Senior Class News

The Seniors are progressing very rapidly in economics, and they really think they know what they have covered.

We have been working hard in bookkeeping and we are about to finish the book.

One of the teachers seems to have a new nickname about every week for the Seniors. This week it was "apes."

Alma—I can just smell lilacs all over.
Bernice—I smell feet.
Alma (not understanding)—I like 'em.

Alma says that some day she is going to pop open. Really pop, Alma?

The Seniors looked rather sleepy Friday. We wonder where they could have gone the night before?

Junior boy—I'm glad you're so impressed, dear, by all these explanations I have been giving you about banking and currency.

Junior girl—Yes, darling. It seems wonderful that anybody could know as much as you do about money without having any.

Junior Report

After Alma came back from a neighboring town Friday morning, we had to watch her like a hawk, because her head was swimming round and round. We were afraid that she would float right out of the window.

We have been wondering why Cletus has such a squeaky voice after he has been into some mischief.

Since two ex-Seniors have done such a grand job in entertaining our teachers, we ask them to try it again.

Seniors News

Some of the Seniors are getting 'poetical'—so here goes . . .

Take Life As It Comes

How goes the world to you—my friend
Does the sun always shine on you?
How are the paths which you have to wend?
Do they cover up and make blue?
Life means a long and toilsome road
With everyone . . . burdens to share
As you trudge along help someone with their load.
Show the world you have pride and care.

We are what we make ourselves
Fate plays her glided hand
In it we fall, and ask no encore
Stand up! Take it like a man!

Do you always look forward—
and never see turns
That may be the things in your way
Do you go without falter, until you have learned
That fighting the odds doesn't pay.

As we journey along with all our strife
Don't sit by the wayside and pout
Look from left to right . . . to the bright side of life.
For that is the only way out.
Always . . . S. N.

Baseball Picnic

The baseball girls finally got a day that the sand wasn't blowing and went on the picnic they had planned on for so long.

They went to Knox City park Friday evening. Until dark they played tennis, croquet, and skated, and at dusk they all marched into the park grounds and ate their supper.

Later they went to the lawn of Mrs. Cash's where they played various games. Mrs. Underwood played popular songs and all of the group joined in with the singing.

Here are the ones who went on this enjoyable trip: Dora Jane Burton, Frances Walling, Gena Beth Griffith, Edna Hardin, Glyndolin Frost, Edna Earl Russell, Coy Dickens, Bernice Henderson, Wynell Lowrey, Jeannette Partridge, Juanita Rogers, Miss Phillips, Mrs. Underwood, Raymond Hardin, Gaynelle Phillips, Mrs. Henderson, and Miss Hutton, coach.

They wish to take this opportunity to thank Raymond Hardin and Mrs. Bill Henderson for taking their cars.

The girls are organizing for the next year's team. They are going to be harder to beat than ever.

Freshmen Planning Picnic

The Freshmen are planning a picnic for Friday night, to be held at Seymour Park. This is the first picnic they have had, the other entertainments all being parties. You may well realize they will have a good time.

Dear Diary:

Just in case you know all about everything, I shall tend to give you a spill about some of these "chilluns" that do and say so much when they don't know it's being recorded in my diary.

Just in case . . . well, Evelyn remarked in Home Ec class the other day that flowers were blooming in Haskell!! And about Rachel, well, she always did have a hard time making up her mind? I wonder. Just in common, Agnes sorta made someone angry Saturday night talking about music (?) or sumpin' and dear diary, would you believe it? Jeannette Partridge was so happy over the week-end!! And Ruby and Lona Rea must have had something "up their sleeves." Certain things can happen, you know, that make you sorta "cheer up!" Well, for further details see Cleta. You know the weather is forever changing, but diary, did you ever know that humans could change so often? It seems that especially one of these girls in the Senior class has decidedly changed her opinion about a certain thing since Saturday night! Ah, come on, Nellie, quit keepin' us in suspense—or does she believe in dreams? Dear diary, is it a sin to snoop around? But really I did find out that Jo was so-o-o sorry she didn't get to see her visitor Sunday afternoon! And about that "bummas," well, she is rather "absolute in her planning." At least the two "big events" she has planned have "folded. Cheer on! Peggy, after all a "time" does eventually roll around.

Dear diary, I do hate to leave you, 'cause I love you so much, but I must, until next week, say—
Adios.
Snoopy, the eavesdrooper!

Sure Signs Of Spring

Spring is here when motorists dig out the road maps and lay their plans for seeking the "open road," and sailors the country over begin their annual "fitting-out" activities, preparing sleek water craft for the first jaunt of the season. Here Skipper Ted Skinner begins operations under the watchful eye of Miss Tony Clark, who motored down to the boatyard in her new 1940 Chevrolet.

Many Here For Band Festival Last Friday

Four Bands in Concert On Friday Night

The band festival which was held here last Friday afternoon and evening was the means of bringing many people to Munday for the afternoon.

Visiting band members began gathering here at noon Friday, with the parade slated for four o'clock. The bands assembled at the high school and paraded through the business section of town. Four colorful, uniformed bands paraded including Olney, Archer City, Knox City and Munday. Seymour's band failed to be here for the event.

Possibly the oldest band in the parade with Knox City's colorful band which showed the results of being well trained as they paraded the streets of Munday.

Friday night at the school auditorium, the four bands were featured in a massed concert with over 100 instruments being featured. A somewhat smaller crowd than was expected was in attendance, but this did not alter the splendid performance of these four bands playing as one organization.

Numbers played by the bands were: Activity March by Martin, Normal March by Slaughter, Victory March by Wheeler; American Beauty Waltz, Little Bluebell Overture and Booster March, by Slaughter; two selected numbers, a special by the Olney band, Aunt Hannah March, Morning Festival Overture and Three Bears, speciality by Wheeler; special number by Archer City, Footlifter March, the Elvex Overture and Our Director March by Martin. The Munday Choral Club, under the direction of Miss Gentry, also had a part on the program.

Gossett Bill Passes in House

Washington, D.C., April 1, 1940.—The House of Representatives today passed a bill by Congressman Ed Gossett entitled "A Bill to provide for the transfer of United States prisoners in certain cases."

Mr. Gossett told the House of Representatives that his bill sought to secure closer cooperation by the Federal government with the States in the matter of law enforcement and that the bill would "plug a big hole in our defense against crime." Under this bill Federal prisoners will be brought back to states demanding them for trial on felony indictments or to serve sentences for felony convictions.

In his statement to the House of Representatives, Mr. Gossett referred to the case of a former sheriff of Ford county, Texas, Que R. Miller, who was sentenced to the Texas penitentiary in 1934 for misapplication of public funds.

Gossett stated: "Ex-sheriff Miller was released from a Federal penitentiary in Atlanta in December of 1935 and even though he was wanted in Texas to complete service on three convictions and to answer several indictments of felonies, Texas was unable to secure his return. Had this bill been the law, Que Miller would have been returned to Texas by the Federal Government for the completion of his Texas sentences."

Mrs. L. V. Reeves of Weinert was in town Saturday.
