Beaver Ranch Join Others In Stripping Cotton This Year

Among the Knox County farmers who have joined the ranks of those using cotton strippers this year is Bill Ryder, manager of the Beavers' Ranch near Benjamin. Ryder plans to harvest all of the cotton this year by mechanical strippers.

Harvesting started last week on the ranches 147 acres of cotton and it appeared to be making over a half of bale and probably will average 300 to 350 lbs. of lint per acre.

In the field at the same time with the two strippers was a shredder. The practice of shredding and turning under cotton stalks at stripping time has several advantages over waiting.

As soon as there is enough cotton shredded, a plow will be started. By shredding and plowing now, Ryder hopes to destroy the hibernation places for many boll weevil; also more time is allowed for the decomposition of the cotton residues.

The speeded up decomposition will make it easier to farm the land for the next crop by reducing pesky stalks and will make the nitrogen in the soil available for the following crop sooner.

Soil organisms that bring about the decomposition of crop residues tie up available nitrogen until decomposition nears completion.

Ryder states that by stripping the cotton he should save about $28.00 per bale on labor. The cost of defoliation is not figured in the saving; however, on a half bale of cotton, this will mean about a total saving of $12.50 per acre for the mechanically harvested cotton over the hand harvested cotton on the Beavers' Ranch.

Youth Leader Speaks To Lions Wednesday

Rev. Albert Lindley, pastor of the Overton Methodist Church in Lubbock and working here this week in the Workers School, was principal speaker at the Lions Club Wednesday noon.

Rev. Lindley was introduced by Rev. Jarrell Sharp, pastor of the Methodist Church here.

Rev. Lindley said he hadn't prepared a program as he hadn't had enough advance warning, but as he was here to work with the youth he would talk to the Lions Club concerning Youth.

Rev. Lindley said helping the youth seek the right ways of life was a community project and one in which everyone should work at in order to give the youth a goal in which to strive toward.

Dr. Lindley asked the question: "Who had the most influence upon you when you were growing up?"

Rev. Lindley asked was it the school teacher, uncle, aunt, Sunday school teacher, etc.?"

In answer to his question he said it was possibly any one of them or maybe someone else.

"To foster increased acceptance and appreciation of the gifted children that a general climate may be created bringing about a better understanding of their problems and needs."

This describes the reasons why the National Association for Gifted Children has set aside this week, Oct. 22-28, as Gifted Child Week. The Association publishes a quarterly. The role of the library in the life of the gifted child is immeasurable.

United Nations Day was Tuesday, October 24. A private celebration of our own was made: a re-reading of the Charter. The document means more to Old Chel each time we read it.

Thirteen recent books NOT in Elementary School which have been recommended by the Book Evaluation Committee of the Children's Services Division, American Library Association are as follows:

- Enright: "Return to Gone-Away"
- Franchers: "Stephen Crane"
- Gendron: "The Dragon Tree"
- Goudey: "The Day We Saw The Sun Come Up"
- Kuskin: "The Bear Who Saw The Spring"
- Sasek: "This Is Edinburgh"
- Savage: "The Story of Africa"
- Selsam: "Tony's Birds"
- Shirer: "The Rise and Fall of Adolph Hitler"
- Snyder: "The War: A Concise History, 1939-1945"
- Trease: "Victory at Valmy"
- Underhill: "Antelope Sinner"
- Wibberly: "Sea Captain From Salem."

One of the above can well be the Newbery Medal Book for the year. The top books of the year should be available. The average price of the above books is $3.36 which should give some idea of how far money goes these days in providing library books. A list people will be given in this space of recent adult books for young next week. None are (correct verb according to Merriam Webster) in the High School Library.

People with no children in school sometimes feel no interest in helping to provide for these youngsters. Yet, with the high cost of keeping even a first-grader in school these days, it might be a good idea to examine the contribution which all of us can make to the education of our boys and girls. If you would like to contribute one of the above listed books, or any number of similar ones from past years, please contact any of the school authorities or Old Chel. The Shirer book is to be our contribution from this list.

What is yours?
CHELIFER CANCRIODES

"Anyway, it is everyone's responsibility to see that they conduct themselves in the right way," he said.

Rev. Lindley was especially critical of newspapers headlining articles of youngsters who had done wrong.

"All we read about is the bad things they've done," he exclaimed, "we hardly ever read anything good that they have done."

He said usually the good deeds done by teenagers was buried several pages back from the headlined front page story.

