ELECTION CONTEST FAILS TO ALTER DECISION

The Democratic Executive Committee of Knox County spent two days last week hearing evidence at Benjamin on the election contest of Den Davis; however, at the conclusion of the hearing, the original decision of the committee held.

Election returns indicated that William Griffith was re-elected Commissioner Precinct 1 by a majority of 5 votes. Davis contested the returns on the claim that a number of Haskell county citizens cast their votes in Knox county for Griffith. Investigation made by the Democratic Executive Committee showed that nine illegal votes were cast for Griffith and 11 for Davis, thus giving Griffith a gain of two votes.

The contest was interesting and many Knox City citizens spent two days last week in Benjamin hearing the evidence.

Mrs. M. D. Metts and Mrs. Guy Green with Mrs. W. R. Terry and Miss Beasie Bell Buckner of Rochester visited in Wichita Falls Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Humphries, R. E. and Miss Oleta and Robert Barnes spent the past weekend with relatives in Memphis, Texas.

Mrs. E. F. Branton entertained the Tuesday afternoon club this week. Following the games refreshments of creamed chicken, pickled tomato slices, smacks, apricot salad, chess ut topped with whipped cream and punch were served. The club meets two weeks with Mrs. Lee Smith.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Arnold on Wednesday of last week were Paul and Miss Georgia Brown and Miss Billy Lyon of Anson.

Paul Egenbacker, brother to Slim, is now employed as mechanic at the Knox City Motor. Paul is from Electra.

Mrs. C. B. Teague and son Edgar left Wednesday for Coleman to attend the funeral service of a relative.

Mrs. Ada Messer and son A. J. of Quannah spent Sunday here with her daughter Mrs. Dave Whitford.

Mrs. Dr. Barnett is in south Texas with her mother where she plans to stay some four weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Gore and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Barker of Vera spent Sunday in the M. E. Jones and Mrs. J. D. McKenny homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Thompson of Lowell were in Knox City over the weekend.

Reverend and Mrs. W. D. Green and Mrs. J. W. Hamm spent Tuesday in Seymour.

BENJAMIN ROAD IMPASSABLE NOW

Workmen of the Texas Highway Department issued warning Wednesday afternoon concerning the Benjamin road. Because of heavy rains of the week and the fact the road is being worked on, it has become impassable. Tuesday evening some ten cars stuck and waited their turns to be drawn out.

The highway department urges all north bound cars to go by way of Munday.

HASKELL GIRL DIES FROM TOOTH EXTRACTION

Miss Louise Mullino of Haskell died here last Friday from poison caused from having a tooth extracted.

The dental work was done in Haskell but after becoming ill Miss Mullino came to Knox City. Although she was desperately ill she was not aware of the fact and died while her family were enroute home from having left her in Knox City.

Funeral service was conducted Saturday afternoon from the Methodist church in Haskell. A vast amount of flowers revealed the esteem in which Miss Mullino was held by those who knew her. She was 33 years of age, a school teacher and was to have been on the faculty of a Wichita Falls school opening Monday of this week.

Miss Mullino is survived by both parents, five sisters and two brothers. Mrs. Joe Averitt of this city attended the funeral service, her niece having married Miss Mullino's brother.

Glenn Fox of Quannah underwent another operation Wednesday of last week. He is doing alright. Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Halrston and daughter went to Quannah last Wednesday and Mrs. Harriston and Thelma Jo remained there.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hoge accompanied Miss Mary Leone Hoge to Stephenville Sunday where Mary Leone is attending John Tarleton College.

GIRLS GIVEN FAREWELL PARTY

Misses Mary Leone Hoge and Claudia Sue Moseley were honored jointly in a farewell party given by tenth Sunday School class on Thursday afternoon of last week. The two girls left the first of this week for college, one at Stephenville, Texas and the other at Canyon.

Mrs. H. L. White, teacher of the young ladies Sunday School class, assisted the 14 girls in arranging for the party. A variety of games were played and Mrs. White presented what Mary Leone and Claudia thought a basket lunch. The two girls made investigations and found their baskets to contain handkerchiefs, hence a handkerchief shower for each.

Refreshments of sandwiches, potato chips, cookies and punch were served.

Laughing Around the World

No Temporizing with Seeming Discrepancies

By IRVIN S. COBB

BEFORE leaving his country home on Long Island for New York one morning an actor made his wife a solemn promise that under no circumstances would he suffer himself to be tempted into touching strong drink during the day in the city. He was due home at 6 o'clock. It was nearly seven when he appeared in the distance and it was plain that he was having difficulty in navigating.

His wife, burning with indignation, met him at the foot of the porch steps.

"Bob," she snapped, "you broke your word to me—you've been drinking."

"Dearie," he stated, with an earnestness marred only by a slight thickness of speech, "I am not going to lie to you—I have indeed been drinking. But wait until you hear the reason why I have been drinking and then, dearie, you will understand all."

