Munday C. of C. Banquet Is Friday

When the Munday Chamber of Commerce holds its annual membership meeting on Friday night of this week, many visitors will represent neighboring towns in this section of the state.

Towns in Knox county which will be represented are: Gilliland, Rhineland, Vera, Sunset, Goree, Knox City, Benjamin and Truscott. Other towns in this section which will have representatives at the meeting are: Haskell, Stamford, Seymour, Throckmorton, Wichita Falls, Abilene, Olney, and Weintert.

To Have Coffee Hour
The meeting will be held at the Munday school auditorium, beginning at 7:15 o'clock.

The Munday organization voted to do away with the regular banquet dinner this year and devote more time to the entertainment phase of the annual meeting. Instead of the dinner, a coffee hour will be observed.

Featured on the entertainment program will be a group from Hardin-Simmons University, who are known throughout this section as an outstanding group which presents a variety of high class and entertaining numbers. This will include vocal numbers, a marimba trio, a trick roper and other types of entertainment.

Rev. P. D. O'Brien, pastor of the Stamford Baptist church and former Munday pastor, will act as toastmaster. The principal speaker will be Dr. Thomas H. Taylor, president of Howard Payne College, Brownwood.

Other entertainment will include Bill Davis, saxophone, and Kenneth Frizzell, accordion, both of Knox City. They will play during the coffee hour.

Two Plays To Be Staged Here In Near Future

"Feudin' in the Hills" To Be Presented On Tuesday Night

The Pruitts and the Martins will be gunning for one another when the Munday High School senior class of 1941 presents one of two plays they will offer this year.

"Feudin' in the Hills," a comedy by James C. Parker will be the first one presented. It is scheduled for Tuesday night, March 11, at 8 o'clock in the ward school auditorium.

The plot centers around the Pruitts and the Martins, two mountain families with an old time grudge they can not forget. Mr. Martin, the leader of his clan, is a backwoodsman with a genuine hatred for his neighbors across the valley. His slogan is "If it was good enough for my father, it is good enough for me." Sargent Lowe handles this part in unique style according to the coach of the play, Miss Hylan Holloway, of the Munday High School english department.

The most colorful character of the play is Aileen Jungman in the part of Grandma Martin. Other members of the cast say she plays the part with enthusiasm. In the part of Grandma Martin she rules the house and "raises Cain" in general when things don't go to suit her.

Adequately supporting the above characters, says Miss Holloway, are the following characters: Mrs. Martin, Bonnie Jones; Edna Mae Martin, Patsy Ruth Mitchell; Jed Martin, Frank Nance; Zula Martin, Sue Stodghill; Sam Pruitt, Hugh Longino; Dina Pruitt, Audrey Nell Phillips; Dr. Ambercrombie, Joe Dean Clough; Myrtle Ambercrombie, Polly Silman.

The admission is 10, 15 and 25 cents.

School Census Being Taken In Knox County

Taking of the scholastic census of Knox County was started the first of this month, it was announced Tuesday by Merick McLaughlin, county superintendent. School census enumerators are at work in the sixteen districts of Knox county.

The work started March 1, and the enumerators have until March 31 to complete the census. Reports must be in by April 1, McLaughlin said.

"It is important that all school children be enumerated during the scholastic census," Mr. McLaughlin said, "as it means money to the school of Knox county to have every child of school age listed on the roll. It is very difficult to get additional names on the scholastic roll after the reports are sent to Austin."

Mr. McLaughlin asked that all school patrons cooperate fully with the enumerators in order that every child of school age be listed for Knox county.

Hickman's Calf Reserve Champ

Calves Sold Friday In Auction That Sets All Records

The 990-pound calf owned and fed by Charles Hickman, 4-H Club boy of Truscott, that was grand champion winner of the Knox county show on February 15, was awarded the reserve champion last week at the Wichita Falls district show.

Competition was so keen between this calf and the grand champion, shown by Thurman Joe Kennedy of Wichita county, that the judges spent much time in deciding the champion calf. Hickman's calf easily won the championship of the senior show. The calf was bred by the League Estate ranch near Benjamin.

Knox county showed three calves that ranked as "prime calves" by the judges. The other two were shown by Charles Baker and George Jones, Jr., winners of 5th and 6th place respectively.

Pat Hill showed a calf that ranked as medium in the senior division. Among the 18 calves ranked as choice in the Junior division were those shown by Joe Barton, Lloyd Hendrix, Wade McGuire, Bob Robinson and Finis Bratcher. The calf shown by Wayne Robinson was ranked as medium in this division.

Knox county won first place on the selection of the best five calves in the show, with Baylor county running second. Boys whose calves were selected in the five are: Wade McGuire, Charles Hickman, Charles Baker and George Jones, Jr.

Setting a precedent at the auction sale which followed the show, Hickman's reserve champion calf brought more at the sale than did the grand champion. Hickman's calf sold for 50 cents per pound, while the champion sold for 46 cents. Weighing 990 pounds, the calf netted Hickman $495 and was bought by L. T. (Bobby) Jones.

The auction was a record-breaker. The 50 calves were sold in an hour's time. Knox county boys who sold calves, the weights, their breeders, the price per pound and the buyers are as follows:

Charles Baker, 1,030, Hugh Rogers, 18 cents, Prine's Barbecue; George Jones, Jr., 950, League Ranch, 17.5, Industrial Supply Co.; Joe Barton, 795, T. H. Dolan, 17.5, Safeway Stores; Finis Bratcher, 890, League Ranch, 17, E-Z Stores; Lloyd Hendrix, 775, League Ranch, 15.75, Wichita Falls Clinic Hospital; Pat Hill, 915, League Ranch, 16.5, Lone Star Tool Co.; Wade McGuire, 845, League Ranch, 16, W. "What a Man Does For Himself Dies With Him—
What He Does For His Community Lives On and On"—

ONE TOWN'S STORY

There is one small coastal town in New England, that, in its place in the defense picture, is typical of hundreds of American communities—and on that basis, is worth a moment of thought and comment.

