mean support of human rights everywhere . . ."

Youngblood said we have to apply our head and our hands, so our head will know where we stand.

He said we must place our allegiance to the nation ahead of Knox City.

"Let's start in Knox City and go all the way to Washington," was his plea.

As an example he said to take Knox City—

He said the school had a new 50-star flag and a pole that is not flying. "Why haven't you asked me why?" he questioned.

To answer he said he was delinquent as well as the people here. "It is your obligation to call me and tell me where I am failing," he said.

If we start at home and go all the way to Washington, that would be a way to honor our dead, the superintendent said.

Paul and Alton Fitzgerald then took the floor and showed a number of rifles, pistols, swords, and bayonets they had picked up in their travels during their time in the service.

Both men explained the various collections and a large number of pictures were also on display as well as the German flag a large beacon to all the freedom people of the world and that that beacon goes out, freedom around the world will die.

Cox said that the road that lies ahead for the children of America will be rough and full of pitfalls and that it was the responsibility of the parents of America to give their children something to believe in. He said the story of America, a belief in the Stars and Stripes and a full knowledge of our American heritage was that something our children needed.

"If they don't know the story of America, they may be told another story and they might be sold that story and it will be one we don't like," Cox averred.

"Parents must teach their children pride in America and give them religious training at home for it is religious belief that will stand in the way of communism. This nation was founded on a fundamental belief in God and freedom of the individual, he added.

"An individual, regardless of his background, can reach the limit of his capabilities, according to his desires. This is what America is."

"The hour is critical for Americans but it is not too late. We need to become interested in political affairs on a local level and progress upwards. We are guilty of talking a good game but not playing one," Cox concluded.

Mr. Cox was the recipient of the Valley Forge Freedom Foundation Award in 1958 and 1959. The award is for outstanding achievement in bringing about an understanding of the American way of life.

He is a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor. He was accompanied here by Mr. Bill Black, Breckenridge businessman.

He was introduced by Mrs. C. E. Williams. Mrs. Paul Hoge presented him with a drift following the meeting. Mrs. Grayton Headon lead the singing of America, accompanied by Mrs. Joe Clonts.

Coffee, cake and nuts were served to the guests as they arrived by the hostesses Mmes. Hoge, A. J. Keathley, Archie Lieb, Harold DeMoss.

Four Mexicans Held In County Jail For Stealing Clothes

Sheriff H. C. Stone reported that four Mexicans are being held in the County Jail charged with stealing clothing and other items from the Buster Hodges' car.

Hodges, who was en route to Lubbock to catch a plane to Alabama to attend funeral services for his brother, had a flat tire and left his car parked about three miles west of here and returned to Knox City to have the tire repaired.

Clothing, a razor, suitcases, and other items valued at between $250.00 and $275.00 was reported stolen from the car.

library. Their disposition is still in doubt but they will probably be stored SOMEWHERE against the time when a place can be provided for them. The shelves of the High School Library are so full that the acceptance of duplicates seems unwise at this time. Such friends as Mrs. Shelton have made it possible for the school to build a library which is the pride of all who see it and the envy of people from other places.

Two basic language courses by the Foreign Service Institute are being publicized by the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C. These are in French and Spanish. The French course cost $4.00 and the Spanish course is $7.50. There are also tape recordings available.

A book needed by both of the school libraries is Robert Graves "Goodbye To A River." This is a study of our neighbor so-to-speak, the Brazos River.

Its significance is evident to us here, but it must be observed too that this book appears on many lists of important books of 1960. A list of Notable Books of 1960 will be given here in weeks to come.

There are 48 of them and Old Chel regrets that only two of the list are in our personal library. Time was when we read all of the best sellers, which incidentally are not always the Best Books of the Year of course.

An addition to the Memorial Shelf of the High School Library is "The Hero, Charles A. Lindbergh and the American Dream" by Kenneth S. Davis, given in Memory of Dr. D. C. Eiland by Mrs. Philip Colehour.

Q—On what basis are some peacetime veterans eligible for VA?

A—They may be eligible for VA hospitalization if they were discharged, retired or released from active service for a disability incurred or aggravated in line of duty, or are receiving compensation for a service-connected disability, or would be eligible to receive such compensation if they were not receiving retirement pay.

