Views From Another Point

By Joyce Beecher Greenwood

I watched a movie not long ago that was particularly disturbing. Although a fictional film, it described the after effects of a nuclear war - the destruction, the complete annihilation of life as we know it. It left the viewer, me anyway, with the most awful realization that something so powerful actually does exist in our world. Surely, nobody will ever be stupid enough to unleash such a weapon.

Wars have gone on since the beginning of time, since weapons consisted of clubs and spears and then muskets and cannons. Though every nation claims it wants peace, somehow wars continue. Usually the issue is land or power, and somehow they get started.

Remember little bits and pieces of the way things were during World War II. I remember Mother painting her legs because she couldn't buy hose, and not being able to buy sugar once our coupons had all been used. I remember listening to Kate Smith on the radio who always began her program with "Hello, all you soldier boys . . ."

The day that stands out in my memory, however, is the day Mother sat with her ear to the radio all day, shushing Nell and me when we tried to talk, until at last, she began to laugh and cry at the same time.

"Run," she told me. "Run down and tell Clara the war is over."

I really didn't understand the message I was relaying, but I knew it was important and suddenly, I was important to be entrusted with such a task.

The hot sand burned my feet as I ran down the dirt road to Clara's little house. She and her husband Willie didn't have the luxury of a radio. In fact, at that time, about all they could lay claim to were three little white-haired kids who played beside the house as I ran past them with my message.

"Clara! The war's over!" I shouted, pretending to understand.

Clara lifted her arms toward the sky. "Praise God! Praise God!" she shouted as she began to cry and then I was crying, too (although I didn't know why), as though I had become a part of some glorious event.

My long-time friend and co-worker, the late Frances Coffman, told of being a young girl during world War I. In that war, she told me, young men reported for duty and were loaded onto trains until the quota for that particular enlistment group was met. She recalled the day when she and her mother tearfully hugged her brother as her father sat in the wagon, waiting to take him to the train.

She waved at him as far as she could see, running after the wagon to watch him a little longer. Then, she and her mother walked across the field to wait for the train to come by, carrying the men into service.

When it passed, she looked frantically for her brother's face among the other faces, but she couldn't catch sight of him.

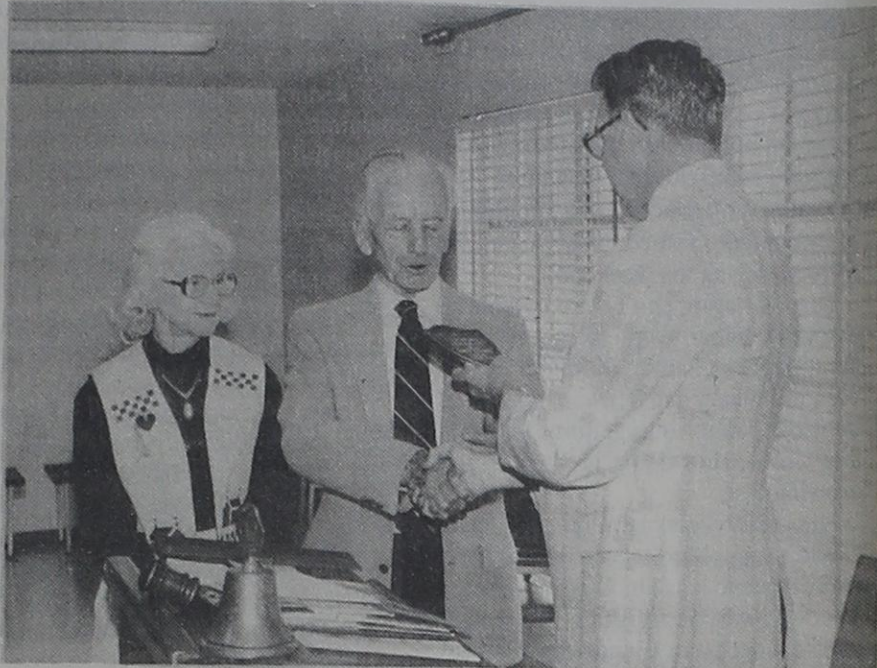

"Wave anyway, Frances," her mother instructed. "He may be watching and we just can't see him."

They both waved until the train had gone around the bend and then walked slowly, with heavy hearts, back across the field to their house.

In a little while, they heard shouting and as they ran out to look, they saw the wagon coming, fast and jubilant, while her brother leaned way out to wave. His enlistment quota had been filled just a few men ahead of him in the station.

"How happy we were," Frances told

City Grant Application Rejected, Reapplication Probable In 1990

The City Council of the City of Munday, met in regular session at 7 p.m. April 11, 1989.

Members present included Garon Tidwell, Gene Brown, Richard Albus and Jessie Tucker. Mayor Doris Dickerson and alderman Jessie Andrade were absent.

Mayor pro-tem Tidwell called the meeting to order. Minutes of the March 7, 1989 regular meeting and the March 16, 1989 special meeting were read. Brown moved the minutes be approved as written. Tucker seconded; all members for.

A letter from the Corps of Engineers dated November 14, 1988, was reviewed. Requirements as outlined in A, B, (pt. of) C and D have been completed. Part E needs finishing and a notice has been sent in this regard. Overall compliance, the Corps of Engineers stated, is good. No council action was taken, except the City Administrator was instructed to secure full compliance as soon as possible.

