I guess nobody will ever understand why bad things happen to good people. It's not within our power to reason or to explain why tragedy befalls some and others seem to skim through life unscathed by anything bad.

We feel many emotions when tragedy strikes. First comes the shock and disbelief - the hoping that somehow there's been some horrible mistake and any minute we'll find out it's not our child, or husband, or parent, after all.

Soon the numbness takes over so that we do everything we have to do, but it's as though we're on the outside looking in - watching somebody that's not us at all. The brave face we catch glimpses of in a mirror belongs to somebody else and is not familiar.

Finally, the grief, the sadness, the loneliness, takes over and we wish the numbness had stayed longer. We go to bed, wishing we didn't ever have to face the morning and then waken to lie there, hoping it's really all just a bad dream, until reality consumes us all over again.

When tragedy first touched our lives - almost eighteen years ago - I felt all the pain and the loneliness, but I also felt a deep sense of anger. Along with the anger were feelings of guilt because I didn't know just where to direct the anger and I was half afraid I was actually angry with God.

As the bitterness built, everything anybody said to try to help only intensified my anger. I think I covered it well enough so that nobody knew, but it was always there, just below the surface, eating away at me for years and years.

When I went to church, I didn't concentrate on the minister's words or the beautiful lyrics of the hymns that had uplifted me for most of my life. Instead, I watched couples who sat together in their pews, their lives intact and unchanged and I would wonder, "Why me? What did I do that was so bad?"

It was many years before I finally demanded aloud to a wonderful friend, "Why? I've never done anything any worse than anybody else. It's not fair that other people go on with their lives and ours are forever changed. Why did God pick on us?"

My friend could have been shocked. He could have demanded how I dared question anything God had done. But he didn't. He quietly told me my feelings of anger were a natural part of the process of grief.

"And God didn't cause this to happen," he added. "To say that God causes a tragedy is to accuse Him of being an unfeeling and uncaring God who sits up in His Heaven and decides who will prosper and who will suffer. It's not like that at all. Things happen to us because we are just people, subject to accidents and illnesses and troubles. God doesn't cause them. He just patiently waits until we start to put ourselves back together again and then he helps us. But, then, only if we ask Him."

Nobody understands why some people have smooth sailing all their lives and others are given mountains to climb. Whether it's in the form of a tragedy, the loss of somebody we love, a constant battle with pain or illness or broken relationships and the heartaches that are part of them, the mountains loom before us and are accessible only by faith.

It would be wonderful if we all lived in some kind of utopian world where we were never touched by pain or loneliness, where everything fell gently into place, all bright and beautiful. If

BRAD ANGERER

Weekend Pickup Accident Claims Life Of Brad Angerer

Thomas Bradley (Brad) Angerer, age 22, died early Sunday morning, April 2, 1989, in a one-vehicle accident about 2 miles west of Munday on highway 222. Rosary was held at 7 p.m. Monday, April 3, at McCauley-Smith Funeral Home. Funeral services were at 10 a.m. Tuesday, April 4, at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Rhineland with Father Gary Geurtz officiating. Burial was in St. Joseph's Catholic Cemetery.

The accident occurred about 4 a.m. when the 1984 Chevrolet truck Brad was driving veered off the road to the right, according to Department of Public Safety Trooper D.W. Wainscott. Brad over-corrected to the left and ran off the road into a field. According to Wainscott, the truck flipped over several times and Angerer was thrown from the vehicle.

Angerer was born September 27, 1966, in Slaton. He moved to Munday in 1970 and was a 1985 graduate of Munday High School. He played defensive and offensive tackle for the Munday Mogul 1984 state champion football team and received all-district honorable mention recognition. While at MHS he was active in golf, basketball and track, and was a member of the Future Farmers of America. He was a member of St. Joseph's Catholic Church and Knights of Columbus No. 1766.

Survivors include his parents, Tom and Shirley Angerer; two brothers, Pat of Sweetwater and Matt of Munday; his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cox of Littlefield; and one nephew.

Munday Chamber Joins Texas Network

The Munday Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture has joined "The Texas Chamber Network," a direct electronic information link with the Texas Chamber of Commerce in Austin.

The local chamber will begin receiving current legislative information from the Austin office of the Texas Chamber immediately.

"We will also be able to send our chamber's resolutions on legislative positions for inclusion in presentations on behalf of the entire state business community," said Kay Looney, manager of the Munday Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture.

Larry S. Milner, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Texas Chamber, welcomed Munday to the network. "Your organization is one of the pioneers in this new system of instant communications," Milner said.

Milner said that the network concept was announced at the 1989 annual meeting of the Texas Chamber. A half-day workshop at the conference reviewed issues and established priorities for the state and local chambers.

The local chamber will be distributing legislative information to its members and participating in lobbying efforts with the Texas Chamber in Austin.

"We are looking at issues that affect job development in Texas," Milner said. He noted that workers' compensation reform, merit election judges and education are high on the list of joint chamber priorities.

The Chamber will also be working on several financing initiatives for both rural and urban job development, special tax provisions for factory machinery and goods in transit and job training programs.

The meeting is sponsored by the Knox County Crops Committee. A fish dinner will be served at the meeting, sponsored by the Knox County Boll Weevil Association.

Speaker for the event will be Emory Boring, area extension entomologist from Vernon. He will explain the reasons for uniform planting dates and early season boll weevil pressure.

Because of the meal, preregistration should be made by calling Farmers Grain Cooperative at 422-4822, Zeissel Brothers, 422-4606 or the county Extension office in Benjamin, 454-2651.

Basketball Committee Issues Reprimand For UIL Violation

The District Executive Committee of Basketball District 18A has issued a private reprimand to both the Benjamin and Munday Independent Schools districts for violation of Section 1201 of the University Interscholastic League's Constitution and Contest Rules, according to Doyle Lowrance, superintendent of schools. Item 3 of the section deals with the acceptance of game officials' decisions without protest, and provides protection and courtesy to officials from participants, school personnel, and spectators.

Action by the committee was based on an incident following the Benjamin-Munday girls' game of January 6, 1989. District 18A is made up of Benjamin, Goree, Knox City-O'Brien, Munday and Rochester. Benjamin and Munday were not allowed a vote in this action as required by the Constitution and Contest Rules.

"Spectators must remember that game officials have been approved by both participating schools and are in complete charge of officiating the contest. Confronting a game official, when his or her decision is not acceptable, can result in serious restrictions being placed on the school and their players," Lowrance stated.

"Fans have an obligation to the players in athletic contests to insure them that your actions will not result in penalties being imposed on them," he concluded.

disease and accidents didn't exist, if everybody could be trusted, if nobody hurt children, wouldn't it be a glorious world?

Our world is not always bright and beautiful, however. Life kind of has a way of slipping up on us when we least expect it and kicking us in the teeth. Sometimes it seems to be more than we can handle. It's times like that when we are given the extra strength, or patience, or just plain intestinal fortitude, to enable us to climb our mountains.

CAPITOL JOURNAL

STEVEN A. CARRIKER
State Senate

Governor Clements' decision in 1979 to veto prison-building legislation is resulting in major headaches for county officials 10 years later.