IN FORT WORTH

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McGee spent last week in Fort Worth attending the 79th Pathway of Inspirational Session of the Grand Chapter of Texas.

AUSTIN, Tex. — City officials in Texas got warning from Chief Engineer John Vandertulp of the State Board of Engineers.

He said Texas had better get moving on its water projects.

Vandertulp's staff has just completed a water study outlining ways in which Texas cities and industries could meet their water needs for 1980. Half of the 14 reservoirs now under construction in Texas will be too small to supply their service areas by then.

It is going to take $1,000,000,000 to build the reservoirs, treatment plants and distributing systems to provide water the Texas of 1980 will need. It will also take planning and working — starting now — to get the 45 new reservoirs proposed by the Board of Water Engineers' plan built and full of water by or before 1980.

Plan is endorsed in most details by the U. S. Study Commission.

SALES TAX MODIFICATION — State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert thinks its time to change the oil tax plan just adopted by the Legislature.

Constitution allocates the new sales tax on motor oil to the State Highway fund for road building. Consequently the corner service station man must keep books on this tax separately from sales taxes he collects for the State's general fund.

Calvert plans to suggest to the Legislature that this oil tax be levied at the jobber level, same as gasoline sales taxes. This will simplify bookkeeping and collecting.

Speaker James A. Turman agreed that there are inequities in the new sales tax which the Legislature should correct.

First to talk openly about paying the tax under protest were the vending machine people. They can't collect sales tax on items selling for less than 25 cents, but they must pay sales tax on their gross sales.

Texas Merchandise Vending Association plans to ask for a court ruling.

LAST GO-ROUND — Sale of $25,000,000 in bonds for the Veterans Land Board completes the borrowing by the State government for this program. Voters authorized $200,000,000 to finance purchases of farms and ranches for veterans.

In the last year, about $37,500,000 has been invested in land since the program was revived after an increase in the authorization interest rate.

L. H. Page of Carthage, member of the Veterans Land Board, estimated that veterans will pay enough extra interest that the state will have made $100,000,000 profit on this program by 2005. That is when the last loan is supposed to be paid off.

MORE STUDY — Gov. Price Daniel asked the Legislature Council to bring its 1958 study on loans and interest rates up to date.

Governor Daniel now seems likely to call the Legislature back into session in January. He wants up-to-date facts on the subject of regulation of interest rates and lenders. Regular session just could not reach agreement.

He will ask also for passage of a bill extending the new escheat enforcement procedures to unclaimed bank accounts in banks and savings institutions.

Speaker James A. Turman appointed a special House committee to make a follow-up study of escheat laws. Reps. Franklin Spears, San Antonio; Ted Springer, Amarillo; Richard C. Slack, Pecos; Paul Haring, Goliad; and Reed Quilliam, Lubbock, are its members.

GOVERNOR APPOINTS

Gov. Price Daniel assigned Dr. James A. Turman (no kin to Speaker Turman), Texas Youth Council director, and Rep. Don Kennard of Fort Worth to attend the National Governor's Conference on Delinquency and Youth Crime in Denver, Colo.

They'll come back armed with arguments on why Texas needs juvenile parole officers in more than just the five biggest counties. That's extent of present program.

Governor Daniel is asking the Legislature to expand the five-man juvenile parole set up it created this year. Kennard has sponsored juvenile parole legislation.

FIRST RUNNER — Sen. Preston Smith of Lubbock became the first candidate for lieutenant governor in the Democratic primary next May 5.

Smith, who served three terms in the House of Representatives and five years in the Senate, ran third in the 1950 lieutenant governor's race. That was the year Ben Ramsey won the run-off and started the first of his six terms in office.

Senator Smith, 49, is a theater operator.

Uncle Ben from Ben

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

I see by the papers where school houses in a heap of places is so crowded for space this year they're operating on two shifts. And the same piece says some of the schools in Chicago is serving breakfast in the school lunch rooms.

In one generation this country has come up with no-shift automobiles and two-shift schools. It looks to me like that people somewhere along the line, is getting progress all twisted up. Or maybe the crowded school situation come about on account of folks not being able to settle an argument between their conscience and their pocketbook. There ain't nothing that makes a feller any madder than fer his conscience to interrupt when his money is talking.

And me and my old lady got in an argument over this school breakfast item. When I was getting what little schooling I got, I went to bed early so's I could get up early and help milk the cows, churn, and bring in the wood for the day. Then I set down to a solid meal. Now they're fixing it so's the kids can stay out half the night and get some watered orange juice and a piece of toast.