Q—Is it true that the monthly payments for orphans attending school under the War Orphans' Education Assistance Act vary from $50 to $110, depending on the amount of death compensation or pension they are receiving?

A—The rates of payment are: $110 a month for full-time school attendance; $80 a month, if three quarters time; and $50 a month if half-time. The rates are not determined by receipt of compensation or pension.

Farm-Ranch News

By JACK MOORE
Knox County Agent

Most of the Knox County gins have been able to have all of the cotton burs hauled to fields in the county. A great many of the farms in Knox County have carried on this practice for several years. This year, the League ranch purchased a bur truck of their own. Shorty Connor of Benjamin has been operating the truck and stated that he had spread about 300 tons already this year and that they planned to continue hauling until they had hauled all of the available burs in the area. There are several advantages in bur application to farm land other than the addition of organic matter to the soil which increases the water capacity and aiding soil texture.

The Knox County ASCS office manager states that 26 farmers receive conservation payments for the placing of burs on the land to protect the land from wind erosion. There was a total of 570 acres that payment under F-I-E practice were made at the rate of $1.00 per ton for the minimum of 3 tons and the maximum payment of $5.00 per acre last year. For the past several years, two Knox County farmers, Sam Clonts and Buddy Tankersley, have owned their own bur trucks and have hauled their own burs.

Almost any farmers around Knox City will tell you that it would be well worth anyone's time to visit the Tankersley farm and to see what burs can do to improve a farm. The Texas Extension Service has a bulletin MP476, Cotton Burs for Soil Improvement that has the results of scientific research in it. This bulletin states: "In a 4-year study by the Lubbock Station, the use of cotton burs under nonirrigated conditions increased lint yield by an average of 27 pounds per acre and the residual effect increased yields by 28 pounds per acre for 5 years.

Each bale of cotton you harvest by snapping or stripping produces an average of 675 lbs. of burs, stems and other wastes. The total amount of nitrogen, phosphorus and potassium in one ton of burs varies within the following ranges:

Nitrogen 14.6 to 21.6 pounds.

Phosphorus 7.9 to 9.5 pounds.

Potassium 54.4 to 101.4 pounds.

Tests have shown that 12 to 15 pounds of nitrogen added per ton of burs usually will provide the necessary nitrogen for the crop being grown and for decomposition of the burs at the same time. The bulletin also reveals that on a three year average on cotton following bur application at the rate of 4 tons per acre, that the pounds of lint was increased by 13 lbs. on land that where the burs were spread on the ground in June and left on the surface, by 121 lbs. when ground and then listed in January, while the increase of lint was 139 if the land was flat broken in January.

Most of the Knox County farmers have been concerned this year about insects that might be spread with the burs and this is what the bulletin states about disease and insects: "Cotton insects which reduce yields and lower the grades have not built up to a point in the bur-treated soil that they nullify the advantage of using burs. Angular leaf spot, verticillium wilt or cotton seedling diseases have not shown any increase on land receiving six annual applications of cotton burs at the Lubbock Experiment Station."

It is planned to have some demonstrations in Knox County this next year on cotton following cotton with bur application.

4-H Awards Program

The annual Knox County 4-H Club awards program will be held Monday, Nov. 13, at 7:30 p.m. in the Munday School lunchroom. This year, the Knox County 4-H members have planned a reception rather than the customary banquet.

All 4-H members and their families are invited to the reception.

"AMONG OTHER THINGS . . ."

By BOB BURNETT, JR.

Something that we use every day an devery month is, naturally, the names of days and the names of months. It is very interesting to know their origins.

Many of them are named after ancient mythical gods and can be easily guessed if one will think about the names. Most of the days of the week are named after Norse gods.

Sunday and Monday were named by primitive man for the god of the sun and the god of the moon.

Tuesday is "Tyr's day." Tyr was the Norse god of Battle.

Wednesday is "Woden's day." Woden was the chief of all Norse gods. He held court in Heaven's most beautiful place, Valhalla.