Lawmakers daily now are receiving reports about the growing number of state prisoners counties are being forced to hold while the Texas Department of Corrections keeps its doors closed due to overcrowding.

To help alleviate jail crowding, the Legislature has put new prison building programs on a fast track and a number of excellent corrections facilities sites are being considered to deal with the long-term aspects of this dilemma.

More effort must be made to rid ourselves of the root causes of crime through better education, drop-out prevention, and drug and alcohol treatment.

But not every proposal before the Legislature is sound. One idea floating around the Capitol would "solve" the jail crowding problem by making it larger. That is, to have counties build more and bigger jails using local taxpayer money.

This is yet another excuse for the state to try to force local taxpayers to pick up the state's tab for expenses that rightfully belong to the state.

While the Legislature should provide counties with every opportunity to meet their local jail needs, it is in no way far to property taxpayers to saddle them with additional burdens that are the state's responsibility in the first place.

State's Traffic Fatalities Show 4% Increase In '88

For the first time since 1984, Texas experienced an increase in traffic fatalities in 1988.

The traffic death toll in Texas for 1988 was 3,395, an increase of 4.1 percent from the 3,261 deaths recorded in the state in 1987, according to DPS Director Col. Joe E. Milner.

"After several years of watching the number of deaths on our streets and highways steadily decline, we are certainly disappointed to see this increase," Milner said. "This is a reminder that we cannot be complacent about traffic safety."

Though the number of traffic deaths increased last year, the death rate -- a calculation based on the number of deaths per 100 million miles traveled -- stayed at the 1988 level of 2.2 deaths. This is the lowest mileage death rate in Texas history.

Milner said there are many factors involved in fatal traffic accidents and while the absolute reasons for the increase in traffic deaths cannot be pinpointed, the department has some pretty good ideas.

The DPS director said that 40 percent of all traffic fatalities in 1988 were alcohol or drug related.

"We know that 1,363 persons lost their lives last year in accidents caused by alcohol or drug abuse," Milner said. "Unfortunately, this represents an increase from the previous year."

Another factor in traffic fatalities is excessive speed.

Traffic deaths in rural areas of Texas, which includes towns and cities under 5,000, increased by 10.5 percent last year, Milner said. The death toll on rural interstate highways, in both 65 and 55 mile an hour zones, jumped by 20 percent. One of the primary reasons for this may well be the higher speed limit that now applies to rural interstates.

A third contributing factor to the fatality increase is the failure of motorists to use safety belts.

"Last year, 76.3 percent of persons killed in the front seat of cars or light trucks were reported as not wearing safety belts," Milner said. "This is an increase from 1987, when 75.3 percent of the fatalities were not reported as belted."

Texas has had a seat belt law since September 1, 1984, Milner said, but the most recent statewide survey indicates only 60.6 percent of Texas motorists are using their belts.

Motorcycle fatalities were up 3 percent in 1988, with 295 operators or passengers dying in motorcycle accidents. Of those, 78 percent were not wearing helmets, Milner said.

"I think the message comes through here loud and clear," Milner said. "If we are to reverse this increase in traffic deaths, and return to the pattern in the recent past of yearly decreases, we must realize that one of the quickest ways to get to a cemetery is to get in your car drunk, leave your seat belt unfastened and drive fast."

Fast Foods Of Future

Rapidly Changing Consumer Tastes Impacting Industry

Today's fast foods may not be fast enough for busy people who eat on the run, at the office, or order take out to eat at home.

Dr. David Mellor, poultry marketing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, said lack of leisure time is a concern for many people today with busy lifestyles.

"People don't want to spend a lot of their limited leisure time waiting for table service. For some people, fast food restaurants are not fast enough today and this trend apparently is going to have greater impact in the future," he said.

Mellor said many people prefer to use their free time for activities other than eating.

He said that with the growth in home delivery service and in "special diet meals", many two-income families will be using home delivery service for nutritious, low calorie, low sodium, high fiber, polyunsaturated meals.

Recognizing the trend of people on the go, a number of marketing experts are working with industry leaders to meet the consumer trends, Mellor said.

One of these experts, Dr. John Stanton, a researcher and food marketing consultant at St. Joseph's University, has predicted that microwave ovens and microwave cooking will increase dramatically by the year 2001.

Stanton has indicated that as the new century begins, 90 percent of American homes will have one microwave oven, compared to 70 percent now having one; 50 percent of the homes will have two; and 25 percent of our cars will come equipped with a small microwave oven.

Mellor said Stanton predicts that fewer people will eat breakfast in the next decade, settling for coffee.

For those who want something more substantial, Stanton predicts there will be "one-handed food," easy to open and prepare in the car microwave, and easy to eat with one hand while driving.

Already, 25 percent of American workers eat breakfast in the car. Breakfast tacos and other poultry products are among favorite breakfast finger foods, Mellor said.

These foods will be sold at convenience stores and will be "shelf stable," requiring no refrigeration, according to Stanton.

The marketing consultant also said quality-oriented quick lunch restaurants will increase, posing new requirements for food processing and packaging to meet these consumer demands.

Mellor said Stanton also predicts that by the year 2001, irradiation will have gained widespread acceptance in the U.S. as well as the remainder of the world. Now used in some 30 countries, it has not yet had a significant impact here.

Mellor said as a result of these consumer trends, food preparation behavior -- already sharply different between weekdays and weekends -- will have an even wider gap. Recreational cooking will not be a major weekend activity.

Another trend on the horizon is office delivery of individual meals at 4 p.m., packed in easy-to-carry-and prepare containers for the trip home.

Mellor said this marketing venture probably will be best addressed by smaller, localized food preparation firms with emphasis on personal service and menus that can be easily tailored to particular tastes.

The versatility of many poultry products is expected to gain favor here, Mellor said.

CEMETERY CLEAN-UP

Approximately forty people braved the terrible wind storm we had on Saturday, April 1, to come out for the Weinert cemetery clean-up.

There were tractors to push up the trees and brush on the fence rows; dirt haulers to fill in sunken graves; chain saws to clean up the dead tree branches; strong arms to straighten up leaning monuments; and many other jobs were done with willing hands. There were some "advisors", also, but no one claimed the title of being the oldest one there.

We appreciate our board of directors being there to enforce, Johnny Earp, Eddie Sanders, Francis Mahan, Betty Raynes, Melvin Vojkufka and Wanda, Tiffen Mayfield and Erlinda, Elmer Adams and Lucile Adams.

Two benches have been placed in the cemetery, one donated by Patsy Mayfield, and one by the Cemetery Association. They are very nice and very appreciated.

Roy E. Jones and his wife, Nan, came from Granbury, traveling the farthest distance. Some of the older workers included Russel Rainey, Roy Herricks, Clyde Mayfield, Edward Alexander, Adolph Stulir, Lillie Bubela, Beatrice Curd, Floretta Lemley, Marvin and Myrtle Phemister and Harlan Weinert.

The very youngest workers were Jace Yates, Randy Alexander and little Sarah Marshall of Vernon.