Discussion of the budget for the 1989-90 fiscal year was discussed. The Council requested the City Administrator work with Mayor Dickerson to complete budget recommendations and that the Council meet in special session as soon as possible to review the budget, secure public input at this meeting, same

Benjamin Senior Wins Map Contest

Kellie Westmoreland, a senior student at Benjamin High School, was named the high school division winner in the Discover Early America Map Program sponsored by the Commission on the Bicentennial of the U.S. Constitution. She competed against others schools in the Congressional district, and her entry will be judged in the state competition.

Kellie used pastels, watercolors, and felt-tipped pens to depict scenes from history and to label her map.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Westmoreland of Gilliland, Kellie plans to attend Midwestern State University in Wichita Falls where she will major in commercial art.

being the first public hearing, with notice of first public hearing to be given in the Munday Courier and posted on the City Hall bulletin board. This meeting will be held on May 1, 1989, to conform with proper time period.

Operation of the police department, car mileage, etc. was discussed. No official action was taken.

Next discussed was the present status of the telephone rate case being aired before the PUC. The council supports recent rollback action of the PUC regarding telephone rates conforms, at least partially, with opinion of our rate consultants. 911 service was discussed. No new information is available at this time. Also several contacts by the Mayor and Administrator with our Senators and Representatives in regard to good and bad legislation for cities proposed will continue. (T.M.L. newsletter keeps us posted).

The council reviewed the scoresheet in regard to Munday's 1989 Texas Department of Commerce Community Development Grant Fund application. Munday rated 12th this year with 6 cities being funded. (27 cities applied.) It is probable the City will revise its application somewhat and reapply for approximately the same basic project in 1990, however the Council will have to decide on this matter at the proper time.

One airport lease has been relinquished by James W. Reid. Ricky Fulton has made application to the Council for a lease on this same site for a primary 5 year term; also on exactly the same terms and conditions as was in the Reid lease. Albus moved the lease be made to Ricky Fulton on this 50 ft. x 100 ft. tract, exact site, terms and conditions as was set out in the James W. Reid lease and upon payment of the first years lease that Mayor Doris Dickerson be authorized to sign said lease for the City of Munday. (Full text of lease to be in City Airport files). Brown seconded; all members voted for.

Next discussed was commercial use of the Munday Municipal Airport. Commercial building sites are available at $300 now. Albus moved the following be done to assure compliance with F.A.A. and T.A.C. rules and City of Munday requirements.

Resolution Governing Commercial Airport Use:

Be it resolved that any commercial company using Munday Municipal Airport for crop spraying, dusting or other commercial services be required to register with Munday City Hall and secure a permit prior to commencing work and adhere to the guidelines set out in the permit as follows:

1. Positively no chemicals will be mixed on the parking area east and adjacent to the north end of the paved roadway (TAC and FAA require this area open for private planes).

2. Any site to be used shall be designated by the City with operator to be a minimum of 200 ft. from runway center

Brazos Electric Inc. Requests Reduced Rate Continuance

Brazos Electric Power Cooperative, Inc. filed a motion with the Public Utility Commission on March 30 to request continuation of the cooperative's temporary rate reduction.

The temporary rate reduction, effective during the months of December 1988 through March 1989, meant consumers saw an average reduction of about $7 per each 1000 kilowatt hours used. If approved, the continued reduction will be at a level of about $5.60 per 1000 kilowatt hours. It will allow the cooperative to maintain reduced rates pending a permanent rate reduction later this year.

"Our mission is to provide reliable power at the lowest possible cost," said Richard E. McCaskill, executive vice president and general manager of Brazos Electric. "We constantly monitor our needs to maintain our financial strength," he said. "But when there is an opportunity to pass on savings to our consumers, we do it, happily."

Brazos Electric had planned to ask the PUC for a permanent rate reduction by April 1, but it will now conduct additional studies of potential rate structures before doing so. The Cooperative plans to file a request for a permanent rate reduction of about $23 million by June 1.

Since January 1983, Brazos Electric has reduced the average cost of its wholesale electric power by more than 18 percent.

Headquartered in Waco, Brazos Electric provides wholesale power to 20 member distribution cooperatives, seven municipal customers and Texas A&M University. These wholesale customers serve 240,000 consumers in 66 counties of Texas. Distribution cooperative for this area is B-K Electric Cooperative of Seymour, serving Baylor, Knox, Foard, Archer, Wilbarger, Throckmorton, King, Stonewall and Haskell counties.

me. "We had no way of knowing that day that in just over a week, my brother would be dead from influenza."

Perhaps one of the most brutal and misunderstood of all wars was the Viet Nam conflict. There didn't seem to be the attitude of "let's get behind our boys" by the people as in previous wars. It was almost as though a lot of people never wanted to acknowledge that we were in war. Like things that go "bump" in the night, if ignored, it would go away.

Our nephew, who was in Viet Nam for eighteen months, talked about it finally, after months of grim silence when he returned home.

"I really never knew what I was fighting for," he said. "And we couldn't even identify the enemy most of the time."

"I found a dog over there," he said, "and that dog became the only semblance of anything close to stability. I wanted to bring him home with me. I would have liked to show him what it's like to go to sleep and know you'll probably see the morning."

Ideally, we would live in a world where war, or the constant threat of war, did not exist. But things are seldom idealistic and there's always conflict somewhere in the world, either directly or indirectly involving America.

We, as a nation, are fortunate that because brave men have been willing to fight and die to protect us, America (except for the Civil War) has never been the battleground for war. It is important to always remember we are a nation under God and as long as we are, we'll have an edge.