Like small cities in every state in the union, this community energetically and patriotically set to work organizing its local facilities to assist in the defense program. That was a number of months ago and emissaries were sent to Washington to represent the town. Washington, pressed with the urgent need for placing large contracts first, has indicated that the shipbuilding yards in the small town will eventually be put to work. But meanwhile, the first impact of the speeded production in other centers has struck this small community. Its labor and purchasing power have started to leave for those production centers where work has begun. And some in the place are, of course, rather discouraged by the turn events have taken.

But, whether or not they realize the fact, the dawn of a new day lies ahead for a small community like this. The defense program is now reaching the stage where more and more work can be "sub-contracted"; that is to say, where the making of the parts that go into the manufacture of a complex piece of military equipment can be "farmed out" to a number of small plants in the smaller towns.

The situation is even now being carefully surveyed with this in mind, by the National Industrial Council, an organization of trade groups sponsored by the National Association of Manufacturers. Large companies and equally important small ones are being asked to list the space, tools and other equipment that they possess which might be helpful in the defense effort. The small New England coastal town and hundreds of others like it will profit eventually from this inventory.

When a lot of people are trying to get a big job done in a hurry, there are sure to be mishaps, but, taken all in all, this nation is working things out in pretty logical fashion, and in its own free traditional way, as it goes about making the defense of its liberties sure and secure. And the little town should soon be a part of that picture.

VINSON AND THE NAVY

This country has no more vigilant and valiant champion of naval power than Congressman Carl Vinson of Georgia, who is now rounding out ten years as chairman of the House Naval Affairs Committee. He has been the most active leader in getting all naval expansion bills through Congress since 1931.

Mr. Vinson's views on the necessity for the strongest possible navy are set forth in a recent article in the United States News, and may be summarized as follows:

He believes that our first task is to aid Britain, not merely to gain time to arm ourselves, but because joint control of the seas with Britain is necessary if the Americas are to be made safe from invasion. Therefore, his position may be summed up in a single sentence: "We can't afford to let England lose."

He reasons that if Germany can take over Britain and her navy, the Axis powers will not only have a combined naval strength much greater than ours, but will have five times our shipbuilding capacity. It is significant, he thinks, that Germany has not done great damage to England's shipyards, which seems to be evidence that Hitler wants to capture them intact, so as to turn their productive capacity against us or any other nation he desires to conquer.

With the shipyards of England and all Europe under his control, Hitler could eventually dominate the world, Mr. Vinson believes, even if the present British Navy should escape his grasp. And this is something for every American to think about.

Albert Sengstock of Des Plaines, Ill., in court for reckless driving, explained that his false teeth became loose and lodged in his throat, and in trying to dislodge them he lost control of his car.

Natives of the island of Tahiti, in the South Pacific, go in strong for tattooing, and until the war started obtained machines for plying their art from Germany. That source of supply being cut off they now get their tattooing machines from a new manufacturer in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Eleanor McCaul of Miami, petitioned the court to restrain her husband, Thomas, from visiting his dog, stating that he had never helped to support it.

The old age pension office in Raleigh, N. C., received a letter from a 72-year old man who wanted his pension discontinued because he "disliked being a burden on the government in these difficult times."

The offering of the Zion Methodist Episcopal Church in Cambridge, Md., was stolen while worship was being held in the sanctuary.

When W. V. Wilson of Kansas City, Mo., discovered the upholstery of his car was on fire, he drove into the fire station, explaining to the firemen: "It was too cold a night to make you fellows go out."

DEFENSE—A TWOFOLD CONCEPT

The defense of this country and of the American way of life is certainly the first and whole concern of all of us at the present time.

But it may not be commonly realized that this defense has wider implications than the single cold word all by itself might imply. Defense actually is twofold in its nature:

First, American industry, aided by the other groups in our economy, is going "all out" to produce the materials and equipment necessary for national defense. From the smallest machine shop owned and operated by one man, right up to the largest factories in the land, wholehearted patriotic cooperation is being given to the defense effort.

That is preparedness for today. But in the race to "make America strong" we must not neglect to strengthen preparedness for tomorrow. For we are striving, through all of this defense effort, to preserve our American way of life and our American institutions. And we can accomplish this goal only if we prepare ourselves to go forward to a higher standard of living when this crisis is over. Just as we obtain airplanes and tanks today, only by production, so will better living for everyone in the future come only as all of us produce more and more through the working of our system of private enterprise.

That is the twofold concept of America's defense program.

SAFETY SEEKS SOUND STATUTES

During the year just past, Texas traffic authorities and other safety workers, educators and careful drivers lost ground in their continuing and always difficult campaign to keep persons from getting killed on highways and streets.

Texas Safety Association accepts that showing as a challenge and is determined to meet it. Though the leaders perceive that their task is mainly education, that they must reach the individual motorist and persuade him to drive carefully at all times, and that pedestrian education is called for, they also see an urgent need of bringing Texas' traffic code up to date.

In effect, the Association proposes that Texas adopt the basic principles of the Uniform Motor Vehicle code. Those are measures dictated by common sense, that have also stood the test of time—measures which have been keeping down accidents for 20 years past in the States which first applied them. Thus, the safety leaders will be urging the Texas law-makers to accept no startling innovation.

Briefly, the Association seeks a standard driver's license law, a substantial increase in the Texas Highway patrol, a more workable statute covering drunken driving, uniform compulsory accident-reporting, a schedule of sensible, enforceable speed limits "to conform with modern traffic."

The key proposal is the genuinely effective licensing law—providing a system that would test every motorist's driving ability, knowledge of traffic rules and general fitness, and would also bar the incompetent, lawless and wilfully reckless vehicle operator from the road. It is equally essential that the Legislature reverse the "false economy" move taken two years ago and vote money to pay sufficient highway patrolmen to enforce the laws.

Texas has been scrimping on its public safety budget at the expense of its highway-users' lives.—The San Antonio Express.

Police Judge E. R. Creason of Elizabethtown, Ill., held court from his cell in the county jail a few days ago. He had been jailed for refusing to pay a fine of $20.60 assessed upon his conviction on a charge of intoxication. Evidence and arguments were presented from a hallway outside the cell window.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sumerlin of Bixoli, Miss., have been married 67 years, during which time they have not been separated a single day. Sumerlin is 92 years of age and his wife is 94, both being natives of Alabama.

