Hassie Huntsman Suffers Loss of Arm In Car Accident

Citizens of Knox City were shocked and grieved Tuesday evening in the car accident which cost Hassie Huntsman his left arm.

Hassie was driving a Ford coupe belonging to W. C. Ballard of this city, going toward Benjamin when he met D. W. Davis driving a truck loaded with a bale of cotton and also a trailer attached with another bale. The two managed to pass each other the length of the truck but the trailer and coupe collided. Hassie had his left arm resting in the window of the coupe and the weight of the trailer completely crushed it. Davis brought Hassie to town in the truck, which was not touched in the accident, and from there Hassie was carried to the hospital by G. T. Hardberger. He was given immediate attention and the arm was amputated just below the shoulder. He is getting along nicely.

Hassie is a very fine boy, the finest the town can boast of being sympathetic of by citizens with much praise. It is much regretted by every one that such a young man in the prime of life, is to be handicapped as this accident has allotted Hassie. However, the one whom it most concerns, he who is suffering it all, is meeting the situation with great courage which shows him, Hassie, to be the excellent young man that he is.

To The Citizens of Knox County

We would like to take this means to express our sincere appreciation to the people of Knox County for their stand and interest taken in behalf of the continuation of the Extension Service Work in this county.

It is our desire to thank each of you for your personal interviews and promotion of petitions which expressed your sentiment favoring Extension Service Work.

Now is the time that our work can be of great benefit to the Citizens of Knox County and it is our desire to show our willingness to work, but first we must know who is wanting help; so your cooperation can be shown by getting word to us by telephone, letter, by sending word or better still by coming to us personally.

At a date in the near future, dates and locations of Meat Curing and Canning Demonstrations will be listed in all county papers. This work begins in November and includes the services of both Home and County Agents. If you have needs of assistance in canning and curing of Beef or Pork get your name to us for a demonstration. Should it be impossible to reach you the day set you will be notified of a demonstration held near you.

Miss Park Honored With Shower

Miss Lillian Park was the recipient of a most useful shower given last Friday night in the home of Mrs. L. N. Bridges.

Mrs. Bridges was assisted by a number of the Methodist ladies as hostess for the shower honoring Miss Lillian. Guests present totaled seventy, which included a number of the girls, pupils of the honoree.

The evening entertainment was begun by a most appropriate musical reading given by Mrs. H. M. Jones, she being accompanied by Miss Sydna Virginia Edwards. Little Miss Marion Clonts gave a reading which was followed by a vocal duet by Miss Elsie Graham and Miss Myrtle Evans. Miss Graham then gave a piano number.

The presentation of the gifts by Miss Sydna Edwards and Miss Bernice Roney was very unique. Their baskets of maize heads proved to be valuable gifts in disguise. Since the basket was far too small to hold the huge pile of presents they had to return several times with armloads which they placed at the feet of the honoree.

Following the display of gifts refreshments of sandwiches, home-made pickles and hot tea were served.

Miss Park spoke appreciation of the shower.

Postmaster Clarke and family spent the past Sunday in the country.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Warren and family spent Sunday in Meikel. Mr. Warren's mother, who is 84 years old, returned home with them for an extended visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. A. Hamcock spent several days in Comanche county last week. Zack reports crops most all gathered there.

R. L. Newberry and family, and T. A. Bumpus and family were pleasant visitors here Saturday night. Mr. Newberry says that he is getting rather old to traveling around at night but that is always a pleasure to come to Knox City.

Mrs. Mann Brooks of Munday was here Sunday visiting her mother, Mrs. Hackfield.

Miss Stella Cooner is in Spur visiting her sister.

Miss Velma Barnard and Mrs. Phil West of O'Brien returned home last Wednesday from Lubbock, Plain view and other points west.

Play Outvalues Formal Reception

Teachers Learn Privileges as Well As Duties

It is well that the reception given Tuesday night for the teachers of Knox City school that they learned of their privileges as teachers as well as again hearing of their duties. The outstanding privilege as pronounced by the Parent-Teacher Association is that teachers are to be human beings, with a sense of humor and an appreciation of play. This fact was prevalent in the arrangement of the program. Over one half of the time allotted for the reception was given to play, every teacher and every parent taking part therein.

