Christmas Tree and Program Planned by Foursquare Church

A Christmas tree and program will be held at the Foursquare Church in Knox City Sunday, Dec. 23 beginning at 7:30 p. m. It was announced this week by the pastors, Rev. and Mrs. Floyd V. Bailey.

A drama, "Unto the Least," will be given by the young people of the church. Special singing and readings will be given by the children.

Taking leading roles in the drama are Leon Watson, Truman Barnett, Peggy Jones, Chestene Watson, Barbara Myers, Bud Reynolds, Myrtle Lois and Doyle Wilson, and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Smith.

The pastors invited the public to attend.

Local Cagers Beat Weinert and Munday

The Knox City basketball boys, in games Monday and Tuesday nights on the local courts, beat the Weinert A and B teams and Munday.

In the B game with Weinert Monday night the final score was 49-45. Bobby Day was high scorer for Knox City with 19 and Joey Watkins was second with 10, while Weinert's high point men were Therwanger with 15 and Herricks with 9.

The A game ended Knox City 64, Weinert 45. Bobby Driver was high for Knox City with 30 points and Jerry Anderson scored 19. High for the visitors were Bayh and Wallher with 13 each.

Tuesday night the local lads scored a 47-38 upset victory over Munday. Driver was again high with 23 and Anderson was second with 14. Gerald Tidwell led the scoring for Munday with 12, followed by Don Elliott and Lee Bruce with 10 each.

The Knox City girls did not play Monday night, but lost to the Munday girls Tuesday night, 37-63. Beverly James was high scorer for the local girls with 21 points.

Tomorrow (Friday) night the boys and girls teams will play Jayton at Jayton.

Clinic and Hospital Staff Entertained At Annual Banquet

Knox City doctors and their wives entertained employees of the Knox City Clinic and Knox County Hospital with a Christmas party Monday night.

The party was held in the dining room of Roddy's Cafe. Following a turkey dinner, games were directed by Mrs. D. C. Eiland, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bellinghausen. Mrs. E. Q. Warren played appropriate Christmas selections and accompanied the group in the singing of Christmas carols.

Hosts were Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Edwards, Dr. and Mrs. T. S. Edwards, Dr. and Mrs. T. P. Frizell, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Markward and Dr. and Mrs. Eiland.

Entertainment in New Youth Center Set for Saturday

First entertainment in The Kennel, Knox City's youth center, will be Saturday night beginning at 7 o'clock. Mrs. H. M. Compton, secretary of the adult board, announced Wednesday.

A formal opening for the public will be held at a later date, Mrs. Compton said.

All students in the local high school have been accepted for membership. Thirty-four membership cards had been sold Wednesday, Beverly James, secretary of the student council, said.

Entertainment for Saturday evening has been planned by the student council. Those planning to attend must have membership cards, and no cards will be sold at the door, officials of the council said. Those wanting to join prior to Saturday night may do so at the First Baptist church in Seymour. Interment in the Henson Cemetery at Seymour will be under the direction of the Fellowship Lodge.

There are two sons, Wheelwright Park, Calif., and Seymour, a daughter, Mrs. Lewis of Archer City; Mrs. Loy Farris of Roaring Rock and a sister, Mrs. M. C. Seymour.

Mrs. Compton said donations to the youth center for expenses incurred in painting the inside may be made by contacting her.

SPECIAL DELIVERY—Taking advantage of free mailing privileges at the Knox City postoffice, and getting their letters to Santa Claus mailed in plenty of time for pre-Christmas delivery, were Gary Wheeler, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Wheeler, Ronnie Hughes, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hughes, Elizabeth Contreras, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Contreras, and Libby Mitchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mitchell. The special mail box was rigged up in the postoffice lobby by Postmaster Jeff Graham as a convenience for the children—and possibly to save postoffice personnel some time in sorting "Santa letters" from the regular mail.

Legionnaires to Distribute Christmas Baskets Monday

No family in Knox City will be without a bountiful Christmas dinner and plenty of toys for the children if the American Legion learns of their need. Post Commander Alton Fitzgerald said this week.

