Mammy Smith Parent-Teacher Chops Her Foot

Mammy Smith is in bed this week suffering with a cut foot which she got for herself in an effort to fix the broken pen.

As is usual with Mammy, she was rather early tending to the pen at her home Monday morning. She had made everything secure except the chicken pen and which, no doubt, would have soon been very secure had not the ax which Mammy was using for a hammer slipped in her hand. Mammy was driving a stob against a board which she had placed longways against the chicken pen. Her right hand was not in working order (since she hurt it the week before) and Mammy was using the ax in her left hand. As she went to the stob the ax turned in her hand and almost cut her toes off. The ax had just been sharpened so Mammy really did a big job with its edge.

The ax hit Mammy's left foot just above the toes. The arteries and veins of two toes were cut; really cut. She was given treatment immediately and passed the day Monday without much pain. Tuesday, however, she knew her foot was hurt all the week has spent her time in bed. She will have to stay off her foot for a good while, which is not a bright outlook for my.

It is interesting to know that Mammy wished the ax might have cut her right foot instead of the left. Upon being questioned, "Why?" Mammy replied, "well, my right foot is fine anyway and now my good one is lame too".

Parent-Teacher New Officers

At a meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association Tuesday afternoon new officers for the coming year were elected. Recommendations made by the nominating committee were unanimously accepted naming the following as officers for the association during the school year 1932-33: President, Mrs. T. S. Edwards, Vice-Pres. Mrs. J. A. Wilson, Secretary, Mrs. Cash, Treasurer, Mrs. Cloud.

These officers will take their place in September, until which time the association will be presided over by Mrs. J. A. Wilson.

The association was glad to have the report from Mr. Cloud in which he stated that the school would not stop under a term of 8 1/2 months this year, which fact, according to the state supervisor, the school will retain its affiliation.

Among the various reports made during the meeting was that from Mrs. Cash thanking the association for the two dictionaries which were bought for her room and Miss Freeman's room. These dictionaries proved to be so beneficial that the organization voted to buy another one for the 4th and 5th grades.

Mrs. Cash was selected as the official delegate to represent the association at the District Meeting which will be held in Quannah next week.

Before adjournment the members were reminded of the fact that Tuesday the 19th is "go to school Day" for Knox City. You remember it too, and go.

THE NEW STATION

On a visit to the Service Station that was formerly known as the Buck Propps Station we find many changes have taken place. Rudolph Hackfield has taken over the station and he has made so many nice improvements that one one hardly recognizes the place.

To begin with, Rudolph filled in the ground about the station with gravel, which, when it rains, will eliminate the mud holes. Second, the office of the Motor Company has been done away with, combining that office with that of the Service Station. The interior has all been repainted and reshelved and is now a very attractive place.

Of course you know something of the changes in the station given from this account, however, we suggest that you visit this station and see for yourself just how nice the place is and the service Rudolph gives.

There has been a lot of sickness in the community and our attendance at Sunday School has not been what we would like for it to be but we are hoping that next Sunday that every one will find their place in Sunday School and Church. Do not forget to be at the services at the Theatre building Saturday afternoon and Saturday night.

God wants us all to be good and do his will and we can best do that by being regular in our attendance to our churches.

We welcome you to the Methodist Church at all times. Jim H. Sharp

H. L. White was made a commissioner of the City of Knox City in the election Tuesday. He took the place vacated by S. M. Clonts.

TWO NEGROES IN JAIL FOR STEALING MEAT

Two negroes are in the Benjamin jail for the lifting of some twenty odd dollars of country cured meat last week and this. The meat was taken from J. W. Watson, around $12.00 worth; S. H. Howell, $5.00 or $6.00, and D. H. Henry some $2.00 or $4.00. The negroes are being held until grand jury in June.

Edwards and Huntsman Stars of Track Events

Knox City boys and girls with their teachers went to Benjamin last Friday and Saturday to the interscholastic league meet to return home late Saturday as the all-round championship school of the county. Knox City won this honor by a margin of some 40 points.

