RHINELAND WILL CELEBRATE JULY FOURTH

Commissioners Court Takes Action Against "Jehovah's Witness" Activity

Cult Members Stopped From Working On County Jobs

Due to increased activities of "Jehovah's Witnesses," members of a religious cult said to be definitely "against any form of government," in and around Benjamin, members of the Knox county commissioners' court held a special meeting last week and unanimously passed an order to the effect that no member of any cult or organization could work for the county if that organization is against the American form of government.

The commissioners believed this to be a logical step that should be taken in this time of stress as an action against any threat to our democratic form of government. As a result of activities of the cult and of this order by the court, one worker on the county road crew was discharged. It is reported also that a Knox county employee of the Texas Highway Department was discharged last week because of his affiliation with the "Jehovah's Witnesses."

More activity is reported in Benjamin than any other section of the county. However, about 15 members of the religious cult appeared in Knox City on two occasions, scattered themselves over town and attempted to pass out literature and asked to be permitted to play phonograph records in the homes of the city.

Members of the American Legion rounded up the cult members and told them to get out of town. The cult was followed to the Brazos river and were told not to come back south of the river again, it was reported.

It is said that workers in this county who have been discharged were given every opportunity to denounce this unpatriotic cult and keep their jobs.

A member of the commissioners' court stated that the court's action was taken after due consideration. It is not the court's purpose to deal harshly with anyone, but its members feel it their duty as American citizens to prohibit employment by the county of those whose ideas or ideals are of an unpatriotic nature.

Veteran Mail Carrier Dies At Goree Saturday

Funeral Service For Paul Pilgrim Is Held Sunday

Paul Pilgrim, veteran mail carrier of Goree, died at his Goree home last Saturday. Mr. Pilgrim had been in ill health for several months, and was able to continue his duties on the rural route only until some time in March.

One of Knox county's early citizens, Mr. Pilgrim had resided at Goree for over 30 years. He and Mrs. Pilgrim operated a cafe in Goree prior to his work as mail carrier, which began in 1909. He had served the people of his route for almost thirty years.

Mr. Pilgrim, who was about 60 years of age, is survived by his widow, one daughter, and one grand daughter. Funeral services were held from the Baptist church in Goree at three o'clock last Sunday afternoon. Rev. Stevenson, pastor, conducted the services, and interment was in the Goree cemetery.

Revival Meeting Begins Sunday At Church at Goree

Rev. S. E. Stevenson, pastor of the First Baptist church of Goree, has announced a revival meeting to begin there on Sunday, May 30.

Preaching will be done by Rev. Claud Stovall of Sterling City, Texas. Rev. Stovall is a well-known pastor and evangelist, and his messages will be enjoyed by all who attend the revival services.

The meeting will be held under the community tabernacle, Rev. Stevenson said.

Postal Workers Will Hold July Meeting Here

Banquet At Haskell Well Attended

Members of the Tri-County Postal Employers Association held their annual banquet in the Tonkawa Hotel at Haskell last Monday night, when John Lee Smith of Throckmorton was the principal speaker. Smith, an attorney and candidate for state senator, spoke on "Dangers to America that Exist in the Earth Today."

Smith stressed the need for loyalty and unity of the people to combat dangers from within the country.

Forty-seven persons from 15 or 20 towns in Stonewall, Haskell, Baylor, Jones and Knox counties, attended the banquet. Postal employees voted to hold regular monthly meetings in the future, with the next meeting being held in Munday on the fourth night in July.

C. F. Norman, Rule, president of the organization, was master of ceremonies, and J. M. Diggs, Haskell postmaster, made an address of welcome. Entertainment included a vocal selection by Mrs. Mary Lee Koonce, accompanied at the piano by Ernestine Brasher.

WPA Project Is Started In Precinct Three

Includes Construction Of Many Bridges

Another WPA project was started in Knox county this week, according to an announcement made by County Judge E. L. Covey.

The project, which started Monday morning, calls for an expenditure of a little over $25,000 of federal and precinct money. Most of the work will be in the building of bridges and culverts in Precinct Three, and the project will be built of rock and reinforced concrete, so these will be made permanent structures. Many of the bridges will replace old ones which, because of their age, have been classes as "dangerous structures."

The project calls for working about 40 men for a period of six months. Judge Covey stated that only about 25 men started work Monday, which was due to low quota of WPA workers set for Knox county at the present time.

Burl Williams Funeral Is Held Last Monday

Funeral services for Burl Williams, who was drowned in San Francisco on Wednesday last week, were held last Monday at Denton, the home of his mother, Mrs. Walter Williams.

According to reports of Williams' death, he was painting a lifeboat on the ship on which he was serving in the United States Navy. In some way, he fell and his body struck the ship, which blow is believed to have rendered him unconscious. Rescue men worked 45 minutes before his body was recovered.

Williams had many friends in Knox county, having been reared at Munday.

HERE WEDNESDAY H. A. (Uncle Harry) Williamson, who resides near the old Miller Creek school in Throckmorton county, was a business visitor in town Wednesday morning. Mr. Williamson was a caller at the Times office and left copy of "Mother Shipton's Prophecy," which will be published in The Times soon. Mr. Williamson is a regular reader of The Times.

Mrs. C. H. Billingsley of Goree was shopping in town Saturday.

N. Y. U. to Get Michigan Plant Murals

Artists are putting the finishing touches on the first of a series of photographic murals to be shipped this week to New York University in New York City. The murals depict industrial scenes for which Detroit and Michigan are world-famed. All were taken in the Chevrolet plants. They will be hung in various Industrial Arts classrooms of the School of Education.

THREE BUILDINGS ARE GOING UP AT GOREE

Three new buildings are under construction at Goree, it was announced this week.

J. W. Fowler is completing a rock filling station and garage on the site of the old Goree hotel. J. C. Morton is constructing a building that will house his machine shop on north main street, and Oscar Lewis, rural mail carrier, has started construction on a rock dwelling on his lots northeast of the high school building.

Transfers Of Students To Be Made in July

Blanks Now Available For Transfers

County Supt. Merick McGaughey stated Wednesday that application blanks for transferring scholars from one school district to another are now available in his office.

These student transfers must be in the county superintendent's office by August 1st. All parents wishing to make transfers are urged to give their reasons for wanting their children transferred when filing applications. The ruling of the school board regarding transferring from one district to another is governed by the reasons stated by parents.

All parents wishing to make transfers are urged to secure the blanks and make applications during July and before August 1st.

Poison Available

Grasshopper poison bait material is available to Knox county farmers, Walter Rice, county agent, stated Wednesday.

Farmers may get this material by calling at the county agent's office, he said.

Munday's Troop of Boy Scouts Travel 1,243 Miles on Annual Week's Outing

A group of tired, happy, but sunburned Boy Scouts returned to their homes in Munday at three o'clock last Sunday afternoon after a week's outing in various portions of Texas. This was the annual week's outing given to members of the Munday troop.

The first leg of their journey on Sunday, June 16, brought them to Ballinger where they attended church that evening, then went on to San Angelo for supper and to a camp site near Big Lake to spend the night.

Monday, they arrived in Alpine and learned there that camp sites and facilities were not to their liking, so went on to a C.C.C. constructed camp near Marathon, where they spent the night and fished, went swimming and climbed mountains.

Golf Finals To Be Held Sunday

Finals in the city golf tournament, which began last Sunday, will be played off next Sunday. First round matches were completed Thursday. Second round matches are to be completed Friday, and third round matches on Saturday and finals on Sunday.

About thirty golfers qualified for the tournament. Matches played up to Thursday morning are as follows:

Championship flight: Jim Goode won over Deaton Green 1 up, Sebern Jones won over D. E. Holder 2-1, then lost to Jim Goode 7-6; Barton Carl downed Marvin Branch 4-3; W. E. Braly took N. T. Underwood, 6-5; Vincent Lane won from Wade Mahan, 6-5; Arthur Smith won 2-1 from Dan Billingsley, then lost his second round to Vincent Lane, 6-7; Rupert Williams downed M. F. Billingsley, 1 up on 19 holes; Travis Lee won 3-2 over W. H. Atkinson, then won from Rupert Williams, 1 up on 20 holes.

