Legion to Buy Lung for County Last of Week

"What a Man Does For Himself Dies With Him—
What He Does For His Community Lives On and On"—

CIGARETTES AND GOOD CITIZENSHIP

A wise man said, "Tell me what you eat and I will tell you what you are." He might also have said, "Tell me what you do with your cigarette stubs and I will tell you what kind of a citizen you are."

When driving your car, do you throw your stub out of the window? If you do, you aren't a good citizen. Your stub may land in some leaves or rubbish by the roadside and start a fire. The place for such stubs is in the ash tray provided in your car.

When you are smoking in the house and you leave your stub in an ashtray, do you make sure it is actually out before you leave it? Women are said to be the worst offenders in this respect. Cigarette stubs smolder on the edge of an ashtray, and sometimes drop off. That is how many house fires begin.

When you drop your stub in any public place, do you step on it, hard? You should. It might set fire to the clothing of some passer-by. The best plan is never to drop your stub on any floor at any time, but use the receptacles provided for smokers.

Good citizenship is simply intelligent consideration for your fellow men. According to the National Board of Fire Underwriters, now celebrating its 75th anniversary, one test of a good citizen is whether he puts cigarette stubs only in a safe receptacle, and, even then, makes sure they are completely extinguished.

MEDICAL SCIENCE FINDS NEW WORLDS

Science, in its endless search for weapons with which to fight disease, is forever discovering new worlds. Such an achievement was recently described before the American Chemical Society by two doctors connected with great private research laboratories.

Ever since scientists discovered that the human body can build up immunity against disease, they have been working to find precisely how the process works. The new discovery involves a further use of the electron microscope which employs electrons in place of visible light and gives a hundred times more detail than the best optical instrument. With this instrument, the doctors were able not only to see the large molecules in the body, but could even watch reactions between molecules of various types. It is these reactions which produce immunity to disease.

As a basis for their studies, the doctors produced in rabbits an artificial immunity to tobacco mosaic virus. They then succeeded in photographing the virus which had been attacked by antibodies (the disease-fighting organisms in the blood) from the rabbits' blood stream. So clear were the photographs that the actual manner and extent of the attack could be determined.

So science takes another step forward—a step fraught with possibilities for improved health and greater freedom from disease. Here in America private medicine is leading the world in the fight against the greatest of killers—bacteria.

"WE HAVE ONLY MADE A START"

In New York City on May 8 a body of people gathered at City Hall. In the beautiful Board of Estimate room, practically unchanged for a century and a quarter, they celebrated the 125th anniversary of the founding of one of America's well-known organizations—the American Bible Society. Born in these same walls—facing the expansion of the then-young country to the West—the Society accepted the challenge of supplying Scriptures to the thousands of new homes springing up in the great trek to the Coast.

In 1836, just 20 years later, the Society opened its first foreign agency in Turkey.

Scriptures in more than 200 different languages are needed by the Society's workers who, today, are found distributing the Word in 40 foreign countries.

Remembering the word of the Psalmist, "He sent his word, and healed them, and delivered them from their destructions," the American Bible Society has bestirred itself anew to wrestle with the worldwide urgency of greatly increased distribution of the Holy Scriptures, that more multitudes might learn therefrom that "perfect love casteth out fear."

Its distribution since 1816 has approximated 305,555,700 Bibles, Testaments and Portions—a large figure, but very small in proportion to the number of human hearts who should have been and still need to be reached with God's Word. The Bible Society is growing steadily and vigorously, its very responsibilities preventing it from resting on its years or its laurels. It is facing up to the grave situations created by the war emergencies, in other countries, and in the words of the Society's president, John T. Manson, "We have only made a start."

STRIKE—WHILE THE IRON IS COLD?

We have had a lot of talk about whether or not strikes were causing much havoc in the defense program, but until recently we haven't had very much in the way of calm and authoritative figures. Now the National Association of Manufacturers has issued some statistics on defense and other strikes that should sweep a number of unsupported declarations into the discard.

The N. A. M. study shows that total number of man-days lost from strikes in the first three months of this year were more than three times as great as for the same period in 1940. In all, 3,022,918 man-days were lost in January, February and March of this year; and of this total, 1,578,000 man-days were directly in defense industries.

The time lost in those industries would have been enough to equip about 1,402,480 American soldiers with the latest Garand rifles, or to provide more than five billion rounds of ammunition for those rifles. Seen in those terms or in any others—the harm done can hardly be minimized.

The great danger lies in the attitude of some who continue to claim, in the face of the evidence, that the number or result of strikes in defense is really not very important. The figures knock that complacency galley-west.

Defense is either vital or it isn't. The American people think that it is, and will be paying billions in taxes to support their belief. In the light of that stand, there is an all-important need to work out solutions for any problems that arise without recourse to strikes that cripple our all-out effort for national defense.

AMERICAN CITIZENSHIP

Not since the rights of citizenship in this country of ours were first established has there been so much cause as there is today for pride and thankfulness as each of us utters the words: "I am an American."

We enjoy precious rights in the United States, ones to be found in few other lands. Freedom of speech, freedom of religion (even the right to follow any religion except state-worship has been lost in some foreign lands), the right to move freely from place to place, the right to engage in the occupation of your choice, the right to start your own business and take your own chances—we Americans are so used to these and other principles that we seldom give a thought.

But there's an opportunity this month to pause and remember the above considerations. For Congress has set Sunday, May 18, aside as Citizenship Recognition Day, in recognition of the 2,500,000 young men and women who have reached the estate of American citizenship during the past year. Posts of the American Legion throughout the country and many other groups and individuals will co-operate in giving this occasion its full meaning.

And not just the 21-year-olds should celebrate their citizenship at this time. In the midst of a troubled world, all Americans, young and old, can profit by rededicating themselves to the meaning and importance of American citizenship and to their rights and duties in this society of free and enterprising men and women.

Citizenship Recognition Day belongs to all Americans.

The safe of a New Orleans motor company was broken open one night recently and $1,469 was taken. The manager was doubly chagrined to see an electric drill, a sledge hammer, steel punches, and a screw driver strewn in front of the safe next morning. All the tools used by the safe-cracker belonged to the company.

TOO MUCH WHEAT

College Station—United States farmers produce more wheat than the home market is able to use, Charlie L. Thomas, state A A A committeeman and wheat farmer from Pampa, says in pointing out that large supplies of wheat are expected to make marketing quotas necessary for handling the 1941 crop.

During the past 18 years, the committeeman declared, farmers have produced an average of 109,000,000 bushels of wheat more than was consumed in this country. Exports have furnished an outlet for much of the wheat produced above domestic needs, but since the outbreak of the present war, wheat exports have been almost entirely cut off.

As a result of the war, wheat has piled up in this country until the total supply for the 1941-42 marketing year is expected to be nearly one and a quarter million bushels, Thomas said. This is almost enough wheat to meet this country's needs for two years.

Another factor that has contributed to large wheat supplies is, formerly, he continued. In 1920, the consumption of wheat averaged 4.4 bushels per person, while in 1930 it was 4.1 bushels and in 1939 it was 3.7 bushels. Although the population has increased, the lower consumption per person has prevented any appreciable increase of the total consumption.