My old lady says they take care of these things now with vitamins, that folks don't need the same eating habits they did in the old days. Could be, Mister Editor. Science has provided so many substitutes for things that it's getting hard for me to recollect what it was we needed in the first place.

Speaking of scientists, I see where our missile experts claim two miles is about as close to the target as we can be sure of with our long range shots. I don't think two miles will make much difference. We got so many of them foreign countries saying "Yankee Go Home" that we're bound to hit one right on the barrel-head ever time we shoot.

I see where the column writers is still discussing President Kennedy's health. That can work both ways. I never knowed a feller that had a operation or spent time in the hospital that didn't kind, than the atomic bomb. Strong men who would face the battleship Missouri with a slingshot, quiver and shake at the thought of being "shot." At the same time, women who are afraid of kitchen mice take "shots" as if they were powdering their face.

So it seems to me that someone with a love for humanity could develop a syringe that is painless, maybe even one that is pleasant to have injected into you.

All this business about "shots" would not be so bad, if we could take our injections when we are infants and forget about them, but instead we go to the local hospital or clinic every year and take an injection for every disease known to man from chicken pox to the bubonic plague, with the possible exception of athlete's foot.

Study Club Begins Thirty-Seventh Year Of Projects

Beginning the 37th year of study and projects, members of the Knox City Study Club met Thursday, Oct. 19 for a program on "International Understanding."

Mrs. Ulric Lea was leader and gave a short review of our neighbors and told us how we might have a better understanding as nations if we knew more about each other.

Stepping from a life size "Story-Book" entitled "Our World" characters dressed in native costumes were introduced by Mrs. Jarrell Sharp and Mrs. Cordelia Woodward.

Mexico was represented by Mrs. Ottis Cash; Japan by Mrs. S. M. Clonts; Holland by Mrs. J. R. Hitchcock; Italy, by Mrs. Lee White; Hungary, by Mrs. Jack Tankersley; Arabia, Mrs. Vernon Bolte; Ireland, by Mrs. Martin Smith. All were seated at the International Tea Table, covered with hand made lace and centered with the flags of all nations. Each character told of the legends, traditions and every day lives of the women of their countries as they are lived today.

The KNOX COUNTY HERALD, KNOX CITY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1961

"Songs of Other Lands" were presented by Mrs. Mabel Pyeatt and six girls all in costume.

Representing Poland were Mary Reese and Carla Shelton. Jackie Beauchamp represented Spain, Sue Egenbacher, Vienna; Margaret Howell, China, and Karen Clonts, the Gypsy. The chorus and all members sang "God Bless America."

Twenty-six members and seven guests were present. New members were Mmes. H. E. Wall, Jack Tankersley, Morris Denton, Philip Colehour, and Martin Smith. Elected to membership were Mrs. Pete Whitten and Mrs. W. C. Colson.

The closing prayer was given by Mrs. George Davis. Hostesses were Mmes. Branton, J. M. Avritt and Vernon Bridges.

Mrs. L. W. Graham conducted the business session.

Mrs. Cash and meeting will be at the school Cafeteria at 12:30. A coffee hour will be made after the meal. The High School Stage will play for the luncheon.

however, have mercy on people by combining several "shots" in one, thus shortening that period of time known to many of us as the ordeal. The "only" drawback is that even though the number of "shots" are lessened, the needle used is longer, the time it stays in your arm is longer, and it hurts more. It is fun though to break out in a cold sweat and fight the urge to jerk the needle out of your arm and dash it to the floor. If you really want thrills and excitement, just wait until the person "shooting" you happens to go a little too deep, hitting the bone and thus breaking the needle off in your arm.

Of course we all know the old song and dance about living a long healthy life if we take our "boosters" regularly, but if this is true, one cannot help wonder how Methuselah lived 969 years without ever having his typhoid shots.

Friday night the Greyhounds journey to Rule for the first conference game of the season. Game time is 7:30 p.m., and we are hoping to have all Greyhound boosters out supporting the team.

Here is the most exciting new toy of the year!

The ENCO Energy Rocket with coupon from your neighbor in a HUMBLE uniform Only $2.95*

This Humble exclusive is a fascinating toy. So safe and easy to use, a small fry of six can run it. So much fun, even Dads will monopolize it.