W.T.C.C. Directors Include Three Of Knox County Men

A list of Chamber of Commerce directors for the West Texas organization was listed in the magazine "West Texas Today," recently. The magazine listed directors for the district three, which included four from Knox county.

Knox county men serving on the board are Charlie Hamilton, Benjamin; H. D. Arnold, Goree; Roy Baker, Knox City; and W. E. Braly, Munday.

May Begin Work On Dam for Lake By July First

Those in charge of work at the city park, southeast of Munday, stated this week that it is probable work will begin on constructing the dam for the lake by July first.

Due to lack of water, this work has not been started as early as it was intended. Several auxiliary dams were constructed earlier to catch and hold water necessary for the dam construction. These dams have collected water from recent rains at various points needed, and it is expected that actual construction on the dam will begin Monday.

This work will be completed just as rapidly as possible.

Other projects at the city park have been under way. The club house is rapidly being constructed, and some work has been started on the keeper's house.

Seven Mattress Centers Operating In Knox County

The last of Knox county's seven mattress centers was opened at Rhineland on Tuesday, June 25.

To date, 197 mattresses have been made in the following communities: Munday, Knox City, Goree, Gilliland, Vera, Truscott, and Rhineland.

More than 500 applications have been received, 480 of which are already approved. June 29 is the final date for making applications. Mattress applications can be made at the county home demonstration agent's office, or the county agent's office.

Compliance Of AAA Is Started

AAA compliance started in Knox county during the past week, County Agent Walter Rice, reported. Several crews are already measuring land, and others are being instructed daily and put to work.

It is necessary that farm operators be on the farm and assist the measuring crews in order that the crops are correctly identified. The more cooperation given the crews, the better will be the job of measuring in the county, explained Mr. Rice.

Weather Report

Gossett Given Support Pledge In Area Meet

Meeting Held Friday In Wichita Falls

Pledge of support and of an active campaign for Congressman Ed Gossett was given the congressman last Friday in a meeting of representatives from all parts of the 13th district held at Wichita Falls.

Supporters of Gossett lauded his official record and pledged their vigorous efforts on behalf of his re-election.

Edgar Mann and W. A. Franklin, both of Wichita Falls were elected chairman and secretary, respectively, of the district organization. Gossett's supporters promised to "take care of his campaign" at home while he remains at his post in Washington.

The following resolution was adopted at the rally:

"We, the Democrats of Wichita county, and of the 13th congressional district of Texas, duly assembled at the courthouse this 21st day of June, A.D., 1940, commend the Honorable Ed Gossett, our representative in the national congress, for his decision to remain at his post of duty so long as he may be needed in the nation's capital at this hour of peril, to the neglect of his personal campaign for re-election.

"And we further commend him for his splendid record of achievement during his first term of office, and we deplore the fact that he is not to be accorded a second term of office for faithful public service without opposition.

"We pledge him our wholehearted support, and call upon the patriotic citizenship of this district to look after his campaign for him in his absence to the end that he may be overwhelmingly re-elected."

Attending the rally were R. B. Davy, Riley B. Harrell and R. G. Campbell, all of Munday.

Knox County Hospital Notes

Patients in the Knox County Hospital at Knox City, this week included Hubert Jones, Munday; Mrs. J. O. Bowden, Munday; Mrs. T. B. Roberson, O'Brien; Frank Riley, Munday; Cecil Smith, Munday; Ruth Browning, Munday; Mrs. L. R. Hanson, Rochester; Mrs. Roy Murry, Rule.

Patients dismissed were: J. M. Cash, Truscott; Mrs. Cecil Welch and baby boy, Benjamin; Mrs. Willard Kilgore and baby boy, Benjamin; Mrs. Jack Hicks, and baby girl, Rochester; Mrs. John Davis, and baby girl, Throckmorton; Mrs. L. W. Wallace and twin girls, Munday; Mrs. Allie Ware, Munday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hicks, Rochester, baby girl.
Mr. and Mrs. John Davis, Throckmorton, baby girl.
Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Wallace, Munday, twin girls.
Mr. and Mrs. Roy Murry, Rule, baby girl.
Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Hanson, Rochester, baby boy.

DEATHS

Mrs. Mary A. Hanks of Gilliland, Texas, June 22nd.

Miss Dorothy Robertson of Lubbock is a new member of the nursing staff at the hospital.

Ten CCC Youths Are Enrolled Here

Glenn T. Burnett, case worker of Benjamin, announced this week that ten youths of Knox county have been enrolled in the C.C.C. This is the county's full quota.

Mr. Burnett received "movement orders" for these young men recently. These boys are asked to be prepared to leave on July 11th. It was not learned just where they will be encamped.

Mrs. W. F. Hardin of Silverton came in this week for a visit with friends and relatives here.

Dance At Night To Be Feature

Candidates to Speak

Family Style Dinner To Be Served At Noon Hour

An event looked forward to by many Knox county citizens is the annual Fourth of July celebration and picnic at Rhineland.

John J. Hoffman, superintendent of Rhineland schools, announced Tuesday that preparations are under way for the celebration again this year, to be held on the fourth. The event was not held last year. Taking its place was Father Fabian Diersing's observance of his first solemn mass at Rhineland on June 6th.

Mothers of the Rhineland community, in cooperation with the Rhineland C.Y.O., are planning to have a big family style dinner at noon July 4th. Entertainment for young and old is being provided for, Mr. Hoffman said.

An invitation to candidates to attend this celebration is cordially extended. Time in the afternoon will be allotted to those candidates who desire to speak.

Those in charge of the entertainment are endeavoring to match a ball game as a feature attraction of the day. This game will likely be played between the Rhineland Red Raiders and some team from Vernon or Wichita Falls.

A big dance at night will top off the celebration of the day. A Vernon orchestra will furnish plenty of persuasive music.

A cordial invitation is extended to the entire public to attend this event.

STORES WILL CLOSE ON JULY FOURTH

It has been the usual custom for Munday's business houses to celebrate two holidays each year—Fourth of July and Christmas.

Present indications are that the stores of Munday will be closed next Thursday, July 4th. The Times will endeavor to go to press Wednesday instead of Thursday, and everyone is urged to get their news and advertisements in earlier next week. Your cooperation is asked so we may observe this holiday, too.

It's Our Birthday

With this issue of the Times, we begin a new year... our 37th.

Employees of The Times are grateful to each and every one, our advertisers and subscribers, for their cooperation during the year just ended. As we start out on our 37th year, we pledge you our best efforts to give you a good hometown newspaper.

The Times is enjoying a greater circulation than at any other period in its history. The paper goes into the homes of almost 2,000 subscribers in this trade area. This means a greater service to our advertisers, giving them the best advertising medium in this section.

During our new year, we solicit the cooperation of everyone in our efforts to give you the best newspaper in the history of Knox county.

Five County Women to Attend Short Course

Knox county will send five women to College Station next month to attend the annual farmers' short course.

Miss Myrtle Munday, Munday; Mrs. Grover Coffman, Vera; and Mrs. R. L. Lambeth, Hefner, are delegates to the Texas Home Demonstration Association which meets at College Station during the short course on alternate years. Mrs. J. O. Cure, Gilliland, chairman of the Knox county home demonstration council, will attend the short course proper. Others who will go to represent the county and use committee have not been decided upon.

"What a Man Does For Himself Dies With Him— What He Does For His Community Lives On and On"

CLEAR-HEADED THINKING

Are American manufacturers responding in a positive, affirmative way to the country's demand for adequate national defense and for internal security against the enemies of this country's way of life? The best possible answer to this question was given a short time ago by Edgar M. Queeny, president of Monsanto Chemical Company, and National Vice-president of the National Association of Manufacturers.

Here's what Mr. Queeny has to say on this vital subject:

"Industry not only stands four-square behind the mobilization program of the President's National Defense Commission—but it also is mobilizing volunteers within its own ranks and file to create a better understanding of the private enterprise system, which must support the bulk of this nation's effort to head off invasion of potential enemies in Europe today.