Inability of the domestic market to absorb the wheat produced, coupled with the sharp curtailment of exports, are factors for wheat growers to study carefully before the marketing quota referendum on May 31, Thomas declared.

THEY SAY!

"Something's got to be done. Either cut the appropriations or this legislature will have to pass another tax bill."—Senator A. M. Aikin of Paris.

"American industry has repeatedly pledged its wholehearted support to the national defense program. It has moved swiftly to meet all the demands that have been made by government to date. But industry could do more if we are, in the opinion of the government, actually faced with emergency war production. How fast industry diverts its efforts from production for normal needs to armament depends upon how seriously government regards the immediate future. Whether production for Great Britain or production for our own defense is the most important, it is for the government to decide. H. W. Prentiss, Jr., president Armstrong Cork Co.

EVERGREENS ARE SURVIVING

College Station—Check examinations made by Forestry Service workers on the Prairie States project show that at least 95 per cent of the evergreens in Northwest Texas shelterbelts have developed new roots since they were planted—some trees having a mat of from one- to two-inch roots.

This is an all-important factor in determining whether or not a tree will pull through the hot summer, according to W. E. Webb, state director of the project. A large number of the 250,000 evergreens planted in the shelterbelts are being protected by shingles and large cans with the tops and bottoms cut out. Farmers are being urged to use these devices to prevent covering up the young trees when the shelterbelt is being cultivated.

Doctors Entering Service Should Ask For Commissions

All licensed physicians and surgeons who are Selective Service registrants were urged today by General J. Watt Page, State Selective Service Director, to apply for commission in the Medical Reserve Corps.

"There is a shortage of physicians and surgeons in the Medical Corps," Gen. Page said, "and such registrants can serve their country better as medical officers than as inductees for military training."

The War Department recently announced several thousand vacancies in the Medical Corps Reserve and that physicians and surgeons commissioned would be given the grade of First Lieutenant.

General Page said that Texas local boards have been instructed to see that while no practicing doctor whose services are necessary to his community is inducted for military training, the requirements of the armed forces for physicians and surgeons must also be filled.

"Cooperation with the War Department in its procurement program," he said, "makes it particularly desirable right now that we avoid inducting men who have made application for a commission and who qualify as medical officers, and thereby serve both the Army and themselves to better advantage. For that reason we are asking all local boards to communicate with physicians and surgeons among their registrants and encourage them to apply to the Corps Area Surgeon, Eighth Corps Area, Ft. Sam Houston, Texas, for reserve commissions in the Medical Corps."

General Page pointed out that where such registrants do not take advantage of this opportunity to be commissioned, and if they are placed in Class 1-A, they will be inducted for military training under the Selective Service Act. Internes, if commissioned, will be deferred from active service duty to complete one year's internship.

General Page also pointed out that only doctors who are graduates of approved schools who are licensed, or eligible to be licensed, to practice medicine in the state in which they live, are considered for commissions in the Medical Reserve Corps.

Weekly Health

Issued by Dr. Geo. W. Cox, M.D., State Health Officer of Texas

The high prevalence of faulty dental conditions among draftees when they report for physical examinations is cited by Dr. Geo. W. Cox, state health officer, as emphasizing the need for early and regular dental care for children—both at home and under professional supervision.

Doctor Cox stated that dental disease has resulted in the rejection of as high as ten per cent of the draftees for regular military service. He attributed these dental defects to failure of the draftees to avail themselves of dental care—even when properly advised—during childhood. Another probable factor was the period of economic depression, during which a great deal of needed preventive dental service was allowed to go unattended.

"When the majority of the present draftees were of elementary school age, there was little or no development of the present-day dental school health program. The programs, still not as nearly universal as they should be, aim at the double goal of educating the child in the importance of good teeth and securing needed dental care for the child from his family dentist or through school dental clinics. By the first of these two aims, it is hoped that children will be led to continue regular dental care in their later years.

"Had the draftees received the initial care that results from this school program, the ill effects of the depression period would probably not have been so markedly reflected in the present-day condition of their teeth. Every dental defect that results in the loss of a tooth had a small beginning. Had these and subsequent defects been noted, and corrected early the number of necessarily extracted teeth would have been materially reduced with, in turn, reduction of the number of draft rejections because of dental defects.

"There is no cure for dental decay, once it is started, other than prompt corrective service by a dentist. It is believed that the efforts now being made to accustom the children to early and regular dental care will prevent the development of conditions similar to those now influencing the rejection of draftees. If it does this, it will also result in the improved health of our adult population whether or not a national emergency is faced. "And good teeth in healthy bodies are as essential in normal as in emergency periods."

Sixth Grade News
 Best citizens for the week are Denzil Davis and Weldon Walling. The policeman is Bettie Sue Saunders.

We have begun to study very hard for six weeks exams. Everyone will feel happy passing to the eighth grade next year; that is, if we have the new 12-grade system.

Seventh Grade
 The seventh grade had a picnic last Wednesday afternoon, at the Knox City park. All of them report a nice time.

Last Friday was our club meeting day. We had a very good program, which consisted of a play, songs by the seventh grade trio, a piano solo, stories, jokes and riddles.
 Our program chairman was Evelyn Moore.
 School will be out in two more weeks, so there will be little time for studies.

 We were pleased to have a visitor Monday. She was Allene Jones, from Anson.

Senior Report
 It has been a custom for the Seniors to eat dinner in the home of one of the Seniors on the day they have their Baccalaureate Sermon. This year the dinner will be given on May 18 by Mrs. Emmett Partridge, the mother of Donnie Partridge. We feel sure that this will be a memorable occasion for all the Seniors. The Commencement exercises will be Thursday, May 22. As everyone knows, the Seniors will leave on their trip May 26.

The banquet was a very nice affair and was enjoyed by everyone (especially the Seniors.) The Seniors thank the Juniors from the bottom of their hearts for such a grand occasion.

We wish to take this opportunity to thank everyone for everything they have done for us.

Last Will and Testament

Of the Sunset Seniors
 The Senior Class of the Sunset High School, County of Knox, State of Texas; being sound of mind, make this our last will and testament.

After payment of our just debts, we devise and bequeath the following:

Allene wills her timidity and quietness to Alyne.
 To Evelyn Offutt, Loma Rae and Ruby leave their ability to play volleyball.

Jean leaves to a Junior girl the pleasure of writing names and initials on her notebook.

Janes leaves to Wynell her cute way of talking.

To Marvin, Guy leaves his ability to play football.

Kenneth leaves to Randall his popularity and wavy hair.

Donnie leaves his ability to get along with girls to Rufus.

To Bernice, Willie Mae leaves an address in San Antonio.

Claude leaves to all the Junior boys his basketball playing ability.

To Marvin, Roy leaves his ability

ity to make Prince Albert roll-your-owns.
 Edith leaves her typing speed to Jane Burton.

Doris wills her flirtatious ways to Jenell Smith.
 Kay leaves to Barbara her knowledge of how to blow the biggest bubbles with her favorite gum, Double Bubble.

And last, to all the Juniors, the Seniors as a whole bequeath their best wishes, their able sponsor, Mrs. Savage, and their money-making ability.

