County Board Approves Petition for Annexation Of Additional School Land

'Gift Shop' Tea Set for October 24

The Knox County School Board Wednesday approved a petition requesting the annexation of 5,384 acres of the Munday school district to the Knox City district.

The Board had had the request under consideration since Sept. 5, when a hearing was held. The petition, signed by 80 per cent of the qualified voters in the area involved—which is part of the old Sunset district and is adjacent to the Knox City district—had been presented to the board in late August.

The 5,384 acres amounts to approximately 9 per cent of the Munday district.

According to a member of the Knox City school board, children in the annexed area are already attending the Knox City school on transfers.

The annexed land includes the Lowrey Estate, the G. A. Branton and Bill Clarke property, Jamison Estate, D. H. Henry farm, Herbert Partridge farm, Dave Whitford farm and the Simmons and J. Hawkins farms.

The annual "Gift Shop Tea" sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary will be held Saturday, Oct. 24, from 2:30 to 5:30 p. m. in the basement of the First Methodist Church. It was announced this week by Mrs. Guy Robinson, president of the Auxiliary.

Gifts donated for the "Gift Shop" will be displayed, Mrs. Robinson said, before being wrapped for mailing to the disabled veterans at McKinney VA Hospital.

The gifts are not for the veterans themselves, Mrs. Robinson said, but for the veterans to present to their families at Christmas time. "If it were not for the 'Gift Shop,'" she added, "many of the disabled veterans would be unable to join in Christmas festivities by presenting gifts to their loved ones."

Anyone wishing to donate a gift was requested to notify an Auxiliary member before October 24. Following the tea, the gifts will be boxed and mailed by members of the organization.

The Knox City Garden Club met Wednesday afternoon at The Woman's Club.

The president, Miss Leslie Bolin, reported that about $10 had been donated to the club to buy seeds and bulbs for the beautification of the Knox County Hospital grounds.

Money donations had not been solicited but will be gratefully accepted, Miss Bolin said.

It was announced that the Santa Rosa Garden Club will meet in Knox City November 18. A dinner for the directors of the Santa Rosa club and for members of the local club will be held at the home of Mrs. Ancil Waldrip at noon, and the meeting will be held in the afternoon.

Date of the next meeting was changed from Nov. 11 to Nov. 13, since the 11th is a holiday. Hostesses will be Mrs. S. M. Clonts, A. S. Logan and Doyle Graham. Scheduled to be on the program are Mrs. Joe Averitt and Mrs. H. W. Finley.

Local Couple Learn Son Died In North Korean Prison Camp

M-Sgt. J. M. Lusk

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Lusk were notified by the War Department Saturday that their son, Master Sergeant Jesse Matthew Lusk died in a North Korean prison camp May 31, 1951.

The parents had been notified Nov. 2, 1950, that Sgt. Lusk was missing in action, and had received no further word until Saturday.

Sgt. Lusk, a veteran of World War II, was captured by the Germans on December 16, 1944 during the Battle of the Bulge. He was liberated by the Allies four months later.

Born in Navarro County on May 20, 1920, Lusk volunteered for service in Murfreesboro, Ark., in 1943. He landed in England in October, 1944, and was sent to Germany a short time later.

Following his release from the German prison camp in 1945 he was treated for tuberculosis at an army hospital in San Antonio, and was discharged from the Army in 1946. In 1950, he re-enlisted and was sent to Korea.

Other survivors include his wife, of Little Rock, Ark., a son, Paul Lusk of Stamford; two sisters, Mrs. Freddie Stanford of Billington, Tenn., and Mrs. Dale Farquhar of Robstown; and two brothers, Tom Lusk of Abilene and Buck Lusk of Stamford.

Mr. and Mrs. Lusk also lost a grandson during the Korean War. Pvt. Billy Jack Lusk of O'Brien died of wounds in Korea on May 28, 1951—just three days before his uncle, Sgt. Lusk died in prison camp.

Billy Jack's body was returned to Knox City for reburial in November, 1951.

Vernon Firm to Repair Legion Hall

Contract for repairs to the American Legion Hall, which was damaged by fire Friday evening, Oct. 2, has been awarded to the Bonded Roofing Co. of Vernon, Post Commander Curtis Coates said Wednesday.

The company submitted the low bid on the extensive repair job, Coates said.

Repairs will begin next week, Monday if possible, and it is hoped to have the building ready for use sometime in November.

At present, the Legionnaires are using the Egenbacher building, a block west of City Grocery, for their meeting place.