"This fight for an understanding of private enterprise is truly a fight for freedom. It is not political. It has to do with economics, not politics—the economics of our American way of life, involving our individual rights to work, save, invest, and pursue our economic activities as free men and women.

"All Americans must understand that representative democracy, civil and religious liberties and private enterprise go hand in hand as fundamentals of the American way of life. And American industry and business would be unfaithful to the American heritage if they did not defend private enterprise against the world trend toward economic planning and regimentation."

Clear-sightedness and clear-headedness concerning fundamentals are virtues of particular importance today. The knowledge that our leading industrialists possess these qualities should be comforting to all citizens at the present time. Mr. Queeny's statement, characteristic of industry's stand throughout the nation, is the best possible assurance that our national defense needs will be met and at the same time our American way of life will not go by the boards in the process!

ANTI-TRUST OR ANTI-SECURITY?

There's one point concerning the immediate future that needs to be settled, and settled as quickly as possible.

It has to do with anti-trust prosecutions. And this is the kernel of the problem, in a nutshell.

If our national defense problems are going to be solved efficiently by industry, there are going to be many cases where red tape will have to be cut. Understandings between competitors will frequently have to be reached, and in many cases it is extremely likely that the War and Navy Departments will in effect demand that efficient arrangements be made. Yet technically these arrangements may violate the extremely broad interpretations of the Sherman Anti-Trust Law that are in current favor.

Thurman Arnold, Assistant Attorney-General, is reported as uncertain concerning the steps he would take in such cases. If the recent experiences of industries which thought they were serving the best interests of the public and recovery by internal agreements of various sorts can be taken as any criterion, it is likely that government might deliver a pat on the head with one hand and a wallop under the ear with the other.

In other words, this country needs a clarification of the intentions of the government on this important subject. Fear of possible future prosecutions should not be allowed to hobble industry when it is trying to meet national defense requirements as quickly and effectively as possible. Industry should be told where it stands—not just to make industry feel comfortable, but, far more important, to make sure that this country gets the guns and planes and military equipment it needs in as near to "jig time" as is humanly possible.

29,231 MILES OF TERRACES

A final compilation of soil-building practices completed under the 1939 AAA program in Texas shows that on 18,297 farms, 29,231 miles of standard terraces were constructed; on 206,696 farms, 2,397,253 acres of green manure and cover crops were planted; on 77,437 farms, soil-depleting crops were interplanted with summer legumes on 852,290 acres; on 61,619 farms 4,909,232 acres of intertilled crops were farmed on the contour.

Under the AAA programs farmers can earn a specified amount of payments, varying according to the size of the farm, for adopting soil-building practices. The maximum payment available is computed on a basis of the acreage of cropland, commercial orchards and perennial vegetables, non-crop open pasture land, restoration land, and acreage planted to forest trees.

Payments earned for soil-building work are in addition to payments for planting within acreage allotments, George Slaughter, chairman of the state committee pointed out, but compliance with the other provisions of the program is necessary before the farmer can earn soil-building payments.

No figures are yet available on improvement work done under the Range Conservation Program for 1939.

An ounce of sulphur, mixed with a little alcohol and rubbed on the body and legs will help keep chiggers away. Hyposulfite of soda, applied the same way, is also said to be effective.

GOOD NEIGHBOR

Probably lost in the welter of war news, at least for the time being, is a new book singularly significant for these years. It is George B. Gilbert's "Forty Years A Country Preacher."

Most people haven't heard of pastor Gilbert except for the brief mention he got a year ago when he was nominated the typical American country minister. And Brother Gilbert doesn't care whether anybody ever heard of him or not. He's that kind of a man.

He lives in a small New England community, drives an old car, has a whale of a time being poor and just helping other people. If a family needs a stove he scours around the country and finds one. If a pair of newlyweds are to poor to furnish their home he manages somehow to do it for them. He is famous for his church suppers which he handles without charge. As he tells it, he has it down to such a fine system he can leave the altar during a hymn, get out to the church well, pump the water, put on the coffee, and get back in time for the last six lines.

He has turned down many offers of bigger salaries, this gray-haired man who thrives on unselfishness and prefers to stick by his country folk and the little church in the woods. He has found that what counts most in life after all is friends and more friends and neighborliness.

All of which ought to give us something to think about in a time when the country is forced to spend billions for rearmament. Every community, the world—and history—would be different today with a lot more unselfish Gilberts.

MAKING AMERICA GREAT

A short time ago, Dr. Paul F. Cadman, economist of the American Bankers Association, observed that banking now has "opportunities to render perhaps the greatest service in its history in the creation and conservation of the individual and social values of our economic life." And the country is literally full of examples, large and small, where banking has done and is doing just that.

For progressive banking is vitally interested in putting money to productive use. And you don't have to be a "big business man" to interest the modern banker.

Dale Carnegie recently told a homely and typical little story of a young man who devised a way to manufacture toys modeled after real mechanical equipment of various kinds. The young man had a good idea but inadequate capital so he applied to a banker for a loan. The banker asked what security the young man could offer, and found he had none. He then visited the young man's plant, and found it of little or no value. Finally he asked if the young man had saved any money, and found he had managed to put aside a thousand dollars, earned while going to college. The banker smiled. A good idea and the ability to save was all he required—and he loaned the young man $12,000. Today that man is one of the world's largest toy manufacturers.

There's nothing particularly unusual about this story—the bankers have done the same thing for thousands of men, thus making possible thousands of profitable industries. The bank is the vital ally of the creative mind, of the man with an idea, energy and little or no capital to go ahead. Banking, far more than most of us realize, has helped make America great.

LABOR

Complete success or partial failure of the growing defense program may be determined by the attitude of organized labor. Wage earners have an unquestionable right to demand all reasonable consideration of their welfare in the execution of the defense work. But if either of the two major factions into which unionism is split plans to put its own competitive interest ahead of the accomplishment of national safety, that is another matter.

The question is whether organized labor is to carry on a species of private warfare in the midst of the nation's effort to insure its safety. No labor leader of any faction can wish to hamper that effort—but every one of them should gravely consider the danger that their factional strife may have just such an unintended result.—Wall Street Journal.

PITY THE POOR CADDY

THEY SAY!

"Industry's opponents have had the floor for several years. Now industry is embarking upon a campaign to show that business is aware of its social responsibilities, conscious of its place in American life, and trying sincerely to fulfill its mission of creating and maintaining jobs and producing more goods—the only way by which the standard of living can be raised."
—H. W. Prentiss, Jr., president National Association of Manufacturers.

Gems Of Thought

FIDELITY
Nothing is more noble, nothing more venerable, than fidelity.—Cicero.
Fidelity is simply daring to be true in small things as well as great.—Henry Van Dyke.
No greater hope have we than in right thinking and right acting, and faith in the blessing of fidelity, courage, patience, and grace.—Mary Baker Eddy.
The talent of success is nothing more than doing what you can do, well, and doing well whatever you do, without a thought of fame.—Longfellow.
Only they who fulfill their duty in everyday matters will fulfill them on great occasions.—Kingsley.

HIS SIDE OF IT

This is not an editorial. It is a leaf torn from the memory of that local advertising man, who, week after week, darkens the doors of local merchants and pleads, exhorts and exhorts himself trying to get them to invest just a small percent of their profits in something that is surer than sin to find them out and have them found out.

Telling a merchant that it pays to advertise in his hometown newspaper is like telling a farmer that it pays to put manure under his potatoes, a blind man that he cannot see, or a civil engineer that water runs down hill. They know it pays to advertise, but you'd be surprised at the arguments presented and the various attempts that are made to evade honest-to-goodness advertising.

A farmer puts manure under his potatoes because he knows the roots of that potato will come that way and because he knows it will pay the roots of the potatoes to come that way. He doesn't put the manure in a bag, tie it to a stick and suspend it over the potato vines. But there are known cases where merchants have spent good money to get people to come to town—not to come to their places of business, but just come to town—when, if they had spent that same money advertising what they had to sell at attractive prices, they would have brought the same people to town and sold their merchandise at a profit.