The Legion's annual Christmas baskets will be prepared and delivered Monday by Legionnaires and Auxiliary members. The Legion's charity fund has been augmented by $150.00 in donations, and toys have been contributed by the Lions Club, Garden Club, Cub Scouts and Volunteer Fire Dept. More toys are on hand than ever before, the post commander said.

"We want to do as much good as possible with our funds and with the toys, Fitzgerald said, "and we don't want any family to have a "short" Christmas or any child to be without toys in his stocking."

"If any Knox Citizen knows of any family who needs help, please give the name to me or to any Legion member. Also any parent unable to furnish toys for his children is asked to notify us."

So far very few names have been turned in, Fitzgerald said. He urged everyone to turn in names before Monday.

J. W. Smith Observes 93rd Birthday

J. W. (Pappy) Smith, Knox County pioneer and the oldest citizen in Knox City, observed his 93rd birthday Saturday.

Members of his family honored him Sunday with a dinner, and friends called during the afternoon. Families of eight of his 10 children were present for the occasion. They were Mrs. J. A. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Smith, Mr. and Mrs. John Smith and daughters, all of Knox City; Mr. and Mrs. Hob Smith and family of Rochester; Mr. and Mrs. Reeder Smith and family of Abilene; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Davis of Ruidoso, N. M., and Mr. and Mrs. John Tankersley of Arlington.

Mr. Smith, born in Bowling Green, Ky., came to Texas with his parents at the age of seven. As a young man he operated a store at "Kosoga," a community that was located about four miles northeast of the present site of Knox City. About 1905 he established a grocery store in Knox City, which he operated several years. Later he accepted a job with Baker-Bryant Mercantile Co. and was grocery manager 31 years.

In the early days he bought land south, west and east of Knox City, some of which he still owns.

Despite his advanced age Mr. Smith's mind is still alert and he recalls much of the history and development of the Knox City area.

Soon after the county was organized in 1886 he served as a county commissioner. He is a charter member of the Knox City Methodist Church, a charter member of the Texas Cowboy Reunion, and a Mason.

Rain this Week Fine 'Christmas Gift'

Everyone in Knox County received an early Christmas present this week—a gentle rain that brought much-needed moisture to the area.

A light drizzle fell Tuesday morning, freezing as it fell and coating cars and windshields with ice. Wednesday light drizzle and mist continued intermittently throughout the day.

Total precipitation for the two days was 95 inch, bringing the total so far this year to 8.32. Last year at the same time .2417 inches had been recorded.

Lions Club Hears Christmas Concert By School Band

Members of the Knox City Lions Club heard a Christmas concert by the Knox City school band Wednesday following their noon meeting.

The band, directed by W. J. Morris, performed in the auditorium of the Methodist Church. Lions brought toys to the meeting, to turn over to the American Legion for distribution, but the packages were not opened and displayed as in the past.

C. E. Williams, chairman of the club's committee for the Christmas lighting contest, presented the awards to the winning ladies, who were guests of the club. Williams expressed thanks to the merchants who contributed the prizes.

Luren Campbell of Olney, deputy district governor, and Tom Bullington of Munday, zone chairman, were present for the meeting.

The meeting was dismissed early for the band concert. Otis Harbert, club president, announced that there will be no meeting next Wednesday.

Ten-Year Audit of Benjamin's Books Is Completed

A ten-year audit has been completed on the books of the City of Benjamin, and the auditor found the city's records in good order, City Secretary W. M. Hettel said this week.

The auditor was Travis Lee of Munday.

Several copies of the audit are on file in the city hall, and Mayor Leroy Melton invited the public to inspect them.

Cub Scouts, Parents Enjoy Yule Party

Seventy-five Cub Scouts and their friends and parents attended a Christmas party Tuesday night at the Methodist Church.

Cubs had drawn names, and the gifts were under the tree which the youngsters had trimmed with decorations they had made. Santa Claus distributed toys which the Cubs then donated to the American Legion for distribution in the Legion's Christmas baskets.

Refreshments were served.