HOME ECONOMISTS HELP

College Station—County committees of home economists, which can help Texas families become better prepared physically and socially to meet national emergencies, will be set up in the state in the near future, Bess Heflin, president of the Texas Home Economics Association, reported to the Texas State Nutrition Committee at its recent meeting in Austin. Miss Heflin, who is a member of the committee and of the home economics faculty of the University of Texas, said she would appoint temporary chairmen for each county, asking them to call meetings of local home economists for this purpose. Recently, in cooperation with the American Home Economics Association, the Texas organization registered the State's home economists available for volunteer service in behalf of defense. Dr. Ercel S. Eppright, of Texas State College for Women, Denton, was chairman of this registration project.

With the help of these local groups, the State Nutrition Committee will sponsor a series of 10 radio programs over cooperating Texas stations. The series has been designed to help Texas families to become fit to defend democracy and it will require the assistance of professional people, farmers and grocers, business men, clubs and civic organizations—in fact, all groups interested in the production, distribution and proper use of food.

Girls and boys employed on NYA projects in Texas will design posters for use in presenting nutritional information to large masses of people, it was decided, when this offer was made to the committee by one of its members, Mrs. Effie S. TEXAS COWBOY IMMORTALIZES "SEABISCUIT"

A former Texas cowboy, Tex Wheeler, was the sculptor who made the life-size statue of "Seabiscuit," the racehorse that won the greatest sum in the history of the "sport of kings." It was while herding cattle in this State that Wheeler's skill in drawing horses attracted attention that led to a scholarship in Paris, France. The statue of Seabiscuit was unveiled recently at Santa Anita where Texas thoroughbreds have won numerous races this season.

TRUCKS PAY MORE TAXES, FIGURES SHOW

Austin.—So far from not paying their way, the trucks of the United States actually pay more taxes than any other form of transportation, according to a national compilation recently made public; trucks $416,000,000; railroads $340,000,000—and this in spite of the fact that the railroads haul approximately 66 per cent of the nation's freight and the trucks carry only 7 per cent.

Defense Equipment Rolling Off The Lines In U.S. Automobile Plants

Detroit, Mich.—At least 150,000 men will be working on national defense contracts of the automobile companies by the latter part of the present year, and between 100,000 and 200,000 more men will be employed by the time its bomber parts program gets in full swing, according to a progress report issued in pictorial form today by the Automobile Manufacturers Association.

Every company in the automobile industry now is represented in production of one or more defense items, the report shows, with the load growing rapidly.

Defining the defense assignments as this industry's "No. 1 Job" today, Alvan Macauley, President of the Association, in a foreword stated:

"From the start the automobile companies saw this job as one that must have the right of way. They voluntarily pledged to subordinate their forward tooling systems wherever by doing so they could expedite defense production. All along the line, the job is and has been, a fight against time."

Special recognition is given the "energetic and devoted efforts" of the hundreds of technical men in engineering and tool departments, on construction jobs and elsewhere, whose long hours and close applications have pushed the preparations for production "as never before."

"The same effort goes forward in production itself," says Mr. Macauley. "The record of accomplishment to date is one which the people of the country generally, as well as those within the industry, can feel proud. It is evidence again of America's ability to produce for the well-being of all."

The report summarizes the following items:

1. Airplane engines from the automobile industry have been going into service since July, 1940; are coming out now at the rate of 350 a month; will in a short time be many times that number.

2. Two new airplane engine plants are in the final stages of construction and equipment; will be producing this summer. Two more are to be in operation by the end of the year.

3. Ammunition components of many types, such as shells, shell casings, fuses, bomb and torpedo parts are being produced in several automobile plants; will shortly be coming out in a steady stream of large volume. Converted automobile equipment is being used on the shell production now.

4. Plants will shortly be ready for machine gun production, and several companies are working on parts and accessories for big guns, such as breech housings, recoil cylinders, ammunition hoists, etc.

5. Thanks to construction workers who carried forward even under heavy snow, and other comparable effort, tank production will begin well ahead of schedule, if the current rate of progress can be maintained. A start on actual parts of production work has been made.

6. Six companies are actively at work producing or preparing to produce airplane body, wing or tail parts. First shipments of sub-assembly units have already been made. Ultimately, from 100,000 to 200,000 men will be required for this work alone, especially in the projected output of parts for the bombers to be assembled at new Army plants in the Midwest.

7. Continuous deliveries, at a rising rate, are being made on power plants for navy vessels, ranging from the superspeed motors for "mosquito boats" to submarine diesels.

8. Extensive and systematic subcontracting of precision-made parts for air-craft engines and many other defense products has been resorted to as a means of expediting and enlarging production. Major motor companies have taken on such parts assignments. More sub-contracting is expected to be done through the efforts of the Automotive Committee for Air Defense.

Material "bottlenecks" have been attacked through the erection by members of the industry, of foundries for magnesium and aluminum, both now entering production.

10. Despite all these added jobs, not in the regular line of automotive work, the industry's assembly lines are turning out 13,000 special cars and trucks for the U. S. Army each week; expect to step this rate up to 20,000 to pace the Army's expansion, and to have more than a quarter million vehicles in service by the latter part of this year.

Pointing out that this list still is only a partial accounting of the industry's defense work, the report concludes:

"Every American at the wheel, whether driving car or truck, can look at the nameplate of his vehicle and know this: the company that turned it out is doing its bit today."

New Book On Texas History Is Published

Indianapolis, Ind.—Warfare in Texas nearly 100 years, Americans pitted against Mexicans, battle, murder and sudden death in the Lone Star State are featured in a new book published here today by the Bobbs-Merrill Company and is hailed as one of the biographical "finis" of 1941.

The book is a colorful biography of Zachary Taylor, twelfth President of the United States, who spent eleven months fighting and camping in Texas, prior to crossing the Rio Grande for a campaign that culminated in the bloody slopes of Monterey.

