Knox Schools Will Adopt The 12-Grade Plan

Knox county's schools under the supervision of the county superintendent will go to the 12-grade system next year, County Supt. Merick McGaughey stated Tuesday. He has received official notice from State Supt. L. A. Woods that the state will use this system.

McGaughey has received forms ordering books for the 12-grade system and is checking with the schools this week to determine the books needed.

The extra grade will be introduced in the elementary schools, probably beginning with the third grade and working on through the eighth grade, according to the county superintendent. Elementary schools will teach eight grades instead of the former seven.

McGaughey expressed the belief that there will be very few 11-grade high schools in the state next year.

All independent schools adopting the 12-grade system will order their own textbooks, he said.

Former Knox City Publisher's Wife Dies Monday in Fire at Aspermont

Mrs. W. L. Garner, wife of the publisher of the Aspermont Star, perished in a fire which destroyed the Garner home at Aspermont last Monday night.

Justice of the Peace E. B. Featherston, who conducted an inquest, returned a verdict of death by suffocation.

Efforts to rescue Mrs. Garner from the blazing frame home were futile, as were attempts to check the fire.

Mr. and Mrs. Garner had visited her mother in Haskell Monday afternoon and upon their return to Aspermont worked in the yard. About six o'clock, Mrs. Garner entered the house to bathe and dress for a play in which her husband was to have a part.

Shortly after she entered the house, Garner noticed smoke coming out of the windows and heard two sharp explosions. With the aid of a neighbor, who rushed to the scene, he tried to gain entrance to the house, but was cut off from all directions by the smoke and flames. The body of Mrs. Garner was found in the bath tub.

Volunteer firemen theorized that the fire originated in the attic—probably caused by faulty wiring—and had been smoldering for some time. They said the entire house seemed to burst into flames at once.

Mr. and Mrs. Garner moved to Aspermont from Knox City last August, after Garner purchased the Aspermont paper.

Mrs. Garner was Grace Faye Dulaney or Haskell prior to her marriage. Besides her husband and two sons, she is survived by her mother, Mrs. G. A. Dulaney of Haskell, three brothers, D. C. Dulaney, Haskell; T. O. Dulaney, Clyde, and S. C. Dulaney of Plainview; two sisters, Mrs. J. J. Jobbins of Ranger and Mrs. H. Dobbins of Haskell.

Committees To Solicit Patrons

Munday is Likely Site For Construction Of Food Locker

Possibilities of establishing a frozen food locker plant in Munday gained impetus here Wednesday as directors of the Munday Chamber of Commerce, the Farmers Union of Munday, and the Farmers Union of Rhineland met here to discuss the plan. The meeting directly followed the regular chamber of commerce meeting, at which the Farmers Union directors were guests.

There is a likelihood of the Farmers Union members of Munday and Rhineland establishing the plant, but first they must have tentative agreements from a certain number of prospective users of the lockers before the plan is presented to the membership.

Further discussion of the locker plan will be made at the Benjamin meeting at two o'clock Friday afternoon.

Tentative agreements for renting the locker boxes will be ready the latter part of this week, and they will be circulated by committees from Munday and Rhineland to determine the prospective users. This work will be done next week, and a plan presented the Farmers Union membership and interested citizens in Friday, May 3, in a meeting to be held at the school auditorium in Munday.

Committees named at the meeting Wednesday are as follows: Rhineland: August Schumacher, John Albus, Frank Cerveny, Lewis Parker and Joe Koenig.

Munday Farmers Union: L. B. Patterson, E. H. Nelson, J. C. Rice and Clay Grove.

Munday Chamber of Commerce: C. P. Baker, Leland Hannah and C. R. Elliott.

Citizens interested in the locker plan, whereby fresh vegetables, meats and poultry may be stored for indefinite periods, are asked to see these committee members during next week, get details of the locker idea, and, if they desire, sign the tentative agreement.

A huge moist-cold compartment keeps celery and lettuce crisp and keeps left-overs moist and juicy without the necessity of covering.

ALL-OUT AID FOR COTTON

Between May 16 and 25, the organized merchandisers of this country are to undertake one of the biggest and most effective promotional campaigns in American retail history on the behalf of a basic crop—cotton.

National cotton week isn't an ordinary occasion. Cotton is the underlying factor in the economies of many states. Upon cotton, many families are dependent for their livelihood. Conditions in the cotton market mean good times or bad times for armies of workers employed in picking, handling, processing and otherwise dealing with cotton.

Today cotton is a distressed crop. The great foreign markets are gone, swept away by war. The long established government cotton control program has been only a partial success. The crop this year will be large, and the ordinary domestic demand will be unable to absorb it. What this all adds up to is plain: More cotton and cotton products must be used by American consumers this year if the great cotton belt is to be saved from disaster.

The Cotton Week drive will be led, as in the past, by the nation's chain stores. And not only by the stores which sell cotton in one form or another—chains dealing in foods will aid as well. Plans call for varied and attention-compelling window displays, newspaper and radio advertising, word-of-mouth promotion by employees, etc. The theme of the week will be "For America, Buy Cotton," and nothing will be left undone that can contribute to such a campaign's success.

Cotton Week will offer the consumer numerous good buys. Cotton is one of the most useful and least expensive of products. Most of us can profitably use more cotton than we do. During Cotton Week, we will be shown how to help an American product which is the dominant economic factor in the lives of a high percentage of our population.

BUILT BY PRIVATE CREDIT

This country was built by private credit. It has always been maintained by private credit. That is one great difference between a democratic and a totalitarian state.

The money that built our vast industries—utilities, railroads, steel companies, oil concerns and the rest—came out of private pocketbooks, individual and collective. Government was never the dominant factor. In later years, government has expanded greatly in the role of "financier." Even so, private credit remains the bulwark of our social and economic system—the free enterprise system.

Let us remember that now. We will have won a hollow victory, indeed if, when the wars are over and the defense drive has been consummated, we find ourselves with government as a financial dictator—the provider and controller of all credits. There is but one way that can be avoided—and that way is to depend upon private credit to the greatest possible extent, and to call upon government credit only when there is no other course open. Such institutions as the banks have declared their willingness to do the largest financing job in their history, in the interest of defense. Let them do it.

GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY EDITION

T. B. Klepper, editor-owner of the Foard County News at Crowell, came out with a 24-page special edition last week which was devoted to the golden anniversary of Foard county.

The paper carried pictures of early Crowell, as well as those showing the progress made by Crowell and Foard county. Pictures of pioneers of the county and many interesting news items made this edition one of interest.

Included in the news is a story of Cynthia Ann Parker, giving a detailed account of her recapture in Foard county as a dramatic bit of Texas history. A marble marker now stands on the battlefield where Cynthia Ann Parker was recaptured at the mouth of Mule Creek in Foard county. The inscription reads: "Pease River Battlefield. After being captured by Comanche Indians on May 19, 1836, in what is now Limestone County, Cynthia Ann Parker was recaptured here by Texas Rangers under Captain L. S. Ross on December 18, 1860."

Klepper received liberal patronage from Crowell business firms in this golden anniversary edition. The Crowell paper is nearly fifty years old itself.

Crowell's golden anniversary jubilee will be held on April 28 and 29.

THERE IS ONE SURE GOAL!

If you have rowed a boat across a wide lake in order to reach a definite point on the other side, you know that it's a good idea to look over your shoulder from time to time and make sure that you're still headed right.

This country is rowing pretty fast and furiously at the present time. It's a good moment to take a look at the objective, so we'll be perfectly clear where we're going.

National security is the port; we have set out to reach. In the midst of a chaotic world, Americans have determined to make sure that the great advantages in living which they enjoy shall not be rubbed out through any neglect or carelessness.

Particularly prized have been the various liberties we in this country enjoy—civil and religious freedom, a political system of representative democracy, and the private enterprise system of earning one's living.

It is to defend these that Americans are arming in so determined a fashion. And, paradoxically, they are willing to accept the imposition of certain emergency regulations upon certain of these rights, knowing that they will thereby aid the defense effort. Just as heavier taxes are being accepted to support defense, so restrictions on business of certain kinds have been admitted necessary in order that the industrial machine can work most effectively for defense. For example, in certain cases where there is an extraordinary demand for materials needed in defense, the application of priorities may be expedient. Export licensing to guard against depleting this country of vital materials and products might be another case in point.

There is surely, however, one paramount point to remember. The regulations are temporary. They have been accepted as needed by the people of this country because the people are convinced that the present emergency warrants their application. This being the case, all Americans interested in the characteristic habits of life in this country, look forward to the day when these special restraints and hobbies will be loosened.

After all, it is to guard against the universal spread of just such constraints that our national defense program has been embarked upon.

Only upon these terms would it be worth the effort!

TIME TO CHOOSE

A recent authoritative study listed 114 categories of non-defense federal spending for the fiscal year 1942, in which there had been an aggregate growth of $3,665,197,000 since 1932. That three and a half billion figure is pretty striking, but perhaps even more interesting is the number of specific categories in which increases have been necessary.

If the reader will think back to the start of the past decade of heavy spending, he will recall that dozens of new government enterprises were instituted or greatly expanded because "the times were bad." The implication was that as long as the economic machine was in low gear, the government must spend more in order to safeguard the welfare of its citizens. A lot of the spending seemed pretty oblique in accomplishing this purpose, but most Americans accepted the principle in good faith.

It was a natural extension of the argument for this increased spending that when business got better, and the whole national income rose, there would be less need for it. The current figures show that the theory has not been carried over into practice.

Today, with our defense needs raising our spending program to levels not even equalled in World War days, it is surely imperative that spending in directions which were marked as "temporary" could well at least be carefully reviewed and cut whenever possible. If every small new activity of government inevitably must grow to bureaucratic proportions, that fact may prove to be a fatal weakness that could eventually destroy democracy itself.

It is not inappropriate to point out that the $3,665,197,000 in increases in those 114 categories would have paid for 72 new battleships, or 210 light cruisers, or 1,264 submarines. And it is not even controversial to say that we must soon make our choice between defense and other real needs on the one hand and wasteful spending on the other hand. Surely the best time for this choice to begin is right now!

Industry must make, in connection with national defense, about 1200 materials which have no peacetime counterparts.

Gas Industry's Convention To Be In Dallas

Dallas, Texas—Gas helps put the bombers in the sky. In its own efficient way, this fuel is doing a bang-up job of helping Uncle Sam to roll armament production into high gear, according to discussions scheduled for the national convention of the natural gas section, American Gas Association, in Dallas May 5 to 7. This and similar topics will be presented under the general theme of "The Part Natural Gas Is Playing in National Defense."

The natural gas industry of the nation, with several thousand visitors, will be represented at the convention.

From hardening intricate parts of machine guns to the final heat treating of tiny parts for gigantic bombers, specially designed gas furnaces are speeding national defense production at an ever-increasing pace. Equipment developed for peace-time uses through cooperative research and engineering under sponsorship of the American Gas Association, is rapidly being put to work to speed production in war industries.

North American Aviation, Inc., warplane plant between Ft. Worth and Dallas, is an example of natural gas service to national defense projects. Supplying all fuel requirements at the $7,500,000 factory, the Lone Star Gas Company's 4,800 miles of interconnected pipe lines assure an adequate supply of gas under all conditions short of a general disaster. Another example is at Camp Barkeley, eight miles southwest of Abilene, where 19,000 officers and men of the 45th Division depend upon natural gas for all fuel requirements, from heating water for shaving to generating steam for heating sixty-six buildings that comprise the 710-bed hospital area. The problems overcome in supplying these national defense plants and camps are to be studied at the Dallas convention.

"At this time, the troubled affairs of the world cause all of us to concentrate our thoughts on national defense. This is properly so. Nothing can be more vital and urgent than carrying forward with all possible speed the broad effort to make this country safe from attack. Creditable progress is being made over an extended front, but we must all recognize that time is the big factor which confronts us. . . Generally speaking the American business man is experienced competent and patriotic. He will give a good account of himself in the present emergency, if given a proper opportunity to function."—Irving S. Olds, chairman United States Steel Corp.