It is interesting to know that Monday representatives went to Benjamin for the two days "facing the difficult task of overcoming a substantial lead already piled up by Knox City" says the Munday Times. On Friday county finals in all track and field events in tennis were decided with a Knox City boy, Kenneth Edwards, being high point man of the day with a total of 18 points. Knox City's other outstanding man was Lelton Huntsman.

The Senior boys track resulted in favor of Knox City. The local school won a total of 55 points while the nearest opponent, Munday, won 38. Knox City's winnings in these events were as follows:

- 100 yard dash, Edmond Smith, second place.
- 220 yard dash, Edmond Smith, second.
- 440 yard dash, Howard Logan, second place.
- 880 yards dash, Lawrence Dutton, 3rd place.
- 1 mile run, Lelton Huntsman, 1st place.
- 1 mile relay, Martin Lowrey, Leon McBrayer, Howard Logan 1st place.

Javelin throw, Kenneth Edwards 2nd place.

Lucas-Hutchinson

Mr. Bert Lucas and Miss Callie Hutchinson, both Knox City people, motored to Oklahoma Thursday of last week where they were quietly married. They are living on the Finis Walker ranch.

Miss Hutchinson, with her parents moved from Knox City to Munday within the last year, however she is a Knox City girl, having spent most of her life here. Bert with his parents live at the Walker ranch, where the young couple are now making their home.

Both Miss Hutchinson and Mr. Lucas are fine young people and the community is joined by the Herald in wishing them much happiness.

Mr. Russel Boyd is making some improvements in the office of his Service Station this week. Tuesday he was engaged in a painting job, however, the sand has insisted on blowing all week so we don't know just how Russel is getting along with his painting. Anyway, we know that Russel will improve the appearance of his office even if he has to wait on the sand.

Mrs. Vance Favor and children spent Monday in Goree.

Hospital Notes

Mr. Stanfield ... returned to his home in Rochester.

Master Bryson Laird returned to his home in Benjamin Monday. Miss Cleo Forley returned to her home in Rochester Sunday.

COMMANDER EARP'S VIEWS ON THE ADJUSTED SERVICE CERTIFICATE

Austin, Texas.—The mind of the general public is somewhat confused regarding the proposal to pay off the balance of the Adjusted Service Certificates held by veterans of the World War, due to the fact that the special interests which are opposing the passage of this legislation have attempted to mislead the people into believing that the ex-soldiers are asking Congress for some new benefit and not for the payment of a just debt which has been acknowledged by the Government.

In order to clarify the situation and to alleviate the criticism that has been directed at the American Legion and the veterans of the World War, V. Karl Ewart, Commandant of the American Legion, Department of Texas, has issued the following statement:

"More than 100,000 veterans of the World War in Texas hold Adjusted Service Certificates. These certificates are referred to those who are attempting to confuse the public mind as 'bonus certificates' and do not represent a bonus, subsidy or gratuity. They represent an honor on Tuesday, April 7, 1932. Pearl Keaton, pastor ...

"From our surveys we have found that more than 93 per cent of the money borrowed by veterans a year ago was used for beneficial purposes, to pay past due bills, buy food and clothing, relieve indebtedness on homes, farms and business concerns, and that less than 7 per cent of it was squandered or used for other than beneficial purposes. Our survey likewise reveals the fact that more than 6,000 homes, farms or small businesses owned by veterans were saved from foreclosure as a result of this law. SKIPPER SHAVER SAYS HE WILL NOT ACCEPT THE SECOND HALF SCHEDULE

According to the Munday Times, the Brazos Valley Baseball League will begin the season play on ... the 17th. The teams in the league met Monday of last week at the Sun set school where plans for the tournament were perfected. Teams entered, says the Times, are Munday, Knox City, Kluisland, Sunset, Westert, Goree, Rochester and Bomart, with Seymour and Treacott asking for admittance into the league in case of any vacancy.