In honor of General Taylor's victories in Texas, and his intimate association with the early history of the state, the publishers have announced a special limited Texas edition of ZACHARY TAYLOR: Soldier of the Republic. The edition is limited to two hundred and fifty copies, each copy numbered and signed by the author. The limitation page for the Texas Edition is ornamented by a special design showing the head of General Taylor, derived from an old medal, surrounded by the names of the Texas battles where he won fame. The Texas Edition will be available through Texas book dealers.

General Taylor landed at Corpus Christi from New Orleans, Louisiana, in July, 1845. There he was joined by some of the men who later became outstanding heroes in the Civil War. Robert E. Lee, Ulysses S. Grant, Jefferson Davis, and Abraham Lincoln, were at various times under his command. His dramatic march from Corpus Christi to Brownsville, the battles of Palo Alto and Resaca de la Palma on Texas soil, and the occupation of Matamoros and Monterrey are vividly described.

ZACHARY TAYLOR: Soldier of the Republic is written by Holman Hamilton, Indiana newspaperman and historian, who spent a number of weeks in Texas and Mexico, obtaining material and writing a part of the book.

It is expected to become a non-fiction best-seller and have a wide appeal to Texas readers.

Connally Urges Passage of Lease Lend Measure

Senator Tom Connally in his speech in the Senate last week in favor of the Lease-Lend bill, called upon Congress to present a united front to those who would destroy democracy and free government, and a united front to those who are rallying and defending and fighting for their lives and for free governments.

Speaking as a majority representative of the powerful Foreign Relations Committee, Senator Connally said, "Powerful and militant forces now arrogantly decree the extinction of freedom and democracy wherever their armies of conquest and plunder can march, wherever their navies can float, and wherever their swarming fleets of the skies can fly.

"The dictators, Hitler and Mussolini, and their totalitarian governments, after conquering peaceful and neutral nations in Europe and enslaving their people, whose only crime was that they had possessions and they had freedom, have proclaimed their determination to establish a 'new world order.'"

"The dictators speak of democracy and free government with scorn and arrogant contempt. That attitude reflects what they will do when and if they feel their arms are strong enough to reach into the western world.

"Great Britain, with superb gallantry, is pouring out the blood not alone of her own soldiery but of her civilian population in stemming the tide of world domination and establishing a new world order.

"The pending bill proposes to furnish supplies and munitions but not men, to Great Britain, and the other free governments which are resisting the aggressors."

Senator Connally in analyzing the bill disproved the contention that the bill establishes a dictator. He pointed out that the bill (1) does not deprive any citizen of his American liberties, (2) it limits the actions of the President to defend the national defense of the United States, (3) it sets the termination date of the bill on June 30, 1943, or sooner if Congress so desires.

"We cannot be indifferent to the fate of other nations," continued Connally, "Every time a free nation goes down in ruins the repercussions cross the ocean and beat upon our own shores. Every time liberty in a nation is destroyed it weakens the fabric and the ability of every other free government to advance democracy and to defend itself. I hope Senators by supporting the bill will present a united front to those who would destroy democracy and free government."

Champ Leaps Car at Sports Carnival

With the greatest of ease, Alfred Orhn, former national ski champion, starts the queen's "court" at the great Winter Sports State Park at Grayling, Michigan, by leaping over a Chevrolet Sedan. Miss Yvonne Bradley (third from the right) has been elected Snow Queen and, with her court, welcomes the colorful crowds of winter sports fans who arrive by the thousand in automobiles and snow trains. Six steel toboggan slides and acres of skating rinks are now in operation, and three ski towers and 75 miles of marked ski trails are planned for this huge winter sports development under the supervision of the National Park Service and the Michigan State Park Department.

Sixth Grade

Friday T. W. Hertel and Richard Henderson felt so feminine that they came to school with spit curls and lipstick. The class agrees, after that, they make better looking boys than girls.

Best citizens for this week were F. A. Johnson and Denzil Davis. Policeman Weldon Walling brought several sixth graders before the judge and jury this Friday. The most elusive offenders are usually brought in by the nape of the neck. Policewoman for next week is Willia Mae Thompson.

Next week we are going literary. A poet of great note might be discovered among our ranks soon. If such is the case, the poetry will appear in this column next week.

Seventh Grade

The seventh grade has found a new way to study. They have found that keeping notes is very useful, and to let the teacher give us questions proves to help too. This makes us read our lesson to get the answer to all the questions. We have this method in two of our subjects, History and Civics.

The seventh grade went to see the soldiers go through Munday Friday. We all had a nice time. The reason we did not enjoy it any more is because we have to write a theme on what we saw.

Volleyball

The volleyball girls were greatly disappointed Friday. They received word that Medicine Mound had decided to call their tournament off. The girls had been planning on going very much, and their coach, Mrs. Savage, had them under very hard practice.

Juniors

It's here at last! If you're looking for a play with plenty of action, varied characters, snappy lines, and side-splitting situations, the Juniors have it. At a date not yet decided, they will present No Bride for the Groom, which is a real comedy in three acts.

Watch for further information in future papers, because you will miss a full evening of entertainment if you don't see this.

The Juniors are bringing class dues each month to help toward funds for a trip they hope to take next year.

The third year Home Ec class is having lots of fun learning to make pies, cakes, and other desserts.

FSA Assistance Is Available To More Farmers

The Farm Security Administration is preparing to extend its rehabilitation loan program to more small farmers in Knox County, Rural Supervisor Joe B. Spears, said. "Livestock and equipment, food, feed, seed, and fertilizer are some of the things which are included in FSA loans in addition to general crop production.

"Any farmer, no matter whether he is a tenant or owner, is eligible for an FSA loan," he explained, "if he has a family-sized farm on which he is now located or can find one, and can work out a farm plan to repay the loan over a period as long as five years." Loans are made only to farmers who cannot get the required financing from any other source.

The FSA supervisor said that this year Knox County farmers have been slower to take advantage of the FSA's loan service and that he wanted "every farmer in need of this assistance to call at his office before the season becomes too far advanced." The FSA office is located on second floor of the County Courthouse at Seymour, Texas, or there will be an FSA representative in Munday, Texas, on Thursday morning at the City Hall.