DEADLINES ON COTTON SERVICES

College Station—Texas, organized cotton improvement groups—in other words, one-variety cotton communities—are advised to take notice of dates for seeking free services for cotton grown in 1941.

M. C. Jaynes, Extension Service specialist in cotton work, says applications for these services may be made to the Agricultural Marketing Service by any organized cotton improvement group as soon as its members have planted their cotton.

Deadlines for applications vary, however. Counties in Texas lying entirely or for the most part east of the 100th meridian must file applications not later than August 1. Counties west of that meridian have until August 15 to petition for free classification and market news.

Applications can be filed with offices of the Agricultural Marketing Service at Dallas, Austin or El Paso.

Lee Haney of Fort Worth visited relatives and friends here over the week end.

Foard County's Anniversary To Be April 27th

Crowell, Texas.—Plans are now well under way in Crowell and Foard county for the celebration of the Golden Anniversary of the founding of the town and county. It is expected that the Golden Jubilee will be the greatest celebration ever held here, although the 40th and 45th anniversary celebrations were pronounced outstanding successes from every standpoint.

Men and women donned golden colored apparel on April 1 in a publicity campaign for the Golden Jubilee.

Featuring the first day's program will be a basket dinner spread in the streets around the south and east sides of the square and all visitors to Crowell on that day will be fed. It was estimated that 8,000 people were fed on the first day of the 45th anniversary celebration and there was food left. Bands from neighboring towns will be invited to participate in a band concert from 10 to 12 o'clock on the first day and all former residents of the county, as well as all other visitors from every part of the state and the United States, will be heartily welcomed. Old-timers from as far away as California and Omaha, Neb., are ready to make the trip back to the old home town for this great occasion.

Beginning the festivities for the afternoon of April 28, will be a mammoth parade which will include decorated floats, 200 horses, bands, and many other attractive features of early days. Following the parade on the first day of the celebration, the noted Buetler Bros. rodeo will present its first performance at 2:30 o'clock. Street dances and a modern dance and another presentation of the rodeo will provide entertainment for the evening.

Foard county was organized April 27, 1891.

Picking Flowers Along Highways Is Violation of Law

Austin.—The Texas Highway Department in an appeal to Texas motorists and tourists asks that they observe the state law which prohibit picking or damaging wild flowers, vines, and shrubs along state highways, and called attention to the statute which prohibits such depredations. The Department has received several complaints recently, particularly from East Texas, in which motorists were reported to be damaging dogwood and redbud trees, which constitute one of the state finest natural attractions.

The complaints are being referred to the State Highway Patrol, which operates under the Department of Public Safety. The law provides a fine of from one to ten dollars on conviction, and prohibits taking bluebonnets and other wild flowers, shrubs, and trees, or of selling or offering them for sale in any place.

Among the complaints was a letter from an East Texas business man, who said: "On driving back from Dallas yesterday (Sunday) I noticed a number of visitors on US 175, especially between Athens and Rusk, who had come over to see the dogwoods and redbuds, stopping and breaking limbs off the dogwoods along the right-of-way. I also saw some men and women digging up a pretty redbud tree in bloom and putting it in the back of their car. The Highway Patrolmen and local officers should especially watch out for this, arrest some of these persons and try to break this up. There seems to be a great deal of it going on on these highways this spring and it is astonishing to think that people would destroy these trees and flowers in such a manner."

Another letter, from a lady in San Angelo, told of an out-of-state couple who stopped their car and wanted to dig up a yucca plant on the highway right-of-way near San Angelo.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Harrell and son, Dick, Bobby Haymes, Hugh Longino and Wayne Blacklock visited in the home of Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Longino of Crowell last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Myers spent the week end in Arp, Texas, visiting their son and daughter-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Myers.

Mrs. W. R. Bryant and Mrs. Don Ferris returned home last Sunday from Fort Worth, where they spent several days last week attending a meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Fort Worth Presbytery.

Paul Pendleton visited in Pittsburg, Texas, over the week end. He was accompanied home Sunday by Mrs. Paul Pendleton, who visited relatives there last week.

Clyde Burnett and Jay Driver of Benjamin were business visitors here Saturday.

A Pet Dog
by Royce McGraw
I have a dog.
He sleeps like a log.
I like him.
His name is Tim.

My Cat
by Mildred Lovell
My pet is a cat. He is gray and white. His name is Betsy.

My Uncle James gets him birds sometimes. He likes them.
After school Betsy runs up to me to play.
Sometimes a dog comes to my house and scares the cat.

A Pet Dog
by Garon Tidwell
I do not have a pet. But I would like to have a dog that would run and play with me. I would be kind to him and I would not whip him with a stick.

If I had a dog I would teach him tricks, but not hard tricks. He would like me I am sure.

My Pet
by Faye King
My pet is a dog. He is a collie dog. I like my dog. I like to play with him.

My dog can do many tricks. He can hold a ball on the end of his

The final game score was 12 to 0. Ethel Mae Stone was an important player in both games, having pitched both games in the half day. Midget Cars Can Be Carried To Battle Zones By Airplane

Photos by U. S. Army Signal Corps

Engineers Make Test Runs Through Hilly And Brush-Covered Terrain With Midget Reconnaissance Car.

The United States army has a new blitz weapon of its own in a 1700-pound midget reconnaissance car. It is capable of 55-mile per hour speed, carries a machine gun and a crew, or a quarter-ton load. Huge cargo planes now in production for the United States government can swallow up four or five of these midget trucks, fully equipped, and deposit them in the battle zone ready for immediate action. Some of these cars have four-wheel drives. All are equipped with twenty-two Timken bearings to provide trouble-free action of the vital moving parts.

visior for schools of this district, visited in the Munday High School on Thursday of last week and according to school officials was very complimentary of work being done in the high school. He was probably the most thorough supervisor that has visited the Munday schools in the past ten years, according to Mr. Hardegree.

We enjoyed his visit and welcome visitors in our school at any time.

Class Honor Students Named

According to information given out from the Munday High School principal's office this week, Bonnie Jones was named valedictorian of this year's graduating class, and Hugh Longino, as a close second, won salutatorian honors.

