Views From Another Point

By Joyce Beecher Greenwood

There "oughta be a law" against those letters that come in the mail announcing on the outside of the envelope: "Congratulations! You are in the final phase of our million dollar sweepstakes drawing!"

For a while, in the wide-eyed innocence of youth, I would eagerly tear into the envelope with visions of trips to Paris and summer homes in Hawaii dancing in my head -- thinking that perhaps after years of hard work and "getting by", being honest and fairly good, my ship had finally come in.

But, after announcing that you could be a winner in bold letters, the fine print instructs the reader to order at least five of the lovely and useful items described in the enclosed brochure. These lovely useful items include a lava lamp; an exercise suit containing the image of a fat, sweating woman eating a cupcake and the inscription, "Some do Richard Simmons, Some do Jane Fonda, I do Sara Lee"; a complete set of stainless steel cookware, flatware and a 12 piece place setting of fine china; and, finally, a pair of sun shades that not only "reduces the glare of the sun's rays, but greatly restricts the bright beams of city lights and oncoming traffic at night". (Would you get into the passenger seat of a car driven by someone wearing sun shades at night?)

All these wonderful, essential items can be purchased by returning a completed order form and an enclosed card containing six exclusive numbers that could make you a million dollar winner. You need not send money for the things you order. You will be billed later in easy monthly installments that will continue for the rest of your natural life.

I'll admit, it took several years and several hundred dollars in easy monthly payments before I learned to toss these letters into the trash unopened. I have in my possession a complete set of the world's greatest country hits including Buck Owens' I've Got a Tiger by the Tail and Chubby Wise's Let Me Ride In Your Little Red Wagon; a complete set of easy listening songs like Hey, Jude and Dock of the Bay that have never known the original artists; a Bible Encyclopedia that I hope to have time to study some day; a treadmill complete with a timer and a speedometer that stands in one corner of our bedroom and makes an excellent place for Tommy to hang his pants at night; a dictionary that requires three men and two little boys to lift off the desk and contains "even slang words" such as dame and stud -- all those words everyone needs to know in order to enhance the vocabulary; and, perhaps the worst thing I have ever done to myself, an AMA Approved Medical Guide. It is, of course, a book designed to save hundreds of dollars in medical expense by self-diagnosis.

What this "complete medical guide containing colorful illustrations" does for alarmists like me is cause additional anxiety. For example: I wake up in the middle of the night with a stabbing pain in my chest. I spring from my bed and grab my AMA approved Medical Guide, scanning the index for the section on chest pains.

"Is the pain a crushing sensation in the center of the chest?"

I take a deep breath. Yes.

"Does the pain extend down the left arm?"

Now that it's mentioned -- Yes, by golly, I believe it does!

"Seek emergency help at once! You may be having a heart attack!"

Just before I call an ambulance,

Munday To Host Haskell In Season Opener Friday

With the season opener set for Friday night, Mogul coaches watched the team carefully in its scrimmage against Anson last Thursday and came away with good things to say about this year's Moguls.

"Overall, I was real impressed with the team's performance at Thursday's scrimmage," Coach Jim Edwards said. "The boys seemed to get a little complacent at times during the contest when we were ahead by several points, but they snapped out of it when the contest got closer."

"Defensively, the boys did a super job, holding Anson to only two scores during the scrimmage," he commented.

The Mogul junior varsity will travel to Haskell on Thursday night and the varsity Moguls will host the Haskell Indians Friday night, with kickoff time at 8 p.m.

Haskell, who was in a three-way tie for second place in District 7AA last year, is picked to finish fourth in their district in 1989. The Indians have a lot of speed in the backfield this year, with players like Rodney Johnson and Jonathan Dever and receiver Johnnie Billington. The team's strength lies in its quickness.

The Indian roster includes four returning offensive starters and four returning starters on defense.