Knox City failed to get a representative at Sun set for this first meeting. Manager Shaver says the local team will accept the schedule as arranged, or the first half of the tournament, but will not accept the second half, and if accepting the first half means the acceptance of both ... neither will be accepted. The long residence in the ... and her profession as public school teacher has enabled Miss Harris to develop a wide and intimate acquaintance among the citizenship of Knox. For the last two years she has been teacher of primary grades at the Hefner school, and prior to that taught for a term at the Hutto school in Haskell.

Miss Harris was born 25 years ago near Wener in Haskell county just across the line from Knox. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Harris, who now reside on their place southwest of Munday, are well known among the pioneers of the section.

Miss Harris graduated from the Grammar and High schools of Munday and spent two years in the University of Oklahoma and one summer in a normal school of that state in preparation for the teaching profession. Education and experience have given her opportunity to study and deal in a practical way with matters of administration helpful in the discharge of the duties of the place for which she has become a candidate.

"I am offering for the office of county treasurer believing that I am thoroughly qualified by ability and practical experience to serve efficiently", she asserted. "My pledge, in the event of election, is to devote all that I have of ability, experience, time and energy to administering the affairs of the office promptly, economically and courteously.

"I shall endeavor to discuss my candidacy personally with each citizen before the primary. My request to them, and of those I am unable to see personally, will be only that they give my candidacy open minded consideration and that they vote for me if they feel that I merit the office."

The editor, with Mrs. Della Short and Miss Addie Short, spent a most enjoyable hour or more Sunday afternoon in the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Brown are enjoying having two of their daughters with them this week. They are Mrs. O. B. Paulsen, Mrs. Port Worth and Mrs. Chester Bowdler and daughter Maryland Goss.

Monday G. W., the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Brown, was proudly exhibiting his bride, Pauline, Sunday.

We found the Brown family a very happy group.

We are reminded that April the 19th which is Tuesday of next week is "Go To School Day" in Knox City. Everyone, especially the parents of the children in school, are urged to visit at the school some time during the day. Each class will keep a register and request each visitor to record his or name. A prize of $1.00 is being offered to the grade having the largest number of visitors for the day.

An interesting program is underway for the parents and all visitors at the school at four o'clock. It is hoped that the study hall will be full of guests.

One of our local preachers, Mr. Sharp, attended and spoke at the Bonehead club in Haskell, Texas.

at noon. We were just wondering if the preacher was not, secretly, a member of this club.

Incidentally, the other local preacher, Stovall, although denied having any information of this club left Knox City early enough Tuesday morning for Haskell, to get there for lunch. We were just wondering could it be possible for Knox City to have two secret Bonehead members?

The crowd evidently had a good time. Preacher Stovall and family, Press Hitchcock and family and Mr. Horton and family all enjoyed supper of bacon, onions and etc on the creek west of town Monday evening. Precher says Horton was sick Tuesday morning because of a certain large onion that was missing from the lunch, or was it that pound of bacon they couldn't find. Anyway, Preacher Stovall is prepared to give anyone details of the story.

The society was glad to have Mrs. J. C. Mann present.

The school trustee election Saturday resulted in putting into office Miller Herring, H. M. Warren, G. D. McCarty and John Dutton. The outgoing trustees are H. E. Wall, S. L. White, G. W. Hammons and Miller Herring. Mr. Herring was appointed to fill a vacancy this last year and Saturday was elected to fill that place for another term.

Dewey Dorden spent the past week with his sister in Weatherford. He took Gordon Acker as far as Mineral Wells where Gordon spent a weekend with his parents. Mr. Acker also took Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Hamm as far as Millsap where they spent the weekend with her sister. Mrs. Hamm remained in Millsap for this week, Mr. Hamm returning to Knox City with Mr. Darden and Gordon.

