TORNADO OR HIGH WIND—Most Knox Citizens believe the above damage was done during the making of a tornado here last Wednesday night at approximately 10:10 p.m. On the left is shown the foundation of a warehouse—all that was left of five other buildings. The warehouses were located just west of the business district. At right is shown Elvin Watkins at the Vernon Buckley farm home. The giant tree was standing a few feet from the rear of the house. A tree in the front yard was also blown down and damage was extensive around the house. Sheriff Homer T. Melton said the tornado's path extended from 100 yards to a quarter-mile in width. No one was injured in the storm, however.

4-H Contests Results—

Dorothy Edrington and Janice Keuhler placed first in the Senior Poultry Marketing Method demonstration and Glenda Herring placed second in the Sr. Public Speaking contest. All three girls are members of the Rhineland 4-H club and will compete in the state contests to be held June 6-8 at A&M College. The Knox County Senior rifle team is an alternate to the state contests and was composed of Lawrence New of Gilliland, Jerry Decker a member of the Goree 4-H club, Dwayne Herring and Ed Wilde, both of Rhineland 4-H club.

New tied for the second highest individual in the contest. There was no Junior contest held in the Junior division on this contest.

In the senior electric team demonstration, Frances Reneau and Clyde Burnett placed sixth in this contest and both are members of the Sunset 4-H club. In the Junior division Dwight Reeves and Ronnie Simmons of Gilliland placed fourth. Janet Brazell and Shirley Richards of the Sunset 4-H club placed third in the senior vegetable marketing demonstration. Joan Williams and Judy Lindley placed second in the Junior poultry marketing method demonstration. Joan is from Gilliland and Judy is from the Munday club.

Janice McAnair of Benjamin placed sixth in the Junior Public Speaking contest. Norma Jo Naverrajil and Mary Nell Miller placed eighth in the senior safety demonstration while Loretta Kay placed sixth in the Junior share-the-fun contest and Brenda Young of the Benjamin 4-H club placed fourth in the senior division. In the Soil, Water and Range conservation demonstration team contest, Kay Cook and Sharon Burgess of Gilliland and in the senior division placed 4th while the Junior division was entered by Karen Cook and Jan Burgess and also placed fourth.

Grain Sorghum Demonstration—

Alphonse Keuhler of Rhineland has planted one of the grain sorghum variety demonstrations in the county this year. This demonstration will be a little different than the other demonstrations in that in this demonstration, Alphonse has planted his cotton with the 4-in and 4-out method and then planted the varieties in the two middle blank cotton rows.

The purpose of the sorghum in the blank rows is to help protect the cotton from blowing sand and to get some return from the protective crop.

It will be interesting to see if there is any variety difference on a one year result basis when compared to the normal planting method. Clarence Herring, a neighbor, has one of the variety demonstrations and the basis of comparison will be made on the two plants.

Alphonse has planted RS 610, RS 608, Combine 7078, TE55, E56a, C45, Red Raider A, Ranger, Red Head, Double T, NK210, NK135, NK140, TE96, and NKX-3007. The demonstration is located in the field east of the Keuhler home.

Graduation Plans Made At O'Brien

Two local pastors, Rev. Larry Young and Rev. Bill Wright, will be the principal speakers for the baccalaureate and commencement, respectively, at Carney Rural High School, at O'Brien.

Sunday, May 14, at 8 p.m., the baccalaureate will take place. Other than Rev. Young, five other persons will be on the program. Gene Sanders of Stamford, high school English teacher at O'Brien, will provide the professional music at both services and will play a medley of religious songs on Sunday night.

Milton Rowan and Cyle Carver, school board members, will offer the invocation and benediction, respectively, at the baccalaureate service. Supt. Elvin Mathis will make announcements.

The commencement begins at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, May 18. Rev. Hansel G. Pearce, pastor of the Jud Baptist Church, and teacher in the O'Brien school system, will give the invocation. Mary Mathis will give the eighth grade salutatory address and Connie Bryant the valedictory. The nine eighth grade graduates will sing "I Would Be True."

Sarah Taylor will deliver the senior salutatorian address and Jerry Rowan will follow with the valedictorian speech. Royce Cox, the third graduate of the senior class will introduce Rev. Bill Wright, pastor of the O'Brien and Benjamin Methodist Churches, for the address. Charise M. Thorn will present the awards. Supt. Mathis will present grade school diplomas. Floyd Middlebrook, school board president, will assist in awarding the senior diplomas. Leonard Force will give the benediction.

