TWENTY-FIVE SENIORS TO GET DIPLOMAS

Scholastic Census for 1940 Shows Decline From 1939 in Knox County

With a decline in students being shown in practically every school district of Knox county, the 1940 scholastic census recently completed shows fewer students of school age than in 1939.

According to records compiled by County Supt. Merick McGaughey, the number of children of school age declined during the past year by 142. The 1939 census showed 2,871 scholastics in the county, while the 1940 census, completed last week, shows 2,729 scholastics.

"While there are a few who have moved out of the county," Mr. McGaughey said, "the records show that more students have passed the free school age of 18 than have come into the minimum of 6 years of age."

Records of Mr. McGaughey give the comparison of scholastics during the two years, as follows:

Special emphasis is being placed on CCC applications this month because Knox county's quota for July will be based on the number of applications received during May. It is important that all boys interested in entering the CCC make application this month so Knox county may have her share of the July quota.

What He Does For His Community Lives On and On"—

COST OF ARMAMENTS

It is difficult to realize what a crushing economic burden war and preparations for war are placing on the peoples of the world, to say nothing of the terrible sacrifices of human lives which war entails.

We think and rightly, that the expenditures being made for national defense by our own country are enormous, but relatively they are small compared with those of other great powers. This is illustrated by an estimate given in the United States News, which compares military expenditures of various nations with their national income. It says: "Where the United States devotes less than 3 per cent of national income to defense, Britain is devoting 30 per cent, Japan 20 per cent, France 40 per cent, and Germany as much as 50 per cent."

No estimates are given for Russia, Italy or other nations, but it is known that all are making expenditures for armaments far greater than ever before. And in every one still heavier burdens will be laid on the peoples as the theatres of war are extended, as now seems inevitable.

Appalling as this is, the situation must be faced by every nation, however much its people may desire peace. Even the most ardent pacifist can now realize that the United States must arm mightily for national defense—and we may as well prepare to pay the price.—Haskell Free Press.

It's an old story. Prof. Casper J. Kraemer of New York University has translated a manuscript written in Greek in papyrus, found in Palestine not long ago. The writing dates from 689 A.D., and is a call for a mass meeting of "men unable to bear the burden of taxation."

SPENDING BLITZKREIG

The United States is at peace. Great Britain is at war.

In the coming fiscal year Great Britain's local and national government will spend 10 billion dollars. During the same period, government—federal, state and local—in the United States will cost well over 19 billion dollars!

Nation at war for its life—10 billion dollars for government spending—Nation at peace—19 billions! Of course our population is three times as large as that of Great Britain. Allowance can be made for that, and the figures still remain startling in their implications, for it is well to remember that the British bill—still much smaller than ours—is two and a half times what it was in pre-war days.

Can it be that government in this country has declared war, too—war on economy and on the poor, defenseless taxpayer?

DON'T STOP ON THE PAVEMENT

By Capt. Chas. Lindsay
Texas Safety Council

When you have car trouble on the highway, push your car off the pavement to one side.

Death lurks for the occupants of a stalled car on the concrete slab.

We recently had an example of what could happen. On a heavily traveled highway on the outskirts of one of the State's largest cities, a car ran out of gasoline. While the driver was seeking a supply his wife remained in the car.

Along came a drunken driver and ran into the stalled car. He overturned it and pinned the woman occupant beneath. Fortunately she was not killed, but this would happen in very few cases.

It is true the driver who collided with this car was said to be drunk. That aggravated the situation. But, especially at night, even a sober, careful driver might collide with a stalled car on the concrete, standing there without lights.

"It is not always the driver who runs into the other car who is to blame. The other driver owes the obligation of driving safely, taking all precautions and observing the rules of the road, stated Pierce Brooks, president of the council.

Texas must deal more severely with its drunken drivers. Their driver's licenses must be cancelled, and after an offense or two this should be permanent.

A fine will not suffice. The driver must be publicized in his own community. What could be more humiliating than to own a highpowered automobile and be unable to drive it? What father would relish the idea of having his son for an enforced chauffeur, all because he had imbibed a little too freely and had caused an accident?

"Industry today is characterized by the rapid introduction of new and simpler methods of making things in the mass by machines. . . . In spite of Senator O'Mahoney's fear that unemployment would destroy the market for goods produced in mass, experience has shown that mass production by machinery has lowered costs to such an extent that goods once regarded as luxuries are now within reach of people of all means and that, in the end, far more labor is employed.

"It was true a hundred years or more ago in the case of shoes, which only a small number of people then could afford. It has been true during recent years in the case of the automobile. Yet the improvement of machines continues every day, so fast that it is hard to keep up with it."—From the Baltimore Evening Sun.

