'HOUNDS TIED BY WOODSON; STEERS GET DISTRICT TITLE

The Knox City Greyhounds couldn't get going Saturday, and were held to a 6-6 deadlock by the Woodson Cowboys, who were all keyed up for their homecoming game.

The upset knocked the Greyhounds out of a three-way tie for the District 10 B championship, and automatically gave the title to the Rochester Steers, who had defeated Rule the preceding night.

The previous week, the Greyhounds had clobbered the Steers, 40-14.

Rochester will meet Turkey, 9-B champions, at Paducah tomorrow (Friday) night at 7:30 in the bi-district contest.

Knox City's only score in the Woodson game was on a one-yard plunge by quarterback Montie White, climaxing an 80-yard drive. Lindy Sanders tied it up for Woodson in the third period with a two-yard run.

Despite ending the season in third place in the district with a 3-1-1 record, the Greyhounds had a very successful season in their first year under mentors Ted Darland and Curtis Hines. At one time they were strong contenders for the district championship, and their 8-6 loss to Rule, on a night when several 'Hounds were crippled, was the game that cost them the title.

Ending the season with seven wins, two losses and one tie, the Knox City lads made 238 points and had only 72 points scored against them. Their total offensive yardage was 2,728, including 2,045 rushing and 683 passing, compared to their opponents' 1,390 yards, including 1,124 rushing and 176 passing. First downs were 125 for the Greyhounds, 77 for their opponents.

Quarterback White was one of the leading scorers in the area, making 13 touchdowns and eight extra points. White carried the ball 100 times for 623 yards, or slightly more than six yards per carry. He also threw 81 passes, 29 of which were completed for a total of 643 yards. Eight of his passes ended in touchdowns, two in extra points, and four were intercepted.

Fullback Larry White, whose specialty was line plunges for short yardage, was second in ground gaining for the Greyhounds. Carrying the ball 90 times, Larry made a total of 523 yards.

Leading pass receiver was end Don Johnson, who caught 14 aeriels for 283 yards and three touchdowns. Halfback Benton Bolin took nine passes for 271 yards and four TDs, and end Jim Anderson received seven for 104 yards, scoring twice.

Prospects for the Greyhounds next year are bright. The squad loses Montie White and Bolin from the starting line-up, and substitutes Laval Verhalen and Robbie Wall, but expected to be back are Joe Ed Glover and Joe Elledge, both of whom have seen some action in the quarterback spot, halfbacks Jimmy Phillips and J. Tom Graham, fullback Larry White, and many other Greyhound stalwarts including Johnson, Anderson, M. C. Vincent, Joe Tidwell, Horace Wheeler and Arnold Casillas.

Several boys who show promise will also be coming up from Junior High, including Danny Colwell, Simon Rocha, Eddie Williams and Bobby D. Burnett.

Coach Darland and assistant coach Hines expressed thanks to Greyhound fans this week for the support they have given the team. They also complimented the Greyhounds for their spirit and sportsmanship.

"It has been a genuine pleasure to work with this fine group of boys," Darland said, "and we are looking forward to the next football season."

The complete offensive record of the Greyhounds this season is as follows:

Community Thanksgiving Dinner To Be Served Friday Night

"Please get your tickets to the community Thanksgiving dinner in advance," Mrs. Ottis Cash and Kelton Tidwell, sponsors of the junior and senior classes, said Tuesday.

The sponsors said that even though ticket sales were not going as fast as expected, food for 500 people is being prepared. "But if we could know approximately the number to feed, the necessary 'last minute' chores would be easier for mothers of the class members as well as class members and sponsors," they said.

The dinner will be held from 6 to 9 p. m. Friday, Nov. 21, in the school cafeteria. Plates are $1 each, and the menu is turkey and dressing, giblet gravy, green beans, cranberry sauce, coffee, tea, pecan and pumpkin pie.

Several people have called the sponsors to have tickets delivered. "We are happy to bring them to you . . . and we'll be happy to deliver a plate to your home if you are unable to attend," sponsors said.

Quarterback Club To Meet Tonight

Members of the Knox City Quarterback Club will decide tonight (Thursday) whether to continue meeting or suspend activities until the next football season, president John Waddell said Wednesday.

