

All O'Daniel Men Meet Defeat in Knox County

Knox County voters went to the polls Saturday and swatted every candidate recommended by W. Lee O'Daniel. Not a one received a majority in this county, notwithstanding the fact that O'Daniel carried the county five weeks ago over the entire field.

In the commission races this precinct E. L. Park won over Wm. Griffith, the incumbent, by a vote of 369 to 260.

In the county races there were two run-offs, that of the treasurer and county superintendent. In the treasurer's race Bob Burton of Sunset defeated Chas. Moorhouse of Benjamin by a vote of 1333 to 1082, and Merick McGaughey was elected county superintendent with 1558 votes to incumbent J. Lyndal Hughes' 887.

In the legislative race, Grady Roberts, the Munday editor, defeated B. W. Snody of Benjamin by a vote of 1303 to 1110. Roberts also carried Hardeman and King Counties, while Snody carried Foard County. Roberts has been elected by a majority of about 500 votes, and will succeed George Moffett, who was elected State Senator five weeks ago.

The congressional race was the most hotly contested. Ed Gossett, the young Wichita Falls attorney, carried this county over Congressman McFarlane by a vote of 1386 to 1081. Gossett won in the district by more than 2200 majority, carrying eleven of the fifteen counties.

For Land Commissioner, Bill McDonald lead Bascom Giles by a vote of 1308 to 943 in the county, but was defeated over the state.

For Railroad Commissioner, Jerry Sadler defeated C. V. Terrell, 1364 to 1003.

For Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals James A. Stephens of Benjamin received 1937 to 442 for Harry Graves. This shows that the people of Knox County really appreciate Judge Stephens.

For Associate Justice of the Supreme Court W. H. Davidson defeated Richard Critz by a vote of 1195 to 1005.

For Attorney General Gerry Mann almost doubled Walter Woodul, receiving 1531 to 822. For Lieutenant Governor Pierce Brooks carried the county over Coke Stevenson by a vote of 1184 to 1141.

Below is the report from the state races as it appeared in the daily papers Monday.

Four of the six candidates endorsed by W. Lee O'Daniel, Democratic nominee for Governor, were successful in the run-off primary Saturday, according to tabulation of more than 800,000 votes, but his choices for attorney general and railroad commissioner were defeated. The attorney general and railroad commissioner are probably the most important elective state offices other than that of governor.

Gerald Mann, former SML football star, defeated Walter Woodul despite the fact that O'Daniel had endorsed Woodul for the post.

O'Daniel's nod also proved ineffective for C. V. Terrell, veteran railroad commissioner who was defeated by G. A. "Jerry" Sadler of Longview.

Latest returns from 253 out of 254 counties, including 153 complete, gave the following totals:

For Lieutenant Governor: Stevenson 433,315 and Brooks 390,817.

For Attorney General: Mann 480,749, Woodul 351,893.

For Railroad Commissioner: Sadler 453,961, Terrell 378,034.

For Land Commissioner: McDonald 370,421, Giles 437,397.

For Associate Justice of the Supreme Court: Critz 475,712, Davidson 328,050.

For Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals: Stephens 361,599, Graves 429,395.

Farm Prices at Lowest Level in Four Years

The agriculture department broadened its efforts to halt farm price declines Saturday by announcing it would make loans on 1938 cotton at rates ranging from 5.30 to 10.75 cents per pound, and increase the loan rate on 1937 corn from 50 to 57 cents per bushel.

This action was taken a few days after the department of labor had reported that the general level of farm prices declined during the previous week to the lowest level in four years.

The loans were offered for a two-fold purpose: to finance farmers desiring to withhold crops from the markets until supplies are smaller and the prices may be higher, and to place a floor under present prices. Corn prices rose about a cent and a half per bushel immediately after the loan was announced.

The cotton loan is the second lending program inaugurated since mid-July. The first offered wheat growers loans averaging about 60 cents per bushel. However, wheat prices on the farm average about 5 cents a bushel below the loan rate because, officials said, of excessive supplies.

Although southern farmers and congressmen had asked for a base cotton loan of about 12 cents per pound, the department set the rate near the minimum allowed by the new crop control law, 8.30 cents a pound on 7-8 inch middling. Differentials were established for other grades and staple lengths. The base rate was nine cents per pound last year and 12 cents per pound in 1934.

The rates range from 5.30 cents on 13-16 inch low middling white and extra white grades to 10.75 cents on 1-18 inch or longer good middling and better qualities of the same grades.

The department explained it set the rate near the minimum for two reasons: The existence of a large world supply of cotton and the fact that the government already holds nearly 7,000,000 bales put up as collateral on previous loans.

The 1938 base rate compared with an average price of 8.36 cents on ten spot cotton markets Saturday.

PIONEER GROCERYMEN RETIRE FROM BUSINESS

The Bennett brothers, pioneer grocerymen of Knox City, sold their stock of groceries last week to W. C. Kimbrough of Sunset. The store has been closed this week making the necessary repairs for the opening Saturday, September 2. The interior has been repainted and several needed improvements made. They have placed orders for a complete line of staple and fancy groceries and the goods are arriving daily. They will also have an up-to-date meat market.