Having the right of way doesn't help much when there is a fool at the wheel of the other car.

PROGRESS, POLITICS AND CONFUSION

America, the most inventive and enterprising of nations, has turned its attention this year to paying a long-deserved tribute to its inventors. The formal occasion is the 150th anniversary of the founding of the United States Patent System. The reason for the praises being sung is evident—if it hadn't been for our inventors, and the encouragement provided them by our patent system, America would not have today its high standard of living, the envy of the whole world.

Industry was the first group in this country to honor the inventor, through a series of "Modern Pioneer Celebrations" held throughout the land during the month of February. This month, the government got in step with an "Inventors' and Patent" day, and it showed sound judgment in calling on Dr. Charles F. Kettering, president of General Motors Corporation and a brilliant inventor in his own right, to head the special committee arranging the dinner, at which past progress and the brilliant promise of America's industrial future were both strongly emphasized.

Recognition on the part of the government of the importance of these matters is a welcome sign at this time. Unfortunately, it must also be added that it does not follow the trend of political thinking these days.

On the one hand, we see Washington celebrating current activities of industrial research, wonders are beginning to unfold—the use of energy, bitter attacks on invention, industry and the machine. It's like knocking a man down in the dust and then picking him up, brushing off his coat, telling him that he's the best friend you have in the world.

Isn't it about time that government considered letting its right hand know what its left hand is doing, in the interests of the 130,000,000 Americans who deserve and want to see continued industrial progress in this country?

CAN'T IT HAPPEN HERE?

Nation after nation in Europe has fallen victim to the same technique. Norway is the latest to suffer. Even as these words appear in print, Holland or Rumania and other small countries have seen their fears justified and follow in the footsteps of Poland and the others.

Adolph Hitler described the technique years ago in his book, "My Battle." He would conquer nations, he boasted, by establishing and encouraging enemies within their own borders, enemies who would betray their countries at the critical moment for their own real or imagined gain.

Americans can learn an object lesson from the bitter experiences of the little lands of Europe. There are those in this country who consider the activities of the Dies Committee, and all other efforts to root out subversive activities in the United States, a mere political gesture and a waste of time. These people insist on wearing mental earmuffs and blinders in any kind of weather. They are willing to shout, in the face of all evidence to the contrary, that "It can't happen here."

Saner citizens, genuinely prizing the liberties we in this country enjoy, are not inclined to string along with this attitude. They believe rather that ounces of prevention are far better than tons and tons of the kind of "cure" now being forced upon many nations of the globe because their complacent citizens were satisfied to say, "Oh, why worry? It can't happen here!"

Since 1870, the number of Americans employed in distributing goods has increased almost 9 times and the total wages now paid them amount to almost 6 billion dollars a year.

Forty per cent of the corn marketed by the American farmer is purchased by industry to be made by industry into starches, paints, artificial plastics, and numerous other products.

A job in one industry creates jobs in other industries. For every 10 men employed in making steel, 5 are kept at work supplying them with raw materials.

As a guest on the "Information Please," radio program, Edna Ferber failed to identify a passage from her own novel, "Show Boat." She explained: "I've always meant to read that book, but I never seem to have the time."

THEY SAY!

"There is always someone to believe that end has come. But the frontiers ahead are greater than any which opened up to previous generations. There is no end as long as we provide incentives for invention and for the development of new ideas as our American patent system has done so well for 150 years."—George E. Folk, economic consultant.

"The decision as to whether the president shall run for a third term does not rest with him at all, but must be made by the people of the country."—Elliott Roosevelt.

WILL WOMEN WEAR 'EM?
Cotton hose for women, which have been practically taboo for more than a decade, may come back again! That is, if Uncle Sam's interest in the matter is accepted by the feminine public.

Under recent legislation designed to stimulate the use of cotton in women's cotton hosiery, the Bureau of Home Economics of the USDA has already designed and released to the trade 56 types of full-fashioned hose. The hosiery industry, too, has shown its willingness to cooperate, and one or more of the bureau's designs are to be manufactured and placed on the market in the near future.

Mrs. Dora R. Barnes, clothing specialist for the A. and M. College Extension Service, believes that if cotton hose are as ultrasmart, as serviceable and attractive and as comfortable as silk hose, there's no reason why the buying public will not accept them.

The government designs submitted to manufacturers range from plain knits to ultra-smart designs with mesh heels and toes and other style features for wear with dress shoes and sandals. Some have two-way stretch welts, and all are carefully designed to insure trim fit and greater elasticity than the old cotton stockings. Many of these hose have already gone through laboratory tests for abrasion, stretch, elasticity, and tensile strength.