The Moguls, who have been picked as the No. 1 team in Class A this year by preseason polls, boast six returning starters on offense - Marc Andrade, Brett Bruce, Perry Collier, Terry Collier, Jeff Herring, and Tyler Thompson. Returning starters on defense include Andrade, Bruce, P. Collier, T. Collier, Bobby Dockins, David Owens, Jon Smith and Thompson. Of these lettermen, Andrade, Bruce, and the Collier twins were all-district picks in 1988-89.

The 1989 Munday Mogul team includes sophomores Bobby Dockins, Chris Scott and Chris Key, juniors Jerry Valencia, Perry Collier, Terry Collier, Tyler Thompson, Tony Hunter, Jerry Brannam, Brett Bruce, Dwayne Redder, Jason Brown, Jayson Morgan and David Wilde, and seniors David Owens, Andrew Serrato, Marc Andrade, Bryan Latham, Jonathan Smith, and Jeff Herring.

Moguls fans are reminded that reserve seat tickets are now on sale at the Courier office, with previous reserve seat ticket holders having first choice. Seats not claimed will go on sale to the public at halftime of the ballgame Friday night.

There is no fee for membership in 4-H and County Extension Agents encourage all area youth to participate.

For Third Consecutive Year

Enrollment Figures Up For Munday Schools

For the third consecutive year, the enrollment of Munday schools has increased.

Four-hundred thirty-five students were enrolled in school as of Friday, September 1, for the 1989-90 school year. This compares to 413 students during the 1988-89 school year.

The freshman class, with 48 students, is the largest class this year, and the senior class is the smallest, with only 21 students. Junior high has a total of 68 students and ninth through twelfth has 125.

Enrollment figures for each grade follow: early childhood, 12; kindergarten, 36; first, 36; second, 34; third, 34; fourth, 34; fifth, 28; sixth, 28; seventh, 28; eighth, 39; ninth, 48; tenth, 23; eleventh, 33; and twelfth, 21.

Bill Kingston, secondary school principal and Doug Donoho, elementary principal, expect to lose a few migrant students, but not as many as in the past, therefore enrollment should not change

City Patrolmen Ask Residents' Help

With the beginning of school, a large number of children are now on the streets, walking to and from school and to various school events.

Munday Chief of Police Coyt Smith is asking local residents to use extra caution when driving in and around school zones and watch for young children darting across roadways.

"With the excitement of returning to school, kids sometimes forget to look-out for cars; therefore we need to be on the lookout for them," Smith said.

Drivers need to get in the habit of being alert to both school zones and children.

Smith also cautioned local residents to be on the lookout for any suspicious situation, such as that which occurred in Knox City last week with the attempted abduction of a fourth grade student.

"Our police force is limited on how much ground we can cover. There are only two of us (patrolmen) and we can't be at all places at all times," Smith said.

"You, as citizens, have the right to intervene in a situation that might be threatening to a youngster, and I am asking your help if ever the need arises," he continued. "The safety of our school children is extremely important in our community."

As of press time Tuesday, no suspects had been apprehended in the attempted abduction last week of a 9-year-old Knox City girl.

MUNDAY VOLUNTEER FIREMEN were busy Monday afternoon collecting money and answering pledge calls during the Jerry Lewis Labor Day Telethon for MDA. Local residents donated $890.68 to the Muscular Dystrophy Association during the two-day event. Individuals who helped the department collect for "Jerry's Kids" included Christie, Mike, and Casilda Yruegas, Robin Bowen, Susan and Jennifer Baker and Charlie Cooks. The department expressed their appreciation to all those who made donations in the fight against Muscular Dystrophy. Pictured here are volunteer firemen Henry Ramirez, Bill Rogers and Freddie Caram.

AMERICAN HEART'S FOOD FESTIVAL

The week of September 10-16 the American Heart Association will be celebrating its fifth annual Food Festival. The program is designed to better inform us about diet and heart disease. We hope you will join in the celebration not only the week of September 10-16, but every day of your life!

