Local WTU Employees Added Quarter Of A Century Club

Texas Utilities George Field and bookkeeper Florence recently received in the November WTU publication, "The Times". The WTU employees were added to WTU's Quarter of A Century Club in October. Field completed 25 years of service on October 1 and Florence completed her service on October 1.

Field returned to Haskell in 1940 and worked for Haskell County for one year before moving to Fort Worth where he attended a government engineering school. He was employed by Vultee Aircraft Corporation near Carswell AFB for several months before moving to Lockney to accept employment with Southwestern Public Service Company. Field worked as a lineman and local manager until he resigned to begin his 25 years of service with WTU.

Mrs. Field is the former Colleen Sweek of Rotan and was married to Mr. Field in 1954. Mr. Field has a son and a daughter by a former marriage. Melton Field is WTU's local manager in Rotan and the daughter, Mrs. Patricia Ann Simonsen, lives in Derby, Kansas. Another son, Marlin, was employed in WTU's Contract and Rate Department in Abilene until his death in 1967. There are three grandchildren, Leigh Ann, daughter of the Melton Fields, Meg Lynn, daughter of the late Marlin Field, and James Dee Simonsen, son of Mrs. Patricia Simonsen.

Mr. Field served as a member of the school board for 11 1/2 years and as a director of the Fisher County Water Authority for three years while living in Roby. During his 10 years in Rotan, the Rotan local manager was an active civic leader serving as a member of the City Council, Mayor Protem, a director of the Public Housing Authority, and a director on the Council of Governments representing Fisher, Mitchell, and Scurry counties. Field is also a former member.

Drawing Saturday At 3 Shoppers Bonanza Now In Full Swing

The Christmas Shoppers Bonanza, sponsored by the local Chamber of Commerce and aimed at shoppers to 'buy it at home' is now in full swing here as merchants began passing out tickets with each $2 purchase November 2.

The first of three drawings will be held at 3 p.m. Saturday, December 5, on the sidewalk downtown, weather permitting. Four tickets will be drawn. The first one will be worth $100, the second one worth $50, and the third and fourth will be $25 certificates.

All cash certificates will be in one dollar script form and will be redeemable at any participating store. Winners will be announced in this paper each week.

The Bonanza was begun last year and as everyone was pleased with the promotion, Chamber members agreed to continue it. It is designed to help you, the shopper, and not only does it give you an opportunity to gain back money you have spent but it keeps the tax dollars localized, thereby benefiting your community in a number of ways and making it a more desirable place for you to live.

Recent surveys indicate that each dollar spent at home will create $4 to $5 in trade volume in our local area and where could anyone get a better return for his money? The more you buy, the more you gain, so why not be a big spender in KC this Christmas season?

Mrs. Doris Crowover, Chamber manager, told the Herald that Santa will be on hand on Saturday, December 19, following the 3 p.m. drawing and will set up his headquarters in the former Perry's store so that he can take orders and hand out treats to all the little children before going back to the North Pole to begin work in the toy shop on the 23rd. Santa will be at his headquarters also on December 21, 22, and 23 each afternoon.

Bulldogs Defeated In Bid For Bi-District Title At Roscoe

The O'Brien Bulldogs traveled to Roscoe last Thursday night to meet the Highland Hornets in bi-district action. The speedy Hornets handed the Bulldogs their first loss of the year, 64-36. In first quarter action it looked as if the game was to be a low scoring affair when Highland took an 8-0 lead scoring on a pass from the one yard line. Early in the second quarter Highland scored on a 72 yard pass play bringing the score to 16-0. Following two exchanges of possession the Hornets' Jerry Muncy scored for a third time on a six yard run bringing the score to 22-0 as the extra point try failed.

The Bulldogs finally found paydirt as Alan Holmes punched in from the 2 yard line and Hayes' kick was good to make the score 22-8. With Highland's highly explosive back Loran Krejci held in check, Jerry Muncy exploded for another Hornet touchdown before half extending the Hornet lead to 28-8. O'Brien found paydirt as the half ended on a 26 yard pass play from Danny DelHiero to Rayland Hayes to make the halftime score 28-14.

