Rev. J. H. Sharp Becomes Pastor Here

LINCOLN'S GETTYSBURG ADDRESS

Reverend Mann Goes To Aspermont

Members of the Knox City Methodist church were greatly surprised Monday when the knowledge of Reverend Mann's move to Aspermont was made known. Reverend J. H. Sharp becomes pastor here.

Brother Mann and his wife and two children have been here two years and the board of stewards of the church had asked for their return another year. Their move to Aspermont, they state, is also a surprise to them.

The church has gotten along nicely under the leadership of Brother Mann and without a doubt after his departure, his quiet, steadfastness will be missed by all members of the church. Mrs. Mann has meant a great deal to the church, the Missionary Society and the children's department of the church. She not only has been a most capable leader for the devotionals of the Missionary Union but has also, equally as capable, adapted herself to the instruction of the "Tiny tots", and to their much advantage.

Both have been towering characters in the town for Christ, and a wholesome, useful life, giving unstintedly of their time, and talents.

Reverend J. H. Sharp, former pastor of the Aspermont church, becomes pastor of the Knox City Methodist church this week. He will be in charge of the services Sunday.

Brother Sharp's family consists of himself, his wife and five children. Three of the children are of school age while the other two are under school age. Brother Sharp is a man about the age of the outgoing pastor, Reverend Mann. Several members of the local church have heard Brother Sharp preach on different occasions and describe him as being very enthusiastic.

It is hoped that all members of the church will be present Sunday and help the new pastor start off the new year in a big way.

TO HAVE SERVICES ONCE A MONTH

The members of the Knox City Church of Christ enjoyed two good services at their church Sunday, the Reverend Bryant of Abilene conducting them. Brother Bryant is attending Abilene Christian College and has been retained to preach here regular each third Sunday at both the morning and evening hours.

This church was very happy to have a number of the Methodist people to attend the service Sunday night. All visitors are welcome and the membership is glad to have the members of other churches, in the absence of their pastors, to attend services here.

We are expecting Brother Potrer Wilhite to be with us Sunday and will be glad to have any visitors who wish to hear him be present. It is hoped that the regular members will all be present.

CHAFFIN-PANNELL

Two of the best people of Union Grove, reports J. F. Griffith, were married when Carl Chaffin and Miss Francis Pannell were united in marriage Saturday, November 7th.

The wedding took place in the Knox City Baptist parsonage, Reverend Stovall pronouncing the ceremony.

Both the bride and groom are Union Grove residents, both having been reared in that community. They are widely known and have a host of friends who wish them joy and a happy, prosperous future.

Miss Pannell, now Mrs. Cahlin, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Pannell.

Mr. and Mrs. Mann of San Saba came Wednesday to see Reverend and Mrs. Mann. Reverend Mann moved to Aspermont Thursday, the Reverend Sharp moving in the local parsonage the same day.

Miss Bernice Swift was home from Abilene over the past weekend.

On November 19, 1863, a part of the Gettysburg battlefield was dedicated as the burial place of those who had lost their lives there in defense of the Union. President Lincoln was present on the occasion, and after the ceremonies had been performed and after Edward Everett had delivered his oration the President uttered a short address consecrating the living to the great task left by the dead heroes. This address has since become famous, being framed and hung up in Oxford University, as a classic, is as follows:

"Fourscore and seven years ago our fathers brought upon this continent a new nation, conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal. Now we are engaged in a great Civil War, testing whether that nation or any nation so conceived and so dedicated can long endure. We are met on a great battlefield of that war. We are met to dedicate a portion of it as the final resting place of those who here gave their lives that the nation might live. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this. But in a larger sense we cannot dedicate, we cannot consecrate. We cannot hallow this ground. The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here have concentrated it far above our power to add or detract. The world will little note nor long remember what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here. It is for us, the living, rather to be dedicated here to the unfinished work they have thus so nobly carried on. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us that from those honored dead we take increased devotion to the cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion; that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain, that the nation shall, under God, have a new birth of freedom and that the government of the people, by the people and for the people shall not perish from the earth."

Thanksgiving Day 1931

By the President of the United States of America

A PROCLAMATION

We approach the season when, according to custom dating from the garnering of the first harvest by our forefathers in the New World, a day set apart to give thanks even amid hardships to Almighty God for our temporal and spiritual blessings. It has become a hallowed tradition for the Chief Magistrate to proclaim annually a national day of thanksgiving.