"The Big Fat Idea" - The American Heart Association (AHA) and other health organizations recommend that all healthy Americans over the age of two reduce total fat intake to about 30% of calories. AHA also recommends limiting saturated fat intake to less than 10% of the total daily calories and polyunsaturated fat to no more than 10% of total calories. This means that if a person consumed just one kind of fat it should be made up of 1/3 or less saturated, 1/3 or less polyunsaturated and the balance monounsaturated. Remember that everyone consumes a variety of fats and oils. There is not a single "perfect fat". Polyunsaturated fats and saturated fats are part of a healthy diet, but extremes of each should be avoided. The composition of fat in the total diet is a more important consideration than the composition of individual fats or oils.

Also remember:

1. Don't smoke.
2. Have your blood pressure checked regularly and if it is above 130/80 see your doctor.
3. Have your blood cholesterol levels checked and if they are high see your doctor.
4. Live sensibly, avoid extremes.
5. Eat a sensible balanced diet and maintain a normal weight.
6. Exercise regularly.
7. Don't wait until you are ill to visit your doctor. Regular check-ups do count.
8. Get the Fats, and Get Heart Smart!

Mike Sloan Succeeds Glenn As PCA Branch Credit Manager

Bill L. Glenn, first vice president and credit manager of Production Credit Association's Stamford office, retired August 31 after more than 34 years of service to the Association.

He began with Rolling Plains PCA in the Spur Branch office in 1955 and was later named manager of that office as well as the Matador office.

In 1970 the Glens moved from Spur to Stamford where Bill was made a vice president in Rolling Plains' Central office. He also served the Association as assistant secretary and later as secretary in the middle 1970s. In 1976 his title was first vice president and secretary and remained so until he assumed his current position in 1986.

Mike Sloan, vice president and Stamford office manager, has been promoted to the position held by Glenn.

Sloan, a graduate of Abilene Christian University, began his association with the Farm Credit System as a trainee in the Farm Credit Banks of Houston in July 1978.

He began with Rolling Plains as a loan officer in the Childress Branch office on August 1, 1978. In 1979 he was assigned to the Munday Branch office and was appointed assistant vice president and Munday Branch office manager in 1980 and vice president and Munday office manager in 1983.

In 1984 Sloan transferred to the Stamford Branch office as vice president and loan officer.

Sloan assumed his new duties September 1.

Think back to the last visit to the supermarket, and make a list of the items you recall seeing on the shelves whose principle use is for CLEANSING: soaps, bleaches, brushes, detergents, etc. Now ponder this simple yet profound truth: The reason so much emphasis must be placed on getting things clean is because it is so easy to get things dirty!

The same is true in the spiritual realm. Polluting influences are everywhere: over the airwaves, on the printed page, in the conversations you overhear. Unless you exercise care, your heart and mind will soon be a soiled as your environment. Even with care, there will be daily need for God's cleansing formula (1 John 1:9).

See you next week and remember: watch out constantly...and wash up often!

Adequate lighting makes sense for... reading, working and studying.

Use the correct lighting for all your tasks by remembering these lighting tips.

- When possible, move your light source around until you eliminate any shadows or glare to make it easier on your eyes.
- Look for a light source with soft, even illumination so the brightness is balanced down, out, and up.
- When buying bulbs, remember that the lumen rating tells you the light output of the bulb. The watts are how much electricity is needed to produce the light output. And bulb life is the estimated number of hours the bulb will burn.

Benjamin News

By Mrs. Gladene Green

Our sick folks this week include Darlene Benson who suffered a heart attack at her home Friday night and was rushed to Knox City, then on to Wichita Falls, where she remains today (Monday) in CCU in Bethania Hospital. She is still listed as critical but every passing hour that she continues to hold her own is much encouragement to her family and friends.

Jan Rolston will undergo surgery tomorrow (Tuesday) at Bethania. Certainly our prayers and best wishes go out to them and their families while they are away from home.