Thursday, is named for Thor, the Norse god of Thunder. He was the strongest of all gods, and was Woden's elder son. Thor possessed three treasures, a hammer, which returned to his hand whenever thrown, a belt which when worn would double his strength, and a pair of iron gloves which he wore when he threw the hammer.

Friday is named for Freya. Freya was Woden's wife and Thor's mother. She loved spring, flowers, and music, and she watched tenderly over lovers.

Saturday was named for the Roman god Saturn, who at one time ruled the universe during a period of peace and prosperity called the Golden Age. His son was Jupiter (Zeus) and eventually he overthrew his father.

The names of the months of our calendar are almost all adapted from the Greeks and Romans who had the same gods. When Rome conquered Greece, she took the Greek gods and added them to her culture. The only thing the Romans changed was to give the gods a Latin name.

The first month of our year, January, was named after the Roman god Janus. He was the god of all beginning and he guarded gateways and entrances.

The name for the month of February comes from the Latin word "febuare" which means "to purify."

In the old Roman calendar, March was called Martius in honor of the Roman god of war, Mars. He was the father of Romulus and Remus, the two brothers who founded Rome.

The origin of April is uncertain, some believe it comes from the Latin word "aspire" which means "to open." Others believe it is named for Aphrodite, the Greek goddess of love.

It is generally believed that May was named after Maia, the mother of Hermes (Mercury.)

Although there are many conflicting stories about the origin of June, the one that seems most likely is that it is named after June, the wife of Jupiter. She was considered to be the patroness of women.

July was originally called Quintus because it was the fifth month of the year. When Julius Caesar became dictator they changed the name to Julius in his honor.

The Emperor Augustus of Rome gave his name to August which had originally been called Sextilis because it was the sixth month of the year.

September, October, November and December mean respectively, seventh month, eighth month, ninth month, and tenth month, because these are the positions they originally occupied in the Roman Calendar, before Julius Caesar changed it in 46 B.C. Caesar made them the ninth, tenth, eleventh, and twelfth month of his calendar but left the names unchanged.

A votre sante.

Ozelle Stephens

When Jesus was in this world that was made by Him, the world knew Him not. But as many, as received Him, to them He gave power to become the sons of God, even to them that believed on His name, a son of the King who is rich in things of God with eternal life.

Even while we are in these earthen vessels; bodies made of clay, which will return unto clay, we have this excellency of the power of God.

"We are troubled on every side yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair; persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed." (II Cor. 4:8&9).

We run the race with patience and fault not even though the outward man perish, the inward man is renewed day by day. Sin and disease cannot touch the soul who is hid with Christ in God.

Wheat Support Depends On Conservation

Growers who want price-support protection for their 1962 wheat crop were reminded Oct. 25, about the conservation requirements of the 1962 wheat stabilization program. Olie Ilse, chairman, Knox County Agricultural and Conservation Committee, points out that wheat growers will have to take an extra step this year if they want to be eligible for price support on their 1962 crop. In other years, he explains, it was necessary for a producer to comply with his farm wheat acreage allotment in order to qualify for loans or purchase agreements on his wheat crop. In 1962, such compliance is still required, but there is an additional requirement that an intention-to-participate form be filed and that the acreage diverted from the production of wheat be devoted to an approved conservation use. Program payments will be made to producers for conserving the diverted acreage. According to the Chairman, the 1962 wheat allotment notices sent to growers before the wheat marketing quota referendum last August reflected a 10 per cent reduction below what the allotments would have been under previous legislative authority. Under legislation governing the 1962 wheat program, this 10 per cent diverted acreage figure is the minimum acreage which also must be devoted to soil-conserving uses in order to comply with program provisions. The diverted acres put to an approved conservation use must be in addition to the normal acreage devoted to conservation uses on the farm. Chairman Ilse suggests that farmers check with the ASCS County office about approved conservation practices which may be carried out on diverted wheat acreage in complying with the 1962 wheat stabilization program.

AUSTIN, Tex. — What happened to the million tourists who did not come to Texas this year?

That question faces a State-wide conference of "Texans for Tourists" called for Nov. 28, in Austin, by Gov. Price Daniela.

Since 1957, the number of tourists coming to Texas has steadily declined. Gov. Daniel always felt that Texas should match the advertising programs of other states.

