ANY WEATHER is always intruding upon us. We cannot get rid of it. Such being the case we may as well be prepared for it at once...

These remarks doubtless seem superfluous, but in these business women in ten who, when she burns her gloves for the season, thinks of a rainy-day costume.

Keeping and wearing of slawdy but surely affecting clothing. The best for the knickerbockers which are so useful in these sports are equally well in keeping one dry on a rainy day.

To return to materials, one cloak was of brown and white fine checked gingham, lined with handsome fur in brown marmosa. Another was of tan tweed, thin enough to allow the glow of a pink lining to be seen.

Men who complain of their homes too often overlook the fact that they themselves are more or less responsible for the atmosphere which pervades it.

Above all things, have a handsome umbrella, and learn to use it properly. Unless you do that you can never hope to be chic.

Summer Blossoms. material; and if there are spots that must be concealed, place a rosette of the fabric over each spot, and a corresponding one on the other side.

Small, close round hat has a tapering, bell-shaped crown and a trimming of very short ostrich tips curled into rosettes. These are set around the sides of the hat, and a long plume falls over the back.

A round hat of satin brim has a moderately low crown and a trimming of at least ten pieces of wide Dresden ribbon set at one side and falling over the crown and over the forehead.

Catalpa hats of gold and silver, in the style of those worn fifteen years ago, are revived, but the circles of gold and silver ornaments, especially earrings, are all in their accustomed places.

To make ordinary cloth wardrobe, put half a pound of sugar of lead in a tin, and a pound of alum; stir at intervals until the powder becomes clear, and then pour it off, and wash it with water.

STILL PEGGING AWAY

Both Houses of Congress Rushing Business

The House gives its final approval to Conference Reports on Two of the Four Appropriation Bills, the Naval and Indian Bills.

Washington, June 10.—For several days the cry has been congress will adjourn to-morrow. That is not the fact but the fact is that adjournment is not in the air, unless the house gives way in its opposition to the several amendments to the sundry civil and District of Columbia appropriation bills.

The bill authorizing the government to build and maintain an exhibit on the Omaha exposition, was the subject of the house yesterday afternoon.

Washington, June 10.—The senate agreed to final conference reports on the naval and Indian appropriation bills.

Washington, June 10.—The senate criticized the award on the ground that it was injurious to the Society of American Inventors.

The President Preparing a Cuban Sanction

After a Brief Period of Filibustering the Immigration Bill Was Made the Unpopular Measure of the Senate-Cuba Betrays a Paper.

Washington, June 6.—Senator, representing the Chicago conference, the capitol revealed in rumors of war yesterday afternoon.

When the galleries were closed the president of the senate was called to the floor from Alabama as well as the comb of an infuriated turkey gobbler.

When it was all over the sum total of the bill was 100 yeas and 100 nays for it to be inconsequential.

It is not utterly improbable, however, that the president of the senate will do so to the actual situation on the island of Cuba.
