Net Combined 135 Points Hounds Win Meet

The Knox City Greyhound track team proved themselves superior here Saturday when they overpowered some twenty odd teams from the Big Country Area.

KC racked up 135 points and the nearest threat was second place Baird with 86.

Gary Carver, KCIS sophomore, was high point individual with 26 points.

Only one record was broken, that being in the pole vault, Mike Johnson of Albany vaulted 12 feet breaking the record set by Cliff Strickland of Rochester with 11'10" in 1968. Will Whiteley tied the high jump record 6'2" set last year by Harbee of Rule. Greg Clonts ran 15.5 in the hurdles tying the school record.

Luaders-Avoca was winner in the class B division with 24 points, the Hamlin Junior Varsity won their division with 124 points.

Knox City had five first places three seconds and five third places for the day.

A list of the other results follows:

It's Been One Of Those Weeks

It's no secret that the News staff does make mistakes, but we refuse to take the blame for the obvious mistakes appearing in some of the type last week.

Our just-writers (even though we pamper them) have their off-weeks, and believe us, it all began last week. We did manage to get through Wednesday with them and then were off to Abilene for the usual repair. However, it was not usual this time and Monday at noon, The News received the news that one of the machines would be out of order until a new part could be obtained. Hopefully, we will have the reader back in operation by next week.

Our Monday neighbors could not help out this time as their machine tape is slightly more narrow than ours. However, they informed us that Earl Guine at The Baylor County Barner had obtained new machines recently and could run our tape on his reader. A quick call to Seymour and Mr. Guine assured us that they could accommodate us. How wonderful it is to have friends and neighbors in the newspaper business that lend a helping hand!

Thanks to Mr. Guine and advice by phone from Roy Craig, our Stamford publisher, readers of The News will receive their papers on time.

Knox City Bassmasters had a real good attendance at their Big Fish Tournament on Stamford Lake on March 11. Bob Whisenand of Haskell won first place with a 5 pound, 1 ounce black bass.

The regular meeting is set for Monday night March 26 at the Kernal Club. President Monty Penman states that a program previously planned has cancelled, but a good substitute will be on hand.

All interested fishermen (Lady-type bass fishermen, too) are encouraged to participate in this entirely enjoyable activity. Throughout the year, programs for each of these meetings will be designed to enlighten as well as entertain fishermen.

KC Bassmasters Club To Meet Monday Night

Mr. Carpenter was a landowner. He, along with five other Knox City businessmen, made the Brazos Valley Care Home a reality to this community.

He also helped build the Rice Springs Care Home in Haskell.

Survivors include his wife, Sammie, one brother, Leo Carpenter of Corsicana and one sister, Mrs. Hazel Land of Sinton.

Funeralbearers were Charles Clarke, Jim Anderson, Leo Beason, Ross Mac Oliver, Henry L. White and Bill Baker.

For Achievements In Community

CSO Receives Letter Of Commendation

Do you know what the community service organization actually is? Do you know what its functions are? Do you know how many persons in our area benefit daily from this organization?

Not quite one year old, the Community Service Organization is of such importance to our area that officers have just received a letter of commendation for its services from Bob Lindsey and the Governor's Committee on the Aged. The group was praised for the efficiency achieved in such a short time. There are no paid employees and no available funds.

Last spring, the Texas Department of Public Welfare office was asked to find an existing local agency to look into the needs of the aging in the community.

Mrs. Henry L. White who was president of the newly-organized Woman's Community Action League, and her club members considered this request as a project until they realized the need was so great that it would require more workers than their club could provide.

About this time last year an organizational meeting was set up and officials were overwhelmed with the response. Tab-

Children are your supply of potential poisons in not so well hidden. Neatly arranged household items--items which cause half a million accidental poisonings in our country each year--are probably stored in every room of your home. Before someone takes them accidentally, look for these items:
Kitchen killers: Household chemicals such as detergents, ammonia, silver and brass polishes, disinfectants, room deodorizers, and insect poisons may be under the kitchen sink where children can easily reach them.
Bathroom dangers: Medicines taken near accidental poisonings in children, and sprays such as the pink Creamer, deodorants, shaving lotion, and unsealed medicine can poison.

The next meeting will be joint affair with an old fashioned box supper at the O'Brien Lunchroom. This will April 16. All people in the O'Brien community are asked to please participate in this. This is a fund raising supper for needed equipment. The members ask everyone to please help your community.

All meetings after the April meeting will be at the City Hall. Time will be announced later.

The women's volleyball team that has been playing at O'Brien is getting to be pretty good. The only thing that I have to say is, should you have to play with a very hard ball—don't do it—I did and all I came out with is two jammed fingers, which is not very good. I'm still not sure that I did not break one of them.

A Weekly Report Of Agri-Business News

Compiled From Sources Of The Texas Department of Agriculture John C. White, Commissioner

Broilers Are Popular... Onion Production Increases... Weather Delays... 34 Counties Still Under Quarantine.