If we would only wake up to the simple fact that we are town and that when we advertise ourselves and our merchandise we are selling our town to our customers. If we would invest a small percent of our profits in telling people what we have to sell; if we would only admit that fair prices on good merchandise will beat any short-lived scheme in pulling large crowds to town and sending them away pleased; if we would only realize that we, by our own actions, can make or break a town—then our town would take on a new growth in business, our churches would gain

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

THE STATE OF TEXAS,
To the Sheriff or any Constable of Knox County—GREETING:

You are hereby commanded to summon Mrs. Jessie Grigg and husband T. F. Grigg, Mrs. Lillie Cole and husband W. C. Cole, and J. W. Priest and their unknown heirs, by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the 50th Judicial District; to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Knox County, Texas, to be held at the Courthouse thereof, in Benjamin on the first Monday in October, A.D. 1940, the same being the 7th day of October A.D. 1940, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 17th day of June A.D. 1940, in a suit numbered on the docket of said Court, No. 4105, wherein Mrs. Ruth Broach and husband Fred Broach are Plaintiffs and Mrs. Jessie Grigg and husband T. F. Grigg, Mrs. Lillie Cole and husband W. C. Cole, and J. W. Priest, and their unknown heirs are Defendants; the nature of plaintiff's demand being as follows:

Plaintiffs alleging that they were the owners in fee simple of Lots Number One (1), and Two (2), both in Block Number Eight (8), of the original town of Munday, in Knox County, Texas, and were in possession of said premises on or about the 15th day of June 1940, the defendants unlawfully entered upon and dispossessed the plaintiffs of such premises and withheld the same from them to their damages in the sum of Three Thousand Dollars. Plaintiffs aver that they and those whose title they hold have had peaceable, continuous, open, adverse and notorious possession of said premises above described, using and enjoying the same for more than ten years before the commencement of this suit, and of said eviction and dispossession, and that all right, claim or title that the defendants have, or may have had is now long since barred by the ten year statute of limitation. Praying for judgment for title and possession and for general relief.

Herein fail not, but have you before said Court, on the first day of the next term thereof, this Writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Witness my hand and official seal at my office in Benjamin, Texas, this 17th day of June A.D. 1940.

The man at the theatre was annoyed by conversation in the row behind.
"Excuse me," he said, turning, "but we can't hear a word."
"Is that so?" retorted the woman behind. "Well, what we're talking about is none of your business."

Stamford Is Ready for 11th Cowboy Reunion

(Special to The Times)
Stamford, June 27.—With the addition of new entertainment features during the past few days, the stage is set for Stamford's yearly cavalcade of the West, the eleventh annual Texas Cowboy Reunion. Already the town is in holiday attire, with streets and buildings bedecked with bunting and cowboy banners, the whole community is busy as a beehive and ten-gallon hats and high-heeled boots increasingly numerous about town.

Real cowhands with chuck wagons and roping horses will begin to arrive Sunday just to be on hand in plenty of time for the opening next Tuesday morning, July 2, and they'll be around until the new amateur rodeo champions are crowned at the final contest on Thursday night, July 4.

Late additions to the program include a girls' calf-roping contest for each afternoon and night rodeo performance. Entries will be by invitation and cash purses will be awarded for the lowest average time. Another new feature is a square dance on horseback staged by a team from Throckmorton on the night of July 4.

Lending a new aspect to the Texas Cowboy Reunion this year is the first official show of the American Quarter-Horse Association to be held during the celebration, with $1,000 in cash prizes offered in four classes. Another new feature is the gaited horse show with $480 in prizes.

The Reunion will open officially with the grand parade at 11 a.m. Tuesday, though at that hour the first morning rodeo performance, starting at 8 a.m., will have been completed. The first meeting of the oldtime cowboys' association will be held at 1 p.m. The daily schedule includes rodeo performances at 8 a.m., 2 p.m., and 8 p.m., square dances at the Combes Roundup Hall and modern dances at the Sponsors' pavilion each night at ten o'clock and chuck wagon dinner for oldtime cowboys at the Will Rogers Bunkhouse at noon.

The old fiddlers' contest, biggest fee attraction, will be held at the Combes Roundup Hall at 8:30 a.m., July 4.
R. M. Tankersley of Benjamin was a business visitor in the city one day last week.

Mrs. Reuben Richards of route one, Goree, was here Saturday, shopping.

Mrs. J. T. Murdock of Goree, route one, was shopping here a while Saturday.

Mrs. Dollie Guthrie and father, W. B. Tomlinson, and Mrs. Carl Green and children spent the week end in Olney, visiting Sam Cumbie and family.

R. E. Hughes, editor of the Knox County Herald, was a business visitor here Monday afternoon.

Popular Gingham

Gingham is making washable frocks for Hollywood's glamour girls this summer. Here is Ida Lupino, Paramount pictures player, in a green, blue and white plaid gingham frock of simple, easy-to-copy lines. There's a short-sleeved jacket of the same fabric with white pique revers and cuffs.

Mrs. Marion Jones of Goree was shopping in town Saturday.

Marine Corps To Increase It's Youth Quota

In order that young men of the North Central part of the state of Texas may be afforded the opportunity of enlisting in the U. S. Marine Corps without traveling long distances, a recruiting station has been established in the U. S. Court House Building in Fort Worth, Texas. This office will be open daily from 8:30 a.m., to 4:00 p.m., except Saturday afternoons and all day Sundays.

For a number of years the United States Marine Corps has been limited to a small number of enlistments due to the comparatively small size of its enlisted personnel, with that of the Army and Navy. But, due to the present plans for a large national defense program, the lid has been lifted and the quotas will be "unlimited" for a certain period of time. This ban on restricted enlistments will afford many young men throughout the United States, an opportunity to enlist in the service of their choice, the United States Marines. The Marine Corps does not require that you be a mental genius to enlist, in fact the requirements have been lowered from that of a high school education to that of a grammar school education. The Marine Corps educates its own men through the Marine Corps institute, an educational institution comparable with that of any high school and many colleges.

If you are between the ages of 18 and 30 years, from 64 to 74 inches tall, white, single, with no dependents, a graduate of grammar school, physically sound and of good moral character, then you are eligible for enlistment in the Marine Corps.

A SAFE FOURTH

With Europe giving a display of its own brand of fireworks, there is more than ever a reason why the United States should attempt to celebrate the Fourth of July this year without the fire and noise which has been traditional. Marvin Hall, state fire insurance commissioner, said today.

American Medical Association reports show that 31 Texans were seriously injured last Fourth of July while playing with fireworks.

In cities prohibiting fireworks by local ordinance, firemen can materially aid the cause of safety by enforcing what laws they have.

Hall declared. In locations where sale is allowed, departments can enforce safety measures for every fireworks stand. No stand should be allowed in front of a store, where it conceivably might cut off exit in case of fire, and firemen should enforce "No Smoking" rules and require fire extinguishers or water pails.

GO TO DALLAS

Mr. and Mrs. Don Ferris and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Binnion left for Dallas for a few days' visit with their son and brother, Ralph Binnion. Mr. and Mrs. Binnion plan a longer visit with relatives in other sections of the state.

Mrs. George Nix of Goree was shopping in town Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arlos Weaver of the Mattson community visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ivy Cypert last Friday afternoon.

Cast Spells Fun, Not Fear, for Sarah Ann

Denton, Texas.—Smiling little Sarah Ann Parks, who suddenly developed double curvature of the spine one year ago, now plays at her home south of Denton and greets enthusiastically some of her coed "mothers" from the North Texas State Teachers College—members of Delta Psi Kappa, physical education scholarship group.

Sarah Ann, who went to the Scottish Rite Children's Hospital in Dallas last August for a six-month stay and was placed in a 20-pound cast with one leg suspended in mid-air, found hospital hours shortened by visit and surprise packages from her Teachers College "mothers" throughout her stay.

