This Paper Cooperates in Straw Vote

Result Will Reflect Rural Sentiment

Interest of the voters in the presidential campaign is becoming keen each day as Presidential straw votes are being conducted throughout the county. For the most part these straw-vote polls are being conducted by newspapers published in metropolitan territories. In addition to these the Literary Digest is conducting a nation-wide poll all of which is highly interesting in a political way, and from experiences in the past, may be relied upon to rather accurately reflect public sentiment toward the candidates, their parties and the major political is-

Another nation-wide vote for presidents is now proposed in a poll that will reflect the political leanings of small town and rural America. This straw-vote poll is to be conducted by weekly newspapers, more than 2,000 of them, located in every state in the union and with an estimated combined circulation of six to ten million in small town and rural districts.

Herald Joins In

The Herald is one of the weekly newspapers asked to cooperate in conducting this poll. Together with some 2000 newspapers served by the Publishers Autocaster Service a new paper feature service located in New York, a straw-vote on presidents will be taken during the next few weeks, these returns to be forwarded to New York for national tabulation.

Within the next two or three weeks national returns on the straw-vote will be available, releases coming forward every week to The Herald for exclusive publication in this territory.

A Herald straw ballot in the Nation-wide vote for President is printed in this issue. Clip it out, vote for the candidate of your choice and mail or bring the ballot to the Herald office. Let's all join in on this nation-wide vote. Let's help express the political sentiment at this time of Texas, Knox County, and Knox City. You are under no obligation in casting your vote in the straw-vote test. Most surely you want to see the strength of your favorite candidate reflected in this vote. So clip the straw-vote ballot vote for your candidate by marking "X" opposite his name, then send it to the Herald.

Local Vote Each Week

The local vote, as sent to the Herald will be published each week. The vote in the national balloting as compiled from returns sent in by other weekly newspapers will also be published just as soon as it is available. These returns will be sent to the Herald every week from New York.

The two major parties' candidates, Herbert Hoover and Franklin Roosevelt are given preferred positions on the straw-vote ballot, inasmuch as it is an accepted conclusion that the presidency will go to one of these two candidates at the November election. The names of the other officially nominated candidates for the presidency are listed in alphabetical order.

PREACHER'S WIFE GIVEN SHOWER

Monday afternoon Mrs. J. H. Sharp, the Methodist Pastor's wife, was surprised but agreeably so, with a shower given by the ladies of the church.

The ladies met in their regular Missionary meeting in the home of Mrs. Hoge, joint hostess being Mrs. L. W. Graham, Mrs. Hull, and Mrs. Huntsman. An interesting Missionary program, under the leadership of Mrs. T. S. Edwards, was given. Mrs. Shirley Park and Miss Ruth Hammock taking part. Following this program Mrs. Hoge gave a tribute to the Pastor's wife which was immediately followed by the presentation of gifts to Mrs. Sharp by Mrs. C. A. Hull.

Surprise of the shower was evident in both facial and verbal expressions of the honoree, which fact was immensely pleasing to the ladies of the church. Mrs. Sharp received a splendid array of very useful gifts. Refreshments of chicken salad, toasted crackers, pickles, angel food cake and iced tea were served to thirty six guests.

J. Silman and family spent Sunday with Mrs. Silman's brother George Salam in Munday.

An Improvement

During the past week one of the most appreciated improvements in Knox City was the cleaning of the alley at the rear of the east side business houses. This back street looks grand. We hope that other business men will walk around and see this clean spot and return home and make their back street equal this one.

Let us all keep our front streets raked clean and all rubbish burned. Let us not forget that "cleanliness is next to Godliness".

Another appreciated scene in the city this week is the long lines of cotton wagons waiting their turn at gins. It has been some years since such waiting lines have been a part of the business life of Knox City.

Read the gin reports this week on the first page of the Herald.

If you are not picking cotton, buy a sack and go to the field.

We were glad Wednesday morning to have J. H. McLain renew his subscription for a period of one year.

Miss Elizabeth Deavers spent last week in Truscott the guest of Miss Doris Stoker.