Mr. Kimbrough, who has been principal of the Sunset high school for the past five years, plans to continue teaching until this term is out, when he will move to Knox City. K. O. Peevey, a well known business man of this county, will manage the business and he cordially invites his friends from all sections of the country to call and see him. They intend to carry a complete stock of groceries and sell at the lowest possible prices.

The store will be open for business Friday, and refreshments will be served to all who attend. Watch the Herald for their announcement and the many special prices they have to offer for Friday and Saturday, and learn how to make five dollars in cash.

John Ed May of Rule has returned home after a visit here in the home of his uncle, John May.

We read the other day of a man who has a hobby of collecting bottles. As a general rule, most men lose interest in a bottle after it is empty.

We frequently see a man who runs a business with the idea of freezing out his competitor, rather than making a living for himself. Usually ends up by accomplishing nothing.

For boys and girls: School starts in about two weeks. We'll bet the vacation seemed more like three weeks than three months.

In Pharaoh's dream the seven lean cows came up out of the river and ate the seven fat cows. Joseph interpreted the dream to mean that seven years of plenty would be followed by seven years of famine. So far as we know no one has had any dreams about the present depression, but the fat of the good years is as rapidly and as surely being consumed in this country as it was in the days of Pharaoh.

The best results are always attained by regular advertising. A glance through any of the large dailies or magazines will show the most successful firms advertise regularly. The underlying principle of advertising demands regularity of appearance and repeated reading. Tell a man or a woman a fact about your merchandise once this month and the same two months later and it will leave little impression on his mind, but keep hammering it home every week and it can't help but get results.

Cat fights and dog fights always make a lot of racket, but as a rule the damage to the dog or cat is not very great. The same rule might be applied to a lot of troubles—it seems like the world is going to come to an end while they exist, but we usually live over them.

The states of Pennsylvania and New Jersey collected $29,500,000 inheritance taxes from the estate of the late president of Campbell Soup. The estate was valued at $115,000,000.

The United States has become a victim of organized group demands. Any group that shows that it can control a block of votes can get consideration on legislation no matter how great a hardship the legislation works upon a minority group. The voice of the ballot is still the voice that directs Congress.

The Senate Foreign Relations Committee will spend the vacation working out a definition of our foreign policy. Secretary Hull welcomes the inquiry because he has often wondered what it is himself.

THE ELECTION

Saturday, voters of Texas went to the polls and made their selection for state and county officers for the next two years. This election attracted more attention than any election since the days of Joe Bailey and Cone Johnson. W. Lee O'Daniel, who won the nomination in the first primary for governor, was the direct cause of this when he attempted to dictate whom the people of Texas should support for six state offices. Thousands of his supporters over the state resented his action and voted contrary to his suggestion. In Knox County in the first primary O'Daniel almost had a majority over all his eleven opponents, but in the last election the voters turned him down and defeated every candidate he recommended. We heard several hundred people say that they would not support the hand-picked crowd, notwithstanding they were probably better men than the opposition.

The defeat of Walter Woodul for attorney general by Gerald Mann and the defeat of the veteran C. V. Terrell is evidence that the people of the state were not paying much attention to the governor-elect. There will be plenty of trouble in the next session of the legislature which meets in January, as there are only eight new members in the senate, and the people have not forgotten the trouble Jimmie Allred had with that body last year. The election of Jerry Sadler to the Railroad Commission post will change things around, as Ernest O. Thompson and C. V. Terrell have been running the Commission for the past few years, paying no attention to Lon Smith, Smith and Sadler will now team up and turn the tables on Thompson, which means that the oil situation will be handled differently than it has been in the past.

There are only about seventy-five members in the lower house, and no one can predict at this time just what that body will do in regard to the old age pensions. The voters of Texas want an old age pension, but there are more than one hundred different ideas as to how they should be paid, and the Herald is sure of one thing—that they will not be paid thirty dollars each per month, as promised by the governor-elect. We predicted two months ago that this would be a hard winter on the old folks and we see no reason to change our guess now.

The defeat of Congressman McFarlane by Ed Gossett was a surprise to many of the voters in this district, but you must remember that the President came down and gave McFarlane the nod and you see the result. Maury Maverick and Morgan Sanders of the 3rd District also met defeat. This is more evidence that the people of Texas do not like to be told how to vote.

BUZZARD MOUNTAINS

Walter Hyde, in Knox County Herald: Don't tell me that advertising does not pay. The very next day after the fact that a party of men had been organized to go in search of Mace Moseley, who had vanished from Knox City six weeks ago, was made known through the Knox County Herald, Mace showed up. And sure enough, he had been lost in the Buzzard Peak Mountains.

State Press, Dallas News: What on earth could Mace Moseley have gone into the Buzzard Peak Mountains for?