Texas continued its number seven ranking in the nation in broiler production during 1972. In recent weeks, broilers have become more popular than ever and prices to producers and at the retail level have shown dramatic changes.

Prices have increased as much as 10 cents per pound during recent weeks, a situation never before heard of in the broiler industry.

The value of the 1973 broiler segment of the state's agriculture industry should be considerably higher than in 1972.

Average price received by broiler producers in 1972 was only 14.2 cents per pound. Gross income from broiler production during this past year amounted to $93,790,000. This is about $6,000,000 higher than during 1971.

Total production in Texas during 1972 was 187,441,000. This is seven per cent above a year ago, but two per cent below the record of 1970. Weekly placements of broilers during 1972 ranged from a high of about 4,000,000 to a low of 2,000,000.

Although broiler prices to producers have increased substantially, production costs have skyrocketed. Costs of feed have more than doubled in many instances.

Nationwide, broiler production during 1972 in 22 key states which produce 97 per cent of the nation's broilers, showed an increase of five per cent.

Broiler prices to consumers are now at about the levels of 20 years ago. Until recently, the retail price of broilers has been 15 to 20 cents per pound under prices paid by consumer 20 years ago.

The four leading states in broiler production are Arkansas, Georgia, Alabama and North Carolina. The production in Arkansas is about three times that of Texas.

IF YOU like onions, you'll be happy to know that this year's onion crop in the Rio Grande Valley is estimated now to be five per cent above last year's crop. Yield per acre is down this year due to weather conditions.

The South Texas spring onion crop has been delayed two weeks because of weather conditions. In the Lower Rio Grande Valley where the majority of the crop is planted, adverse weather conditions have prevailed since Christmas.

It is anticipated a good crop will be made if weather is warm and sunny from now through April.

WEATHER continues to delay other crop production too. Cantaloupes will be a month later than normal in South Texas; the same is true for watermelons. Citrus harvest, which usually is concluded in South Texas in April, is expected to continue into June.

A TOTAL of 34 Texas counties continue under quarantine for cattle scabies. They are Armstrong, Bailey, Briscoe, Carson, Castro, Childress, Collingsworth, Cottle, Dallam, Deaf Smith, Donley, Floyd, Foard, Gray, Hale, Hall, Hansford, Hardeman, Hartley, Hemphill, Hutchinson, Lamb, Lipscomb, Moore, Motley, Ochiltree, Oldham, Pomeroy, Potter, Randall, Roberts, Sherman, Swisher and Wheeler.

Quarantines for scabies from five southwestern Oklahoma counties was lifted recently. Nationwide, there have been 135 cattle scabies outbreaks in the past 16 months.

The wholesomeness of meat is not affected by the disease. A total of 45 counties are under quarantine throughout the nation.

Contour Farming A Valuable Tool

Contour farming is conducting farming operations on sloping cultivated land in such a way that plowing, land preparation, planting, and cultivation are done on the contour.

The main purpose is to reduce erosion and provide water control. It is applicable on sloping cropland where other cultural and management practices in the cropping system do not adequately control soil and water losses and erosion.

Terraces or diversions serve as permanent guide lines for contours. Fields that do not require terraces may be marked off with border disc or other suitable equipment to permanently mark the contour. Tillage operation leaving ridges or furrows, such as listing, chiseling or drilling with deep furrow drills are recommended to be done parallel with the contour guidelines. Tillage operations resulting in little or no ridges or furrows such as drilling with disc drills may be performed in circular, triangular, or rectangular, lands following the field boundary as guidelines but are not considered contour farming.

The Soil Conservation Service would be happy to help you with this or any other conservation pollution or environmental problem.

SCS News

Mike Risinger, Soil Scientist with the Soil Conservation Service in Knox City, reports that Billy J. Wagner, soil specialist from the Soil Conservation Service Temple office, was in Knox County March 19-22 reviewing the Knox County Soil Survey work. Mike stated this type of progress review is held in each survey area once each year to maintain nationwide uniformity in field mapping and soil interpretations.

Soil mapping has been completed on over 440,000 acres of the 544,312 acres in Knox County. Completion date for the Knox County survey is Dec. 1, 1973. Soil information and interpretations on every acre in Knox County will be available when the survey is completed, Risinger continued.

Soil survey data is a valuable tool for the farmer in planning conservation as well as for engineers, home builders, and city planners, Risinger concluded.

Coaches' Comments

By COACH JIMMY ROGERS

The Greyhound track team was victorious last Saturday at the Knox City Relays. It's always good to win but it is even better when you win in front of the home fans. We had 15 teams at our track meet this year competing in the varsity and junior varsity division. We scored 135 points to runner-up Baird with 86. This was a good meet for some of our guys because we had some personal bests in their events. Will Whiteley jumped 6'2" for a meet record and a new school record. Greg Cloets ran 15.5 and 42.8 respectively in the hurdles with the 15.5 tying the school record. Ricky Hacker also ran a 43.9 in the Intermediate Hurdles for a career best. Gary Carver was high point individual of the meet. We are looking forward to going to Albany this week in a meet in which should be our best competition up to date. This should be an outstanding meet if the weather permits. Come and support the Hounds at Albany.

les had been set up for twelve persons and more than forty came—ready to help. All churches and organizations were represented.