Plans for next year will be discussed, Waddell said, and members will hear from the coaches about Greyhound prospects for 1959, Waddell said. He urged all members to attend.

Chairmen Named For Annual March of Dimes

The appointment of community chairmen to head the expanded March of Dimes campaign next January was announced today by Mrs. Billy Gene Johnston, county campaign director.

They are Mrs. H. C. Stone, Benjamin; Mrs. E. J. Jones, Truscott; Mrs. Arthur Horn, Gililand; Mrs. Mary Helen Bratcher, Vera; Mrs. Tip Albus, Rhineland; Mrs. John Broach, Goree; Mrs. John Peysen, Munday; and Mrs. W. J. Roddy, Knox City.

Besides polio, birth defects and arthritis are immediate new needs for which the March of Dimes will seek contributions, Mrs. Johnston said. At the same time, the organization will expand its basic research program in virus diseases and disorders of the central nervous system.

The experience and medical skills acquired in our battle with polio can be used with equal impact in these new fields, Mrs. Johnston said. It is because of these additional uses for which the money will be used that we feel citizens of our county will feel an increased desire to support the March of Dimes next January, the director added.

C of C Plans Santa Claus Parade

George Houston, chamber of commerce manager, announced this week that the C of C is making plans for a Santa Claus parade in Knox City on the afternoon of December 19.

The Knox City High School band will participate and Santa Claus will hand out some kind of gifts to the children. Detailed plans will be announced later. The C of C voted to have the Christmas parade at a meeting last Thursday morning.

Voting Places Set for County Cotton Vote

Community referendum committees who will be responsible for conducting the cotton marketing quota referendum throughout the county on December 15, 1958 have been selected by the Knox County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee. All members are farmers eligible to vote in the referendum. Many of the referendum committeemen are also elected community committeemen.

Arrangements for the establishment of polling places in all of Knox County's eight (8) cotton-growing communities have been completed. Notices showing the date of the referendum, the rules governing eligibility to vote, and the location of polling places have been posted in conspicuous places in the county.

All persons who, as landlord, tenant, or sharecropper, engaged in the production of upland cotton in 1958 are eligible to vote in the upland referendum, if there is any question about eligibility, farmers are asked to check with their County ASC Office.

The community polling places in the December 15 poll are as follows: Benjamin—Court House. Truscott—Browder Service Station.

Gililand—School. Vera—American Legion Hall. Goree—City Hall. Munday—City Hall. Rhineland—Gin Office. Sunset—School. Knox City—American Legion Hall.

TEACHERS MEETING

A meeting of the Knox County Unit of Texas State Teachers Association will be held in Vera at 7:30 p. m. Monday night. All teachers of the Knox City Schools plan to attend.

IN CRITICAL CONDITION

Mrs. George Stubbs remains in critical condition at the Knox County Hospital following another heart attack last Saturday. Her daughter, Mrs. Mozelle Kennedy of San Louis Obispo, Calif. came in Tuesday to be at her mother's bedside. Here also is another daughter, Mrs. H. C. Armstrong, of Fieldton.

Area Cotton Harvest 85 Percent Completed

High winds and rain early Monday ushered in this area's first spell of winter, and a heavy frost Monday night set the stage for the final push of harvesting the 1958 cotton crop.

The wind and a few tornadoes caused considerable destruction over this part of West Texas, but the immediate Knox City area escaped serious damage. Some tin was blown from sheet-iron roofs, but farmers report damage to the cotton crop was negligible.

With the harvest about 85 percent complete, the crop is turning out to be one of the best in the county's history, both quality and production wise, according to County Agent Roy England.

Good early season moisture and good harvesting weather, coupled with a late killing frost, have been much in the farmers' favor. England estimates the county's total yield this year will be about 34,000 bales, or 20 percent greater than the 1957 yield.

A report from gins over the county Monday showed a total of 29,710 bales ginned, compared to 1957 ginnings through January 15 of 28,813 bales.