Bertha Driver is doing real well since her back surgery in July and will get back at her "post" at the Citizens State Bank tomorrow, September 5. She says she's ready to get back over there and be "among people again". Said she's really missed her co-workers and customers while she's been out.

Dutch Young was in Wichita Falls Thursday for his checkup since his recent back surgery. He still can't go back to work but can do a little more than he could right at first. And that's good news.

Leon Bivens is doing good following his recent bout with an intestinal problem. Says his main problem is that he's having trouble regaining his strength and the hot weather doesn't help that situation much.

HERE AND THERE

Labor Day weekend guests of Odessa Cox were Reba and Charlie Morrill of Houston, the Jim Cox family of DeSoto and Leslie Morrill of Dallas.

and Louise Hall were their children and grandchildren, the Glenn Halls of Houston, the Don Halls of Lubbock and the Joe Hunts of Vernon.

Visiting Earlene Meinzer one day last week were Mr. and Mrs. Rex Holt of Melrose, N.M. Mrs. Holt is the former Audrey Nichols of Vera and they were in the area to attend the Vera Homecoming.

Carson Bivens of Lamesa was a recent guest of his parents, Leon and Olga Bivens.

Several folks have asked me what the "gold thing" in my yard is. That's a Mogul Booster sign, and those purple "things" you refer to - those are Mogul tracks!! Come on - everyone knows what Purple and Gold means! (Been a popular color as long as I can remember!)

We have had one more cemetery donation since I last reported. That being from Mary Hertel. Thanks to everyone. This campaign has brought in around $3,000, which is greatly appreciated.

Labor Day weekend guests of Nell Hudson were Dana Harrison and Casey of Paducah and Jean and Jerry Skinner of Wichita Falls.

Brett Glenn of Albuquerque, N.M. was a weekend guest of his grandmother, Nora Hertel. He also visited Bertha Driver.

Clodell Duke spent the weekend with Darrell and Mike Sawyers in Hamlin. Clodell's daughter, Mary Sawyers, is still a patient in Hendricks Medical Center but is improving greatly. Clodell, Darrell and Mike visited her on Saturday night.

Visiting the Bobby Robersons during the weekend were Bobby Frank and Wendy Feemster of Brownwood, Pete Feemster of Amarillo and Corrine Parish of Franklin. They also visited Lona Feemster in the Knox City Care Home and they all attended the Vera Homecoming.

Rex and Maretha Patterson also attended the Vera Homecoming. They said they brought Rex's mom over to her home from the Munday Care Home and she enjoyed visiting with many of her friends and relatives. Said she's doing quite well.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Timberlake of Levelland spent the weekend with Collins Moorhouse and they also attended the Homecoming at Vera.

Craig Hertel of Gainesville, Kent Hertel of Weatherford, OK, and Scott Hertel of Wichita Falls spent Labor Day with Don and Louise Hertel.

Peggy Dillard of Lubbock was a Benjamin visitor this weekend and also visited her mom, Audrey Nolan in the care home. Audrey is doing good. Since her recent eye surgery she's doing handwork, and reads everything she can find and loves to get cards and letters. Remember that once in a while.

I had my kids during the weekend, the Gordon Taylors of Childress and Diane Herring of Munday.

Lois Golden and her son and his wife Troy and Zo Golden of Seymour, were in Ft. Worth during the weekend to visit Hattie Golden, former Benjamin resident who is very ill in a Ft. Worth hospital. Our prayers also go out to the Golden family at this time.

Ozelle Kilgore visited her sister, Mary Fitzgerald, in the Knox City Care Home last week. Mary seems to be doing quite well.

Labor Day weekend guests of Bertha Driver were Temple Driver of Wichita Falls, Billy Jay Driver of Hot Springs, Arkansas and Oliver Driver of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

Kelly and Sam Slade of Austin spent the weekend with Bo Milson.