Four years of high school work was taken as a basis for determining these honors. Several students of the class pressed them considerably over the long stretch only to lose by a very narrow margin. Sue Stodghill, perhaps, kept them on their toes more than any other student as she ranked third for the four year period. Congratulations Bonnie and Hugh!

To Sunset Meet

The ward school junior girls and the high school junior girls of Munday won out in this precinct in playground ball held at Munday on last Saturday and will represent this precinct in the final meet at the Sunset school Saturday of this week.

Both the ward school boys and the high school boys suffered defeat at the hands of Rhineland, thus eliminating them from further play this school year.

Mrs. Ben Gunn and Mrs. Hershel Crain were visitors in Abilene Tuesday.

Weekly Health

M.D., State Health Officer
Issued by Dr. Geo. W. Cox, of Texas

Austin, Texas.—Thousands of children and adults die every year from diseases carried by the fly. Typhoid fever, tuberculosis, summer complaint, cholera, intestinal disease and frequently death follow closely in the trail of the common house fly.

"Control of the fly menace comes at the top of the list of necessary public health measures which should be applied by every city and individual in the State," urges Dr. Geo. W. Cox, state health officer.

"Most effective measure for control is to prevent breeding," he said. "Flies breed in filth and about eight days are required to complete a life cycle. During her lifetime of several months one housefly lays from 600 to 1,000 eggs. Thus it can easily be seen that in a season, which usually begins in the spring of the year, the descendants of one fly number countless thousands.

"To eliminate flies, breeding places must be destroyed. Manure piles, garbage, and other organic filth furnish the requirements of warmth, moisture, and food necessary for the propagation of the fly. The flies should be kept from contact with food or drink or utensils in which food and drink are prepared and served. Likewise, they should be kept from access to privy vaults where they pick up the infections which they later spread to humans by contact with food and drink and by unwashed hands and utensils. See that your windows, doors, and porches are screened so that the stray fly from some careless neighbor will not molest your family. Also, see that your grocer keeps his meat, vegetables, and fruits free from flies.

"Organized health measures to destroy the breeding places, control of flies' access to your home and food, and established standards of cleanliness in your community will eliminate the fly. The number of flies is an index to the cleanliness of any community, and they can be entirely eliminated."

BETTER LIVING BEGINS WITH AN Air Dry HARVEST

ALLIS-CHALMERS ALL-CROP HARVESTER

Last year when you had full steam up from shocking and pitching bundles, the cool air felt refreshing as water from the jug. Remember? Take a tip from the harvest-scented summer breeze that dried the beads of sweat on your face. Change to an ALL-CROP HARVESTER and let the air do the same for your crop!

Air and the ALL-CROP HARVESTER work together to put your grains, sorghums, soil-building legume and grass seeds in the bag or bin clean and dry. Air-blast separation whisks out every kernel, while your neighbors' shocks mellow, just as Mother's clothes would go to dry. They all look for another entertainment in the near future.

MODEL 40 (ABOVE)
For 2-Plow Power. Needs no auxiliary motor. Handles wind-rowed crops with pickup attachment. Shredded against wrapping of morning glory vines, bind-weed, etc. Oversteer steering rod. Shredded power take-off shaft. Rubberized drapers.

MODEL 60 (LEFT)
One-plow tractor power is used for power take-off operation. Wide bar cylinder—does not chew up straw, sets it easily with hay tools. Vulcanized rubber shelling contacts. Quiet V-Belt drive, variable speeds for 102 crops.

but it's a great orchestra nevertheless

Even a great orchestra will make a musical mistake once in a while. And once in a while . . . out of the thousands of decent, law-abiding beer retailers in Texas . . . you'll come across one or two who operate disreputable establishments.

These "black sheep" retailers constitute a tiny minority. Yet they tend to drag down the good name of beer.

By arousing public indignation, such undesirable retailers endanger your right to enjoy good beer. They also endanger the benefits to the public that beer has made possible.

For example, in Texas beer has created 31,165 new jobs with an annual payroll of $22,076,182 and paid $2,273,968.64 in taxes last year.

The brewing industry wants "black sheep" retailers eliminated entirely. You can help us by patronizing only the reputable, legal places where beer is sold. And by reporting irregularities to the duly constituted law enforcement authorities.

10 New Books Are Added To Local Library

Ten new books have recently been added to the Munday Public Library. They are as follows:

Elephant Dance, by Frances H. Flaherty, is a book of letters from India. These letters are a record of an exploration, of a search for all that is most delightful and exciting in India. That must have been a great pleasure, and pleasure is the very stuff of which they are compounded. No wonder it is such a pleasure to read them.

Quick Service, by P. G. Wodehouse, contains no events of war even though it was written in a concentration camp. Here is a group of characters as charming and delightfully scatterbrained as any Wodehouse has portrayed, in a full-length novel in the best Wodehouse tradition.

The Trumpet Majors, by Thomas Hardy, is a tale of John Loveday, a soldier in the war with Buonaparte and his brother, Robert, first mate in the merchant service.

Mrs. Miniver, by Jan Struther, is British. She is the universal, heart-warming symbol of the endurance and pleasant sides of existence.

The Laughing Fox, a mystery by Frank Gruber. The scene is a midwestern town in which wealthy fox breeders from far places have gathered for the annual fair and fur auction. Confronted with a murder which takes place in his own hotel room, Johnny Fletcher swings into action—and action there is.

The Talking Clock, another mystery by Frank Gruber, follows The Laughing Fox. Johnny Fletcher, book salesman extraordinary, and Sam Cragg, his side kick, have a knack of getting into trouble. This is the third time and the trouble is even more desperate than in the hair-raising days of The Laughing Fox.

Bethal Merriday is a novel of the young girl on the stage, by Sinclair Lewis.

The Inside Story was written by members of the overseas press club of America. Twenty foreign correspondents take you behind the scenes of the foreign lands.