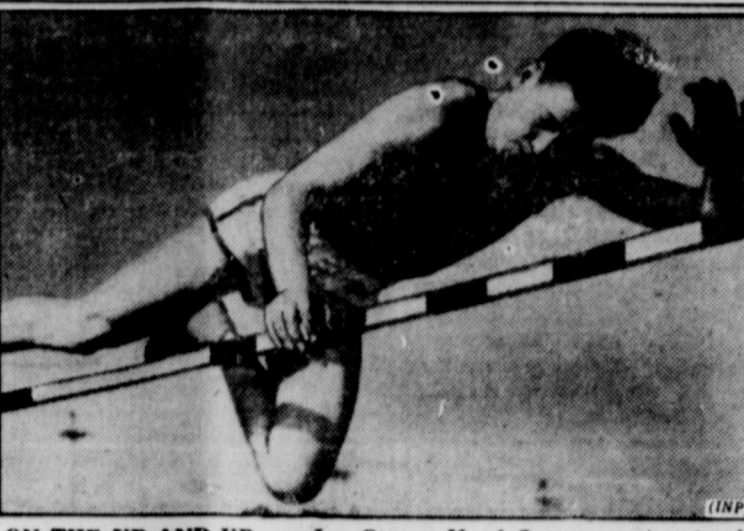

Senior Class Prophecy
 The other day, while I was visiting in one of the nearby cities, I saw a gypsy holding a crystal. Being very anxious to see the Senior Class of '41, as they would be 10 years from now, I wandered up to the gypsy and gazed into the crystal.

The first person I saw was Doris Walker. She was working as a secretary in a large office in Los Angeles. She seemed very happy although she was working very diligently. The crystal was rapidly turning and before I could see the name of the company, the ball pictured a main street in Washington D.C. I saw a sign reading Jane McLeroy, Head of F.B.I. The name seemed familiar and suddenly I remembered that she was the little girl who read so many detective stories. The next scene I saw was a home economics room of a large school in Florida. The teacher was none other than Edith Simmons. To my surprise she had really grown up and was a very capable teacher. It seems that Washington was a very popular place for the Sunset Seniors because I saw Guy Hardin sitting in the Supreme Court. I learned that he was the youngest person to become a member of this court.

Can you imagine the noisiest member of our class being a dignified judge? As the ball continued to turn I saw Jean Griffith as a Lieutenant in the U.S. Air Corps. He made a very handsome lieutenant, dressed up in his uniform. The next thing I saw was a huge airplane factory. I at once recognized the owner, as no other than Donnie Partridge. He was becoming rich making airplanes for the nation's defense. On a tour of the factory I saw Kenneth Myers working as an electric engineer. I could barely imagine the smallest Senior of '41 with such an important task. I could hardly believe my eyes when I saw that Donnie had two very attractive and efficient secretaries in to stay in their home state. Agnes Brown was married and living in Fort Worth. Her husband was an aviator. I saw her dress as a stewardess and just as the crystal turned, I saw her hop in an airplane. From the entire class, I saw only one who was a farmer, Roy Simmons had proved to be a successful one. Kay Eggleston was head nurse in the Knox City hospital. I saw her home. In the back yard was a group of small boys playing football. The ball quickly turned to the last member of the senior class, who was Ruby Hutchinson. I saw her in front of a microphone singing "God Bless America" along with Kate Smith; I at once recognized this as the class song of 1941. She was very widely known as the most popular radio singer of 1951. I quickly thanked the gypsy for her kindness and hurried on my way, for an important conference, but it was well worth the time to see my old classmates of 1941.

other than Willie Mae Pearce and Loma Rae Clarke. Both were very attractive and appeared to be very capable in their important tasks. The next view in the crystal globe was a sturdy radio engineer-head of the National Broadcasting System. He proved to be the monkey of the class, Claude Richardson. Back in Texas once more, I found several of my classmates had chosen to stay in their home state. Agnes Brown was married and living in Fort Worth. Her husband was an aviator. I saw her dress as a stewardess and just as the crystal turned, I saw her hop in an airplane. From the entire class, I saw only one who was a farmer, Roy Simmons had proved to be a successful one. Kay Eggleston was head nurse in the Knox City hospital. I saw her home. In the back yard was a group of small boys playing football. The ball quickly turned to the last member of the senior class, who was Ruby Hutchinson. I quickly thanked the gypsy for her kindness and hurried on my way, for an important conference, but it was well worth the time to see my old classmates of 1941.

People, Spots In The News

ON THE UP-AND-UP... Les Steers, U. of Oregon, makes track history with high jump of 6 feet 10 and 25-32nds inches in meet with U. of Washington—more than an inch above present world record. He also won high hurdles and was third in shot-put.

SEA-GOING MIKE... Newest in odd habiliments of warriors is this "voice gear" used by slicker officer of Royal Canadian Navy in directing fire of guns aboard Canadian warship amid icy sprays and cutting winds of the North Atlantic.

HANDS ACROSS SEA... Dr. Percy Kamerer (left) of British War Relief Society receives $1,500 check from John W. Stringer, commander of Schenley Post No. 1190 of American Legion, for aid to stricken British civilians. Legionnaires raised fund at dance in New York.

Group singing, led by Evelyn Offutt.

It was a great pleasure for the Juniors and their sponsor, Mrs. Holder, to prepare the last coming-out party for dear old Seniors of 1941. They shall all miss your smiling faces from the study hall next year, although they know there is a time when each student must say goodbye to high school days, and realize that they too will have to say goodbye in a short time. Each and every one of the Juniors of '41 lift up their voices in unison to bid you farewell and welcome each of you back to Sunset at all times. Good luck to the Sunset Seniors of 1941!

SOME BULLS
 Of all animals the fur seals of the Pribilof Islands have the most interesting cognomens. The males are called "bulls," the females, "cows," and the unmated bulls, "bachelors." However the young are known as "pups," while young females visiting the islands for the first time are referred to as "debutantes." Each old bull gathers as many females as he can and his family is known as a harem. The old bulls stay on the islands from May until departure in September and during the entire time neither eat nor drink.

TEXAS OUT-OF-DOORS

Austin, Texas, May—Beaver planted in East Texas after being trapped in West Texas are doing well, so well, in fact that it is possible that should the Texas Game Fish and Oyster Commission be able to continue trapping and trans-planting those busy little creatures, it may be possible to have an open season on them within five years, according to a report from a game warden to the executive secretary of the Department here.

Beavers are fairly abundant in parts of West Texas, but there is not sufficient suitable habitat for them there. The Game Department and the wildlife research unit at College Station, a Game Department co-operative agency, trapped a few beaver two years ago. Last season the Game Department trapped more, and plan additional activities next winter. Beaver build dams and thus aid other wild life. The dams hold back the rush of water, provide watering places for wild and domestic birds and animals and oftentimes provide places for other furbearers to live, as well as aiding fish life.

Only one complaint has been received by the Game Department as the result of the plantings of beaver in east Texas, while many landowners who have had a few acres of land flooded have welcomed the busy little animals. The Game Department is ready to trap beaver that are unwanted by land owners, but anticipates few requests of this nature. The animals are too valuable.