Joe B. Spears, Rural Supervisor, Knox County.

Hoyt Gilbreath of Weinert was a business visitor here Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe T. Hext were visitors in Clovis, New Mexico, over the week end.

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES

Luther Kirk
Imagine a man feeling badly when he is not being continually invited into his own home. Oh! I have never heard of such a thing happening, but I did hear of a Methodist who once said, "I haven't been invited to church, and therefore I am not going." Isn't it a shame that some church members have to be invited to their own church. But, if it takes that to get some folk to church, then let's invite them. We want them to come home once in a while.

We are beginning our School of Missions Thursday evening at 7:30. It will continue through the month of March with one class each week. We will meet in the basement of the church and eat together and then proceed with our study. YOU are invited to come and be with us. Bring a covered dish.

Remember, we will be looking for you Sunday at the appointed time; 10 a.m., 11 a.m., 7:15 p.m.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Our Training Union Revival this week is going over in a very creditable way. There have been about 100 enrolled. The interest is exceptionally good. Miss May certainly has sold Training Union to all who have heard her. We are organizing two more unions. This week of training is going to strengthen our work along all lines. We are closing with the Thursday night session. If you have failed to come to these meetings the loss has been yours. We desire to commend those who have been coming.

Next Wednesday the women are putting their week of prayer for Home Missions into an all-day service. The hours will be from eleven to twelve in the morning, from one to four in the afternoon, and from 7:30 to 8:30 in the evening. The special program together with the leader for each session will be announced Sunday morning. This service should be well attended throughout the day. All services next Sunday at the regular hours. We shall be happy to have you in any or all of them.

C. D. Rowell Dies At Albuquerque

Mrs. Clarence Phillips returned to her home here last Friday after a two months visit with her sister, Mrs. Dorothy Rowell and children of Albuquerque, New Mexico.

In 1929, Mr. Rowell was in Munday with the H. L. Kennedy Construction Co. He was superintendent of the construction company which paved the highway through Knox county. During this time he met Mrs. Rowell, who is the former Dorothy Moore, and they were married.

Mr. Rowell is survived by his wife and three children.

First Line of Defense

America is now arming for National Defense—but did you know that in PEACE and in WAR there is a Standing Army which constitutes your First Line of Defense? This is the Army of conscientious, ethical, pharmacists.

He is the expert who invariably sends you to your physician when you ask him advise about some supposedly "minor" ailment which he recognizes as a case for a doctor. He is the professional man who associates himself with the medical profession to relieve human suffering. Give your business the opportunity to return the profit which your investment should. Place it before the public.

Your Buying Public Will Read Your Ad In This Paper

Your prospective customers read their home newspapers thoroughly. It has an appeal which no hand bill tossed into your yard can possibly be expected to have. The home newspaper is read because it contains all the news of your home and community. Each member of the family finds time each week to read their local paper. The advertisements of local concerns have their appeal to every reader. With the undisputed fact that home news is always best news, your sales message thus attains the reader's interest which is necessary to return profitable sales from money spent for advertising.

I GIVE YOU TEXAS

By Boyce House

"Don't Run Over My Little Girl," which appeared originally in the Kiwanis Magazine, is reprinted from T. B. O'Brien's Clay County Leader:

Today my daughter, 7 years old, started to school as usual. She wore a dark blue dress with a white collar. She had on black shoes and wore blue gloves. Her cocker spaniel, whose name is Coot, sat on the front porch and whined his canine belief in the folly of education as she waved goodbye and started off to the hall of learning.

Tonight, we talked about school. She told me about the girl who sits in front of her, the girl with the yellow curls, and the boy across the aisle who makes funny faces. She told me about her teacher who has eyes in the back of her head, and about the trees in the school yard, and about the big girl who doesn't believe in Santa Claus. We talked about a lot of things—tremendously vital, unimportant things; and then we studied spelling, reading, arithmetic—and then to bed.

She back there now—back in the nursery sound asleep, with "Princess Elizabeth," (that's a doll) cuddled in her right arm.

You guys wouldn't hurt her would you? You see, I'm her daddy. When her doll is broken or her finger is cut or her head gets bumped, I can fix that—but when she starts to school, walks across the street, then she's in your hands.

She's a nice kid. She can run like a deer and dart about like a chipmunk. She likes to ride horses and swim and hike with me on Sunday afternoons. But I can't be with her all the time. I have to work to pay for her clothes and her education. So please help me look out for her. Please drive slowly past the schools and intersections—and please remember that children run from behind parked cars.

Please don't run over my little girl.

The task of trying to erase a picture from the minds of the people Texas confronts the advocates of a separate oil and gas commission, in the opinion of observers. The drawing—widely circulated in the press in the last few weeks—shows a giant representing Oil Industry and the familiar figure of Old Man Texas, who has his hands on a master valve as Oil Industry says: "Give that valve a quarter turn, Old Man Texas, when Uncle Sam needs the oil for national defense."

What makes the drawing and its accompanying words significant is the fact that it was put out by the "various units of the industry and sponsored by the Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association." The statement said, "With the pioneer spirit typical of Texans, our oil men have found and developed petroleum reserves far beyond all civilian and military needs now indicated." Could the industry have conducted this pioneering if it had not been making money? To the majority of fair-minded Texans, that looks like the State Railroad Commission has been doing a pretty good job of supervising things so that the oil industry might prosper and thereby pay taxes and provide wide employment.

Quoting further: "Even if defense requirements total 15,000,000 barrels more a year, Texas can supply them without waste by a quarter turn of valves on wells already drilled. This can be done at a moment's notice with depriving anyone of a single gallon of gasoline or quart of motor oil." That sounds as if the State Railroad Commission has done its share of the job for national defense. Suppose we were as well off on everything else—battleships, cannon and airplanes! Texas alone is able to supply all of the oil needs of the United States army and navy, with just a "quarter turn," not even a full turn, of the valve necessary—and "without waste," too. What more could anyone interested in the protection of our nation ask than that? Observers are wondering, in the face of these facts, why a change should be made.