Winners Are Named In Lighting Contest

Mrs. H. E. Sharp was awarded first place in the "most outstanding overall decoration of home" division of the Christmas lighting contest sponsored by the Lions Club and Knox City Garden Club.

Prizes were given for first and second places in each of the four divisions of the contest. Awards were made by C. E. Williams at the regular noon luncheon of the Lions Club Wednesday.

Judges were Mmes. W. B. Payne, Jeff Place and C. O. Davis, members of the Rule Garden Club. Mrs. Anceel Waldrip, Garden Club chairman of the contest, said the judges found just a few points difference in some of the entries. She expressed her thanks to everyone who entered.

For first place, Mrs. Sharp received a Sunbeam Automatic toaster, given by West Texas Utilities. Mrs. Clyde E. Williams won second in overall decoration, and received a travel iron from Hoge's Pharmacy.

Other winners and their prizes were:

Yard scene: Mrs. Chas. Givens, first, $7.50 given by Knox County Herald; Mrs. Eddie Shaver, second, desk lamp from Jones Drug Store.

Window division: Mrs. Jack Tankersley first, $7.50 gift certificate from Cobb's; Mrs. Sharp second, wrought iron TV lamp from City Hardware.

Doorway division: Mrs. L. N. Bridges first, $7.50 gift certificate from Kemletz & Carl; Mrs. Eddie Carr second, Christmas box of cheese from Edwards M System.

Ribbons were presented in the division for business houses. City Hardware was awarded first place, Lone Star Gas Co. second and Reed's Grocery third.

Mrs. Sharp's overall decoration included a decorated Christmas tree in her window. A huge Christmas tree was made from native cedar and placed around the window on the outside. The outdoor tree was trimmed with Christmas balls and outlined in red lights. Spotlighted on top of the house was "Merry Christmas" in silver, underlined with blue lights.

A nativity scene won Mrs. Chas. Givens first place. Dolls were used as characters and the manger was made from bundle feed.

Mrs. Tankersley decorated a huge Christmas tree in her picture window. The tree was surrounded by beautifully decorated packages.

The Christ Child and madonna, made to look like stained glass, decorated the door at the Bridges home. The design was made by their granddaughter, Martha Sue Bridges, a senior at Texas Tech. Miss Bridges will get her degree in applied arts in the spring and plans to work on her master's degree in Mexico next fall. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bridges of Anton.

The Williams house had a greeting of "Hi There" on the front door, with five bells hanging from rope in front of the picture window. On the other side of the window in silver letters was "Merry Christmas."

A tree in the Shavers' front yard was decorated with tin can lids and burned flash bulbs wrapped in discarded aluminum foil. A huge Santa Claus was pouring packages from a wheelbarrow, and the scene was spotlighted.

The wise men and a star, made from white cardboard, were on the door of the Carr home. The door was covered with black and the star was glittered with blue.

County Purchases Of Savings Bonds Total $245,000

W. E. Braly, chairman of the U. S. Savings Bonds Committee for Knox County, advised today that citizens of the county had purchased a total of $245,000 in Series E Savings Bonds through November 1956. The county's goal for the year is $320,000, and bonds purchased so far represent 76.6 percent of this goal.

Mr. Braly also had some timely advice for the lucky folks who will receive money for Christmas this year. "There is a wonderful way to spend Christmas Cash to make it worth much more. Buy United States Savings Bonds and watch them grow."

Braly had another suggestion for a New Year's resolution. He said all of us could help ourselves, our families, our community and our country by resolving to use a systematic savings plan. A plan that works automatically and pays off with guaranteed results. The government has such a plan, the Payroll Savings plan for the purchase of Series E bonds.

School Holidays Begin Today

Christmas holidays for students in the Knox City Schools began today, Supt. Chas. E. Silk said.

High school students were dismissed following an assembly program in the school auditorium. In the elementary school, class parties were held and the children were dismissed about 3 o'clock.

Classes will resume Wednesday, Jan. 2.

Stores to Close Dec. 25-26 for Yule Holidays

Most Knox City business concerns will observe a two-day holiday at Christmas, with stores closing Tuesday, Dec. 25, and the following day, Dec. 26.