Mr. Moseley may answer that it is none of our business what he went for. The retort might be justified, nevertheless we have a right to wonder why he went where he went. There is no game worth the ammunition in Buzzard Peak Mountains, nor is there any sport in shooting buzzards, clumsy creatures and slow witted. In some states it is unlawful to kill a buzzard, usually called a vulture in the terminology of the statute. Certainly Mr. Moseley wasn't lost, however, he came home before the searching party got started. He knew where he was all the time, still it hasn't been explained why he was there. We are not trying to make a newspaper sensation out of this case. There is plenty to print these days without making a Buzzard Mountain out of a mole hill. Our sole interest is in the question of why anybody would leave a nice, comfortable town to explore the Buzzard Mountains. Explorers are that way, however. They undertake the most unbelievable hardships and the most terrifying expense for the sake of exploring regions, which offer neither gold mines nor glory to the adventurers. Thousands of dollars and a number of lives have been lost in attempts to climb to the top of Mount Everest, the world's tallest hill. Aviators have sailed over it and report that the top of Everest is like any other mountain top, cold and lonely, just like Buzzard Mountain tops.

HONOR BRIDE-TO-BE

Mrs. Ford Waldrip, Mrs. Tom Webb, Mrs. Jim Stephens and Miss Kanova Loper were hostesses Monday afternoon at 2:15 honoring Miss Barbara Snelson, bride-elect of Willard Wright of Lubbock.

Some thirty friends expressed their love for Barbara by the presentation of lovely, useful gifts.

Entertainment was furnished by Mrs. Ford Waldrip and the bride's book was presided over by Miss Kanova Loper.

The couple will be accompanied at their wedding by Miss Loper and Mr. Odell Ratliff.

Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Cogswell returned last Friday from a vacation trip to points of interest in Indiana. They visited relatives there and while at Orleans conducted a two weeks evangelistic meeting. They were accompanied home by Mr. and Mrs. George Ralston of Williams, Indiana, who made an extended visit in Knox City last May.

LISTEN TO THIS

By TOM FIZDALE

Here's a plea on behalf of listeners for radio engineers to quit measuring sound by mechanical standards and give a little more thought to the human ear.

Readers (who are likewise listeners) complain that there are but few things in radio more annoying than listening to programs with mixed talk and music that compel you to jump up and turn down the volume on your set every time someone stops talking and the music starts.

Well, you'll have to argue with the studio engineers about that and it may be a little discouraging—because arguing with a radio engineer is never very satisfying to a layman. Their stand is that the volume is "mixed" in the studio control room to show the same high-point on their indicator for both the sound and music (of course they use more technical terms) and that's that. You might try writing the networks about it. They still listen to the voice of fan mail.

Benny Goodman

Speaking of networks—Columbia and NBC are still battling hot and heavy—and that's a healthy thing for listeners because it means each is attempting to out-do the other in bringing us better programs. Just now CBS is attempting to cut into the great farm audience that NBC has built up during the past ten years with its National Farm and Home Hour. The CBS series is titled, "The Farmer Takes the Mike" . . . Benny Goodman will be awarded a special certificate of civic recognition from the City of Chicago as a native son who has reached the heights of success in his profession . . . The French government is cooperating with one of the networks to make a series of thirty half-hour translated programs in this country which will be played over French stations to give the French a "sound picture" of life in the U. S. A.

The printer did things with our title of the "Laugh Limer," that new Billy House smash hit that we mentioned last week, and made it "Life Limer." That isn't far wrong at that, because it certainly is a lifesaver for those who love comedy, and there is otherwise a particular lack of it on the air just now. NBC has a Philo Vance series for sponsorship . . . Rumored that tenor Frank Parker has offers from both Burns and Allen and Jack Benny for fall . . . Joe Penner is conferring with Kipler's former sponsor.

Betty Caine, "Attorney at Law" player, started out to be a private secretary but turned to radio—won both a career and a husband in the airlines . . . Phillips Lord negotiating with Jeanette MacDonald's former sponsor to bring the "Seth Parker" series back to the air . . . Those Raymond Scott novelty compositions on "Vocal Varieties" are winning plenty of applause . . . Fred Waring and Ted Husing got together last week at the eastern golf championships and put on a show with Ted playing the piano and Fred giving a sport commentary . . . Margarette Shanna, "Arnold Grimm's Daughter," tells friends she is an Isaac Walton widow this summer.

Grace Allen is becoming a song plugger in her own right . . . She introduced four new tunes in as many weeks . . . Paul Whiteman look on the "Modernaires" in radio this week and acce out with the low score . . . Now they're calling Dolores Giffen the beautiful aress . . . Orson Welles' new broadcast has been scaring the control engineers . . . Betty Lou Gerson has introduced a new summer costume in white and Roman stripes—very cool . . . Wonder if those "National Barn Dance" Ranch Boys will do any more riding this summer after completing their horseback trek from Hollywood to Chicago!

McFarlane Thanks Voters

FELLOW CITIZENS:

Please allow me to express to you my deep appreciation for your voluntary support given me in the recent campaign. It is gratifying to know that there are more than 27,000 good loyal people in this district, who could not be misled and who placed honest, faithful and an unchallenged record above the mud slinging tactics of the opposition.

It would take pages to list the many falsehoods circulated in the three different scandals sheets and by every other known method by the opposition. These misled many good and loyal people to my hurt. The last straw was the eleven-hour effort to show an American Federation of Labor endorsement of my opponent, and to try to connect me with the C. I. O., when it is known that there is no C. I. O. organization in this district, and that I have never had anything whatever to do with the C. I. O. and had the uncontradicted endorsement of the American Federation of Labor, the Railroad Brotherhood and the State Federation of Labor, as well as all other crafts affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. Truth crushed to the earth will rise again and the malicious, false, mud slinging campaign waged against me will be fully appreciated and I will be exonerated by the people of this district, when they fully realize the far reaching effect that money had in buying this election.