Steam—water gone crazy with the heat.

Wind—air in a hurry. Garden plot—the bugs and worms planning to eat your stuff up.

Synonym—a word you use when you can't spell the other.

Miss Wanda June Williams, who is attending T.S.C.W., at Denton, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. V. Williams over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Pendleton, Jr., of Wichita Falls visited relatives and friends here Sunday.

YVETTE, pictured here, adds to the romantic and musical appeal of the Xavier Cugat program heard Thursdays over the NBC-Red network. Most of her songs are done in the Continental and South American manner.

Gabriel Heatter can go to his country home only one day a week because of his duties on "We, the People" and his newscasts. Gabe says he misses his dogs most of all, but declares that he's too fond of his pets to bring them into the city.

The Kate Smith Hour has presented so many movie previews during the last two years that movie people in New York have fallen into the habit of attending rehearsals to visit their Hollywood colleagues. Each Friday afternoon the CBS studio suggests a screen celebrities' convention.

Helen Hayes says that the three most valuable critics of her radio show are her chauffeur, maid and gardener. They never fail to give her an honest and sensible criticism.

Horace Heidt's orchestra, heard on "Pot O' Gold" over the NBC-Blue network Thursday nights at 8 p.m., e.s.t., is in such demand among the nation's theatres that their stay in New York will have to be curtailed in one month.

There may be another Sonja Henie in the sports spotlight soon, in the person of petite Ann Shepherd, star of "Joyce Jordan—Girl

If James Melton, tenor star of the Monday "phone hour over the NBC-Red network, keeps up the hectic schedule of concert dates he has followed so far, the end of the summer will find him with a total number of engagements exceeding that of any other American radio singer this season.

Bette Davis' appearance on the "Screen Guild Theatre" March 2 set a new record for return engagements on "Hollywood's own program." It was Miss Davis' fifth appearance—and no other film star has donated his or her services for the show more often. The "Screen Guild Theatre" donates the money which would ordinarily be paid to its performers to the Motion Picture Relief Fund.

The Seniors have begun the study of the Constitution of the State of Texas, which we find very interesting.

We have been wondering why Genevieve doesn't want to be a table waiter at Cletus' wedding.

Cletus claims that he lost his class ring, (but we wonder if he did or has some...?)

The Seniors enjoyed the argument that Geneva and Cletus had during algebra class Monday evening.

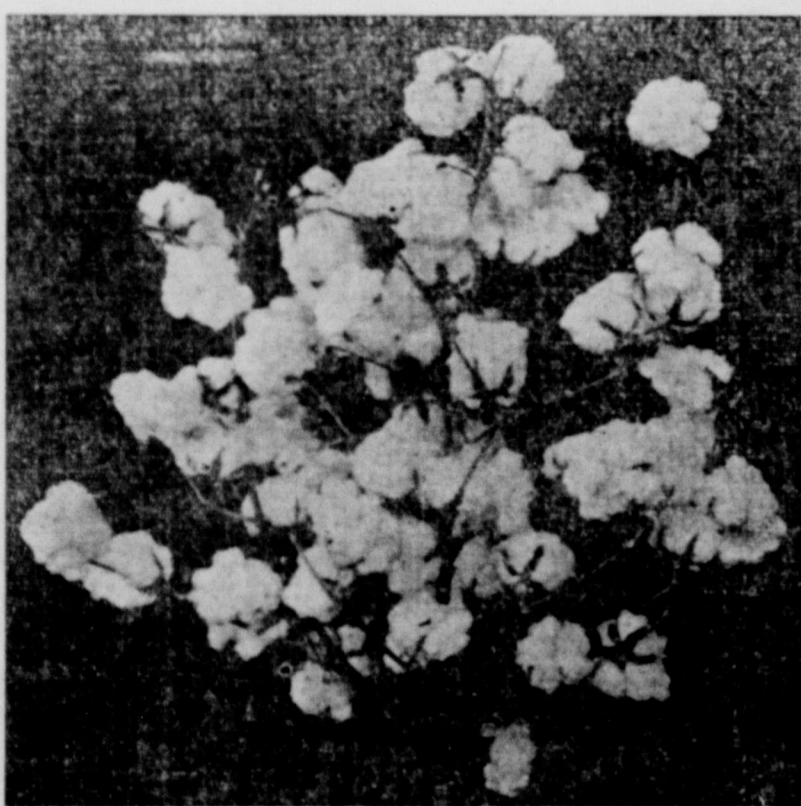

Richard and Albert seem to have lots of fun playing with a water gun (especially when they can shoot at Geneva).

We wonder what Richard meant Monday noon when he asked Genevieve if... was coming at 8 o'clock.

What makes an automobile go?

Is the power of the automobile like that of the steam engine, obtained from the pressure of expanding gases? Yes, it is, but the expansion is produced by an explosion of a mixture of gasoline vapor and air instead of by the expansion of steam produced in a separate boiler. As a result, the weight of the heavy boiler is avoided, and the whole engine can be made much lighter. The gasoline fuel is also light (of low density) and easily carried.

Freshman Hobbies

Room III—Grade School

We have been progressing very well in our agriculture. We finally got our seed poster finished last Friday. Now we are studying about cattle. It seems very interesting to us, as we all have some cattle on our farms.

In our English we have recently taken up the study of literature. The tale of Aecadia seems fascinating to us because it tells us about the life of Evageline. In reading we are going to have a debate. One side will tell why it is better to buy a few good things and pay a little more for them, than to buy worthless things merely because they are cheap. Charles Albus will be on the negative side of the question.

Because of the rain, we did not get to have much playground activity last week. However, the boys did play several games of softball.

The Class' Pet Sayings

Madelene: You don't say. Cleo: Now listen here— Rose Marie: You just wait. Miss McGrath: Now get quiet. Rose Mary: Bolony too. Ruth: It is not. Magdalen: Now you just keep still.

Harold: Well, I ain't doing nothing.

Marvin: Now what did I do? Walter: You said it. Herbert: Oh Gosh! Howard: Heck! Raymond: 'Taint so! Charles: It is not. John: It ain't neither.