Other than those named above, members of the eighth grade class are James Duncan, Nancy Eggleston, Dale Freeman, Joe Ed Herpeche, Janice Stewart and Jerry Thomas. Mrs. Lee Eggleston is sponsor of the eighth grade and Charles M. Thorn of the seniors. G. C. Eggleston, Larry Gibson and Jerry Force, junior class members, are ushers.

Mrs. Alice B. Pullig Celebrates Her 96th Birthday Friday With Open House

MRS. PULLIG is shown above in her kitchen. Out of sight to her right was a birthday cake and a large bowl of punch brought to her home and served by friends for the occasion. Mrs. Pullig asked the Herald photographer: "Have you ever taken a picture of a 96-year old person standing up by himself and unaided?" The reply was, in all honesty, "No mam, nor lying down either, for that matter." Mrs. Pullig's birthday has been an annual affair for a number of years, and friends are planning a big celebration four years from now.

Mrs. Alice B. Pullig celebrated her 96th birthday Friday, May 5, at her home here. Open House was held between the hours of 2 to 6 p.m. and friends and relatives were in attendance during the day.

The occasion has been an annual affair for Mrs. Pullig for a number of years.

Mrs. Annie Hughes, a daughter, from Albuquerque, N. M., was here to visit her mother and attend the open house celebration.

Gifts of flowers, a birthday cake, and other items were presented Mrs. Pullig.

Mrs. Pullig was born near Little Rock, Ark., on May 5, 1865. She was the former Alice

B. Keyes and came to Texas with her parents at the age of three. On Dec. 28, 1880, she was married to L. P. Lackney near Greenville. They moved to Knox City in 1910.

Her husband was a local Baptist preacher. Mrs. Lackney was a practical nurse and took care of patients in her home before Knox City had a hospital.

Lackney died in 1942. She married C. W. Pullig in 1943.

Mrs. Pullig was in good spirits and laughed and joked with visitors during her birthday celebration.

Friends were planning a "big day" four years from now.

Scout Committee Meets; Plan Another Monday

Noel Crenshaw, District Scout executive of Seymour, met with a committee of Scout enthusiasts Monday night at Roddy's Cafe to discuss the re-forming of Scout troops here.

Another meeting has been planned for Monday night and all interested persons are asked to attend.

Scoutmasters will be needed and anyone interested in the Boy Scouts are asked to attend the meeting.

The National Council of the Boy Scouts of America has nationally adopted a theme for 1961 of Build, Serve, Achieve . . . Character Counts.

This theme is represented by three phases of the Boy Scout program — Cubbing, ages 8, 9, and 10; Scouting, ages 11-14; and Exploring, 15-18.

Each of these three distinct programs are represented in the words BUILD. A boy has an opportunity to grow in the Scouting program. This includes all areas of his life to make him a better boy, a better teenager, and a better man.

ACHIEVE gives a boy an opportunity to be of service to his home, his church, and his community.

CHARACTER COUNTS gives a boy an opportunity to work through all ranks of Subbing, Scouting and Exploring. By doing so, he may achieve recognition of being an Eagle Scout.

Crenshaw said: "In all the world character counts. A lad's character will certainly count for the best if he is given an opportunity to better himself through the program which the Boy Scouts of America offers.

"Such a program depends on adults who are interested enough in Knox City to volunteer themselves for leadership in the Scouting way of life."

In conclusion, Crenshaw said, "If you are an interested adult and would like to see an active Scout troop in Knox City, please attend a meeting Monday night, May 15, at Roddy's Cafe at 7:30 p.m. If you want character to count through the Boy Scout troop, you will attend Monday night with other interested adults."

MELANIE MEDDLES

By MELANIE VERHALEN

Another first-and-last is over—Senior trip.

Last Wednesday after a hearty breakfast served by the women of the Baptist Church, we headed for New Orleans.

We spent the first night in Baton Rouge. Early Thursday morning we had our first sight of the Mississippi River. At that point there were several ships, barges, tugboats, and two ferries transporting cars. Mary Nelle and I were brave enough to sneak on a barge—we were discovered.

In the state capitol we visited the legislature chambers of the new building which has 24 kinds of European marble. Up in the tower we looked down on the symmetric gardens and the Mississippi. A huge memorial to Huey Long is erected in the square. A Negro gardener said Long had done more than anyone else for the common man. His late son, Earl, had as much ability but too much grit. Then we drove through LSU campus.