Build On Social Security Base For Comfortable Retirement

It's important to remember that social security is a base on which to plan for retirement. It was never intended to provide 100 percent replacement of earnings or to guarantee everybody the same standard of living in retirement, says Frances Braden, resident representative of the Vernon Social Security office. In planning for retirement, a person should know how to build on that base. As a start, you should know generally how much to expect in retirement benefits from social security so you can plan how much you need from other sources. Also, a person should have some idea of how other types of retirement income will affect social security benefits.

It is estimated that folks will need about 75 percent of their pre-retirement earnings to maintain the same standard of living in retirement as they had before. The amount of social security benefits depends on a person's earnings over a working life. People earning the maximum covered by social security can generally expect to receive initial benefits which replace approximately 29 percent of pre-retirement earnings. People with average earnings can expect to receive 43 percent of pre-retirement earnings, and people earning at the minimum wage level over their working lives may expect to receive initial benefits equaling 60 percent of their pre-retirement earnings. The replacement rate is higher for low earners because they are less able to tolerate a reduction in income. Higher earners are expected to have more resources to build a base of retirement income, including investments, savings, and private insurance. This brings up the second important point to remember in building retirement income on the social security base. A person needs to know how other retirement income will affect social security checks. The following rules generally apply: * Investments, savings, etc. -- Since a person is expected to build on the social security base, other types of typical retirement income generally do not affect social security benefits. This means that a person can use investments, savings, and private insurance to build on the social security base up to any level an individual requires. * Pensions -- Most company pensions are actually figured to supplement social security benefits an employee may expect so these pensions will not affect social security benefits. But those people who receive a pension from work not covered by social security will probably find their social security benefit reduced. Another rule applies to the spouse receiving a government pension based on work not covered by social security and who also expects to receive a benefit on their spouse's work record. The social security benefit is reduced by two-thirds the amount of the government pension. * Earnings -- While earnings are not traditionally considered "retirement income", more and more people continue to work after retirement. There is a limit on how much a person can earn while getting all social security benefits. The annual limit increases with increases in wage levels. Cyrently, it is $8,880 for people 65-69 and $6,480 for people under 65. The rule does not apply to people 70 and over. Benefits are reduced if annual earnings exceed these amounts.

Keeping these facts in mind, a person can build a retirement income that will sustain the standard of living in retirement and assure that they are indeed the golden years.

What Jesus Taught by Dr. Larry Fitzgerald Minister, Church of Christ

THE GIFT OF TACT

Perhaps one of the most common causes of failure is due to a lack of tact -- skill in saying or doing what is best in a given set of circumstances. Great causes, important political decisions, great skills and minds have been wasted because of a lack of tact. The Bible implores us to use tact. Consider Colossians 4:5-6: "Be wise in the way you act toward outsiders; make the most of every opportunity. Let your conversation be always gracious, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how to answer everyone."

People throughout the world are not driven by logic but by their emotions. One who does not understand the basic motives, wishes and desires of their friends, relatives and associates cannot use tact. A tactless person will find himself (or herself) with few friends and precious little success in dealing with people.

The first step in using tact is empathy, the ability to understand others' feelings and desires. Empathy is a key element of the Golden Rule. "...however you want people to treat you, so treat them, for this is the Law and the Prophets" (Matthew 7:12). Empathy requires that you be able to put yourself in the place of others. Paul said that he became all things to all people. To the Jew, he became a Jew. To the non-Jew, he became a non-Jew. In fact, he became the servant of all men so to win them to Christ (1 Corinthians 9:19-23).

The next time we want to say something...let's consider the hearers. When dealing with others...let's put ourselves in their places. By attempting to understand their feelings and their concerns, we then can use tact. Let's begin with our family and then use tact with our friends, co-workers, and associates. Also, let's not forget those who wait on us (such as the person behind the store or diner counter or the operator on the phone).