We appreciate the young men who were good workers, and left their jobs to attend the clean-up. They were Kenneth Sanders, Joe Yates, Nick Jiminez, Alan Heard, Mondy Mayfield, Lester Hutchinson, John Bruggeman, Toby Yates and Becente Perez. There may have been others.

Jean Curd came from Arlington, Christine Meers from Munday, and Linda Mahan from Weinert.

Many lots were treated with herbicide to kill the grass and weeds, the gates were painted, the fences repaired, and several loads of cliche were put down on the driveways.

Our deceased ancestors would be so pleased with the efforts put forth, and we in Weinert are just as pleased.

Many memorials and donations are coming in from all over the country. Thank you, all.

The First Baptist Church hosted a farewell dinner and fellowship honoring Donnie and Debbie Crump, David and Tabitha, on Sunday, April 2, after the morning worship hour.

The Crumps are moving to Crowell to pastor the church in that city. Sunday was Donnie's birthday and a basket of goodies awaited his attention at the end of the day.

We shall miss the Crumps, but wish them well.

The Weinert Church of Christ was honored on Sunday by the presence of Bob Hare, missionary to Poland, Russia and East Germany, who was guest speaker at the morning worship service.

He will be returning to those countries in May, and requested Bibles to take with him. The Bibles are printed in Vienna, Austria, in the Russian language, and cost one dollar each. The Weinert church donated fifty dollars to the cause, with several personal donations made, also.

The congregation met in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Walling for lunch, and later went in a group to the First Sunday Singing in Rochester.

Other special guests included Ima Stewart of Haskell and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Pratt of Benjamin.

Several members of the Foursquare Church were in attendance at Whispering Oaks Camp in Buffalo Gap last week for the annual South Central Division Ladies Retreat. The area covers Foursquare Churches in Texas, Arkansas, Louisiana and Oklahoma, and there was good attendance at the camp.

Ladies from Weinert included Pearl Alexander, Rene Vojkufka, Sandra Chambers, Shirley Hudgens, and Doneta Hudgens. We regret that Rene came home sick with a cold.

Miss Weaver, Mike Stewart Wed March 18 In Haskell

Robyne Ann Weaver of Haskell and Mike Stewart of Munday were united in marriage at 7 p.m. Saturday, March 18, in Trinity Lutheran Church in Haskell. Rev. Victor Andersen, church pastor, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Weaver of Haskell. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. J.N. Stewart of Munday.

The wedding altar featured a white satin kneeling bench appointed with spring flowers and lily of the valley, flanked by two candelabras with arrangements of iris, stock, carnations, daisies, baby's breath and plumosa fern. Pews were marked with white, yellow and lavender daisies and heather.

Organist for the ceremony was Mrs. Elton Klose of Haskell. Soloists were Tammy Pannell of Haskell and Lori Hill of Abilene. They sang Through The Eyes of Love and The Wedding Song.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride for a white satin gown finished with a Victorian necklined edged in alencon lace. The fitted bodice featured a sheer yoke and long dropped waistline accented with a white satin side bow. The bodice was embellished with clusters of lace motifs sprinkled with pearls, sequins and crystal beads. The skirt flowed to slipper length and extended to a cathedral train. A halo of soft tiny silk flowers covered in pearls, sequins and crystal tear drops entwined with accents of lily of the valley, held the illusion tulle puff extending into a cathedral length veil sprinkled with miniature pearls. The bride carried a white wicker garden basket filled with iris, tulips, daffodils, carnations, daisies, baby's breath and heather. She also carried the white, lace covered Bible carried by her mother in her own wedding.

Lori Lane of Haskell was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Dala Harris of Haskell and Missy Weaver of Vernon, sister-in-law of the bride. They were dressed in boot-length blue denim skirts and loose-fitting blouses of mauve, yellow and blue and wore boots to match their blouse color. They carried baskets filled with iris, carnations, daisies and baby's breath.

Perry Kuehler of Munday served as best man. Groomsmen were Mark Stewart, brother of the groom and Shannon Forehand, both of Weinert. Justin Stewart of Haskell, nephew of the groom,

MRS. MIKE STEWART
formerly Robyne Ann Weaver

was candlelighter. The men were dressed in Western-cut ivory tweed blazers and blue denim jeans with shirts of mauve, yellow and blue.

Ushers were Aaron Weaver of Vernon, brother of the bride and Stan Decker of Munday.

Kim Stewart of Weinert, sister-in-law of the groom, registered wedding guests.

The bride's parents were hosts for a reception at the church following the ceremony. Focal point of the reception hall was the bride's three-tiered white cake, decorated with a rope love knot and topped with a bride and groom dressed in Western attire. Fresh flowers including iris, pixie carnations, daisies, tree fern, heather and baby's breath adorned the cake. Appointments were in crystal. Laurie Hester of Weinert, Tiffany Moeller of Haskell and Mendie Hendrix of Munday served guests.

The bride and groom were hosts for a reception and dance at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Rhineland later in the evening.

A rehearsal dinner, hosted by the groom's parents, was held at their home in Munday on Friday evening.

The bride is a 1988 graduate of Haskell High School and attends Vernon Regional Junior College. The groom is a 1978 graduate of Weinert High School and farms in the Munday-Weinert area.

The couple was honored with a bridal shower held at the community room of the First National Bank of Haskell of April 2.

Women Landowners Programs Scheduled

Four special seminars for women who own farm and ranch land have been planned by Texas Agricultural Extension Service. The seminars will be held at El Paso, May 2-4; Abilene, May 9-11; College Station, May 16-18; and Dallas, May 23-25.

The seminars will start off with the in-depth look at the mineral estate. Negotiating an oil and gas lease is new to many landowners, and one can never tell when an oil company will come by and make an offer. One of the important things to learn is the minerals are not leased, but truly are sold. In addition to discussing how to negotiate with an oil company, several tax savings hints will be suggested because everybody always negotiates with two parties, Wayne Hayenga, Extension Economist and Attorney, seminar conductor, indicated.

In the afternoon of the first day, the seminar will look at surface leasing of farm and ranch land. The second will introduce basic income tax planning and give ideas to women landowners on how to structure their farm and ranch operation to save income taxes. Buying, selling and trading land will also be discussed the second morning.

Estate planning, both to save estate taxes and to make estate administration easier for loved ones, will be covered in the last one and one-half days.

For registration information contact your Texas County Extension Agent or Wayne Hayenga, Agricultural Economics Department, Texas A&M University, College Station, TX 77843-2124; phone (409) 845-2226.

The first American to enter the Olympic Pentathlon was George Patton, later General Patton.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Marion,

Gee how time flies, but I see by the label my Munday Courier is about due and I do enjoy it so much and Joyce Greenwood brings back so many fond memories with her articles, she sure has talent. Also enjoy reading about all that's going on in Munday; it's been many years since I lived at Munday, but I have fond memories of those childhood days. Have lots of loved ones who do live there, my two darling sisters, Margarite Wallace and Bobbie Kegley.

Thank you,
Mrs. Joy Fuller

Dear Editor,

Munday lost a special ray of sunshine last week due to the moving of Ray Hunter.