The ginnings this year were as follows:

Gililand 1,122; Goree 3,182; Hefner 700; Rhineland 3,796; Paymaster, Munday, 1,902; Farmers Union, Munday, 7,852; Paymaster, Knox City, 1,966; Brazos Valley, Knox City, 3,690; and O'Brien 16,500, 5,500 bales of which was estimated to be Knox County cotton.

A report this morning from Knox City and O'Brien gins showed Brazos Valley 3,720, Paymaster 1,997 and O'Brien 16,775.

NATIONAL CONSERVATION LEADER WATERS S. DAVIS DIES NOV. 15

Waters S. Davis, Jr., nationally recognized agricultural leader and co-owner of League-Davis properties in Knox County, died at League City Saturday after an illness of several months. Funeral services were held at St. Christopher Episcopal Church in League City Monday at 3:00 p. m.

Treasurer and former president of the National Association of Soil Conservation Districts, which maintains its headquarters at League City, Davis received nationwide acclaim on many occasions for his forceful and unrelenting crusade to have every acre of land in America protected by a sound soil and water conservation program.

Surviving are his wife, Gladys D. Davis; one sister, Mrs. Catharine D. Gauss of New Canaan, Conn.; three sons, Waters S. Davis of League City, and a stepson, Lt. Pearson O. Porter of the U. S. Army; and three grandchildren.

Waters S. Davis, Jr. was born in Galveston in 1899. In 1914, he moved to New York with his mother and father. He attended Hotchkiss School and was graduated from Williams College in 1922, where he became a member of Delta Upsilon fraternity.

His family had significant influence on the history and economic development of the Texas Gulf Coast. League City was named after his maternal grandfather, the late J. C. League.

Davis' early business career began when he was made vice-president of a family enterprise, The Comet Rice Company. For a number of years, he held a seat on the New York Stock Exchange and was a member of the brokerage firm of Lapam and Davis.

In 1940, he returned to League City and assumed management of the family's ranch holdings, League-Davis Properties, which include extensive operations in timber, grain, cotton and cattle interests in Liberty, Knox, Galveston and McLennan Counties, Texas.

Davis' inquisitiveness led him to many experiments in the management of these lands. He brought in grasses from far-away places and planted them in test plots. Although discouraged by some experts, in a few years Davis had quadrupled his beef production. In the same manner, he proved to himself and neighboring ranchers that the management of available water was equally as important as soil fertility. He always insisted that the combination of these soil conservation measures applied to the land could help any farmer and rancher.

In 1947, the Texas Association of Soil Conservation Districts elected him president. He began writing "Texas Topsoil", probably the first newsletter devoted to the development of soil conservation districts.

In 1950 he was elected president of the National Association of Soil Conservation Districts, and served five consecutive terms. Davis was well known in the Benjamin-Knox City area, visiting here many times in connection with League Ranch business.

His mother was a member of the pioneer Tackitt family, early area settlers. Propps often present at old-timers' gatherings and pioneer celebrations, was active in farming and ranching up to the time of his death. His wife died in 1950.

Survivors include a son, O. D. Propps of Benjamin; a daughter, Mrs. W. R. Moore of Munday; five grandchildren; two brothers, Jack Propps of Electra, and A. E. "Buck" Propps of Knox City; and two sisters, Mrs. Lilly Jamison of Gililand and Mrs. Lem Coltharp of Green Tree, N. M.

Services were held at 3 p. m. Sunday in Gililand Baptist Church. Arrangements were under direction of Pinkard-Smith Funeral Home of Knox City.

Benjamin Man's Father Dies

Funeral services were held in Burnet recently for J. W. Barker, 82, former resident of Seymour. Mr. Barker, father of Jack Barker of Benjamin, died at his home in Burnet on November 4.

Born August 8, 1876 at Burnet, Mr. Barker moved to Mabel in Baylor County, in 1913, later moving to Seymour. He and Mrs. Barker sold their home in Seymour about a month ago and moved to Burnet.

Besides the wife and son he is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Doris Knight of Burnet and Mrs. Leo Taylor of Austin.

Felix Propps, Area Pioneer, Dies Saturday

One of this area's earliest pioneers, Felix H. Propps, 89, died Saturday at his home 3 miles southeast of Gililand.