It is well known that there are more than 5,000 Republicans in this district and most of them went to the polls Saturday and voted against me in order to try to discredit the New Deal. The Republicans have gone into the Democratic primaries throughout the entire nation and voted against the candidates who have supported the New Deal. I have personal knowledge that the Republicans in this district went into both the first and second primaries and actively worked for my opponent. It is well known that my Republican congressional opponent of two years ago, H. L. Ratliff, actively worked throughout the campaign in lining up his Republican friends for my opponent.

With malice toward none but good will to all, I am

Your friend,
W. D. McFARLANE

Along Route One

With Walter Hyde

At the Regular Conference Meeting of the First Baptist church last Sunday Rev. East of Abilene was called to full time pastorate of the church. Rev. East has a wife and one child. He has been preaching for the past seven years and comes highly recommended. He is a student of Hardin-Simmons University.

J. T. May, one of the deacons of the church, acted as moderator and did his job well. T. E. Robbins, J. W. Hamm, H. E. Wall and Mr. Cook acted as tellers after the pastor had been called. Tom Robbins, who has a tub full of brains, gave a nice address to the membership along the lines of Christian Duty. I don't know just how this church or town could succeed were it not for the sound advice of Mr. Robbins.

I notice also that J. J. Denton J. W. Hamm, George Hardberger, C. E. Causey, W. M. Rowan, Billy Lowrance and many others are taking a renewed interest in church affairs. I would like to say a word right here for Mrs. Geo. Hardberger for her faithful duties to this church. To my certain knowledge she has been in her place at the piano for the past thirty years, unless prevented by sickness or being called away. I must say for her that she is a remarkable christian person.

I am mighty glad to see that the Domino Hall closed during church services Sunday morning. Much credit for this is due G. D. McCarty. Glover is a great lover of church affairs.

Our old time friend of many years, J. W. Green, who resides four miles west of town in the Union Grove community, was in town Saturday afternoon. In speaking of how to reduce the high cost of living he tells us that his diet consists of Post Toasties, 3-Meal coffee and black eyed peas.

J. C. Angle of Route One says he was up bright and early Saturday morning, drank his usual cup of coffee, bummed Z. A. Hammock for a cigaret, and flipped a coin to see who he should vote for, the men that O'Daniel had recommended or the others. O'Daniel won.

If you are in need of fresh, home-grown turnip greens, see John Darr.

Our little city was overflowing with people last Saturday. The sidewalks were so badly crowded that it was almost impossible to get through. The streets were almost blocked and the merchants were compelled to put on extra help in order to take care of the customers. More than two hundred bales of cotton have been ginned here to date. Hundreds of cotton pickers are coming in and the farmers are having no trouble in securing help.

George F. Stubbs is treating his beautiful home to a new coat of paint this week.

See Uncle Pete Moody for nice size frying chickens. Uncle Pete is in the chicken business.

We were glad to see Mrs. Henry Thompson in town Saturday night after several weeks of illness.

D. H. Craddock, after living on the farm of T. W. Fleniken for sixteen years, will move to the Bettis farm January 1st.

As Knox City is noted for so many generous hearted ladies why don't a number of them go down and visit Mrs. Willard Parker, who is the mother of a fine set of twin boys, and carry something nice for her to eat and some clothes for those babies. That would be a notable deed. Let's quit talking politics and do something for humanity.

D. H. Henry and wife just recently returned from California and are occupying the spacious home vacated by Mrs. John Fortenberry. Mrs. Fortenberry has gone to Rule to live with her son. Mr. Henry owns a nice farm three miles east of town and will move there after January 1st.

Misses Mamie Shaver, Marilyn Herring and Irene McAuley spent Sunday afternoon with Fay Hyde. It is a pleasure to have these young ladies visit in your home. They are so nice and quiet you seldom know they are on the place.

In a quiet conversation with the editor of the Knox County Herald, W. L. Garner, a few days ago, he informed us that here are numbers of people in and around Knox City that are not subscribers to his paper. Let me tell you ladies and gentlemen, those of you who are not cooperating with this editor in helping to boost Knox City and its trade territory are in my mind making a serious mistake, especially you business men who are putting out for our Friday and Saturday market some of the best bargains this country has ever known. Mr. Garner is putting out an eight page paper most of the time, and it is brim full of first-class reading matter. He is doing everything in his power to make Knox City a better place in which to live, so let's help him. Go around and get acquainted with him. He will show you every courtesy possible. He is a pleasant conversationalist and one of the best informed men in the county. This old scribe is going to assist him in every way possible. My English may be perfect, my Greek not perfect, my Latin a little mixed, and my nouns and pronouns at variance, but if you will obtain the proper kind of glasses and get in a cool place you may be able to get a part of what I am driving at. I was deprived in my early days of a polished education, attending school only three months at a time and sitting on a pine slab with no back to it. My tools were the old Blue Back Speller, McGuffey's Third Reader, Rogers Arithmetic, a slate and a lead pencil. I ate corn bread and Sorghum molasses, and our sports consisted of Town Ball, One-Eyed-Cat, and Bull Pen.