As play resumed, it looked as if the Bulldogs might have enough momentum to contest the flash Hornets. Alan Holmes punched in a one yard TD and Hayes kicked to bring the score to 28-22. However, the Hornets rebounded and Loran Krejci scored on a 9 yard run. Krejci's kick was good and the Hornets now led 36-22. The Hornets held the Bulldogs and scored again on their next possession as Jerry Muncy took in

They were told to consider the fresh mound as an old type hand fan and look for the handle located (plug) and get a distance half the radius of the mound in front of or just to the side of this and probe. Care should be taken to stop the probe when the runway is hit without making a hole in the bottom or the grain will fall in the hole instead of on the floor. Remember the probing location is not in the mound as this was the area excess soil was removed from the runway and has been plugged by the gopher.

the score for a 42-22 lead. O'Brien, still showing determination, rebounded with an 11 yard run by Del Hierro and Hayes' kick was again good. The score as the third quarter ended was 42-30. As the fourth quarter began, the Bulldogs were marching deep in Hornet territory when they missed a fourth down effort lacking only inches. Seemingly this was the turning point of the game as the Hornet's Krejci caught a 64 yard touchdown pass and punched in a 1 yard touchdown before O'Brien could score again. It was 58-30 when Del Hierro was caught for a safety by the Hornets. The Hornets final TD came as Krejci scored on a 16 yard dash bringing the score to 64-30. The Bulldogs never gave up, scoring in the final seconds of the game as Del Hierro hit Hayes for a 26 yard TD to end the scoring at 64-36.

It was a disappointing loss for the Bulldogs but with a 10-1 season and a District Championship to their credit, the Bulldogs can be proud of the hard work and effort. The Bulldogs lose fine senior leadership in Joe Flores, Ben Walling, Alan Holmes, George Adkisson, and Johnny Rocha but the Bulldogs return 16 members from this year's squad, three offensive and three defensive starters, and with a repeat of the determination and effort from all these boys, the Bulldogs can look forward to another great year in 1971-72.

MR. J. LYNN FUTCH describes some of the problems the FHA has been undergoing recently.

Munday Receives FHA Grant Check

Munday - "It is a real pleasure to be here in Munday and to participate in such a worthy project as your storm drainage system," said Mr. J. Lynn Futch, State Director of the Farmers Home Administration in Texas, as he addressed a large group in the Munday High School Cafeteria Tuesday, December 3 at 2:00 p.m.
Travis Lee, President of the Munday Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture, welcomed the crowd and introduced Mayor Jim Reeves. Mayor Reeves introduced Joe Boone, County FHA Administrator, who gave brief introductory remarks about Mr. Futch. He said that Mr. Futch was appointed to his position in April of 1969 and had 17 years experience in agriculture credit business.
"We seem to hear a lot about rural development these days," commented Mr. Futch. He stated that only a few years ago the main interest seemed to be in the big cities. For this reason concern has grown steadily in rural development as the big cities became over populated.
There are several agencies in the Department of Agriculture such as the SCS, Extension Services, Forest Service, ASCS, etc. that are concerned with rural development. "But, we feel that of all of these agencies, the FHA is the action agency and more closely related to rural development," said Futch.
Mr. Futch said he felt that one main area of interest to this region would be the farm programs. He said that Texas has the largest operating farmer loan program in the U. S. within the agency which is a fact to be proud of. Last year they loaned $30 million in operating loans and also farm ownership and service programs. The FHA recommended to Congress to increase the operating loan fund nationwide from $275,000,000 to $350,000,000. Texas has received approximately 10% of the $275 million and with the increase they could possibly receive $35 to $40 million.
In community service programs such as water systems, storm sewers, sewage disposal plants, etc., the FHA has made loans to over 600 areas in Texas. The FHA recommended to Congress an additional $50 million on a nationwide basis. Mr. Futch stated that these were very conservative increases compared to the number of applications they receive. The FHA loaned between $17 and $18 million in Texas last year for community service programs.
Mr. Futch said that one of the largest increases had taken place in rural housing. "In the fiscal year of 1967, 4100 families were put into new homes. In the fiscal year just ended for 1970, 4600 families were placed in new homes and in the fiscal year of 1971, it is probable that over 7000 ment people that they know meet requirements, thus saving time lost in investigating each request for loans. Also, the direct payment system will mean that home owners will send their payments to the finance office in St. Louis. This will save Mr. Boone considerable time at the first of each month.