We have known for some time that children look forward for months to the coming of Christmas but not until Tuesday did we know that grownup barbers also looked forward to the arrival of Saint Nicholas. We found Press Hitchcock, Tuesday, quietly but eagerly going through a stack of music which he explained as Christmas Carols from among which he was attempting to make selections for a Christmas Musical to be given about December the 25th.

I hope that I can appeal to the manhood and womanhood of this community to not let the good crops that God has given us and the prices that we are getting make us loose our souls and self respect. It is a disgrace to any community to see the work and things going on the Sabbath day that we are having. People we must live in the community that we are making and that is not all. Children must live in it after we are dead and gone to "our place". Let us do all that we can six days of the week and then rest on Sunday and give our selves over to making a better community.

We need you at Sunday School and this means every mother and father. We believe that if you will come to church each Sunday that you will get a blessing and also be a blessing.

We are going to try to have some good singing and do our best to make the services as helpful as we can.

You are welcome to the Methodist Church.

On Texas Farms
By W. H. Darrow of A. & M. College

Fort Worth—A net profit of $12 per head on 39 calves, and $7 per head on a pen of 32 others has been made in a feeding demonstration by P. C. Bishop, Tarrant county in cooperation with M. C. Counts, county agent. In late spring Mr. Bishop bought 90 grade Herford calves on the Fort Worth market and his results have been so satisfactory that as soon as he finishes feeding the remaining 19 he plans to buy more. He is recognized as one of the best small crop growers in Haslet community, the county agent says.

Newton—What a small flock of good hens will do for a farm is shown in the report of a Newton county poultry flock demonstrator to the county agent. Carrol Millier made an extra profit of $19.92 from November 1st to August 1st on a flock of 59 white leghorn hens after supplying feed to raise 138 chickens for other livestock, and furnishing the home with eggs. He based his ration on home-grown hagar and Egyptian wheat.

Ablene—A shipment of 4000 sheep are going on feed in September on farms in Lawn an Ovalo community in Taylor county, and 5000 more are expected to be placed there by October 1st, C. M. Heald, county agent, reports. The sheep are furnished by ranchers in the San Angelo territory to be fed on a grain basis. The farmer furnishes the feed and all expenses while on feed, and the rancher pay all transit and commission charges.

Gainsville—Age doesn't slow up Cooke county's veteran farmers who are just as progressive as the young-or ones, declares L. L. Johnson county agent. He says three of them are well over 60 years of age have terraced nearly every acre of their rolling land since he taught them how to do it a year ago.

In a drive by a local Taylor civic organization to can 100 containers of food for the unemployed, 125 persons from various organizations worked for one day under direction of county and home demonstration agents in a wholesale canning festival which resulted in 992 cans of food.

Sixteen registered pigs were recently acquired by Shelby county farmers by a unique trade engineered by the county agent with two swine breeders, whereby farmers traded yearling heaves for breeder pigs though he medium of the local market man. He appraised each yearling and paid the swine breeder. The farmer was then notified and called for his pig.

Sixty-seven Hale county 4-H club boys are feeding 48 baby beets and 256 pigs for show and sale next spring.

By spending $12.15 for seed, weed cutting and rodent control in a 15 acre pasture demonstrator, received $237.60 worth of grazing during the first half of the year, the county agent reports.

About 100 farm home bedrooms have been improved by home demonstration club women and girls in McLennan county at costs averaging about $15. The winning room in the contest cost only $3.77 to improve.

Mrs. W. E. Raney returned home Sunday from South Texas where she spent a week with her two brothers. She was accompanied home by her son Claude from Abilene. Miss Bernice Raney returned home with her brother Claude.

THE OUTDOOR MAN

The air was filthy with the smell of animals and human beings herded together. Men and women trumpeted one another, saying aloud their imprecations. At one side of the court were the pens of the cattle; the dove cages at the other. In the foreground hard-faced priests and money-changers sat behind long tables exacting the utmost farthing from those who came to buy. One would never imagine that this was a place of worship. Yet it was the Temple—the center of the religious life of the nation. And to the crowds who jammed its courts, the spectacle seemed perfectly normal. That was the tragedy of it.

