Amanda Myers started the third with a "nothin' but net" crowd pleaser in the third as the Mogulettes came out and proved that they intended to dominate this one tonight. Munday's girls did just that, they dominated every aspect of the game. Defensively, Petrolia tried to go over the top with some long court passes to break the full court press of the Mogulettes, but Keisha Collier was there to tip the ball away every time. Even the bounce of the ball favored the Mogulettes on this night as no matter where they were, the Mogulettes managed to be in position to out rebound, out hustle and out play the Lady Pirates from one end of the court to the other.

Munday's Mogulettes just out matched Petrolia in every way imaginable. From the opening tip to the outside shooting of Nicole Urbanczyk, to rebounding and hustle of Laci Myers and Keisha Collier, to the ball handling and cool shooting of Miranda Zeissel and Amanda Myers, the Mogulettes just couldn't be beat. Those coming off the bench were quick to make contributions as well. Keramie Brown did a great job again platooning with Joann Thomas at post. Erica Gray, Megan Myers and Amber Reed along with Jessy Carlson got ample playing time as coach Guise did a great job subbing his starters without losing any momentum.

All in all it was a good night for Munday basketball as the Mogulettes cranked up their level of play for the hometown fans, and showed everyone why they belong in the hunt for the district 22A title.

The Mogulettes had four shooters in double figures, Keisha Collier with 20, Nicole Urbanczyk with 14, Amanda Myers with 13, and Laci Myers with 12. Keramie Brown and Joann Thomas both had 4 points, and Erica Gray had Lampkins also, as a part of the agreement, agreed to forfeit to the State his 1987 Ford pickup, $2,777.00 cash in his possession when he was arrested, as well as four firearms also found in his possession when he was arrested. Three other indictments pending Carolyn Jones, Alton Jones, against him were dismissed. Lampkins was represented by Attorney Andrew Ottaway of Mitchell, William Mahorney,

Both Poteet and Lampkins agreed to waive any right to appeal their convictions.

While Rodriguez agreed to plead guilty to selling methamphetamine to an undercover officer, he held out for probation since he had no prior Office and the 50th Judicial felony convictions. District Attorney Neal refused to agree to probation, and so the defendant, through his attorney, elected to have a jury set his punishment.

He also added that "slapping this dope dealer on Norman Lampkins, 39, of the wrist" with a probation would deterrent to other would-be dope dealers. The jury retired to deliberate late Tuesday afternoon, and after deliberating for approximately 45 minutes, returned with a 10-year prison sentence, thus refusing the defendant's request for probation. Judge Hajek then pronounced the 10-year sentence to Rodriguez. Members of the jury were: Brenda Long, Faye Sparks, Willie Ellis, Jimmye Taylor, Wayburn

If the Mogulettes can steal this one away from the Lady Trojans, they will be in the drivers seat for at least a share of the title, if the Moguls win, they will be able to win the district outright with a repeat victory over the Pirates in Petrolia on Tuesday.

The Mogulettes are 3 and 1 in district and the Moguls are a perfect 4 and 0 heading into this weekend's competition.

Just as the nation is planning a World War II Veterans' Memorial, Knox County Historical Commission has a vision to honor the dedicated men and women of Knox County who served in our country's armed forces beginning with the Civil War. Approximately 2000 dedicated individuals from Knox County devoted their lives to our freedom during times of war, conflicts and peace.

Knox County Commissioners Court has set aside a location for this monument just east of the county court house bordered by the Lubbock highway and highway 6. Willis Granite Monument of Granite, Oklahoma has submitted the bid and design the memorial committee hopes to implement.

Following is a tentative list of veterans obtained from the County Clerk's office. The Commission will be grateful for other eligible names to be submitted to the Knox County Historical Commission, PO Box 77, Benjamin, Texas 79505.

The Commission hopes to obtain any war related biographical data for each name on the list such as war, rank, branch of service, to be sent to the above address. It is hoped this data will become a computer reference bank to be located in the Knox County Courthouse.

"Honoring Those Who Have Served ... "

Knox County Historical Commission has a vision to honor the dedicated men and women of ~ox County who served in our country's armed forces throughout the centuries. Approximately 2000 dedicated individuals from Knox County devoted their lives to our freedom during times of war, conflicts, and peace. It is our responsibility as Americans to honor these loyal men and women.

Knox County Historical Commission has developed a plan to honor the service men and women of Knox County. The outlined monument in the enclosure is scheduled for completion with dedication ceremonies planned for Veterans Day, November 11, 2000. However, the estimated cost of the monument and its groundwork is $50,000. Please help our organization pay a lasting tribute to these individuals who served our country. Your financial assistance is needed to achieve our goal.