My Name is Aram, by William Saroyan, is the delightful story of a foreign American, Tom Sawyer, born in California thirty years ago, growing up in a lopsided and comic environment, and becoming a full-fledged member of the incredible and amazing Garoghlanian tribe of Armenia and an excellent American democrat.

In Storyland is a compilation of short stories by Ruth Irma Iow. These 25 stories are well graded in vocabulary and sentence structure for young children.

Second Grade—Martha Jane Gentry, June Lowery, Marjorie Campsey, Betty Sue Yost, Betty Matthews, Leo Hill, Royce Reddell, Royce Harber, Ethel Hodges, Tommy Yost.
Third Grade—Patsy Matthews, Druella Frost.
Fourth Grade—Doris W. Phillips, Teresa Harber, Carrie Belle Smith, Charles Hardin.
Seventh Grade
 The seventh grade is planning to have a picnic some time in the near future. It is undecided whether they are going to the Munday park or the Seymour park.

Leita Lane Gentry, one of the seventh grade pupils, plans to give a class party before school is out.
 As the seniors are planning to go on a trip when school is out, why not all come out and see their play, "Aunt Susie Shoots the Works"? We are sure the seniors will appreciate your presence at this play to be given Friday night.

Sixth Grade
 The sixth grade had several on the Honor Roll for this time. They are: Barbara Jane Almanrode, Margie Lowery, and John Voss.
Thursday Knox City came and played ball. The game ended in Sunset's favor. Friday afternoon Sunset went to Knox City to finish playing the games that were to determine which team goes to county meet. Sunset won again.
 J.B., what's the matter with you and Margie?
 Barbara has so many boyfriends she can't pick out any certain one. 'T.V., if she picks out someone else, don't get mad.
 Earleen, had Richard got mad or is he just playing? (I guess he is just playing.)
 Willie Mae, what are you and Louise so quiet about?
 Deniz, whose 4-H badge are you wearing? (Weldon, do you know?)
 Veronica has a new permanent. (It surely is pretty, isn't it, T.A.?)

Famous Laugh Play To Be Given At Sunset
 "Aunt Susie Shoots the Works," is the title of the play that the Sunset Senior Class will present at the Sunset auditorium on April 25, at 8:00 o'clock, p.m. The play was written by Fred Caldwell and is being given by special arrangement with Samuel French, the international play publishers. This is not just the usual play that the average amateur society produces. It is, in fact, a most extraordinary play, combining as it does all of the qualities of a thrilling mystery play and containing along with it a veritable tornado of laughs. During a recent performance of this outstanding play the stage director tried to count the laughs that occurred during the three acts and when he reached the three hundredth figure he was too weak from laughter to count any more! The lines in "Aunt Susie Shoots the Works" are so clever that they are bound to be heard around school the morning after the presentation.

Clipper Combine

Whether you're a new hand at combining or an old hand at the game, your first glimpse of the Clipper tells you "There's my machine." Once you see this machine in action, you'll be all the more anxious to bring this extra crop protection to your farm.

SIMPLICITY—The Clipper has by far the simplest construction of any combine on the market.

LIGHT WEIGHT—Many combines claim light weight . . . compare them with the Clipper's 3,200 lbs. That light weight means less power is required to pull the Clipper . . . more power is available on the power take-off shaft.

CROP INSURANCE . . .

The Clipper will bring you a greater measure of crop insurance than you've ever known because of its ability to handle any crop no matter what its condition. It will deliver more and better grain to the bin. It will shorten your working hours . . . and make your time more productive.

Thirty-six harvests have seen Massey-Harris combines at work in the fields, but never, in all those years, has Massey-Harris been able to offer you so much service per dollar invested.

WE NOW HAVE THESE COMBINES IN STOCK . . . AND WILL HANDLE A COMPLETE LINE OF REPAIRS.

Pendleton and Stodghill

In almost every city where this comedy gem has been given it has had to be repeated to satisfy the requests that have poured in demanding another opportunity to witness this riot of laughter and to howl at its good, clean fun. Mr. Caldwell has achieved a fine reputation as a writer of farce both in the professional and the amateur theatre. His plays are always wholesome and timely and the directors of the various groups look forward eagerly to a new Caldwell play. The part of Aunt Susie will be played by Mrs. Manera Savage, and the rest of the cast includes:
 Joy Herbert . . . Kay Eggleston
 Scarlet Deane . . . Jane McLeRoy
 Laura Dawson . . . Edith Simmons
 Madame Zola . . . Doris Walker
 Mrs. Edward Dunning . . .
 Loma Rae Clarke
 Portia Lark . . . Ruby Hutchinson
 Omar Graves . . . Donnie Partridge
 LaSalle Johnson . . .
 Kenneth Myers
 Johnny Rogers . . . Guy Hardin
 Slick Conway . . . Jean Griffith
 It is a fine thing to encourage the talents of amateur actors and actresses, so let's all turn out and have an evening of fun when "Aunt Susie Shoots the Works!"

At The Churches

ATTEND MEETING

Mrs. Don Ferris and Mrs. W. R. Bryant attended the Fortieth Annual meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of Fort Worth Presbyterian Church, held April 15, 16, 17 at the Frist Presbyterian Church in Fort Worth. Many inspirational speakers were heard, one being Dr. Henry Wade Dubose, pastor of Highland Park Presbyterian Church in Dallas. Dr. Dubose spoke on Prayer and how essential prayer is during these days of war and suffering. "We never enter into the beauty of prayer until we get through thinking of it as a duty." This gives us much to think about and we should thank God for every day for the blessings that we have. Mrs. W. E. Braly and Mrs. Fred Broach Sr., came down for the Wednesday morning session and at this time Mrs. Braly, who is District No. 2 chairman, gave her annual report. Mrs. Ferris gave the annual report for the Munday Auxiliary. Mrs. Don Ferris was elected Spiritual Life Secretary. Theme for 1941-42: "My Utmost for Christ." Motto: "That God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom be praise and dominion forever and ever Amen." Goal: "Every Woman Enlisted for Christ."