Very often when a person leaves the community, either through death or moving, they will be missed by a few for a short period of time.

This will not be the case with Ray Hunter. He will be missed by a great many people and for a very long time.

Sincerely,
Jo Jarvis

TIPS TO UNCOMPLICATE YOUR LIFE
Knox County was fortunate to have Dr. Lynne Thibodeaux in the county March 30 for a series of programs dealing with stress as we go into the '90's. Dr. Thibodeaux spoke with students as well as adults throughout the day.

Tips for survival were discussed during the programs. They included:

* Advertise your limitations - If you don't cook, tell people you don't cook and they won't be asking you to.

* Eliminate time-wasters - Trace your steps for a day and see where you are wasting time.

* Help others become independent - Once others become independent they will be less dependent on you, allowing you more time for yourself.

* Decide who to fight with and what to fight about - Is it worth the stress to become angry with someone in the cafeteria line ahead of you or to fight with someone you deeply love and want to help.

* Set goals - Everyone should select a major project at least once a year to accomplish. If you haven't accomplished something in a year, it tends to allow a person to feel worthless and this lack of self respect can result in stress.

* Surround yourself with winners - people who we can learn from.

* Build a "win" folder - Compile a folder of things that make you feel good (thank you notes, accomplishments, etc. . .). Everyone will have bad days and a look back at your "win" folder will make you feel better about yourself.

* Tell your own story - Are you telling others what is important to you? How can a spouse, friend or boss give praise if they don't know it is important to you?

Dr. Thibodeaux summarized her presentations by saying the key to dealing with stress is to be in control of our lives. We have to like ourselves, but if we don't, she provided the tips for changing our lives around and removing the stress.

The programs were sponsored by the Knox County Home Economics Advisory Committee.

When you are experiencing Heart Attack Symptoms,

The average person experiencing the symptoms of a heart attack will wait at least 3 hours before getting help. Three hours that can mean the difference between recovery and permanent disability. The difference between life and death.

Don't Let The Symptoms Fool You

Some of the telltale signs of a heart attack are similar to common ailments that we don't take very seriously like indigestion, nausea, heartburn or fatigue. But while you're taking the time to see if that antacid will work, your heart may be in danger.

When a heart attack occurs, the blood flow to the heart is blocked. Each and every moment that your heart is starved of oxygen, the muscle is damaged, permanently.

Get To The Closest Emergency Room As Quickly As Possible

If you're experiencing any of the symptoms of a heart attack, don't waste precious time, and above all, don't attempt to drive to another city for treatment. The most important thing you can do is get to your local hospital emergency room immediately, before it's too late.

A Network Of Cardiac Care Professionals

Seymour Hospital Authority has taken an important step in improving the care we can provide for heart attack victims. We've joined the Cardiac Emergency Network at Bethania Regional Health Care Center in Wichita Falls.

It's a network that links community hospitals with heart specialists and the advanced cardiac care facilities at Bethania. Together, we'll make the most of this crucial time for our heart patients.

Important information about your condition will be transmitted to the cardiac care professionals who are part of the Cardiac Emergency Network. With your doctor and a cardiologist on Bethania's staff, some very important decisions will be made. The latest lifesaving drugs can be administered and aggressive treatment measures taken that can be the key to heart attack survival.

So don't wait, if you even suspect that you or someone you love might be suffering from the symptoms of a heart attack, get to the emergency room at Seymour Hospital Authority as quickly as possible. With the Cardiac Emergency Network, not a moment of precious time will be wasted. And when it comes to a heart attack moments can mean a lifetime.

Time is Critical.

Heart Attack Symptoms

- * Pain or discomfort in the chest that may spread to the shoulders, arms, neck or jaw. Discomfort can last minutes or even hours.
- * Pain accompanied by sweating, nausea or vomiting, weakness or fainting.
- * Chest pain that starts in any type of stressful situation. An exciting ball game, argument, or sudden shock may trigger pain, but often there is no obvious cause.
- * Warning signs may be preceded by several days of chest discomfort or not feeling well.
- * Heart attacks can occur with no symptoms at all. It is important to become educated about maintaining a healthy heart and see your doctor regularly to detect any problems before permanent damage can occur.

Representative Counts Sponsors Legislation Creating Insurance Act

Representative David Counts recently filed legislation that would create the Texas Public School Insurance Act.

The need for this legislation is due to the collapse of many insurance companies throughout the state, leaving several school districts without dependable health insurance coverage for their employees. "The Public School Employees Group Insurance Act will establish a viable health care program for public school employees that is dependable and provides the benefits which they deserve," Counts said.

The health insurance program under this act would be established and administered by the Teacher Retirement System of Texas. The TRS would in turn establish a nine member advisory committee to establish minimum benefit standards.

The program would be funded by the employees receiving group health insurance benefits and by the state. The percentage of the state contribution would be determined every two years by the Texas Legislature, in the same manner as the state contribution to the Teacher Retirement Fund.

Naomi Pape Ends 20-Year Career With Local Business

When Naomi Pape closed the ledger book and put down her pen on Thursday, March 30, she ended nearly two decades of service as bookkeeper for Quality Implement Company in Munday.

Naomi began her employment with Quality Implement on August 17, 1969. At that time, the business was located in the building which now houses Home Building Center. She saw many changes in the bookkeeping system during her 20 years with the company, but the biggest change, she feels, was the implementation of computers.

A native of Quanah and graduate of Quanah High School, Naomi and her husband, Buster, came to Munday in July, 1952 on a transfer by Buster's employer, West Texas Utilities.

During the late 50's and early 60's, Naomi and Buster owned and operated the "Sugar Shack", a soda fountain and hamburger place, which was located in what is now Jo's Beauty Shop. The Sugar Shack served as a meeting place and "hang-out" for local high school students. The Papes came in contact with many young people during their years at the Sugar Shack, and local residents have many fond memories of the Naomi and Buster, as was evidenced in last fall's homecoming parade when one class decorated a float bringing back memories of the Sugar Shack Days.

Naomi greets her retirement with mixed emotions.

"It will seem strange for a while not to get up and go to work at 8 o'clock, I've done it for so long," she commented.

When asked how she plans to spend her time now that she is retired, she laughed, "I'll probably try to catch up on things I've put off for so many years."

"I hope to work in my yard some, possibly do some fishing with Buster and we might even do some traveling." "I've also thought about doing some volunteer work after I get settled."

Buster and Naomi have three children, Freida Brown of Munday, Martha Hunter of Goree and Henry Pape of Fort Worth. They also have seven grandchildren and one great-grandson. Naomi is a member of First Baptist Church where she teaches a Sunday school class and sings in the choir.

Truscott-Gilliland News

By Mrs. Clara Brown

The past week cooled off some, but several afternoons were still warmer than usual for March or nearly April. Several have reported finding mesquite leaves, even on the big trees. There have been some sprinkles and heavy dews, but nothing that really helps in the moisture department.

Grandma's Sunday Dinner will be Sunday, April 9. A group from Shepard Air Force Base is expected as they called inquiring about the dinner. A tentative menu has been discussed for ham, chicken and dressing, and pork chops.

