"KNOX CITIANS AT WORK"

DRUGGISTS — Henry and Henry Jean Jones are shown above in Jones Drug filling prescriptions. We didn't ask Henry how long he has been in business here, but 30 years, give or take — is a fair estimate. Usually, when we take pictures of Knox Citizens at work, we usually make them stop in order to arrange the picture, but in this case, the men are REALLY working.

James Eiland And Ronnie White Show Lions Their Science Fair Projects

Supt. of Schools E. A. Youngblood, supplied entertainment at the Lions Club Wednesday in the form of science students James Eiland and Ronnie White.

Eiland placed second in the senior division and White placed sixth in the first division, junior high, at the Wichita Falls Science Fair recently.

Youngblood introduced Ben Fletcher, science teacher, and Ronnie White. White demonstrated his science project, a cloud chamber, to the audience.

White uses the cloud chamber to study radio-active decay and penetrating force of atomic particles, and the velocity, mass, and kinetic energy of the particles of different things.

The chamber is composed of an air-tight glass object and a pump and hose connection. He pours methanol-alcohol on a plate in the chamber and pumps air into it. Various dust particles are then introduced into the cloud for study.

White had three photographs of the cloud and an isolated dust pattern he had formed.

Two batteries, developing 480 volts, were also hooked to the display.

White said object of the project was to find the velocity and mass of the different particles.

In conclusion, White said he wanted to thank the Lions Club for their donation to his project — "it really helped," he said.

Youngblood said White was a freshman student, and that the school had big plans for him in the future.

Youngblood said when he was in Wichita Falls there were long lists of Wichita Falls students entered in the contest, but in the second and sixth spots were Eiland and White. "It really looked good," he said.

"Eiland is a junior student and we expect him to be first next year," Youngblood said.

Eiland, after his introduction by Youngblood, said, "I would like to say thanks for your donation."

His project, "Thermoelectronics," is a study of direct conversion of thermal energy to electrical energy.

Roddy's Cafe Under New Management

W. J. Roddy sold his Roddy's Cafe and Motel to Roy Tankersley a few weeks ago and has moved his family to their new location in Harlingen, where he bought an 81-unit motel and a large cafe with three dining rooms and a 100-unit cafe in the front.

C. D. Headen is the new owner and manager of the Roddy Cafe. He and his wife "G" assumed management Friday, March 24.

Painting and redecorating has been in progress this week and the Headens plan an open house and get acquainted day for this Saturday.

C. J. Reese States His Platform For Mayors Race

In announcing his candidacy for mayor of Knox City C. J. Reese said he was interested primarily in progress for Knox City and this area.

"Knox City is the most active town in the area and with planning for the future and some special efforts expended can prosper and grow as it should," Reese said.

"Water is our first need if any industrial growth can be made. Our supply is adequate at present, but would not be if new industry could be brought to our city," he added.

Mr. Reese has been appointed chairman of the water research committee by the Chamber of Commerce and has been interested in promoting the construction of the Bob Baskin dam for several years.

"Much work was done in the past on this project but for several years now interest has lagged. Endeavors to bring back interest in this project should be made and every effort expended to make this dam a reality," Reese said.

"A town is judged by its plans for the future as well as its present activities and Knox City and its citizens need to be looking to the future and providing needs for a growing community."

Mr. Reese stated that he feels the city needs to set up a systematic program for street repairs in addition to planning for future paving which in several locations is already needed.

"If elected mayor of Knox City I will promise the citizens of this town that the City and its elected officials will hold regular stated meetings of the Council which will be open to the public. Any person having problems concerning operation of the city will be heard."

"We will try to operate the city with the sanction of all of the citizens and attempt to make Knox City's government one OF the people and FOR the people," Reese concluded.

Special Services At Benjamin Christian Church Sunday

Special Services Sunday are planned at the Benjamin First Christian Church.

Easter message will be presented through scripture and song.

Pastor Karel Desgrange said, "You won't want to miss this special service in keeping with this special day."

Everyone is invited to attend he said.

O'Brien Baptist Brotherhood Meet-Supper Monday

Rev. W. E. Thorn of Calvary Baptist Church in Lubbock will be the speaker at the O'Brien Baptist Brotherhood meeting, Monday, April 3, 7:30 p.m. at the O'Brien Baptist Church.