After lunch in New Orleans we visited the old French cemeteries. The poor are buried in wall vaults and others have stone mausoleums—sometimes a whole family, separated by over 150 years, would be buried in the same tomb. After a year and a day caskets are burned and bones are pushed aside to make room for new corpses. In two of the vaults we saw a skull and some arm or leg bones.

At Pontchartrain Beach we took in a little sun, less water, and much sand. That night we watched a trapeze act and—catastrophe—Dennis lost his sunshades.

That night we walked through French town to Pat O'Brien's (we passed Clarence "Frogman" Henry singing in a cafe—what I would have given to have ducked in there). This famous restaurant was very ornate and filled to standing room. What a disappointment—the jokes and songs were far too rank for a mixed crowd. Evidently business can build on such a reputation—a lot of people enjoyed it—which makes the world go round. But it made me sick!

At Famous Doors we heard a great jazz band. As we drank dollar Cokes, we enjoyed two Negro tapdancers who said they wanted to be first on the moon to prove that "the jig is up."

Friday morning we took a guided tour of Old French New Orleans. We visited Jackson Square, St. Louis Cathedral (the oldest one in America—1795), some of the McDonogh schools (43 New Orleans schools were built with money of McDonogh—in life a miser after his sweetheart's family rejected him), the oldest Little Theatre, the first skyscraper—three stories, and the Pakenham Oaks (representing Catherine the Great's lovers).

That night we had dinner at Antoine's. Many of us thought this was the highlight of the trip. The food and service were excellent in the old building known throughout the world for its fine food.

in the moonlight before going to the Blue Room.

Before leaving New Orleans we observed the tradition of stopping for coffee and doughnuts in the Old French Market.

We had a picnic in Shreveport Saturday night and on home. During the trip I was impressed by Louisiana's narrow highways, its large Negro population, the beautiful moss-laden trees, and the general "un-keptness" of the countryside.

We just want you to know that the prettiest scenery of the whole trip was the twelve miles between Monday and home!

Corder, and Jack Brown attended the Mothers Day Tea at the Knox County Courthouse Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. L. A. Haynie has returned to her home after an extended visit with Mrs. Clifford Ohr in Bartlesville, Okla. Her daughter and husband accompanied her.

Over 10 pounds	60c	70c

The increases for this service are one million in additional postal revenues, based on livery volume.

Money orders up to $5 and over 15-cent and 20-cent fee brackets into one of the present 30-cent bracket at the $50 level, fee for denominations up to $100. These 100 million money order transactions, however, revenues would total about $5 million.

Money Order Value	Fee
$ 0.01 to $ 5	15c
$ 5.01 to $ 10	20c
$10.01 to $100	30c

These proposed changes can be put into effect on General Day under his existing administrative action was taken recently to adjust postal rates for foreign countries.

These actions are part of the Postmaster General's program to place the Postal Service in a more sound financial position in accordance with the Postal Policy Act of 1958.

The Postmaster General is also requesting legislative action with regard to financing the postal service to eliminate the revenue deficiency.

Plan now for large once-a-year expenditures that your regular monthly income cannot take care of when they are due. These items for you might include the following:

Property taxes	$150
Car license	23
Yearly insurance payment	175
Car repair	75
Tires	55
Christmas spending	85

Total $563
If this is your situation, then you should divide this total by 12 and set aside about $46 in a savings account so that you can take care of these obligations when they are due. The money you set aside in the savings account can draw interest. If you borrow the money to meet these obligations, or finance them, you PAY interest.

In the teachings of Jesus we find Him constantly warning against false teaching of the truths of God. Many would make the Word of God of none effect changing the truth into a lie. It takes constant reading, studying, and thinking on the Word of God to keep the heart for it is deceitful above all things and desperately wicked. But the Word of God is powerful and purges out all evil, filling it with purity, peaceableness, justice, mercy, sincerity, righteousness, wisdom and understanding.

We must ever be alert to keep our hearts with all diligence. The heart that is fixed on God will ever be watching for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Calvert estimated the House sales tax bill would raise in excess of $150,000,000 a year. This is higher than other estimates and would provide enough or nearly enough to meet estimated revenue needs. Calvert by law, has the final and official say on tax yield estimates.

Governor Daniel's veto threat chilled earlier optimism about an early wrap-up of money problems and turned House members to thinking again in terms of compromise and "package bills."

SPENDING CONFEREES — A ten-man conference is at work ironing out the differences between House and Senate versions of the general appropriations bill.

House bill would cost about $16,000,000 more than the Senate's. Committee's task of striking a balance between the two is expected to take three weeks.