Curtis Casey reports that the annual reunion of Bates cousins was held at the Floydada Senior Citizens Center Saturday. Between 25 and 30 descendants of J. L. Bates Sr. attended. Attending from here were Curtis, Sybil Simmons, Edna Eubank of Crowell, J. B. and Virginia Eubank of Paducah, and Margaret, Lester and Danny Patton of Crowell. Frances Carroll of Abilene also attended.

Four ladies from Gilliland attended the program on stress at Munday last week. They were Sybil Simmons, Jodie Miller, Mildred Cook and Florence Miller.

Funeral services for Opal Rutherford Caddell were held at Seymour Saturday with graveside services at the Truscott cemetery.

She was the daughter of James Walter Rutherford and Ora F. McClung. In 1907, the family moved from Santa Anna to the northwest corner of Knox County. Opal was born in Knox County in 1910 on Antelope Flat. She married Farris Caddell in February, 1930. Their children were Walter, Billy, Elba Joyce, Buddy and Linda. Farris Caddell died May 14, 1980.

The Gilliland annual volleyball tournament will be an all-day affair Saturday, April 15, starting at 8 a.m. and ending "when it's over". There will be a concession stand. Those wishing to enter teams should contact Lula or Louis Lee Baty.

Jodie Gillespie enjoyed a visit to Truscott Sunday. Accompanying four month old Jodie on a visit to the Jack and Clara Brown home were her parents, Bob and Kileen Gillespie of Quanah and her grandparents, J. H. and De Alva Gillespie of Crowell.

Several from Truscott and Gilliland attended the barbecue at Benjamin Saturday night which was sponsored by Edmund Tomanek's insurance company.

They included Edmund, Geraldine and Michael Tomanek of Truscott, Joe Tomanek of Boyd, June and Newell Looney, John and Grace Campbell, A. L. and Frances Cook, Fannie Lois Bayers, Lloyd and Jo Heard, Louis and Lula Baty, Louis Lee Baty, Ronnie, Derinda and Jeremy Simmons, and Scottie Burgess, Ruby and Homer Martin, and Venta Horne. As usual everyone said the food was excellent. About 100 people attended.

Margaret Daniel visited her aunts in Mineral Wells over the weekend.

Jo Daniel and her sister, Winifred Powers of Crowell, attended a Baldwin reunion at Vernon Sunday. They are cousins to the Baldwins.

The Daniel families had a picnic and Easter egg hunt out at Lake Truscott last Sunday. The children went out in two mule and horse drawn wagons. Those attending included Margaret and Don Daniel, Jerry Bob, Eugene, Colton and Becky Lee Daniel of Paducah, Michael, Kathy, Neal, Amanda and Mary Elizabeth Daniel of Crowell, Duane, Nancy, Zane and Jeff Daniel of Guthrie, R. C. and Joan Daniel and Jason and Casey of Truscott, Brenda and Tony Dennis and children of Dallas, Johnny, Janet and Lindsey Daniel of Grapevine, Janet's brother's family, Edward and Edith Kubicek and children of Vernon, Nancy Daniel's parents, Billy and Mary Chambers of Sun Dance, Wyoming, Billie and Elmo Shaw, Mike, Ann, Jennifer and Perry Shaw of Mansfield, Buddy and Janice Tolson of Benjamin, and Alan, Beverly and Justin.

New From Last Week

Last week was mostly pleasant spring weather, then Sunday came in, with a chance for rain, the most pleasant type of spring weather. Remember the old saying, "If it rains on Easter Sunday it will rain for the next seven Sundays?" Well, it probably won't rain for the next seven Sundays. However, Monday came in cloudy and there were a few sprinkles Monday morning. That beats the grass fire smoke which could be seen almost every day last week. Most of the fires were said to be control burns north and west of our corner of Knox County.

Two big changes will come to the Divide around the first of April. The first is that the Truscott post office will become a community post office and will be open only from 7:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. If you need to buy stamps or mail a package it will need to be done in the morning. However, the post office will be open at those hours on Saturday mornings. We are just glad that we still have a post office.

The next change will be the closing of the Cook Service Station at Gilliland. Day Carlyn of Seymour has bought the business. He will still make truck deliveries of the same fuels that Cook's sold but the service station will be changed to a key pump system.

This old Divide sure needs some population growth. Maybe someone should open a ranch boarding school, leasing the Gilliland facilities for the school, a mail order business (something that wouldn't take much water), or a computer center of some kind.

One thing hasn't changed - the annual volleyball tournament at Gilliland is still going strong. It is set for April 15 and will be for mixed teams, three men and three women. Anyone wishing to enter a team should contact Lula Baty at 417-3256 or Louis Lee Baty at 417-3220. Teams need to register by April 10. The tournament will begin at 8 a.m. the morning of April 15 and last until it is over. The concession stand will be open all day. The tournament is sponsored by the Gilliland Extension Homemakers Club.

Last Sunday, March 19, Gladys Meek gave Ruby Martin a surprise birthday party at Gladys's home in Seymour. Those attending included Paul and Erna Lee Horne, Dud and Ruby Myers, Leola Laquey, Jerry and Mary Tomanek, Rose Bartos, J.C. Langston, Geneva Navratil, Frank and Beneta Langston, and Freda Worley, all of Seymour. Also attending were Lorene Jones, Ruby's sister from Big Springs, and Homer and Ruby from Gilliland, although of course, all the Seymour guests were former Gilliland residents.

Then on Sunday, March 26, Ruth and Shirley Moore took Homer and Ruby to Altus, Oklahoma for a belated birthday dinner.

Monday, March 27, the Shirley Moores were to celebrate their 55th wedding anniversary with dinner out in Wichita Falls as guests of Ruby and Homer Martin.

Curtis Casey of Truscott celebrated his 79th birthday with a houseful of out-of-town guests over Easter weekend. Children of a former pastor of Truscott Baptist Church had a family reunion at Curtis' home. Rick and Linda McQuain of Waipaho, Hawaii and their children, Matthew and Brian; Jim and Julie Cheever of Allen, and their children, Jamie, Jenny, and Katie; and Jim and Nell Branum of Ft. Worth, all had a wonderful time being together again. Jim is soon to graduate from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Ft. Worth, where his father was a student when he was pastor of the church in Truscott.

Sunday morning Linda McQuain and Julie Cheever and her daughter, Jamie, sang a program of special music at the Methodist Church.

Herman Duncan of Ft. Worth is visiting his father-in-law, Dud Ellis, for a few days. They had lunch with Venta Horne Sunday.

Jerry Bob and Eugenia Daniel and Colton and Becky Lee visited Dud Ellis Sunday morning.

Don and Margaret Daniel were in Austin last week for the state convention of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association.

June Looney presented a program on insurance to members of the Truscott Extension Homemakers Club on Tuesday, March 21. Members were told that their club is to help with the Knox City club's bake sale for county council on May 13, the Saturday before Mother's Day. They were urged to use containers that need not be returned and to put the name of the cake and any special ingredients somewhere on the cake. The district meeting will be at Haskell, April 12. Clara Owens will be recognized then as a 50-year member. The next meeting will be Tuesday, April 11, with county agent Donnie Peters presenting the program.