Knox City has as fine a set of business men of all classes as you will find anywhere. As a general rule they don't wait for you to come in, but meet you at the door and escort you in. And my, those wonderful bargains! The little city is blessed with a large number of dry-goods and grocery stores, and besides it has three up to date barber shops, and in every one of them are first class barbers and gentlemen in every respect. It has six cafes, and you will find none better in West Texas. It also has three gins that in a few days will be running day and night, two of the nicest drug stores to be found anywhere, six garages, two auto dealers that can sell you any kind of car you want at a low price, thirteen service stations, two beauty parlors, two second hand furniture stores, three blacksmith shops, one shoe shop, one jeweler, one bank, two hardware stores, two tailor shops, one radio shop, three feed stores, one bakery, an ice plant, two real estate dealers, five churches, one undertaker, a hospital and clinic with four doctors and a number of the very best nurses, and one of the finest school systems to be found anywhere. The town is incorporated, has a mayor, a chief of police, and many other attractions it would take too much space to mention, but I must not forget to say that it has a fine 3rd class postoffice with one of the most capable postmasters to be found in all Texas, one assistant, and two rural carriers of long duration, one completing 32 years of service and the other 20 years. In their two routes combined are more than 85 miles of rural road.

This little city is a mighty safe place to live. We sometimes have our little differences, but in fifteen minutes it is all forgotten and everybody is happy and pulling together.

Fame: The rise of Tommy Riggs and his lovable Betty Lou goes Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy one better. The mythical little girl is portrayed by Riggs without the use of a dummy. So popular was his voice-child that he had the longest run of any star on Rudy Vallee's program and has been breaking theatre records on personal appearances this summer. Now, to top it off, Tommy and Betty Lou will be the stars of their own variety show starting October 1 (8:00-8:30 p. m., EST, NBC-Red network) and you can bet now it will be one of the coming season's top programs.

Yvonne King

They feel he can swing a golf club with the same championship cut he uses on a baton.

Star: Betty Lou Gerson, who is currently co-starred with Jim Amesche (Don's brother) in the Sunday "Win Your Lady" series, has been named for the title role in "Arnold Grimm's Daughter," top-flight daytime dramatic serial on NBC.

Finance: Tony Martin, Burns and Allen singer, is proving that he really has a following. Organizing his own band, he left the program a couple of weeks before it signed off for the summer to barn-storm the country. Despite soaring temperatures he has set new records wherever he has gone. Most recently, in Detroit, he did the biggest week's business at the Fox theatre since January, eclipsing the records of veteran name bands.

Career: Joan Bennett of the flickers and sister of Constance, is being groomed for a radio career by Al Siegel, whose other radio finds include Martha Raye, Shirley Ross and Dorothy Lamour.

Headache: That swing ditty, "Flat Foot Floogie with the Floy Floy" is giving Spanish announcers a large headache. They can translate "Flat Foot" all right for South American listeners, but they don't know what to do with "Floogie" and "Floy Floy." That song, "I've Got You Under My Skin," in Spanish becomes, "I've Got You Between My Chest and Back," while the title of the ditty, "You Leave Me Breathless," is translated for our Latin American cousins, "You Leave Me Without Respiration." Wonder if they think we're silly?

Bet: The bands of Benny Goodman and Guy Lombardo are in the midst of an experiment to settle a wager as to which will lose the most weight during a summer—a band playing sweet rhythms a la Lombardo or one that "gets hot" (no pun) in the Goodman manner. The scales so far favor the Goodman bandmen. Winners will get a dinner at a New York restaurant at the losers expense.

Autograph: Mrs. Meta Schmidt of Pittsburgh made a 3,000 mile bus trip from her home city to Hollywood just to get the autograph of movie star Hugh Herbert. P. S.: She not only got the autograph but met the "Woo-Woo" star on George "Screenscoops" McCall's CBS program.

Entertainment plans for the wives of Texas retail grocers are uppermost in the mind of Mrs. LeRoy Roquemore, as she discusses ideas for making the Castle of Foods the most popular building at the State Fair of Texas in Dallas, October 8 to 23. Mrs. Roquemore, wife of a prominent Fort Worth grocer, is conferring with W. B. Addison, Houston, right, president of the Texas Retail Grocers Association and W. M. Clark, member of this association's executive committee and president of the Dallas Retail Grocers Association, at the recent convention in Fort Worth. OUR VISITORS

During the past three weeks the students and teachers of Sunset school have been host and hostess to several guests. Rev. E. S. Freeland and Rev. Coleman Campbell were among those who attended the opening exercises on the morning of August 12. Mr. Campbell gave a very interesting talk on the subject "Be Prepared". Mr. Freeland is pastor of the Gillespie Baptist church and Mr. Campbell was conducting a revival meeting there at the time.

County Superintendent J. Lyndal Hughes has made several visits since school started.