ONE BULLET EQUALS TWO DEER
 P. B. Gerhart, a mechanic of Canadian, Texas, saved plenty of ammunition during the last hunting season, according to a belated report reaching the Texas Game Department. Mr. Gerhart and Sheriff Rathjin went hunting on Dec. 16. Gerhart got out of the car at a persimmon patch on the Hartage Ranch near Canadian. When he was within 100 yards of the thicket, he saw a large-looking buck looking at him. He fired. Imagine his surprise when he reached the buck, a seven-pointer, to see another buck stretched out just a few feet from the one at which he had aimed. Gerhart had seen only one buck, yet he had gotten his season's legal limit with one shot. The seven-pointer had been shot through the neck and the four-pointer through the head. The hunter was using a 30-'06. The bullet nearly tore the head off the second deer it hit.

ILLEGAL SEINERS HARD HIT
 Fishermen using illegal nets, seines and fishtraps have been hard hit by the Texas Game Department wardens of late, reports that reach the executive secretary here indicate. One group of wardens in East Texas traveled the entire length of a river and took out more than 100 illegal seines and traps. Another group found a trap constructed of poultry wire placed in a large bayou. It was so large that no fish were able to travel past it. Illegal catching of fish in seines, traps and nets destroy tens of thousands of fish, of which would make excellent sport for the man with a rod and reel or pole and line.

HAWK WAS VERY HUNGRY
 A hawk which was so hungry it would not give up its prey, a mockingbird it had killed, until it had been fired at three times by a State Game Warden, using a shotgun, is reported to the Austin office from South Texas. The warden and his captain were patrolling when they saw the hawk flying into an oak mott with a bird in its wings. The captain walked into the mott, fired two shots at the hawk. One was a hit, but the hawk flew to another mott. The captain followed, peppered the hawk with another load of shot, and it was only then that the hawk gave up its prey. The hawk was a sharp-shinned.

Most hawks are considered beneficial, killing many rodents. However, four hawks are not protected by state laws in Texas. They are Cooper hawk, or blue darter, the sharp-shinned, the goshawk and the duck hawk.

29 MILLION!

A record never before approached!

★When the 29,000,000th Ford rolled recently from the assembly line, an all-time record for the industry was set. 29,000,000 units built by the same management and all bearing one name—a name that has become one of the best-known trade-marks in the world!

It is significant that this achievement comes at a time when our country is making a mighty effort to re-arm swiftly. For to further that effort, to help speed it along in any possible way, we have offered the vast facilities of the Rouge Plant and every ounce of our experience.

As you read this, a new $21,000,000 Ford airplane engine plant, started only last fall, is nearly completed. A new magnesium alloy plant, one of the few in the country, is already in production on light-weight airplane engine castings. Work is right now under way on a new $18,000,000 plant for mass production of big bomber assemblies. Orders have been filled for military vehicles of several types, including army reconnaissance cars, staff cars and bomb service trucks.

In the midst of this activity for National Defense, building the 29 millionth Ford car is simply one part of the day's work.

The public has acclaimed the 1941 Ford car as the finest in Ford history. Ford Dealers are enjoying their greatest sales and expecting their best year since 1937.

It is good to be producing the things America needs, and to be setting records on the way!

Keep Records Of Farm Operations

Knox county farmers are advised to keep accurate records of their farm operations, County Agent Walter Rice said Wednesday. Many farmers have become eligible to file income tax reports, and it will be much easier to file a correct report if farm records are kept.

The county extension agents will be glad to assist farmers in keeping their records. It is very necessary that a record be kept of all farm expenses and all sources of gross income.

CARD OF THANKS

As a family we wish to express our sincere thanks to our friends and neighbors for their sympathy and help during the recent illness and death of our husband and father, J. B. Bowden. We can never fully tell all of you how grateful we are to you, but we would especially mention the ones who gave or offered their blood for the many transfusions, and the ones who visited him and us in the home and in the hospital, to the merchants of the city who so graciously closed their stores for the funeral services, and the many, many friends who spoke words of comfort to us and sent so many lovely flowers, cards and letters. We would especially mention Bro. W. H. Albertson, who proved himself a pastor indeed from the very beginning all through his illness, death and the burial. May God richly bless you in return for all that you have done for us.

Gratefully,
Mrs. J. B. Bowden

3 POINTS to look for in a WATER SYSTEM

ADEQUATE CAPACITY
When you choose a water system, be sure it will give you PLENTY of water for every purpose. It should supply enough to take care of peak loads, as well as regular demands. Insist on a system with ADEQUATE CAPACITY.

BUILT-IN RELIABILITY
Look for sound design and quality materials! These are the things that determine the true value of a water system—AND ASSURE you of reliability.

COST SAVING OVER THE YEARS
Don't let a CHEAP price fool you! A little more at the start will assure you many more years of trouble-free operation—with a minimum of repair costs. That means REAL cost saving.

MYERS
You Get All Three!

Myers Water Systems never "let you down" on any point. They operate economically and are popularly priced. Proved by over 20 years of service to thousands of homes and farms. Let us demonstrate the various types for you.

JUNIOR FETE SENIOS IN ANNUAL BANQUET

With a background beautifully decorated in patriotic and nautical designs the Junior class of Munday high school honored the Seniors with a banquet Friday night in the school auditorium.

The navy theme was carried out throughout the banquet, in which Dick Harrell, substituting for Ralph Tidwell, junior class president, who was unable to attend due to inclement weather, was toastmaster.

Favors of sailor caps which the guests donned before being seated, gave an added nautical spirit. Mint cups in the shape of sailboats, life saver programs in patriotic colors, candles, large sail ships and flowers made up the table decorations.

Plates were served to about 60 people, largely Juniors and Seniors, and some of the high school faculty, by sophomore girls dressed as sailors, serving. Weather conditions prevented others attending.

The auditorium was decorated as a large ship with navy designs on the stage, walls and railings, by the junior class under the direction of Mrs. Travis Jones, room mothers of the junior class aided in preparing and decorating the auditorium.

Mrs. Herman Reeves, high school English teacher, rendered a solo, the girls trio, composed of Polly Silman, Patsy Ruth Mitchell, and Mary Lois Beaty, sang two numbers. Dick Harrell, toastmaster, welcomed the seniors and was given a response by John Broach, senior president. A class prophecy, cleverly written and delivered by Allene Jungman, and a short talk by Supt. Colley concluded the entertainment for the evening.

MUNDAY STUDENTS GIVE TO BRITISH CHILDREN

The Munday elementary school contributed $4.30 to the Young America Wants to Help fund for the relief of British school children. The contest closed on May 2. Room 4B, taught by Mrs. Billy Cooper, led the list of rooms in amount, having to its credit $1.55. Although this seems like a small amount, our school is glad to have a part in this worthy cause.

The high school contributed $1.73 to the Young America Wants to Help campaign. A letter from Eugene McElvany, vice-president of the First National Bank in Dallas, who received the checks from the schools here states that he is deeply grateful for the fine response the young people made to the call for aid for the British children and extended since thanks for the contribution.

4B NEWS

Room 4B took a look into the work they have completed the past year under the direction of Mrs. Cooper. They have finished the state course of study in each subject. They have also finished units on Patriotism, food study, nature study and health study. They had a citizenship club which met once a week. The programs were given by each member in the room.