Senate members of this important committee are Senators Ray Roberts of McKinney, A. M. Aikin Jr., of Paris, Crawford Martin of Hillsboro, Grady Hazlewood of Amarillo and Wardlow Lane of Center.

House members are Representatives James Cotton of Weatherford, Bill Hollowell of Grand Saline, B. H. Dewey of Bryan, J. W. Buchanan of Dumas and Malcolm McGregor of El Paso.

TEACHER PAY PUSHED — Advocates of higher teacher salaries are pushing to get their bill in position for quick final action once the money-raising and general appropriations measures are out of the way.

House Appropriations Committee approved and sent to the floor a bill that would provide the full $800 a year salary increase sought by teachers.

Goal is to get a pay raise bill passed in both houses, then send it to a conference committee to work out differences. Then at the strategic moment, it would be ready for final adoption by both houses.

TRAINING METHODS SCORED — House members are pressing for speedy action for a measure that would require less emphasis on "how" and more emphasis on "what" in public school teacher training.

Rep. Henry C. Grover of Houston a teacher on leave, is sponsor of the bill that would reduce required education (teacher method) courses from 24 semester hours to 12 for junior and senior high teachers. For grade school teachers the maximum would be reduced from a possible 60 to 24 semester hours.

One supporter observed that the late Albert Einstein wouldn't have been eligible to teach mathematics in a Texas high school. House voted to instruct the Education Committee to report on the bill immediately.

REDISTRICTING HITS BUMP — Senate efforts to pass a senatorial re-districting bill were postponed by Sen. Jop Fuller's filibustering opposition.

Senator Fuller of Port Arthur opposes the proposed measure because it would continue to combine Orange County with Jefferson (Beaumont, Port Arthur) to form his district. Jefferson County alone has more than enough voters to be a one-county district, says Fuller, and Orange would rather be in another district with counties of the same size.

Pressure to force agreement on a re-districting bill will be very strong since, if the Legislature fails to act, a non-Legislative Board will take over.

GLOOMY REPORTS — While lawmakers struggled to find new taxes, the news about present taxes was bad all over.

State Treasurer Jesse James reported that Texans apparently are not smoking and drinking like they used to, causing a million dollar slump in tobacco and liquor taxes in April. Revenue dropped from $8,689,855 in March to $7,362,176 in April.

Motor fuel tax revenue was also off, according to State Highway Engineer DeWitt Greer. A three and one-half per cent drop during the past eight months cost the state $3,000,000.

Meanwhile in the Third Court of Civil Appeals, the state lost in an effort to collect a state sales tax on component parts of radio sets, such as hi-fi tuners. Court said the law is not clear.

LOAN DISPUTE FLARES — Words were hot, but the issues unclear, as Senate committee hearing on a small loan bill stretched out.

Critics of the House-passed bill fell into at least two factions: (1) those who felt the interest rates (up to 40 per cent on the smallest loans) were too high and (2) those who felt over-all charges should be higher for loans of $100 and less.

Meanwhile, Atty. Gen. Will Wilson issued a statement blasting "powerful out-of-state loan sharks" trying to "bottle up" regulation. Senate Committee invited him to appear and discuss the matter with them.

MORE "NEATNIKS" NEEDED — Amid its $7,000,000 a year job of gathering up mountains of litter from public roadsides, the Texas Highway Department issued a plea to Texas motorists.

Please don't use the highway as a trash can, said the Dept.; be a "neatnik" and save on state costs.

Most of the litterbugs, says the Department, are home grown, not out-of-state visitors.

ACTION AND REACTION — After thousands of college students took a long, riotous weekend in Galveston, the Senate called on the Higher Education Commission to look into why the students weren't at their books.

In the opposite wing of the Capitol, the House passed two measures concerning the Gulf Coast area.

One would authorize the state to turn over 88.5 miles of Padre Island to the federal government for national park development.

Other is a proposed constitutional amendment that would give city and county governments authority to regulate traffic and sanitation on adjacent state-owned beaches.

A state agency, such as the Highway Dept., would be authorized to set flexible speed limits, according to road conditions, under another proposal for constitutional change given House approval.

House also passed a proposed amendment removing the present $47,000,000 a year ceiling on state welfare spending. Change would allow Legislature to appropriate for welfare as needed, up to the amount that would be matched federally.

World's deepest well, 25,340 feet, was drilled in 1958, Pecos County; dry hole.

Average depth of wells drilled in Texas in 1959: 4,218 feet.