Yarns for the hose were spun from American-grown, long staple cotton, and to give smoothness and luster were gassed and mercerized. Though experimentally knit to the specifications of the Bureau of Home Economics, all these designs were made on modern hosiery machines—the same kind used for manufacturing silk or rayon hose.

in some newspaper published in your County, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in the nearest County where a newspaper is published, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Knox County, to be held at the Court House thereof, in Benjamin, Texas, on the First Monday in June A.D. 1940, the same being the 3rd day of June A.D. 1940, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 13th day of October A.D. 1939, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 4049, wherein E. A. Hutchens is Plaintiff, and Mrs. Fannie R. Noble, Charles Noble, O. M. Harper, K. A. Harper and Fannie Mae Jordan, a feme sole, are Defendants, and a brief statement of plaintiff's cause of action, being as follows:

Plaintiff alleges that on the 24th day of September, A.D. 1934, the defendant, Fannie R. Noble, whose name was at said time Fannie R. Harper, executed and delivered to the defendant, O. M. Harper, her certain Vendor Lien note for the principal sum of Two Hundred Fifty ($250.00) Dollars, due November 1, 1935, bearing interest from date at the rate of 8 per cent per annum and that said note was given to said O. M. Harper as a part of his interest in the following described land situated in Knox County, to wit:

Being all of the undivided interest of O. M. Harper in and to 160 acres of land and being what is known as Subdivision No. 10 of the original Survey No. 5, Certificate No. 11, Abstract No. 25, David G. Barnett lands in said county:

That on the 30th day of April, 1935, the defendant, Fannie R. Noble, whose name was at said time Fannie R. Harper, executed and delivered to the defendant, K. A. Harper, her two certain Vendor Lien notes, each for the principal sum of Two Hundred Fifty ($250) Dollars, one being due on November 1, 1936, and one November 1, 1937, bearing interest from date at the rate of 10 per cent per annum and that said notes were given to said K. A. Harper as part of the purchase price of all of his interest in and to the tract of land above described. Plaintiff alleges that he is now the legal and equitable owner of said notes; that said O. M. Harper and K. A. Harper have guaranteed the payment of same and that he by virtue of said notes has a valid Vendor Lien against the interests of said O. M. Harper and K. A. Harper in the above described land. That the defendant, Charles Noble, is the husband of Fannie R. Noble, and the defendant, Fannie Mae Jordan, a feme sole, is claiming some kind of interest in said land which is inferior to the interest of the plaintiff and the plaintiff seeks a judgment for the amount of his debt and a foreclosure of the Vendor Lien as against all of the defendants against the interest of O. M. Harper and K. A. Harper in said land.

Herein fail not but have before said Court, at its next regular term, this writ with your return executed the same.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Benjamin, Texas, on this 23rd day of April A.D. 1940.

This week we can announce that our Mortuary Funds have passed the $20,000.00 mark. The Mortuary Fund is the reserve fund from which nothing but death claims can be paid.

Do you not think that this strong reserve is indisputable evidence that our protection is absolutely safe? Certainly, we could never have accumulated this $20,000.00 had our rates and methods not been right.

There are but two things to safe life insurance: the RATES you charge and the RISKS you take.

The low rates that you have paid have proved to be adequate.

We have been careful to investigate all applications before issuing policies and have accepted only good risks; thus we have kept our death rate low.

Mattress Program is Expanded to All Texas; Approved for Knox

Play Outfit

Two hundred and fifty-two of the 254 counties in Texas may take advantage of the government's mattress program for low income families under an expansion plan announced this week by Miss Mildred Horton, vice-director and state home demonstration agent for the Extension Service of Texas A. and M. College.

Previously the program had been limited to the 187 counties with county home demonstration agents. Now, however, county agricultural agents will be responsible for informing the public about the program in counties without county home demonstration agents. Training of supervisors for the mattress making centers will be directed by district agents in charge of home demonstration work.

"This would make it possible for every eligible family in Texas to know about the program and have opportunity to make application for mattress making materials," Miss Horton commented in announcing expansion of the program.

Heretofore, when 120 applications for mattress making materials had been certified for a county by the county agricultural conservation committee, cotton was shipped from the Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation in 12 bale lots. Under a later ruling, however, the FSOC has agreed to ship cotton in less than 12 bale lots and ticking in less than one-bale lots in a county where less than 120 applications are filed or where smaller shipments of cotton and ticking are necessary to complete the project in a county. These "clean-up" orders will be limited to one for each county, so that orders will be withheld until officials are certain that all eligible families who desire to apply have done so, according to information received by the State AAA office.