At home now with a lighter cast, Sarah Ann is surrounded, left, by some of her Psi Kappa friends, Leona Williams of Bellevue, Ora Lee Doty of Chillicothe, Miss Beulah Harris of the NTSTC physical education faculty, Psi Kappa sponsor, Sarah Ann's mother, Mrs. J. R. Parks, and Miss Ruth Marshik of Dallas, Psi Kappa president. At right, Mrs. Parks and Sarah Ann show Miss Marshik the straps which keep the 14-pound cast fastened throughout the day.

Extremely bright and friendly, the little girl now runs and plays at her farm home with her dog "Pedro," and plays a game of "knock-knock" on her cast with any visitor. Doctors at the Dallas hospital stated that Sarah Ann's cheerful, friendly disposition is doing more to cure her case than any remedial measures.

"Adopted" by the Denton chapter of Psi Kappa for a seven-year period, until she has recovered from the sudden stroke of last summer, Sarah Ann was guest of honor at the organization's annual homecoming banquet and has accepted enthusiastically its latest invitation, to a swim and picnic at the college park.

Dr. Nolley Farrington And Miss Castanedo Married In New Orleans

For one of the prominent weddings here of the week the bride came down from her home in Washington, D.C., to be married in her former home city, and also the former home of her mother.

The wedding was that of Miss Penella Marie Castanedo, daughter of Mrs. Lutz Wahl of Washington, D.C., and the late Walter Castanedo of New Orleans to Dr. Nolley Farrington, son of Mrs. William Prentice Farrington and the late Dr. Farrington of Munday, Texas. The ceremony took place Tuesday at 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon at the home of Miss Castanedo's grandmother, Mrs. George Alfred Hero, on Third street, with a large number of relatives and friends there as guests.

The spacious old home, in the Hero family for generations, with large reception rooms, is ideal for receiving. The rooms were all profusely decorated with plumosa palms, and with clusters of white peonies and gardenias in the drawing room, and an improvised altar having a background of palms and flowers.

The bridal party came down the winding stairway to the march from "Lohengrin," played by an orchestra, the bride, with her uncle, Mr. Alfred O. Hero, who gave her away. She was very lovely in a sumptuous bridal dress of cream cotton net tulle over white taffeta, the bodice sheered and the very full skirt having a panel of rare point-applique lace down the front and also down the length of the train, the lace an heirloom in her mother's family. Her long veil of illusion was held with orange blossoms and she carried a white prayerbook from which fell sprays of butterfly orchids. She wore as an ornament, a gold and enameled brooch, studded with diamonds, also an heirloom in her mother's family.

The bride had as her attendants her sister, Miss Barbara Wahl of Washington, D.C., as maid of honor, and Miss Claire Hero and Miss Lucille Neff, the latter of Munday, Texas, as bridesmaids. They wore frocks of pink net and lace, the skirts made very full and the waists having puffed sleeves. Their flowers were in clusters in different pastel tints, tied with bows of pale blue ribbon.

Dr. Farrington had as his best man his brother, Dr. Charles Farrington of St. Petersburg, Fla., and as his other attendants, Dr. Sims Chapman and Mr. Jesse G. Rainwater, Jr.

Receiving with Mrs. Hero and Mrs. Wahl at the reception following were members of the bridal party and also Mrs. Farrington, mother of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Paul L. Reiss and Mrs. Alfred O. Hero, aunts of the bride. They all wore lovely reception gowns of different fleecy, summerly materials.

The young couple left on a short bridal trip and will be at home later in Fort Worth, Texas. The bride's going away dress was of dark blue sheer figured in white and with accessories in dark blue. The bride, with her mother, Mrs. Wahl, and her sister, Miss Wahl,

Girls Complete Project at Home Economics Cottage

This week the home making girls completed their project at the home economics cottage. They have varnished the sewing room and dining room floors, painted the bookcase for the kitchen, put up and painted shelves in the closets, put up new screen door, set out flowers, made scrapbooks, varnished teacher's desk, stored everything in the kitchen for the summer, filed pamphlets, magazines and reference material.

The girls will complete their project in August, and will hold achievement day August 13. They will visit homes in the morning; Lunch will be served at the cottage, and a short program will be given in the afternoon.

Girls who expect to take home economics in 1940-41, their mothers and the mothers of girls enrolled in home making now will be invited.

Pioneer Circle Meets June 20th With Mrs. Rogers

The Pioneer Circle met on Thursday, June 20, with Mrs. Hettie Rogers. The afternoon was spent listening to piano solos by Miss Bernadene Stodghill, granddaughter of Mrs. Rogers, and a vocal selection by Mrs. Vivian Warren, daughter of Mrs. Rogers.

A refreshment plate of punch and cookies was served to the 12 members present.

The next meeting will be on July 11 in the home of Mrs. Lila Beatty.

HOME FROM NEW ORLEANS

Mrs. W. P. Farrington and Mrs. Bess C. Neff and daughter, Lucille, returned home last Friday from New Orleans, Louisiana, where they attended the wedding of Dr. Nolley Farrington on June 18th.

Miss Virginia Sanson of Quanah visited Miss Louise Ingram here several days last week. Louise accompanied her home for a visit. The girls were classmates at N.T.S.T.C., Denton.

Lions Officers Are Installed On Wednesday Night

Lions and their ladies turned kiddoes again Wednesday night! The occasion was the club's ladies' night and installation of officers, which was held on the lawn of the West Texas Utilities office.

After eating barbecued chicken, pickles, bread, potato chips, and ice cream which had been provided by Arthur Mitchell, Don Ferris and Sebern Jones, refreshment committee, Lions and ladies indulged in children's games of little white house over the hill, teapot, and others.

Lee Haymes, retiring president, made a short talk and declared the new officers duly installed. He introduced both the officers and directors, then called in P. V. Williams, incoming president, who made a short talk.

Last minute decision to hold the event on the Utilities lawn was made because of a plentiful supply of mosquitoes at the city park. A number of the pests, however, learned of the change in plans and were there with ravenous appetites.

About thirty persons attended the picnic.

Miss Estellene Gully of Wichita Falls spent the week end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gully.

County Judge E. L. Covey of Benjamin was a business visitor in the city Tuesday.

Tom Haney of Wichita Falls was a business visitor in the city Tuesday.

Fred Warren of Lubbock spent last Sunday here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Warren.

J. A. Warren is confined to his home this week on account of illness.

Soil Conservation District Likely

Knox county land owners have been circulating a petition requesting that a soil conservation district be set up in Knox county. The county land use planning committee is sponsoring the petitions and carrying them around.

If a soil conservation district is set up, Knox county will be eligible to get much-needed assistance from the soil conservation service to make soil analysis, run contour lines, and lay off terrace lines. "We would also be eligible to get a CCC camp, but this is not probable," County Agent Rice said.

There are a number of other sources of aid that will be available to farmers after a district is set up and if the farmers themselves want this service.

This program will be entirely voluntary throughout, and only landowners will be eligible to set up the district.

County Supt. Merick McGaughey of Benjamin was in town Wednesday, on official business.

J. P. "Buster" Tolson of Vera was a business visitor in town Wednesday.

METHODIST CHURCH

These are days when people are asking many questions as to the future and anything that throws light on what might be the status of things a generation hence. In times of unrest and upheavals such as is seen today, the church has a message that is more farsighted than most any other source of information. One cannot afford to pull the foundation of civilization from underneath their lives, or nation, if they expect the future to look rosy. Certainly the church has a message for this age and it is much needed in the keeping of our poise under present conditions.

Our services are held regularly at the hours as follows: Church Worship hours are 11:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m. Since holding the evening hours during the summer months we find that the people like it and attend much more regularly and with deeper interest. Be with us at six o'clock this Sunday evening. Sunday School meets at 10:00 a.m. and the Leagues at 7:00 p.m. Missionary Society Monday at 4:00 p.m. and the Sunshine Circle, young women's division of the W. S.C.S., at 8:00 p.m. on Monday. Tuesday night is "Fun-Night" for the young people. You are invited to attend any of these services at the appointed hours.