Supper will be served at 7:30. The program will start at 8:15 p.m.

Men of the Brotherhood have set their goal for 100 O'Brien men to be in attendance Monday and all men of the area have a special invitation to be in attendance also.

GILLESPIE CEMETERY NEEDS ADDITIONAL FUNDS

The Gillespie Cemetery Committee is asking for funds to be donated to clean up the cemetery grounds. Donations may be given or mailed to Walter Moore or Roe Myers of Munday.

Mayor Guy Glenn Has Word To Say To KC Voters

Below is a letter written by Mayor Guy Glenn:

"Sometime ago, we consulted the State Highway Dept. regarding our streets and their maintenance. They advised us as to what we needed and we bought this material last fall and paid for it. It is now stored in our warehouse ready to be put on. Due to the rain and snow we have had, we could not treat the streets successfully until it dries out. We are at present working on them.

"As to our water supply, we have plenty of water at the present time — underground water. We have some underground water rights that we are not using. Some people have offered us more water free of charge. Others have offered to sell us water rights. We have investigated the possibilities of building our own surface water lake near Knox City. This is the best thing for our town; for this is what people ask about when they are considering moving to a new place — water that they can see or tell how much there is!

"All of the City's equipment is paid for. We have tried to make our town a better place to live without going in debt any more. However, if things develop to where we need to go in debt more, we want it to be a worthwhile project that will justify a bond issue that every taxpayer will benefit from."

Guy Glenn, Mayor

Benjamin Churches To Hold Easter Sunrise Services

Easter Sunrise Services will be held at the football field on the school ground in Benjamin at 6 a.m. Sunday morning, April 2.

All churches in the community are cooperating in this program, and Brother Daniel Vestal, evangelist for the Baptist Youth Revival, will preach.

In case of inclement weather, the services will be held in the Benjamin Christian Church.

Everyone is invited to attend.

Attends Brother-In-Laws Funeral

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sams and Bunny left Saturday for Oklahoma City to attend the funeral of Bill's brother-in-law, Clarence Symes, Jr.

Symes was a native of Lubbock, and married the former Gertrude Sams of Benjamin.

They had made their home in Oklahoma since the war.

Junior Easter Parade Slated Tonight

The Easter Parade, sponsored by the Junior Class, will be presented Thursday March 30 (tonight) at 7:30 p.m. in the High School Auditorium.

Special entertainment will be provided by a high school group from Rule.

"Also, last but not least, a beauty contest will be between five raving junior class beauties modeling their Easter clothes," the juniors said.

Streams in Desert Places

Ozelle Stephens

Easter brings to us again the story of Jesus broken, bearing your sins and mine in His own body on Calvary's tree. Isaiah said, "Our's was the pain He bore, the sorrow He endured," —surely He bore our griefs, and carried our sorrows to the cross. He was wounded for our transgressions, bruised for our iniquities; the chastisement of our peace was upon Him; and with His stripes we are healed."

Who hath believed this report of God's prophet? To him who hath believed each one becomes a reality. Your mind is enlightened with His truth, your soul is renewed with His joys, which is your strength and your heart overflows with joy unspeakable. New living life Streams into your being from the living God, the source of all things.

Funds Available For Eligible Farmers Now

Additional funds have been made available to help meet the needs of eligible farmers who need operating money to carry out their farming operations. Wilburn A. Satterwhite, County Supervisor of the Farmers Home Administration announced recently.

Satterwhite said that a $35,000,000 contingency fund provided by the 1961 Agricultural Appropriations Act has just been released to the Farmers Home Administration to meet the growing demand for credit.

This move was taken by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Satterwhite said, in an effort to make certain, within the authorities and funds available, that no qualified family-type farmer will be required to give up farming because of his inability to finance his 1961 operations.

Because of high operating costs and unfavorable margins of profits many farmers have exhausted their regular sources of farm operating credit. The amount of operating loans made so far this year by the Farmers Home Administration totals 20 per cent higher than last year. The credit Agency's biggest lending season lies just ahead as farmers prepare to start their spring work.

The Farmers Home Administration makes operating loans primarily to help eligible farm families make improved use of their land and labor resources on family-type farms and make needed changes in their farming systems. Most of the changes call for adopting better farming practices and improving the efficiency of their farming operations. Loans may also be made to qualified farmers who carry on smaller than family-type operations.