Miss Horton indicated that to date 92 counties have been approved for participation in the program. Those not previously announced include: Anderson, Atascosa, Bexar, Brazoria, Caldwell, Cherokee, Coleman, Colorado, Crosby, Cooke, DeWitt, Falls, Gillespie, Hale, Hardin, Harris, Henderson, Jasper, Karnes, Knox, Lubbock, Lynn, Marion, Milam, Mitchell, Palo Pinto, Red River, San Augustine, Taylor, Travis, Wichita, Wilbarger, Wood, Young.

An estimated 2,500 mattresses have been made in the demonstration counties, including Ellis county, which has reported 722 through the first week in May. Applications of 2,498 Ellis county families have already been certified by the AAA committee, so that at least 250 bales of cotton will be consumed in the mattress making program of that county.

Munday Faculty Enjoys Outing At Lake Kemp

Members of the faculty of the Munday Public Schools enjoyed an outing and fishing trip at Lake Kemp last Friday night and Saturday. This was an outing which was begun last year, and which it is hoped to make an annual affair for the teachers.

All teachers in the Munday school system attended the outing, with the exception of Ford Allen, who spent the week end with home folks in Abilene. They had plenty of fish to eat, and most of them spent several hours at fishing.

They returned home Saturday, expressing their hopes that this annual trip would be continued. Guests on the trip were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pendleton.

The Munday library was opened in 1939, and many books have been added to its shelves, some by donations and others being purchased from available funds.

It was announced at the meeting Friday that the program for 1940-41 season will be centered around present day American writers.

Brunette Beauties Get Judges' Votes

Brunettes led this year for the second straight time in the beauty selection at Texas State College for Women, where not a single blonde girl won a beauty page in the college's 1939 yearbook. This year's crop of beauties, presented by Russ Morgan at the annual senior prom in Bralley Memorial Library at TSCW, are five brunettes and one lone blonde. Chosen from the 16 class nominees, the brunette beauties are Misses Janice Smith, Denton freshman; Darcas Harrison, sophomore from Tuckerman, Ark.; Mary Elizabeth Cook, Houston senior; Beryl

Dr. and Mrs. Bass Honored With Party Tuesday Evening

On Tuesday evening at eight o'clock, members of the Amigos Sunday school class of the Baptist church were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Riley B. Harrell, with several assisting hostesses, at a lovely party honoring Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Bass, who will leave Munday about June 1. The Harrell home was beautifully decorated with yard flowers.

Dr. Bass has taught the Amigos class for the past year and for a number of years served as substitute teacher. The class deeply regrets the loss of Dr. and Mrs. Bass. In appreciation, the class sent Mrs. Bass a beautiful pink carnation corsage and Dr. Bass a matron's boutonniere. Games of 84 were enjoyed during the evening.

After a delicious refreshment plate of frosted drinks and cookies was served, the guests were assembled in the dining room. Mr. Harrell expressed the appreciation of the class to Dr. and Mrs. Bass and presented them with a lovely down comfort. Each member contributed toward this gift, which was graciously accepted by Dr. and Mrs. Bass.

Attending were: Dr. and Mrs. Bass, Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Douglas, Messrs. and Mrs. J. L. Stodghill, Clyde Yost, Arthur Lawson, Cecil Cooper, A. J. Beatty, M. L. Barnard, E. B. Austin, Texas.—New or improved methods of trapping enabled the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission to double the number of wild turkey and deer distributed this year as compared with the number planted last year, it is announced by the executive secretary of the Game Department. A total of 458 turkeys were trapped and 368 deer were planted in areas where they were needed for restocking purposes.

The report of the director of game distribution to the Game Department 'Chief' reveals that the deer either trapped in devices used by the Game Department for the first time this year or small deer which were collected by the Department were in far better condition than usual and an increase in the deer population is expected. Deer were distributed in 21 counties which still have sufficient food and proper habitat for the big game animals, but which were depleted of deer by over-shooting.

Fewer than 200 wild turkeys were trapped in 1939, but the total this year was 458. Areas in 16 counties were stocked. Part of the six large tracts of land leased for five years by the Game Department. These tracts are located in various sections of the state. Game will be protected from hunters on these areas, which range in size from 15,000 to 40,000 acres, for 5 years.

Radio for Game Warden
San Angelo—Game and fish violators are expected to be even more hard put in this section since the West Texas Game and Fish Association has purchased a short wave radio for the patrol car of the state game warden for this district. Through the cooperation of the City of San Angelo and its police department, calls will be placed for the warden through the police short wave station KASD and the warden can be reached in all six counties of his district.

"Because the wardens patrol in rural districts most of the time and are, therefore, hard to reach, and because the State Game Department does not have funds with which to purchase short wave radios, the San Angelo club believed it would be doing right-thinking sportsmen of this section a good turn by buying the set," explained H. L. Youngblood, president of the association.