Propps, born April 20, 1869 at Pleasanton in Atascosa County, moved to Baylor County in 1879 and spent his early boyhood on the Hash Knife ranch where his father was a foreman. He began farming and ranching in Gililand community in 1906.

New Methodist Parsonage Occupied

Rev. and Mrs. Oran D. Smith began moving "piggy back" into the new Methodist parsonage Wednesday. The new house has three bedrooms, two and one-half baths, wall-to-wall carpeting, and as members put it, "the realization of a dream."

Open house at the parsonage is planned for Sunday afternoon, November 30.

NORTHERN STAR WAREHOUSE IS DESTROYED BY FIRE

A fire early Thursday morning destroyed Northern Star Seed Farm's warehouse No. 5 at O'Brien.

The ruins were still burning later this morning and the loss had not been determined. Loss is expected to be considerable, however, since the warehouse contained all of this year's growth of the Northern Star breeding blocks hybrid seed in addition to several tons of fertilizer, poison, etc., and a new 1958 model Chevrolet truck.

The fire was discovered by a worker at the O'Brien gin, and is believed to have started from a truck that was driven into the warehouse to await ginning. The Knox City and Rochester fire departments answered calls to the fire, but were unable to save the warehouse.

Uncle Ben from Benjamin says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

As a general thing my old lady is fer womanhood, the P. T. A., her preacher, rummage sales, alarm clocks, hard work and the Constitution. Most everything else she's dubious about and one of the things she's most dubious about is me writing this little piece for the paper. She claims I didn't git much work done around the place afore I started it and now I ain't worth shooting.

I told her writing fer the paper give me a chanet to expand, sorter like them sack dresses gives a woman a lot of room to shake, rattle and roll if the occasion arises.

And my old lady ain't above censoring this little piece if she gits a chanet. Fer instant, I had somepun in here not long ago about some wimmen ought to wear two or three girdles on account of everything seemed to be in the wrong place. She cut that line out, Mister Editor.

Now I don't think no man is worth much 'till he gits hitched up with a good woman to tell him what to do. I ain't never saw a bachelor that could do nothing as good as a married man that has got a wife to tell him what to do and how to do it. James Buchanan, fer instant, was the only bachelor President we ever had and he was a awful flop.

I wouldn't trade my old lady off fer a dozen like Liz Taylor and ever onct a while I take her on a little trip to git her mind off my shortcomings. Fer instant, I took her on a fishing trip the other week, hoping it might improve her thinking along some lines. We stopped at one of them joints along the road to git a bite to eat and she saw some gal in there playing the juke box and doing the rumba and that's all the thinking she's done since. She said this gal wasn't dancing, just trying to wave goodbye to somebody without using her arms.

But anyhow, Mister Editor, it got her mind off me writing this little piece for the paper and I'm safe fer another spell. Come spring and I think I'll take her to see one of them bathing beauty contests and that ought to keep her thinking machine busy 'till way up in the summer, long enough fer me to figger up the next move. A feller has got to do a heap of long distance planning these days if he don't want to lose his old lady, and I shore don't want to lose mine. It's mighty hard to live up to a reputation with your neighbors and live one down with your old lady at the same time.

Yours truly,
Uncle Dan

HOSPITAL AND CLINIC—Pictured here is the artist's conception of the new $10-million Scott and White hospital and clinic which will be constructed in Temple, Tex. Announcement of the new hospital and clinic came at a meeting attended by more than 80 outstanding medical and business leaders from Texas and four other Southwestern states. Scott and White is a non-profit institution serving the Southwest.

New Hospital For Southwest Is Announced

Designed as the nation's most modern combined diagnostic clinic and hospital, this $10,000,000 building project has been announced by the board of the Scott and White Memorial Hospital of Temple, Texas. It will provide 279 beds and facilities for 50,000 clinic and hospital patients annually. An innovation for care of the critically ill will be a special observation unit on each hospital floor. A nursing station will be surrounded by a circle of 12 private rooms, where all patients will be under constant observation within a few steps of the nurses. This, it was said, will improve service for many of the critically ill.