Mr. A. M. Whitis, superintendent of the Knox City public schools, visited the Sunset school one day last week. He planned to have a number of the Knox City teachers visit at Sunset during the early part of this session and invited the Sunset teachers to visit the Knox City school during their vacation period.

Mr. Bud Gavin, a representative of the West Texas Utilities Co., visited the Junior, Senior, and Home Economics classes last Friday and gave them a complete demonstration on the lighting of the home.

Among the ex-students that have visited school this year are Faye Marie Partridge, who will leave soon for S. M. U., Buddy Bumpas, who will attend A & M this year, Margaret Shannon, a sophomore in S. M. U., Woodrow Myers, a soph in A & M, Neil Nix and Dorothy Gammill, both students in Draughon's Business College at Wichita Falls, Fuller Shannon, a future student in John Tarleton, Maurine Gammill and Leroy Henderson, students in Tech, La Dean Groves, Askelon Stogner, Lois Williams, a graduate of N. T. S. T. C., and Floyd Frost, Elizabeth Shannon, who is now a teacher in the Van Horn school, and Myrtle Partridge, who plans to study in the Texas University this year.

Other guests were Marjorie Propps of Knox City, Emogene and Floy Nelson of Munday, Barbara Jean Gardner of Quanah, Alberta Hank of Chickasha Okla., Bernice Wilburn of Munday, Virginia Beas Guinn, of Munday, Wanice Jones of Munday and Birdie Allen of Knox City, who is the county library supervisor.

AMONG THE CLASSES

In English I the freshmen have just finished the unit on famous short stories and their writers. They have taken up the unit on magazine fiction, which they are hoping will be as interesting as the short stories were.

It seems very difficult to the freshmen at first to draw the figures required in General Science, but they think they'll get it fine in few more lessons. The Sophomore class is growing. It has a new pupil, Virgie Meador of Millsap, Texas. Virgie has gone to school at Sunset short terms before.

The best class in school, (the Sophs) is really working now. The class recently took a three weeks test in English and nearly all of the pupils made ninety.

The Sophomores are sorry to say that Monday morning Kenneth Myers tried to carry part of the anvil off in the flesh of his arm. He was taken to the doctor, who failed to find the piece of steel that had stuck in Kenneth's arm.

The Juniors are making fine progress in their school work. In English Literature they have been studying novels and novellists from Nathaniel Hawthorne to present day writers. They have also undertaken the study of Journalism in the English class, and it promises to be a very interesting study. In the American History they have almost completed their study of the thirteen colonies.

As there is very little activity outside of the regular classes going on at the present time, the class report must of necessity be very dull. The Juniors hope to have more news later on, however.

The Seniors have been studying hard prior to three weeks tests. Now that they are over the pupils are ready for a short breathing spell.

The Seniors were certainly surprised to find that there was so much they did not know especially in civics and literature.

The Seniors are sorry that Louise Gray and Ralph McBeth have been absent for the past few days. They hope to have them back in school soon.

WE WONDER WHY...

Ruby Hutchinson blushes every time a certain Junior boy passes her desk.

Guy Hardin likes rats so.

Donnie Partridge likes Loma Rae so well.

Loma Rae Clarke likes to go to Knox City on Saturday nights. Is it because—??

Some people didn't like some things that were published in this paper last week.

J. E. Hunter doesn't teach the Economics class.

Orville Strickland likes typing so well.

Some people like to give reports every day.

PERSONALITIES IN MUSIC

NICK and CHARLES KENNY, A.S.C.A.P.

The Gold Mine Is Still in the Sky

By Daniel I. McNamara

NICK fought in five wars. He was a stroke carman on a sailors' twelve-oared racing cutter that never was beaten. He was star football player and all around athlete in the U. S. Navy. Today he is a powerful, smiling giant—but if you sing a song of tender sentiment, like as not you'll see a tear well in the eye of this soft-hearted swashbuckler, for Nick Kenny is himself a writer of songs of appealing sentimentality. He loves to entertain the children on his radio programs.

A success in New York Journalism, Kenny insists that he is a song writer first, newspaper man incidentally. For he started writing songs when he was a youngster in the navy, and has been writing them for more than 20 years. He has written more than 50 successes, many of them among the best sellers.

Nick, however, has not cornered the talent in the Kenny family, for his accomplished brother, Charles, a violinist and composer, frequently shares with Nick the honors of creating new song successes. Nick, native of Astoria, L. I., served two complete terms in the navy, starting as a coal passer. He became the fastest signal man in the Navy. Three of his brothers were lost in the world war. His second enlistment ended the day of the Armistice. After two years in the Merchant Marine, he went to work as a cub reporter in Bayonne, N. J., soon became sports editor, then worked on newspapers in Boston and New York. He was a pioneer in the development of the radio column as a newspaper feature. For more than a decade he has been an authority on news of the radio.

Both Nick and Charles are members of the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers and their copyrighted songs are in the Society's repertoire. Active in New York newspaper work, they have found music an avocation of great possibilities. One of their latest efforts is "Cathedral in the Pines," a song of romantic appeal, and one of the most popular numbers of current radio programs.

