FORMER KNOX CITY YOUTH WILL INSTRUCT IN MILITARY TRAINING

The many friends, here, of Leonard Behrns, now a Lieutenant out of the Stephensville college will be glad to learn that he has been selected to instruct military training in the Amarillo high school. He has already entered upon his duties in that capacity and in addition to his military work is teaching six classes in mathematics. Leut. Behrns is a Knox City boy having spent his earlier days in Knox City and to him this is still his home town.

Resolutions of Respect

Whereas, In the course of human activity, and by the law of Divine Providence it was appointed unto man once to die, and whereas our faithful and worthy brother J. P. Clonts has met the conditions of this Divine law and has passed out of this into that country from whose bourne no traveler returns.

And whereas, this faithful brother spent almost half a century in the performance of his duty as a man and a Mason, and whereas he was always ready to carry out the edicts of his lodge and to meet the needs of his brother in distress, and to offer his counsel to every Mason.

And whereas, it was his joy and delight to offer such assistance as he could that would enable a brother mason to reach a higher standard of life and character as we know that was exemplified in his own life.

Therefore, be it resolved by the officers and members of O-rient Lodge No. 905 A. F. & A. M. of Knox City Texas, that we express our sympathy and regret to the wife and family of our deceased brother, and to them say:

That according to our records he fought a good fight, he kept the faith, and has now been permitted to enter that Celestial Lodge above where the Supreme Grand Master presides.

Be it further resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be furnished the wife and family of our deceased brother, a copy furnished the Knox County Herald for publication, and a copy spread on the minutes of our lodge to keep fresh in our minds and memory the life and fidelity of our fallen brother.

Respectfully submitted this 12th day of March A. D. 1929.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Addison enjoyed a turkey birthday dinner with several invited friends last Sunday. It was Mr. Addison's birthday but he was too coy to let us find out the number of candles on the cake. Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Smith and Mrs. Smith's sister Miss Davidson, of Haskell, were guests in the Addison home for the festive occasion. Many happy returns of the day to Mr. Addison is our wish.

COUNTY AGENT ISSUES NOTICE OF WOLF POISONING

County Agent Willson, requests the Herald to notify all parties owning dogs that poison baiting for wolves west of the Brazos river will begin sometime the latter part of this week and will continue for several days. Those owning valuable dogs in that vicinity can protect them by keeping posted on the poisoning dates and places.

W. E. Matthews, of Route 1, who recently retired from blacksmithing to engage in America's greatest enterprise, that of farming, handed in his Herald subscription this week and begins his spring planting in the faith that abundant returns will be forthcoming at harvest time. George Washington, who had a great deal to do with the founding of this nation said that agriculture was the greatest of all pursuits and whether it is or not, its attraction for men has never waned since they learned that seed planted would yield manifold after its kind through the process of culture.

The Glad Hand Class of the First Baptist Church Sunday School is growing steadily and enjoying the work as directed by our teacher Uncle Joe Smith. He recently opened the doors of his home in a most hospitable manner and entertained the class with contests and "42" Thirty five were present and all want to thank Mr. Smith and his family for a most enjoyable evening.

Most people who have nothing to do make the mistake of doing it.

I will give $10.00 reward for the arrest and conviction of the person who cut the air hose at the P. O. Filling Station.

AUTO ACCIDENT INFLECTS INJURY TO CHILD HERE

Little Peggy Boyd, four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson Boyd was accidentally struck by an auto driven by A. B. Sams, of Benjamin, last Sunday afternoon and received injuries which necessitated treatment at the local sanitarium. Mr. Sams was driving past the Boyd home and the little child ran across the road in front of the car, the car was slowed down and plenty time given for the child to get out of the way, but from some unaccountable childish reason she turned back to recross the road and was unavoidably struck by the car. Mr. Sams took her in haste to the sanitarium and showed every courtesy and help possible. She is at present improving nicely and will soon be out again.