"I kept my pledge in town—all day I kept it. When I got off the train I was sober as a judge. But on the way home I passed Joe Page's house and he called me and told me a most terrible story. He and his wife have had a terrible quarrel and she's left him and gone back to her people. He was desperate—heart broken, half crazy, all that sort of thing.

"As a friend I went in with him to try to calm him and then nothing would do but that I should take a drink with him. Then he insisted that I should drink some more with him. And I did. Finally I got him quieted down and now he's gone to bed. And here I am, dearie, slightly under the influence of liquor I admit, but I have probably saved a human life."

Tears overcame him; he sobbed and wiped his eyes.

"Is that so?" stated his wife in cold and unmoved accents. "Well, would you alter your statement any if I told you the Pages are over here for dinner and are in the house now, perfectly normal and happy except that they are somewhat annoyed at having to wait nearly an hour for you to get home?"

"Madam," he answered firmly, "that's my story and I'm going to stick to it!"

JIM FERGUSON ASKS FINANCIAL HELP FROM TEXAS DEMOCRATS

Austin, Texas, Sept. 15.—The National election this year means more to Texas than any previous election, and it has developed into a battle between the classes and the masses, according to a statement today by James E. Ferguson, former Governor. His statement is of the regular Fergusonian type, in which he says: "The poor man must win the battle because the rich man is on the other side." In his appeal to Texas Democrats to donate to the National campaign fund Ferguson said "most of the rich people won't give anything this year because they are opposed to Roosevelt, have left the party and gone to Landon. This is largely true in the Eastern states and makes the result uncertain unless Texas and other southern states do their duty in helping to carry on the contest in a territory where it may be doubtful." Ferguson appealed to everyone to contribute and said thousands could give $1 each. "It may help you, hereafter," he said. Ferguson's statement follows:

"While everybody understands that Texas will go Democratic in November, many people think that there is nothing for Texas to do but wait until the votes are counted and shout over the victory. I wish this was true. But I regret to say that such is not the case.

"Because of the great benefits that may accrue to Texas, as the result of a National Democratic Victory, every Democratic voter in Texas should do all that they are able to do for Democratic success.

"Instead of anticipating victory and doing nothing, it would be well for us to not forget what might happen if we suffered a National defeat. While reports are very encouraging, yet the difference is so narrow between the two parts, no National election is ever won until the votes are counted. This year is no exception to the rule.

Texas Has Received a Billion Dollars

"While Texas has during this depression received in different funds a billion dollars, (don't miss it, a billion dollars), yet that sum is all gone and we now face as a result of the continued depression and drought and short crops a condition that may be worse than what we have yet gone through. If we suffer another national affliction, it certainly ought to be plain to every thoughtful citizen that we will be in a far better condition if we continue President Roosevelt in office who we know will divide the last crust with Democratic Texas, then if we have a Republican in the office who cares nothing for us and never will. Let us keep the record of Democratic Texas straight, and we will not receive a stone if we should have to ask for bread.

"As a result of conditions which we have had to face during the last few years, very few of us are able to give much to any campaign, and the most of our rich people this year will not give anything because they are opposed to President Roosevelt and have now left the party and gone to Landon.

"This is largely true in the Eastern states and makes the results uncertain if Texas and other Southern states do not do their duty in helping to carry on the contest in territory where it is the thickest.

"This election means more to Texas than any we have ever taken part in. It is a fight unto the death between the masses and the classes. The poor must win the battle, because big business is on the other side.

Asks Thousands to Give $1.00

"I call upon every voter who is able to make a sacrifice, if necessary, to hold up the hands of the great Democratic hosts who will engage in a hand to hand conflict with the vicious autocracy of the North and East. Maybe only a few can give $5 to this campaign, but thousands can give $1 each and that will supply the needs of our brother Democratic yeoman of the doubtful states with the sinews of war, as they march shoulder to shoulder and shield to shield to a grand and glorious victory. Dear voter, get your name on the Democratic list. It may help you hereafter.

"I appeal to every voter in Texas to send at once at least $1 to honorable Roy Miller, Campaign Director, or Honorable H. A. Wroe, of the American National Bank our State Treasurer at Austin, or to your local organization, who will promptly remit the money to our National organization.

I know that there will be those who will on account of some personal or political difference or prejudice pull back and not help the cause with their money or influence, but I hope there will not be many who will thus act.

"There are some things that none of us approve that have been said and done by those high in authority. There are lots of things I don't like or approve. Texas has its full share of political fools that have done much to destroy Democratic unity in Texas. But they ought not to be allowed to drive us from the Party and its principals. Let us keep the Democratic fires burning, let us with our dollar mite continue to hold up the Democratic flag of our fathers.

It would be a glorious sight to have 100,000 Texans give $1 each to the Democratic cause and the Democratic candidate whose undying ambition is to make possible for every citizen an "abundant life."

"Come on boys, who will be first?"

Facts vs. Epigrams

By RAYMOND PITCAIRN
 National Chairman
 Sentinels of the Republic

"The greatest truths are the simplest."

During the past few years the American people have witnessed the injection of many new and complex ideas into their once direct and simple form of government.