Fishing in Big City
San Antonio—While hundreds of his fellow San Antonians traveled 50 to 100 miles to fish opening day, A. Cavazos pulled ten bass out of the San Antonio river the opening day of the season and best of all, he got them inside the city limits. The bass weighed from two to three and a half pounds.

Fish Balance Upset
Edinburg, Texas.—One of the major problems facing the aquatic division of the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission is the upsetting of the balance between the game and rough fish in lakes of the state. An excellent example of this was found here recently when a lake which was going dry was seeded by Department employees.

The owner of this 21-acre lake believed he had large quantities of bass and crappie and few gar and drum. However, the seines brought

Senior Report

And now for the life of our "never-serious young lad—Maurice Stapp.

Now Stapp has been around, as you will soon see. He was born in Anson, Texas, November 21, 1921. When he was eight years old, and was in the third grade, he moved to Stamford, living there one year. He then moved back to Anson, but was not satisfied so he moved back to Stamford. Abilene was his next destination. There he lived for two years. Hamlin and Knox City have occupied a part of Maurice's life too, but at present he seems to be pretty well satisfied with Munday. He came here while a junior in high school.

During Maurice's high school years, he has debated, run in track, been a character in plays and this year was an equipment manager of the football team.

His favorites are:
 Subject—bookkeeping.
 Teacher—Miss Couch.
 Song—"Tuxedo Junction."
 Color—red.
 Flower—orchid.
 Hobby—reading.
 Sport—fishing.
 Pastime—wisecracking.
 Maurice tells me that the outlook on the future is rather vague and undecided.

Marjorie Zell Spann, one of our typical jitterbuggers, was born July 9, 1924, at Munday, Texas. Zell is a true Mundayite, because she has lived here all her life. She started to school with the graduation class of 1940 and has been a member of that class during all of her school years.

During Zell's high school years, she has been a member of the home making club and also of the high school chorus. This year Zell was chief yell leader of the Munday high school pep squad.

During her high school years, Billie has been a member of the Home Economics Club, high school chorus, and has been a valuable member of the volleyball team each year.

Billie can be recognized by the following characteristics:

In high school I entered debate the year I was a sophomore.

I have enjoyed my school life very much, and I am certain that I will miss it when I have finished.

After I finish high school, I am going either to a business college or to Hardin-Simmons and major in Homemaking.

Mozelle has been in several organizations since she has been in high school, among which are the Home Economics Club and the high school chorus.

While in the elementary school, she represented Munday in spelling, arithmetic and picture memory.

Mozelle has been a reporter for two years, secretary and treasurer for her class for two years, and at this year she is editor of the Tom Tom. She also made the Who's Who in High Schools of Texas, and was a character in the class play this year. Mozelle was also valedictorian of this same class while in the seventh grade.

She likes all of her subjects, but her favorites are secretarial training and English. Her favorite teachers are all of them.

And now for our boy who is very outstanding in athletic ability—Jack Pippin.

Jack was born in Okmulgee, Oklahoma, on September 24, 1922. After living there for about one year, he moved to Abilene. From there he moved to Ballinger, then on to Munday. He has lived here since then, and started to school at the age of 7. He has never failed in his grades.

Jack had his first taste of athletics when in the 7th grade. There he played baseball, basketball, track, and was also a member of the picture memory team.

While in high school Jack has shown great interest in football, track, basketball, and tennis. He was also a character in the county one-act play, as well as the senior play. Jack was also one of the students who made the Texas Who's Who.

His favorites are:

He has lived there all of his life, he started his first school days in Munday Elementary School in 1929. Marion has never failed in his grades and has been a member of the senior class of 1940 every year.

The next intelligent and dignified senior on our list is our very capable reporter, who's too modest to care to write his own obituary and has asked me to do so.

The one I have in mind is Raymond Phillips, one of our most outstanding boys.

Raymond was born near the southern coast of Texas at Palacios on May 21, 1922. After living the first part of his life there, he moved to his present home. He began the long struggle of his school life at the age of six at Munday.

Junior Report
 As I was gazing around this morning trying to think of news, I happened to think of the skating party planned by the chemistry class. It will be held next Friday; the time has not been set. We are all planning to have a swell time. After studying all week, we decided that we would need this form of recreation and entertainment.

The Juniors have three exams Wednesday; chemistry, typing and English III, and one Thursday—History III.

Sophomore Report
 School is almost out, and now we can look back on the many pleasant memories it has left. Will you ever forget the football games with the band playing, the crowds yelling, and our boys making touchdowns? Dixie won't, and he's outstanding in her memory. Do you remember our first party? Mary Lois thought it was wonderful and had twice as good an opinion of Bob then. All the football boys had gone on a fish fry and were late to the party—which disturbed Jimmie greatly.