It's important, too, that we respect the privilege of being an American and to never take our freedom for granted.

Is that being a flag waver - or what?

Brown next moved that Lee Bruce be reappointed to the North Central Texas Municipal Water Authority for a two year term from June 1, 1989 to May 31, 1991. Bruce will represent Munday. Tucker seconded the motion. All members voted in favor; motion carried.

A backhoe trailer to move backhoe to and from the landfill was discussed. The matter was tabled at this time; the council recommended continued road travel due to short distance. Efforts are to continue to secure a surplus pickup or one from WTU or State of Texas.

City Administrator Hertel reviewed work done at the swimming pool. The circulator motor has been rebuilt and reinstalled; an 8" bypass to the filter is currently being installed; other repairs, cleaning and painting of pool and bleachers, repair of park tables, equipment, etc. is also planned. The Council recommended truck overhaul proposals on the 1972 truck be evaluated by the City Administrator and he is to decide how to proceed.

New business discussed was one or more requests for water service outside the city limits. Some question exists on rates for new additions which could be charged in these cases. Rate changes allowable will be investigated with fairness to taxpayers of Munday to be a consideration. Any change from present City annexation requirements will be carefully evaluated by the Council.

Albus made a motion, seconded by Tucker that bills be paid as follows: from operating funds, $13,153.45; airport funds, $41.67; ambulance funds, $188.12; swimming pool funds, $717.03. All voted for.

Brown moved to adjourn. Tucker seconded; all in favor.

LOCAL BOY TO ATTEND CAMP AT TAOS, NM

Chris McGreger, son of Fred and Nancy McGreger, has been accepted by the University of New Mexico to attend a six weeks German course at a camp in Taos. This course will begin around June 1.

Chris is a senior at the University of Texas, majoring in anthropology and German and minoring in biology and English. For his course in Taos, he will receive seven hours credit and 500 contact hours in German. An interesting thing to me was the fact that during the time he will be at the summer camp, he will not be allowed to speak English.

Chris is a 1989 graduate of Benjamin High School and aside from his class work at UT, he is also employed by the Communications Department at the University.

ATTEND HEE-HAW

It was fun and several Benjaminites "got in on it" as we took off to Sagerton Thursday evening to attend the annual Hee-Haw. This was the 19th performance and it was super. It is based on the TV show and is put on by local folks in the Sagerton area. There's lots of talent over that way.

Thursday evening was senior citizens night and folks from many area towns were there. There were folks of all ages. And we all got to eat before the show!!

Those attending from Benjamin were Hazel Stockton, Nora Duke, Odessa Cox, Bo Milson, Virginia Griffith, Bill and Pearl Ryder, Kenneth and Jessie Roberts, Hes and Louise Hall, James and Jimmie Klutts, Jack Idol, Goldie Pierce, Aliene Groves, Earlene Meinzer, Lou Leaverton, Nell Hudson, Clodell Duke, Bea Parks, Eunice Friday, Mary Hertel of the Rhineland area, Reba Morrill of Houston and Gladene Green.

And we are already planning on going back next year!

HERE AND THERE

Reba Morrill of Houston is spending a few days with her mom, Odessa Cox.

Weekend guests of Mrs. Cox and Reba were Reba's daughter and a friend, Leslie Morrill and Chad Hale of Dallas.

Barbara Ann Kilgore of Los Angeles, California, visited her mother and brother, Ozelle Kilgore and Galen, last week. She left here to go to San Antonio to visit her sister and family, the Tommy Cunninghams, before returning home.

Imogean and Dutch Young had their children, Mike and Colette Young of Seymour, Brenda Gallaher of Wichita Falls and the Benjamin kids, Dee Ann and Anthony Lamb, on Sunday. They all enjoyed a fish fry and the trimmings Sunday night.

Linda, Steve and Mathew Kearnes of Roscoe spent the weekend with her mom, Lois Golden, and her sister and family, the Randy Hibbons. Little Matthew will visit her a couple of days while his parents are in Austin on business.

Charles and Audie Snailum of Chandler visited friends here on Thursday.

Herbert Barnes Sr. Buried In Abilene

Herbert Barnes Sr., 79, of Abilene, died April 5 in an Abilene nursing home. Funeral services were held Friday, April 7 at Elliott-Hamil Funeral Home Chapel of Memories in Abilene with Roy Zuefeldt officiating. Burial was in Elmwood Memorial Park.

Born in Grand Saline, Barnes lived in Munday and Haskell before moving to Abilene in 1943. He was market manager at Piggly Wiggly for 18 years and market manager at Thornton's Grocery Stores. He later owned and was butcher for Barnes Meat Market in Abilene for 12 years. He retired in 1974.

He was a member of the Odd Fellows Lodge, a member of the board of directors of the Ben Richey Boys Ranch and a member of the Church of Christ.

Survivors include his wife, Christine Barnes of Abilene; a daughter, Sue Martin of Abilene; a son, Herbert Marshall Barnes Jr. of Salina, Kansas; two sisters, Mabel Bailey of Albuquerque, N.M., and Orea Whitten of Lander, Wyoming; six grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

Goree Seniors To Have BBQ Meal

The senior class of Goree High School will host a barbecue dinner on Sunday, April 23 at the Goree Memorial Building. Serving time will be from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Tickets are $5 for adults and $3 for children 12 and under, and can be purchased from any senior or at the door.

Take-out orders are also available. Proceeds will be used for senior activity expenses.