Mr. Futch stated further that there had not been a shortage of loan funds in over two fiscal years. He said, "The shortage is in the administrative funds for personnel." It seems that Congress has stepped up the loans, but has been reluctant to step up the personnel to administer these loans. Futch said that they were operating with almost the same number of people as they were 10 years ago. He said that this was a very crucial point for the FHA if they are to keep up with the continual service for people. For this very reason the packaging program and the direct payment system were put into effect.
"It is not our intention to be in competition with private enterprise," stated Mr. Futch. In most instances private enterprise is essential to the survival of small towns. Mr. Futch said he certainly did not want the private enterprises in our area to think they were trying to compete.
In conclusion Mr. Futch said that it was a pleasure to work with small towns such as Munday which had such perseverance as was shown by the fact that loan and grant application was made in 1965. He said that the FHA could loan the money, but it was the ability and legwork of the county administrator, Joe Boone, and the community to get the work done.
At this point in the program,

Mr. Futch presented Mayor Reeves the check for $100,000 which will assist in funding the storm drainage system. Mayor Reeves extended his appreciation and thanks to the FHA and to all who had a part in this accomplishment.
Coffee and doughnuts were served by the Munday Chamber of Commerce at the close of the program. *****

We had a very nice Thanksgiving holiday and now we're back in the swing of school. In English we are studying Alexander Pope and "The Rape of the Lock". Our assignment for Monday was to write a summary of the poem. The following summary was written by Rogers Lankford:

The Rape of the Lock

There was a group of young men and ladies who went to a party at Hampton Court, Belinda, the girl from whom a lock of hair was to be cut, engaged in a card game with two knights. The card game was over, and the game, while being carried on, was compared to a battle between mighty kinds. Belinda was lucky in the early stages of the game and played smartly. Her luck changed to bad, but in the final hand she won. After the card game, coffee was served to the guests. One of the lords, while drinking his coffee, spilled a lock of hair just behind Belinda's neck that he was determined to have. He thought first of Scylla's fate. She had betrayed her father by sending the enemy a lock of his hair. He was still willing to carry on with his scheme. Charissa asked him by handing him the scissors. The sprites tried to protect Belinda, but to no avail. The lock had been severed. This had been the rape of the lock. The victorious hero on exulted over his prize. The rest of the lords and ladies argued loud and long over this act. Charissa urged good sense and humor, but in vain. The lock of hair had overcome the intelligence of the young lords. In a fit of rage Belinda threw stuff in the eyes of the Baron and cried for him to "restore the lock." This prize-the lock-could not be blessed into mortal hands, but surely could not be restored. Belinda's lost lock became a star and poetry was to make the lock of hair immortal.

Pope wrote this poem about Lord Petre who had cut a lock of hair from Miss Arabella Fermor's head. A quarrel and almost a brawl between the two families arose over the trivial incident. Pope wrote a "mock heroic" poem and treated the subject by making it appear particularly ridiculous.

Our basketball team beat Monday again last Tuesday. This week we play Archer City (only A and B girls) and Friday and Saturday we are in the Monday tournament. Friday the boys

MIKE RISINGER (left) and C. A. Rogers, soil scientist from Seymour are shown using hydraulic soils probe to examine a soil profile.

Knox County Residents Benefit From Standard Soil Survey

Knox City - Knox County residents are now receiving benefits from the Standard Soil Survey which was begun last March. Mike Risinger, soil scientist with the Soil Conservation Service, stated that over 75,000 acres have been mapped and soils information for these acres is now available. He also noted that upon request soils information could be made available on any acre in Knox County.

The soil survey has been a progressive stage since March when Risinger was transferred from Seymour to take charge of the survey. It is scheduled to be completed in 1975, so, until that date, residents in Knox County will continue to see a green pickup with an orange soils probe prowling the backroads of the County.

Christmas Is For Children Everywhere

A medical study in Lahore, Pakistan, shows that 9 of 10 babies who reach their first birthday have already started a lifetime of undernourishment, the Associated Press reported recently.

Other studies have shown that malnutrition afflicts half the children in underdeveloped countries, and may cause permanent mental and physical damage in the young.

These poignant facts underscore the holiday-season CARE Food Crusade appeal, which asks Americans to help the world's hungry children grow into healthy, educated, self-supporting adults. Now, as we plan and shop to make Christmas happy for our children, it behooves us to remember these others who need help so badly.