Then came Hallowe'en and the spooks. Clifford, A.B. and Weldon remember that well for some reason. When we came to school the next day the school building was a kind of wreck—but such is life.

Then there was the party at Dixie's and the beginning of the pleasant friendship between Florene and "Red." Grady tried to follow Red's example, but the little black-headed girl wouldn't respond. We can't forge the basketball games or the boxing matches.

William and A.B. were remembered for their playing and Mary Joyce for her watching. Of course, when we think of boxers, we think of Billy McDavid and he is in some way linked with Raymond Carden.

Then the football banquet came, with David and his sophisticated junior, Juracy and her music director, and Charles and his "fish." Everyone remembers it—even Forrest and his take-off—after the banquet in Hendrix's car. Cora Jean remembers that too, but more especially remembers the skating rink and green Fords. Bobbie is interested in cars also—tan ones.

Freshman News
 Last Friday night, the freshmen had a skating party, which everyone enjoyed. After we had skated until we had our fill, the room mothers treated us at Elian's Drug Store. We think exams are very simple, so we aren't worrying a bit.

Shelterbelt in Area Embraces Over 2200 Texas Farms

Wichita Falls, Texas, May 13.—"There are good shelterbelts and poor shelterbelts and usually the difference can be traced to the amount of care and cultivation given the trees," stated W. E. Webb, State Director of the Prairie States Forestry Project recently.

Cultivating a shelterbelt is no different than cultivating a row crop. In order to get a good, sturdy crop of trees, John Farmer must get out and kill those weeds before they get out of hand.

There are over 2200 farms in Northwest Texas with over 1850 miles of shelterbelt on them. Forest officers attempt to check every one of these farms from four to eight times during the growing season to determine whether the shelterbelt is getting the proper attention. Weeds must be cleaned from row and middle alike before the trees can be expected to survive this undesirable competition for moisture and put on maximum growth.

John Farmer promised to cultivate and care for his trees before the Forest Service planted them. Now it is up to him whether or not he is to get a good shelterbelt or a poor one.

New Goodyear Tire Announced By Dealer Here

Important to the owners of new automobiles, who may be thinking about new tires to insure themselves trouble-free Memorial Day week-end holiday trips, is announcement by J. E. Reeves, local Goodyear dealer, of the company's new All-American tire, priced within the reach of 70 per cent of the majority market of users.

In discussing the tire, Mr. Reeves said: "Its full-size and bears a life-time guarantee without time or mileage limitations. These are the sizes: 6.00-16, 5.25-17, 5.50-17 and 4.75-19, 5.00-19, so you can see that it is tailor made to fit a lot of cars now operating for several years."

"We are mighty pleased to have it, completing the Goodyear line we handle and enabling us to fill anybody's car or truck tire needs, no matter in what price class he wants to buy or what his driving demands may be."

Smart in appearance, the new All-American has the same high-carbon, high-tensile steel wire for beads as used in all Goodyear passenger car tires. Its body is made with low-stretch Super-twist cord, which has even higher tensile strength than did quality tires of two years ago, Mr. Reeves pointed out. In addition, there is a double cord breaker of high tensile strength to give greater protection against bruises.

Tread compounds are of time-tested reputation, providing long-time abrasion-resistance, while the tread design is new and known as multiple rib, assuring long, even wear, easy steering and side slip protection.

At the same time every possible economy has been effected in manufacturing with sacrificing essential safety factors, summarized Mr. Reeves, so the tire should prove popular with people who want the product of a recognized manufacturer at lowest possible initial cost.

Mrs. Jewell Stark of Benjamin was a visitor in town one day last week.

Miss Maxine Eiland, who is attending Texas Tech in Lubbock, spent the week end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Eiland.

The Federal Seed act which went into effect in February provides that seeds which are shipped in interstate commerce shall be labeled so farmers and other planters can tell from the labels whether the packaged seeds are what they desire.

The output of vegetables preserved by the frozen pack method on the Pacific Coast increased from about 12,000,000 pounds in 1936 to 20,000,000 pounds one year later, according to a report on Agricultural Experiment Stations of the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Grammar School News

The first grade is very glad to have Leo Hill and Austin Smith back in school. They are also glad to hear that Tommy Vest is home from the Stamford hospital. They are sorry that she cannot return to school this year.

The third and fourth grades presented a play, "The Sleeping Beauty," last Tuesday night. There was a nice crowd, and everyone enjoyed the play.

The third grade is planning a picnic to Seymour Park on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Gatewood were guests of the fifth grade geography class last Friday. They have spent some time in Utah, and they told many interesting facts about the people and climate of Utah. Perhaps the most interesting was a discussion of the large copper mines and the houses that are made entirely of copper.