Teacher: Veronica, why are you always looking at Fidelis? Veronica: Oh, I was only thinking.

Teacher: Of what, Veronica??

Did You Know That—

The boys are getting moved between the girls because they are so mean? How about it, Louis? Veronica likes RC-Cola. Francis can't sit straight in his chair.

Virginia Sue is a very industrious girl for she colored all of the shamrock border on the blackboard at the front of the room.

Fidelis has such clever ideas, for you know, thinking Guinevers, King Arthur's wife, looked like a guinea. Such an idea, huh?

Mrs. Oscar Spann and children spent the week end in Mineral Wells visiting with Mr. Spann, who is employed at Camp Wolters.

Miss Mary Couch of Haskell visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Palmer over the week end.

Dr. and Mrs. G. V. Smith of Floydada and Mrs. Guy Ginn and son of Hereford spent last Friday night here in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Baker.

LIGHT AND REFRESHING

As refreshing as a spring day is this light, sunny, sunny dessert. Orange Chiffon Pie is the name... and as you may guess... it's a first cousin to a frothy light-hearted lemon chiffon pie. Many will prefer it to its paler cousin.

A Dessert For Everyone
Serve it for a company lunch or dinner dessert... or for afternoon refreshments... or for Sunday dinner... or any time you want to give your family a special treat. The nice thing about it is that this pie is one the whole family can enjoy... from the tiniest toddler to grandma. If you think the pastry is too rich for any of them, just make an extra portion of the filling... and pile it in sherbet cups. There you have a gay delightful combination of such vitamin-packed foods as eggs, oranges and lemons.

ORANGE CHIFFON PIE

1 cooled baked 8 or 9-inch pie shell
3 egg yolks
1/2 cup sugar (6 tsp.)
1/4 tsp. salt
1 tsp. grated orange rind (packed in spoon)
3 tsp. orange juice and pulp
Beat egg yolks slightly in top of double boiler. Stir in sugar, salt, orange rind, the 3 tsp. orange juice and pulp, and lemon juice. Cook over boiling water, stirring occasionally, until custard mixture coats the spoon (about 15 minutes).
Add the remaining 1/2 cup boiling hot orange juice and pulp to the lemon-flavored gelatin... and stir until gelatin is completely dissolved. Then stir this mixture into the hot custard mixture and set aside to cool thoroughly.

Make Meringue

Make meringue by beating the egg whites until frothy, adding the cream of tartar and beating until the whites are stiff enough to hold a point; then gradually beating in sugar and continuing beating until meringue is stiff and glossy.
Carefully fold this meringue into the cooled orange mixture. Pile into a cooled baked pie shell. Chill about 1 hour before serving.

If You Like Yours High

If you prefer a very high chiffon pie... use an 8-inch pie pan. But if you like a shallower pie, use a 9-inch pan. This amount serves 6 or 7.

For a Twosome

If there are only two of you to eat this pie... use a 6-inch pie pan and use only 2/3 of the amount of each ingredient in the recipe.

Second Grade Play

The boys and girls are practicing on a safety play now. The name of the play is "Everybody in Safetyland."

This poem is about the month of March.

Song of March

March is rough,

March is loud.
March is like
A noisy crowd.

March is windy—
Let her blow!

April's coming
Soon I know.

Faye King has a little puppy.

Imagine! Only 11 weeks until school is out! Doesn't that sound interesting?

Although some of us didn't receive Grade A report cards, nearly everyone seemed satisfied. There is room for improvement for all of us, don't you think? With this in mind, let's try to study harder, and improve grades.

So far this year the only ones to get perfect attendance certificates are McCelvey Jones, Joe Spann, Latrece Johnson, Cal Dodson Lowry, and Bobbie Broach.

Those who entered declamation for county meet in 7A are Elma Lowe, Latrece Johnson, McCelvey Jones, and Charles James Reese.

Friday, March 14, our class is giving two plays based on etiquette. The play "Qualifications" has the following cast: Latrece Johnson, Elma Lowe, Joyce Speice, Bernice Douglas, Benson Broach, Bobbie Broach, Cal Lowry, Herbert Stodghill, and Patsy Ruth Mitchell.

The seventh grade Language Arts class has been studying letter writing. The letters they have given special attention to are: friendly letters, bread and butter letters, invitation letters and business letters. The business letter will be given the strictest attention as this type of letter is written more often. They have had many interesting new points brought out in the modern business letter. A folder is being made for future reference of all the letters. The best book will be put on display. The salutation of the letter has given the most trouble, but they can write a good letter now. The class has had a hard time collecting the different types of letters written by advertising firms and business firms, the collection will be valuable to them in the future as they are placed in the folder with the letters.

The fifth grade has learned that there are eight parts of speech. They can recognize some of them. They know that every sentence has a noun, and no sentence is complete without a verb.

For the whole six weeks period they have learned how to make outlines in order to improve their oral speeches, how to write paragraphs, and subjects and predicates. They must keep their ears and eyes wide open, because they are really finding out new things.

In English the sixth grade has been studying the eight parts of speech. Friday they were given a test over them.

Friday in assembly, Martha Ann Reynolds, Marian Howeth, Doyle Johnson, Lyndal Smith, Robert Purifoy, Jane Spann, and Jon Chamberlain will represent the 6th grade as declaimers. According to the class they will all be in line for first place, any of the sixth grade is for them.

The 5A history class has been studying about the presidents of the United States. Each member of the class worked up a booklet that include the life of all the presidents and a picture if possible.

The book also includes news clippings of interest about the men, a picture of the flag, the pledge of allegiance, poems about the presidents and the preamble to the Constitution.

The students kept a list of new words that they found while studying about the presidents.

The booklets are on display in room 5A. Ronald Earl Foshee, Janell Daugherty, Carolyn Hannah, and Mary Hope Machen had the most complete booklets.

Under the direction of Laura Bess Moylette, the Character Committee gave an interesting program at the meeting of the Loyal Patriots Club last Friday. Parts were given by Lou Ford, Mozelle Booe, R. L. Kirk, Jr., and Laura Bess Moylette.

Maurice Patterson was elected best citizen for the week.