Our country has cause for gratitude to the Almighty. We have been widely blessed with abundant harvests. We have been spared from pestilence and calamities. Our institutions have served the people. Knowledge has multiplied and our lives are enriched with its application. Education has advanced, the health of our people has increased. We have dwelt in peace with all men. The measure of passing adversity which has come upon us should deepen the spiritual life of the people, quicken their sympathies and spirit of sacrifice for others, and strengthen their courage. Many of our neighbors are in need from causes beyond their control and the compassion of the people through out the nation should assuage their security over this winter that they too may have full cause to participate in this day of gratitude to the Almighty.

Now, therefore, I, Herbert Hoover, President of the United States of America, do hereby designate Thursday, November 26, 1931, as a National Day of Thanksgiving, and do recommend that our people rest from their daily labors and in their homes and accustomed place of worship give devout thanks for the blessings which a merciful Father has bestowed upon us.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington this 3rd day of November, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and thirty-one, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and fifty-sixth.

HERBERT HOOVER

(Seal)
By the President:
Henry L. Stimson
Secretary of State.

Mr. and Mrs. Price Rees of Sweet water were here over the weekend with his mother, Mrs. C. J. Rees.

How To Pay Your Taxes

In order to make clear the privilege granted under the new law, called Senate Bill number 311, in paying 1931 or "new" taxes, we are giving this information so you will be able to avail yourselves of the plan most suited to your needs.

1931 taxes may be paid by either one of two methods. If the half-payment is adopted then the first half of your property taxes, plus all of your poll taxes, must be paid not later than November 30. The last half of the property tax can then be paid on any date before July 1, 1932. If this last half is not paid by June 30, 1932 then it becomes delinquent. July 1, 1932, and a penalty of 10 per cent attaches and the tax draws 6 per cent interest until paid.

If you do not wish to pay half of your taxes by the end of November then you may adopt the usual plan of paying not later than January 31, 1932. No penalty or interest will be added if by that date. February 1, 1932, all property taxes and poll taxes become delinquent and a penalty of 10 per cent attaches to each and the tax bears 6 percent interest until paid.

1930 taxes became delinquent October 16, 1931, and cannot be divided in halves. House Bill No. 80, which is now being considered by the Supreme Court provides that a taxpayer may pay his taxes without penalty and without interest if paid any day between October 16 and January 31, 1932. However, it should be noted that the Attorney-General has ruled that particular part of the interest accrued from February 1, 1931, until October 15, 1931, must be paid. This is the matter the court is asked to decide.

All who can manage to do so will save money by paying their 1930 taxes before the end of next January, as all interest and all penalties left off by the Bill are added February 1, 1932, and on the 1930 taxes from October 16, 1931, until paid. The penalty here is 5 percent of the tax and the interest is 6 percent per annum.

Automobile license for 1932 will probably be ready on December 1, 1931. Please note that a motor vehicle which has not been registered for 1931 cannot be registered in December for 1932. It would either have to be registered for the month of December first before securing the 1932 tag, or wait until January 1, and then get the license.

Mrs. Clem Ball is sick this week.

Visiting for Church Service

In the absence of the pastor of the church, members of the Methodist church attended services at other churches in town at both the morning and evening services this past Sunday.

A large number went to the Baptist church. One of the most attractive features of the services at this church is the song service. The choir was completely filled Sunday morning and the enthusiastic, heart-felt singing thrilled every Methodist who heard it. A special quartet was by Press Hitchcock, W. W. Hyde, Reverend Stovall and Mr. Dean. This was fine.

And a second attractive feature of the Baptist service, is the wide awake, entergetic, ever ready, willing and pleasant preacher, Reverend Stovall. He preached a good sermon. It is easy to enumerate other attractions of our local Baptist church but we will suffice to name only one other; that, the friendly spirit of the membership and the hearty welcome given all.

These three features were so enjoyed Sunday morning by a number of the Methodist who attended the Baptist church that they went back again Sunday night.

Again the choir was quickly and easily filled and the singing was great. Had it have been at all customary, the listening attendance would have given the choir a "big hand" at the close of every song.

Again a special number was given; this by Mr. Hitchcock, Mrs. Gordon Acker, Reverend Stovall and Horace Finley. However, the better special was given following the pastor's report of the recent State Convention, by Mr. Hitchcock and Mrs. Acker.

All of both services were fine and Methodist members attending feel it a privilege and a blessing in being able to worship with the Baptist people on this day.

THE RAIN

Knox City had rain Monday and Tuesday night totalling about two and one half inches. It is fine on the wheat crops and is setting the bottom season for the crop next year.

Monday afternoon and night it looked like the town would wash away. Water stood several inches deep in large areas over the entire town however, Tuesday morning found the sun shining and most of the water out of sight.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Dalton and children spent Sunday with his father in Oklahoma.

David Jones Dies Here

VETERAN OF BRITISH ARMY

David Jones, age about 22 died Tuesday morning near three o'clock in the Knox County Hospital, death resulting from blood poison developed from a nail stick in one foot.