School days are almost over and the Seniors surely regret it. Only one more week of school after this one. It seems that some of the Seniors are going to have to cram to pass.

The program was fixed like life savers with the names on them; attached to these were small sailboats fixed in pairs of water which made the centerpieces. The auditorium was decorated with cedar in which large life savers covered with roses stood. The menu was as follows:

INTERESTING FACTS ABOUT BEER AND BREWING

THIS IS WHAT BEER IS MADE OF . . .
 Sunshine, water, malted grain—and hops for flavor. Converted into beer by a simple natural process. Mother Nature brews beer—that is why it is so wholesome.

PROVIDED BY U. S. FARMERS—
 25 BILLION POUNDS OF FARM PRODUCTS NEEDED BY BEER AND ALE. Since re-legalization, the brewing industry has bought this enormous quantity of produce from American farmers.

$1,000,000 A DAY IN TAXES . . . NATIONWIDE

BEER AND ALE CONTRIBUTE $1,000,000 A DAY IN TAXES TO LOCAL STATE, AND FEDERAL GOVERNMENTS. Or $400,000,000 a year! What would happen if there were no beer or ale to carry this enormous tax burden?

"THANKS FOR THE JOB!" . . . say 1,000,000 people put to work by beer and ale since their return. More than 100 other industries benefit from the making and sale of beer and ale.

BEER CAME OVER ON THE MAYFLOWER— Pilgrim records tell how the landing of the Mayflower was hastened because the Pilgrims ran short of supplies, "especially beer."

A NEW PLAN TO COOPERATE WITH LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS. You will want to know about beer's new plan to "clean-up or close-up" retail establishments that permit abuses. This plan is in effect in a number of states. It is being extended. Ask us for free booklet. Write: United Brewers Industrial Foundation, 19 East 40th Street, New York, N. Y.

MILD, WHOLESOME BEVERAGES FOR HOME ENTERTAINMENT. Always easy to serve, beer and ale are favored by many hosts and hostesses for home entertainment. Tasty, mild and wholesome—they are ideal beverages for moderation parties.

Senior Class News

The Seniors are happy that this is their last week of school in the R.H.S., but still in our hearts we have a sad feeling that we will not be here next year. Our hopes are that we shall prove worthy of our training.

We also wish to thank the teachers for all they have taught us and the time they have spent with us in helping us to reach our goal. This being the last Senior report, I take this opportunity to thank each and every one who has helped me in writing the Senior News. It was indeed a pleasure to have had the privilege of being reporter of the Senior class.

Junior Report

School is out, and what a relief for the Juniors, as this is our last report as Juniors, we will dedicate it to the Seniors.

Seniors, always remember that when you go through life, work as you did while you were students in R.H.S. Although we will miss you, we are glad to see you get out into the world and make something of yourselves, but never forget, "Where There's a will, there's a way."

As far as the Juniors are concerned, you have picked a very excellent motto, because we believe that while you were going through school you found out that you can have "No Victory Without Labor."

Sophomore Report

The Sophs are glad school is out, especially those who have worked hard. The finals were hard, but could have been harder. Most of the Sophs are proud of their grades.

Theresia Andrae won the pin for writing the best summaries and reports in all the subjects this year.

Since this is the last regular report this year, your reporter wishes to state that he has enjoyed the job quite well. He also wishes to apologize to his classmates and fellow students for anything he might have written which caused offense.

To the Seniors we say au revoir and God bless you.

Freshman Report

This is our last week of school and we are all happy because all our tests and work is over. But at another glance we are sad because we hate to leave school.

Since school is turning out we won't see these things any more: Lucille trying to find her books and looking everywhere except where they are.

Mildred coming to Theresia's desk.

Bernard turning around and talking.

Kenneth taking the screws out of the desk across from him.

Urban gazing over to the ninth grade section.

Bernardine studying.

Calvin telling a joke.

Victor being so bright at the wrong time.

Helen taking in all the joys where she sits. (Good classmates all around.)
 Francis not talking but laughing.

Grade School News

Cleo Herring was the only student in Room III to be exempt from finals. Congratulations, Cleo! We believe that the high school boys were rather surprised the other day when the grade school boys and Miss Albus beat them in a rather interesting game of softball—the final score being 5 to 4 in our favor.

We are all very glad to see the Mayfield boys back in school again. In spite of Rose Marie's predictions, the Goldfinches did win the spelling contest—but we must admit that the Blue Jays gave them plenty of competition. John P. was the candy good?

We wish to state that it was John F. and Walter who were behind in their compositions, but they have gotten them up and so their grades will be much better.