METHODIST CHURCH

Luther Kirk
 Romans 1:21: Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations and their foolish heart was larkened.
 This verse of scripture is a true likeness of many of our day and age. Many can be found in and around your immediate vicinity. Many who know the power of God, who know that he gives life and has the power to take it away. Who know that He sends the sunshine and the rain and gives us the blessings of life, but seem to ignore him and all of his pleadings. "They glorify Him not as God, neither are they thankful; but they have become vain in their imaginations and their foolish hearts are darkened." Oh no, we are not judging. "By their fruits we shall know them."
 Attend church Sunday. If you are not attending elsewhere you are invited to worship with us. Sunday School, 10 a.m.
 Morning Worship, 11 a.m.
 Young People's Worship, 7 p.m.
 Evening Service, 7:45.
 The Young People will present a play at the evening service, "Hands That Obey." Be sure and come on time.

TEXAS OUT-OF-DOORS

Fish Production Under Way
Austin, Tex.—Production of fish by the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission in its 10 hatcheries scattered throughout the state is under way and reports to the executive secretary of the Commission here indicate most of the early spawn in the hatcheries escaped freezes which hit part of the state.

The most elemental, but the important moves in the process of raising fish with which to restock Texas lakes and streams have been made. Large numbers of brood fish of 14 varieties have been placed in the ponds in the 10 hatcheries. The ponds have been properly prepared for the business of raising fish by being cleaned, fertilized and filled with water. Fertilization will continue throughout the growing season.

New scientific methods, many of which were tested for the first time last year, will be used in all the 10 hatcheries under the direction of the chief aquatic biologist. New methods of raising fish last year produced more than 7,000,000 fingerlings and the hatchery superintendents have set their sights on a mark of 10,000,000 for 1941.

Basin of three species, several kinds of catfish, goggle eye and a large variety of sunfishes, called breast, will be reared in the hatchery. They will be distributed in the lakes and streams of Texas, both public and private. Last year 15 per cent of the fish were released in private or semi-private waters, but officials of the Game Department feel that the release of these fish will help take the pressure off public waters.

6,191 Coyotes Trapped
Trappers employed by the Texas Game Department reduced the coyote family in the Lone Star State by 6,191 during the last 90 days and will continue their predator control work at least another 30 days, the executive secretary of the Game Commission announced.

Trapping of coyotes is carried on in regions where it is believed the coyotes are so numerous that they are doing considerable damage to game. It is recognized that it is practically impossible to completely eradicate coyotes, but the work the Department is doing along the lines helps keep the predators under control.

Coyotes are trapped by the Game Department at an extremely low cost. It amounts to 50 cents per animal plus the slight cost of the traps.

Coyotes Getting Lazy
Someone, upon hearing this year, declared Texas coyotes are getting lazy, but it appears it is just another indication of the shrewdness of the breed. Coyotes in Texas have taken to skulking the highways and making their meals upon the birds and animals killed by motorists on the roads. This practice has been reported to the State Game Department by several wardens and interested sportsmen who have seen coyotes dragging dead birds and animals from the highways.

Did Catfish Catch Deer?
George Cowden of Pearsall, Texas, recently caught a four-pound catfish which had three deer hoofs in its stomach. To prove the story, Mr. Cowden took the fish and the hoofs to town and displayed them, according to the Dilley Herald, which asks: "Did the catfish catch a deer and was the fish liable for arrest for killing a deer out of season?"

We also recently heard of a large catfish caught in El Paso county which had three empty cornbeef cans in its stomach. The digestive juices of the fish had reduced the metal in the cans almost to the consistency of gelatine.

Deliberately Ran Down Deer
An East Texas resident recently found it was rather costly to deliberately run down a deer. He was fined $21 and costs in court and it was also necessary for him to pay $19.50 for repairs to his automobile.

A small, frightened deer was running down the right-of-way. The motorist left the highway and struck the deer while it was 30 feet from the road. Within half an hour a state game warden was picking up deer, glass and parts of a car showing evidence of a damaged radiator. A check of garages was made, the damaged car was found and then its owner was located in a town 70 miles away. He probably will think a long time before running down another deer in Texas.

PLANNING '42 AAA PROGRAM

College Station.—Farmers all over Texas, through their AAA committeemen are making their recommendations for formulating the 1942 Agricultural Adjustment Administration program.

Their recommendations are being forwarded to the state AAA office here where the results will be tabulated for study by the state-wide meeting on the Texas A. and M. College campus April 28, 29.

Each year the AAA asks the nation's farmers to suggest means of improving the program. The suggestions from the counties are considered at the state meeting, and those which are considered best and most applicable are included in the state AAA committee's recommendations to the national conference to be held this summer.

The state meeting will be conducted by the state AAA committee and will be attended by heads of various agricultural agencies, newspapermen and AAA officials.

Did You Know That...
There are two kinds of bashfulness; one, the awkwardness of the booby, which a few steps into the world will convert into the pertness of a coxcomb; the other, a consciousness which the most delicate feelings produce, and the most extensive knowledge cannot always remove.—MacKenzie.

Bashfulness may sometimes exclude pleasure, but seldom opens any avenues to sorrow or remorse.—Johnson.

Senior Report
Hurrah! Hurrah! Exams are over: and one more month to go! Those were the shouts heard from the Seniors Friday evening.

We Wonder Why...
Weldon took Mildred home Monday. (Was it that she was sick or ???)

Genevieve was planning on going to Seymour Monday night. (Was it the way she was going, or with whom?)

Genevieve had such a grand time Friday night. (With whom??)

Rose says she wouldn't give Albert R. up.

Why Rose wasn't in Seymour Monday night. (Was it because Cleotus didn't pick up the nerve to ask her to go?)

Ben thinks Dean is such a pretty name.

Richard is getting letters from Munday lately. (From whom??)

Junior Report
The Juniors have just finished their exams and are getting ready for the finals.

Although they were handicapped by a lack of sufficient players, the Junior high school boys softball team gave a good account of themselves. They beat Munday six to one, but were defeated by the Goree lads who had the advantage of drawing a bye.

A Laugh or Two
A Scotchman in planning his new home left the roof off one room. A friend asked the reason for this.

"Oh, that's the shower," replied the Scotchman.