Four hospital bed floors in the shape of a cross (A) and two clinic floors (B) rise above the first two floors and basement, which contain diagnostic and research laboratories, surgical and X-ray departments, rehabilitation therapies and other jointly used facilities. A Nurses Residence (C) will help meet the shortage of nurses in the Southwest by increasing student nurse enrollment from 60 to 85. The structure marked (D) is a future building for educational purposes.

The consulting architects, Elberle and Company of St. Paul, Minnesota, designed the new Mayo Clinic and specialize in planning combined diagnostic clinic and hospital facilities. Architectural working plans will be prepared by Wyatt C. Hedrick of Fort Worth.

Jay A. Phillips, of Houston, Chairman of the Scott and White Board of Trustees, said that the target date for starting construction is June 1, 1950. "We already have upward of $1,000,000 and are aiming at raising the balance over the next year and a half. As a non-profit institution Scott and White serves patients from all parts of the Southwest. This new center will be of tremendous benefit in providing people of moderate means throughout our region with a high quality of diagnosis and treatment at a reasonable cost."

Gilded okra pods, fruit, nuts, and small pumpkins surrounded the candle, which was made by Mrs. Hackney. Arrangements of mums were used throughout in the decorations.

Roll call was answered by each member giving an idea for the annual Spring flower show. The suggestions were recorded and will be used by the flower show committee when they begin making plans for the show.

Refreshments of coffee cake, whipped cream, toasted nuts, and coffee were served. Following the business meeting, members and guests went to Mrs. Reed's garage where arrangements, corsages, and horticulture specimens were displayed.

'Mail Early for Christmas' Is Postmaster's Plea

Postmaster Jeff Graham said today, "Christmas may seem quite a way off, but nevertheless, we're starting our annual 'Mail Early for Christmas' Campaign immediately, because there's every indication that the 1958 Christmas season will set an all time mailing record."

The Postmaster said further that right now is the time to plan your Christmas card and gift mailings. The first thing to do is to check your Christmas card list very carefully—make sure that each address particularly by on mail to larger cities includes full name, street and number, city, zone and state.

He went on to say that by a little advance planning, a lot of headaches can be avoided when the Christmas rush is on. The Postmaster suggests that you stock up now on heavy wrapping paper, sturdy corrugated cartons, strong cord, and paper adhesive tape, for use in securely packing and wrapping your Christmas gifts. Remember, also, that you can include your Christmas card or letter inside your gift package if you'll just add the appropriate First Class mail stamps to the postage for the package itself.

Be sure to use only First Class four cent, or seven cent Air Mail postage on your Christmas cards. All cards sent by First Class mail may include a personal handwritten message, whereas a signature only is authorized on cards that are mailed at the three cent, Third Class rate.

The Postmaster says it's especially important to include your return address on every Christmas card envelope. Besides being socially correct, this is a big help to both you and your friends in keeping your mailing lists up-to-date.

Through the fine cooperation of the public during recent years, Graham reports that great progress has been made in getting the Christmas mails through on time. He is making many advance preparations to handle the 1958 Christmas mail rush. "With over 170,000,000 people in the U. S. A. today, that means more Christmas mail than ever before, and that's why the Post Office needs your help in planning your Christmas mailings well in advance," the Postmaster said.

Christmas cards and gifts for most distant points should be mailed first, preferably well before December 10th, and those for nearby points should be mailed by December 15th, or at least a week before Christmas.

THE FANTASTIC STORY of MUSA-SHIYA THE SHIRTMAKER

(Also Sometimes Drygoods Selling)

If the shipping department of a factory had not made an error, the world would never have known of Musa-shiya the Shirtmaker and the most astounding advertising campaign in history would never have been launched.

Following World War I an English textile factory was getting back on a peacetime basis. In error it sent a full five year backorder of shirting material to Musa-shiya, a Japanese shirtmaker who operated a small shop in Honolulu. Business was poor and Musa-shiya was near bankruptcy, when the customs office informed him that certain bales of cloth and a fat bill for duties awaited his pleasure at the port of Honolulu.

When the little shirtmaker realized what had descended upon him, he asked for time and went into the silence for purpose of mental refreshment. Remembering a friend in a big mercantile establishment, he hid himself there and sought counsel. How in the name of the horned prophet of evil was he ever to get rid of all that English shirting? And in the meantime where was he to put it? His little box of a shop wouldn't hold one bale.

