Streams In Desert Places

by Ozelle Stephens

He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake." (Psalm 23:3) This life is many paths--- some broad and some narrow.

Some lead to sorrow, heartache and destruction and some lead to joy, peace, happiness, and eternal life. It all depends upon who you are following. God made us like sheep, so we need a shepherd. This is why He sent His only Son into the world to be our Shepherd. He will lead us into the right paths if only we will follow Him. If you have taken the wrong path, you know it, for the Holy Spirit is always there to convict of wrong and approve when you are right. Turn to God for guidance and He will freely forgive you of all wrong and lead you into the path of joy, peace, and eternal life. God has always lead his children for we find Isahish saying. Thine ears shall hear a word behind thee, saying, this is the way, walk ye in it." Isa. 30:21. With Jesus as your shepherd, your path will be overshaded with Streams of His great light that will shine brighter and brighter unto that perfect day.

CHARLENE BROTHERS

This is a believe it or not statement---it is raining here at O'Brien, not hard, and maybe not very much, but every little bit helps. The showers we have been getting lately have helped some where the farmers are already watering crops. If it will rain the rest of the day slow and casy like it is now, we can take the water off our maize. and I know about 6 people that will be very happy about this, especially my husband and youngest son. I think they have been irrigating all They are ready for a