Standing a little apart from the rest, Jesus, the young man from Nazareth watched in amazement which deepened gradually into anger. It was no familiar sight to him. He had not been in the Temple since his twelfth year, when Joseph and Mary took him up to be legally enrolled as a son of the law.

His chief memory of that previous visit was of a long conversation with certain old men in a quiet room. He had not witnessed the turmoil in the outer courts, or, if he had, it made small impression on his youthful mind. But this day was different. For weeks he had looked forward to the visit to the Temple.

To be sure some of the older ones muttered about the extortions of the money-changers at the Temple. A woman told how the lamb which she had raised with so much devotion the previous year, had been scornfully rejected by the priests, who directed her to buy from the dealers. An old man related his experience.

Today Jesus faced the sordid reality, his cheeks flushed. A woman's thrill tones pierced his reverly like a knife; he turned to see a peasant mother protesting vainly against a ruthless exaction.

An suddenly, without a word of warning, he strode to the table where the fat money-changer sat, and hurled it violetly across the court. The startled robber lurched forward, grasping at his gains, lost his balance and fell sprawling on the ground.

Another step and a second table was over-turned, and another, another. The crowd which had melted back at the start began to catch a glimmering of what was up, and surged forward around the young man. He strode on, looking neither to right nor left. He reached the counters where the dove cages stood with quick sure movements the cages were opened and the occupants released. Brushing aside the group of dealers who had taken their stand in front of the cattle pens, he threw down the bars and drove the bellowing animals out through the crowd and into the streets.

The whole thing happened so quickly that the priest were swept off their feet. Now, however, they collected themselves and bore down upon him in a body. Who was he that dared this act of defiance? Where had he come from? By what authority did he presume to interrupt business?

"This is my authority," he cried "It is written, 'My house shall be called a house of prayer for all the nations,' but ye have made it a den of robbers."

RAIL TRANSPORTATION IS EFFICIENT AND ECONOMICAL

● THE RAILROAD is the most efficient and the most economical transportation agency the human mind has ever devised.

The ability of commercial trucks to operate with various charges for their services has been because they are not required to carry all kinds and classes of freight. The truck can choose its freight and is privileged to reject that which it cannot handle, either because it is not equipped for such heavy service or the rates are too low to be profitable. The railroad CANNOT DISCRIMINATE but must accept all freight offered it.

In 1930 the shippers of Texas paid the railroads $225,223,142 in freight charges. If the same volume and character of traffic had been carried by trucks it would have cost the shippers, according to the best available data on trucking costs, $900,000,000, or four times as much.

What will be the effect on the shippers of Texas if only the traffic which the trucks cannot handle is left to the railroads? If traffic paying the higher rate is taken from the railroads by the trucks, it will be necessary for the rail carriers to increase their rates on the low grade traffic or go out of business. The total transportation bill will be greatly increased.

The railroad rate structure is a composite designed for the purpose of enabling the free movement of ALL ARTICLES OF COMMERCE, making it possible to bring even the cheapest commodities into general use and distribution. Were it not for the low rates made available by the railroads on many low grade commodities and raw materials, their distribution and use would be impossible and all commerce and industry would be seriously affected.

● THE RAILROADS CANNOT SUBSIST ON LOW GRADE TRAFFIC ALONE.

THE UKULELE WAS DESIGNED ABOUT 100 YEARS AGO. IT IS GENERALLY SUPPOSED THAT THE UKULELE IS OF HAWAIIAN ORIGIN BUT THE HAWAIIANS ADOPTED IT AFTER IT WAS DESIGNED BY A PORTUGUESE LIVING ON THE ISLAND HAWAIIANS CALLED IT UKULELE, MEANING JUMPING FLEA.

THE ACCORDIAN IS A COMPARATIVELY RECENT INSTRUMENT HAVING BEEN INVENTED IN 1826 BY DAMIEN IN VIENNA.

Miss Carlise Mae Wallace returned to her home in Canton Thursday, today, being accompanied by her sister Mrs. Russel Boyd.