They were enroute home from Amarillo where they had attended the funeral of Charles' great nephew, Jason Dalton. Jason was the son of Linda Nunley Dalton and the grandson of Claudia Nunley and the late Floyd Nunley.

Jan, Homer and Jennifer Rolston met their daughter and sister, Lorrie, who is a student at San Angelo State, in Lubbock on Saturday, where the girls attended a Bon Jovi concert that night. Now being a George Strait, Merle Haggard and all other country music stars fan, I'm not real sure about what Jennifer and Lorrie saw and heard, but they said it was good and they really enjoyed it and that's what counts. And oh yeah, in case you're interested, Skid Row was the opening act of this extravaganza!

Odelia Walker and Mable Thompkins of Montague visited their sister, Bo Milson, during the weekend.

Diane Herring and I were in Abilene Saturday. Finally got to see my new great-nephew, Parker Thornton. He was born in January and he's very special as he had a rough time getting started in this world. He's doing great now and growing fast.

His grandparents are Mac and Glenda Gayle Yeager McNeely of Denton. And Parker's mother is Dr. Cindy McNeely Thornton who is finishing her second year residency at Hendricks Medical Center. Cindy was stricken with polio when she was 11 months old which left her crippled but she is a very determined young lady and has done very well. And you can see why she's special to me. She is married to Mike Thornton of Cedar Hill who is a science teacher at Abilene High.

The Benjamin junior class will be sponsoring a Mexican Supper and cake walk next Tuesday night, April 25, at the school. Watch for posters and ads for the time and cast. Come on over and enjoy an evening of food, fun and fellowship with us. The kids need the money.

Several Outstanding Groups Chosen By FFA Oil Belt District

On Tuesday, April 11, the Future Farmers of America held their Oil Belt District meeting in Seymour. The district agricultural science teachers elected new officers, outstanding school administrators, outstanding civic group, outstanding newspaper, outstanding radio and television stations, etc.

The outstanding civic group for the Oil Belt District was the Brazos Valley Young Farmers which was nominated by Jim Dillon, Knox City Ag teacher. The outstanding newspaper was The Munday Courier, nominated by Ricky Moeller, Munday Ag teacher. The outstanding radio station was KVRP in Haskell.

Also at this meeting the district check was held for such items as Lone Star Farmer applicants. Munday has three, Doug Tidwell, Jeff Herring and Jon Smith. These three young men's applications will advance to area and the record books and applications will be checked again. If they pass, they will advance to state and the decision will then be made if these young men will receive their degrees.

Weinert Church To Have Special Services

The First Baptist Church in Weinert will hold a series of special revival services April 23-28. Dr. E. Milford Howell, a native of Rule, will preach each evening at 8 p.m. Ford Cole, music director of Haskell First Baptist Church, will lead the singing.

A graduate of Rule High School, Dr. Howell earned his BS degree from Hardin-Simmons University and Th.M., Th.D and Ph.D degrees from Southwestern Theological Seminary in Fort Worth. He also studied Clinical Pastoral Care at North Carolina Baptist Hospital and attended Stetson University, Deland, Florida.

He served as a Southern Baptist Missionary in West Africa from 1943 to 1964 where he was district missionary to a group of 50-60 churches, director of city missions and promotion, and evangelism secretary for the Nigerian Baptist Convention. He also served as first secretary of the Home and Foreign mission board there.

Upon returning to the states, Dr. Howell became interim pastor of Crescent Park Baptist Church in Odessa. He then pastored the Northlake Baptist Church in Dallas before becoming director of missions for the Baptist Convention of Maryland. He then served as director of Associational Missions for Southwest Florida Baptist Association from 1972 until his retirement in 1983. He has published three books on mission work in Africa.

Farm and Ranch Report

By Donnie Peters

CONTROL STONE FRUIT PESTS EARLY

Now that most chances of frost are gone for this spring, homeowners will want to help insure the harvest of fruit to be of top quality.

I visited Sue Oxford concerning her peach trees. Sue has several varieties of peaches and all of the trees had some small peaches.

We discussed the spraying schedule for peaches, however this program will also apply to plums and apricots.

As 75% of the blooms begin to fall, homeowners should begin spraying for plum curculio and catfacing insects. Plum curculio is the small white grub that lays next to the seed when the fruit reaches maturity. Evidence of catfacing insects may be seen by irregular or "cat-faced" fruit.

Control measures that can be used include Malathion, Dursban, Seven or Zolone. Zolone should be avoided if a garden is near fruit trees.

Insecticides should be applied on a weekly basis for three to four weeks. Failure to do so could result in fruit being infected by these insects causing some fruit loss of which frost has already done.

GEAR UP FOR GARDEN PESTS

Gardening season is upon us, and with this in mind the need for early preparation against insect pests that are sure to be around.

First, gardeners should inspect insecticides left over from last year to determine if they are still good. Product age and storage conditions must be considered.

If properly stored, most products should have at least a two-year shelf life once they begin to be used. Dusts sometimes have a tendency to absorb moisture if the bag is not sealed tightly after each use; they should not be used if lumpy.

Place bags containing insecticides in a clear, polyethylene bag and seal it with a rubber band to keep moisture out.

If dusts are two years old or older and there is any doubt about their storage, dispose of them according to label directions and buy new insecticide.

Although liquid materials are not as likely to absorb moisture, storage is still important. Caps should be resealed tightly on the product after each use. Do not use liquids which are cloudy or milky in color or which have sediments on the bottom of the container as the active ingredients are no longer in suspension with the insecticide.