EXPERT BARBER WORK VISIT

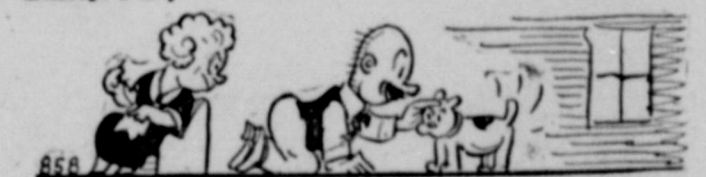

JONES BARBER SHOP

Laughing Around the World With IRVIN S. COBB

A Voice from the Silence

By IRVIN S. COBB

MR. JONES came home one evening with a new pet. He was very fond of his pets. He was a silent man anyhow and for that some of the neighbors had an explanation. They said he talked but little because Mrs. Jones was so conversationally inclined that he rarely got a chance to speak unless he interrupted her—and he was too polite to interrupt a lady.

The pet he brought home this evening was a forlorn-looking stray dog. After dinner, Mr. Jones gave the pup a bath, a rub-down and a supper of juicy bones. The grateful animal wagged its tail and looked trustfully up into the face of his benefactor and the patron responded by patting the brute on its head.

"Edgar," said Mrs. Jones, breaking off what else she was saying to interpolate this question, "why is it that you are so much kinder to dumb animals than you are to your own wife?"

"My dear," said Mr. Jones, "just you try being dumb for a while and see how kind I'll be to you!"

GOSSETT EXPRESSES HIS THANKS TO THE VOTERS

I am grateful to the voters of the 13th Congressional District for their confidence in, and support of, me, and for this opportunity they have given me to be of service. All of the wounds inflicted during a strenuous campaign have already healed. I have only the kindest regard for those who did not support me, and now count them friends.

It is my purpose and desire to build up to a big job. It is my ambition that the 13th Congressional District have the best representation in Washington.

With your confidence and support I shall at all times try to live up to this perhaps impossible ideal.

ED GOSSETT

THESE LAZY PEOPLE

A number of Texas motorists have devised unique ways to avoid repairing punctured tires.

In one instance two highway patrolmen reported they had come upon a woman attempting to repair a tire on a South Texas highway. The officers smilingly repaired the puncture inflated the tire and put it back on the wheel.

As they drove away one of them looked back and saw a man walk out of the roadside brush, climb into the car with the woman and drive away—laughing.

STATE POLICE ISSUE WARNING

State police issued a warning to rooming house operators against the "hot check operations of a woman who has made a small fortune in Texas towns.

The woman—about 35 years old and neat appearing—nearly always applies for a room for herself and husband and presents a check for one or two months' rent. The checks range from $20. to $35. She secures the landlady's endorsement on the check while her husband waits for her in an automobile, sometimes with a child. After the check is cashed at a bank or business place the couple leave town.

Officers, who have investigated nearly 50 such complaints, said the woman always tells her victims that she and her husband plan to build a tourist camp or open a beauty parlor in the town.

Denton Reunion

The descendants of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Denton, deceased, met in their annual reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Audrey Denton, 2 1/2 miles northwest of Knox City, August 27 and 28, 1938, the 28th being the birthday of Mrs. W. P. Denton.

There were seventy present: Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Denton and J. J. Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Parker Denton, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Denton and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Denton, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Denton and family, Dr. and Mrs. E. B. Denton and Virdie, Mr. and Mr. A. P. C. Sharp and family, Dickens City.

Also there were friends renewing old acquaintances and making new ones.

The Dentons pioneered in Knox County, coming here in 1897. This was before the origin of Knox City. They operated a store and post office about 3 1/2 miles east and 1 mile north of the present Knox City. The Kasaga post office building is still standing but is not recognized as such, since a house is built entirely around it.

The reunion was voted to be held at the home of J. V. Denton of Gould, Oklahoma, next year.

COUNTY AGENTS NOTES

Sleeping sickness of horses has made its appearance in the county. A good many cases have developed during the past few days, according to reports coming in to the county agent's office. Prompt action in getting the services of a veterinarian will aid greatly in saving a valuable work animal. Farmers should watch their horses very closely for any symptoms of sluggishness, especially as they move about the affected horse acts as if it has blind staggers. It is very difficult to lead to water.

Farmers have been very careless in disposing of sacks used in securing poison bran in their fight against grasshoppers. These sacks can be found scattered around the barns and lots, and on fences along the fields and pastures. These sacks are very appetizing to livestock, since they have absorbed a great deal of black strap syrup along with the aroma of banana oil and some bran. A cow may be saved by burning these old sacks and destroying any bran left on hand. It will be useless for any other use.

Twelve 4-H club boys attended the district club encampment held at Diversion Dam Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week. The following boys from this county attended: L. N. Bridges, Knox City; Joe Dean Clough, Munday; Billy Robinson, Goree; Darwin Shipman, Gavlon Scott, Elton Scott, Joe Wayne Robinson, Charles Robinson, Finis Bratcher, Mope Bratcher, Wade McGuire, all from Vera; and Lowell Cure, Gilliland, Clifford Roberson and Walter Rice acted as sponsors of the Knox County boys. One hundred boys from this district attended the camp.