The Knox City Clinic, which was in the Legion Hall awaiting completion of a new building on the site where the original clinic building was destroyed by the tornado in March, is now in operation at the Knox County Hospital. All the clinic equipment was destroyed in the fire which damaged the Legion Hall.

Jacob M. Humphries was born March 9, 1882, in Bonham. He married Cora Maud Barnes in Memphis, Texas, September 13, 1903, and the couple celebrated their golden wedding anniversary with "open house" last month. They moved to Knox City in October, 1921, and he worked as a plumber here until ill health forced him to retire.

E., both of Wichita Falls; 15 grandchildren; four brothers, Jim of Levelland, Joe of Electra, Bill of Odessa and C. F. First Mogul score was chalked up by William Allred, left halfback, who ran through right guard, cut to his right for 21 yards and the TD. Quarterback Glen Amerson converted.

In the second quarter, Allred circled his own right end for one yard and the TD. Try for extra point failed. It was Allred again in the third quarter, who swept left end for six yards. Try for extra point again failed.

The Moguls scored again in the third, on a pass play from Amerson to Gene Haynie, left end, which was good for 35 yards. Try for extra point was no good.

Knox City's top defensive men were Bob Jensen, right tackle; Leonard Burt, halfback; and James Jackson, center and line

Benjamin Beats O'Brien, 26 to 12

The Benjamin Mustangs won a 26-12 victory over the O'Brien Bulldogs in a conference tilt on the Mustang field last Thursday night.

Dwayne Johnston, fast and tricky O'Brien back, made two touchdowns, on a 45 yard run and a 25 yard run, both around right, but the Bulldogs failed to convert and the half-time score was 13-12.

In the third quarter, Snailum received a pass and hit pay dirt, with the play good for 25 yards. Glenn Hale made the extra point. In the last quarter, Benjamin's Buddy Conner scored on a pass play covering 47 yards.

FARMER'S EXPERIENCE POINTS UP BENEFITS OF AGRICULTURAL RESEARCH

COLLEGE STATION. — Oscar L. Grossman of Little River, an ardent follower of agricultural research, offered some interesting facts on his 1953 cotton crop to approximately 1,500 farmers from over the cotton belt who recently convened at the Temply Experiment Station.

The growers met to observe the results of cotton defoliation research and see the performance of cotton harvesters in preparation of going all out in the mechanization of their cotton crops.

Grossman, who farms about five miles from the Blackland station, has been a regular visitor to the station for many years. Since 1948, the first year of cotton defoliation and machine harvesting research at the station, Grossman has followed the work closely.

The Bell County farmer told the group he started spraying his 1953 cotton for defoliation on Tuesday of one week in accordance with recommendations. On the following Friday he resprayed with a plant dessiccant to eliminate remaining green growth.

On the next Monday, Grossman began harvesting operations and mechanically picked 16 bales. The following day he harvested 20 bales and the third day he finished that particular field by sending three more bales to the gin. The total was 39 bales of cotton in a little less than 24 hours of actual operation. His total production was 46 bales from 55 acres.

Farm & Ranch Notes

By W. J. Bryan, County Agent

I have heard a lot, pro and con, about irrigation in Knox County since I have been here. Some think it is very good and some would be happy if they had the money back they invested in their irrigation equipment.

I was talking with Clyde Taylor at Munday the other day and he is definitely sold on irrigation. Clyde harvested 3,350 pounds of grain per acre off his irrigated combine maize, and said that similar land nearby, not irrigated, yielded only 1,200 pounds per acre.

Clyde said there was a time when he wanted all the land that joined his, but now he has changed his mind. He says that even this year, with a fair to good crop on his dry land, 155 acres of irrigated land will make him more clear money, considering equipment, labor, fuel etc., than 400 acres of dry land.

I think the thing we must watch about irrigation, or any other practice as far as that goes, is whether a dollar invested will pay more than a dollar in return.

I am sure there is some land in Knox County that will pay off under irrigation with proper management, and I am sure there is other land it would not be profitable to irrigate.

I would suggest that everyone who thinks he is interested in irrigation check very closely with the Soil Conservation Service before starting the project.

STREAMS in Desert Places

By Oselle Stephens

"He sent a man before them, even Joseph, who was sold for a servant: Whose feet they hurt with fetters: he was laid in iron: until the time that his word came: the word of the Lord tried him. The King sent and loosed him; even the ruler of the people, and let him go free. He made him lord of his house, and ruler of his sustenance." (Ps. 105:17-21).