Wife (trying on hats): "Do you like this turned down, dear?"
Husband: "How much is it?"
"Eleven dollars."
"Yes, turn it down."

Sophomore Report
One more month of school. That's all there is, there isn't any more. That is all that's left to go!

We have learned that the Senior banquet is to be on the night of May 8, 1941. Some of the Sophs are on some of the committees.

We all made pretty good grades in our exams. Some of us will have to take our finals, I guess, if we don't pass the state examination.

The junior high school softball team did well at the county meet. We beat Munday, but the boys from Goree, who drew a bye, beat us. The grade school boys won first place in the precinct by winning both games.

Is It True That...
Mildred got sick Monday in school?

Our reporter was carrying a pint in his pocket. (Was he celebrating or was it empty?)

Helen was told to be quiet. (Too noisy?)

Theresa is always laughing?

Bernardine wrote a letter? (To whom??)

Freshman Report
We believe that everyone was satisfied with what they made in exams, and we hope the next and last exam will be just as successful.

We Wonder Why...
The Freshman class was not sat-

ified with their math test. (Albert A. do you know why?)

Genevieve was jealous Monday. (Genevieve, do you really believe that the news that Florine (or Genevieve herself) wrote will be in The Munday Times?)

Everett wants Christine's book. (Was it because of the girl who wrote it?)

Albert S. wanted Ben to give him a drink. (Albert, that was just clear water.)

Room IV Grade School
We were very sorry to have lost the softball game last Saturday, April 19th, but someone had to lose. Some of the girls did very well.

We are glad that the grade school boys beat the Goree and Munday boys. The boys are tickled about the little pitcher walking 2 in the two games.

We Wonder Why...
Cleo is so happy when the Freshman class comes into Room III. (Is it because of a certain boy?)

Charles thinks Miss McGrath is always picking on him?

Marvin is always pestering a certain girl?

Alvin is such a good catcher?

Rose Marie didn't get many balls playing second base.

Harold can pick the balls out of the dirt.

Miss McGrath moved Harold from one side of the room to the other?

Magdalen almost was late for the ball game last Saturday.

News of Room IV
We felt real proud of the boys for exhibiting their skill at playing softball in such a great manner last Saturday. We knew they could do it, but were afraid that perhaps they'd lose their ability before a crowd. Here is hoping they play their best again next Saturday, and win—boys!

We Wonder Why...
Veronica was sick last Friday?
Francis and Gene were moved?
Arlene's dictionary had so many names on it?
Gene was so blue last Friday.

The wheel of events spins and we are today where the world stood nearly a century and a quarter ago, which makes timely and significant the words of Robert J. Ingersoll regarding another military genius, whose far-reaching ambition at last resulted in his own downfall:

"A little while ago I stood at the grave of Napoleon—a magnificent tomb of gilt and gold, fit almost for a dead deity, and gazed upon the sarcophagus of black Egyptian marble where rest at last the ashes of that restless man. I leaned over the balustrade and thought about the career of the greatest soldier of the modern world.

I saw him walking on the banks of the Seine, contemplating suicide. I saw him putting down the mob in the streets of Paris. I saw him crossing the bridge of Lodi with the tri-color in his hand. I saw him conquer the Alps and mingle the eagles of France with the eagles of the crags. I saw him in Egypt in the shadow of the pyramids, where thirty centuries looked down upon him.

I saw him in Russia where the infantry of the snow and the cavalry of the wild blast scattered his legions like winter's withered leaves. I saw him at Leipzig in defeat and disaster—clutched like a wild beast—banished to Elba. I saw him escape and retake an empire by the force of his genius. I saw him on the frightful field of Waterloo, where chance and fate combined to wreck the fortunes of their former king. And I saw him on the lonely Isle of St. Helena, with his hands clasped behind his back, gazing out upon the sand and solemn sea.

I thought of all the orphans and widows he had made—of the tears that had been shed for his glory—and of the only woman who ever loved him thrust from his heart by the ruthless hand of ambition. And I said: "I would rather have been a French peasant and worn wooden shoes; I had rather lived in a hut with the vines growing over the door and the grapes growing purple in the amorous kisses of the autumn sun, with my loving wife knitting by my side as the day died out of the sky—yes I would rather have been that man and gone down to the tongueless silence of the dreamless dust than to have been that imperial personation of force and murder known as Napoleon the Great."

Under existing laws, if it can be shown that there is a public need, railroads can operate truck lines. During the past two years, railroads have applied for 23 permits and 21 were granted. Now, however, it seems that at least some of the railroads want to repeal that provision in the truck law that they must show public convenience and necessity. No county judge, no city official, nor the Highway Department would have anything to say as to operations over the highways. And what about public safety—a subject about which railroads have long been deeply concerned? Opponents of the legislation declare it would eliminate the small independent truck operator whose competition has given to the consuming public store-door delivery with lower rates and faster service.

An annual cotton crop ranging from 11 to 12 million bales would require the use of 100,000 to 150,000 bales if the entire crop were wrapped in cotton bagging.

Freshman News

The Freshmen are preparing to give the six-weeks exams a whirl, so they don't have much to say, except that they are planning to go to Lake Kemp on Freshman day, but have not yet decided when that will be.

Sophomore Report

The Sophomores had a party on Thursday night. Those who attended were: Bonnie Parker, Nadene Parker, Jimmie Salter, Frances Duke, Wanda, Nunley, Glenda Rutledge, Pete Rutledge, Alonzo Cartwright, Tootie McGregor, Douglas Meinzer, Adrian West,

Lee Bivins, Mrs. Jackson, and her daughter. A very nice time was had by all. The refreshments were sandwiches and lemonade. We also had visitors who stayed out in their car and watched the party—"Come again."

Junior Report

The Juniors had an amateur program last Friday night. There was a nice crowd and we want to thank everyone for attending. The first prize was presented to the rhythm band. Jean and June Nunley won second prize with their Jitterbug Dance, and Bobbie Hudson won third place with a piano selection.

We may put off the Junior-Senior banquet until a later date so that the track boys may attend.

Senior Report

The Seniors are planning to go to Abilene this week-end and spend a day at Hardin-Simmons University. Everyone wants to go except Butch.