Do not store pesticides on a shelf in front of a window, especially if the window gets strong afternoon sun. Do not store liquids in an area subjected to extreme temperature fluctuations. Extremes from summer to winter temperatures may not hurt the active ingredient in the insecticide, but it may damage the ability of the product to mix properly in water.

If liquid materials are at least two years old and have not been stored properly, monitor vegetables closely after spraying to determine if the pesticides are controlling insects.

It's important to anticipate pesticides that will be needed for the crops to be grown. Select insecticides by considering the plants and the period for insect control before repeating the application. This also will affect time for application until a safe time for harvesting.

Finally, know exactly what is being sprayed on plants and the amount. Don't jeopardize plants by spraying first and then checking for possible plant damage.

Good Nutrition Can Help Reduce Risk Of Cancer

Although there's no magic potion you can take to prevent cancer, it has been determined that certain foods may reduce your cancer risk.

The nutritional guidelines developed by the American Cancer Society include adding more foods high in fiber and vitamins A and C to your diet, as well as cutting down on fats, alcohol, and salt-cured foods. The evidence upon which these guidelines were formulated was based on laboratory experiments and observation of human populations. For example, the high incidence of certain cancers in the United States -- breast, colorectal and uterine -- appears to be linked to some degree to high-fat diets. These cancers are rare in countries that rely primarily on high-fiber diets.

The American Heart Association offers the following guidelines to reduce cancer risk and improve overall health:

- * Add more fresh vegetables to your plate. Dark green and deep yellow vegetables, as well as the "cruciferous" variety (broccoli, cabbage, cauliflower, brussel sprouts, mustard greens and kale), appear to offer protection from colorectal, stomach, and respiratory cancers.

- * Increase your intake of vitamin A. Cancers of the lung, larynx and esophagus may be reduced by eating deep yellow and dark green fruits and vegetables, like peaches, apricots, squash, spinach and watercress. The American Cancer Society advises against using pills alone to get your vitamin A, as they are harmful in large doses.

- * Add more vitamin C to your diet. Oranges, red and green peppers, strawberries, lemons and limes all help protect against cancers of the stomach and esophagus.

- * Include fiber in your diet. Lots of foods have fiber -- fresh fruits and vegetables, bran cereals and whole-grain breads. Fiber keeps the digestive system healthy and may prevent colon cancer.

- * Reduce your intake of fat. Your risk of breast, prostate, and colon cancer increases if you eat a high-fat diet. Choose low-fat milk, low-fat yogurt or cottage cheese and eat more poultry, fish and lean meats. Avoid fried foods.

- * Cut down on salt-cured, smoke and nitrite-cured foods. Cancers of the stomach and esophagus are common in parts of the world where large quantities of conventionally smoked, salt-cured and nitrite-cured foods are consumed. Don't have frequent servings of smoked bacon, ham and hot dogs, certain cold cuts and sausages.

- * Go easy on alcohol. Heavy consumption of alcohol is linked to cancer of the liver, and heavy drinkers who smoke are at much greater risk for cancers of the mouth, throat, larynx and esophagus than nonsmokers.

The most important thing people can do to avoid cancer is to stop smoking. Approximately 30 percent of all cancer is smoking-related, and smoking accounts for about 83 percent of all lung cancer cases. When it comes to protecting yourself against cancer, that's the best step you can take.

More information about diet and cancer is available without charge from the American Cancer Society. Contact the District 13 office at 817-691-7201 for free materials about reducing cancer risk.

MILESTONES

Wheat is a domesticated grain that is older than written history. It usually is the dominant grain crop in Texas according to acreage, total yields and dollar value. But per acre wheat yields were rather low for many years. An average per harvested acre yield in 1900 of 18.4 bushels was unequaled until 1944, when average production increased to 18.5 bushels.

That record was not exceeded in Texas until 1958, when average yields were 21.5 bushels per acre. Besides the weather uncertainties, wheat producers also coped with a variety of disease and insect problems.

Development of high-yielding semidwarf wheat varieties by The Texas Agricultural Experiment Station boosted rapid yield increases after 1960. These varieties were adapted for both irrigated and dryland production, but they were particularly suited for high-fertility irrigated production conditions where lodging had previously limited yields.

A second dramatic Texas wheat yield jump has occurred since 1979. Favorable rainfall and development of a second series of semidwarf hard red winter wheat varieties, including the TAM (Texas A&M) wheats, are major factors in increased yields. Texas farmers first broke the 100-bushel-per-acre barrier with these TAM wheats that were developed and released by the Experiment Station.

Station entomologists have developed strategies for better control of insects in at least three areas of research: cultural, resistance or tolerance in plants and chemical.

Diseases are another crop hazard. Wheat is subject to a number of diseases, including rusts and smuts. Resistance or tolerance to wheat diseases is sought by Station pathologists and plant breeders for incorporation into varieties they are developing.

Gains from this improved technology are readily apparent and easily measured. Economists estimate that the improved variety, Tascosa, increased production over best previous varieties by 54 million bushels, worth $82 million.

Station scientists continue to seek improved quality and nutritive value and other subtle gains in wheat. Producers and Station economists, also recognize and attempt to measure these gains.

CHILD ABUSE PREVENTION MONTH

April has been designated as "Child Abuse Prevention Month" by the National Committee for the Prevention of Child Abuse. This is an appropriate time to recognize that many Texas children are physically and emotionally at risk for abuse and neglect. Parenting isn't easy, but there are many resources for help such as the county Extension office, the county library, or the Texas Department of Human Services.