These dates were designated as business holidays at a recent meeting of the Knox City Lions Club. A few businesses, however, principally service stations and cafes, may be open on Wednesday.

Curtis Coates has announced that City Cafe will be closed both days.

Lovelace Wash-O-Mat Laundry will be closed Christmas Eve and Christmas Day, but will be open for business Wednesday.

The postoffice will be open for business as usual on Christmas Eve, and the rural carriers will make their routes. On Christmas Day there will be no rural delivery and the windows will be closed. However, all incoming mail will be put in the boxes and outgoing mail dispatched. Wednesday regular service will be rendered except that the windows will be open from 8 to 11 a. m. only.

Jones Drug and Hoge Pharmacy will be open both days from 8 to 10 a. m. so their patrons can pick up their daily newspapers. Druggists will be on call for prescriptions during the holidays.

The Knox City Clinic will close at noon on Christmas Eve and all day Tuesday, but will be open on Wednesday.

Former Resident Receives Promotion With Dallas Firm

E. G. Parkhill Jr. was recently promoted to vice-president of Ron-Del, Inc., of Dallas, it was learned this week.

Ron-Del is a manufacturer of folding aluminum awnings. Parkhill began employment with the company as office manager on January 1st of this year.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Parkhill Sr. of Knox City, the new executive has been living in Dallas the past four years. He is a graduate of Sunset High School and Hardin-Simmons University, served as a pilot in the Navy during World War II and formerly taught band in the local high school.

Parkhill is married and has four children.

like us, failed to win a Christmas lighting contest you still have a chance to win.

Bertha Perry is giving a table centerpiece to the lucky number at her house at the flower shop tomorrow night.

If you miss again, you still have more chances. Hoge will give away an electric clock in a drawing Christmas Eve. And one hour later Drug will also have a drawing to give some lucky people a new electric train.

Don't any hope of winning of the drawings, as we are giving away a prize at a bridge game someone will be lucky.

Dry Goods isn't giving away, but they are adding a new type of diaper to their line. It is shaped like a baby's bottom and the manufacturers say it goes in the back, in front, bomb-bay or to absorb like a tampon.

Things have changed in 2 1/2 years! Find the news item in this week's Herald. There's an amazing right along be-our annual Christmas greetings from Santa Claus already been printed and will be finished this week. Time to go out on the rug on Christmas Eve.

We had to have a LITTLE besides letters to Santa.

Intended for about half week's front page to be and the same next week.

Our engravings are no longer mixed up in a pile of packages somewhere here and the engravers will try to crowd 'em all on this Christmas issue.

Letters have been coming in fast, and we'll probably have more this year than last.

And about a little boy who simplified his Santa by simply saying "up for everything but the toys."

Somewhere else, one of our generation didn't get a letter to Santa... he didn't!

House Slated Newly Remodeled City Florist

Following the completion of remodeling job, Mrs. Bertha Perry of Knox City Florist will have open house at the shop from 6 to 10 tomorrow night.

Beautiful Christmas centerpieces will be given as a door prize to the holder of the lucky number. Guests will be given a card when they register. Displays will be Christmas table linens, centerpieces, pot plants and antiques.

STREAMS in Desert Places

By Ozelle Stephens
"And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for behold I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. (Lu. 2:10-11).

You who have accepted this Saviour, Jesus Christ (Who was born on that day so many years ago), then on His birthday you know the joy and comfort of those who dwell safely within His abiding love.

And if the Son of Peace be in your heart, the door will open wide and you will enter into other hearts and bring peace and Good Will to them.

May the meaning of Christmas be deeper, its friendship stronger, and its hopes brighter as it comes to you this year is our prayer.

The Ruth Sunday School class of the First Baptist Church enjoyed a Christmas banquet at the Church Monday night. Twenty-five members and guests were present.

Hostesses for the turkey dinner were Mmes. Claud Reed, Charley Reed, Abe Watson, John May, H. E. Sharp and C. J. Reese. Gifts were exchanged and members presented their teacher, Mrs. Dave Whitford, a gift.