Nationally, tourism is the third largest industry. In Texas, it ranks 13th.

Texas voters amended the constitution in 1958 to allow state money to be spent to attract tourists. But two sessions of the Legislature have declined to appropriate the money.

Charged with responsibility of promoting tourism in Texas is the State Highway Department. The upcoming all-day session is designed to build grassroots support for legislation to finance a program of advertising.

SAFE HIGHWAYS — An increase in highway fatalities this year, after a 26 per cent decline in past years, disturbs the state's chief policeman, Col. Homer Garrison, Jr. of the Department of Public Safety.

Present statistics indicate the number of deaths in 1961 will be 20 to 25 more than the 2,254 of 1960. So Col. Garrison has sent out word for his men to redouble their efforts to remove the unsafe and reckless drivers from the highways.

Program includes more use of radar equipment to check speeds especially the new type which requires only one highway patrolman per car. It also includes more stopping of drivers to make sure they hold drivers licenses.

Tougher enforcement policy will be followed by Gov. Daniel's annual Christmas traffic safety drive starting with Safety Sunday—Dec. 10. Gov. Daniel urged pastors to remind their members of their personal and moral obligations to drive carefully.

CAMPING OUT — More and more people are using the state park system for overnight camping.

Bill M. Collins, executive director of the State Parks Board, reported that 389,419 persons registered for overnight camp facilities in Texas parks during the fiscal year which ended Aug. 31. This is far above the 297,418 of the previous year.

Attracting the greatest number were the rugged canyons of Garner State Park. Gain there was 70 per cent, or an increase to 138,961 from 99,731, during 1961. Palo Duro Canyon and Huntsville State Parks also showed substantial gains in campers.

WATER CHANGES — Personnel of the important State Board of Water Engineers has undergone a shake-up.

Governor Daniel has moved Chairman Durwood Manford to the State Board of Insurance, which is troubled by several legislative investigations. Manford, a former speaker of the House of Representatives, can be expected to work on Board-Legislature relations.

To replace Manford, Daniel chose as chairman of the Board of Water Engineers Joe D. Carter of Sherman. He moved him from his present job as executive director of the Texas Water Development Board, the state water lending agency.

Carter has been in state water work since 1952. He has served as legal counsel for the Texas Water Resources Committee; legal examiner for the Board of Water Engineers; and as the first executive secretary of the Water Development Board.

He is an attorney and a former representative and senator. H. A. Beckwith of Eagle Pass was named to the Board of Water Engineers. He previously served 10 years on the board. Since 1958 he has been its chief topographic engineer. R. M. Dixon of Dallas leaves the board.

The Board of Water Engineers is the state's administrative and planning board. It decides who can take water from Texas streams. It also has worked out a master plan for meeting the needs of the state for municipal and industrial water for the year 1980.

MORE TAX LAWS?—City officials had their annual meeting, and heard Governor Daniel give support to their main thesis—that cities need new sources of revenue of they are to handle the growing problems caused by Texans moving to town.

Most likely avenue is the movement to have the state abandon the property tax, so it can be used exclusively for city and school purposes. The State and Local Tax Study Commission created by the Legislature in 1959 is specifically directed to report on this possibility.

Speaker James A. Turman filled two vacancies on that study group. He named Reps. Charles L. Sandahl of Austin and Charles N. Wilson of Trinity to work with senators and citizens who have been named to it by Gov. Daniel and former Gov. Ben Ramsey.

In addition to reporting on the idea of state abandonment of the ad valorem tax, now bringing in about $40,000,000 a year, the commission will report on whether other new tax sources should be granted to cities which need them.

Most startling tax news came from James McGrew, research director for the Texas Research League. He said it is a very close question whether the new sales tax will produce enough state revenue in the two years starting Sept. 1, 1963, to keep the state's books in the black. The big factor—steady and heavy growth of public schools and colleges.

HIGH HEAD COUNT — Enrollments in the 19 colleges and universities operated by the state government rose sharply this year—about 11 per cent.

Addition of the University of Houston to the list of state-supported colleges in 1963 will give the state school total a big jump. Its 11,860 enrollment this fall makes it the second largest in the state, second only to the University of Texas' 20,396.