"You'll have to advertise," advised his friend. "Leave it to me. I'll have our advertising agents help you out."

This merely compounded the little Japanese shirtmaker's troubles. Advertising to him was an uncharted sea. The advertising agent called on Musa-shiya and suggested $300 as a modest starter. "Too-o-o much. Maybe I think thirty dollar plenty," said the shirtmaker. He was told that wouldn't even get him in print. The agent explained the costs of various advertisements and finally Musa-shiya agreed to try the plan and what was destined to be the most astounding and far reaching campaign in the history of advertising was launched.

Two column by five inch ads then started appearing regularly in the Saturday Honolulu Star-Bulletin. The ads were written just the way Musa-shiya talked—in colorful pidgen English which is used throughout the Orient. Here is an example of one of Musa-shiya's ads:

"Well here come storek again—but Musa-shiya, the shirtmaker, is able prepare. Wonderful accumulation of baby things in dry goods selling corner of Musa shop. Everything for the baby—especially diaper. Exclusive of storek, which find most easily, many persons not finding little shop of Musa-shiya the shirtmaker in King Street, Makai side, between fish market and river."

Tourists started sending copies of Musa-shiya's ads to their friends in many countries. Soon Musa-shiya was receiving orders from all over the world as well as doing a thriving business in Hawaii.

And that is the story of how a well planned, small advertising campaign made an unknown Japanese shirtmaker not only wealthy but world famous.

Your local newspaper doesn't promise to duplicate this story for its advertisers, but it does take your sales message into the homes of your customers where full and careful consideration is given your suggestions. Who knows, perhaps you too can be a Musa-shiya.

All praise and honor and glory belongeth unto our wonderful Lord who is the Great, the Mighty God, who made the heavens and the earth and all that is there in. He, who is great in counsel, mighty in work; He sheweth loving kindness unto thousands. David declared, "O Lord, how great are Thy works! and Thy thoughts are very deep." Let everything that hath breath praise Him for His greatness and His love that streams toward us. Let the heavens and the earth praise Him, the sea and everything that moveth there in give thanks and bless His Holy Name.

Farm and Ranch Notes

By Roy England, County Agent

In the livestock picture, in an unprecedented move, a major meat packer has announced payment of up to $1 per head to cattlemen for the cost of treating their cattle with systemic grub killers. This innovation, which becomes an important factor in a national effort to rid cattle of grubs and to eliminate the annual grub-fly problem, was announced by Entomologist Earle Raun at Iowa State College. Three other packers are reported considering similar offers.

Tests conducted by Iowa State College and others with the newly developed systemic livestock insecticides, showed cattle treated with these grub killers gained one-tenth to one-fourth pounds more per day than untreated cattle on the same feed. They returned $1.23 to $6.42 more per head when they were marketed.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, Texas — Texas state colleges and universities should concentrate on doing the best job possible of one thing—higher education.

To do this, some other things—like student medical services, intramural athletics and certain extension services—will have to be cut loose from tax support.

This is the gist of a report to be presented to the next Legislature by the Commission on Higher Education. Reached after prolonged study and discussion, the Commission's recommendations, if adopted, would be a significant and far-reaching step toward directing state spending on higher educational institutions toward "pure academic pursuits."

Commission will ask the Legislature for the largest appropriation in history, about $67,000,000 annually, for the state's 18 tax-supported colleges and universities. This would be $10,000,000 a year more than is presently provided. Extra money would be used to provide more teachers, better faculty salaries, improved library and research facilities.

On the other hand, the Commission turned thumbs down on the conducting of a number of extra-curricular activities at state expense. Things which the Commission recommends the Legislature NOT include in the higher education budget: (1) intramural athletics, (2) free or low-cost medical services for students, (3) the 17-year-old Cotton Research Council and the Rodent and Predatory Animal Control Service, (4) a bureau of business research at Texas Tech, (5) Texas A&M's Texas Transportation Institute and (6) operation of museums as a part of five schools.