Lee Smith has bought the place formerly known as the Hutton place. Since the Hutton family moved, however, the house was most nearly destroyed by fire and has been standing some two months and more in a very dilapidated state. We are glad to see that Mr. Smith is tearing down the old building and will in a short time no doubt, have the ground cleared up and in a good condition. It will certainly be an improvement in the appearance of main street.

Little Miss Myra Jean Hitchcock returned home Monday from Haskell where she has been some four weeks. She accompanied a group on a picnic Monday afternoon spending the night with Mrs. Sigvall. Myra Jean is this week with her grand mother in O'Brien.

Reverend Tucker of Haskell appeared at the local hospital Tuesday in order to help load out Mr. Stanfield. He was returned to his home. Tucker visited with different ones at the hospital including all authorities.

Mrs. D. W. Davis entertained last Friday night with a Bridge Dinner honoring her house guests, Mrs. McLarry, Mrs. Pendergrass and Mrs. Leone Davis.

The menu consisted of baked turkey with all delicious trimmings finished with lemon chiffon pie. It was served buffet style to six tables of guests. The appointed tables bore emblems of spring which added zest to the dinner. Following, games of Bridge were engaged in.

"If the balance of these certificates should be paid now in cash it would bring to Texas a total of $96,655,800, or an increase of $16 per capita circulation of Texas. If the balance of these certificates are not paid before maturity the interest charged on the 50 per cent loan will almost consume the balance of the certificates.

"No one will dispute the fact that an increase of $16 in the per capita circulation would greatly relieve the depression in Texas. No one will dispute the fact that there are more men out of employment now than were out of employment a year ago and that many of these are veterans who hold these certificates.

"Knowing these things to be true, knowing that this is a just obligation that is now due and knowing that it can be paid by the government without an increase in the taxes, and knowing that this would be a relief measure that can be passed by Congress that will really reach down to the common people, for the benefit of the common people and not for the benefit of the special interest, the American Legion of Texas does not believe that it is unjust to ask Congress for a law to authorize the payment of the balance of these certificates at this time.

"The people generally of Texas should study this matter carefully and support the American Legion in its endeavor to bring about this relief measure which will benefit the common people of the entire nation."

The policy of making direct Government loans is a temporary one. It is justified in view of the great emergency and distressed conditions now prevailing. It is not intended as a long-range program. For the time being, individual loans were made necessary by the existing situation. As loans were being made to banks, insurance companies and railroads, it was only fair that individual loans should be made to farmers, especially as farm conditions were brought about by mistaken economic policies that had bled the farming sections white and destroyed the purchasing power of agriculture. For this reason I offered the amendment in the House which, blended with the Smith amendment in the Senate, made these individual loans possible as a part of the general measure. If they were to be made to the corporations, why not to the farmers?

What we need is fewer debts, not more debts. We need better commodity prices so that debts may be paid. Of course in the meantime it is necessary to have a temporary loosening of credit and a correction of the control of the circulating medium so that a sufficient amount of money will be available.

We need to build on a solid foundation. We need to remove the discriminatory laws that have existed against agriculture in our tariff and freight rate structures, but we must seek new markets, which will help us in solving our own problems.

I have introduced a measure to use a portion of the unexpended balance of the crop production loan funds for the purpose of establishing a research laboratory located in the South, to be devoted primarily to the search for new uses for cotton and the utilization of linters, hulls, seed, cottonseed meal and waste and semi-waste products of the farm. Some work is already being done in the central West in connection with a plantain, corn stalks, wheat labor-saving bars, and semi-waste in Europe. No part of the products of these farms may be used for anything but the purpose of the experiment.

What we need is a better price for farm products. This will do much to improve general economic conditions. These cannot be restored until agriculture is restored. This is basic. In this connection, I want to acknowledge the fine cooperation of Progressive Texans, Inc., and leading citizens of Texas and other states in endeavoring to get this program started.

I also want to express appreciation of the cooperation of Southern Mills and women in using cotton. Facts wherever it is possible to do so.