While child abuse is not restricted to any particular group, it is seen more frequently in families where parents are troubled by alcoholism, drug abuse, marital strife, low self-esteem and joblessness.

In recognition of "Child Abuse Prevention Month" we suggest five alternatives to lashing out at children:

1. Close your eyes and imagine you are the child.
2. Hug a pillow.
3. Stop in your tracks; press your lips together and breathe deeply.
4. Put your hands over your mouth and count to 10 (or 20).
5. Phone a friend.

WHITE ON WHITE MAKES NEWS

What can you expect to see in kitchens of the coming decade? White and more white. Appliance companies are introducing stylish white versions of every major appliance from compact microwaves to side-by-side refrigerators - many with light gray or white control panels.

The appliances have a sleek, sophisticated appearance that allows home owners to translate the European style of kitchen design at an affordable cost.

White or a neutral color may also be the choice of consumers who are simply adding or replacing appliances. The advantage of using neutral colors on the major kitchen elements is that they are compatible with almost any style, from the fifties to the elusive contemporary of the nineties.

Accents can be changed periodically as the colors begin to look dated without major renovation.

NATIONAL CONSUMERS WEEK IS APRIL 23-29

"Consumers Open Markets" is the theme for National Consumers Week, April 23-29. National Consumers Week salutes the leadership role consumers play in our nation's economy.

The following article should be of interest to most consumers.

HOW YOU COMPLAIN CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE

Got a complaint? When you complain about a product or service, be sure to do it the right way.

To register a complaint:
* Describe clearly your current problem or complaint. Use facts like dates, costs and problems.

* State exactly what you want the company or agency to do to make things right.

* Print (don't write) your complaint legibly. Better yet, use a typewriter if you have one.

* Use standard paper (8 1/2 x 11), preferably white. Colored paper often does not photocopy well. Since several people or departments may be involved in handling your complaint, your letter and other documents may be photocopied several times.

* Use a pen with dark ink (blue or black) and medium point so that the letter will be legible when copied.

* Include copies (not the originals) of all related documents, purchase receipts, service receipts, past correspondence with service agencies and the manufacturer.

* Date your letters and other documents.

* Provide your daytime telephone number.

* Reread your letter several times before sending. Put yourself in the reader's shoes. Your letter is not a place to vent your anger; only state the facts and what you would like as a resolution to the problem.

* Be polite and remain calm. Customer relations personnel with a company or agency may be instructed NOT to deal with rude or offensive customers.

Once your complaint is in process:

* Don't delay providing any additional information that is requested.

* Follow the exact directions for procedures and filling out forms.

* Let the company know immediately of any new developments, such as, the product was repaired or is working, a new problem has developed.

When you are experiencing Heart Attack Symptoms,

The average person experiencing the symptoms of a heart attack will wait at least 3 hours before getting help. Three hours that can mean the difference between recovery and permanent disability. The difference between life and death.

Don't Let The Symptoms Fool You

Some of the telltale signs of a heart attack are similar to common ailments that we don't take very seriously like indigestion, nausea, heartburn or fatigue. But while you're taking the time to see if that antacid will work, your heart may be in danger.

When a heart attack occurs, the blood flow to the heart is blocked. Each and every moment that your heart is starved of oxygen, the muscle is damaged, permanently.

Get To The Closest Emergency Room As Quickly As Possible

If you're experiencing any of the symptoms of a heart attack, don't waste precious time, and above all, don't attempt to drive to another city for treatment. The most important thing you can do is get to your local hospital emergency room immediately, before it's too late.

A Network Of Cardiac Care Professionals

Seymour Hospital Authority has taken an important step in improving the care we can provide for heart attack victims. We've joined the Cardiac Emergency Network at Bethania Regional Health Care Center in Wichita Falls.

It's a network that links community hospitals with heart specialists and the advanced cardiac care facilities at Bethania. Together, we'll make the most of this crucial time for our heart patients.

Important information about your condition will be transmitted to the cardiac care professionals who are part of the Cardiac Emergency Network. With your doctor and a cardiologist on Bethania's staff, some very important decisions will be made. The latest lifesaving drugs can be administered and aggressive treatment measures taken that can be the key to heart attack survival.

So don't wait, if you even suspect that you or someone you love might be suffering from the symptoms of a heart attack, get to the emergency room at Seymour Hospital Authority as quickly as possible. With the Cardiac Emergency Network, not a moment of precious time will be wasted. And when it comes to a heart attack moments can mean a lifetime.

Heart Attack Symptoms

- Pain or discomfort in the chest that may spread to the shoulders, arms, neck or jaw. Discomfort can last minutes or even hours.
- Pain accompanied by sweating, nausea or vomiting, weakness or fainting.
- Chest pain that starts in any type of stressful situation. An exciting ball game, argument, or sudden shock may trigger pain, but often there is no obvious cause.
- Warning signs may be preceded by several days of chest discomfort or not feeling well.
- Heart attacks can occur with no symptoms at all. It is important to become educated about maintaining a healthy heart and see your doctor regularly to detect any problems before permanent damage can occur.

Latham Gains Stock Show Notoriety

Bryan Latham and his award-winning Simmental "super cow" were recently the subject of Joe Brown's column in the Wichita Falls Times/Record News.