Special meetings will be announced at the regular services. The church is here for your comfort and consolation; use it to profit.

To Have Larger Enrollee List

Austin, June 25.—As a contribution to the President's National Defense Program, the Civilian Conservation Corps plans to place additional emphasis in the future on non-combatant training necessary to fill civilian jobs.

This statement was made Tuesday by Adam R. Johnson, Executive Director of the State Department of Public Welfare, in a Texas State Network broadcast of the U. S. Government Reports weekly series.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Next Sunday closes the first half of 1940. How swiftly the days pass, and the years go by! A day idly spent is a day lost. It seems that just yesterday we began this year. Just around the corner the year will close. How are we spending it? When the evening comes on, and the shadows lengthen may we look back to a day well spent and say with Paul "I have fought a good fight." Along toward the close of Paul's ministry he said, "I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day." This could not have been true if he had idled away his time.

We urge you to come to the services next Sunday. You don't have to "dress up." You don't have to wear a coat. Come as you are. Be comfortable.

The Bible lesson last Sunday was Honesty Toward God, taken from the third chapter of Malachi. All of us believe the Bible, but where its teaching sets up a hard rule for us we want to part company with it. Next Sunday the lesson is The Witness of God's Mercy as expressed in the book of Jonah.

"There's a wideness in God's mercy, Like the wideness of the sea; There's a kindness in his justice, Which is more than liberty.

For the love of God is broader Than the measure of man's mind; And the heart of the Eternal Is most wonderfully kind."

You are always welcome to any or all of our services.

W. H. Albertson

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Wilson and children of Big Spring were the guests Wednesday of the former's mother, Mrs. E. H. Wilson.

Interviewed by B. Frank White, Acting State Director for the Office of Government Reports, Johnson discussed the enrollment of 90,000 young men as replacements in the CCC during July, and said that these new enrollees will fill existing vacancies caused by discharges in the last 3 months, and the expiration of other terms of enrollment on July 1.

He stated that this year as a phase of National Defense, emphasis will be placed on training in auto mechanics, cooking and baking, first aid, road building and bridge construction and maintenance, truck driving, and radio and signal communications.

Regulations governing enrollment in the Corps, said Johnson, state that an enrollee must be between the ages of 17 and 23, unemployed and in need of employment. The new enrollment period extends from July 1 to July 26 inclusive.

Checkout of Tires To Trim Accident Toll, Dealer Says

INTEREST IN KEEPING THIS CITY'S RECORD LOW PROMPTS OFFER OF EXAMINATION

After nearly two and half years' use on cars of average Americans under all types of driving, survey and test records have shown, according to J. E. Reeves, local Good-year dealer, that the Marathon tire, has piled up billions of highway miles proving itself an entirely satisfactory product.

This is important now, when a large percentage of the middle-class group of Americans is thinking about a trip, or about putting new casings on their cars to insure against accidents in Summer traffic when tire failures may be the beginning of a great deal of trouble.

"Opportunity to spend the application of new tires to older cars with an attractive proposition is provided in the two and four-tire sets which we are offering," Mr. Reeves continued. "Largest percentage of tire replacement is either for two or four tires, seldom for one or three," he pointed out, "and figures show that the majority of tire buyers would prefer to purchase either two or four rather than just one, which is usually all they can afford, if they buy a good grade tire made by a recognized manufacturer."

"That's why our two or four Marathon offer is important to people who are watchful of their budgets and who want at the same time to buy tested merchandise. That's why the Marathon's record is worth the Marathon's record is worth considering."

"In addition there's the lifetime guarantee which applies to the Marathon which makes it an even better proposition. Tire inspection costs nothing and is good safety precaution to take. We'll be pleased to look over tires for wheel alignment, unbalanced braking and so on to insure getting the most miles out of tires, as well as to point out which ones are dangerous and require replacing."

Goree Man, 99, Witnessed Hanging Of John Brown at Harper's Ferry

Goree, Tex.—Back in 1840 when a good part of the nation was singing "Tippecanoe and Tyler Too" in behalf of the candidacy of William Henry Harrison, J. R. Rawlins was born in the sleepy little town of Charleston, Va.

The Whigs elected Harrison, who later died in office, and the United States plumed steadily onward in the next 20 years toward civil war. And J. R. Rawlins, is his 20th year, was swept into that conflict in 1861. That was the highlight of this Goree man's varied experience. On Oct. 8 he will observe his 100th birthday.

Rawlins' first wife died many years ago. He was married again in 1884 to Miss Annie Barkley, who is still living. Eight children were born to this union, the oldest of which is 56 years of age. Six of the children are living.

Rawlins moved to Texas 48 years ago, has lived in Knox county 31 years and has been a patron of the Goree post office for 21 years.

At the outbreak of the civil war,

Rawlins joined the Confederate army and served under Gen. Stonewall Jackson. He was in the battle of Bull Run and of Gettysburg, being wounded in the latter battle. He was present at the hanging of John Brown at Harper's Ferry.

Rawlins, a retired farmer, was in good health until his 97th birthday, when he was injured by a fall, and has since been confined to his home.

He has been a life-long Democrat, and is a member of the Missionary Baptist Church.—Wichita Daily Times.

TEXAS OUT-OF-DOORS

Wildlife Valued at $94,350,394

Austin, Texas.—Texas continues to lead the nation in the value of a wildlife resources, according to figures assembled after surveys were made by the federal government and forwarded to the executive secretary of the State Game Commission. Not only does Texas lead the nation, but its wildlife resources are worth approximately three times as much as those of the second leading state.

Wildlife resources in Texas are valued at $94,350,394 by federal experts. This takes into consideration the value of insectivorous birds to the farmer, of game and the amount of money spent by hunters it brings the land owner, hotel owner, stores and tourists camps; the value of the fur crop in the state and a myriad of other ways in which game is of actual monetary value to the Lone Star State.

Detoured Traffic for Quail

A mother quail and her nest of 1 eggs recently caused travelers to do a bit of detouring between Racketville in Kinney county and Oak Springs in Edwards county. The state highway department's crew of engineers and construction gang, in building a road between those two communities, located a quail nest of 21 eggs. All traffic was detoured around that spot until Mama Quail hatched 19 of her 21 eggs and the little birds were able to leave the nest, it is reported to the State Game Department's executive secretary.

Quail Hatch is Early

The quail hatch in several sections of North Texas is reported earlier this year than usual. Several hatches in Denton county near Lake Dallas are the earliest ever reported.

While the rains which have been general throughout Texas will do much to aid the game crop in Texas this year, early hatchings of eggs of quail, turkey and prairie chickens in some areas have been washed out by exceedingly heavy rains.

However, should the rains cease soon it will not be too late for some species of game to lay second or even third hatchings of eggs.

Got His Plug Back

Not only did Will Baugh of Bonham, Texas, hook a nine-pound catfish on a plug twice, but the strikes came two days apart, and he got back his first plug, which the heavy cat had snatched when he broke the anglers line, Bob Cantrell of the Bonham Favorite relates. Mr. Baugh was fishing on a recent Saturday when he felt a heavy tug on his plug. He hauled the nine-pound cat to within a few feet of the boat when the fish broke the line. Baugh went fishing again on Monday and it was not long before he again got a heavy tug on his line. He landed a huge catfish which proved to be the same one had tangled with Saturday. The way he knew? The catfish still had Baugh's first plug dangling from its mouth!

Tried Gar Fishing Yet?

The State Game Department's campaign to get anglers fishing for gar continues to progress. Have you tried the sport yet? Gar fishing with a wire noose is proving one of the most thrilling of all sports to hundreds of Texas anglers. A request to the State Game Department at Austin for a leaflet describing the procedure and how to make the noose will bring you one free of charge.

Radio For Another Warden

The West Texas Game Association of San Angelo recently purchased a short wave radio receiving set for the game warden stationed in that West Texas city, and the set, installed in his car, has already proved its worth. Now comes word that the state game warden at Brownwood has equipped his car with a short wave set and station KNGW, the police station of Brownwood, is co-operating with him. Lack of funds prevents the State Game Department from equipping all its cars with short wave receiving sets.