Visiting Owen and Irene New during

THE HOMETOWN HARMONIZERS hosted a "Going Away Roast" for Ray Hunter last week. Ray has moved to Caddo Mills where he will serve as minister of the Church of Christ there. Pat Smith will take over direction of the Harmonizers and urges anyone who likes to sing to join the group. Interested individuals can call the Chamber of Commerce at 422-4540. Members of the group are (back row) Shirley Gass, LaRue Reeves, Wanda McAfee, Pat Byard; (middle row) Dolores Lambeth, Kim Brockett, Naomi Pape, Carolyn Welch, Leonard Welch; (bottom row), Pat Smith, Russ Byard, Ray Hunter, Lyndle Reeves and Kyle McAfee.

the weekend were their daughter, Mrs. Peggy Plunk of Stratford, and her son, Wade. Also here for a weekend visit were Rick and Kay Feemster of Goodwill, Okla. Peggy, Kim, and Irene visited Irene's sister, Angie Brackett, in Quanah on Saturday.

Irene New spent last Tuesday in Seymour with grandchildren Eddie and Debbie New shopping for Easter and graduation. Eddie will graduate from junior high and Debbie from high school at Newcastle this year. Their father is Irene and Owen's son, Jimmy.

Peggy and Wade Plunk attended church with Irene at the Gilliland Baptist Church Sunday morning.

Jan Richardson of Lubbock spent the weekend with her mother, Scotty Burgess.

Kim Cash of Vernon visited her parents, Fred and LaNay Cash last week.

A.L. and Frances Cook had all of their children home Sunday. Phil and Fred Cook were in from Mesquite, Sherry and Jerry Miller of Merkel and children Shayla and Andy, and Kay and Terry Sanner of McKinney and children, Keith and Clint.

Fauly Alexander hurt her foot last week when a horse stepped on it.

Lula and Louis Baty hosted the annual Scott family Easter egg hunt at their Gilliland home Sunday. Mrs. Scott of Crowell, her six children and a crowd of grandchildren and great-grandchildren attended. About 50 were present.

Jennifer, James, and Tina Baty of Duman, the children of Steve Baty, spent last week with their grandparents, Louis and Lula Baty.

Gail Whitley, Ila Mae Bullion, and Paul Bullion ate dinner in Vernon March 20 to celebrate Paul's birthday.

The Daniel younger generation enjoyed a wagon ride to the lake and an Easter egg hunt there Sunday afternoon.

About 19 attended the sunrise Easter service at the Gilliland Baptist Church Sunday.

Last Sunday, March 19, Lee and Gail Whitley and Crystal planned to celebrate Lee's birthday by going to Guthrie to eat at the cafe of his sister, Kay Miller. Kay recently bought Babe's Cafe at the Texaco Station there. About 10 minutes before the Truscott family arrived at Kay's Place the electricity went out all over Guthrie. This meant the gas grill was all she had to cook on, so Lee celebrated his birthday with a hamburger. Lee's birthday was March 17 and he says he was 22. His birth certificate was not available for an interview.

He Is Alive!
By Rev. Wayne Varnell
First Baptist Church, Goree

We are not really living until we find something for which we are willing to die. We are not ready to die for something unless it is something we are willing to live for - something that makes life worth living.

Paul said, "For me to live is Christ, to die is gain." (Philippians 1:21) To Paul, living was having Christ live in and through him. If your walk with Christ is worth living for, then it will be worth dying for also.

He makes life worth living He makes death a great experience.
He Is Alive!

METER TAMPERING NOW A FELONY

The State of Texas has recently adopted an amendment to the State Penal Code making meter tampering a third degree felony. A third degree felony comes with a punishment of confinement in the Texas Department of Corrections for a term of not more than 10 or less than 2 years. In addition to imprisonment, an individual adjudged guilty of a third degree felony may be punished by a fine not to exceed $5,000.

Before the amendment of the new law, it was a class A misdemeanor for meter tampering unless the loss of service was more than $200. Under the new law, any meter tampering regardless of the amount of loss is now a felony of the third degree.

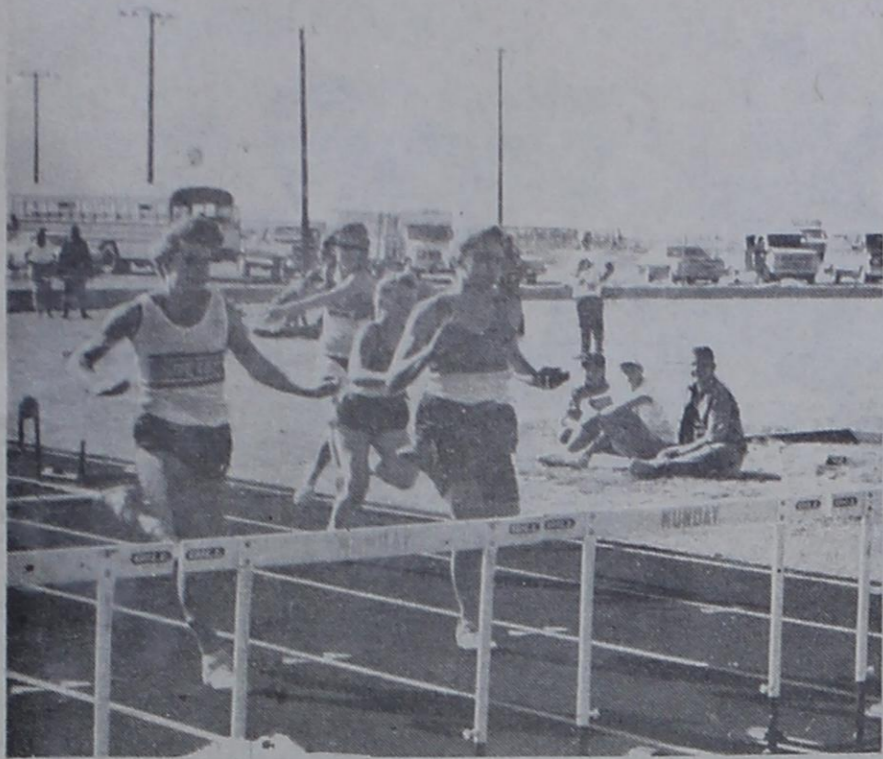

Meter tampering consists of, but is not limited to:

- (1) Diverting electricity from passing through a meter device.
- (2) Preventing electric service from being correctly registered by a meter device.
- (3) Unauthorized activation of electric service.