The room tried to keep a seasonal border above the blackboard. Sometimes they were cutouts and other times colored hectographs. Some of these included witches, cats and bats for Halloween; turkeys for Thanksgiving, stockings and poinsettia pot flowers for Christmas; vegetable men for January; valentines in February; tulips in March; Easter lilies in April; and May baskets in May.

Each child participated in the Patriotic program given by the room on Nov. 18. Each one also had a part in the P.T.A. carnival, the sale of T.B. Christmas seals, and the relief fund for the benefit of the British children.

The room enjoyed several birthday parties besides several lovely parties given by the room mothers.

4B feel that they have spent a very profitable year in school and that they have earned several months vacation.

Going Fishing
By Key Green

One day a little boy was going fishing where there were many fish. The boy caught a big fish. It was a catfish.

The boy got a pan and salt. He cooked his fish and ate it. Then he said, "Oh, what fun!"

The Yellow Cat
By Joyce McGraw

One time the Yellow Cat was playing in the yard. She got tired of her ball so she got something else to play with.

She found a doll with nice yellow hair. The cat played with the doll and was nice to her.

The next day the yellow cat played with the doll. She forgot to be nice to the doll. The doll began to cry, "Ma-Ma, Ma-Ma." A little girl came and took the doll away.

Then the Yellow Cat was very sad.

6th GRADE NEWS

Friday the Sixth Grade had final exams. My! How hard they tried! They all had their eyes on those popular Seventh Graders who are graduating. If the Sixth Graders keep up their good work they will be doing the same thing next year.

"This has been the shortest, most exciting school year I've ever spent," said one Sixth Grader. It has been, too. They are glad school is out! Oh Boy! Look out swimming pools. (But please make next September hurry!)

7A NEWS

7A went on their all-day picnic last Tuesday. They won this picnic for securing the most P.T.A. members. We met at the school building at 9 o'clock and went to the Seymour park.

At noon the room mothers, Mrs. Fred Broach, Mrs. Hollis Douglas, and Mrs. W. R. Mitchell served a picnic lunch of sandwiches, cookies and punch.

We certainly thank our room mothers for such a good time and wish to thank the following for furnishing us cars to go in: Mrs. Fred Broach, Dick Owens, Mrs. Lowe, Mrs. Mitchell and Mrs. Douglas.

7B NEWS

The Seventh grade is finishing up a successful year of hard work. Some have gained unusual honors in athletics, perfect attendance and scholastically. They are particularly proud of Evanel Gibbens and Bruce Dobs, Jr., for the perfect attendance records they have established. Neither of these students have missed a day of school since it started last September.

We are now looking forward to an all-day picnic, the seventh grade play, and finally, the goal of all grade school students, graduation, Friday 16 at 8:15 at the school auditorium.

ROOM 5B HAS ANNUAL PICNIC

Room 5B had its annual picnic last Friday afternoon at the city park. The room mothers, Mrs. Cecil Fitzgerald, Mrs. Layne Womble, and Mrs. Chas. Massie, were sponsors and furnished the room with plenty of refreshments. Leaving the building at 3:00 p.m., the children chose the city park as their destination. Although the regular picnic grounds was still too muddy, they selected the club house grounds for refreshments, and games such as "two deep," "flying Dutchman," and "football."

Everyone came home saying they had a wonderful time, and we wish to thank our room mothers for making this picnic such a grand success. We believe we have the best room mothers of any room in school.

We wish to congratulate the members of the Senior class upon the completion of your high school course. We would express our sincerest good wishes to each of you. May the years ahead be filled with joy and happiness, and may you be undergirded with power from above for all the tasks of life. Whether the journey is long or short may you run it with credit to yourself, to your school, to society, and to your Maker.

W. H. Albertson
County Treasurer and Mrs. R. V. Burton of Benjamin were business visitors here last Tuesday.

Miss Colleen McCarty, who is attending Texa Tech at Lubbock, and Stanley McCarty of Levelland spent the week end here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. McCarty.

boys were honored on this occasion for their fine service rendered the school during the year in making it safe for children in crossing the highway in front of the building. These boys certainly deserve praise and each citizen of Munday should make it a point to congratulate these boys for what they have meant to Munday youth.

The girls' ball team was honored for having won first place in the county interscholastic league.

Occasions like this make us more than glad to give these boys and girls recognition.

METHODIST CHURCH

Are you the one that we missed so much last Sunday? Perhaps you were out of town. You went to see Mother or Father or perhaps both. It no doubt was a happy occasion and you enjoyed it. We were glad with you that you could go and visit those dear friends and loved ones. But did you know that they want you to be loyal and faithful to God and the church. You made them happy on last Sunday by paying them a visit. Make them happy Sunday by attending the religious services in your church.

Sunday School, 10 a.m.
Young people's meeting, 7:15 p.m.
Evening worship, 8 p.m.
Rev. T. M. Johnston, district superintendent of the Stamford district, will preach at the evening service.

Preaching at 11 o'clock by Chas. W. Sargent. Evening song service at 7:45, preaching at 8:00 o'clock. Come and be with us.

But someone says, "What's the use of attending?" My friend, you need to read Heb. 10:24-25: "And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and good works; not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together as the manner of some; but exhorting one another and so much the more as ye see the day approaching."

Chas. Sargent.
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Green went to Stamford last Sunday morning to take their little daughter for medical treatment. The child has been suffering from an ear ailment for several days.

I GIVE YOU TEXAS

Here's the average woman:
 Marries at the age of 24.
 Quarrels at least twice a month with her husband.
 Spends four years washing dishes.
 Is five feet four inches tall.
 Spends 2,784 hours (five years) gossiping.
 Weighs 128 pounds—until she becomes careless of her figure.
 Spends $312 in beauty parlors and $387 in drug store cosmetics.
 Attends 3,027 movie matinees, many of them double features.
 Threatens at least eight times to go home to mother—but never does.
 Spends three years and eight months on the telephone.
 Never learns to play a golf game that satisfies her husband.
 Listens to 18 radio serials each week.
 Is positive that her child is better than the brat next door.
 Buys 369 hats and 582 dresses.
 Devotes the best seven years of her life to attempting to make her husband over—without success.
 Raises three fenders on the car and tears off one garage door.
 Occasionally wishes she'd married someone else.
 Lives five years longer than her husband.
 Never learns to drive a nail without hitting her thumb.
 And makes a darn good wife in spite of it all.—Found in the Sulphur Springs News-Telegram.

J. Frank Dobie has done it again—written a darn swell book, perhaps his best—to date. It's called "The Longhorns" and anyone who hereafter undertakes to write about that subject will be like Ruth, gleaming in the field after the reapers.

There are maturity, sureness of touch, and an easy mastery of words. Consider this, "Old Brindle opened his eyes, yawned, got up as deliberate as a ticket agent." Or this picture of a teamster pleading with an ox-team that had become mired. "He talked too them harder than a crap-shooter talking to his 'bones.'" Or this cameo "The days went by as slow as laboring oxen walk." And just one more nugget, the description of a man with a whip. "He curved the 15 feet of tapering plaited rawhide through the air—and the ringing crack made the sky brighter."

