You'll Like the Flavor Mesquite Wood Gives

When folks all over the nation (yes, we mean over 20 states out of 48) like HAM and BACON smoked with MESQUITE wood, you folks out here in the bend of the Brazos sure ought to take to it.

Why not come by and ask us about it? The flavor of mesquite wood smoke is 'pyore' West Texas (an exclusive with us) and the wholesale price is not too high for what you get.

Plenty of beef, and plain sugar-cured ham and bacon, too.

But pork products smoked with MESQUITE WOOD is our specialty—and one that's making a nation-wide name for being something special. We want you to know about it, and try it.