"SEEING EYE" DOGS

At Morristown, N.J., is located a training school for German police dogs used by blind men and women. These dogs are called the "Seeing Eye." They are trained to guide their owners safely through city traffic and around obstructions. The dogs are first tested for courage and intelligence and trustworthiness and only the best are trained. Owing to the high type of dog required and time and expense of training only a comparative few blind persons can afford a Seeing Eye Dog.

Travels 366,779 Miles in Safety

"I'd rather be late than never arrive at my destination."

This homspun philosophy has helped effect a record of driving a company automobile 366,779 miles in eight years without an accident.

for Luther Tolbert, assistant pipe line superintendent for Lone Star Gas Company, which sells gas wholesale to Community Natural Gas Company, Texas Cities Gas Company other local distributing companies. Mr. Tolbert's safe driving mileage is equivalent to 13 1-2 times around the earth.

Pursued in the interest of the company's constant safety campaign to protect its employees and the public, Mr. Tolbert's accomplishment is among the perfect driving records that have been established by a number of employees. His work takes him through all kinds of weather at all hours of the night and day over every conceivable type of road, confronting him with a maximum of driving hazards.

"I give other drivers the benefit of every doubt," he said. "I might have an alibi that I used the proper hand signals, that the right-of-way was mine, or that the other driver should have been looking where he was going, but if an accident should happen all the alibis in the world could not repair the damage or rectify the injury caused by an automobile mishap."

Mr. Tolbert, whose record started in 1932, believes that greatest precaution should be taken on the clear, wide highways where the tendency to speed is strong. The driver who might zig out of a side road without looking, the stalled car or truck, the unknown danger around the next curve, are all pointed out by Mr. Tolbert as hazards which prove caution profitable on the highway as well as in a city's congested traffic.

THE BOY

"HAS NO FUTURE"

He is an American boy.

There are fifteen million like him in America; as young, as eager, as promising.

Yet some people feel sorry for these boys. They tell us American frontiers are gone. They say there is no future for youth in this country.

Do you believe such statements? We people of your electric company don't believe them, and we'll tell you why:

Fifty years ago the electric industry had barely begun its existence. There were no automobile, radio and aviation industries. Coming right up to date, here are a few of the things we didn't have as recently as 1930:

Streamline trains. Transoceanic air service. New plastics and resins. Synthetic rubber. Synthetic vitamins. Sulfanilamide and sulfapyridine, drugs that are revolutionizing medicine.

There are always new frontiers and new futures in America. In good times and bad, Americans work to make the good things of life better and cheaper. The employees of your electric company are typical: their efforts have helped make it possible for this company to give far better service than it could give twelve or fifteen years ago, and to charge about half what was charged then.

The men of your electric company were once American boys. They believed in their own futures and the future of their country. They worked to make the future better for themselves and their fellow citizens. They hope today's young Americans will not listen to pessimism, because they know that every American has a future if he sincerely believes he has.

I GIVE YOU TEXAS

By Boyce House

Imagine writing a general book about Texas and not giving a line to O. Henry, Brann the leonoclast, Big-Foot Wallace, Adobe Walls, Cynthia Ann Parker, the Lost Bowie mine, the trial of the Indian chiefs at Jacksboro, the camels, the Texas Navy—just a bare mention of the King ranch; nothing on Captain Bill McDonald, in fact only two paragraphs on the Texas Rangers; a scant mention of Sam Houston; only a satiric account of the battle of the Alamo; an utterly inadequate treatment on oil, the State's greatest industry; nothing on the State University's oil millions; nothing on Ranger, the biggest boom in history; almost nothing on cotton.

Coming on down to the current scene, this remarkable book (remarkable chiefly for what it leaves out) has not even the names of Amon Carter, Vice President Garner, Sam Rayburn, Martin Dies, Maury Maverick, Dr. George W. Truett nor Sam Baugh, Davey O'Brien, Mary (My Heart Belongs to Daddy) Martin; nothing about the Fort Worth Casa Manana, the Fat Stock Show roedo nor Old Rip, the Eastland horned frog.

There are just 16 pages on the cattle country, though the author himself says, "This is what the average American has in mind when he thinks of Texas." But there are 3,000 words about a bunch of band boys handling an old man roughly in San Antonio; a page and a half on the funeral of a Kentucky gambler in Nevada and a page on the death of a Missouri outlaw in Minneapolis. The name of the book? "Saddle in the Sky," by J. H. Plenn.

"The day we celebrate" is marked by numerous big affairs over the State, such as the Stamford Cowboy Reunion, a re-enactment in Jacksboro of the famous trial of the Indian chiefs, and the July Jubilee in Brady.

The plight of the candidate for office is depicted in these beautiful stanzas from Harry Koch's Quannah Tribune-Chief:

Oh! Pity the poor politician
Who would in campaigning engage;
He surely must be a magician
In order to crash the front page;
He may be a new incarnation
Of Houston or Crockett or Hogg,
But cannot explain this relation
While lost in the midst of a fog.
As Churchill and Reynaud and Goering
The newspaper headlines control,
No chance have the voters adoring
To learn how he'll handle the dole;
While legions of war commentators
Crowd the air with opinions so choice,
The man who could lead legislators
Can ne'er treat the folks to his voice.

Whenever he's ready to mention
His plans on retrieving the state,
The President grabs all attention
By warning of Liberty's fate;
The day he has shrewdly selected
His "willing to serve" to announce,
Another blitzkrieg is projected
More jackals are ready to pounce.

He may be Democracy's savior,
He may be all wisdom itself,
But dictators' warlike behavior
Keeps shoving him back on the shelf;
He's up against tough competition—
No wonder he's livid with rage;
Oh! Pity the poor politician
Who would in campaigning engage.

A friend is a feller that you don't have to pretend with, as my grandpa ust to say.

Stamford Ready to Entertain Reunion Crowds

These scenes from last year's Reunion give an idea of what will be taking place at Stamford during the eleventh annual Texas Cowboy Reunion July 2, 3 and 4. Upper picture shows a street intersection during the parade, with a real ranch chuck wagon in the foreground. Lower picture shows one corner of the rodeo arena during the grand entry.

Official show of the American Quarter Horse Association and also a gaited horse show will be held as added attractions at this year's Reunion. New Rodeo events include girls' calf-roping twice daily and a square dance on horseback the night of July 4.

Gossett Calls For "Less Words, More Action"

Makes Speech Before Congress Asking For Defense

In a speech in Congress the first of last week entitled "Making the World Safer for Democracy," Congressman Ed Gossett cited the need for the United States as being "more action and less words."

Among other things which the congressman said was the following:

"The defeat of the great French democracy by the ruthless power of a dictator makes it more evident than ever that we should immediately respond to President Roosevelt's plea for rapid production of war materials and supplies. . . . We need more action and less words."

"Before the sun goes down we should sign proper contracts with Henry Ford and have him begin tomorrow on his program to produce 1,000 airplanes a day. We must not only prepare for our own defense, but we must prepare to take the lead in the peace that has to follow after the war. Our economic power should be used to aid defenseless people and to defeat aggressors."

"We should blush with shame to think that more than 2,000,000 Chinese people have been killed and more than 40,000,000 made homeless largely through use of American scrap iron and gasoline. Let us resolve that henceforth, whether in peace or war, we will devote to the service of our country the best that we possess of mind and heart with the hope that divine providence will guide our feet in the paths of peace."

Mrs. E. E. McGregor of Benjamin was shopping in town one day last week.

Mrs. Woodrow Cowan of route two, Goree, was shopping here Tuesday.

County Judge E. L. Covey of Benjamin was here Friday on official business.

New Industries Locate in Texas

Industrialization of the Southwest is indicated in the fact that during the past year more than 200 industrial and manufacturing plants have been established in the Texas and Oklahoma territory served by the Lone Star Gas System, according to survey by the organization's industrial departments. An abundance of raw materials and natural gas have brought many of the new industries to this part of the country.