The program was opened by the singing of the Battle Hymn of the Republic under the direction of Mr. Press Hitchcock. Reverend Stovall gave the invocation and Mrs. T. S. Edwards, retiring president of the Parent-Teacher Association made the opening talk. She was followed by J. A. Wilson, member of the school board. Reverend Stovall, pastor of the Baptist church, Uncle Joe Smith, patron of the school, and Mr. Dean, coach and teacher in the school. The outstanding of these talks was that by Uncle Joe and that of Mr. Dean. Although Uncle Joe's talk was on the subject, "Relation of the School to the Home" he immortalized the subject, making the value of the situation loom up before the teachers and patrons in its real value.

Uncle Joe cleverly divided his talk into three divisions, having as a foundation for each head, scripture quotations. He concluded by quoting The Builder, most appropriate indeed.

Mr. Dean, in his response to the many words of welcome spoken by the forgoing speakers, expressed for the faculty their appreciation for the Parent-Teacher Association. His talk was short but to the point and very fitting.

Two highly entertaining numbers, "Monkey Business" and "Teachers" were offered by the Baptist quartet composed of Alvin Hamm, Mr. Hitchcock, Reverend Stovall and Mr. Dean. Accompaniments were played by Mrs. Gordon Acker.

Following, the crowd was invited into the basement the play room of the church, where huge bowls of punch and amusee games waited the attention of every one. The games were conducted by Reverend Stovall and Mrs. T. P. Frizzell Jr. The room became as the "back yard of mothers home" and the dignified parents and teachers as the "fair

To say the evening was enjoyed would be superfluous. Those who were present, know what it was, and those who were not, will never know. Only, it is hoped the occasion will be repeated.

School Children Aid C. W. A.

This the second week of the current school year, one of the most outstanding and beneficial projects which will probably be accomplished this year, has now been finished. The school boys and girls have joined forces with the Christian Women's Association in canning foods to be used this winter for relief work among the needy in Knox City territory.

Under the supervision of the two teachers, Miss Moorhouse home economics and Mr. A. G. Gay vocational agriculture, the boys and girls of these classes canned in two days 189 number 2 cans and 43 number 3 cans of turnip greens. This food will be used here this winter.

In the month of August a movement, sponsored by the Christian Women's Association, for the clearing of the city park and sewing it in turnips was begun and to the end that the canning was possible this week. The ground was laid off in about twenty plots, each 16 by 15 feet and sowed in turnips. This was done by the vocational agriculture department of the Knox City school, under the supervision of their instructor, Mr. Gay.

At this time each plot was given to one lady of the C. W. A. as her care, to be watered and tended by her. This work has been faithfully done and the plots are now covered with greens sufficient for the entire town and community. They are free for all and the C. W. A. invites every one to take greens from the patch any time. They may also be gathered for canning. The only request of the women is that you respect the patch as much as you would your own and do not tramp down the greens or uselessly waste them.

On the day of the canning by the school children, the greens were picked and washed by the ladies of the association. They also carried the washed greens to the building. Under the supervision and help of the home economics teacher, Miss Moorhouse, the girls cooked the greens, and filled the tins while the boys of the vocational agriculture classes prepared the salad. Cans were furnished by the Red Cross and all have been turned over to the women of the C. W. A. to be used in the relief work of the town and community this winter.

Miss Moorhouse and the girls, as well as Mrs. Gay and the boys state they will help in canning anything else for the C. W. A. or help in any other project where their help is needed.

HALLOWEEN FAIR AROUSING INTEREST

The Halloween Fair which the Parent-Teacher Association promises to give Halloween night, which will be Saturday, October 21, is arousing much interest over town.

Many rumors have reached the ears of the town concerning the medicine show that Uncle Joe Smith will sponsor. And authorities of the P-T-A say that the rumors are true; that Uncle Joe will have a medicine show and that his colored orchestra and other amusing features will entertain the crowd to the fullest extent.

There will be many other booths in the fair, among which will be the "testing counter". Hot coffee and chocolate and pie will be served and the Association is looking forward to having the patronage of everyone.

Watch the Herald for further details of the fair and the show windows in town for clever posters concerning the various booths.

TIGHTEN YOUR BELT

Go back thirteen and fourteen years to war days. Consider the American soldier—the doughboy fighting in the trenches. His immediate surroundings were indeed dismal.