This man Dobie is a poet.
 Isn't it fine when days are cloudy,
 Most everything of somber hue;
 For one to hear a welcome 'Howdy!
 My old friend, How are you?"

When troubles comes without warning,
 And many worries gather about;
 Nothing helps like, "Good morning,
 You're looking fine, Old Scout!"

Another thing that cheers a fellow,
 And makes easy a long, hard way;
 Is just a friendly, cheery, "Hello,
 Why you grow younger every day."
 (Quoted from Tom Phillips Santa Rosa Signal.)

A reading of old newspapers, no matter of what period, will show that the city, the country or the world was upset about something.

It ran like this: The shipping clerk was making more money on stocks than the company president was making running the business, oil was selling at ten cents a barrel and being wastefully produced, stocks were crashing, Japan was ravishing Shanghai, and Germany was arming. Technocracy was the goblin one month and chain letters the siren of the next.

It wasn't imagination or calamity haunting. All those things were happening. They were affecting, did affect, and will affect our lives tremendously.

So we find a thought. And that thought is that if we wait to find a settled time in which to do something, we may wait out our three-score and ten years and die from shock on the last day from some new and startling development wholly unexpected. If you ever intend to build the dog a house, read a good biography, or learn to carve a turkey, you might as well get started. There's no use waiting for things to settle down. (Handed in by our good friend, Dick Brown of Dallas.)

In recent newspaper contests, the Alice Echo took first place in one division of South Texas newspapers and the Menard News was first in the other division and the Eagle Lake Headlight took second place honors; while the Mission Times was third in national competition. All these papers run "I Give You Texas." Could it just be a coincidence? Modesty forbids that I should discuss the subject further.

Mr. and Mrs. Riley B. Harrell and daughter, Joan, were visitors in Abilene over the week end.

Misses Delores and Dorothy Campbell visited relatives in Baird last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. McCord of Colorado City were visitors here last Sunday. They were accompanied home of Mrs. H. A. Pendleton Jr., of Wichita Falls, who is visiting there this week.

Mrs. Roy Cutbirth and daughter, Patsy, of Baird are visiting relatives here this week.

Miss Merle Dingus left last Sunday for Guyton, Oklahoma, where she is visiting her sister, Mrs. Clyde Longbotham, this week.

R. E. Humphries who is training in the air corps at San Angelo, was a visitor here over the week end.

Maurice Stapp, who is working in Wichita Falls, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Stapp, over the week end.

Just three more weeks remain for us to cram enough knowledge to make that "B" average. Will we do it? Well, that remains to be seen.

We are expecting a grand time this week end in the form of a banquet given by the Juniors. The banquet will be served in the auditorium while the dance which occurs after the banquet will be in the study hall.

We wish to express our extreme gratitude to all those who attended the program last Thursday night, which was made possible by Mrs. J. L. Clayton's volunteering to aid us in bringing the program. We hope that you enjoyed it and will come back again.

American Bible Society Publishes The Scriptures In 65 Languages

Four volumes of Scriptures every minute, day and night, for the last 125 years is the record of distribution made by the American Bible Society which celebrated its 125th anniversary recently.

The Bible Society began its work in 1816 in the upper room of the office of a printer on Nassau St. Today, from a six-story building on one of New York's busiest corners, the Society has grown to a national and international organization, conducts its activities thru 14 offices in the United States, and 32 foreign offices and distribution centers serving more than 40 countries.

Through all the busy years of expansion, the American Bible Society has held faithfully to its original purpose, to promote a wider circulation of the Holy Scriptures, without note or comment. This involves three processes, translation, publication and distribution of the Scriptures.

During this 125 years the Bible Society has been the sole publisher of the Scriptures in 65 languages in Asia, Africa, the Americas and the Pacific Islands. In addition to this, the Society has joined with other Bible Societies or published some text or format not otherwise obtainable, in 79 different languages and dialects. There are 93 more languages in which the Society has distributed Scriptures purchased from other publishers, making a total of 237 languages and dialects in which the Society has distributed God's Word. The record continues to grow, for there were in process of translation, at the end of 1940, New Testaments for the Quechua Indians of the Andes, Scriptures for other Indian tribes of Guatemala, for the more remote peoples of the Philippines, and for the Aymara Indians of Bolivia.

Printing the Scriptures

In order to provide Scriptures at a price that he can afford to pay and in the language he speaks, the Bible Society, from the beginning, has closely supervised the processes of production. The program of 1940 was a very active one. Several of the volumes were produced because of the war emergency. Special editions of New Testaments were ordered for the Army Navy and Air Force. For use in the Dutch East Indies, and for war prisoners in Europe and Canada, Gospels in the appropriate languages were printed.

Whenever there is a war, the Society's records show that there is an increased demand for the Holy Scriptures, and this held true during 1940. The number of New Testaments issued from the Bible House in New York, was the largest since 1921.

With the close of 1940 the Thailand Agency of the Society rounds out 50 years. It was a notable year because, in spite of war conditions and war prices, a reprinting of the entire Bible was completed. The Thai type has hitherto taken as much space for one line as the roman does for three, but the revised type, occupying far less space makes possible a much smaller book. With the publication of the Bible, a "pocket" size New Testament and single Scripture portions, the 50th year printing program in Thailand exceeded 12,000,000 pages.

Distributing the Book

1940 marked the completion of 40 years of the establishment of the Society's agency for work among the Negroes of the United States. It was, also, one of the largest in distribution of Scriptures to the Blind, a work the Society has been rendering since 1835. In addition to supplying embossed volumes in various systems, the Society distributes Scripture Talking Book records, for those unable to read any embossed system.

In the establishment of friendly neighbor relations to the south, the Bible can play a large part. The demand for more Scriptures from Latin America has echoed from every corner. The growth of the evangelical churches and their missionary activities, together with awakening spiritual desires, are factors in this situation.

In the face of widespread and mountainous obstacles, China's circulation for 1940 exceeded that of the year before. The hunger for Scriptures in China increases continually. To meet this situation the Bible Society took extreme measures. Matrices for printing plates were sent by air to West China. Trucks were purchased to carry large loads from the coast to the far interior. Some shipments went up the famous Burma Road. Others trickled into distant provinces by the steady and arduous operation of the Chinese Post Office. Mounting costs for printing materials and for transportation were only exceeded by the Society's determination that the Scriptures must get through.

The Great Bible Societies in Britain and on the Continent have before this carried on three-fourths of the missionary Scripture distribution throughout the world. Much of this work is at present cut off and the British Society is encountering increasing obstacles to a continuance of its usual service. The American Bible Society, in its historic 125th year, must expand its services beyond anything it has done in former years, to fill these yawning gaps.

Senior Report

The Senior class wishes to express its appreciation to each and every one who helped prepare the lovely banquet last Wednesday night. It was enjoyed by all and it will be treasured among the sweetest memoirs of the Seniors.

As you all know, this is our last week to attend Rhineland High School and nobody knows it better than the Seniors. We have enjoyed our association with the teachers and students, and our only regret is that we are leaving. We know we will miss the dear old R.H.S. and its teachers and students.

I wish to take this opportunity to thank each and every one who has helped me in writing this report. I have enjoyed being Senior reporter during the year.