A program, under the direction of Mrs. Kenneth Myers and Mrs. J. M. Bradberry, was presented by the Junior Choir. Mrs. Claud Reed assisted with the directing.

Following the banquet, a fellowship meeting for the children was held in the basement of the church. Fifty children and a number of parents were served refreshments.

Christmas came early for Mr. and Mrs. Lee Jones. The couple received a telephone call Tuesday from their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Grady L. Brown, who are in St. John, Newfoundland. Brown is in the Air Force and stationed at Pepperell Air Force Base. The call came through at 4:30 p. m. here, 7 o'clock in Newfoundland. The Browns and their four children expect to return to the states in about 18 months.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bradberry were to leave today for Norfolk, Va., to spend Christmas with their son, Bobby Lynn, and wife.

O'Brien News

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Proffitt and son of Boron, Calif., arrived here last week after spending 18 months there. Billy has his discharge after four years in the Air Force.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Bouchee of Ackerly spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Barnard Sr. Mrs. Bouchee and Mrs. Barnard are sisters.

Mrs. R. M. Johnston and Mrs. O. S. Johnston were in Dallas last week. They carried B. W. Barnett to his home in Vernon after he had received treatment in a Dallas hospital.

Mrs. H. A. Barnard spent a few days last week with her daughter, Mrs. Odis Frazier, and family in Abilene.

Mrs. Ford Waldrip and Mrs. A. A. Cox were hostesses for the Sunshine Club Christmas party in Mrs. Waldrip's home Tuesday afternoon. Christmas carols were sung and games enjoyed by all present. Pal gifts were exchanged and names drawn for January. Those present were Mrs. Roy Hester, Mrs. James Hewitt, Mrs. J. L. Grindstaff Sr., Mrs. W. W. Hines, Mrs. Morris Denton, Mrs.

Truett Hester, Mrs. Sam Johnston. Refreshments of fruit cake with whipped cream, cocoa and coffee were served.

The Aletha Saunders circle of the WMS met in the home of Mrs. Sam Johnston for Bible Study Monday. Mrs. M. M. Griffin led the opening prayer and the group sang "Sweet Hour of Prayer." After the business meeting Mrs. J. L. Grindstaff gave the Bible Study from "Great Prayers of the Bible." Six ladies were present for the meeting.

Magazine Gives Hints On Buying Right Toys

How do you choose the right toy for the youngster on your Christmas shopping list? You won't have too much trouble, say the editors of Changing Times, the Kiplinger Magazine, if you match the gift to the child's stage of development. The child under two will be pleased with a rattle, simple blocks, or cuddling toys. Simple push-pull toys, kiddy cars or picture books are good for this age when feeling, hugging, patting and shaking things are characteristic. As the child begins to creep, walk and climb, he likes to push, pull, carry, pound and build. The child from 2 to 4 walks, talks, throws, digs, pedals, plays imaginative games and likes variety. One of these toys should be right for him: Blocks, wheeled toys big enough to straddle, swing or teeter-totter, simple housekeeping equipment and doll accessories, paints and crayons, simple jigsaw puzzles and picture books.

When the child is between the ages of 4 and 6, he can use all his muscles and has an active imagination. For boys of this age all types of mechanical toys such as bulldozers, steam shovels, wind-up cars and planes are good. For girls, play house equipment and doll accessories. For both: costumes or phonograph records.

A youngster from 6 to 8 can do more complicated things like scoring games, perform stunts, work with tools and follow simple directions. For girls of this age, jump ropes, paper dolls, equipment for playing school or house are suitable. For boys, electric trains, tools, bikes or sports equipment are welcome.

The child from 8 to 10 is now perfecting his skills and selecting hobbies. His interests are almost unlimited. For girls, handicrafts such as real sewing sets are good; for boys, hobby equipment, such as stamp albums or photo supplies. For both, games of skill, skates, magic sets, books and records.

The magazines suggestions were based on scientific research into the abilities and desires of average children.

Holiday guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Anderson will be her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Martin, of Granbury.