The trenches afforded no encouragement, no comfort, just mud, fifth centies, trench rats and the sight of comrades wounded and dying. Ahead and "over the top", separated only by a short expanse of barbed wire was the enemy, well armed with rifles, tomcats, hand grenades, machine guns and backed by heavy artillery with deadly bombing planes overhead. In short, death waited at every distance. Pangs of hunger often added to the utmost distress.

For this soldier there was no feeling back. He had a mission to meet and he gave up no air, he didn't lie back. He kept a sharp eye on the trench and his own feet. He kept his rifle and over his head, he went "over the top" and almost certain destruction poured forth from guns, large and small. Only by supreme human effort could he save himself against such overwhelming odds and stand with the most ardent necessity to meet the situation with utmost heroism. He was a glorious victory.

Today a great many persons are complaining of their lot in these days of supposed-to-be-depression. True it is that conditions are not what they might be. But only the people—the whole people—can change them for the better.

America needs the war spirit of the American doughboy. No person today has such a dismal outlook as the soldier in the trenches 1917 and 1918. If you do not find things to your complete liking will you call or will you "tighten your belt" grit your teeth, set your jaw firm and go over the top and conquer the enemy—your own depression? Perhaps, if you have depression, it has been aggravated by your failure to save for your emergency. The office recently heard of a group of men who give their work a layoff, each one's deposit with him.

self because he had not saved when working full time. The people of 1921 need some of the old ARMY guts of the boys of 1917-18.

WRITING UP A WEDDING

Most newspaper men shrink from the task of writing up a wedding and prefer to pass that responsible duty to the female society editor. Yet an editor is found who can paint a word picture of nuptial events that any lady reporter might envy.

We just discovered one who appears to be hiding his great talents in an obscure Kansas town, while he ought to be holding down a great city job. Here is a sample of his literary ability, which proves our point.

"It was a wonderful wedding. The girl was as sweet as any girl who ever lived, but modern. As she walked up the aisle on her father's arm her lips lightly tilted at the corners with a happy smile, she was a picture of modest beauty. Her filmy wedding gown and gossamer veil floated around her fair blond head like a halo. She was as sweet an angel as girls get to be in this world. At the altar as she passed from her father, the man she always loved to the other man to whom she would devote the rest of her life, her father's arm touched a period fifty years on the floor and turned it over. Smiling with a smile to the door and her hand on the altar and said: 'That was a hell of a thing to put a girl'."

THE SEVEN WONDERS

Nearly everyone has heard of the seven wonders of the world, but probably few could name them and fewer could tell what became of them. These interesting might slip out for their scrap book.

The seven wonders of the world were named by Antipater, a writer of Alexandria, about 280 B. C. as follows:

The Hanging Gardens of Babylon destroyed in 484 B. C. more than 200 years before they were built among the wonders.

The Temple of Diana at Ephesus, destroyed by fire in 262 A. D. among the wonders.

The Colossus of Rhodes, destroyed by earthquake in 226 A. D. among the wonders.

The Mausoleum at Halicarnassus, destroyed by earthquake in 1492 A. D. among the wonders.

The Lighthouse of Alexandria, destroyed by earthquake in 1363 A. D. among the wonders.

The Great Pyramids of Giza, still standing in 1921 A. D. among the wonders.

The Mausoleum of Artemisia destroyed in 1492.

The Pyramid of Cheops, the only one of the "Seven Wonders" still in existence.

Such were the seven wonders of the ancient world. Many lists of modern wonders have been made but a recent writer selects not the veritable works of man but the discoveries and inventions which have revolutionized civilization.

A PSALM OF COTTON

The following Psalm of cotton was clipped from the Cotton Trade Journal and mailed to Farm and Ranch by a subscriber. It was written by a Southern cotton farmer.

Thou hast caused me to feed my sheep, thou art my shepherd and I am in want.

Thou hast caused me to feed my dry pasture, thou hast destroyed my credit; thou has led me into the paths of poverty, law-suits, liens and near nakedness.

Thou hast destroyed my soul and my happiness.

Thou hast caused me to bow to a trasher with my hat under my arm, a mortgage, the muscle and produce of my farm.

Thou hast caused me to live in a wretched house in full view of the moon, while stars come twinkling through the cracks.

Thou appointed my head with ignorance, superstition, poverty and wretched accounts. How can I trust thee?

Thou hast kept my children out of school, church and society, thereby robbing them of that which is good and noble, elevating and refining.