IT'S THE LAW IN TEXAS

CLEAN HANDS

Our courts work with two sets of principles in meting out justice—those of "law" and those of "equity."

Under "law" a court declares the parties' rights and duties and sets money damages for harm already done—as when someone goes back on his contract with you, or injures you in an automobile crash.

But under principles of "honesty, equity and conscience," for example, a court seeing harm on the way, may forestall it and enforce its orders by fines or jail terms.

England used to have two kinds of courts to hear cases under law and equity. But today both England and America use the same judge to hear both kinds of cases. How did these two systems arise?

Long ago the English king called upon the "chancery"—then largely made up of churchmen, the keepers "of the king's conscience", to give "relief" where the older Common Law courts, grown rigid, might fail.

Unable to use the Common Law, the chancellors applied certain rules and maxims, sometimes borrowed from ancient Greece and Rome — "He who comes into equity must come with clean hands." Sometimes this is stated: "No one can take advantage in a court of equity of his own wrongdoing."

This maxim denied a suitor "relief" if he himself has done wrong in the transaction at issue. A scale maker had advertised that his scales would count fractions of a cent against the customer and in favor of the store-keeper.

He had asked a court in equity to stop a competitor from revealing that his scale was cheating customers. But the court threw the case out: Not having "clean hands," the scale maker had no standing in equity. He could not seek fair treatment when he himself was dishonest in particular situation at issue.

(This newfeature, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform — not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

VETERANS

QUESTIONS and ANSWERS

Q—I'm a Korea veteran, holding GI term insurance. I understand, by a recent law, I now can convert it to a permanent plan. Is this so?

A—Yes. Korea veterans holding term insurance policies with the letters "RS" before their policy numbers may either convert to permanent plan insurance or exchange for a term policy costing one-third as much.

Q—On my discharge from the Armed Forces I received a lump sum disability severance payment. Will I have to pay this back to the Government if I am awarded VA compensation for the same disability?

A—Yes. The law requires that VA monthly compensation revert to the Government until the amount recovered is equal to the amount of disability severance pay the veteran received.

Q—I am planning to sell my GI home but cannot pay off the loan with what cash I will receive from the new purchaser. Do I have to have VA's consent to make the sale?

A—No. You do not need VA's consent to sell your property. However, if you wish to be released from possible liability to the Government, you must apply to VA.

Q—Is it possible for a disabled "peacetime" veteran to draw VA compensation at wartime rates?

A—Yes—if the disability resulted from extra hazardous service, as, for example, participation in simulated warfare, the veteran may be eligible for compensation at wartime rates.

AUSTIN, Tex. — Texas Senate demonstrated its faith in the future by passing an appropriation bill without having the money to meet the obligations.

It calls for spending $2,496,685 during the next two years. It does not include teacher pay raises or medical care for the aged. Senators agreed that they needed to know how much new money could be raised before making decisions on these.

The measure calls for spending $376,000,000 from the already-overdrawn general revenue fund. That's $103,000,000 more than the comptroller's estimate of general fund revenue for the next two years. This $103,000,000 plus a deficit that is expected to be about $63,000,000 at the end of this biennium, adds up to $166,000,000 in new revenue that would be needed to put the Senate appropriation bill into effect, as it is now.

PANEL OKAYS TEACHER RAISE — Senate Education Committee approved the Hale-Aikin school improvement program which includes an across-the-board $800 a year raise for public school teachers.

Sen. A. M. Aikin Jr., of Paris, sponsor, said he would not ask for floor passage of the school measure until the general appropriations bill has been passed as well as a tax bill that would provide money for it.

Hale-Aikin program would cost the state about $72,000,000 a year and local districts about $18,900,000 a year. It would set the minimum salary for beginning teachers with bachelor's degrees at $4,014 a year.

HORSES LOSE RACE — Before a gallery packed with people, Rep. V. E. (Red) Berry gave up the fight for a proposed constitutional amendment to legalize horse racing.

House vote against the measure was 143-to-5. Berry, seeing he did not have enough votes for passage, signaled his supporters to vote against it. This, he said, would avoid "putting them on the spot" for a lost cause.