Products of the new plants are soap, yeast, beverages, batteries, furniture, roofing products, clothing, hats, foods, meats, ice, machinery, ice cream, etc. Towns in which the new business have been established include Bonham, Sweetwater, Cisco, Electra, Garland, Wichita Falls, McKinney, West, Weinert, Greenville, Midlothian, Dallas, Fort Worth, and a number of other towns of the 300 served by Lone Star in Texas and Oklahoma.

Largest of the new manufacturing plants are the Byer-Rolnick Hat Company at Garland; a million dollar soap factory at Dallas; and two large plants at Fort Worth. At Greenville the Lovkitt Manufacturing Company makes women's underwear, drapes and Venetian blinds. The Bonham Foundry at Bonham makes castings for the Southwest Pump Company of Bonham. Among other new firms are Chadwell Cleaners, Sweetwater; Ruppert Bakery, Cisco; Texas Food Mill and Elevator Company, Electra; W. N. Falls, food products, Wichita Falls; A. Kraus, ice cream, McKinney; Nemecek Brothers, meat products, West; Hardy Ice Cream Company, Wichita Falls; West Texas Cottonoil Company, gin, Weinert; Economy Cash Feed Store, Wichita Falls; Wodall's Fagan Gin Company, Calver; Greenville Co-Operative Gin Association No. 2, Greenville; Midlothian Co-Operative Gin Association, Midlothian; and the C. and I. Cleaners, Purcell, Oklahoma. Walters Co-Operative Elevator Association, Walters, Oklahoma, and the Dixie Bakery, Hugo, Oklahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Patterson of Benjamin were business visitors here last Thursday.

Mrs. Clyde Warren of Goree was here Saturday, visiting and shopping.

J. C. Walker of Knox City was a business visitor in the city Saturday.

Mrs. W. O. James of Goree, route one, was shopping in town Saturday.

RATLIFF BROS. BILL WHITE, Auctioneer

There was a time

—when old fashioned heating methods blistered your face while your back shivered.

But now . . .

with natural gas service, winter can be just another pleasant, healthful season in the modern home.

A timely reminder

Make your plans now for winter heating ahead of the usual fall rush

Do you remember the old days? Old-fashioned methods of heating . . . children wore heavy underwear and long stockings in order to keep warm . . . members of the family "huddled" in one or two rooms during cold weather . . . mother went shivering about the house with a shawl around her shoulders . . . someone was always "catching cold"—Remember? There is a direct relationship between your family's health during winter months and the way you heat your home. Sudden changes of temperature during the treacherous months of cold weather are dangerous. If you follow the old-fashioned practice of "huddling" in one or two rooms while the rest of the house remains unheated—YOU ARE TAKING CHANCES WITH YOUR FAMILY'S HEALTH. Plan now to have adequate heat and healthful temperatures in every room in the home this winter. It's the modern way to fight the "common cold."

The cold germ is responsible for more than two hundred million illnesses each year. Don't give a "common cold" an even break!

Munday Opens Last Half With Win On Sunday

Capitol All-Stars Are Downed by Locals

Last Sunday the Munday Cardinals came behind the defeat of Benjamin All-Stars in the 11th inning, 4 to 3.

The game was close all the way and the large crowd that witnessed the fracas got plenty of thrills. Moorhouse, Benjamin first baseman, scored one for the invaders in the first inning. Two more Benjamin runs crossed the platter by the fifth inning. Until the fifth Munday had failed to score and things were looking bad. The Cardinals' hopes were brightened a little in the fifth when Clarence Daugherty crossed the plate on a single by Pete Reid.

It remained for J. B. King to furnish the feature of the contest when he lofted a home run high over the fielders, scoring Stumpy Owens ahead of him, tying the score. Things remained at a deadlock until the 11th inning, when Troy Denham hit a long one to left field, scoring Sheeny Rayburn and breaking up the ball game.

HAS APPENDECTOMY

Cecil Smith, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Smith, was taken to the Knox City hospital last Friday afternoon, where he submitted to an appendectomy. He is reported to be doing nicely. Cecil has been employed at the Times office for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowry Rigby and daughter spent last week end at Medicine Mound, visiting in the home of Mrs. Rigby's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Jackson.

Floyd Simpson and daughter of Lorenzo visited Mr. Simpson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Simpson, and other relatives here last Sunday.

Agent Urging Knox Farmers To Build Silos

Knox county farmers should plan to dig their trench silos now. Feed crop prospects are exceptionally good, and feed can best be saved for a long period of time in a trench silo. Feed has been kept for 15 years in trench silos with no damage whatsoever, County Agent Rice reported. It can be buried and forgotten until a dry year comes along.

Knox county made a bumper feed crop in 1933 but had very little on hand for 1934, when no feed was made.

Trench silos should be made to fit the number of cattle that you plan to feed out, Rice said. Usually a trench silo for the average farm should be about 9 feet wide at the top, 7 feet wide at the bottom and 6 feet deep.

Bulletins may be gotten at the county agent's office, giving full details on construction of trench silos.

The winner of the eastern half, comprising Wichita Falls, Electra, Scotland and Windthorst, will meet Rhineland in a series of games to determine the winner of the C.Y.O. district league.

The box score:

Rhineland	ABR	H	O	A	E

Vera Bows To Rhineland 16-0 Last Sunday

Entering the second half of the Knox county softball schedule with renewed vigor and determination, the Red Raiders of Rhineland administered a thorough coat of whitewash to the opposition last Sunday, defeating Vera by the score of 16 to 0.

With Montgomery, a star at every position, pitching a six-hit game and with A. Kuhler, C. Wilde, Montgomery and R. Kuhler collaborating to lead the attack, Rhineland proved a terror to B. Hardin, who could stand it only to the fifth inning, when he was relieved by Frazier, who fared little better.

The fact that Rhineland played minus the services of several of their stars made it all the more amazing.

Vera contributed little of the amusement of the fans except a comedy of errors and all sorts of tactics, most of which were a discredit to the game.

Next Sunday Rhineland invades Goree, and, as the saying sometimes goes, it is the belief of local partisans that Donnell Radliff and his mates "would give their right arms to defeat Rhineland just once." So, without further elaboration, this will be a real game.

Following the game with Vera, the Rhineland C.Y.O. contested, and with the aid of Lefty Decker, defeated Bomarton for the championship of this half of the C.Y.O. league. This half of the league is comprised of Seymour, Megargel, Bomarton, and Rhineland.

Score by innings:

Rhineland	0	2	3	6	16
Vera	0	0	0	0	0

Softball Standing

Team	G	W	L	Pct
Rhineland	1	1	0	1.000
Munday	1	1	0	1.000
Knox City	1	1	0	1.000
Goree	1	0	1	.500
Benjamin	1	0	1	.500
Vera	1	0	1	.500

Sunday's Results:
Rhineland 16, Vera 0.
Munday 4, Benjamin 3 (11 in.)
Knox City 2, Goree 1.

Where They Play Sunday
Rhineland at Goree.
Knox City at Benjamin.
Munday at Vera.

DICK TODD SIGNS WITH "REDSKINS" FOR 1940 GRID SEASON

Dick Todd, famed Crowell football star, has signed a contract with the Washington Redskins for the 1940 grid season.

Todd plans to leave Crowell in August for Spokane, Washington, when the Redskins will start their fall training.

Cotton Production, Ginnings Listed By Counties of Area

The Bureau of Census has announced the preliminary report of cotton grown by counties of Texas for the crop of 1939. These statistics were compiled in compliance with an enactment approved June 14, 1938, designed to make available information of the production of cotton for each county.

The chart for West Texas is listed below, giving the amount grown and ginned. It will be remembered that there is an overlapping of ginning from one county to another, and the chart will give additional information along that line.

County	Total Ginned	Total Grown
Callahan	2,548	3,592
Coke	1,696	1,917
Coleman	11,969	11,680
Dickens	11,594	11,090
Fisher	18,796	21,173
Haskell	19,942	21,787
Howard	18,749	15,923