Thou hast caused me to go to the barn and bring out the old fatherly axe and ask my wife to make me a shirt, with these inscriptions in full: "Eighteen per cent acid phosphate" on the breast and "12-4-5" on the tail.

Pervades Opening of School

Welcome

Our school has started with a "bang"! Of course the probability of having a short school term has helped to make us begin working consistently; but another factor that is making for this condition is our new students. You have come to us from surrounding communities and from the seventh grade of our own school. To you who are treading the halls realizing the opportunities of Knox City High School for the first time, we who love her already and who hope to teach you to love her, bid you welcome!

We appreciate your presence here, and we wish you the most productive, the happiest, school year you have known. We want you to join our organization, believe in our Greyhounds, study unceasingly, and do everything else in your power to perpetuate the ideals of Knox City High.

Our School Paper

A paper makes a school a school. What could we do without it?

Yet some people think it useless. What shall we do about it?

An eagle depends on its wings. But on a paper high schools rely.

So what shall we do about it classmates,

Keep it—or let it die?

Fellow students, we have tried to avoid all errors, but we realize that mistakes will creep into a paper, when you find these, please overlook them, for we are quite inexperienced—and human.

We wish to express our sincerest appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Conroy who so generously gave us permission to use these columns of the Herald as our school paper. In selecting the material in this, our first issue, we have endeavored to put into it the things that we thought you would like. It is, perhaps, needless to say that we hope you have pleased you. We gratefully thank those of you who have helped us for your support, and earnestly request each Knox City High School student to willingly assist us in procuring the best high school paper ever edited by K. C. H. S. students.

MR. CLOUD COMPLIMENTS PUPILS

Monday morning, at ten-thirty, Mr. Cloud spoke to the high school about the policies the school is to pursue this year.

He welcomed the new pupils in "Kennel" for the first time and urged that they take as active part in the activities of the school as the old pupils. He made the new pupils feel at home and that they have a large responsibility in keeping the school alive.

Mr. Cloud announced that the school is having more real application to work and serious study than has been shown in many years, even at examination time. He also appealed to the students to maintain this good (spirit) during the remainder of the year, saying that the fathers and mothers of the community will be willing to sacrifice everything and to do without accustomed small indulgences in order to help their children, in school if this spirit remains.

Mr. Cloud's talk was extremely inspirational and we believe that more study and better work will be done as a result.

PEP SQUAD ORGANIZED

Pep Squad! What these two words signify! Pep—the word is not defined by Webster, Squad—any small group of individuals engaged in a common enterprise or effect. Let us make our own definition of pep: Perseverance, Efficiency, Progress, Perservance, efficiency, and progress are the things the Pep Squad intends to carry out: Perseverance in practicing cold afternoons or hot afternoons; efficiency in all things the squad starts to do from making A's to giving notable Football Pep Squad Banquets; progress always and forever toward bigger and better goals.

In our meeting, Tuesday afternoon, Sydney Edwards and Ira Russell were elected yell leaders and Misses Carlisle and Moorhouse sponsors.

For the first time in history of the Knox City Pep Squad, we have the boys who do not play football in the squad. We certainly appreciate these loyal boosters; the deeper voices add "quality and quantity" to our yells and songs. Hear us at the next game, Friday, and note the improvement.

K. C. H. S.

As the weather was too muddy for physical education Wednesday morning, we had a pep rally. The Greyhounds gave three rousing cheers for the Pep Squad and of course the pep squad tried to raise the roof off the study hall in returning nine for Team and fifteen for Coach. The squad surely tried their best to show their loyalty for and confidence in the Greyhounds by yelling. If we didn't succeed come out and head us when we play Aspermont Friday and we'll show you just how much noise a Pep Squad can make.

GREYHOUND BARKS

(Conversation Overheard In Study Hall)

"Yeah, I'm takin' Solid Geometry. Why not? I just love figures, always did—I hear we're going to school on Saturday—that one about the two Scotchmen—which one did you say was professor Dean? Conference at eleven—what would you like? I don't think I'll like high school—um hum, I thought it was inspirational, especially when he introduced the teachers—you need to be waked up, this is time to register—I have a conflict, Algebra I and Home Ec.—Knox City High Charivari—Miss Moorhouse? Yep! I expect she wanted it to start so she wouldn't have to pick holes—no wayway she grinned! When Mr. Cloud asked why we wanted school to start, I kinda imagine I'll drop Spanish—we hear the Seniors are supposed to be divided—um hum Mr. Cloud—ask her what color Job's old blue turkey was—he didn't know! Don't mention Freshmen!"