The following Seniors will graduate on May 18, 1941:

- Genevieve Herring
- Geneva Wilde
- Cletus Wilde
- Richard Albus
- Albert Redder
- Florine Williamson

The following will give speeches at Commencement exercises:

- Genevieve Herring, Valetictory.
- Geneva Wilde, Salutatory.
- Florine Williamson, class history.

The Seniors have selected Preparedness is the Keynote to Success, for their motto.

Green and gold as their colors, and a rose as their flower.

Junior Report

Another school term is passing into history. The Juniors can look back to 1940-41 as a year of hard work. They have broken several records in attainment. Juniors, let us enjoy our vacation to the utmost so that when we meet again we shall be able to carry on as Seniors the good work we have done as Juniors.

Seniors, we have enjoyed your companionship. We regret that we must part as schoolmates, but we are glad that we still will have you as friends and neighbors. The Juniors have kidded you through the year, but we hope no hard feelings will remain. You know it was all in fun. We wish you all the luck and happiness this world can give you. Adios, Seniors!

Your Junior reporter has enjoyed his work during the past year. He has tried his best to do credit to this column. If he has in any way caused offense by his writings, he kindly asks you to forgive and forget. So, until we meet again, God be with you.

Sophomore News

The time has come when we are leaving the 9th grade forever. Our school closes Friday. Some of us are happy about it, but others are not.

We guess that the Seniors will feel lonesome for a while when they leave good old R.H.S. They won't only leave the school but also the good times they have had while attending school. Seniors, we wish you good luck. Don't forget us.

We hope that the Sophs will come back next year and be Juniors. Here we hope to be more successful.

Is It True That . . .

Bernardine enjoyed the banquet? (How come?)

Thereisa had a good partner? (Calvin, do you know anything about it?)

Weldon would make a good poet? Helen had a good time? (With whom?)

Mildred enjoyed her walk around the block with a certain Freshman?

Francis stayed home? (How come?)

Hoping to see you all next year. Sincerely,

The Sophomores

Freshman Report

Everyone is glad to see the end of school. We hope all will pass.

The last week will be easy for those who took the state exams, but for those who did not it will be hard.

We are very sad that we will have to part with the Seniors, but I guess that they feel the same way these last few days. Now we wish all the Seniors luck and success in their future life.

Room III Grade School

The last week of school is a very busy one, but we are glad as we are looking forward to the closing day. Everyone is studying hard for the final tests and we hope that all will pass. Reviews for most all lessons were started Monday.

Highest scholastic average for the year was made by Charles Albus. He will be awarded the prize for Room III during graduation exercises which take place Friday night, May 16.

Other high averages made were: Rose Marie Kuehler, second; Rose Mary Claus, third; Alvin Bellinghausen, fourth.

We Wonder Why—

Jack is always out of his seat. Cleo isn't so quiet.

Alvin was absent Thursday and Friday.

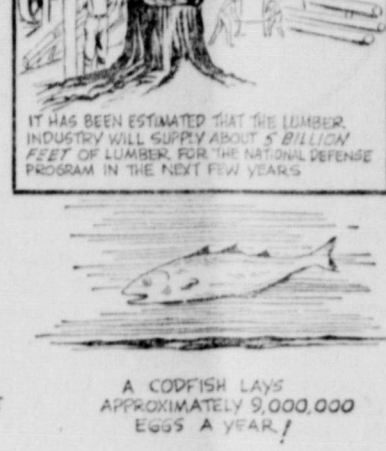

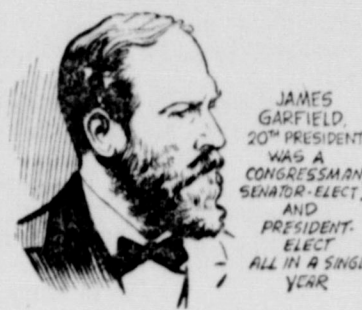

Rose Mary is so scared of her tests.

Magdalene likes to visit Cleo. (Is it because of a certain boy sitting behind her?)

News of Room IV

The honor roll of last month included Alvin Michalik, Clarence Stengel, Louis Urbanczyk, Mavin Zeissel, Chester Mayfield, La Verne Albus, Arlene Blaschke, Virginia Sue Chandler, Jewel Marie Hoffman and Margarita Jakubec.

The Black List has decreased to a great extent. We hope there won't be any on it this last month.

The following will not have to take their final examinations because they managed an average of 90 in all their subjects: Jewel Marie Hoffman, La Verne Albus, Arlene Blaschke, Virginia Sue Chandler, Margarita Jakubec, Clarence Stengel and Marvin Zeissel.

We were very proud of the grade school team for winning second place. They played a nice game. We really believe they could have beaten Benjamin if they hadn't lost confidence at the beginning of the game.

We Wonder Why

Louis brought some flowers to school, pretty bluebonnets, at that! Veronica makes such good grades in spelling. Keep improving!

Mrs. Kuehler brought so many beautiful roses to school. They really enhance the beauty of our room.

The boys wanted Marvin to take the part of "Long Hands" in a play we read in school last Monday. Does that fit you, Marvin?

It took Louis and Marvin so long to eat their breakfast.

Marvin came to school Monday morning with a wave in his hair. Is it natural?

Louis has been bringing his playthings to school. Growing younger?

Margarita and Robert were absent.

Mr. and Mrs. Lavoy Burton and daughter, Nancy visited Mrs. Burton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Rogers, and other relatives here last Sunday.

All Right! Move Out in the Yard!

BOB (roaring): "Who snatched the bulb from my lamp? I might as well move out in the yard!"

JANE (tearfully): "Go ahead! The yard light is better than the tiny bulbs you get. . . I had to have some light in the kitchen, didn't I? YOU took the kitchen bulb for the garage . . ."

WHY Quarrel Over Light?

MOST everyone does it at some time or other—and unnecessarily, because light is CHEAP in West Texas. A 100-watt Mazda bulb costs only 15c; a 150-watt bulb, 20c; and a 3-way 100-200-300-watt bulb, 60c. Avoid bulb-snatching quarrels and arguments about who's going to use the light by keeping an extra supply on hand.

And about the yard—make night-time your play-time with a new flood light that also protects the home. Ask for demonstration.

Stamford's Municipal Airport To Be Dedicated, Air Corps Training Ends

Stamford, Texas—A real, old-time western welcome awaits the private fliers and Army Air Corps officials when they gather in Stamford on Saturday and Sunday, May 17th and 18th, for the Plane Wrangler's round-up, a two-day program which will formally open the Army Air Corps Training Detachment and dedicate the new Stamford-Arling municipal airport.

Invitations to the affair have gone out to every flier in the Southwest whose name and address it was possible to get, and those who do not receive invitations through the mails are invited and urged to come on anyway and be guests of the Stamford Chamber of Commerce.

The new field is located five miles southeast of the city and consists of 400 acres of land, every foot of which is available for landing.

An Army Air Corps Training Detachment is now operating from the field, giving the first 60 hours of flight training to cadets. At the present time, the Air Corps is using fifty-two Stearman PT18 planes in which to train the 80-odd cadets stationed here.

The entire entertainment program will be quite informal, according to plans. Activities will start Saturday afternoon with a "get-together and smoker" for civilian fliers and Army and Air Corps officials.