Berry still hopes to get a referendum on the 1962 general election ballot to indicate public opinion on racing and paramutuel betting.

MILK BILL "SKIMMED" — One of the most controversial bills of the session, the milk importation measure, was passed by the House by voice vote.

But before passage, opponents' amendments had skimmed off the cream of the bill the dairy-men wanted.

As passed by the Senate, the bill would bar out-of-state milk from Texas unless a Texas inspector certified he had personal knowledge the milk was produced under standards as high as those required in Texas.

Amendments took out the "personal knowledge" phrase and provided the milk could be imported on the certification of out-of-state health authorities after a Texas authority had found the out-of-state producer to be meeting acceptable standards.

Battle is not over since the differences between the House and Senate versions of the bill will have to be worked out.

TAXES DEBATED — House Revenue and Taxation Committee is exploring the possibility of raising money through a corporate income tax.

Testimony was heard on two bills. One by Rep. Tony Koriath of Sherman would repeal the present corporate franchise tax (for a loss of $48,000,000 a year) and substitute a three per cent corporate income tax (for a gain of approximately $96,000,000 a year).

Also heard was a bill by Rep. Maco Stewart of Galveston which would levy a 10 per cent corporate income tax, repeal the oil well servicing tax and reduce the sulphur tax.

A bill to provide for a $1 charge for taking a state driver's license examination was passed by committee and sent to the House. It would raise an estimated $1,250,000 a year.

Meanwhile, Speaker James Turman, addressing a teachers' group, said he felt Texas was close to resorting to the "last resort"—sales or income taxes.

CAMPAIGN LIMIT PASSED — Senate passed 26-to-4 a bill that would limit to $25,000 the spending of any one candidate in a race for the U. S. Senate.

Sen. Martin Dies Jr., of Lufkin is sponsor of the bill. Limit would apply to money spent for newspaper, radio or television advertising with the candidate's knowledge. All other means of advertising would be exempted.

Attorney general would be responsible for enforcement.

If the bill should be finally passed and take effect before the present special senatorial race is

Uncle Ben from Benjamin says:

My old lady went to town yesterday and got her a new hat for Easter Sunday and she ain't done nothing today but try to decide if it looks better'n the one she wore last Easter. I told her it's a mighty important matter and don't come to no decision without meditation and prayer.

I think wimmen spend half their time trying to decide what to wear and, if you ask me, it's them decisions that finally git 'em in the end. I recollect about the feller that went crazy on his job of sorting potatoes by size, putting the big ones in that bin and the little ones in that bin. It was making them decisions all day long that finally got him.

Maybe they git a little more nervous as they git older, but there's one thing you got to over, it could put a lid on spending of candidates in the run-off campaign next month.

FIREMEN'S BILL KILLED — House killed by a 73-to-66 vote a bill that would have set up a procedure for arbitration of wage-and-hour disputes between firemen and city governments.

Passage was urged by firemen but opposed by city officials.

Bill would have provided for an arbitration board and if necessary an election once a year to consider firemen's requests. Supporters contended it would have enabled firemen and city officials to settle their problems on the local level instead of battling before the Legislature, as in years past.

Opponents objected to the possibility of frequent, costly elections and argued that it would give firemen a privilege not enjoyed by other city employees.

"KID" DRIVERS TARGET — House Highways Committee is considering a bill that would take 14-year-olds off the road — as drivers of cars or motor scooters.

Rep. Maco Stewart, sponsor, urged the measure to "take the cars out of junior high school... and get the students' minds on their books." His measure would raise the minimum age at which a driver's license may be issued from 14 to 15 years and would set up the same licensing requirements for motor scooters. In some towns youngsters of 12 and 13 are allowed to ride motor scooters.

A motor scooter seller objected on grounds that many working youngsters, such as newspaper carrier boys, needed scooters for their jobs.

say fer wimmen. They is outlasting the men and is gradual taking over. I see by the census report where five year ago they was 94 men fer ever 100 wimmen, and now they ain't but 90 men fer 100 wimmen. At this rate, in another 50 year men will be as scarce in this country as Republicans in Georgia.