FRESHMAN

The Freshman class of '31 is a very serious and solemn one. They never go running in the halls and never shoot teachers with paper balls.

They're behind the school with vim and punch and we'll have to admit they're a jolly bunch.

But a chance to question they never miss.

Why do they do it?—Oh, it's Freshman bliss.

S. E. Youngblood's truck turned over Tuesday night on the road to the Thurman ranch. Youngblood was delivering a load of cotton seed cake and due to the slick roads the loaded truck went into the ditch and turned over. S. E. escaped without injury.

If baby has COLIC

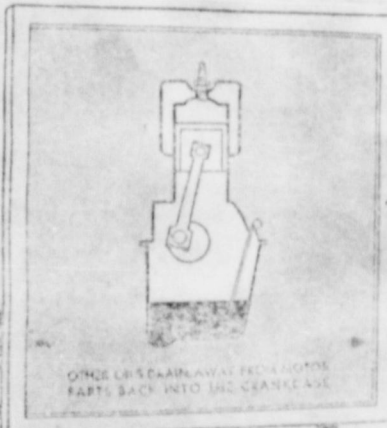

CASTORIA is the right. Colic No cause for alarm if Castoria is handy. This pure vegetable preparation brings quick comfort, and can never harm. It is the sensible thing when children are sick. Whether it's the stomach, the little bowels, colic or constipation, Castoria. When tiny tongues are red, or the breath is bad. Whenever there's a sign of gentle regulation. Children love the taste of Castoria, and its goodness makes it safe for frequent use.

And a more liberal dose of Castoria is always better for growing children than strong medicine meant only for adult use.

THE "HIDDEN QUART"

That Stays up in the Motor and Never Drains Away

PROVES ANY OIL WOULD BE BETTER OIL IF GERM PROCESSED

Other good oils lubricate working parts after the motor starts and oil is pumped from the crankcase through the motor, which takes several minutes. But Germ Processed Oil stays up in your motor at all times and lubricates working parts safely during the starting period... when almost half of all motor wear takes place! A "hidden quart" stays up in your motor and never drains away. Only Germ Processed Oil can give you this sure protection at all times, because only Germ Processed Oil can penetrate and combine with metal surfaces... an exclusive characteristic called "penetrative lubricity." So you can see... any oil would be better oil if Germ Processed!

But only Conoco makes Germ Processed Oil... for Conoco owns exclusive patent rights for North America. Don't be contented with oil that lacks the germ process. Stop at any station displaying the Conoco Red Triangle and fill with Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil. Save your motor from wear... keep it young and powerful!

TWO MILLION DOLLARS PAID IN WAGES AND SALARIES...

A REAL CONTRIBUTION TO WEST TEXAS' PROSPERITY

PROVIDING a livelihood for over 1,200 employees... many of whom are your friends and neighbors... the West Texas Utilities Company has contributed to the prosperity of West Texas, for the last three years, an annual payroll of over $2,000,000.00.

Two millions of dollars is a powerful agency toward the stabilization of business conditions... Its expenditure means a substantial amount of trade for retail stores, grocers, laundries, doctors, dentists, and commercial establishments of all kinds.

Only the continued expansion and development of the West Texas Utilities Company has made possible the building of this payroll. Through efficient management and economical operation, this company has expanded its facilities, reduced rates and stimulated the industrial and agricultural development of its territory. To carry forward these important projects, the assembling of a loyal, enthusiastic and hard-working corps of native West Texan employes has been a logical outgrowth.

These employes are genuinely concerned over their company's activities. They are working for West Texas... its growth and development... just as you are working toward the same goal. To co-ordinate our activities is the constant aim of the West Texas Utilities Company.

Every dollar you spend for electric service... and more!... has, for the past eight years, been re-invested in the future of West Texas. Payrolls alone, for construction and operation, are equal to 30c out of every dollar you spend for electric service—a sum which goes back into this "Land of Opportunity" in salaries and wages paid to West Texan employes.

Do You Know?
... that if you are an average user of domestic electric service you can increase your use and enjoyment of the comforts and conveniences of electric service by three times, and only increase your total bill by approximately 10c a day? This is made possible through a major transmission line electric system and an organization accustomed to doing large things in a large way.