Larry Kinsey is back in school after a visit of a week in Fort Worth. Everyone missed Larry and is glad he is back in school.

La Rue Johnson brought room 4B some blossoms from an almond tree in her yard. None in the room had ever seen any almond blossoms before and they all thought that the blossoms came from a peach tree. The almond blossoms are similar to the peach blossoms except that they are much more fragrant. The leaves are a lighter green and smaller than the peach leaves.

TEXAS OUT-OF-DOORS

Dove Limit May Be Same
Austin, Texas — Texas probably will fare far better than the southeastern states when the 1941 regulations on doves are announced by the U. S. Wildlife and Fish Service. That was indicated recently to the executive secretary of the Texas Game Fish and Oyster Commission by Ira N. Gabrielson, chief of the federal service which regulates the federal seasons and bag limits on doves.

The southeastern states suffered a heavy and prolonged freeze and ice storm during the winter of 1938-39. It killed far more doves than was suspected. The limit was cut by federal regulations last year from fifteen to twelve. The limit will probably be the same this year in Texas. But the majority of the southeastern states will feel the result of the heavy freeze via the smaller bag limits.

The Texas Game Department is at work on projects, which if they can be brought about, will do much to save the white-wing doves of the Southern part of Texas. This state has the heaviest concentration of the sporty whitewings and the federal government has become interested in assisting the Game Department in saving the birds, which are apparently becoming more and more scarce each year.

These Are Two Lucky Quail

A pair of quail are probably alive today and on an area upon which they will get a good measure of protection, thanks to unusual occurrences during a hunt taken by two Fort Worth men at the close of the recent quail season, according to word received by the Game Department.

O. L. Snider and Ed Maddox were working down a fence row on land near Stephenville, Texas, when one of their dogs pointed a bird which was two feet off of the ground. The bird was an uninjured quail and Maddox put it into his hunting coat.

Upon returning to Fort Worth Snider found he was a bird short, but thought he had miscounted. However, that mystery was cleared up the next day. The bird was found alive in Snider's car with only a slight flesh wound in the head. Oddly enough, the car had been entered several times and had been cleaned out by filling station attendants. The bird, after reviving in the car, hid back under the back seat.

Both birds were released on a farm near Fort Worth, owned by Maddox.

Cars Take Less Toll

Possibly the campaign of the State Game Department to get motorists to be more careful when driving in game country is having some effect. At any rate, the warden for Gillespie County reports that the known kill by cars in his county during 1940 was 57 deer and 4 wild turkeys. In 1939, the same warden reported 76 deer to be slain by automobiles and 9 wild turkeys.

2 More Porcupines Killed
Two porcupines were killed recently in Gillespie County. They were the first reported to the State game warden in that area. Recently the Game Department received word of one being killed in south-west Texas.

Employees of the Game Department trapping deer on the Aransas Refuge in South Texas report securing a white deer. It was not captured. Whether it was a true albino was not determined. True albinos have pink eyes. The Game Department trapped and transported to areas which have a thin population of deer a total of 511 bucks and does.

Kills Six-Foot Rattler

Huge rattlesnakes are not uncommon in parts of Texas, but residents of Seguin were startled recently to hear of a six-footer being killed near there.

The big diamond-back weighed nine pounds and was from ten to twelve inches in circumference.

WHEAT MARKETING QUOTAS FOR 1941 CROP

With present conditions pointing to the probability that it will be necessary for the Secretary of Agriculture to proclaim wheat marketing quotas, followed by a nation-wide vote of all wheat producers on the question of wheat marketing quotas, it is important that every wheat farmer have an understanding of the situation and the operations of Wheat Marketing Quotas.

The AAA act provides that when the supply of wheat available for 1941 will exceed a normal domestic consumption and exports by more than 25 per cent, the Secretary of Agriculture shall not later than May 15, proclaim that marketing quotas are in effect with respect to wheat for the 1941 marketing year.

After quotas are proclaimed in effect, probably by May 31, a vote will be taken in which all wheat farmers subject to the quotas will be eligible to vote. Quotas must carry by a two-thirds majority to be in effect.

Each producer, landlord or tenant subject to quotas will be eligible to vote. Producers on farms in which the normal production of the current acreage is less than 200 bushels are not eligible to vote, and will not be affected by quotas.

If Marketing Quotas Are In Effect For 1941 . . .

1. Producers who do not exceed their wheat allotments will be eligible for wheat loans.
2. Producers who do not exceed their wheat acreage allotments will be eligible for a loan only on wheat subject to penalty and at 60 per cent of the rate in complying producers.
3. Producers who do not exceed their acreage allotments will be allowed to market all wheat they produce.

4. Producers who overplant their acreage allotments will be subject to penalty on all wheat produced over the farm marketing quota. The rate of penalty per bushel has not yet been announced.

5. Producers who do not overplant their acreage allotments will be eligible for full conservation and parity payments.

6. Producers exceeding their acreage allotments will receive deductions from conservation payments and will not receive parity payments.

7. The rates of payments are not affected by quotas.

8. Quotas have no effect on allotments or normal yields.

If Marketing Quotas Are Not In Effect for 1941 . . .

1. No wheat loans will be available on the 1941 wheat crop.

2. Wheat insurance will not be affected by marketing quotas.

3. The wheat program will be practically the same as in 1940 except that there will be no loans if there is no marketing quota voted.

All available information on Wheat Marketing Quotas will be publicized when it is received by the County AAA Office.

Notice Cotton Farmers:

During the past season a very large percentage of our Acala cotton sold for prices over 10c per pound, while at the same time producing from 200 to 400 pounds of lint per acre in the field.

What More Do You Want in Cottonseed?

The whole one-variety program has added a greater value to the cotton of this section, improving our cotton market and adding many dollars to the income of our farmers. The program has added value and volume that would not otherwise have been attainable. The extra production and fine quality of our variety has benefited our farmers and everyone in the community because of the increased volume and larger income or the men that raised the cotton.

Farmers, ginners and communities are urged to get into this program and plant California Acala cottonseed, which is the first step in sharing the benefits of this one-variety program.