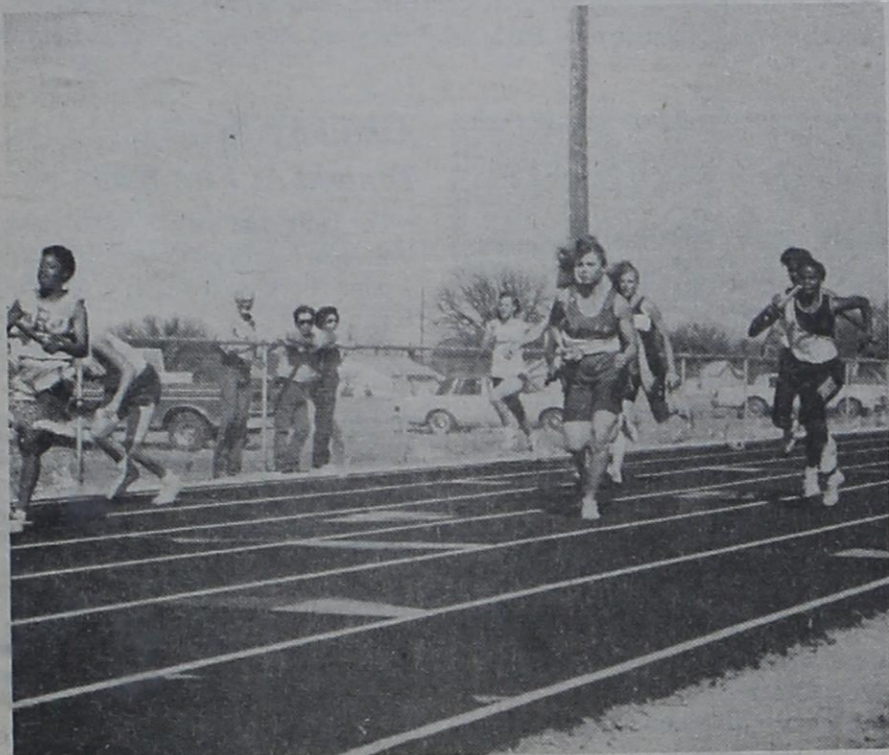

As a special note to our members, it will also be considered meter tampering if a meter is reset and electrical service is restored by anyone other than a Cooperative employee.

All Cooperative meters are sealed. This seal should not be cut or broken without special authorization. In cases where the seal must be cut for emergencies the Cooperative should be notified as soon as possible so that the meter can be resealed.

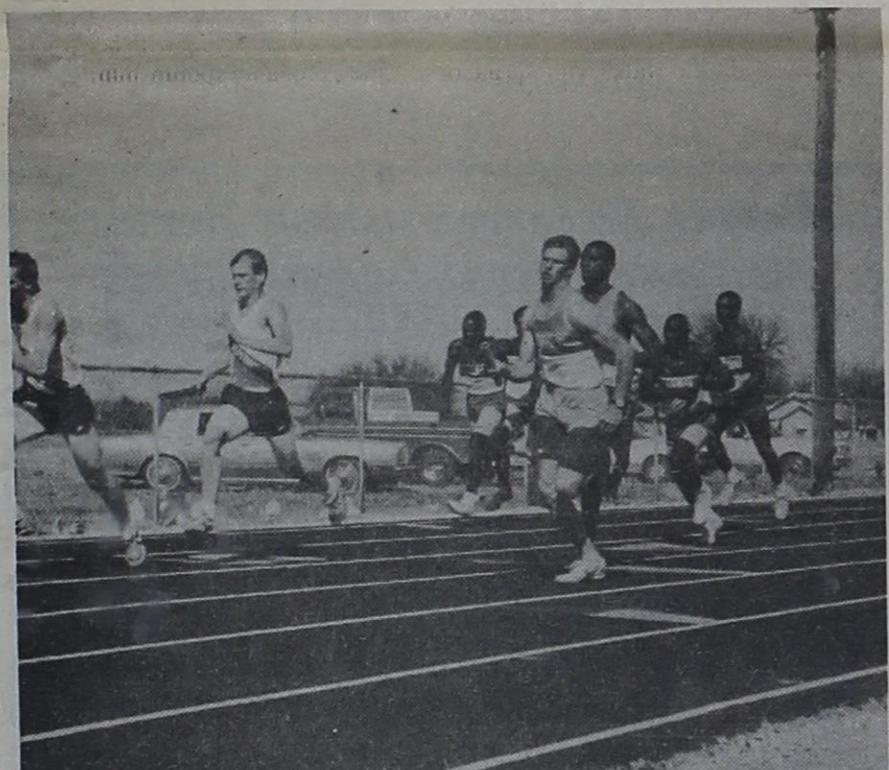

B - K ELECTRIC COOPERATIVE, INC.

KATHY WILDE, 1988 Class A 100 meter hurdles state champion, demonstrated her technique at Saturday's Mogul Relay finals, as she completed the run with a time of 15.6 seconds to take first place. Close on her heels is Leah Rauch of Knox City who finished second with a time of 16.5. Third place finisher was Shawna Simpson.

THE GIRLS 400 METER RELAY finals proved to be an exciting contest at the Mogul Relays held Saturday at Phillip McAfee Track. The Mogulettes outran their closest competition, Motley County, with a time of 51.15. Pictured here is Kathy Wilde taking the handoff from April Offutt to run the third leg of the race. Other relay team members are Angie Offutt and Alicia Cook.

RELAY TEAM MEMBERS Tyler Thompson and Perry Collier executed a clean handoff in the 400-meter relay at Saturday's Mogul Relay finals and the team turned in a time of 45.34 to take first place in the event. Other team members are Isias Campos and Terry Collier.

The Lord's Corner

By Dr. Pete Bradfield, Pastor
First Baptist Church

There is something worse than being wounded by an enemy - and that is being wounded by a friend. And when a trusted friend stabs you in the back, how should you handle the natural feelings of resentment that come?

Answer: Handle them with prayer! Anger... bitterness... revenge... a desire to run. All are natural responses to betrayal. But none really resolves the issue or helps the one betrayed. For that you must turn to God who alone is able to heal the wound with a supernatural spirit of forgiveness and love.

Have you been wounded by a friend in recent days? Then finish this prayer: "Lord, you know I have every right to treat _____ as my enemy. And though I could respond naturally, help me in your strength to respond supernaturally."

See you next week, and remember: compassion invest whatever is necessary to heal the hurts of others.

Inaccurate Reports Are Main Cause Of SS Overpayments

Estimating wages wrong is the number one cause of social security overpayments, according to Frances Braden, resident representative of the Vernon Social Security office.

According to agency records, inaccurate wage estimates caused $470 million in overpayments nationwide in 1987.

An estimate of 1989 earnings must be filed by April 17 by anyone who expects to earn over the 1989 exempt amount and still receive some social security checks. The 1989 exempt amount is $6,480 for persons under 65 and $8,800 for those 65-69. There is no earnings limit for workers 70 and over.

Some tips to help social security beneficiaries in making their wage estimates are: After a few months of work, look at your most recent pay slip. Divide the year-to-date gross wages figure by three if the pay slip reflects three months of work, for example. This will be average monthly earnings. Multiply that amount by 12 to estimate earnings for the year. If you only plan to work part of the year, adjust your figures accordingly.

Some other things to consider are:

- * Will you get a cost-of-living increase this year?
- * Will you get a bonus?
- * Will you get any kind of lump sum payment from your employers?

These amounts need to be added to the earnings estimate to avoid a possible overpayment.