County Agent Walter Rice and Assistant Agent Jack Welch left Tuesday to take the adjusted late work sheets to College Station in order to rush up the Subsidy payments. The county committee had to make adjustments on all work sheets signed in March and April of this year to conform to the quota set by the State Office before payments will be made on this group of signers. By taking these work sheets to the State Office, payment will be speeded up considerably. The applications of the old signers are already in the State Office and the speed with which payments will be made will be entirely in the hands of the State Office. The County Office is doing everything possible to get the Subsidy applications to the State Office before the big rush starts there.

Cotton leaf worms are doing a great deal of damage in the county, according to reports from farmers. Calcium arsenate mixed at the rate of three pounds per fifty gallons of water is the recommended method of control by the Experiment Stations. Lead arsenate is also good, but the cost is prohibitive for use in large quantities. Any mixture of soda and white arsenic is not recommended and is dangerous to use, because it will burn the leaves.

Rev. W. D. Green, former pastor of the First Baptist church here, started a revival meeting Friday night Aug. 26 at Woody.

52 Rats--Not a Scream

King Rodent's Reign of Terror over helpless femininity is on the wane. Instead of emitting the usual panic-stricken screams, these two girls from Texas State College for Women, Denton, work calmly with fifty-two of these white rats three hours daily, weighing, feeding, and making various tests on them. Miss Frances Welch, Denton, (left) is giving Texas-grown sweet potatoes to one group and Irish potatoes to another, in an effort to determine which food is more beneficial. Miss Allie Mae Tipps, Wichita Falls, is demonstrating the effects of the best possible diet for farm families in comparison to the average diet.

Thanks to The Voters

I wish to take this means of thanking the voters of Knox County who so faithfully supported me, giving me such large majority in Saturday's runoff primary for the office of County Treasurer.

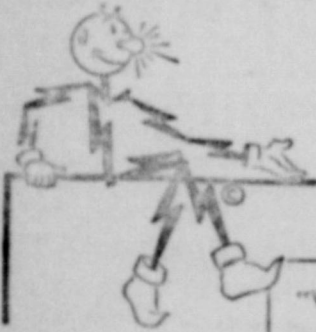

I am grateful that the campaign just finished was of the clean type, and again I wish to sincerely thank the voters who did not support me; that I hold to ill will toward them. It will be my aim to serve all the people to the best of my ability at all times.

Walter Hyde, one of the directors of the old Odd Fellow Cemetery, called at the Herald office Tuesday and requested us to announce that he was secretary of the Odd Fellow lodge at the time it surrendered its charter, and the Grand Lodge of the State does not claim any interest in the cemetery. Mr. Hyde states that he and E. B. Denton were named to handle the cemetery, but that they are willing to turn it over to the city or any civic organization that will assume charge of it and keep it in first class repair.

Mr. Hyde suggested that a mass meeting be called for all who are interested in the above proposition and that they organize and make a deed over to the proper authorities. If you endorse this idea talk the matter over with Mr. Hyde at an early date.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

The Boy Scout meeting was opened with a Candle Light service, during which the scout oath and scout law was repeated. Songs were sung, after which business was brought up.

The Boy Scouts plan to have a scout booth at the P. T. A. carnival on Friday, Sept. 2, and also plan to sponsor another coat hanger campaign. Later the scouts hope to present a play.

After games were played, the meeting was closed with "Taps" and the scoutmaster's benediction.

WHAT I THINK OF WALTER HYDE

I have been acquainted with Walter Hyde for twenty years, and we are always the best of friends, so I feel free to express the opinion that Walter is having a little too much fun at the other fellows expense. When Walter pulls another joke you just watch his mouth fly open like a barn door, and not a tooth in his head. It seems to me that he should wear his teeth, and better still that he should let his moustache grow out and cover up that mug of his. I think it would improve his looks about ninety-five per cent.

DRIVE SAFELY LABOR DAY

Unless motorists follow safe driving rules during the Labor Day holiday period, September 3, 4 and 5, Texas streets and highways will be marked with the mangled bodies of 17 victims of traffic accidents, state police warned today.

Using last year's Labor Day death figures as a guide, state safety officials predicted that at least 26 persons will lose their lives in Labor Day violence. In addition to 17 traffic deaths, five are expected to drown, two will be accidentally shot and two will die from other types of accidents.

Traffic deaths last year rose to 21 in the three days of celebration when thousands of vehicles carrying pleasure seekers jammed arterial highways.

In spite of precautions planned to forestall many tragic crashes, state police are forecasting that approximately 125 persons will be injured in accidents of all types—many to be maimed for life. State patrolmen will guard all highway closely, working double shifts with very little rest until the holiday period has passed.

Chief Fred Hickman said. Special attention will be given to drinking drivers and those who violate the 45 mile-an-hour speed law, and weave in and out of traffic lines.

"Fast driving means death in collisions, when reasonable speeds would cause slight injuries," Chief Hickman admonished. "State officers will join with local police in preventing as many casualties as possible."

Officials urged Texas people to guard against accidents in the homes, on hunting and fishing trips and while swimming and boating so that death toll may be lowered.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH CALLS PASTOR

Rev. H. E. East of Abilene has accepted the pastorate of the First Baptist church here, and will be on the field within the next few days. However, due to his summer school work and meetings it will probably be September 18th before he takes charge of the church services.