Incidental, talking about Easter hats, I was reading in the papers last week where some feller in Paris that designs wimmen's hats has come up with a new Spring model you can use fer food when they git through wearing it. After you old lady wears this hat fer a spell, she can serve it fer dinner, cutting down on the feed bill. Ever little bit helps and I'll take another look at the one my old lady bought and see if I think we can have it fer dinner on V-J day.

But I reckon, Mister Editor, that the most serious charge you can bring agin the wimmen of today is that they is responsible fer the success of the installment plan in business. A dollar down and a dollar from now on and they tote the stuff home. It used to be a feller could take a nap on Saturday afternoon. Now he sets at the front gate waiting fer the installment collectors to divide up his payroll.

Well, I see by the papers where the Congress is talking about raising the public debt limit agin. It don't seem to make no difference, Mister Editor, Democrats or Republicans, the public debt limit keeps climbing. Both sides talk different but they git the same results — I recollect when Hoover come to the White House he sent Coolidge's saddle horse to Fort Meyer, said it was a "economy" move. When Cal heard about it he grunted and ask if the horse would eat less hay at Ft. Meyer. It looks to me like the Democrats and Republicans eat about the same amount of hay, just move the horse around.

Yours truly,
 Uncle Ben

CARD OF THANKS

Words cannot express our appreciation to all of our friends, for your words of comfort, the many, many cards and letters, the beautiful flowers, and most of all, for the many prayers for Georgia that if it be God's will, her life will be spared and that she could regain her health and happiness. I wish I could thank each of you personally for you will never know how much you have helped us to bear these days that she has been so seriously ill. May God bless each of you.

We have returned Georgia to the Knox County Hospital. She is improving, but her condition is still so serious that she needs to be very quiet, and rest. The doctors think it best for her not to have company for a few more days. I know each of you want to see her recover as soon as possible, and when she is able to go home and receive company, our home will be open to welcome you. You will never know how much we appreciate all our friends.

Melanie Meddles

By MELANIE VERHALIN

Have you ever complained of how your nose is fashioned? Too big, too tilted, or otherwise? It seems as though your nose would be one of the sense organs hardest to do without.

Besides looking very odd, think of all the smells you would miss. Whether you associate them or not, every object has its own particular scent. Probably at a party you have played the blindfolded game where you guess the name of objects that are dropped to the floor. How well could you do if bottles were uncapped — freeing scents?

Would you recognize alfalfa and hot rolls and lilacs? Could you "see" wild roses, a horsey barn, the interior of a new car, a hospital, new print of a newspaper, a school room, uncut material, "tennis weather," or church quiet.

Do you think you could live without the smells of frying onions, boiling cabbage, an athletic dressing room, little dogs, old shoes, or musty cellars?

Could you do without the nose that your glasses slide down, that you put freckles on, that you get a cold in, that you stick in other people's business?

Presuming that you said "No," I hereby designate this as Nose Appreciation Week.

Nearly two thousand years ago this week, the greatest proof of love of mankind was brought by Jesus Christ—the Savior, the God made man, the individualist.

Knowing that His life on earth was ending, He instituted at the last Supper the practice of our receiving His Body and Blood—and endless miracle.

On Friday, after being scourged, spat upon, crowned with thorns, and mocked by menial men, Christ died on the Cross, forgiving us for our ignorance.

On Sunday, He further proved His omnipotence by "rising from the dead" and fulfilling the promise He had made to Man.

"Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends."

If you go to church no other time in the year, Easter is the time to show your appreciation.

MAYOR

Of Knox City, In The April 4th Election

We believe in the future growth and expansion of Knox City and we also believe C. J. Reese has the background and experience necessary to accomplish the things best suited to achieve these goals.

Integrity and ability are unquestioned, for Reese has served on numerous boards throughout the county in years past, and is known as a man that "gets things done." He is a long time member of the First Baptist Church (1911) and has been on the building committee for two churches. He was chairman of the building committee of the new sanctuary. He is also a director in the Chamber of Commerce.

Reese is in a position to devote all the time necessary in attending all

City development program have been uppermost in his mind throughout the years. We feel certain that he will be in the office of mayor with integrity.

We firmly believe that the best way to conduct city business is on a high level and that no "special interest" groups will interfere with our progress on making Knox City a better city in which to raise our children.

This is the first time a mayor has sought office in any form. We are interested of a better and more prosperous Knox City, let's all get out and cast our vote for Reese.