LEGISLATIVE HORIZON — Beginning of the 56th Legislature is a little more than seven weeks away. Each week brings forward more touchy problems the lawmakers will have to wrestle.

Some are new; some have been chewed over in many previous sessions. Examples:

CITIES vs. CITY EMPLOYEES — Texas League of Municipalities recently voted to ask the Legislature to step out of the field of regulating city employees' salaries, hours and benefits. It's purely local concern, said the League. State Association of Firefighters and Police Officers Association took dim view of the proposal. Executives of the two groups met in Austin, promised a fight against "legislation which would erase all the progress of the past 20 years."

FARM IRRIGATION — Texas Farm Bureau delegates voted to ask the Legislature to make it a little easier for them to get a permit to use small ponds on their property for irrigation. At present, farmers may dam up to 200 acre feet and use it for household and domestic purposes. To use it for irrigation, they must get a special permit, reportedly difficult and expensive. Irrigation from farm ponds brought a hot contest between city and rural forces during the water legislation debates in the first special session, fall, 1957.

TRAFFIC SAFETY LAWS — Texas Safety Association, plus other groups, are pushing for legislation aimed at reducing road fatalities. Points in the program: (1) allowing for the results of "drunkmeter" (chemical tests for alcohol) tests to be introduced in court as evidence of driving-while-intoxicated cases, (2) stronger traffic law enforcement, (3) provisions for enough highway patrolmen to do the job, (4) changing speed laws to meet standards of new roads, (5) improved traffic courts, (6) a uniform drivers license law and (7) universal driver education.

MEDICAL PAYMENTS — People approved a constitutional amendment to allow for medical aid payments to persons who receive state welfare checks. Next Legislature will have to pass a new law to put this into effect. Question is, how big should payments be? Other states average $6 a month for adults, $3 for children. Such a scale in Texas would cost an estimated $8,000,000 a year.

ADVERTISING — Voters also approved an amendment allowing for state-supported advertising of Texas' advantages. But margin of approval was narrow, foreshadowing some wrangling over how big a thing the program should be.

MORE SCHOOL DAYS — Less fishing and more studying time may be in the offing for Texas school students.

State Board of Education voted to recommend to the Legislature that the present 9-month school year be extended to 10 months. Earlier this month the Hale-Aikin study committee decided to recommend 9½ months of schooling.

A spokesman for the Texas State Teachers Association said he thought teachers were generally favorable to a longer year. More will be known after TSTA has its annual convention in Fort Worth over the Thanksgiving holidays.

Among groups that already have expressed opposition are the operators of summer camps and resorts. A longer school year would mean less time for them to be in operation.

Other questions sure to be raised are the extra costs coming at a time of financial strain and the possible ineffectiveness of study during hot weather weeks.

But probably the sharpest division of thought will be between parents (for) and children (against).

CREDIT RATES UPHELD — State Insurance Department's drastically reduced credit insurance rates are back in effect again.

Fire Destroys Home Of Former Residents In Haltom City

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Brothers of Haltom City, formerly of Knox City and O'Brien, lost all their household goods and personal possessions last Wednesday afternoon when the house they were renting exploded and burned.

Details of the fire were not immediately learned, but in a telephone conversation to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Jackson, Mrs. Brothers said they had just recently moved into the house and the explosion was caused from a faulty gas water heater.

Brothers is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Brothers of O'Brien. The couples' children were in school at the time of the fire.

Bobby is manager of the grocery department of a Wyatt Food Store in Haltom City.

It was originally filed last June when V. F. Taylor was receiver for the case. Then there was a complicated shake-up and turnover in the liquidator-receiver's office, bringing in an almost all-new team.

Now the suit has been filed again with the name of the new receiver, C. H. Langdeau, substituted on the papers.

This probably is the granddaddy of all damage suits. It asks $15,000,000 damages. Defendants include such renowned names as Lloyds of London and Republic National Bank of Dallas.

CARD OF THANKS — With grateful hearts we want to thank our friends and neighbors for their many kindnesses while Buddy was in the hospital and since his dismissal.

Thanks for the flowers, gifts and visits which helped to cheer and entertain. We are deeply grateful for the love offering, and to the good doctors and nurses at the Knox County Hospital.