God has mysterious ways His wonders to perform. He has some one prepared for every work He would do. If you would be used in God's service as Joseph, you may be sent down to some Egypt, sold as a servant, or be deserted or misunderstood by loved ones and friends. You may have to be laid in iron, bound for a season. But remember God has His time to work. He will send for you when His word has tried you. You will be let go free by His power, and rule in His grace.

Yield yourselves unto the Lord's ways and feed upon His word while you are being trained in God's school of testing. He will teach you by the Holy Spirit, how His Blessings can Stream into your life daily.

TIME TO PLAN FOR BETTER PASTURES, SPECIALIST SAYS

COLLEGE STATION. — Developing a good pasture from worn-out, depleted soil is a rebuilding process. And, says Ted M. Trew, extension pasture specialist, if better pastures are to be had, farmers and ranchmen will have to build them.

This is an opportune time for livestock producers to plan better pastures by planting annual legumes and grasses, especially with moisture conditions favorable in many sections of the state. Since pastures of the permanent type are not established over night, the planting of these annual plants sets a foundation for an eventual perennial pasture, Trew says.

Trying to establish a good perennial or permanent pasture on soil low in minerals and organic matter is like attempting to put up a strong building without a good foundation, he says. Annual legumes and grass establish the needed foundation. Properly seeded and fertilized pastures not only yield succulent grazing, but they rebuild the soil.

The goal of such a pasture, the specialist says, is to establish and maintain a balanced stand of desirable pasture plants along with the highest possible grazing capacity. Soil minerals, organic matter, nitrogen and, in some sections, drainage are problems which must be considered.

Sections of the state where drouth and overgrazing have killed desirable plants are areas where land owners can begin to rebuild grasslands. Also, this is the time to plan permanent pastures in timber and woodlands recently cleared, areas covered with low producing bermuda, carnet or other lands infested with needlegrass and brooms-edge or ranges infested with low quality forage plants. Test the soil to determine fertilizer needs then follow the recommendation, Trew advises. Bulletin B-197 contains additional information on pasture building and copies may be obtained from county agricultural agents.

Modern Art Takes a Licking!

How we had a real show? Yes sir! Handy was a contributor to the Exhibition at the Fair last week. It was streaky pink and all around—sort of. Caused quite a stir. I was sure what it was to represent, but some thought it was good to have the lowdown: it was nothing but a little salt our cows 'bakin' at for months. It mounted. Fooled a lot of folks—one fellow even wanted to buy it!"

From where I sit, Handy's "modern art" just shows how some people can be led astray. Some even get to be "experts"—especially about the other fellow's business. Whether it's art or music, or a simple thing like choosing, say, beer or milk with a snack, we should live and let live. There's no call for either of us to set ourselves up as a "model" for the other!

Most-liked low-priced car

... among people who want more for their money when they buy ... and more money when they sell!

There's a big reason why more folks are buying more Fords than ever before. No other low-priced car offers so many of the things people want and need for today's driving. In fact, to get such "Worth More" Ford features as a V-8 engine, completely automatic transmission and fine-car power steering in any other car, you'd have to step well up from the low-price field.

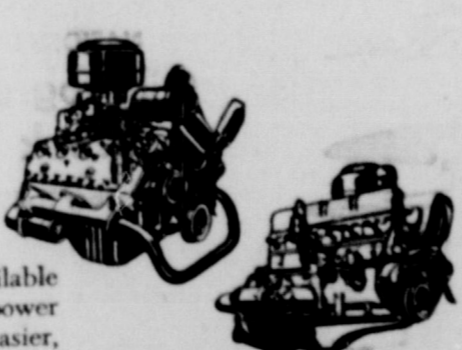

Of course, Ford owners will discover that Ford's worth more when they sell it, too. Surveys of used car prices show year-old Fords returning a higher proportion of their original cost than any other car.

because it's most like high-priced cars more and more people are considering Ford as the one fine car in the low-price field!

It's hard to believe that a car which is built like the finest still sells in the low-price field. Yet a Ford with its hulltight Crestmark body, its Full-Circle Visibility (most in its field), its new fine car ride and roomy luggage locker (roomiest in its field) delivers at a figure that keeps it right down in its price class.

tional Drive. And Ford Master-Guide, available on all V-8 models, is the last word in power steering... makes turning up to 75% easier, yet retains the natural feel of the wheel on the straightaway.
See... Value Check... Test Drive the Ford of your choice at your Ford Dealer's. Find out why Ford is America's "Worth More" car.

Ford's V-8 is the same type of engine powering America's finest (and costliest) cars. And Ford's Mileage Maker Six is the most modern Six in the industry.