Anyone who has questions about filling out an earnings estimate should contact social security. The toll free telephone number is 1-800-234-5772.

HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUB

The Little Ole Hens Home Demonstration Club met last Tuesday in the home of Virginia Griffith. After the business meeting, Dorothy Spikes gave a very interesting program and demonstration on weaving.

Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and punch were served by the hostess.

Those attending were Jimmie Klutts, Bea Parks, Pearl Ryder, Louise Hall, Mrs. Griffith and two guests, Hunter and Pate Meinzer.

LOCAL'S SISTER DIES

Lil Moorhouse received word of the death of her sister, Mona Holcomb. Mrs. Holcomb lived in the metroplex after moving from Munday several years ago. She had visited in Benjamin many times and had many friends here.

We extend sympathy to Mona's loved ones.

CONCERNING GRACE SNAILUM

I was glad to get a letter from Shirley Jordan last week bringing me up to date on the condition of her mom, Grace Snailum, and the goings-on in Grace's life. She said Grace is doing quite well since her second hip surgery in February. She is up and walks with the aid of her walker.

Grace celebrated her 84 birthday on February 15 and enjoyed lunch out with her kids, Ted and Peggy Snailum, Charles and Audie Snailum, Claudia Nunley and Ray and Shirley Jordan. She was also a guest at a birthday party at the nursing home where she lives.

Highlighting her recent activities was being able to attend a band concert at the Scottish Rite Temple in San Antonio. The concert was given by the Fifth Army Band of Atlanta, Georgia, under the direction of Grace's grandson, Major Michael Pyatt.

Grace sends her best to all her friends at home and appreciates all kindnesses shown her. Cards and letters may be sent to her at the following address:

Grace Snailum, 4 Seasons Nursing Home, 8300 Wurzbach, Room 51, San Antonio, TX 78229.

Her phone # is 512-690-2922. Shirley also said Grace reads her county papers faithfully and is glad to be able to keep up with everything here.

HERE 'N THERE

Hes and Louise Hall spent last Monday in Lubbock and were in Wichita Falls Wednesday for Louise to have a check-up with her doctor.

Wanda West of Cisco spent the weekend with Leroy and Gloria West. Also visiting there were Kathy, Sammy and Penny Tomlinson of Valley View. Kathy has recently been named employee of the month in the Denton area by the General Telephone Company. Kathy works in the Louisville office and there are approximately 1500 GTE employees in that area. That is a nice honor and knowing Kathy, I am very sure she was deserving of it.

Easter weekend guests of J. D. and Annie Brown were Curtis and Edith Brown of Wichita Falls and Vernon and JoNell Brown of Houston.

Rick, Kathy and Kimberly Toliston of Odessa visited Kathy's grandmother, Audry Nolan, in the care home at Knox City on Sunday.

Weekend guests of Ruth Ressel and the W. T. Cartwrights were Mr. and Mrs. Volley Ressel of Clovis, NM, Melanie Ressel, who is a student at Lubbock Christian College, Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Ressel of Dickens, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack New and Katelyn of Andrews. They were all here to help Ruth celebrate her 75th birthday which was March 25. And the men joined the clubs in cleaning our designated highway area.

Several Benjamin residents, along with policy holders from other area towns, were in town Saturday night for the annual barbecue of the Farmers Mutual Insurance Company. A delicious meal of barbecue brisket, sausage, potato salad, beans, tea and cobbler was enjoyed by those attending and it was a good opportunity to see lots of folks we haven't seen in a while.

Bo Milson is spending a few days with her daughter and family, Kelly, George and Sam Slade, in Austin. Kelly is hospitalized battling a bout with the flu and Bo is helping with her grandson. (She's probably spoiling him!!)

Ag College Name Change Reflects Scope Of Programs

Programs in the life sciences have been getting more and more emphasis in Texas A&M University's College of Agriculture in recent years, and that emphasis has led to a change in the College's name.

It's now the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences.

The name change was approved by the TAMUS Board of Regents last fall, and recently received the final approval of the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board.

Dr. Charles Arntzen, deputy chancellor and dean of agriculture, said that the new name is more descriptive of current academic activities in agriculture and that it should improve the public's perception of agricultural programs. This new designation should help in recruiting top faculty and students as well as enhancing the upward mobility of graduates.

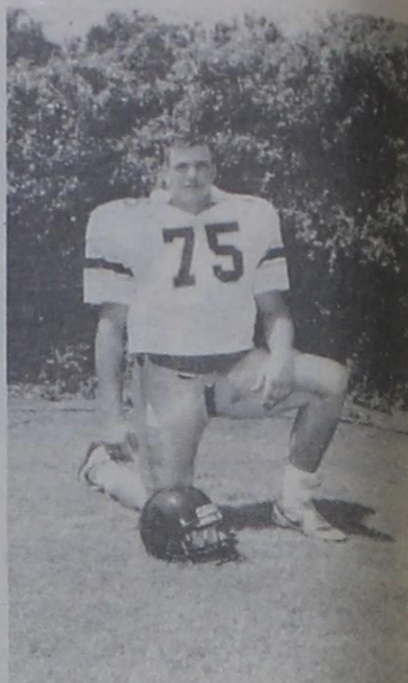

He said the name change also will help to improve the College's position in attracting research funds, and will help to identify it with the prestigious colleges of agriculture in the U.S., such as Cornell University and the University of Wisconsin.

The chief agricultural official at Texas A&M said that it is important for the public to understand that agriculture and the life sciences are complementary and mutually supportive.

He said that more than 60 percent of the graduate students in agriculture currently are specializing in the life sciences.

Changes in the undergraduate curriculum last fall have included more of the life sciences and food engineering options which have stabilized the student enrollment in the College. Arntzen noted that many top universities have suffered a drop in agricultural enrollment due to too much emphasis on production options and/or a failure to see the growing importance of the life sciences.

Farm and Ranch Report

SPRAY PECAN TREES SOON

As spring is approaching, homeowners with pecan trees and pecan orchards should begin the spray program to assist in making a high quality harvest in late fall.

Pecan trees should be supplied with some type of zinc each year. As a matter of fact, zinc is the limiting factor in production of pecans. There are many types available. These include zinc sulfate, Zn Special and chelated zinc. These are all foliar sprays that should be applied using a high pressure sprayer. Two to three applications at two week intervals. If chelated zinc sources are used, tests have shown that absorption of zinc increased when sprayed with a liquid nitrogen source. In addition, a surfactant should be added to the spray to loosen the surface tension of the leaf. This allows for better coverage of the sprays.

This type of zinc source is the most economical with exception to cost of spray equipment.

Another type of zinc that may be used is a zinc implant.

These work well with homeowners as they are applied one time per year by drilling a hole into the tree and placing the implant where the cambium layer can take the zinc and spread into the rest of the tree.

Though this method may be the easiest for homeowners to use, it is fairly costly as implants cost approximately one dollar each.

This zinc source is not economically feasible for commercial orchards.

By using any of the zinc sources will help insure the pecan crop to have heavier loads of high quality nuts to enjoy in your favorite baked goods.