And they have been further puzzled by long explanations of those novelties, often in terms still more complex and unfamiliar.

The process continues — quickened during recent weeks by the demands of campaign oratory. Yet even when enlivened by epigram and wisecrack, many of those explanations sound strange and foreign to the American ear.

But there is no reason for such complexity. Facts are simple things, and in campaigns as in routine reports of government, may be simply told. The fundamental issues which interest the American people need neither epigram nor wisecrack to clarify them.

The strength, the value and the security of our Constitution, for example, can be described in the simplest terms. Reasons for discarding its basic principles need more involved explanation.

The sanctity of personal liberty — of the right of every citizen to run his own farm, his own business, his own affairs — is another truth that can be simply stated. Reasons for curbing that freedom are harder to present.

The need to eliminate extravagance in government and its consequent drain on the earnings and resources of every citizen, may be readily outlined and understood. Reasons for continuing such waste require longer, more difficult and more complicated phrases.

If campaign orators will remember these things their labors will be both easier and more effective. The American people are eager today for facts, not epigrams.

They realize that the greatest truths are not only the simplest; they are also the most easily told.

New Peaks To Conquer

THE Alpine Club of Canada is attempting to scale a number of unclimbed peaks in the Mount Fryatt section of Jasper National Park, Alberta, this summer. The section of the park where activities are centered has been visited by only a few pioneer climbers and most of the mountains are unnamed as well as unscaled. Jasper National Park, with an area exceeding 4400 square miles, is the world's largest national playground and is located wholly within the Canadian Rockies. The top photograph shows three of the peaks in the Fryatt section which the Alpine Club will try to climb. From left to right they are: Christie (10,180 feet); Brussels (10,370 feet) and Lowell (10,200 feet). The insert shows members of the Alpine Club on a precarious perch overlooking Maligne Lake which is world famous for its speckled trout fishing as well as for its beauty.

A $33,000,000,000 Millstone

By RAYMOND PITCAIRN
National Chairman
Sentinels of the Republic

If a farmer or a business man finds himself deep in debt, his first aim is to find some method of reducing it.

That goes for the housewife, too! All recognize a heavy burden of debt as a millstone around the neck of any individual, or firm, or family that is attempting to keep its affairs on a successful basis.

Moreover, they all know the effective method of solving their problem. It is Economy.

But the politicians, during recent years, seem to think they have found a happier solution. Instead of trying a reasonable economy, they have been turning to a program of increased expenditures, increased extravagance, deeper plunges into the spreading pool of red ink.

This is indicated by the way they have been boosting the Public Debt. It probably explains why the Federal Debt alone has risen steadily from approximately $19,000,000,000 in 1932, to $27,000,000,000 in 1934, and to an all-time high of more than $33,000,000,000 for 1936.

It's an alluring method—to the politicians. But it's less attractive to the farmer and the business man and the housewife, who know that they must pay the debts which politicians create.

And it becomes still less attractive when they realize that public debt is actually an obscured method of adding to our taxes—with the bills marked for a later date—or of piling up a heritage of liens against the future earnings of our children.

But the mere realization of these facts on the part of the public isn't enough. If the farmer and the business man and the housewife want to stop the piling up of bills for them and their children to pay in added labor and added sacrifice and higher prices, they must make the politicians face the facts, too.

A $33,000,000,000 millstone is a heavy handicap for the workers and earners and taxpayers of America to carry along the hard road to recovery.

NEWS ABOUT COTTON

Some interesting news about cotton is given in The Progressive Farmer in Editor Eugene Butler's department, "What's News in Agriculture?" as follows:

NEW COTTON USES—Southern States are trying out cotton fabric and cotton mats as a reinforcement membrane in bituminous-surface-treated highways. North Carolina has requested enough cotton fabric to build 196 miles of road, Arkansas 12 miles, South Carolina 63 miles, Georgia 14, Mississippi 10, Tennessee 6, Alabama 119, Virginia 8, and Florida 5. Texas has requested 20,000 cotton mats for its roads, while requests for a smaller number of mats have come from Oklahoma, Georgia, Mississippi, North Carolina, Arkansas, and South Carolina.

COTTON EXCHANGES CURBED—The Jones Bill, passed by the recent Congress and signed by the President provides means whereby the economic ills resulting from market manipulation and excessive speculation on the cotton exchange may be drastically curbed or eliminated.

The new law provides for a Commodity Exchange Commission which will fix trading limitations governing the amount of speculative trading in futures that may be done by any person. There are, however, no limitations on hedging transactions.

CHINESE COTTON—Cotton growers in China expect a crop of about 3,000,000 bales this year compared with 2,600,000 in 1935. The average crop in the five years ending with the 1934 harvest was 2,471,000 bales.

Chinese cotton production has been expanded in recent years in an effort to make the country more nearly self-sufficing. A government cotton bureau has been created to promote the planting of improved varieties, establish standards, maintain an inspection and grading service, and bring about improvements in production and marketing.