According to Brown, Rob Brown, owner of the R.A. Brown Ranch in Throckmorton County, was trying to breed a "supercow", or one that had all the desirable traits.

As the story goes, Rob Brown sold one of his Simmental heifers to 16-year-old Bryan Latham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ruddy Latham. After months of feeding and caring for the heifer, Bryan took the animal back for breeding.

This past fall Latham showed the heifer at junior livestock shows in King County, Haskell County and Knox County. She was champion at each show. The heifer was entered in the Wichita Falls Beef Show in February, but when Latham arrived for the show, the heifer was "in labor" with a calf. Mother and daughter were healthy, but unable to show.

Disappointed that he couldn't show his animal at Wichita, Latham entered his cow in the Houston Stock Show and Rodeo in March. According to a release from the Houston Show, Simmental entries outnumbered every other breed in the junior breeding show this year. When it was all over, Bryan's cow out-classed them all.

The show judge said the junior yearling cow had done a tremendous job of holding together her femininity and soundness after giving birth only weeks before. Her "baby" showed in the ring with her.

Bryan, who has been showing animals since he was 9 years old, plans to show the baby calf in next year's show.

To add icing to the cake, Latham's cow and calf pair were named best female in the junior Simmental show. Bryan also showed a steer and lamb at Houston and made the sale with both.

He Is Alive!

By Rev. Wayne Varnell-
First Baptist Church, Goree

I heard a story about a preacher who met up with a man on the streets of a big city. The man was obviously down and out.

The man asked the preacher for some money. Instead of giving him cash, the preacher took him into a restaurant and bought him a meal.

During the meal the Christian shared with the man about Christ and salvation. Then he asked the man if he would like to be saved. The man responded in the negative. He said he didn't want to become a Christian because he would have to give up too much.

It does cost a lot to be a Christian, but have you ever considered what it costs not to be a Christian? It can cost you your family, your job, your reputation, and it will cost you your eternal destiny.

Are you willing to turn from your sin and to trust in the person Jesus Christ to save you for heaven and give you a full life now? You can! He is Alive!

Weinert News

By Mrs. Myrtle Phemister

The weather in Weinert was beautiful on Monday, and made us forget the severe wind we have endured the past few days and the late freeze we experienced last week.

We had three tenths of an inch of rain, and we need much more to revitalize the wheat and get things green and growing. The old mesquites are still cautious about things, so we may have more cold in store for us. The birds are here, though, and who wants to write when there are red birds to watch and mocking birds to listen to?

COMING EVENTS

Pat Rowan of Haskell, Don Rowan of Grand Prairie and Leonard and Linda Mahan of Weinert request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their children, Cathy Lee Rowan and Leonard Mahan III, as they exchange wedding vows Saturday, April 22, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon at the Weinert Church of Christ.

A reception and shower will follow immediately after at the Weinert Community Center.

REVIVAL

April 23 through the 28 at 8 p.m. each day, the Weinert Baptist Church invites everyone to be their guest as Dr. E. Wilford Howell preaches for a revival.

Dr. Howell, a native of Rule, received his education at Hardin Simmons and at the Southwestern Theological Seminary before spending twenty years as a missionary to Nigeria, Africa. He will use many African illustrations throughout the week's revival, and one night will show pictures of Africa.

Ford Cole, music director for the First Baptist Church in Haskell, will direct the singing and urges everyone to attend.

VISITORS

Arch and Eddie Lou Mayfield of Plainview were in Weinert to visit his parents, J. A. and Laverne Mayfield, and to welcome his aunt and uncle, Laverne and Bud Hummel of Sterling, Illinois, and their daughter, Jeanie Kay Rhodes, and Max of Norman Oklahoma.

Other guests in the Mayfield home were their daughters, Evelyn Ricketts of Dallas and Alexia Rimmer and Adrienne Wynn of De Soto.

While here, Evelyn participated in a drug abuse program presented to the Progressive Study Club in Haskell, with the help of Kimberly Guess, a cousin. The girls were interviewed for a radio program by Joel Fox of KVRP.

On Saturday night, the family gathered in the home of H. L. and Sarah Guess, and were joined by all the kith and kin here, with Chan and Rita Hughes of Munday and Cindy Murriel of Arlington, who spent the weekend with her grandmother, Mildred Guess.

On Sunday, a group motored to Abilene where Alexia sang at the Westminster Presbyterian Church, in memory of Uncle Bo Furrh. They later visited Uncle Bo's wife, Mary, and daughter Keith Louise Dodd, before parting to go their separate ways home.

Faye Crawford and Sue Alexander of San Antonio, and Audra and Bob Schindler of Abilene were weekend guests of their mother, Bertie Alexander.

Bertie hopes all her children will be home for Mother's Day, when she will be celebrating her 87th birthday.

Crucia Sherman, Shannon Stephens and Cathy Rowan and son, Bryan Joseph, all of Haskell, were guests in the home of the Leonard Mahans on Sunday and attended worship services at the Church of Christ.

Dr. Troy Culpepper of Haskell was pulpit speaker at the Weinert Baptist Church on Sunday. He will serve as interim pastor for the church here until one is called to replace Donnie Crump, who has moved to Crowell to pastor the church there.

Mr. and Mrs. Queston Greer of Snyder are here to help Rex and Tina Herricks while Tinka is recuperating from a back injury she incurred in a freak accident while changing bed linens. (No more will she be changing sheets - that will be Rex's task?)