Texas Tech at Lubbock has become the third largest with 10,212 enrolled.

Colleges and universities which are not state-supported showed a smaller gain than the state schools—from 59,036 to 60,924.

One factor in the change was the move of Midwestern University at Wichita Falls into the state-supported group.

Fastest growing college is Arlington State. It had 1,318 students 10 years ago and now has 8,318 to rank it fifth largest. Right behind is Texas A&M, which has 8,835 students this fall.

MORE TIME — The State Board of Insurance urged all insurance companies to extend by 60 days the 90-day period under Texas standard policies for filing proofs of loss on Hurricane Carla.

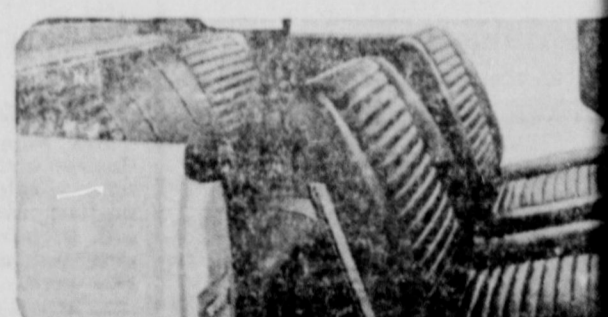

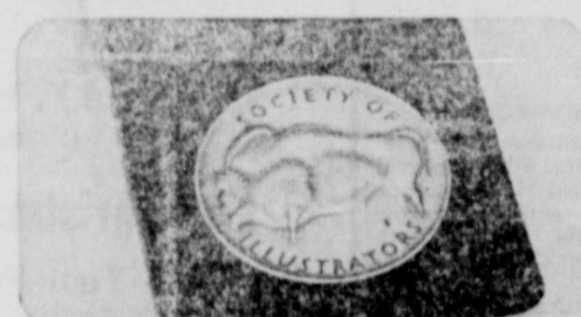

While it was not an order, it is fairly certain the industry

The one low-price compact that's every as lively as it looks—Valiant '62!

You're looking at the sports-loving compact car given an award of merit by the Society of Illustrators for design excellence! Come see it!

Unlike some compacts, Valiant will take off like a scared kitten at the drop of a "Scat!" You'd have to pay extra for an optional engine in most any other compact at Valiant's price to match Valiant's standard 101-hp Economy Six.

A modified version of this engine shot Valiant to victory over all American compacts competing in the 1960 and '61 Daytona Beach compact car competitions! Yet, for all its go, Valiant puts plenty of care-free miles between gas pumps. A Valiant scored 26.13 mpg in the last Mobilgas Economy Run!

And this new Valiant has the distinctive good looks to match its gumption. America's most famous artists recently honored the 1962 Valiant. For the first time in seven years, the Awards Committee of the Society of Illustrators has bestowed its coveted citation on a car—Valiant!

That's even more proof that the 1962 Valiant indeed the Style Leader of the Compacts!

For looks and liveliness, you just can't match Valiant at Valiant's low initial price! And this year's Valiant offers a bundle of economy extras. Then Ellie Sanders got up and allowed as how they ought to have more solos. The Parson said Ellie was sorter heavy-set and sung the same way and done a powerful job of moving the congregation with her solos. He said one Sunday when she got thru with her special everybody in the church clapped. By the way the meeting went, the Parson said he was expecting a heap of solos by Ellie from now on.

One member brung up the complaint that the choir loft was so hot in the summer that he couldn't sing good. The Parson said this feller couldn't carry a tune in a bucket and the rest of the choir had to sing real loud so the congregation couldn't hear him, even in the winter time when he wasn't suffering from the heat. But it was voted, the Parson said, to ask the congregation to appoint a air conditioning committee to look into the matter for next summer.

The Parson said that personal he was agin putting any air conditioning in the church, said he was having it hard enough making it hot fer sinners like it was. Anyhow, he claimed, they wasn't no vacant time left in the church fer the Air Conditioning Committee to meet unless they wanted to meet joint with the Stove Committee and the Stove Committee was already overlapping into time allotted to the Fund Raising Committee.