Prizes were awarded in the 6th and 7th grades to those having the best notebook in reading and spelling. They were as follows:

In the 6th grade, Rose Marie Kuehler, first; Madeline Wilde, second; and John Redder, third.

In the 7th grade Everett Kuehler, first and Alvin Jungman, second.

However, there were many very good notebooks in the group.

Madeline Wilde was presented a box of candy for never having to report in Room IV, during the past term, and Anna Fetsch received a gift for having been such a grand helper.

Harold, if studying spelling causes you to miss words, we'd say "Don't study spelling."

Ask Albert A. what an ornithologist is.

Magdalen thinks an ornithologist is a "big-falootin' bug."

Marvin and Alvin felt terribly mistreated Tuesday. Why? Do tell us.

Although we are all glad that the end of this school year is here, we also have our share of regrets.

We know that we will miss having good times together. We do hope that everyone will have an enjoyable vacation and be ready to start the next term with renewed vigor and vitality. Remember, eat your spinach!

Issue of Signatures For Cotton Bags

Chairman L. T. Barringer of the National Cotton Council's committee on cotton bags assembles reams of pages signed by more than 70,000 leading Cotton Belt farmers seeking wider use of cotton bags. Urging makers of fertilizer, cement, sugar, flour and other commodities to pack shipments into the Cotton Belt in cotton bags, the petition will be presented before meetings of manufacturers and distributors. It also will be taken before farm groups over the nation in an effort to enlist their cooperation and support of the bag campaign. Mounted on rolls of cotton cloth, the pages shown above will make a petition over a mile in length.

Cotton is Base Of Employment In the South

Austin, Texas—King Cotton in Texas can't turn back or give up even though the future looks dark, declares Dr. A. B. Cox, University of Texas cotton marketing specialist.

He said national and world conditions indicate that Texas will not be able to retain its former income and dominant position in the cotton industry.

"Yet even if we wanted to withdraw from the foreign markets, it would be impossible," he declared. "Cotton is the very base of employment in the South. To reduce the crop permanently will disrupt our whole economic and social order and cause misery beyond our ability to now visualize."

Decline in Texas' cotton empire has come about through rising production in other countries and lower prices, he said.

Dr. Cox suggested that for the United States to meet the crisis for the best, she should:

1. Eliminate the effects of above-market-price loans on cotton to permit cotton to flow continuously into world markets at competitive levels.
2. Lower costs of production; improve quality of Texas cotton.
3. Encourage economical production and change present methods of making cotton allotments.
4. Direct all federal subsidies toward improving the efficiency of agricultural productivity and the desirability of the farm as a place to live.
5. Make a greater effort to discover new and more economical ways to manufacture and use cotton.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

Due to certain unforeseen matters, I will not be able to be here full time for a few weeks. UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE— I will be in my office on Tuesdays and Saturdays, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Rhineland Gets Downed Sunday At Knox City

Taking full advantage of the breaks in their favor, together with a truly timely smash by Wyatt through short in the 9th inning which resulted in the margin of victory, Knox City eked out a 6 to 5 win over Rhineland at Knox City last Sunday.

This was the most thrilling and exciting game of Knox county's softball league thus far. With both teams fighting desperately to win, it was mostly a tied up affair until the ninth.

Exercising the authority vested in him a bit too far, the umpire, who otherwise called a good game, hurt Rhineland's chances when he ejected L. Wilde, their star third baseman, from the game. However, for the first time this season, Rhineland was slightly outplayed, and Knox City deserved to win.

The outstanding hitter of the day was Clem Wilde, who collected four safeties out of five official times at bat; while long distance homers went to R. Kuehler of Rhineland and Augie and Carver of Knox City with a homer each.

The Red Raiders will journey to Vera for the start of the second quarter next Sunday.

Debt Adjustment Aid Extended To Small Farmers

Small farmers who when their incomes were larger accumulated debts they are now unable to meet may get their burdens lightened somewhat at the meeting of the Knox county farm-debt adjustment committee to be held at 4 p.m., Wednesday, May 23, at the courthouse in Benjamin.

According to Joe B. Spears, Farm Security Administration Supervisor, the debt adjustment committee, composed of local men, helps the farmer to work out a repayment schedule that he can meet from farm income and that is fair and agreeable to his creditors.

"Debt adjustment is nothing new," Mr. Spears said. "It was practiced in Biblical times, when every seventh year was set aside for the remission of debts. This custom enabled many shepherds and husbandmen of that day to make a living on the land instead of having to beg alms in the market place."

Local creditors have been willing in most cases, upon the farm debt adjustment committee's recommendation, to grant farmers additional time to pay, reamortizations, and scale-downs in principal and interest, the supervisor said.

Members of the committee are: Peter Loran, Munday, and Emory O. Jamison, Knox City.