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Shulve of Salina, Kansas, were visitors to Weinert for the weekend, and Steve was guest speaker on Sunday at the Foursquare Gospel Church.

OUT OF TOWN

The Weinert Home Extension Club members were in attendance at the district meeting of the Texas Extension Homemakers Association held at the Haskell Civic Center last week.

The Weinert club was responsible for all the decorations, and they used the bluebonnet theme throughout, with baskets of hand-made bead bluebonnets on the tables, and containers of real ones elsewhere.

Invocation was given by Alice Yates and all the county members, dressed in blue denim skirts, white blouses and red bandana neckerchiefs, served as hostesses. 175 ladies from 21 counties were in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Ulmer of Sager-ton hosted the staff and board of directors of the Soil and Water Conservation District to the Sager-ton HecHaw program on Friday night. It was the 19th anniversary of the community program, and the "amateurs" are beginning to act and look like professional comedians.

Those attending from Weinert were Mr. and Mrs. David Sikes and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Phemister.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Sanders were in Brady for the weekend in the home of their daughter, Janice and Randy Boatright. Janice teaches in the Brady school, and Randy runs the Davenport drilling rig.

Donald and Gracie Griffis attended the Texas Cotton Ginners Association Convention held at the Lubbock Civic Center last week.

They were accompanied by Bobby and Betty Raynes, and Donald and Bobby entered the golf tournament held on Wednesday before the convention started. They won no prizes, but Donald's name was drawn for $100 during the convention.

While in Lubbock they visited their daughters, Donna and Darla, at Texas Tech.

Alton and Mildred Sanders returned Sunday night from an inspirational Lay Renewal weekend held at the First Baptist Church in Burleson April 14-16.

On April 9 thru 11, they were in Hobbs, NM with the Belvue Baptist Church there, also for a Lay Renewal weekend. Mildred serves as director for children, and Alton is director of music.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to Cal and Peggy Leuning, former pastor of the Foursquare Church now residing in North Hollywood, California, upon the birth of their first son, Ryan George, who arrived on April 13 to bless the family, along with sisters, Heather and Jennifer. He weighed 8 pounds and was 20 inches tall.

Congratulations to Tina Herricks for the gold and bronze medals she helped her school win at the recent track meet. Tina won first in the sprint in district and third in the mile relay. She was fifth in all-around. Her team is qualified to compete at regional. She is a sophomore student at Rochester, and the daughter of Rex and Tinka Herricks.

Congratulations to Kenny Forchard and the Munday Moguls who won the district track meet held at Knox City on Friday, girls and boys.

Kenny won fifth in the 2 mile. We are proud of him.

Congratulations to Mark and Kim Stewart who have purchased a home in Munday and will be moving soon. We regret their leaving Weinert!

Their home here is up for sale, and we hope a family with several elementary students will purchase it.

Our birthday people this week include Kenny Forchard, Tina Herricks, Erma Liles, Thelma Edwards, Debbie Crump and Doris Walker. Happy birthday, all!

Food for thought: Four things come not back - the spoken word, the sped arrow, the past life and the neglected opportunity!

Have a nice day!

Household Work Covered By SS

If you hire someone to help with spring cleaning, it is likely you will need to pay Social Security taxes for the work, according to Frances Braden, resident representative of the Vernon Social Security office.

Any time you pay a household worker $50 or more in a three-month calendar quarter, the work is covered by social security. According to tax laws, you have the responsibilities of an employer/employee relationship.

This means, among other things, that you need to ask to see the worker's social security card. Copy the worker's name and social security number as it is shown on the card. You will need the worker's home address, too, so you can send the W-2 form at the end of the year. If work stops before the end of the year, you can give the worker the W-2 form personally at the end of the employment period.

You need to deduct FICA taxes (7.51 percent in 1989) from the employees' wages and pay an equal amount as the employer's share of FICA taxes. The taxes must be submitted to the Internal Revenue Service within a month after a quarter ends on IRS Form 942 (Employer's Quarterly Tax Return for Household Employees).

If you have questions about any of the IRS tax forms, contact the Internal Revenue Service for assistance. Questions about social security coverage should be directed to the social security office. Ask for Factsheet Number 11, "Household Workers." The toll-free telephone number is 1-800-234-SSA or 1-800-234-5772.

The Lord's Corner

By Dr. Pete Bradfield, Pastor
First Baptist Church

Find a tennis ball and hold it several feet above the floor. Let go, and observe the result. Does the ball hit the floor, or float lazily to the ceiling?

Unless you live under water, the ball will drop, obeying one of physics' strictest laws: the law of gravity. You live each day under the influence of that law.

Just as there are laws of physics that govern the physical universe, so God has established spiritual and moral laws to govern your relationship with Him. Careless indifference to those laws brings consequences just as swift and severe as neglect of God's physical laws.

See you next week and remember: a man's worst difficulties begin when he presumes to do as he likes.

Kerry King Participates In Landscaping Competition

Kerry King, a freshman at Western Texas College in Snyder, participated in the national Landscaping Competition in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. He was among the top fifteen students at his college eligible to go. There were 3500 college and university students from all over the United States at the competition.

Kerry won a plaque for third place in repair of small engines, a fourth place in patio construction and an eighth place in bidding and estimating on landscaping a yard.

The ten day trip included a visit to the Missouri Botanical Gardens and other places of interest in St. Louis, Missouri and some beautiful gardens and tourist attractions in Memphis and Nashville, Tennessee.

Kerry is the son of Jerry and Sandy King of Munday.