A steering committee was named to advise the organization and to complete information files for a plan to bring planned daily contact to older residents of Knox City.

Among the many achievement noted during the year has been volunteer transportation available to senior citizens that need and desire the service for shopping and delivery of groceries, medical needs and outside outlets, seven days a week. Approximately 143 senior citizens are involved in this program. However, not all are in need of this service.

Other services include active telephone committees who make daily contact, seven days a week, once each day, unless the volunteer feels need for further contact. Six telephone committees serve approximately 30 to 35 shut-in senior citizens. About 900 calls were made per month, and 10,800 during the year. New names are added when brought to the attention of the CSO.

Home visits are made to those who do not have outside contact daily, have no telephones, and need to be contacted by a volunteer. The volunteer provides such services as shopping for necessary items seeing that medical attention is provided when needed and helping with chores that the person is unable to provide for him or herself. These visits are on seven-day basis and extra calls are made when needed. Approximately four to six homes are in need of these services.

Crafts is a service offered for those who need to fill their time with some activity. As we do not have a community center at this time (hopefully we will have in the near future) groups have been formed in various sections of town in homes of interested citizens. There have been three active groups and three more were formed last month. This service can be performed only on a limited basis as the CSO does not have available space or funds. This service is for one day per week—two hours a day. Public donations have been made of usable materials of approximately $150.00 value. As this program grows, the need is expected to double in 1973. Here is evidence of a great need for a community center where more groups may meet. Also the need of basic supplies is again noted here.

In recreational services, a group of volunteers meet in the dining room of the Brazos Valley Care Home each Thursday night and set up facilities for bingo. The Senior citizens there who are able to participate are brought in and play free of charge for gifts donated by public solicitation. The sessions last one hour and not only Knox City workers are participating, but workers from all the surrounding communities are providing volunteer services.

Over fifty volunteers are giving hours and hours of time in service to the community. However, it is impossible for any one person to give full time to these needs.

Officials say they are aware that there are probably many in the community who would like to participate and that any help will be greatly appreciated. It is hoped that tentative plans will work out to provide the community center in Knox City that will benefit the CSO as well as all organizations.

KC Girl On Dean's List

Mary is a senior secondary education major. She is doing her practice teaching in Lewisville the next eight weeks.

Included in the presentation of colored film telling the story of this great work, will be the relating of the miracle of bringing back to life of the baby of Rev. Baglani that had been dead 2 or 3 days before her birth, states Rev. Floyd V. Bailey, pastor of the local Foursquare Church.

The local pastor, in extending an invitation to the public to attend, says the unusual story is not only geographically educational but is also spiritually enlightening.

Curtis Casey's pickup was stolen Tuesday afternoon. He went in the house for lunch and a nap, and when he went out to get in his new pickup, it wasn't there. The old pickup was there, but the thief had looked in it and stolen an expensive pair of sunglasses.
Everyone in the community who heard about it began taking their car and pickup keys out, even at home. By Wednesday it was known that a 14 or 15 year old boy had stuck the pickup on a road near Foard City, and when J. C. Aury pulled it out of the ditch had just taken off without even a "Thank you". Law enforcement officers drove the country roads and planes searched the area, but the pickup and boy weren't apprehended until they got to Lawton, where he ran out of gas.
The boy was a runaway from Alabama. He rode his motorbike to Benjamin and left it there Monday afternoon when he ran out of gas and money. He started walking north, partly on the highway and partly in the breaks. He spent the night in the breaks on the highway in the breaks and then followed the railroad out of the breaks. The Casey house is the first place he sighted when he came out of the breaks. He knocked a hole in the transmission, but that has been repaired. Curtis has his pickup back now, but no sunglasses. The boy put them in his hip pocket and sat on them. Law Enforcement officials put the boy on a plane for home.

Streams In Desert Places

By OZELLE STEPHENS

"Behold, a virgin shall be with child and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call His name Emmanuel, which being interpreted, is God with us Matt. 1-23.
God is wily us
God is with us always, a living personal being. He came to live in this world as a personal being through Jesus Christ. To do this He had to suffer. To love is to suffer too be cause you open yourself to hurt and suffering. Most everyone who has ever loved anything or anyone can say that this is true.
When we look at John 3:16-17 we see three verbs, "God loved", "God gave that we might be saved," Each are costly, they are words of action and involvement, God is for us, Emmanuel means, God is in this world with us. You can have His love and power Streaming into your being continually taking the sting out of every hurt.