TODAY AND TOMORROW

By Frank Parker Stockbridge

How many wage earners or salaried employees in this country have stayed on one job as long as twenty years? Probably more than most people realize, but very few equal the record of three employees of a New York lead pencil manufacturing concern. One of them, the credit manager, has worked for the same company for fifty-four years, one of their salesmen has been with them fifty years, and one of the factory men fifty-five years. All three are in good health and still in active service.

In this same company the average length of service of the traveling sales force is over twenty years. Twelve salesmen, still active, have a total of four hundred and eight years of service, an average of thirty-four years each.

Examples like that help correct our idea that we are essentially a restless people constantly jumping from job to job. These folks who stay on one job continuously may not get so much excitement out of life, but they certainly get more solid satisfaction and security, and if they are thrifty they are very likely to leave larger estates to their heirs than any of the job-jumpers.

It is difficult for Americans to grasp the full extent of the anti-Jewish prejudice which exists in many parts of Europe. In Germany the Fascist movement led by Adolph Hitler has a part of its revolutionary program the expulsion of all Jews from Germany, and Hitler showed enough strength at the recent election to cause great alarm among the Jewish population.

I have a Jewish friend whose daughter not long ago married a young Jewish banker of Berlin. She wrote home the other day that her husband was closing up his business in Berlin and they were moving to Amsterdam in Holland, and many of the other bankers of Germany were looking for more friendly countries to move to.

When we consider the position occupied by Jewish merchants and bankers in America, the honor paid to two great Jews, Cardozo and Brandeis, who are justices of our Supreme Court, it is not surprising that Jews like Edward Filene of Boston and the late Julius Rosenwald of Chicago, are held, any such program as Hitler's seems incomprehensible to us.

Henry Ford once told me the secret of making money. It is to manufacture something which everybody wants, make it cheaper than anybody else can make it keep on improving the product and reducing the cost of making it, and cut down the retail price every time the cost is cut.

That is a rule that has never failed to work, whether the product be automobiles, or newspapers, or bread. The lower the price, the wider the market.

I was reminded of this the other day when I saw a notice that the company manufacturing the highest priced automobile in the world has closed its American factory and stopped trying to do business in this country, while Mr. Ford is announcing a new car which will be cheaper than anything he has yet put out.

The old idea that money can be made only by selling high-priced commodities to the wealthy is responsible for a great deal of our present economic difficulty.

I am inclined to agree with Prof. Henry G. Russell, of one of the Hartford high schools, who told the Eastern Commercial Teachers Association the other day that the principal thing the matter with our social and economic order today is an excess of greed. Dr. Russell warned the Teachers' Convention that young people must be taught the dangers of avarice.

"Get the money" without regard to how it is got, seems to be the motto of an increasingly large number of young men and women. It is this idea, fostered by "success" stories, in print and to a very large extent in the movies that it at the bottom of the whole system of racketeering. Organized crime is simply organized greed.

It is still true, as Saint Paul wrote nearly two thousand years ago, that the love of money is the root of all evil. Not money itself, but the love of money. And the only possible corrective to the tendency to put money above everything else is teaching our whole method of teaching the young, so that they will learn that it is possible to live happily without much money—even more happily for most people, than if they had money.

The type of normal human beings whose health is always perfect and whose nerves are always calm seldom or never develops leaders of men of genius, according to a report of Illinois Research Laboratories, where scientist have been studying human types for several years.

It is the people who are nervous uneasy and always looking for something to do who take the lead in new business enterprises and become the geniuses of art and literature this report suggests. Tall men are much more likely to be of that type than the short, stocky ones. The difference arises largely from physical causes. The internal chemistry of one type is much more variable than of the other. And this leadership type is much more subject to illness which have their origin in nervous instability and blood changes, than are the more placid people.

Perhaps the quiet folks who never do anything except follow the normal routine of life are more contented than the other kind, but they don't have half as much fun!