Letter to Editor:

Route 1, Hale Center, Tex.

Dear Mr. Editor:

I am an ex-student and graduate of O'Brien School, also a subscriber to your paper. Last week when I received the weekly edition of the Knox County Herald, I was very disappointed not to find an account of the O'Brien Homecoming in the paper. A lot of ex-students, graduates, and ex-residents were disappointed too. I am sure. The homecoming was a big event to these people. The O'Brien community had put in many tireless hours of work and preparation with few "thanks" to make the homecoming a success. A small community with a big heart had said "Welcome Ex's" and made each of us feel at home again.

Many x's subscribe to your paper, some still live in the O'Brien community, some in Knox City and many have moved far away. Your paper may have been the only means of knowing about the homecoming for the many Ex's that were unable to attend. These Ex's would have enjoyed reading about the ball game, the community church service, the lovely meal that was served and the homecoming program.

Again I say I was disappointed that your paper did not cover the "news" that was just three miles from you.

Mr. Editor, you missed a wonderful noon meal and the opportunity to meet a lot of nice people by not attending the O'Brien Homecoming.

An xStudent and Graduate, Bobbie (Stephens) Marshall

(Editor's Note—first Bobbie, I would like to thank you for your letter, and for the fact you SIGNED IT. As usual we have a good defense, for we never do any discrimination on purpose! We, too, are very proud of O'Brien and its many citizens—a fact we have made public in these columns many times, as you know if you read us regularly. The Herald ran full coverage of the Homecoming before it arrived, but no one gave us the results of the meetings, functions, etc., after the meeting.

Although we are asked all the time to attend meetings in O'Brien, we weren't asked to attend the Homecoming. Even so, we would have treated it the same way we will the Knox City one—by letting the secretary or someone—report the happenings to us.

Hope you understand OUR situation on the matter—and are not still angry with us. We understand your side, so try to understand ours. Again thanks.)

...night Ed Doolittle invited him to set a while longer but he said he had to git on home and work up a little sermon to go with the music Sunday morning, someone that would go good with one of Ellie's solos.

Yours truly, Uncle Ben come. You have to equip them, especially your wife, to manage their own affairs.

Refresh your wife on your business—what you own; how you regard it; who your associates are, and whom to look to for facts and advice. In this way you can keep her from some mistakes.

Tell your wife how you pay the bills, keep records, and pay your taxes. Tell her especially who advises you on these matters. Tell her about insurance, trust funds, stocks and other investments. Show her the papers and where you keep them. And why.

Show her how you bought the house and car.

See that she meets your lawyers, bankers, and business associates.

Does she know enough about your business and whom you deal with? She may have to take it over and run it or sell it.

Take her to your office; show her where you keep the books, vital papers, letters, checks, and receipts.

Does she know how to file her tax forms and whom to consult about taxes?

Take her through your business papers. Perhaps while you are around to supervise, you ought to let her have a trial run or two in some transaction to give her skill, knowledge, and confidence.

Cadillac

If anyone had told him, a short while ago, that his 1961 Cadillac could be improved on—he would have regarded them with disbelief.

And yet, after only half an hour in the newest "car of cars", he knows that a year of Cadillac progress has made a world of difference.

In fact, the list of Cadillac advancements for 1962 embraces each of the great motoring virtues.

For added beauty, there is a lower, longer silhouette . . . greater simplicity and dignity of line . . . and new interior elegance and luxury.

For improved comfort, there is increased spaciousness . . . new convenience of appointments . . . and a ride that is unbelievably quiet and smooth.

For finer performance, there is greater power . . .

more responsive handling . . . and a degree of all-around road ableness that is new even to Cadillac.

For increased safety, there is a new dual braking system . . . a new three-phase rear warning light system . . . and new cornering lights that illuminate your way around turns.

And we would like to say that even Cadillac quality has been enhanced for 1962. But the truth is simply that the car continues to be built to the highest standards that can be brought to the production of an automobile.

Stop by your dealer's showroom soon, won't you? He'll be happy to demonstrate to you what a difference a year can make—when the year is this one and the car is Cadillac.