An old-time chuck wagon feed for the visitors is to be given at the Texas Cowboy Reunion grounds at 7 o'clock, followed by a dance at the Roundup building at 8:30 o'clock. All the visiting airmen, both civilian and Army, will be guests of the Chamber of Commerce at these two affairs. Delegations from many towns in West Texas also have been invited to attend these functions.

Sunday afternoon's program at the new field is expected to attract several thousand West Texans. It will begin at 1:30 with a concert by an Army band from Camp Barkeley, Abilene. A flag and flagpole dedication service is scheduled at 2 o'clock in charge of state officials of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. Arthur D. Dodds of Dallas, now deputy chief of staff for the VFW and a former state commander of the organization, will deliver the dedicatory address. He will be assisted in the ceremonies by Jack Armstrong, Sweetwater, state liaison officer, and other members of the soldier organization from throughout the state. Members of the local American Legion post also will take part in the dedication.

The flagpole will be officially accepted by some high ranking officer in the Army Air Corps.

Following the flagpole ceremony all the buildings comprising the facilities of the Air Corps Training Detachment will be open for public inspection. Quite a number of Army planes of various types flown by Air Corps officers from Randolph and other training centers in the Southwest also will be here for the public to inspect.

A demonstration of Air Corps flight maneuvers is scheduled during the afternoon. This will include a showing of the various stages of flight training the Air Corps cadet goes through, and a demonstration of aerobatics, formation flying, etc.

The Sunday afternoon show will be something very unusual for West Texans, it was stated, and it will give the public an excellent idea of what the Air Corps is doing toward building up a formidable defense under the expansion program.

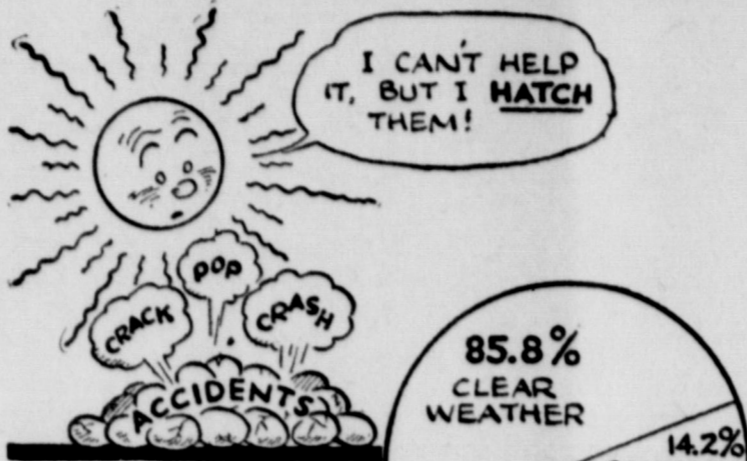

Mrs. Wade Mahan, Mrs. Jack Mayes and Mrs. Sebern Jones were visitors in Abilene last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Stapp visited relatives in Anson Sunday.

Mrs. P. V. Williams spent the week end in College Station, going there to attend the Mother's Day service at A. and M. College. Her son, Jack, is a senior student at A. and M.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Collins visited relatives in Jermyn, Texas, last Sunday.

Weather Note: Clear Today; Drive Safely

Accident analysts have about decided that "making hay while the sun shines" applies as much to garage repairmen as it does to farmers, since fine weather always produces a bumper crop of smashups.

Maybe it's because drivers make too much "hey-hey" when the sun shines!

At any rate, almost 86 per cent of all fatal motor crashes in 1940 occurred when the weather was clear. Only 2.1 per cent occurred during fog, 2.4 per cent during snow and 9.7 per cent when it was raining.

These pertinent facts are revealed in a booklet entitled "Here Today—" just published by The Travelers Insurance Company: as the eleventh in its annual series of analytical bulletins issued in the interest of street and highway safety.

The figures indicate that clear weather encourages speeding and recklessness. When snowy, rainy or foggy conditions cut visibility to a low point, drivers recognize the danger and drive accordingly. These conditions produce numerous minor mishaps, but fatalities and serious injuries are relatively infrequent.

Rhineland Wins Over Needmore Last Sunday

Displaying tremendous power and fielding superbly behind the one-hit flinger of Decker and Thomas, who collaborated on the mound, Rhineland turned back Needmore at Rhineland on Wednesday of last week, by the overwhelming count of 20-0.

Plainly deficient at important positions, particularly on the mound, was the contributing factor, which turned the battle into a rout for the winners. This, however, was due to some extent, to the fact that Needmore played minus the services of some of their better performers.

Leading the onslaught on a trio of Needmore tossers was Clem Wilde, stalwart defender of the initial sack, who with his 4 safeties accounted for 11 of the 20 runs. Montgomery, R. Kuehler, C. L. Wilde and Decker boosted their batting averages with 2 hits each.

Closing Date Of Cotton Stamp Plan is May 15

June 15 is the closing date for signing applications for cotton stamps, stated County Agent Walter Rice. Every cotton farmer in Knox county is eligible for $25 in cotton stamps if his cotton acreage is voluntarily reduced to earn this payment.

The payment is computed at the rate of 10 cents per pounds for adjusted yield per acre. On a farm with a yield of 150 pounds per acre, the farmer could earn a stamp payment of $15 per acre up to the $25 limit per farm family. The land taken out of cotton to qualify for the stamps may be planted to feed crops and sold or used on the farm.

Most retail dry goods stores will qualify to handle the cotton stamps when made available to the farmer. The surplus marketing administration is in charge of the cotton stamp program. The program was started in an effort to reduce the cotton surpluses on hand.

Knox county farmers should investigate the cotton stamp plan very carefully before declining to apply for the stamps.

Alabama became the first state with every acre of farm land in soil conservation districts—legally authorized farmer cooperatives for conservation.

Approximately a quarter of a million evergreens have been planted in the shelterbelts of Northwest Texas.

Floral Cotton

Flowered cottons are in the order of the day for summer wear. The National Cotton Council reports. This sheer cotton dress is one of a series featuring rose designs. The full bloom of the double climbing rose combines with the twining foliage in a small all-over pattern. Tiny pleated ruffles edge up the square neckline, sleeves and pockets while novelty buttons and belt pick up the gayest color in the design.

Mrs. Ora Collins and son, Dorse were visitors in Mineral Wells last Sunday.

STATE GETS FUNDS FROM TIMBER SALE

Sale of timber rights on four state-owned tracts in east Texas for a total of $1,997 was announced last week by Land Commissioner Bascom Giles. In addition, the state has received more than $10,000 by payment of delinquent interest on tracts on which the original owners exercised their rights to reinstate sales contracts after the timber sale was announced, Giles said.

MORE CARE NEEDED TO KEEP DOWN FIRES

Austin.—With the added out-of-doors activities of late spring and early summer, State Fire Insurance Commissioner Marvin Hall warned that camp fires should be completely extinguished after using, that lighted matches and burning cigarettes should not be discarded and that camping places and picnic grounds should be kept clean of loose paper and rubbish.

Commissioner Hall stressed the point that Texas' place as a tourist attraction could be jeopardized by forest fires. In one year in another state, discarded matches were responsible for $35,000,000 loss in forest fires in a single year.