J. Silman left the city Tuesday for Fort Worth and Dallas to market.

The first thing that I would ask you to do is to read this chapter over at least two or three times carefully. You will notice in the first verse, that Christ ate with the chief pharisees on the Sabbath day. The Jews were very particular about the observance of the Sabbath, but probably they carried pleasures of the table to excess just as we do today. They honored the Sabbath chiefly by inviting each other to their homes to eat and drink, some of the authorities think. The indication is the probably the reason that they had Jesus there at this time was that they might "watch Him". Jesus asked the lawyers and pharisees, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?" They did not answer Him, but held their peace. Then Jesus asked the question, "Which of you shall have an ass or an ox fall into a pit will not stretch way pull him out?" Here Jesus the second time, is telling them that it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath.

In the parable given in verses 7-11 we find its teachings true every day. "For whosoever exalteth himself shall be abased, and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted".

One of the greatest things we need to learn is that Christ taught that He would be great among you let him be servant of all". The downfall of many has been because they have taken the high seat and then had to go to the lower one later. In the parable given in verses 12-14, Jesus does not mean to teach that it is wrong to call our friends or brethren or kinsmen or even the neighbor to a feast but that if we do these things and these only, what recompense have we? Jesus had tried His brethren the Jews, and His kinsmen and they gave them the story to call the poor, the lame, and the blind, and stated that if we do that we will be blessed.

In the parable in verse 15-21, Jesus goes a little farther than in the former parable. "A certain man made a great supper and bade many". To my mind this man was God Himself "And sent His servant", and this was Jesus Christ Himself. "Come for all things are now ready". Probably Jesus is looking now to the end of His life, and has determined to make the final triumph. "And they all with one consent began to make excuses" this was the Jewish nation, the Scribbs, Pharisees, and Jewish rulers. They refused the Christ. I want to depart from the teaching here just for a minute, and let us notice one this one thing that it was not some of the grosser sins, as we some time think of them but only their interests in their farms or business, their livestock and their families that caused them to refuse to go to this great supper. So the servant (Christ) came and showed His Lord these things, and the lord being angry, said, "Go out quickly into the streets or into other nations and lanes, and bring hither the poor, the halt, the blind". This means people of every nation and walks of life and the people of the dark continent who do not have the light. Oh, what a great missionary story. And the servant said, Lord it is done as thou hast commanded and yet there is room. Sure there is room there is room for every man and every woman of the world if they will only come. "Compel them to come." This is more to the servant, to renew his strength and force than anything else.

Verse 26, Jesus does not mean that we must hate our mother, father, wife or children, in the term that we sometimes think of hate, but He simply means that He must be first in our lives. Jesus does not promise us wealth and happiness, but a cross.

sorrow, disappointments, and even persecution than He wants to know who will not sit down and count the cost of following Him. Many have been disappointed because they have built their foundations and were not able to finish the structure. Many have thought that it was something other than a hard battle to follow Jesus, and have later turned back.

Let us count the cost that we might be able to know how to spend and how to draw on our means. Jesus will supply every need if we will only count on Him.

Natural GAS

is your cheapest item of expense

Natural Gas Service, because of the fact that rates were not increased when prices generally were on the upgrade, is STILL the least expensive item in the cost of running a household.

During the past summer, when gas was used principally for cooking and water heating, the cost to many homes has been little more than the price of a postage stamp for a daily letter. Even in cold weather when larger quantities are required to guard the health and comfort of the entire family the gas bill represents only a small fraction of the winter household expenses.

In fact, the average gas bill in this section the whole year 'round is only about 15 cents a day for house heating, cooking and hot water supply. . . A dependable year 'round service that benefits the entire family and costs less than the gasoline expense of one small automobile . . . less than any other necessity that contributes to the health, comfort, convenience and happiness of your home.

As a fuel . . . as a service, there is no substitute for natural gas. Take advantage of its inexpensiveness for your complete comfort this winter.

Reaping the Harvest

With the reaping of our harvest of the year, let us not forget that this is the season for meeting our obligations incurred in the making of these crops.

He who first remembers his obligations, when in need finds it easier to obtain help.

Let us learn now the lesson exemplified in the lives of our pioneer fathers - - work hard, save, and spend wisely.