Mr. Jones was a veteran in the world war, having served in the British Army. His parents still live in England but he has a brother some place in Ohio. The body of the deceased is being held in the home of the local undertaker, E. Q. Warrent, waiting word to be received from the brother.

The deceased, with Mr. Ray Garfield, his pal, left Chicago about two months ago, in order, they said "to keep out of the bread line." They had never seen any cotton but both had heard about it and believed they could pick enough to live on, hence they came to Texas. Somewhere they got the two arrived in Knox City.

On the date of their arrival here the weather seemed much gained, it having just come a very big rain, and the two could not pick cotton.

Feeling very blue, but with a determination to get along and in the right manner, they sought the acquaintance of the chief of police, G. N. Hardberger. They desired this acquaintance, they said, "so if anything happens, it would not be placed upon them, because they were strangers."

Mr. Hardberger gave the two permission to sleep in the city hall after thinking over the situation decided to learn more about the boys he took them to the cafe for supper where both ate heartily and with much appreciation. They then ordered "do anything" for Mr. Hardberger or the city, "any kind of work." Their problem was discussed by the city officials and the boys were put to work with Mr. Jim Stevenson, being given in return, their board.

With the clearing of the weather, the two men got work from Mr. Henry Hutchinson where both worked until two weeks ago when David stepped on a nail and was brought to the doctor. His foot got no better and he was finally placed in the hospital. Here he received the best of treatment, of which he spoke often and with much appreciation. Flowers were placed in his room each day by either the nurses or a citizen of the town. The city officials visited him regularly, finding him always pleasant, cheerful and very appreciative. He stated several times while in the hospital "I could have no better treatment were I a millionaire in Knox City."

Had Gift Bible

Among his few possessions here was found a small Bible which had been given him by a Presbyterian Sunday School for a long unbroken attendance record. This find was the answer to the honest, integrity and appreciativeness with which Mr. Jones conducted himself during his little while in Knox City.

Mr. Ray Garfield, friend of the deceased, is still working for Mr. Hutchinson.

C. H. Keck spent Tuesday night in Seymour, returning home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Russell of Des Moines Iowa are here visiting his father, J. E. Russell.

FINISHING TURKEYS FOR THE MARKET

W. E. Jones, County Agent

"Turkeys must have feed to produce flesh, fat and bones. Grain makes fat, but grain alone will not produce to best finish, they must be supplemented by meat scraps or by milk to produce flesh and by bone meal to grow bones. A good ration to feed for four weeks previous to market to secure good finish for the birds is: 50 pounds ground maize, corn or kafari 20 pounds ground wheat or shorts 10 pounds meat scraps 4 pounds bone meal 1 pound salt.

"If there is plenty of milk to feed the turkeys, the meat scraps may be left out. But the mash must be available in the hoppers all the time and water vessels should be near by and kept filled. In addition 50 pounds of mash moistened with water or milk to every 100 birds might be fed daily. And at night all the birds that they will eat should be fed, but care must be taken not to have too much of the whole oats or barley.

"Turkeys fatten more quickly when confined to a small area, but since birds may refuse to eat if confined too suddenly so it is best to accustom them to feeding near the house before penning them.

"At selling time the turkey raiser would get better prices if he would divide his flock into four groups, selling the best birds to save as orders; penning and selling the finished ones; saving for further raising and later marketing; the small or late hatched birds, the ones having pin feathers and lack of shaping, and eating or culling the deformed or crooked breasted members of the flock.

"It pays well to grade this way and nobody need be in a hurry to sell their unfinished turkeys on the Thanksgiving market, because eight years out of the past eleven the Christmas market has been as good or better than the earlier one."

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Youngblood and Vernon Bridges left her Sunday morning with Mrs. Vernon Bridges for Dallas for medical advice. They returned home Monday. Mrs. Bridges is doing well as can be expected.

Greyhounds will Chew Bobcats

GREYHOUND BARKS

Friday the 20th Rule will come to Knox City to play the Greyhounds. This will be one of the best games of the season. Rule is supposed to have the best team they have ever had, and judging from their record, they do. Among the teams they have beaten this year are Munday and Hamlin.

Charles McBeath, who plays in the backfield for the Greyhounds, has been sick all week and probably will not get to play in the game Friday. Edmond Smith, a guard for the Greyhounds, was hurt in practice Munday afternoon and he will likely be out of the line up Friday. With these two men missing, the Coach has had to make several shifts in the line up. Donald Withrow has been running at center. How the team will be lined up Friday, all depends on how things go in practice this week. If some of the boys on the sick list do not get back in shape before Friday the team will have a fight plenty hard to hold Rule down.