Last Friday night, the Seniors entered the amateur program, sponsored by the Juniors, but didn't win anything.

Sadie the Snoop

Doug, why don't you quit talking so loud?
Ed, couldn't you find your girl Saturday night???

Perry, you and Adrian shouldn't go out with such wild girls. Especially if they insist on keeping you out until 9:30.

Wanda, why did you bite Beulah in the show the other night???

Cidy, Sadie wants to go to Munday with you the next time you go.

I wonder if it was really the spring weather that caused so many of the students to be sleepy Monday morning?

We wonder why so few Seniors were at the amateur program Friday night???

Yes, I'm sure all the kids at the sophomore party had the leg-ache when they got home. They couldn't have walked that much and not have it. What games were you playing, Tooter??

Butch, were you blushing all day Monday, or was your face blistered???

What Senior boy is really planning on going to Abilene this week-end???

We have made it our Number One Job to see that the National Defense Program goes steadily forward with the whole-hearted support of Lone Star Gas System

LONE STAR GAS SYSTEM

DALLAS, TEXAS

1915 WOOD STREET

D. A. HULCY
President

April 16, 1941

To Employees of Lone Star Gas System:

These are unusual times. At no other period in many years have we had the problems we face today.

No matter what other demands are made upon us we must work together faithfully, loyally, and with unity of purpose to render all possible assistance toward national defense. This is the Number One Job of every American citizen. Whatever is necessary, we are ready to do our part so that America's defense program will go steadily forward.

No other industry is more important than ours in the national program. Therefore, a full spirit of responsibility will serve each of us well in the demands which the national crisis is making and will continue to make on the natural gas industry collectively and individually. Let it be the firm resolve of each of us that whatever it takes we are ready for our responsibilities. When it is all over let it be said of you and Lone Star Gas System that we did not fail our country and our people in time of trouble.

D. A. Hulcy
D. A. HULCY
President

ALREADY natural gas is playing an important part in national defense activities in the Southwest, where army cantonments, airplane factories, and numerous other defense projects are dependent upon natural gas fuel service. Whatever it takes to get gas to these army camps and national defense plants, we will do it! Out goes the word to more than 3,600 employees and Lone Star Gas System rises to the occasion of the national emergency. Being accustomed to emergencies our employees with one accord subscribe to this policy of preparedness, "Whatever it takes—it shall be done."

Throughout the 4,800 miles of interconnected pipeline system and its associated facilities for dependable service—engineers, foremen, construction gangs, compressor station forces, drilling crews, supply depots, executives and personnel—all are alert to their newest responsibilities of public service.

Pendleton and Stodghill Will Sponsor Farm Youth Contest Again

Plans for the 1941 scholarships, awarded by the National Farm Youth Foundation, have just been received by Pendleton & Stodghill, Ford tractor dealer, under whose local supervision Foundation activities have been carried on. Foundation activities are sponsored nationally by the Ferguson-Sherman Manufacturing Corporation, with the active cooperation of Mr. Henry Ford and Mr. Edsel Ford.

During the coming year 29 $1,000 scholarships will be awarded throughout the United States to NFYF scholarship holders judged most proficient at the completion of courses in farm management and engineering and practical training. The scholarships are for study at an accredited agricultural college or university of the student's choice. One of these $1,000 scholarships will be awarded in this general area of which Munday is a part.

In each of the nation's twenty-nine NFYF areas a secondary award will be made. At least one $500 scholarship will be awarded in each major district. This, too, will be for study in an accredited agricultural college or university of the student's choice.

During the coming year, age limits have been expanded in the National Farm Youth Foundation in order that a greater number of young men of American farms may have the increased opportunity for local scholarships. This year's age limits are between 17 and 26 years.

According to Harry Ferguson, Foundation chairman, many cash awards will be made in each general area for proficiency in tractor operation and other classifications.

Pendleton & Stodghill are now accepting applications for scholarships in the local Foundation classes which will soon start. In addition to the above-mentioned age limits, the only rules for admission are that the young men live or work on American farms and be of good character and sincere purpose.

The year just concluded found more than 10,000 young men in farming communities in virtually every part of the country attending National Farm Youth Foundation classes. An even greater number is anticipated for the year about to start.

Local scholarship applicants are urged to get in touch with Pendleton & Stodghill, Munday, Texas, at once.

Rhineland Wins By 5 to 2 Count Over Benjamin

Playing in chilly weather, which was more suitable for football, failed to hamper Rhineland as they turned in their second successive win of the new season with Benjamin being victims, 5-2.

Thomas, stellar little right-hander from Sunset way, pitching for Rhineland although touched for 10 safeties was doubly tough in the pinches and would have scored a shutout with faultless support.

Bivins, Benjamin hurler, also turned in an airtight performance except in the second frame when Rhineland scored 4 of their tallies which proved to be his undoing.

In this game Benjamin displayed surprising skill and while it is not known whether or not this is to be any criteria for the future, a continuance of this brand of ball should net them many victories.

Next Sunday Rhineland will again entertain on their home lot when they meet Needmore, a new entry in the league, who, unless Rhineland develops more hitting prowess, promise to make it very interesting, as their win over Goree would indicate.

Vera Loses 6 to 1 To Munday Players

The rampaging Munday Cardinals defeated Vera, 6 to 1, last Sunday for their fourth consecutive victory of the season.

Don Ratliff of the Cards was master all of the way, and he racked up his fourth victory by pitching a no-hit game. Vera scored their run on a walk and two errors in the first inning. Ratliff got 15 strikeouts and gave three passes during his great performance, and only four men reached first base.

The Cardinals collected 13 hits from Bill Hardin, Vera moundman, to count for their six runs. Rayburn's long home run in the sixth and his fine defensive play later in the inning were highlights of the game.

Manager Pete Reid, with a triple and a single out of three trips to the plate, and Ratliff, with two singles in three trips, led the hitting for the Munday club.

The Cards are showing more pep as the season advances, and they will probably be in top form when they play their next home game on May 4th. Munday will play Benjamin at Benjamin next Sunday afternoon.