Its principal parts are of Escon, Humble's tough new plastic. It's battery powered, easy to assemble, (and the car is securely held together by screws). Simply start it, place on track and after a turn or two, throw the switch. The car zips down the side-track into a plastic bumper and wh-o-o-o-sh! The rocket zooms toward the ceiling (but doesn't hit it).

Ask for a coupon at the Humble sign in your neighborhood today. Mail with $2.95* (cash, money order or check) to address on coupon.

* (plus State tax where applicable)

Without coupon—You can buy the Enco Energy Rocket without a coupon for $5.95.* Mail cash, money order or check with name and address to Rocket, Humble Oil & Refining Company, P. O. Box 1244, Houston 1, Texas.

Give your car an energy boost—fill up with Enco Extra gasoline

Santa Fe hauls 2.3 million bales of western cotton to markets

King Cotton has moved west.

In 1945, only 36% of the nation's cotton grown in the West. Today over 62% of it comes from states served by Santa Fe.

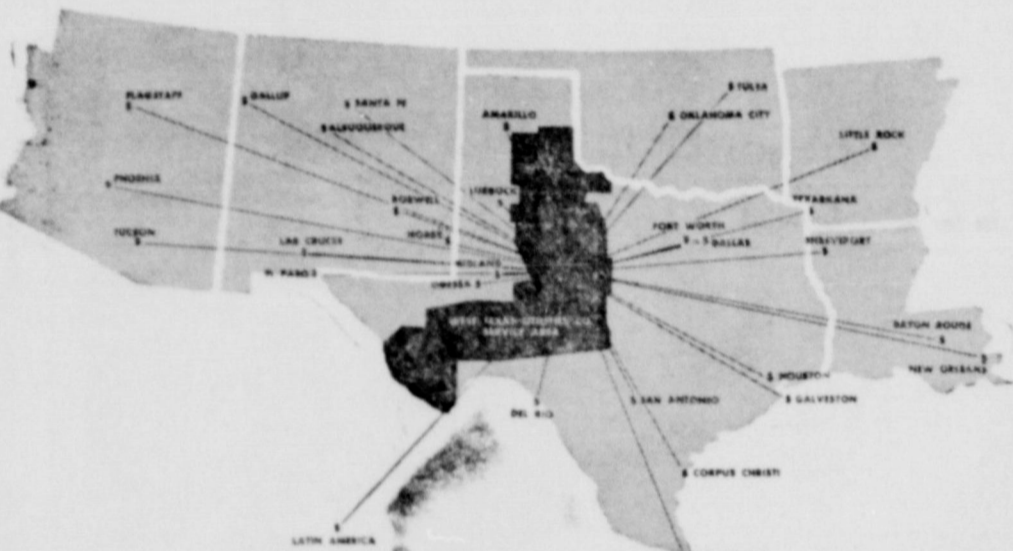

This year Santa Fe will haul over 2,300,000 bales of cotton to markets in 34,000 box cars—enough cars to make up a train 284 miles long.

Hauling cotton and other important crops, materials and products from where they are grown or made to where they are needed is another example of how Santa Fe is meeting the transportation needs of a growing America.

Baking Quality Will Be Part of Wheat Price Support for '62

Baking quality wheat and sedimentation tests will be part of the 1962 wheat price support program. Local county ASC offices are receiving information on the price support portion of the 1962 wheat program in regard to the baking quality tests that will play a part of the price support picture, Jack Moore, Knox County Agent, said last week.

Complete information on the amount of support has not become available in the Knox Co. office at this time; however, with a great portion of the wheat already planted in Knox County and the urgency of the variety information needed, farmers are being urged to plant the varieties that are on the recommended or acceptable list for this area.

The recommended varieties are Tascosa, Crockett, Ponca, Concho, and Kaw. Acceptable varieties are Comanche, Westar, Bison, and Triumph.

As information on this portion of the program becomes available, it will be made public, the Agent said.

"This know also. That in the last days perilous times shall come." (11 Tim. 3:1).

I don't think there is any question but we are living in the last days in these times. But we should not despair, for we have the true message of hope and the only remedy for such times. It is necessary that we keep hope in our hearts. We can by keeping faith in our Lord Jesus Christ.

Hope is the saving element of life, we have and keep it through patience and comfort of the Scriptures. Peter said:

"Sanctify the Lord thy God in your heart. Be ready to give an answer to every man that ask you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear." (1 Peter 3:15).