BEAT RULE
KNOX CITY BEATS SAGERTON 13 TO 0

Last Wednesday, November 11th, the Greyhounds won their fourth game of the season by defeating the Sagerton high school team. The Greyhounds did not expect a very hard game from Sagerton, but they were given a scare. It was a hard fought football game, and in the first half, it looked like the game would end in a scoreless tie.

The Greyhounds made their first touchdown in the third quarter. Coach Charles McBeath led the Greyhounds to a 13-0 victory. Knox City scored again in the fourth period when Dented intercepted a Sagerton pass on the 30 yard line and ran for a touchdown. On the try for points, Dented kicked the point, giving Knox City a 13-0 lead. Although the game was almost over, Sagerton had not given up. On the kick off a Sagerton man tried to kick the ball on his own 20 yard line, started some beautiful broken back running to carry the ball back to Knox City's 20 yard line. The play ended with the ball in Knox City possession on about the fifty yard line.

SENIOR PLAY REHEARSALS BEGIN NEXT WEEK

The Senior class met last Thursday, November 12th, and by a large majority, decided to give the Senior play before the Christmas holidays. The Juniors have been threatening to get up their play before the holidays also, but the Seniors are not worrying. You know, it is characteristic of small children to want to copy their elders.

A committee was appointed to select the play, and rehearsals will begin next week.

F. F. T. OFFICERS ATTEND DISTRICT MEET AT ABILENE

Mrs. A. G. Guy, the vocational agriculture teacher of the Knox City High School, and advisor of the F. F. T., carried some of his boys to the F. F. T. meeting that was held at Abilene last week. The first part of the program was the initiation of the Green Hands, sponsored by the Cisco Chapter. The initiation was very interesting to all present. Larence Dutton, the treasurer of our present chapter, was among the group that was initiated.

After the initiation the subject of organizing a district F. F. T. was discussed. Almost every one was in favor of organizing a district meet. The officers were then elected and the meeting adjourned.

Those who made the trip with Mr. Guy were Coach Dean, president John Hyde, vice-president Wilson Thompson and Larence Dutton, treasurer.

JAMOSSET

"Welcome Englishmen!" These were the first words of welcome which the Pilgrims heard in this country. They were spoken one day in the Spring of 1621 by Samoset, a representative of the Pemaquid tribe. Samoset had learned the phrase from another Indian who had been taken to England when a small boy.

Samoset taught the settlers how to plant corn, using fish for fertilizer, how to hunt wild game and raise many vegetables which were unknown to the white men.

He was of so much assistance that in the Fall of 1621 the Pilgrims reaped a bountiful harvest and set aside a day to give thanks to God. A huge feast was prepared to celebrate the day, and to this feast the Indians came bringing wild turkeys and other foods. So began our national custom of celebrating Thanksgiving Day—a day of rejoicing made possible by our Indian friend Samoset.

Let us not forget this time-honored custom. Let us not forget those who have been less successful than have we. Let us not forget the spirit of Samoset.

It's Always Time To Save!

Good times—bad times—it is always time to save. The amount of savings may differ, however, from time to time but the principal remains the same.

Saving is only living on less than you earn and banking the difference. Although your savings may be little to begin with, if steadily saved, will before you realize it, be climbing into interesting figures.

START NOW TO SAVE.

Restless CHILDREN

CHILDREN will fret, often for no apparent reason. But there's always Castoria! As harmless as the recipe on the wrapper, mild and bland as it tastes. But its gentle action soothes a youngster more surely than a more powerful medicine.

That's the beauty of this special children's remedy! It can be given the tiniest infant—no matter how there is a similar disturbance. It's reliable. A coated tongue calls for drops to ward off constipation. It gives any suggestion of bad breath. Whenever children don't eat well, don't rest well, or have any little upset—this pure vegetable preparation is usually all that's needed.

To Have Market

The ladies of the Baptist church, forming the two Missionary Circles are having a market in town Saturday in the Frizzell building located next to Fox Brothers. The ladies will have farm products such as chickens, and eggs, and will have cakes and pies for sale during all the day Saturday. They will also serve, in addition to selling the whole cakes and pies. The purpose of the sale is to raise money to be applied on the church obligation due this week. They will appreciate the patronage of everyone.

It is worth while that in patronizing the Baptist ladies in their market Saturday that the ladies are work hard themselves and giving you full value for the money you spend with them. They will be pleased with any sale from five cents to five dollars, so visit their market.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Wood Johnson returned to their home Sunday in Perrin after spending the week with their daughter, Mr. Doc Rose. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson were accompanied home by Mr. and Mrs. Rose and son, W. A.
